

Real Daughter 761

Chapter 761: Angry

The others followed suit. They grabbed all kinds of trash from the ground and threw them at Lin Yin.

Caught off guard, Lin Yin was still covered in dirt.

Among the fans who attacked Lin Yin, someone quietly squatted down, picked up a stone by her feet, and threw it at Lin Yin's face.

Just as that person thought that they could see Lin Yin covered in blood, a figure that had pushed away the fans at some point appeared in front of everyone and hugged Lin Yin tightly.

The next second, the stone smashed into that person's shoulder. All the soil that was thrown also landed on that person.

Even if that person was hit by a rock, he did not make any sound!

Seeing that Lin Yin was protected, the two teams hiding in the dark heaved a sigh of relief. They did not expect these young ladies to be so ruthless. They actually threw such a huge rock at her.

Xi Luo was slightly shocked because the figure protecting Lin Yin was a familiar figure that she would even inadvertently think of in her dreams.

"Brother Ran?" Xiluo said carefully, her voice trembling.

When the fans beside her heard the word “Brother Ran”, they immediately stopped. All of them quickly threw everything in their hands to the ground. They did not want their idols to know how disgraceful they were.

After all, it was not good to fight.

Mu Ran did not turn around. Instead, he let go of Lin Yin and wiped the dust off her face with a heartache.

Wei Ji, who was late, limped away from the fans. He took out a tissue and handed it to Mu Ran. He said softly, “Wipe it with a wet wipe.”

Mu Ran took the wet wipe from Wei Ji’s hand and wiped Lin Yin’s hand with heartache. His voice was filled with guilt. “Yinyin, I’m sorry.”

Lin Yin only shook her head and said, “I’m fine.” Lin Yin was really fine. This was why she didn’t let the people hiding in the dark come out just now.

They were just some delinquents. Even if Mu Ran did not come, she could deal with them later.

Hearing that Mu Ran was actually apologizing to Lin Yin, a fan asked, “Brother Ran, are you really with Lin Yin?”

Mu Ran tidied Lin Yin’s messy hair that had just been torn apart and said to Wei Ji, “Look after Yinyin.”

Wei Ji nodded and stood firmly behind Lin Yin.

Mu Ran slowly turned around. His usually gentle eyes were filled with a sinister light as he looked around at his so-called fans.

“Who I’m with has nothing to do with you!” Mu Ran’s tone was filled with anger.

This was the first time the fans had seen such angry eyes.

They did not expect that Mu Ran, who had always been gentle to them and had never lost his temper at them, would be angry at them for a dirty woman today.

Especially today. They had come to protect Mu Ran’s reputation, so they attacked Lin Yin. Not only was Mu Ran not grateful for them, he also got angry at them. They felt sour and aggrieved.

“Brother Ran, we’re doing this today for you. Such a woman has dragged down your career and dirtied the image you’ve built for so many years. Shouldn’t she be taught a lesson? We’re doing this for your own good, for your career and future. How can you treat us like this for such a woman? You’re making us too sad,” a fan said.

“For my own good?” Mu Ran smiled mockingly. “You gathered so many people and ignored the law. You wantonly ganged up on others and even endangered their lives. You disturbed social order and school order. You’re telling me now that you’re doing something illegal for my own good?”

Mu Ran directly told them about the seriousness of the matter, causing some younger fans to panic.

“Brother Ran, we just want to teach Lin Yin a lesson. How is this illegal? A woman like her is not worthy of you. We’re just warning her. We’re really helping you chase away the scheming woman that’s as hateful as a fly,” a fan explained anxiously.

“Help me? What a joke! You’re clearly possessive. You think I should listen to you and live according to your wishes. As long as I’m not behaving in a way you like, you want to control me in some way. Let me tell you, put away your unrealistic and disgusting delusions! There’s no one more scheming than people like you who hurt others as a self-proclaimed fan!” Mu Ran was furious and began to speak without thinking..

Chapter 762: Brother

The fans could not take Mu Ran's intense verbal attacks.

After all, no one could stand hearing someone they liked attack them with vicious words.

Especially Xi Luo, who treated Mu Ran as her beacon of support. She felt that Mu Ran had really betrayed her.

She had clearly loved Mu Ran for so many years, but Mu Ran actually hurt the hearts of fans like them for such a cheap woman. She could not accept it, and she was even more unwilling to accept it.

All these years, she had spent a lot of money on Mu Ran. For Mu Ran, she had lost her family. For Mu Ran, she had rejected the confessions of many men. For Mu Ran's career, she had reeled in new fans everywhere to show them how outstanding Mu Ran was.

She used such a method to support Mu Ran's acting career. She tried her best to maintain this relationship on her end, but Mu Ran found another woman. Such an unloyal idol was simply an ungrateful ingrate.

"Mu Ran, all these years, if it weren't for us old fans supporting you so much, do you think you could have gotten to where you are now? Now, for a lowly woman, you've given up the career we've painstakingly supported you through and you even treat us like this. Mu Ran, if it weren't for us, who do you think you are?" Xiluo questioned angrily.

Xiluo's words resonated with the fans, who were all accusing Mu Ran of being ungrateful.

