

Real Daughter 821

Chapter 821: Evil Removal Ceremony

After the live-stream ended, Lin Yin did not react for a long time. From the looks of it, in her previous life, Yue Chi would definitely live an extraordinary life under the protection of his brother, Yue Han.

Without her causing such a commotion like in this life, Yue Chi probably didn't even need to use this substitute in his previous life.

Lin Yin was so angry that she laughed. If she couldn't kill Yue Chi like this, her actions would be wasted.

At this moment, the families of the two girls who had been harmed by Yue Chi also called Lin Yin, saying that there had been a change in the case and that the real murderer of their daughter had been caught.

The two families did not know how to differentiate, but on the phone, they said that the person who killed their daughter had told them the entire process of the murder and could even explain some of the characteristics of the two girls.

Lin Yin listened coldly to what the other party meant. The murderer was willing to be executed and even give the two families a high compensation, so they planned to go back and not stay in the place Lin Yin had arranged for them.

Lin Yin knew that this was definitely not the case, but she had no way to pursue the matter.

The victims were the families of the two girls and they chose not to sue.

And the defendant had already turned himself in and even offered additional compensation. That was the end of the matter.

As an outsider, she really did not have the right and position to continue investigating.

The Yue Family handled things very quickly. Yue Chi was released the next day.

When he saw that only Yue Han and Gong Han were there to pick him up, Yue Chi subconsciously looked behind them. In the end, his expression quickly darkened.

Gong Han walked towards Yue Chi with a smile and said gently, "Brother, let's go home."

Yue Chi glanced at Gong Han coldly and walked closer to Yue Han. He asked unhappily, "Brother, are the two of you the only ones coming? Where's Dad... and the others?"

Yue Han knew what Yue Chi was thinking and couldn't help but say, "Dad still has something on at the company. She also went back to the mountain.

Naturally, your sister-in-law and I came to pick you up."

The gloomy aura on Yue Chi's body became even stronger. When he reached home, Yue Chi's expression was abnormally ugly.

Gong Han got out of the car first, then went forward and smiled at Yue Chi. "Brother, you were wronged this time, so we have to cross the brazier before we enter to get rid of the sinister aura on your body."

Yue Chi did not expect such a thing to happen. This was not the first time he had been locked up. Didn't he enter the house the same way when he came back previously? There was no such ceremony.

Sometimes, when Dad and Brother were busy, it was their secretary who picked him up and sent him back. It was cold and cheerless.

Yue Chi was a little unaccustomed to it. He smiled disdainfully and said, "What are you doing with these troublesome things? I often go to the police station. Based on your situation, are you going to help me get rid of the sinister aura every once in a while?"

Yue Han slapped Yue Chi's head angrily. "How can you talk to your sister-in-law like that? It's just a brazier. Why are you talking so much nonsense?"

"Brother! I'll be stupid if you hit my head!" Yue Chi touched the back of his head and said unhappily.

"I'd rather you were a fool. At least you wouldn't fool around outside every day,"

Yue Han said angrily. Then, he pushed Yue Chi. "Hurry up and stop dawdling!"

Yue Chi reluctantly raised his leg and stepped over the brazier. In the next second, Gong Han splashed water on his face with a willow leaf branch.

"Gong Han, what exactly do you want?" Yue Chi shouted impatiently.

As expected, Yue Chi's head was patted by Yue Han again. "Don't you know how to greet someone? Call her sister-in-law? What kind of attitude is that?! Be more polite to your sister-in-law in the future."

Seeing that Gong Han was still throwing the willow branch at him, Yue Chi gritted his teeth and was furious. He still shouted, "Sister-in-law, that's enough."

Coincidentally, Gong Han had also finished the ceremony. She walked to Yue Chi's side with a smile and said, "Alright, you can go in now. When you go in later, wash the filth off your body. Your brother and I even prepared a welcome banquet for you. After eating the welcome banquet, such things will disappear in the future."

Yue Chi turned around and saw Gong Han's sincere and clear eyes. She looked like a family member who wanted him to change.

An inexplicable emotion arose in Yue Chi's heart. Then, he turned around and walked into the house with an awkward expression.

Although Gong Han was a little superstitious, this feeling of being valued seemed to be quite good..

Chapter 822: Coconut Custard

Yue Chi's lips curled into a smile that he did not even realize.

Yue Han looked at Yue Chi's stubborn back and shook his head helplessly. Then, he turned to look at Gong Han and said apologetically, "My brother has such a temper. Don't take it to heart. I'll find an opportunity to educate him again."

