

Real Daughter 731

Chapter 731: Family Records

Seeing Sun Yun turn around, Mu Ning immediately hid the hint of jealousy in her eyes and said with a smile, "Grandma, you're so nice to me, but I'm just afraid that Huo Ge won't like me. After all, Huo Ge is the legitimate heir of the Huo Family and I'm just a child living in the Mu Family. I don't even have the right to enter the Mu Family's records. What if they despise me?"

Sun Yun frowned. "What nonsense are you talking about? You're a child brought up by your grandfather and me. Your surname is Mu. How can you not be a child of the Mu Family? Don't worry, when your parents come back for the Mid-Autumn Festival tomorrow, I'll definitely get them to bring you to the Mu Family's ancestral hall and get those elders to add you to the family records.

Mu Ning was overjoyed, but she said with a troubled expression, "Grandma, I know what Mom and Dad are thinking. Now that they've already found Sister, they probably won't be willing to add me under their name. Why don't we forget about this matter? I don't want Grandma to have tensions with Mom because of me."

Sun Yun's expression instantly turned ugly. "Who does Ye Wen think she is? Ah Ning, don't be afraid. Grandma will help you. Your father is my son. I don't believe that he won't listen to me. This time, I'll definitely add your name, Mu

Ning, to the Mu family's record."

Mu Ning hid the dark light in her eyes.

Regardless of whether Sun Yun could succeed this time, she would benefit.

If she succeeded, she would be the recognized daughter of the Mu Family.

Back then, when the old lady brought her back, no one knew. Even the elders of the family did not know her true identity. Many people were still guessing if she was Mu Cheng's illegitimate daughter outside, which was why she was raised by Sun Yun and Mu Kun.

The people outside did not even know about her existence. When the time came, she could use the family records as evidence and she would be the legitimate daughter of the Mu family. No one would know the truth.

Besides, the registered daughter of the Mu Family could be protected by the elders of the Mu Family and supported by some of the Mu Family's assets.

If she failed, it didn't matter. At that time, she believed that there would also be a conflict between Sun Yun and Mu Cheng and his wife. Then, it might not be so easy for Lin Yin to acknowledge her ancestors and return to the family.

Whatever she couldn't get, Lin Yin could also forget about getting it easily!

As for the Huo Family, she didn't want to explain. If she let Sun Yun misunderstand like this, when Sun Yun found out that the Huo Family was here to marry Lin Yin, she would definitely feel very uncomfortable. She probably wouldn't treat Lin Yin well either.

"Grandma, don't be angry. By the way, Mom and Dad are coming over tomorrow. I still have to go to the kitchen to get the chef to make some dishes that Mom and Dad like," Mu Ning said. However, after seeing Sun Yun's unhappy expression, she immediately continued, "Of course, the most important thing is still your favorite dishes, Grandma."

Sun Yun was in a good mood. None of her grandchildren were as considerate to her as Mu Ning.

As expected, the children she had to raise knew how to be grateful, unlike the few raised by Ye Wen. They were pure ingrates.

Mu Ran, who had been evaluated by Sun Yun as an ingrate, was walking around with Lin Yin in the supermarket.

Mu Ran said as he pushed the shopping cart, "Everything at home is prepared already, but Dad was afraid that you wouldn't be used to eating the old residence's food, so he asked me to accompany you out to buy something you like. When the time comes, we'll bring it to the old residence and get the chef there to make it for you."

"Why go through so much trouble? I'm not picky," Lin Yin said.

Lin Yin was happy to be able to go home with her family for the holidays. This time, her family sincerely welcomed her home during Mid-Autumn Festival.

In her previous life, when she was in the Su Family, it was always the Su Family who were happy and harmonious, while she sat alone at the side and watched the Su Family chat happily.

Therefore, Lin Yin cherished this reunion day very much.

However, at the thought of returning to the Mu Family's old residence for the holidays, Lin Yin felt a little conflicted.

There was a Grandma who did not like her in the old residence, Mu Ning who was eyeing her covetously and might attack her at any time, and a grandfather whose temper she did not know.

Therefore, in Lin Yin's opinion, this Mid-Autumn Festival banquet might not go so smoothly.

Seeing that Lin Yin was not in a good mood, Mu Ran asked with concern, "Are you worried about returning to the old residence for the holidays tomorrow?"

Lin Yin smiled and said, "I can't hide anything from you.."

Chapter 732: Seafood Gift

Mu Ran straightened up and smiled as he gently pinched Lin Yin's little face. He said in an extremely doting tone, "You're my sister, so I naturally know what you're thinking. Of course, it's also because you're not as guarded against me as before."

Lin Yin pulled Mu Ran's hand down and asked with a smile, "I didn't guard against you in the past."

Mu Ran shook her head. "It's different. In the past, you kept a lot of your emotions in your heart and didn't trust anyone. But now, you won't restrain your emotions in front of your brother. Yinyin, I'm very happy. This proves that you rely on me. It's right for a younger sister to rely on her older brother. Little Yinyin, you have to continue to maintain it!"

As Mu Ran spoke, he used his other hand to pinch Lin Yin's cheek. His doting and intimate look was captured by a camera not far away.

The two of them, who were still fooling around, were completely unaware of this.

At this moment, Lin Yin received a message from Wei Ji on her cell phone. The Wei family had already sent the gift Wei Ming had mentioned to Lin Yin. Wei Ji asked Lin Yin to tell him the exact house number and get someone to send it up.