The assistant carefully pulled Mu Ran aside. He could tell that Mu Ran was really angry.

"Painstakingly support me? Ha!" Mu Ran smiled and continued, "Then there's no need to make things difficult for you. From today onwards, I'll officially leave the entertainment industry!"

When the paparazzi who were originally surrounding the periphery heard this, they were all dumbfounded. In their opinion, this was just a small conflict. It was not serious enough to make Mu Ran leave the industry.

All these years, there have been many such scandals about the award-winning actor. As long as Mu Ran made a statement, the fans would buy it.

The fans who accused Mu Ran of being ungrateful were all stunned and in disbelief.

They didn't want Mu Ran to leave the industry. They just wanted Mu Ran to think it through. Would he choose his fans and his future career or choose Lin Yin who would only drag him down?

They just wanted to see Mu Ran choose them firmly. As long as Mu Ran took a step back and said something good to clarify her relationship with Lin Yin, it would be fine.

The assistant was also shocked. He felt his head hurt subconsciously. If Wei Yuan found out later, he would definitely be hit in the head. After informing Instructor Hou, Su Su and Feng Yu, who had secretly come to see the development of the matter, were also dumbfounded.

Hou Ning stopped thinking about going up to clear the staff and watched the scene in front of her quietly.

She had thought that Lin Yin was an unimportant person, but she did not expect Lin Yin could make Mu Ran leave the industry.

She was someone who had a scandal with Lu Ming and now she had relations with the big celebrity Mu Ran. She seemed to have some tricks up her sleeve.

Lin Yin gently held Mu Ran's hand, she did not want Mu Ran to be rash. Acting was Mu Ran's career. She did not want Mu Ran to lose the career that he had been working on so hard for so many years for her.

Mu Ran thought that Lin Yin was afraid and grabbed her hand. He turned around and whispered to Lin Yin in a voice that only the two of them could hear, "Don't be afraid. Brother will protect you."

Mu Ran's words were like a hot drop of water that landed on Lin Yin's heart, making her heart tremble slightly and her eyes sting.

She had never been willing to call the three brothers of the Mu Family brother, parents, or acknowledge her identity as a member of the Mu Family. She was afraid that one day, the heavens would take away the kinship from her like before.

But now, Mu Ran would rather be misunderstood by everyone than go against her wishes and say that she was his sister.

Such a Mu Ran indeed made Lin Yin's heart ache. An indescribable emotion lingered in her heart.

Her heart slowly became firm.

Lin Yin walked out from behind Mu Ran and said coldly to Mu Ran's fans, "Mu Ran is my biological brother. We have the same father and mother. He's my biological brother!"

Mu Ran looked at Lin Yin, who was standing in front of him. After being stunned, his heart was filled with surprise.

Although he knew very well what kind of trouble there would be if Lin Yin's identity was exposed, this was the first time Lin Yin called him brother and the first time she admitted that he was her brother in front of so many people.. How could Mu Ran not be excited?

Chapter 763: Doubt

Lin Yin's words stunned everyone. After a moment of silence, Xiluo said loudly, "Impossible! Mu Ran, don't think I don't know your identity. You only have three boys at home. Your mother only gave birth to three boys!"

"Do you think you can lie to us with such a low-level lie? There are many brothers and sisters nowadays. Perhaps in order to prevent your career from being conflicted, you'll even let your mother acknowledge Lin Yin as her goddaughter."

Mu Ran did not care what others thought. "Career? I've already retired from the industry. What career do I have? Also, I'm warning you. If you dare to speculate about my family again, I won't be polite to you."

Mu Ran was in a good mood. He looked at the paparazzi mixed in with the fans and waved. "Come, come, come. Didn't you always like to secretly take photos of me in the past? Come, stand in front. I have something to announce.

The paparazzi didn't know what Mu Ran was thinking and didn't dare to go forward. In the end, they saw Mu Ran, who was covered in dust and had withered grass on his head, pulling Lin Yin over proudly and saying loudly, "Let me introduce you to everyone. This is my biological sister, Lin Yin. Don't doubt her. She's my biological sister, proven by a paternity test."

Mu Ran's posture and attitude were extremely proud. Even his head was raised, and his eyes were shining.

The paparazzi who did not dare to go forward just now immediately picked up their cameras and rushed forward to take photos. This was big news.

Mu Ran had never exposed his family all these years. He had just learned from the female fan that Mu Ran's family had three boys. Now that he had a sister, it seemed like he had four siblings.

A paparazzo took the opportunity to ask, "Then, Mu Ran, are you still going to quit the entertainment industry?"

Before Mu Ran could answer, his assistant, Zhao Nan, immediately stood up and said, "This matter can't be taken seriously. It was all a misunderstanding just now. Once the misunderstanding is resolved, everything will be fine."

When Xiluo, who had just been warned by Mu Ran, heard Zhao Nan's words, her mind raced again.

If Mu Ran did not work in the entertainment industry, fans like them would not be able to control him. However, as long as Mu Ran was still in the entertainment industry, he was destined to live off the support of fans like them. Naturally, he had to listen to his fans.

A superstar without fans was nothing.