Gong Han shook her head gently and said, "It's fine. I think he has quite a personality."

When Yue Chi, who was walking in front, heard Gong Han praise him, he was a little unaccustomed to it. In the end, his body tilted and he almost staggered and fell.

Yue Chi immediately maintained his balance and rushed into his bedroom as if nothing had happened.

When he finished washing up and arrived at the cafeteria, he saw Gong Han talking to him while setting up the dishes. "I heard from the auntie at home that you like coconut custard, so I made some for you. Come and try it?"

Yue Chi's gaze landed on the coconut custard in Gong Han's hand. He had mixed feelings. Then, he said stubbornly, "I don't like these sweet things."

Yue Han snatched the coconut custard from Gong Han's hand and took a big bite. He said calmly, "Since someone doesn't like it, I'll eat it."

As Yue Han ate, he sized up Yue Chi with his eyes, making Yue Chi angry. Yue

Chi took two heavy steps and sat beside the dining table, sulking.

He didn't know what was wrong with him, but he was in a bad mood. Just as Yue Chi was looking at the table angrily, a white and tender coconut custard appeared in front of him again.

Yue Chi looked up and saw Gong Han smiling as she said, "I made a lot. Try it and see if it's delicious. Just a little is enough. It's going to be dinner soon. If you eat too many desserts, you won't be able to eat dinner later."

This time, Yue Chi was not as unyielding as before. He only lowered his head and looked at the coconut custard in front of him without saying anything.

Then, he looked up slightly and saw his brother and Gong Han interacting in the kitchen. He felt a little emotional.

He had once imagined a happy family. His parents were happily preparing dinner in the kitchen. His brother was frowning and doing his homework. He was messing around at the side and was beaten up. When he cried, his mother would gently comfort him.

But now, such a warm scene came from his brother and sister-in-law. Yue Chi laughed bitterly and picked up a spoon to taste Gong Han's cooking.

The moment the coconut custard entered his mouth, Yue Chi's expression froze slightly. This taste was very similar to the taste in his memory.

He liked to eat coconut custard, not because it was delicious, but because on the day his mother left, the last thing that was handed to him was the coconut custard she made herself.

He thought that one day, his mother would come back and take the unfinished coconut custard from his hand and say angrily, "Why are you wasting food again?"

Then Mom would eat the rest of the coconut custard as usual and feign anger to educate him not to waste food.

Yue Chi looked at Gong Han in confusion. Then, he slowly ate the entire portion of coconut custard.

When Yue Han came out with the dishes, he was a little surprised to see that Yue Chi, who had always only eaten half of the coconut custard, had actually eaten the entire serving today. "Is it so delicious? You actually finished it all?"

Gong Han walked out and asked in confusion, "Of course we have to finish everything we eat. Are we going to waste it?"

Yue Han smiled and said, "You don't know, but Ah Chi has only eaten half of the coconut custard since he was young. This habit can't be changed no matter what. That's why I'm surprised."

When Gong Han heard this, she looked at Yue Chi in surprise and smiled. "Ah Chi, if you want to eat any desserts in the future, you can tell me. I often make desserts for my brother. I'll make some for you too."

Yue Chi rejected her flatly. "No need. I don't like desserts."

Yue Han explained, "He only likes this. He doesn't eat other desserts." Gong Han nodded in understanding.

During this period of time, other than coming back because of Yue Chi's matters, Yue Xi would usually stay in the company and basically not go home.

Therefore, only Gong Han and the Yue brothers were left for dinner.

Yue Chi was very silent throughout dinner, just like how the three fathers and sons of the Yue Family used to eat.

But with Gong Han's participation today, the atmosphere seemed to be much warmer.

Gong Han did not say much, but when she spoke, it was gentle. It was very comfortable to hear..

Chapter 823: Haunting

It was just like what Yue Chi had imagined after marriage when he convinced her to marry Gong Han.

Gong Han might be boring, but her culinary skills were really good and she was decent.

If Lin Yin hadn't interfered back then, he would be the one living happily with Gong Han now, right? That kind of life might be a little boring, but it wasn't too bad, right? Just like his brother now?

At the thought of this, Yue Chi suddenly woke up. He cursed himself for being a beast in his heart and kept brainwashing himself. "Gong Han is your brother's wife! Let's not think about the past anymore. Otherwise, we won't even have a brother in the future."

Seeing that Yue Chi's expression was not right, Gong Han picked up a piece of fish and placed it in Yue Chi's bowl. She said gently and with concern, "Ah Chi, why are you in a daze? Is the taste not to your liking? Although I specially went to ask Auntie about your and your brother's tastes, it's still my first time making it."