Lin Yin frowned at the photo Wei Ji had sent. There were two full freezers, and Wei Ji had even attached a gift list.

Lin Yin muttered, "What a ridiculous gift! Two refrigerators?"

Mu Ran frowned and asked, "What two refrigerators?"

Lin Yin had a headache. Then, she held her phone and read slowly, "To be precise, it should be two huge freezers. Wei Ming got someone to send me two freezers of seafood. Five salmon, five mackerel, five boxes of big slipper lobsters, ten boxes of sea cucumbers, ten live turtles, ten wild big yellow croakers, king crabs, lobsters, and so on. The Wei Family just came with the freezers and are already waiting downstairs in my apartment."

Mu Ran glanced at the gift list in Lin Yin's hand and said unhappily, "What does Old Master Wei mean? Why is he only giving you gifts? He doesn't have any motive, right?"

It was not that Mu Ran was thinking too much. The relationship between the Wei family and the Mu family was only faint. They had been interacting around more recently because Ning Sheng had made a gown for Lin Yin, who had yet to return to the Mu family. Coupled with the fact that Ye Wen was sober, their relationship was better than before.

However, the relationship between Ye Wen and Ning Sheng had nothing to do with Wei Ming. Therefore, in Mu Ran's opinion, Wei Ming wouldn't do anything unless it benefitted him. He must have ulterior motives for Lin Yin to give her a gift.

Lin Yin shook her head. "I don't know either. Maybe it's because Wei Ji and I are classmates?"

"Didn't Wei Ming never value Wei Ji as a grandson? Why would he give you a gift just because you're Wei Ji's classmate?" Mu Ran said in disbelief. "Yinyin, listen to your third brother. Don't interact with the Wei family in the future.

That family is a mess."

Lin Yin nodded. She naturally knew the Wei family's situation very well.

Otherwise, she wouldn't have been worried that Wei Ji would be bullied by the Wei family and wanted to help him.

However, she still did not want to tell Mu Ran about these things. She did not want Mu Ran to worry.

On the other hand, Mu Ran looked at Lin Yin and nodded before saying, "It's better not to accept the Wei Family's things. Otherwise, that old man will have designs on you. Just return them."

Lin Yin nodded obediently. However, she had already agreed to accept it at the Wei Family and had even given four bodyguards as a gift in return. It was not appropriate for her to reject it now, so she could only give Zhang Ling's address to Wei Ji and ask him to send those people directly to Zhang Ling for him to deal with.

Wei Ji felt a little regretful that he could not enter Lin Yin's place further. He sighed resentfully.

Wei Ji did not know why his grandfather insisted that he come to give her a gift, but he was still willing to interact with Lin Yin more. He did not expect that Lin Yin was not around at all and did not even accept the gift personally. Lin Yin arranged a gift for the Wei Family and continued shopping with Mu Ran.

Perhaps he was angry with the Wei Family's gift list, Mu Ran brought back a lot of seafood. As Lin Yin persuaded him, she was caught between laughter and tears and shook her head. Who would have thought that this globally acclaimed actor would have such a childish personality?

Lin Yin smiled and suddenly felt as if someone was following her. Lin Yin quickly looked in the direction where something was wrong, but there was no one.

But Lin Yin had always trusted her instincts. She felt that someone was definitely following her and Mu Ran..

Chapter 733: Stalked

Lin Yin looked at Mu Ran, who was still wearing a hat and mask. This made Lin Yin feel a little relieved. Then, she pulled Mu Ran and said, "Brother Mu Ran, it's about time. Let's go back."

Mu Ran nodded and pushed the two shopping carts with difficulty. Lin Yin smiled and said, "Let me push one."

Mu Ran immediately refused. "How can I let my sister do manual labor when I'm here? You don't have to do it. I can do it. Your brother is Hercules!"

Lin Yin laughed as she watched Mu Ran use all his strength to maintain the two shopping carts that were piled as high as him.

When they returned to the Mu family, Ye Wen was still wondering why Mu Ran had bought a bunch of seafood.

Mu Ran said indignantly, "Of course we have to buy more. Girls have to be raised rich. We can't let Yinyin be bribed by some stupid gift."

Ye Wen looked at Mu Ran's gritted teeth in amusement. Then, she pulled Lin Yin into the house and said, "I just got someone to bring you a few clothes. You can wear them to the old residence tomorrow. It will definitely be festive."

Mu Ran had just moved the things into the house when a black shadow appeared in a corner not far from the Mu family's door. Then, that person sent all the photos to the employer.

When Yue Han received the photo, his eyes were filled with confusion. He muttered, "Could it be that the Mu family really likes Lin Yin as their daughter-in-law?"

In the photo, Mu Ran personally picked Lin Yin up and went to the supermarket with her. The two of them were still so intimate. Could it be that they had settled on the third son of the Mu family, Mu Ran? Looking at Ye Wen's happy and intimate expression in the photo, she must be quite satisfied with Lin Yin."

When Lin Yin was still in the Su Family, hadn't she always been close to Lu Ming? Could it be that between Lu Ming and Mu Ran, Lin Yin gave up on Lu Ming and chose Mu Ran?

If that was the case, Yue Han suddenly wanted to call Lu Ming and ask him how it felt to be abandoned.

However, if he really angered Lu Ming, he might not have a good time next. Forget it, he should deal with Lin Yin, this brat who actually dared to ruin the marriage between the Yue and Gong families.