With such confidence, Xiluo immediately started to be smug again and questioned, "A paternity test can also be faked. Who knows if it's true? If she's your biological sister, why didn't you clarify it when it happened? Instead, you came to clarify it now. Did you just think of this method? In order to not leave the industry, you made it up to deceive your fans!"

Xiluo's words seemed to have suddenly reminded the fans to question whether Lin Yin was Mu Ran's sister.

"That's right. Why didn't you explain when the news came out yesterday? No one came out to explain, be it in person or your studio. In the past, when you encountered such scandals, didn't you quickly react and refute the rumors?"

"That's right. Perhaps if we don't come today and ask for an explanation, you won't be siblings. After a while, you'll directly get married and have children."

"Brother Ran, we've supported you for so many years. We have the right to receive an explanation from you."

"That's right. You can't just trample on the sincerity of us fans and lie to us."

“Brother Ran, we don’t want anything. We just think you should find a suitable and outstanding girl. Only then will we be willing to call her Sister-in-law.”

“That’s right. All of us support your career so that you can be better and not degrade yourself to be with such a girl.”

“Brother Ran, as long as you really prove to us that Lin Yin is indeed your biological sister, we’ll still support you as usual.”

Feng Yu, who was at the side, asked in confusion, “Are the fans so powerful? You can have control over who your idol is dating and getting married to? Does this girl he likes have to be liked by all his fans? Isn’t this too difficult? Mu Ran has hundreds of millions of fans, right? How can these hundreds of millions of people have the same taste? They even want to control this.. Isn’t this too terrifying?”

Chapter 764: Mu Corporation

Not to mention Feng Yu, even Su Su felt a little uncomfortable hearing this.

What kind of strange logic was this? He had to prove whoever his biological sister was to others?

Su Su, who was also Mu Ran’s fan, was still hesitating if she should go up and say something for Mu Ran. At this moment, a cold voice sounded. “Why don’t I prove that my son is my son and my daughter is my daughter?”

Everyone’s gaze immediately turned in the direction of the voice. They saw a woman with a cold smile walk out of the group of men in black. Behind the woman was a calm-looking man whose eyes had some traces of resemblance to Mu Ran’s.

Ye Wen glanced coldly at the surrounding people, then stood in front of Lin Yin and Mu Ran. Her heart ached as she took out her handkerchief and wiped the dust off Lin Yin and Mu Ran.

A reporter beside her seemed to recognize Mu Cheng and said hesitantly, “You’re the current President of the Mu Corporation, Mr. Mu Cheng, right?” As soon as the paparazzo spoke, there was an uproar at the event location!

The President of the Mu Corporation!

Everyone might not know Mu Cheng. After all, Mu Cheng kept a low profile and never accepted any interviews. In the past ten years, other than some executives, even the employees of the Mu Corporation rarely saw Mu Cheng.

However, even the most ignorant person knew about the eight great families in the capital and the Mu Corporation, which was ranked in the top three.

Some people present were unwilling to believe it and went online to search for information. In the end, when they saw the younger version of Mu Cheng and Mu Cheng standing in front of them now, everyone had no choice but to believe it.

“Oh my god! Mu Ran is actually the young master of the Mu Corporation?” A paparazzo exclaimed in a low voice.

Ever since Mu Ran stepped into the entertainment industry, he rarely mentioned his family, so most people did not know Mu Ran’s real family situation.

Previously, there were indeed paparazzi who wanted to dig up Mu Ran’s identity and background, but they could not find anything.

Therefore, all these years, Mu Ran’s family background has always been a mystery.

Some said that Mu Ran’s family background was strong, so no one could find out. Some said that Mu Ran’s family was poor, so he sent his parents away as soon as he debuted, afraid that someone would investigate. The even more ridiculous rumors claimed that Mu Ran was an orphan, so no one could find out.

In the end, no one expected Mu Ran to be a young master from a wealthy elite family.

Xiluo, who was at the side, did not expect that she had missed this information.

She had been secretly following Mu Ran all these years, so she knew that Mu Ran's family was rich and he had two brothers. However, she did not expect Mu Ran to be so rich.

On the other side, Ye Wen held a child in each hand and rubbed their hands with her thumb. She smiled and said, "With Mom and Dad around, I won't let anyone bully you."

Lin Yin nodded warmly.

When Ye Wen turned to look at Mu Ran's so-called fans, her aura instantly exploded. Her cold voice sounded. "Someone wanted proof, right? What kind of identity do you have to ask my son to prove that his sister is his sister?"

"You're just some extreme fan whose face he doesn't even recognize. Do you really think you're something? As a mother, I don't even dare to ask my son to find a specific girl to marry. You extreme fans who came from nowhere actually want to interfere with my son's choice of a partner? Why? Do you want to kick me away and become my son's mother?"

"Why are you still talking so shamelessly? Do you have the right to let my son explain it to you? Don't let me expose your dirty thoughts on the spot. I feel disgusted!"

"Today, I'll sue you one by one. I'll sue you for intentional harm, slander, threat and intimidation, defamation, and gang fighting. I'll sue you for everything that's punishable."