Yue Han said, "It's fine as long as it's edible. There's no need to be so particular."

In order to avoid Yue Han noticing his dirty thoughts, Yue Chi hurriedly picked up his chopsticks and ate obediently.

"Chi, stay at home for the time being and don't go out. Don't let anyone mistake you for the murderer lest we didn't handle this matter well," Yue Han said.

Yue Han did not intend to let Gong Han know the truth about Yue Chi. After this incident, he could push all the things that Yue Chi had done to that person who looked exactly like Yue Chi. Otherwise, he would have prepared such a person for nothing.

Gong Han echoed, "That's right, Ah Chi. That person looks so similar to you. It won't be good if others misunderstand."

Yue Chi saw Gong Han's concerned gaze and his eyes flickered slightly. Then, he stopped looking at Gong Han directly.

As Gong Han spoke, she looked at Yue Han and asked, "Have you found the person who framed Ah Chi at our engagement party? Have you found the person who disturbed our engagement party?"

Yue Han shook his head and said, "We don't know who it is yet. We're still investigating. "

Gong Han nodded. "We have to investigate such a person carefully. How can she use such a thing to slander others? However, that person can get videos of so many girls and contact the victim. I think they must have met these people before. It shouldn't be difficult to find, right?"

"I did, but many of them have moved away. It's not easy to find them," Yue Han said. He was afraid that Gong Han would notice something else if she continued asking, so Yue Han continued perfunctorily, "I'll investigate this matter carefully. You don't have to worry. "

After dinner, not long after Yue Han returned to his room, he received an anonymous message. It was some evidence to prove that Lin Yin was behind the whole thing.

Yue Han didn't care who sent the message, but his face turned green. He didn't expect Lin Yin to be so persistent.

Back then, when Lin Yin interfered in Yue Chi and Lan Xin's matter, he was warned by Lu Ming.

The subsequent marriage was also ruined because Lin Yin interfered and destroyed the project he had promised the Gong Family. He took revenge on Lin Yin and was chased and beaten by the Mu Family, he lost a lot of money.

This time, Lin Yin actually got someone to announce Yue Chi's matter at the engagement banquet. Not only did she ruin his engagement banquet with Gong Han, but she also ruined Yue Chi's reputation and almost sent him to jail.

What did Lin Yin want to do?

Didn't the Mu family already take revenge on him for plotting against Lin Yin and Mu Ran?

Was it not enough for him to lose so much money?

Was Lin Yin really going to fight to the death with the Yue Family?

A ferocious expression appeared on Yue Han's face.

It was better to resolve enmity than to keep it alive. Yue Han planned to ask Lin Yin out for a good chat.

A few days later, when Lin Yin received Yue Han's invitation, she was still muttering in her heart. What was Yue Han thinking? Was he trying to reconcile?

After class, Lin Yin informed Wei Ji, who was waiting for her, and went to the place Yue Han had booked.

When Yue Han saw Lin Yin, he stood up politely to welcome her.

"Tell me, why are you looking for me?" Lin Yin went straight to the point.

Yue Han looked at the person behind Lin Yin and smiled. "I have some private matters I want to discuss with Miss Lin Yin. There are too many people. It might not be good for you if I tell you."

Lin Yin nodded at Sun Biao and the others behind her, and Sun Biao brought them down.

After the door closed, Yue Han poured a cup of tea for Lin Yin with a humble expression and smiled. "Miss Lin Yin, I know that something unpleasant happened between you and our Yue Family. Today, I solemnly apologize to you, Miss Lin Yin. Of course, I'm not just saying. Miss Lin Yin, feel free to ask for anything. As long as I can do it, I'll definitely do it for you.."

Chapter 824: Negotiation

"What do you mean?" Lin Yin looked at Yue Han and asked.

Yue Han gently lowered his hand that was holding the teacup and smiled. "Miss Lin Yin, let's not beat around the bush. This time, you played my brother's video at my engagement banquet. I don't plan to pursue the matter. But at the same time, I also hope that the grudge between us will be written off. In the future, we'll go our separate ways and have nothing to do with each other.

What do you think? I can even give you some compensation."

Lin Yin chuckled and said, "Whether you believe it or not, I'll only say it once. I prepared that video, but I wasn't the one who publicly played it that day."

Yue Han frowned and asked in disbelief, "How is that possible? Since the video is yours, how can it not be played by you in public? Even if it's not Miss Lin Yin, I think only Miss Lin Yin's subordinate can get these videos, right?"