Today, he received an anonymous message saying that Lin Yin had planned to destroy their Yue Family's project. Later, she informed the Gong Family that the project could not continue, causing the marriage between the two families to be delayed and fail.

If the marriage between the two families had not failed, Yue Chi would not have done something so despicable like sleeping with Gong Han. Naturally, he would not have slept with Gong Han.

Although he felt good that night with Gong Han, it did not mean that the Yue Family would suffer for nothing.

If Lin Yin had the guts to provoke the Yue Family, she had to be prepared for the Yue Family to take revenge. Even if Lin Yin had the Mu Family as her backing, she could not withstand the sneak attack.

The corners of Yue Han's lips curled up slightly. Just as he put down his phone, there was a soft knock on the door. Yue Han knew who it was immediately from the rhythm.

"Come in!" Yue Han shouted. Then, the door was pushed open and someone entered. It was indeed Gong Han, who was carrying a box of something.

"What did you bring me today?" Yue Han's tone was calm, but there was a hint of gentleness. His attitude towards a woman who was about to become his wife was naturally different.

"Some Chinese desserts, mainly osmanthus pastries. It's autumn, and it's a good time to taste osmanthus, so my family imitated an ancient recipe and made some for you and your family to try." Gong Han had a faint smile on her lips. Her voice was soft at times and strong at other times, and it sounded very comfortable.

Gong Han placed the exquisite desserts on the table. Her actions were the same as her voice, gentle but without any unnecessary movements. They were smooth and pleasing to the eye.

Yue Han looked at the scene in front of him with enjoyment. Before Gong Han could take out everything, a few coughs that seemed to be filled with dissatisfaction came from the door.

“Hello, Brother.” Gong Han only slowly turned to look at the door and called out softly. Then, she turned her head back and continued to take out the remaining two plates of pastries.

Seeing that Gong Han clearly did not care about him, Yue Chi was so angry that he went forward and stood in front of Gong Han, causing her to look up in shock and ask, “What’s wrong?”

Yue Han understood his brother’s awkwardness. Gong Han was someone he had personally chosen to be Yue Chi’s wife, but his wife became his sister-in-law. It would be strange if Yue Chi was not awkward.

Therefore, before Yue Chi could speak, Yue Han said in time, “You’re not young anymore, but you’re still so greedy. When you saw your sister-in-law bring delicious food, you followed the smell in.. “

Chapter 734: Choking

Yue Han specially emphasized the term “sister-in-law”, making it even more ear-piercing to Yue Chi.

If it weren’t for Lin Yin, that dog who ruined his plans, he wouldn’t have to face such an embarrassing matter.

However, the two families had inexplicably said that they wanted the engaged couple to interact with each other and nurture their relationship. Was there a need to nurture their relationship? The two of them were so close that they had slept together!

Yue Han stood up and walked around the desk to Gong Han’s side. He smiled and said, “Stop standing. Sit down. Yue Chi, since you’re here, let’s try it together.”

Yue Chi did not know what was wrong with him. He clearly hated to see Gong Han's annoying face. He clearly hated that such a mediocre woman had touched such an outstanding brother of his, but he inexplicably did not want to leave now. Hence, he sat beside Yue Han angrily, opposite Gong Han.

Gong Han seemed to not understand the resentful expression on Yue Chi's face.

She picked up an osmanthus pastry with a smile and handed it to Yue Chi. "Brother, try this. This osmanthus pastry is not bad. It's sweet but not greasy. It's very suitable for autumn."

"You're not allowed to call me brother," Yue Chi said in disgust, his expression fierce.

Gong Han was stunned for a moment before she probed, "Then I'll call you brother-in-law?"

"You're not allowed to say that either!" Yue Chi looked like an unreasonable child.

Yue Han glanced at Yue Chi and said with a faint but dignified tone, "Alright. How old are you? You are still so rude. Stop fooling around!"

Yue Chi was so angry that he reached out and snatched the osmanthus pastry from Gong Han's hand, stuffing it into his mouth.

Gong Han was shocked and shouted anxiously, "You'll choke!"

However, just as she finished shouting, Yue Chi's entire face turned red and he kept coughing.

Gong Han anxiously picked up the teapot at the side and filled a cup. She quickly handed it to Yue Chi and said anxiously, "Hurry up and drink water."

At this moment, Yue Chi would not care about the conflict between the two of them. He hurriedly poured water into his mouth and drank a few cups of tea before Yue Chi recovered.

The moment Yue Chi recovered, he immediately questioned Gong Han, "Gong Han, are you deliberately messing with me because you don't like me? Let me tell you, if it weren't for me, you wouldn't have been able to marry my brother!"

Yue Han narrowed his eyes, while Gong Han frowned at Yue Chi and asked, "So, you were the one who drugged me that day, right? Otherwise, why would I dislike you for no reason?"

Yue Chi was stunned.

Everything that had happened that day had been smoothed out. No one else knew.

However, as the person involved, how could Gong Han not know that there was something wrong with her body? It was just that Gong Han had no evidence to prove that the abnormality in her body was caused by Yue Chi.

Hence, everyone turned a blind eye and pretended to be confused. Even Gong Han herself was like this.

"Yue Chi, you should go back!" Yue Han said coldly.

Yue Chi also wanted to avoid Gong Han's question, so he left dejectedly.