Ye Wen smiled sinisterly, scaring the fans so much that they were at a loss. Everyone really did not expect that the Mu family would even bring their lawyer over. It was simply ridiculous.

Some of the younger fans were so frightened that their eyes turned red when they saw such a group of people and the lawyer. "I apologize. I didn't do it on purpose. Can you not sue me? If my parents find out, they'll beat me to death."

Ye Wen's gaze landed on the girl who spoke and she smiled mercilessly.. "If you hurt someone, and it could be erased after a light apology, wouldn't the world be too unfair? What do you think, little friend?"

Chapter 765: Public Admittance

The girl, who looked to be only seventeen or eighteen years old, burst into tears when she heard Ye Wen's cold smile.

Seeing this, Xiluo lowered her head and wanted to secretly escape. However, she had just taken a step when she was blocked.

Xiluo looked up and saw a strong bodyguard staring at her coldly. She retreated in fear when Ye Wen's warning sounded behind her. "If we don't settle this matter, whoever dares to leave secretly won't be let off easy if I catch them."

As she spoke, Ye Wen said to the paparazzi beside her, "There are so many reporters present. I think they took a lot of photos in the dark just now. Coincidentally, those are all evidence, so I'm going to send all these people to the police station in the name of intentional harm. I'll have to trouble all the reporters to go to the police station to testify later."

The paparazzi smiled and nodded. "It's my duty!"

The group instantly burst into soft sobs. Most of them were young children who had never seen such a scene. They had probably never been to the police station in their lives.

Mu Cheng asked the secretary to bring these people to the police station first. Then, she looked at the remaining paparazzi at the scene. Mu Cheng turned to Lin Yin and asked with a smile, "Yinyin, since you can't hide your identity anymore, Dad and Mom might as well officially announce your identity today.

What do you think?"

Ye Wen looked at Lin Yin expectantly.

Although they didn't want everyone to know Lin Yin's identity for the sake of her safety,

But now that she was already known, she might as well admit it directly. Today, with the two of them personally verifying it, Lin Yin's identity could be recognized.

Lin Yin smiled and said, "Alright, we'll do as you say, Dad."

Lin Yin's call of 'Dad' made Mu Cheng burst with joy. He smiled until the wrinkles and smile lines on his face appeared.

Seeing that Lin Yin called Mu Cheng first, Ye Wen's heart ached. Ye Wen, who had been domineering just now, instantly became like a kitten as she looked at Lin Yin pitifully.

Lin Yin looked at Ye Wen in amusement and called out softly, "Mom!"

The way she called her Mom was like the sound of nature. Ye Wen was so happy that her eyes narrowed with laughter. She reached out and hugged Lin Yin without letting go. "Yinyin, call me Mom a few more times."

Lin Yin called out twice more patiently. Mu Ran's heart ached. He went forward to pull Ye Wen away and said anxiously, "Mom, there are so many people. Get Yinyin to call you when you get back. Everyone is watching."

Ye Wen seemed to have realized that she was indeed a little too excited and did not care about the occasion, so she let go of Lin Yin.

However, the moment she let go of Lin Yin, Mu Ran immediately pulled Lin Yin to her side and said with a sly expression, "Yinyin, call me Brother!"

Just as Ye Wen was about to hit him, Lin Yin called out to Mu Ran, "Brother!" Mu Ran was dancing with joy, completely lacking her usual elegance.

Mu Cheng coughed heavily a few times, indicating for his wife and son to be more reserved. Then, she pulled Lin Yin in front of the paparazzi and said happily, "Reporters, let me officially introduce you to everyone. This is the biological daughter of me, Mu Cheng, and Madam Ye Wen. She's also Mu Ran's biological sister, Lin Yin. She's also the fourth child of our Mu Family."

The paparazzi who were originally here to take photos of Mu Ran's scandal were overjoyed. They did not expect to be able to obtain such a secret. They quickly finished taking photos and went back to prepare to release it first.

After watching this scene, Hou Ning walked forward and greeted them warmly, "Uncle Mu, Aunt Ye, hello. I'm Hou Ning from the Hou Family."

Ye Wen had a little impression of Hou Ning. She smiled and said, "Hou Ning? The last time I saw you, you seemed to be six or seven years old. I didn't expect you to grow up so quickly. What a coincidence to see you here. Are you a teacher here?"

Ye Wen looked at Hou Ning and asked with uncertainty.

Hou Ning smiled and said, "Aunt Ye, I'm the instructor for the military training at Capital University this time. Lin Yin happens to be a student in my class." Ye Wen looked at her husband in surprise.

Ye Wen only found out about Hou Ning and Lu Ming the last time the two elders of the Huo Family and the Lu Family went to the Mu Family.

Hou Ning and Lu Ming's relationship was not ordinary. Now, she had even become Lin Yin's instructor.. Was this really just a coincidence?

Chapter 766: Lunch

Hou Ning looked at Lin Yin and said, "Aunt Ye, I didn't expect Lin Yin to be your child. Congratulations, Aunt Ye and Uncle Mu."

Ye Wen smiled and thanked Hou Ning. Then, she asked casually, "I heard that you were promoted a while ago. With your official rank, you shouldn't be here as an instructor, right?"