Lin Yin's expression was indifferent and calm. She knew that it was impossible for Yue Han to believe her. "I'll admit it if I did it, but I won't take the blame if I didn't. But there's one thing I can confirm. Even if Yue Chi's matter isn't exposed this time, the next time I find an opportunity, I'll expose Yue Chi in broad daylight."

Yue Han's expression darkened. "Miss Lin Yin, I really don't understand. What deep hatred do you have for my brother that you have to kill him?"

The corners of Lin Yin's lips curled up slightly as she smiled. "He once insulted someone very important to me and almost tortured her to death. What do you think?"

Lin Yin couldn't explain to Yue Han directly that Yue Chi had almost killed her in her previous life. She could only say it in this way.

Yue Han frowned. He didn't expect Yue Chi to harm Lin Yin's people. Then, his tone softened. "Miss Lin Yin, I wonder where that person is now? I can escort my brother to kneel and apologize. Our Yue Family can shoulder that girl who was violated for the rest of her life and be responsible for her for the rest of her life. What do you think? Our Yue Family will give any sum of money."

This was the first time Yue Han was so humble in dealing with Yue Chi's relationship.

As long as Lin Yin was not a member of the Mu Family, the current Yue Han would still be that high and mighty superior, looking at the victim disdainfully like he did in his previous life.

Lin Yin sneered. "Does your Yue Family think that money can solve everything? Alright, since your Yue Family is rich, why don't you compensate that girl with all the assets of the Yue family?"

Yue Han's expression instantly darkened, and his tone was cold. "Miss Lin Yin, I'm seriously discussing reconciliation with you. I hope you won't make such a joke."

"Joking? I'm not joking. Since you think money is omnipotent, you have to expect the other party to ask for an exorbitant price. Why? You can't afford it?"

You can't bear to? Then there's no room for negotiation." Lin Yin looked at Yue Han mockingly.

“So, Miss Lin Yin won’t give up on dealing with my brother no matter what?” Yue Han’s voice was a little cold as he stared at Lin Yin with a poisonous gaze, as if he would strangle Lin Yin to death with a poisonous gaze if she dared to say yes.

“You want to kill me by looking at me like that?” Lin Yin sneered. “I haven’t done anything to your brother yet, but you hate me already. What about those girls who have already been hurt or even tortured to death? Don’t you think they hate you? If the knife doesn’t land on you, don’t you feel pain?”

“Lin Yin, what nonsense are you talking about? Didn’t we already catch the culprit who hurt those girls? You’re talking nonsense without any evidence now. This is slander.” Yue Han raised his voice and reprimanded.

Lin Yin snorted. “Yue Han, you know very well if I’m talking nonsense. Let me tell you, as long as Yue Chi isn’t responsible for what he did, this matter won’t be over.”

“Lin Yin, are you really going to cause a conflict between the Yue and Mu families because of your willfulness?” Yue Han said coldly.

Lin Yin’s eyes turned cold. “You mean you plan to deal with my family?”

“I’m not the one who wants to deal with your family. You’re the one who won’t let my brother off! If anything happens to my brother, then even if our Yue Family isn’t as good as your Mu Family, we’ll drag your Mu Family down with us,” Yue Han threatened.

“So you’re here to threaten me today?” Lin Yin’s voice rose with a strong questioning tone.

Yue Han softened his tone. “As long as you don’t keep an eye on my brother, both families are fine..”

Chapter 825: Warning

Lin Yin slowly stood up and looked at Yue Han, who was sitting there, with an ambiguous gaze. Then, she turned around and was about to leave.

Yue Han did not get Lin Yin's word and immediately stood up in front of her unhappily. He said gloomily, "Lin Yin, I need an accurate word from you."

Lin Yin reached out nimbly and grabbed Yue Han's neck under his gradually widening eyes. She warned, "Yue Han, you'd better not provoke me and my family. Otherwise, I won't be polite to you."

Lin Yin shook Yue Han off ruthlessly, leaving Yue Han burning with anger.

Seeing Lin Yin leave completely intact, Sun Biao and the others heaved a sigh of relief.

Lin Yin looked at the expressions of Sun Biao and the others and felt inexplicably amused. "What's wrong? Nothing will happen to me in broad daylight, right?"

Sun Biao sighed. How could he not be worried? He felt that Lin Yin had enemies everywhere.

Yue Chi looked viciously in the direction where Lin Yin and the others had left. So the person who stabbed him in the back was Lin Yin!

When Yue Han appeared, he saw Yue Chi standing at the door and asked in shock, "Why are you here? Didn't I tell you not to come out for the time being?"