"That matter was an accident. Don't ask again in the future. Since we've already become a fact, I'll treat you well. This is the best ending, isn't it?" Yue Han looked at Gong Han, who was slowly lowering her head, and said with a gentle tone. However, what he said still made it difficult for Gong Han to resolve the knot in her heart.

After a while, the corners of Gong Han's lips curled up slightly. She looked up, her eyes filled with emotions that Yue Han could not see clearly. She said softly, "Alright, I understand."

For some reason, Yue Han felt inexplicably annoyed when he suddenly saw such an obedient Gong Han.

He had seen Gong Han's eloquent and confident expression during class. There was still a difference from this person in front of him who only agreed to everything he said.

Although he had once wanted to find an obedient partner, he still felt uncomfortable seeing Gong Han like that.

Yue Han also lost interest and said, "I'll get Dad to try your pastries later. It's getting late. I'll get the chauffeur to send you back."

Gong Han nodded and stood up to walk obediently to the door. Even after Gong Han left the Yue Family, the frustration in Yue Han's heart did not dissipate for a long time.

When he got up and went out, he saw that Yue Xi was not in a good mood either. Only then did Yue Han remember that Yue Xi had said in the morning that he was going to the mountain to pick up his mother and they would celebrate the holidays together tomorrow.

Now that he saw Yue Xi's dejected appearance, he probably did not bring her back..

Chapter 735: Returning to the Mu Family's Old Manor

"Mom isn't coming back again?" Yue Han asked with a hint of disappointment.

Ever since Liu Shuang went to the nunnery in the mountains 18 years ago, she had never come down. She did not even come back for the New Year or the holidays.

Yue Xi nodded dejectedly. "But she said that she would come back to give you her blessings on the day of your engagement."

Yue Han pondered for a moment. "It's quite tiring to travel for a long time. Dad, wash up and rest early."

Yue Xi only responded in a low voice before turning to leave. His back looked dejected and hunched, making one's heart ache.

Yue Han did not know what had happened between his parents. The two of them, who had originally treated each other with respect, suddenly stopped interacting eighteen years ago.

Sighing slightly, Yue Han walked towards Yue Chi's room. He was getting engaged at the end of this month, so he had to talk to Yue Chi about getting along with Gong Han in the future.

Even if Yue Chi was his most beloved younger brother, he couldn't be so rude. Otherwise, it would be messy.

Knowing Yue Han's intentions, Yue Chi frowned and questioned angrily and sadly, "So Brother, you have a wife and don't care about your brother's life and death? Then do I have to give in to her in the future?"

Yue Han held his forehead helplessly and said, "Why wouldn't I care about you? I didn't say that you had to give in to her. With Gong Han's personality, as long as you don't provoke her, she definitely won't take the initiative to provoke you."

"Brother! How long have you been with her? How do you know that she won't take the initiative to cause trouble? Women nowadays are all very pretentious. Some of those women can pretend for several years in order to marry into a rich family. You don't know how low the bottom line of those women outside is in order to please me," Yue Chi said unhappily.

Yue Han's voice deepened. "Gong Han is different from those women you play with outside. She's going to become a member of our Yue Family in the future. I don't want to hear such a comparison from you again."

Yue Chi looked at his brother angrily, but Yue Han only said coldly, "I'm just here to inform you about this. If you can't do it, don't blame me for being merciless."

Hearing that his brother was going to be merciless to him for that woman who had yet to enter the family, Yue Chi felt extremely aggrieved.

When he was very young, his mother suddenly went up the mountain to cultivate. From then on, she never left the mountain. His father was very busy when he was young, so the person who had been accompanying him growing up was his brother who was four years older.

He did not expect that his wife would disappear just like that and he would even lose his brother.

Yue Chi was so angry that his eyes turned red. He stood up and walked out.

“Where are you going?!” Yue Han questioned loudly.

Yue Chi said without turning his head, “You’ve already told me that you’ll be merciless. I’ll get lost myself, lest I get beaten to death by you.”

With that, Yue Chi left angrily without waiting for Yue Han to speak.

Yue Han had a headache. Then, he got someone to follow this troublemaker of a younger brother.

The next afternoon, Mu Cheng and his wife brought the four children to the Mu Family’s old residence.

This was the only time in the past 18 years that the Mu Family returned to the Mu Family’s old residence neatly for the Mid-Autumn Festival. The family was exceptionally happy.

The butler of the old residence was already waiting at the door with his men. When he saw that so many people from the Mu family had returned, he was very happy and went forward enthusiastically to help carry the things.

When the family entered the house, they saw Sun Yun sitting in the hall.

Mu Cheng went forward and asked with a smile, “Mom, we’re back! Where’s Dad?"

Only then did Sun Yun look up at the family of six in front of her and say sourly, "Why? Is it not enough to see me? Do you need your father to welcome you personally?"

As Sun Yun spoke, she looked at Ye Wen unkindly. Then, at Ye Wen's children, especially Lin Yin.

The clear sense of disdain was so strong that Lin Yin could feel it without needing to feel it with her heart.

Mu Cheng smiled and said, "Mom, what are you talking about? I just asking casually."

After Mu Cheng finished speaking, he called the family to put their things into the room.

Although the Mu family did not live in the old residence, they had rooms here.

However, before Mu Cheng and the others could go upstairs, Sun Yun slowly said, "I've let Mu Ning stay in Mu Tian's room. Don't go in and touch anything."