Hou Ning smiled and said, "It's true, but I haven't rested for three years. I'm on break right now. Coincidentally, when I visited Uncle Wei last time, I heard that Capital University was going to have military training. I felt that it was quite meaningful, so I volunteered myself. I didn't expect it to be such a coincidence."

As Hou Ning spoke, her gaze landed on Wei Ji, who was at the side. She smiled and said, "Wei Ji is also in this class. It's just that his health doesn't allow him to participate in military training. Otherwise, it would be even more of a coincidence, right?"

Wei Ji timidly went forward to look at Ye Wen and Mu Cheng and greeted them softly, "Hello, Uncle Mu and Aunt Ye."

Ye Wen smiled and patted Wei Ji's head. "Speak louder. It's fine. Uncle Mu and Aunt Ye are not bad people." Wei Ji nodded slightly.

Ye Wen, who had helped Lin Yin apply for leave, brought Lin Yin to the apartment beside the school. She was extremely happy along the way.

At this moment, Mu Heng and Mu Xiao, who had just interrogated the two paparazzi, were listening sourly to Mu Ran's smug voice on the other end of the line. "Yinyin called me Brother! I even got someone to send me the video just now. Aiya, it's so nice to hear. I sent it to you too. You have to watch it!"

Mu Heng hung up Mu Ran's call expressionlessly and opened the video Mu Ran sent. He gritted his teeth in anger.

They were here to clean up Mu Ran's mess, but Mu Ran beat them to it and got Lin Yin to call him brother. He even had the cheek to show off in front of them.

Mu Xiao snorted. "I shouldn't have treated him nicely just now. I regret it so much!"

Mu Hengshen nodded in agreement.

When the two of them arrived at the apartment outside Capital University, Mu Cheng was already humming happily while cooking in the kitchen.

Ye Wen was cutting fruits for them. From time to time, she would find delicious fruits and would specially take them out for Lin Yin and Mu Ran to try first.

Mu Xiao approached Lin Yin with a smile, his expectant gaze obvious.

Mu Heng didn't show it on his face, but he kept glancing at Lin Yin. Lin Yin smiled and said, "Eldest Brother, Second Brother, you're back."

Mu Xiao was smiling so much that the corners of his mouth were about to reach the back of his head, while Mu Heng's lips were curled up slightly. The two of them were in a very good mood.

Mu Cheng brought out a plate of dishes and smiled. "Hurry up and go to the kitchen to serve the dishes. It's already noon. After dinner, Yinyin needs to rest. She still has to go to military training in the afternoon. She just asked the counselor and the instructor for an early morning leave."

Mu Ran immediately got up and rushed to the kitchen to serve the dishes.

"There's no problem? Although the fans who caused trouble have been taken away, what if there are still some irrational fans who continue to disturb Yinyin? Why don't you take a few more days off?" Mu Heng asked.

Mu Xiao's gaze landed on Mu Ran, who had come out with the dishes. "Some people can't hide their stupidity no matter how attentive they are now."

Mu Ran pursed his lips. Just now, Mu Xiao had said that he was not to blame for this. In the end, he was now saying that he was stupid. Men were indeed fickle.

However, he was in the wrong in this matter after all. Mu Ran could only silently place the dishes on the table and assume his best posture, trying to change the topic. "Come, Yinyin, it's time to eat. The dishes will turn cold soon."

Mu Heng smiled and stood up to pat Mu Xiao. Although he was also very unhappy with Mu Ran's smug look just now and was very jealous that the first person Lin Yin called Brother was actually Mu Ran, this kid had done a good deed and made Lin Yin willing to admit that they were family.

This matter could be considered offset by merit.

Mu Cheng's culinary skills were not bad. They were much better than Ye Wen's. The family ate happily.

During Lin Yin's lunch break, Mu Ran posted the news of his withdrawal on social media, causing the entire entertainment industry to explode.

"Thank you for your support all these years. From today onwards, I'll officially leave the entertainment industry."

This simple sentence shocked some netizens and fans who did not know the truth. Even the juicy gossip that Lu Ming had released previously was suppressed by this news.

Mu Ran's social media account was filled with all kinds of confusion and comments..

Chapter 767: Leaving

[No, I just woke up and something like this happened. I must be dreaming.]

Really, I'm dreaming. I'll sleep again!]

[Why did he suddenly leave the industry? So is that girl really Brother Ran's girlfriend? But even if he has a girlfriend, it's fine. I can accept it. Why is he leaving the industry?]

[Brother, can we not be so impulsive? It's just dating. If you want to date, so be it. Even if you announce that you're already married and have children, I can still accept it. I'm a motherly fan. I'm still very relieved to see you get married and have children!]

[Brother Ran, how can you leave me like this? If you're no longer in the entertainment industry, I won't have a chance to see you in the future. Isn't it just dating? Go ahead. If you want to, I can even introduce girls to you. How can you abandon me in this mortal world like this? My heart aches!]

[Sisters, I've found the reason. Do you still remember that someone gathered people to go to Capital University to surround Lin Yin this morning? Those crazy fans really went to find trouble with Lin Yin. I heard that Brother Ran also rushed over. It was in chaos, and dozens of people were sent to the police station.]