Yue Chi retracted the emotions on his face and turned to Yue Han. "Sister-in-law said that you forgot to bring a document and wanted to hand it to you. I had nothing to do, so I snatched it over and came to give it to you. I've been following behind you. It's fine."

“You’ve been following behind me. Did you hear what I said to Lin Yin just now?” Yue Han asked nervously.

He didn’t want Yue Chi to know that Lin Yin had dealt with Yue Chi. He was afraid that with Yue Chi’s impulsive personality, if he dealt with Lin Yin himself, things would be even more troublesome.

Yue Chi said with a puzzled expression, “I don’t know? Brother, were you talking to Lin Yin just now? What can you and Lin Yin talk about? Don’t tell me you’re planning to have an affair after you’re engaged?”

Yue Han knocked Yue Chi’s head angrily. “What nonsense are you talking about? Am I that kind of person? Your mind is filled with nonsense.”

Although Yue Han was nagging at Yue Chi, he felt much more relaxed. From what Yue Chi said, he probably didn’t know what he and Lin Yin had talked about.

Yue Han got someone to send Yue Han back and reminded him repeatedly not to come out and cause trouble for the time being.

When Yue Chi returned home, he saw that Gong Han was about to leave and asked curiously, “Where are you going?”

Gong Han also said in confusion, “I’m going home.”

“Why are you going home?” Yue Chi thought that Gong Han was unhappy and was going back to her parents’ house. He felt inexplicably nervous.

“Isn’t it normal for me to go home? Your brother and I are just engaged and not married,” Gong Han replied.

Only then did Yue Chi realize that he might have made a mistake.

Gong Han's compatibility with their family was simply maxed out, so much so that Yue Chi thought that Gong Han was already married to her brother and was a part of their Yue Family.

Seeing Yue Chi's awkward expression, Gong Han only smiled and said, "Then I'll leave first."

Yue Chi nodded.

He had thought that the house was quite warm but it suddenly felt lonely when Gong Han left.

As expected, habit was a terrifying thing. Gong Han had only been with them for a few days, but Yue Chi felt that they had been together for a long time.

Yue Chi retracted his thoughts and what Yue Han and Lin Yin had said just now appeared in his mind.

Since Lin Yin didn't want to let him off, he couldn't just sit back and wait for death.

He had tortured too many women and could not remember which one was related to Lin Yin.

But it didn't matter which one it was. In short, one of them had to die between him and Lin Yin.

If the Mu Family wanted revenge, he would pay with his life. Anyway, he had to bring Lin Yin along with him.

Lin Yin hesitated about dealing with Yue Chi.

When she was by herself, she had to kill Yue Chi. However, she did not dare to bet on the Mu family now.

She looked at Wei Ji, who was reading seriously opposite her, and understood what it meant to be shackled.

Wei Ji did not dare to resist because of Wei Xuan. She did not dare to take revenge because of her family. She was afraid that Yue Han would go crazy and fight the Mu Family to the death.

Lin Yin sighed slightly. Wei Ji looked up at Lin Yin and asked, "Yinyin, what's wrong? You've been sighing since yesterday.. Did something happen?"

Chapter 826: Suicide

Lin Yin only shook her head and changed the topic. "How have you been at home recently? Do they still bully you?"

Wei Ji smiled sweetly at Lin Yin and shook his head. "No, everyone has been very quiet recently and didn't cause trouble for me. Fortunately, Yinyin, you gave me a few bodyguards. They don't dare to provoke your bodyguards."

Looking at Wei Ji's happy expression and his exposed incisors, Lin Yin was very happy.

After the library self-study ended, Lin Yin and Wei Ji had just walked to the entrance of the library when they heard Su Su's thunderous voice message: Yinyin, bad news. Xiluo committed suicide!

When Lin Yin heard this, she felt that something was wrong. Then, she received a video call from Su Su.

That crazy Xiluo actually committed suicide by jumping off the tallest building in the school.

Before she committed suicide, Xiluo accused Mu Ran. She accused him of using his looks and throwing ambiguous hints to his fans, such as giving some small gifts and saying misleading words to seduce his fans into being obsessed with him and then abandoning them heartlessly. In the end, he used his family's power to kill some fans who had come to their senses.

The video also recorded Mu Ran's fans secretly splashing red paint on Xiluo's house and sending all kinds of scary dolls, blades, and packages full of curses. She would even be attacked by Mu Ran's fans on the way.

Xiluo blamed Mu Ran for all of this. She claimed that it was because of Mu Ran that she was seriously depressed.