Sun Yun's words instantly dissatisfied Mu Cheng and his family.. Mu Ran frowned and said, "Grandma, aren't you going a little overboard? Didn't we agree not to let anyone touch Yinyin's room?"

Chapter 736: Argument

"Why would we keep a room for someone who we don't even know will come back? Even if the Mu Family is big and powerful, we still have to pay attention to rational distribution, right?" Sun Yun said calmly.

Mu Ran was about to rush over and argue with Sun Yun when Mu Heng quickly pulled Mu Ran back to prevent a direct conflict between Mu Ran and Sun Yun.

“Dad, Mom, Brother, what are you guys doing standing here?” Mu Ning asked curiously.

Mu Ran turned around and glared at Mu Ning. “What are we doing? You occupied Yinyin’s room. Why are you still asking us?”

It was only then that Mu Ning seemed to see Lin Yin standing at the side. She said with an aggrieved expression, “Is that so? I’m sorry, Sister. That’s what I thought. No one lived in Sister’s room for a long time. I was afraid that it wouldn’t feel lively, so I begged Grandma to let me stay in it for a while to increase the liveliness. If Sister minds, I’ll move out immediately.”

Lin Yin did not say anything, but Ye Wen looked at Mu Ning steadily and smiled. “Alright, go and move now.

Such a straightforward response shocked Mu Ning. She did not expect Ye Wen to be so bold.

Before Mu Ning could speak, Sun Yun immediately stood up for her and said,

“Ye Wen, are you letting your daughter do whatever she wants in our Mu Family the first time she comes back? Let me tell you bluntly. I was the one who made the decision to let Mu Ning move in. If Lin Yin can’t get used to it, she can get lost from our Mu Family now. I don’t believe I can’t deal with a wild girl who was raised outside.”

“Mom! Since Mu Ning said that she wants to move out, what are you insisting on? Mu Ning already has her own room. Why do you have to do this?” Mu Cheng frowned and said unhappily.

Mu Cheng really did not know what kind of deep hatred Sun Yun and Lin Yin had for her to dislike Lin Yin so much.

She was clearly so nice to this Mu Ning who was not related by blood, but why was she so dissatisfied with Lin Yin?

Seeing that Mu Cheng was also speaking up for Lin Yin, Sun Yun couldn't help but be angry.

Mu Ning said aggrievedly, "Dad, I didn't consider this matter carefully. I just want Sister's room to be more lively. I'll move immediately. Don't quarrel with Grandma anymore. Grandma's health hasn't been good recently. If she gets too angry all of a sudden, your heart will ache."

When Mu Ning said that, Sun Yun really held her chest and collapsed on the sofa. She shouted intermittently, "Aiyo, my head hurts. My heart hurts! I've raised my son for decades, but in the end, I raised an unfilial son who actually wants to anger his mother to death!"

Mu Ning quickly went up to support Sun Yun. Her heart ached she comforted Sun Yun and persuaded her gently.

Mu Xiao sighed helplessly and said, "Grandma, I've recently learned acupuncture that specializes in treating headaches and heartache. Why don't I use a few needles to test it out? You don't have to worry. It's just a ten-centimeter needle. It won't hurt."

As Mu Xiao spoke, he was about to get the needle.

Sun Yun quickly held her forehead and said, "I think I'm better. There's no need. It's hard on you to be so filial. You're different from your heartless father."

Mu Cheng sighed heavily and looked at Ye Wen, whose expression was terrifyingly dark. She immediately said to Mu Ning, "Mu Ning, go do your own things. It'll be faster for you to pack your own things."

Mu Ning nodded and was about to leave when Sun Yun grabbed her tightly. "Ah Ning, help Grandma to her room to rest."

Ye Wen, who had been standing at the side and watching, said coldly, "Ah Ning, your Grandma's health isn't good. Just help her back. I'll help you move your things! " “Ye Wen, how dare you!” Sun Yun looked at Ye Wen and said angrily.

Mu Xiao immediately went forward and helped Sun Yun up. “Grandma, you’re not in good health, so don’t work on such things. Come, Mu Ning, follow me and help Grandma in to rest first. Otherwise, Grandma might not even be able to eat dinner later.”

Sun Yun was pulled away by Mu Xiao. Ye Wen stuffed the things in her hand into Mu Cheng’s hand, rolled up her sleeves, and pulled Lin Yin upstairs.

As soon as she entered and saw that the room that she had once prepared for Lin Yin was occupied by someone else, Ye Wen was furious.

As soon as Mu Cheng entered the room, he could feel Ye Wen’s burning anger..

Chapter 737: Upbringing

Ye Wen turned to look at Mu Cheng. She wanted to argue, but when she saw Lin Yin, she held it in. Forget it, she would argue when Lin Yin was not around tonight.

Ye Wen had a deep impression of this room. She knew very well what they had bought for Lin Yin back then, so when she saw anything that did not belong to Lin Yin, she asked Mu Cheng to move it out.

Mu Heng and Mu Ran wanted to come in to help, but they were chased out by Ye Wen, afraid that the two of them would come in and cause trouble.

Ye Wen was swift and decisive. In a few moves, she cleared the room of things that did not belong to Lin Yin.

Seeing that the room had returned to the way she remembered, Ye Wen was a little satisfied. She pulled Lin Yin into the room and told her about interesting things that happened in the past happily.

As soon as Mu Ning returned to her room and saw what Ye Wen had cleaned up, she sneered in her heart.