[Damn it! It's these extreme fans. Are they crazy? They lament every day that idols should be responsible for the fans and stay single. Do they really think they can have Brother Ran like this? They're a f*cking group of lunatics!]

The paparazzi who had taken a photo of the information in the morning took the opportunity to restore the truth of the matter and pushed this matter to the climax. Even some ordinary netizens went down to criticize those self-righteous fans.

[Fans nowadays are amazing. They really think of themselves as gods. They don't let their idols date and they even self-righteously demand an explanation. He already said that she's his sister, but he still has to prove that. They even forced their parents to step forward to protect their children. I've finally seen what it means to have a vile fan culture.]

[I remember that Mu Ran is an award-winning actor, he's not just a popular celebrity. What are they thinking? I'm really dying of laughter. They really think that they're so amazing that Mu Ran is the best actor because of their support. What are they thinking?]

[No, even if Lin Yin isn't Mu Ran's sister and is really his girlfriend, so what? Being an actor is just a job. Why are they guilt-tripping Mu Ran to be single for the rest of his life to serve fans like them?]

[Sigh, fans nowadays are all young. They think the world is what they think it is. They're so shallow and they still want to control others. Ridiculous!]

[That's why I don't even join these fan communities. They're so full of themselves and they claim that Mu Ran relied on them to achieve his current status and achievements. They really have the audacity to say these things. It's really disgusting.]

[I only see the evilness of the fans' personalities. Threats, intimidation, intentional harm, bullying, bullying. Terrifying!]

[I'm really dying of laughter. Everyone, take a look. A young master of the Mu Family who was born in the top three of the Eight Great Families was actually forced to retreat from the industry by his fans. I've really broadened my horizons. What kind of courage did they have to say that Mu Ran relied on their support to reach his current status?]

[That's right. With the Mu family's background, Mu Ran doesn't need to please these fans at all. As long as he acts well, the audience will support him. Now, everyone depends on their acting skills.]

[Mu Ran probably left the industry to inherit the family business because his fans linset him- I really couldn't tell that Mil Ran is actually the child of a top-notch wealthy family! He probably came to the entertainment industry for fun.]

Mu Ran's fans were furious when they saw the public's comments about them.

[I was wondering why Brother Ran left the industry for no reason. No, did these so-called fans crush their brains when they were born? What kind of face did they have to say such things? Damn it, they even threatened Brother Ran on behalf of all the fans. Damn it, I want to kill someone!]

[Look at how the people outside look at us fans now. It's simply embarrassing.]

How can there be such a person? She's like dogsh*t. She even implicated us.]

[These people are not fans at all. They are just some dark, vicious, and twisted maggots. They are not worthy of being Brother Ran's fans..]

Chapter 768 Live Signboard

[I know what these people are thinking. They just want such a beautiful man. If they can't get him, no one else can. Only then will they feel balanced. As long as Brother Ran doesn't belong to anyone, he belongs to them. Such selfish people are everywhere!]

[Seriously, why are they locked up? If they're released now, I'll beat them up when I see them. They're shameless. Do they really think others are easy to bully!]

[I hate those fans! They forced my idol to go home and inherit the family business. I want to curse them!]

The fans caused a huge commotion, and even the official accounts of the various brands under the Mu Corporation were bustling.

After all, no one would have thought that this famous Best Actor was actually a young master of their own company. Hence, the various official accounts under the Mu Corporation began to work collectively.

After obtaining the approval of their superiors, based on the principle that Mu Ran was going to leave the industry anyway, it would be a waste not to use him. These brands treated Mu Ran as a free living signboard and started advertising.

Dongyang Drone Official Flagship Shop: "Life is not easy. The third young master of the Mu Family was selling his skills in the entertainment industry, but he was forced to quit the industry and go home to sell drones. Dongyang Drone, a good opportunity for your Brother Ran to go home and inherit the family business!"

Divine Real Estate: "Sister, do you want to buy a house? It's Brother Ran's family business! Sister, I'll wait for you!"

Longgang Machinery: [Longgang Loader, as reliable as Brother Ran!]

Xi Wei Cement: [Mix Brother Ran's love for you into mud and let it accompany you for the rest of your life!]

You Hui Home Appliances: [Choose You Hui for all your home appliance needs. Get a feel of Brother Ran's family!]

This made everyone laugh uncontrollably. Even the fans were caught between laughter and tears. Even the situation that was originally filled with resentment became a little funny.

[I-I actually took a fancy to that loader. Let's not talk about it anymore. I'm going to buy it. I'm going to start a business. Sisters in the comments section, if you need a loader at home, remember to contact me in the future!]

[Brother, can't your family sell some daily necessities that girls often use? I'm a university student, I have no use for these things!]

[Sisters, let's not talk about it anymore. I'll go to Divine Real Estate to buy a house first. I'll go to Xi Wei Cement to buy some cement later. It's considered my fate with Brother Ran!]

[I think I can probably only afford drones and household appliances. I just placed an order. It's nothing. I can only afford these two useful things!]