Mu Ran even used his family's power to force the school to make the decision to expel her. This made her feel guilty towards her parents and she could not withstand the bullying so she did not want to live anymore.

This video quickly spread on the Internet, causing an uproar.

Even though Mu Ran had already announced his withdrawal from the industry, it could not stop the heated discussion on the Internet.

Many netizens strongly requested Mu Ran, the indirect murderer, to come out and give an explanation. Among them was no lack of people who had once contacted Mu Ran's competitors. There was no choice. Mu Ran had too many fans in the entertainment industry, and they were too loyal.

Mu Ran had left the entertainment industry for a while, but his popularity online had not decreased. Therefore, only by ruining Mu Ran's reputation would these loyal fans be completely disappointed and give up on Mu Ran to switch to another male celebrity.

At this moment, Lin Yin realized what Xiluo meant when he said that she would not let the Mu family off even if she did not have a good life.

She really did not expect Xiluo to be crazy enough to use suicide to drag Mu Ran down.

Most of the comments online were scolding Mu Ran now, and there were also Mu Ran's fans who came out to defend Mu Ran, so the Internet was in a mess.

[I'm just a passerby, but I can't help but want to say a few words. As a public figure, a celebrity's words and actions affect the atmosphere of society.]

Therefore, as a celebrity, since he has enjoyed the pursuit of his fans to obtain fame and fortune, he also has to have control over his fans' words and actions. Otherwise, it's easy to cause such a tragedy.]

[The person above is obviously against him. They still say they're just a passerby. Pfft! Mu Ran is alone and has millions of fans. Can he control everyone? Can't you think before you speak? Besides, it's already reported, Xiluo is obviously an extreme fan with mental problems. How can she blame this on Mu Ran? It's simply ridiculous.]

[Now, these young ladies are crazy about celebrities. They're actually giving up their lives because the celebrity is good-looking. It's too laughable.]

[Trash celebrity. He should have been kicked out of the entertainment industry long ago. My daughter is still young, but she was seduced by these celebrities who rely on their looks to make a living. She doesn't attend class properly all day and skips school to build a fan club. She goes to fetch them at the airport or something. Someone should've long stepped up to deal with this scum that jeopardizes society.]

[Celebrities nowadays clearly have so much money at home, but they still appear to show themselves off and make money off of underage girls. They're simply shameless. The faces of these capitalists simply stink. It's disgusting.]

[The entertainment industry nowadays is a platform for rich people to circle around money. Many boys and girls who don't know the dangers of society are the cash cows of these people. And all of them are still happily protecting the celebrities.]

[I wonder how many girls such a handsome and famous person has seduced in private. I suggest the officials investigate carefully to see if this man has slept with any little girls he shouldn't have. Young girls are the easiest to be deceived by such a good-looking man..]

Chapter 827: Night Visit

[Superficial women. When you pick men, you have to pick those that are not good-looking, only then will he be a good family man. Those who are good-looking will play around in private. You can't control them, understand?]

[Please, this has nothing to do with celebrities and idols, okay? When someone chases a celebrity it means they're following their character. Just because Mu Ran's character is bad doesn't mean that everyone in the entertainment industry has a bad character. For example, my idol is clean and honest. He's filled with positive energy. Such a person is the one we should chase.]

[Mu Ran, get out here and apologize. Because of this trash, Mu Ran, even my idol was scolded. A malignant tumor like Mu Ran must not leave the industry just like that. We must get Mu Ran to come out and apologize publicly and apologize for this innocent fan who jumped off a building.]

[Cheap man! Show yourself and get prosecuted by the law!]

[He actually ignored his fans and attacked an innocent girl. He even used his family's power to force a powerless little girl! He's too disgusting!]

[I'm advising these D-List celebrities of unknown origin to not make themselves known here. Brother Ran's character is not something you can slander. Don't force me to curse you!]

[Justice is in the hearts of people. I believe in Brother Ran!]

[Last time, you slandered our Brother Ran for being secretly married and having a child. This time, you're slandering our Brother Ran again. Why? You think she's easy to bully, so you keep bullying her, right? Some fans better keep their keyboards well. Don't force me to pick up the keyboard again and fight it out with you!]

Wei Ji asked worriedly, "Yinyin, will something happen to Brother Ran like this?"

Lin Yin's expression was solemn as she said in a low voice, "There's a high chance that nothing will happen. That woman committed suicide. She brought everything on herself. It's just that if Third Brother doesn't clarify it completely, this will be a stain on Third Brother's life. In the future, whenever anyone mentions Mu Ran, they will remember that a fan committed suicide because of Mu Ran. Even if Third Brother has already left the entertainment industry, I don't want him to end up like this."