Although Ye Wen had asked the servants to help her tidy up, it could not offset the resentment in Mu Ning's heart towards Ye Wen.

It was the Mu Family who carried her back, so the Mu Family had to be responsible for her life and give her all the benefits.

Therefore, Mu Ning was naturally dissatisfied with Ye Wen's bullying.

However, it did not matter. Ye Wen's actions would eventually become retribution on her daughter. She could not touch Ye Wen, but she could let others touch Lin Yin.

Mu Ning smiled and slowly packed her things. It was not until it time for dinner that Mu Ning thoughtfully helped Sun Yun appear in the dining room.

Mu Cheng and his wife instructed the chef in the kitchen. At this moment, only the three Mu brothers and Lin Yin were sitting in the dining room.

Meeting Lin Yin's gaze, Sun Yun snorted coldly and said sarcastically, "You don't even know how to greet your elders. I wonder what kind of upbringing you had."

Mu Heng defended Lin Yin calmly. "Grandma, we're all family. There's no need to be so polite."

Sun Yun looked at Mu Heng angrily. "Why? Did your mother raise you like this?"

Mu Ran said faintly, "Grandma, you're wrong. To be precise, Dad raised the three of us. He taught us this. Dad was taught by Grandma, so we can be considered to have been raised by you. Grandma, you said that we're ill-bred, so you're saying that there's a problem with your own upbringing, right?"

“You!” Sun Yun glared at Mu Ran, but she did not know what to say to refute.

Mu Ning quickly supported Sun Yun, but her gaze landed on Lin Yin. She said worriedly, “Sister, Grandma’s health isn’t good. Why don’t you persuade your brothers not to make Grandma fall sick from anger because of you? It won’t be good if that happens. Filial piety is the priority for us. Grandma worked hard to raise Dad. As her children, what’s wrong with giving in to Grandma? Besides, Grandma just said that it’s for your own good. In the past, Grandma raised me like this.”

“Shut up!” Mu Ran shouted. “Mu Ning, you have no right to speak here. Who are you to dare lecture my sister?”

“What are you arguing about!” A loud shout sounded, and the dining room instantly fell silent.

Mu Kun entered the cafeteria with a dark expression and scolded, “It’s not easy for our family to have a meal together. Are you so impatient?”

As Mu Kun spoke, he looked at Sun Yun warningly. Sun Yun was so angry that she sat in her seat and did not speak.

However, from the looks of it, Lin Yin’s personality was indeed a little cold.

When he appeared just now, Lin Yin only looked up and didn’t say anything. She really didn’t know the rules.

When she returned to the Mu family, they would still have to find someone to teach her the rules so that she would not embarrass the Mu family.

When Mu Cheng and his wife returned, they also felt that the atmosphere was different. When they saw Sun Yun, the two of them were no longer surprised. The people below began to serve the dishes slowly. With Mu Kun’s permission, everyone began to eat.

Sun Yun looked at Lin Yin from time to time. While everyone was eating silently, Sun Yun said in a low voice, "Ah Ning, Grandma taught you before how to sit during meals.. Where should you hold the chopsticks? When you drink soup, what do you do with the solids in the soup? How do you put the spoon?"

Chapter 738: Etiquette at the Dining Table

Mu Ning replied obediently, "When eating, you have to sit on a third of the chair. The chopsticks have to be held at two-thirds the length, or it won't look good. When there's something in the soup, you have to swallow it after chewing, or you will look anxious and indecent. Don't put the spoon backwards. That's what you do during the sacrifice.

Sun Yun nodded and said with admiration, "You still remember the dining etiquette. Not bad. Our Mu family is not casual. Some rules and etiquette are elegant arts that ordinary families can't learn in their lives."

Although Sun Yun did not name anyone, everyone knew very well whom Sun Yun was referring to.

Ye Wen glanced at Lin Yin, who had a calm gaze. Lin Yin was not angry, but Ye Wen put down her chopsticks angrily.

The others instantly lost their appetite. They wanted to bring Lin Yin back to reunite, not let her suffer all kinds of criticism.

Lin Yin did not react. She had long expected such a thing.

In her previous life, when she arrived at the Su Family, she was also mocked. Later on, in order to please Chu Yun, she wanted to register for an advanced etiquette class, but this matter was left unsettled.

She was much more at ease now that she had encountered such a thing in this life.

Lin Yin didn't say anything and just continued eating. There was no need for her to stop for someone who didn't like her.

Mu Ran slammed his chopsticks on the table and leaned against the back of the chair in a roguish manner, sitting on the entire chair tightly. He even deliberately turned the spoon back and smiled. "What lousy rules and etiquette? It can still be called elegant art. Grandma, if you can't stand me eating, you can name and shame me. I'll leave immediately!"

In order to show that Sun Yun was talking about him, Mu Ran picked up the soup bowl at the side and slurped it. He ate without chewing at all. After drinking it, he said with a satisfied expression, "There are only things in this soup that don't need to be chewed. What's there to chew? How troublesome!"

Mu Xiao also silently held the tip of his chopsticks and smiled. "Actually, I think it's quite easy to pick up food with the tip of the chopsticks. It's just to fill my stomach. There's no need to be too serious."

Sun Yun was really angry. She pointed at Ye Wen and scolded angrily, "Look at the children you gave birth to. They have bad habits in their bones. I don't know if it's because of their genes, but they don't follow any rules! You've made the good Mu Family so foul."