[Sisters, be content. These are still barely usable. I just checked the brands under the Mu Corporation. Good lord, there's actually military equipment. Oh my god, what kind of wealthy family is this?]

[Let me elaborate it. Energy, mining, military equipment manufacturing, construction materials, logistics, and so on. They have a huge business. There's also the top financial investment bank of the young master of the Mu Family, the world-class research institute of the second young master of the Mu Family. Sisters, we have to rise up. Otherwise, we're really not worthy of Brother Ran's hard-core family background.]

[Stop talking. Go study now. I'll choose a major in these directions for the college entrance examination. Sooner or later, I'll sneak in and be an eagle-like woman standing behind my Brother Ran openly!]

Mu Ran almost exploded when he saw this. It had only been an hour since he announced that he was leaving the industry, but he had been sold by his family?

"Dad, what's going on?" Mu Ran pursed his lips and looked at Mu Cheng unhappily.

Mu Cheng scratched her chin guiltily and said, "You're leaving the industry anyway. It's a good opportunity for these brands at home to seek benefits. I don't really want to sell anything. I'm just advertising. Don't waste your reputation, right?"

Mu Xiao was laughing so hard that he could not close his mouth. Even Mu Heng could not help but purse his lips. He did not want to laugh too loudly to provoke Mu Ran, who was so angry that he was about to burst into flames.

Mu Ran continued to read the comments angrily. In the end, he even saw Mu Heng and Mu Xiao's brands coming to ride on the popularity.

"Brother, you're in the finance industry. Why are you here? And you, Mu Xiao, do you need to advertise your research institute?" Mu Ran turned to look at Mu Heng and Mu Xiao and questioned.

"Wouldn't it show that my company is more capable with the endorsement of a capable Best Actor like you? One does not allow benefits created by one's own work to accrue to others. Coincidentally, I have a few projects that are starting soon. I'll advertise first," Mu Heng tried his best to control his smile and said calmly.

"This is too much! I don't care. I want endorsement fees! Astronomical endorsement fees!" Mu Ran was so angry that he sat at the side and complained.

Chapter 769 Looking for Lin Yin

Mu Heng said faintly, "Sigh, I originally wanted to save some advertising fees to save more assets for Yinyin, but now it seems like it's gone down the drain!"

Mu Ran's eyes lit up. "How can I miss out on such a good thing? Isn't it just the endorsement fee? I'll be generous and let you save it! However, you have to record it well. This share is mine, understand?"

The other three laughed at the side. When Lin Yin and Ye Wen came over during their lunch break, they saw everyone smiling in the living room.

The peacefulness of the years flowed in Lin Yin's heart, making her feel at ease and vulnerable.

The family sent Lin Yin to school. Lin Yin walked towards the door and turned back every few steps. Every time she turned back, she would see her family looking at her with a smile. The more Lin Yin turned back, the more she felt at ease.

No matter how many times she turned around, her family was behind her, looking at her with loving eyes.

Lin Yin turned around for the last time and tears fell unknowingly, but there was a blissful smile on her lips.

Lin Yin walked towards the dormitory and realized that it was filled with people. Before Lin Yin could react, she was pulled to a corner by Wei Ji, who had suddenly appeared, and she hid.

Lin Yin asked in confusion, "Wei Ji, did something happen? Was there an earthquake? Is that why everyone ran out?"

Wei Ji said, "What earthquake? Those people are waiting for you. At noon, Mu Ran officially published a message, he said he was going to leave the industry. Now, Mu Ran's fans are extremely sad. The fans in our school want to look for you, Mu Ran's sister, and ask you to persuade Mu Ran not to leave!"

Lin Yin was surprised. "My third brother really left the industry?"

Although Lin Yin was mentally prepared and knew that Mu Ran was the kind of person who kept his word, this matter was still a little sudden.

Wei Ji nodded and asked Lin Yin to look at the message Mu Ran had sent at noon.

As well as the actions of those brands under the Mu Corporation, Lin Yin couldn't help but laugh despite her sadness.

No wonder when she woke up from her lunch break just now and saw that Mu Ran was in such a bad mood, the other three were grinning from ear to ear. It turned out that they were taking advantage of Mu Ran's popularity to advertise!

However, when she thought about how Mu Ran had left his career because of this, Lin Yin felt a little melancholic.

"I can tell that Third Brother actually still likes his acting career very much. It's indeed a pity for him to leave like this," Lin Yin said with a hint of disappointment.

"Yes, yes. Brother Mu Ran's acting skills are obvious to all. Without Brother Mu Ran, it would also be a loss for movie-goers who appreciate capable actors with good acting skills." Wei Ji nodded in agreement.

Then, Wei Ji smiled bitterly and said, "Yinyin, I didn't expect you to be Aunt Ye and Uncle Mu's daughter. I'm a little surprised."

Lin Yin turned to look at Wei Ji. She felt that Wei Ji's reaction was a little strange. He didn't look surprised. Instead, he looked a little lonely.

"Why? Aren't you happy that I'm their daughter?" Lin Yin asked.

Wei Ji shook his head. "I'm happy. That way, you'll have a family to love you and no one will dare to bully you in the future. It's just that I'm afraid you'll despise me."