Wei Ji nodded and said, "Yinyin, you're right. But what should we do? I want to help Brother Ran too."

Lin Yin thought for a moment and said in a low voice, "I'll check on Xiluo first and see if there's any breakthrough."

When Lin Yin secretly arrived at Xiluo's house, it was dark and windy.

Dongyi was still persuading, "Miss Lin Yin, if you need anything, you can just instruct me to come. You don't have to come personally."

Long Huang also agreed. "That's right, Miss Lin Yin. We'll definitely help you do what you want. Why take the risk yourself?"

"No need, I'll do it myself. It's not dangerous. Just help me watch outside." Lin Yin rejected their suggestion and turned around to climb in through a window of Xiluo's Family in the dark.

According to the information they found, two years ago, because of Xiluo's pursuit of celebrities, Xiluo's parents left her some money angrily before going overseas and never returned. Therefore, Xiluo had been living alone for the past two years.

Xiluo had just committed suicide by jumping off a building today. Even if the police contacted Xiluo's parents, they would not return so quickly.

Lin Yin shone a miniature flashlight at Xiluo's house.

It was a simple three-bedroom apartment. Lin Yin walked around but didn't see anything useful. She just didn't expect Xiluo to live alone and have a big refrigerator at home.

Lin Yin entered the three rooms and finally stopped in the bedroom that looked like Xiluo would stay in.

Following the light of the flashlight, Lin Yin saw that Xiluo's bedroom was filled with Mu Ran's things, various poster photos, and the surroundings of Mu Ran.

Not only was Mu Ran on that wall, but there were also some other people, and most of them looked like women.

It was unclear because the photos were all covered with scribbles and scrawls. She couldn't tell what the photos actually looked like.

However, there were names written beside those photos. Lin Yin picked up her phone and took a photo.

However, the next moment, Lin Yin saw a familiar name: Lan Xin.

Lan Xin, the little celebrity who liked Mu Ran?

Did Xiluo pin these women up on the wall because she thought they were related to Mu Ran.

Lin Yin couldn't help but sneer. There was really something wrong with Xiluo, and her sixth sense was very accurate. For example, Lan Xin did have feelings for Mu Ran..

Chapter 828 - 828: Is It the Murderer?

Lin Yin, who did not manage to find any important news, left Xiluo's house under the cover of night.

As soon as she returned to the apartment near the school, she saw Mu Ran sitting in the living room without even turning on the lights.

"Third Brother?" Lin Yin shouted worriedly, "What's wrong?"

Hearing Lin Yin's voice, Mu Ran, who was still shrouded in gloom, forced a smile and looked at Lin Yin. "Yinyin, you're back?"

Mu Ran had thought that since it was not the weekend, Lin Yin would not come here, so he wanted to come over for some peace and quiet. He did not expect Lin Yin to come.

Lin Yin sat in front of Mu Ran and said worriedly, "Third Brother, Xiluo's matter has nothing to do with you. Don't take it to heart."

Mu Ran's lips curled into a bitter smile. "Yinyin, you don't have to comfort me. In the past, I thought I could be a positive influence for my fans. I didn't expect that in their eyes, I was the kind of vixen who seduced them and abandoned them."

Lin Yin looked at Mu Ran's dejected expression. Before she could comfort him, Mu Ran looked at Lin Yin anxiously and asked uneasily, "Yinyin, if I hadn't become an actor and entered the entertainment industry, would Xiluo not have died? She wouldn't have fallen out with her parents and would have lived happily with her parents."

"She'll still be a student at Capital University. After she graduates, she might still have a very good job. She'll meet a very good person and build a happy life. Yinyin, tell me, am I really the murderer?"

"Third Brother, your assumption is not realistic at all. That's also possible. If you don't become an actor, Xiluo will like another male celebrity, right? Even if she doesn't like other male celebrities, it doesn't mean that her life will be smooth-sailing without you, it doesn't mean that she will definitely have a happy family and have a good job. Don't blame the tragedy of others' lives on yourself," Lin Yin advised with a frown.

She was afraid that Mu Ran would get into a dead end and think that Xiluo had been forced to death by him.

After comforting Mu Ran for a while, Lin Yin only returned to the dormitory when Mu Ran's emotions eased slightly.

Before leaving, Lin Yin sent a message to Mu Xiao, she asked him to accompany Mu Ran. Then, she sent some information about Xiluo to Mu Heng for him to investigate.