After suffering from the loss just now, Sun Yun did not dare to say anything about Lin Yin's upbringing. This would be directly talking about Ye Wen's genetic problems.

Mu Cheng said in a low voice, "Mom! Can't you say less and let everyone have a good reunion meal?"

Sun Yun slammed his chopsticks on the table. "There can't be anything without rules. In some things, compromising once will mean you have to compromise every time. Without etiquette, there's no difference to a vulgar villager. If outsiders find out, won't they laugh at our Mu Family for being ill-bred and indulgent of the younger generation?"

Lin Yin put down the chopsticks in her hand and smiled at Sun Yun. "Since Old Madam Mu doesn't welcome a vulgar person like me, I'd better leave."

With that, Lin Yin stood up and prepared to leave.

Mu Ran stood up at the same time as Lin Yin. This atmosphere was simply too annoying. He would rather go out to eat at a roadside stall with Lin Yin than continue to be bullied inside.

Ye Wen stood up anxiously and pulled Lin Yin back. She seemed to want to leave with Lin Yin.

Mu Kun frowned and finally said, "Sit down! It's just a family banquet. There's no need for so many rules and etiquette. Just be comfortable."

"Mu Kun, what do you mean? You got someone to teach me these etiquettes back then. A total of eight teachers surrounded me and taught me. In the end, you're just telling me to do whatever's comfortable now?" Sun Yun looked at Mu Kun with wide eyes.

Back then, Sun Yun was the only daughter of the family, so she was raised by her parents and was a little arrogant. She did not know what etiquette was at all.

Later on, when she married into the Mu Family, she was scolded by the elders of the Mu Family. Mu Kun hired eight etiquette teachers and made her learn for nearly half a year, almost driving her crazy.

In the end, Mu Kun actually said such words in front of everyone. This made Sun Yun feel uncomfortable.

Faced with Sun Yun's question, Mu Kun only said calmly, "There are some rules that you have to learn as the mistress of the Mu family."

Sun Yun was so angry that her fingers trembled a few times. Mu Ning quickly calmed Sun Yun down and said worriedly, "Grandma, don't be angry. Your body won't be able to take it.."

Chapter 739: Family Records

Sun Yun finally calmed down.

Mu Cheng had already pulled Lin Yin and his wife back to their seats.

Everyone was a little taciturn during the meal. The atmosphere was indescribably solemn.

“Since we’ve already done the paternity test, Mu Cheng, find a time and set a good day for Lin Yin to come back and acknowledge her roots and ancestors and officially change her name. It’s outrageous for a child of the Mu family to wander outside with someone else’s surname. Also, she was lost early back then and hasn’t been recorded in the family records. We can record it together this time. I’ll find a few etiquette teachers to teach Lin Yin later,” Mu Kun suddenly said.

Lin Yin put down her chopsticks and her gaze landed on Mu Kun. She smiled and said, “I’m sorry, Old Master Mu. I’m used to being lazy and I’m really not suitable for the rules and etiquette of your Mu family, so you don’t have to trouble yourself to open up the ancestral hall or get someone to teach me etiquette.”

Mu Kun did not expect Lin Yin to reject him. He was a little stunned and could not understand what Lin Yin was thinking.

The Mu Family was one of the top three families among the eight great families. Shouldn’t Lin Yin be excited and respectful to be able to enter such a family?

Sun Yun, who was at the side, could not stand Lin Yin looking down on the Mu

Family. She sneered and said, “Looks like you still know your place. The Mu Family is not a place you can enter just because you want to.”

As Sun Yun spoke, she quickly pulled Mu Ning aside and said, "Coincidentally, everyone is here today. Mu Cheng, since Lin Yin is not qualified to enter our Mu family's record, why don't you let Mu Ning do it? Mu Ning has been filial toward me for more than ten years. Set a time for Mu Ning to enter the family records."

Mu Cheng frowned and looked at Sun Yun unhappily. "Mom, didn't we already talk about this?"

Sun Yun snorted and said, "I just want you two to go to the ancestral hall for the ceremony. When the time comes, I won't let Ah Ning live with you. You won't have anything to lose and you can have another daughter. How good is that?"

"I don't agree. I only have Yinyin as my daughter in my life. It's impossible for me to place anyone under my name," Ye Wen said coldly.

Then, she turned her gaze in Sun Yun's direction. Ignoring Sun Yun's ugly expression, she continued, "After some time, I'll find someone to deal with the adoption back then. Back then, Mu Cheng and I didn't sign the adoption procedures. Moreover, I was still unconscious at that time. I won't admit such an adoption. I'll personally find someone to undo this illegal ad0Dtion procedure."

Mu Ning's expression changed instantly. She had bewitched Sun Yun to cause trouble today because she did not want Lin Yin to enter the family records so smoothly. She also wanted to provoke a conflict between Ye Wen and Sun Yun.

However, she did not expect that she would be implicated too. If Ye Wen went to withdraw the adoption procedures, she would have nothing to do with the Mu family.

Back then, when Sun Yun adopted her, she did not get Mu Cheng and Ye Wen's approval. In addition, the adoption procedure at that time was not as perfect as it was now, so Sun Yun could still place her under Mu Cheng and Ye Wen's names when Mu Cheng and Ye Wen were not around.

Mu Ning was extremely flustered. She looked at Ye Wen with wet eyes and asked sadly, "Mom, are you really going to abandon me?"