Lin Yin smiled and stroked Wei Ji's head. "What are you thinking? I won't despise you. I never will."

Who would despise the child they raised? What a joke.

With Lin Yin's words, Wei Ji seemed to be happier. Even his eyes were filled with joy.

At this moment, Lin Yin didn't dare to go up and get her things. She could only put on the mask that Wei Ji had prepared and the two of them went to the field.

In the end, even the field was surrounded by many people who were not wearing military training uniforms.

Wei Ji said with a headache, "From the looks of it, these people are definitely going to find you. Isn't this too crazy?"

Lin Yin also had a headache. Facing those who wanted to hurt her, she could choose to attack without holding back, but facing such a large group of people who did not want to attack her, she really did not know how to deal with them.

"Why don't you take leave, Yinyin?" Wei Ji said with a frown.

At this moment, a group of people in military training uniforms suddenly appeared in the crowd. The leaders were actually Hou Ning and Lu Ming.

With Lu Ming's order, those people surrounded the field, especially the students in Lin Yin's class who were not wearing military training uniforms.

Chapter 770 Maintaining Order

"Students, this is the military training venue for freshmen, not a place for you to chase after celebrities. Please cooperate and evacuate immediately!" Hou Ning's voice was cold and intimidating.

When the surrounding students saw this situation, they did not dare to provoke them, so they slowly dispersed.

Those people closed the other exit of the field and guarded the entrance of the field. As long as someone wanted to enter, they would look at their student IDs before letting them in.

Lin Yin looked indifferently at Lu Ming, who was standing with Hou Ning at the door. Then, she said with a faint smile, "Let's go in."

Wei Ji nodded.

Even though Lin Yin was wearing a mask and the same military camouflage uniform as the others, Lu Ming could recognize her at a glance.

After Lu Ming's gentle gaze turned from Lin Yin to Wei Ji, Lu Ming's gaze carried a hint of jealousy that even Lu Ming did not notice.

"Instructor Hou!" Lin Yin went forward and handed Hou Ning her student ID. Then, she said apologetically, "Sorry to trouble you with my brother and me today."

After all, it was because of Mu Ran that Hou Ning had to bring people to maintain order on the field, so Lin Yin still politely expressed her gratitude to Hou Ning.

Hou Ning had a faint smile on her face, but it was extremely faint. "As your instructor, it's my duty to protect the safety of my students. You don't have to take it to heart."

Since Hou Ning had said so, Lin Yin did not argue. She nodded and took the ID card from Hou Ning's hand. She nodded at Lu Ming indifferently as a form of courtesy.

Seeing Lin Yin being so polite, Lu Ming's heart ached for some reason, and his expression did not look good.

Hou Ning asked the person beside her to check the student ID on her behalf. Then, she pulled Lu Ming to the side and asked, "What's wrong? Why are you suddenly in a bad mood? You used to be very stable."

Lu Ming just shook his head. "I'm fine. I'm just thinking about work."

Lu Ming was talking about work, but his gaze was fixed on Lin Yin.

Hou Ning did not expose him and only said, "If you're busy, go back first. I can do it myself."

"Since I promised to help you maintain order, I naturally have to keep my promise," Lu Ming replied.

Hearing Hou Ning and Lu Ming's conversation, Lin Yin didn't even turn around. She pretended not to hear and walked straight into the field.

"Instructor Hou, Third Brother Lu." Wei Ji hurriedly went forward and handed over his student ID. Then, he nodded slightly at Hou Ning and Lu Ming.

Seeing Wei Ji take back his student ID and limp behind Lin Yin, Lu Ming felt that it was extremely blinding.

Even if Lin Yin didn't choose him, he didn't want her to choose Wei Ji.

The Wei Family was too complicated. He was afraid that one day, the harm Wei Ji had suffered would be transferred to Lin Yin.

At the thought that Lin Yin would one day be like Wei Ji and be schemed against by the Wei Family until she lost an arm or a leg or her life would be threatened, Lu Ming's expression was abnormally gloomy.

Lin Yin walked towards her class and did not hear the discussions around her.

"She's Lin Yin, Mu Ran's sister, the eldest daughter of the Mu Corporation!"

"I really didn't expect Lin Yin to have such a background! Do you still remember? Previously, someone said that Lin Yin was kept by several big bosses. Now, it seems like it's all rumors! Does Lin Yin still need any big bosses to keep her? It's more like she's keeping someone else!"

"Don't say that. Didn't someone say that the way those big bosses gave Lin Yin gifts didn't look like Lin Yin was being kept, but it was more like Lin Yin's family was supporting her? Damn, this person is a prophet. They directly figured out the truth."

"Now that you mention it, that seems to be the case! There were five people who gave gifts at the entrance that day. Lin Yin's parents and three brothers, doesn't that make five people? Therefore, Lin Yin isn't being kept at all. Those so-called big bosses are clearly Lin Yin's family."

"That's why I said that rumors are scary. How did a nice little girl become a kept mistress? These people who spread rumors are really disgusting."

"I'm really envious. She has such a good family background, three outstanding brothers, and parents who love her. I don't even dare to think about what a happy family she has!"