Sun Yun gritted her teeth in anger. “Ye Wen, if you dare to chase Ah Ning out, I won’t let you off.”

Ye Wen snorted and said, “Mom, what are you talking about? When did I say that I wanted to chase Mu Ning out? If you like Mu Ning, once I break off my mother-daughter relationship with Mu Ning, you can put Mu Ning under your name and adopt her directly. When the time comes, you can ask Mu Ning to call you Mom. That’ll be closer, right?”

Everyone at the table was shocked by Ye Wen’s words. Mu Cheng had a headache. He knew that Ye Wen was completely furious.

Back then, Ye Wen was famous for having a hot temper in the capital and was fearless. After marrying him, she restrained her personality a lot. Coupled with her experiences over the past ten years, Ye Wen was not as hot-tempered as she was when she was young.

However, not only was his mother picking on Lin Yin from the beginning today, but she even wanted to put Mu Ning under their name even though she knew that Ye Wen would not agree. Naturally, Ye Wen would be angry.

As long as it involved Lin Yin, Ye Wen would not compromise.

‘Ye Wen! Listen to what you’re saying! You’re too presumptuous!’ Sun Yun shouted angrily..

Chapter 740: Fainting

Ye Wen looked at Sun Yun deeply and said coldly, “Mom, if you want to interfere in my matters, don’t blame me for speaking badly. You know my personality. If you anger me, I’ll do anything.”

“Ye Wen!” Mu Kun scolded with an ugly expression. “She’s your mother-in-law.

Is this your attitude towards your elders?"

Even when Ye Wen was facing Mu Kun, her expression did not soften at all. "Dad, I treat others the way they treat me and my children."

"I thought that I could use the beautiful family atmosphere to make Yinyin let down her guard and return to our side with ease. In the end? She hasn't officially returned to the Mu family yet, but Mom is already so nitpicky. It's fine if she doesn't come back to such a family!"

Seeing that Ye Wen did not even give Mu Kun respect, Sun Yun's expression was abnormally ugly. "Mu Cheng, you're in charge of your wife. How dare you openly challenge your elders at such an occasion? You're simply too ill-bred."

Mu Cheng went forward and said, "Dad, Mom, the cause of this matter is whether Mu Ning enters the family record under me and Ye Wen's name. I can express my stance on this matter clearly. Ye Wen and I have the same attitude. In this life, the two of us only have Yinyin as our daughter. We won't let anyone else be our daughter."

"If Mom really wants Mu Ning as her granddaughter, she can find a brother of the same generation as me in the family and put him under Mom's name. Then, she can put Mu Ning under the husband and wife's name. Mu Ning will still be a proper Miss Mu."

Mu Ning was furious. If she had known that things would turn out like this today, she would never have urged Sun Yun to deal with Ye Wen. Now, she regretted it so much that she wanted to die.

Even if Sun Yun went to the side branch to acknowledge a son and she was recorded under that person's name, it was far less glorious than being the daughter of the future head of the family, Mu Cheng.

At the thought of this, Mu Ning resented Ye Wen. If Ye Wen had not suggested it, things would not have been so troublesome.

Mu Ning admitted that she knew too little about Ye Wen. She thought that Ye

Wen, who had been stupid for more than ten years, should be easy to deal with. She thought that with the relationship between mother-in-law and daughter-in-law, Ye Wen would definitely not dare to do anything to Sun Yun.

She did not expect Ye Wen to have such a strong personality. Not only did she dare to retort Sun Yun, but she did not even give Mu Kun respect.

Sun Yun was so angry that her eyes were red. She said loudly, "I don't agree. Mu Cheng, you unfilial son. You actually disobeyed your biological mother for your wife. You have no conscience. You're heartless!"

Sun Yun became agitated as she spoke. In the end, she fell back, scaring Mu Ning so much that she quickly went forward to support Sun Yun.

Now, Sun Yun was her most important backer in the Mu Family. Nothing could happen.

Mu Xiao hurriedly ran over. When he saw that Sun Yun had fainted, he quickly got someone to carry her upstairs.

Although Sun Yun had indeed gone overboard, she was still her biological mother, so Mu Cheng followed her with a worried expression.

Ye Wen was helpless and could only pull Lin Yin up.

In an instant, the meal was unfinished but there was no one left. The servants hid in the kitchen and did not dare to come out to clean up, but they did not dare to leave.

Everyone surrounded Sun Yun's bed.

After Mu Xiao said that she was fine, Mu Kun called Mu Cheng to the study and asked in a low voice, 'What's wrong with Lin Yin? Could it be that she really doesn't want to return to the Mu family? Let me tell you, it's useless to play hard to get with me. If she really doesn't want to return and wants to come back in the future, I won't be so easy to talk to.'

Mu Cheng smiled bitterly and said, "Dad, Yinyin grew up in the slums and suffered too much. Later, she met the Su Family and her unreliable parents in the Su Family. Something almost happened to her, so she doesn't trust her family very much now. I want to give her more time to adapt to the existence of us family members. Only then can she accept us from the bottom of her heart."

Mu Kun frowned and asked, "What happened? What do you mean something almost happened?"

Mu Kun knew about Lin Yin's situation in the slums. A girl who grew up in the slums naturally had to suffer a lot.

However, he did not know much about the Su Family. He only knew that Lin Yin had bought over the Su Corporation and become the actual head of the Shisheng Corporation.

Mu Kun was satisfied with this. None of the Mu family's children were useless..