After returning to the dormitory, Lin Yin pushed open the door and heard Su Su cursing on the bed.

Lin Yin looked at Feng Yu in confusion. Feng Yu said softly, "She's been scolding people for the entire afternoon because of your brother."

Perhaps because she heard the door close, Su Su immediately got up from the bed. When she saw that Lin Yin was really back, she immediately asked worriedly, "Yinyin, how is Brother Ran? Is he in a good mood? Is he very unhappy?"

Lin Yin nodded slightly. This time, Su Su was anxious. "I knew it. As long as Brother Ran is an evil person, he can ignore such things completely. Only kind-hearted people torture themselves."

Lin Yin agreed with Su Su's words. Only when people were kind would they feel guilty and take responsibility for others' misfortune.

Lin Yin looked up at Su Su, then her eyes flickered twice. She asked, "Su Su, do you really think that Xiluo's death has nothing to do with my brother at all? Just as Xiluo said, she was seduced by my brother. Because of my brother's outstanding appearance and because of the occasional misunderstandings of sweet nothings or small gifts, Xiluo was obsessed. It was my brother who gave her the expectations, and he tempted her to sacrifice so much and even broke off ties with her family to follow my brother. Don't you think my brother is also in the wrong?"

Su Su looked at Lin Yin in shock and said in disbelief, "Lin Yin, what nonsense are you talking about? Do you really think we fans only look at looks? Lin Yin, aren't you looking down on us and insulting your brother too much? Brother Ran is a capable actor, not the kind of young hunk who serves others with his looks. ”

Seeing that Su Su’s face was red, Feng Yu was afraid that Su Su and Lin Yin would have a conflict, so she quickly persuaded her, “Su Su, don’t be agitated. Yinyin might not mean that. That’s her brother. Why would she comment on her brother like this?”

Only then did Su Su calm down. This was what Mu Ran’s biological sister had said. If it were anyone else, Su Su felt that she would have torn her foul mouth apart..

Chapter 829 - 829: Telling

Lin Yin was not angry at Su Su’s agitated words. Instead, she asked with some relief, “So, you fans really aren’t blaming Brother Ran for this matter? Don’t you think that he was too heartless to his fans and caused Xiluo to commit suicide? You’re supporting Mu Ran like this. Do you really not want some response?”

Seeing that Lin Yin was going overboard, Su Su stood up angrily from the bed.

Seeing this, Feng Yu immediately stopped Su Su.

Su Su’s gaze landed on Lin Yin angrily and she said angrily, “Lin Yin, I know you’re the daughter the Mu family has just found, so I understand that you don’t understand your biological brother. You’ve never chased after celebrities, so I understand that you don’t understand the reality of us fans supporting our idols. But I’ll explain this time. The next time I hear these inexplicable words from you, our relationship as classmates will end here. Even if you have the Mu family backing you, I’m not afraid of you.”

With that, Su Su turned on her computer and pulled Lin Yin to look at the fan group she was in.

Lin Yin didn’t understand why Su Su was dragging her to look at the group.

Su Su directly clicked on a girl's profile picture and said silently, "This is Little Moon, also a new student of our University this year. She looks like a good student now, but three years ago, when she was just in her first year of high school, she was a delinquent. She was at the risk of dropping out of school as soon as school started."

Su Su turned to look at Lin Yin. "Later on, she became obsessed with chasing celebrities. Perhaps in your opinion, chasing celebrities is what crazy children do for fun. They don't do anything proper and neglect their studies, right? But everyone doesn't know that when Little Moon entered the fan group, that group of old fans found out that Little Moon was still a first-year student. Not only did they urge her to do her homework in the group every day, but they also personally came up with questions to tutor Little Moon."

Su Su's eyes revealed a nostalgic gaze. "At that time, Brother Ran's fan club had some unspoken rules like this. When you first enter the group, you're asked about your age and your studies. I joined the group at that time. For the entire three years of high school, the fans who were also students slowly grew up in such an intense atmosphere for learning.

"I once asked them why they did this. They said that back then, they were early in chasing celebrities. At that time, Brother Ran was not so famous and was even a student. When he was a student, Brother Ran said that we had to arm ourselves with knowledge to go further in this world. He also said that he hoped that every fan could have the ability to settle down in this world and live a carefree and outstanding life."

"From that moment on, those fans grew up with Brother Ran and learned in the group. Brother Ran slowly gained a foothold in the entertainment industry, and they slowly achieved their own accomplishments in their respective fields. Lin Yin, have you heard of a saying? Start for their looks, fall for their talent, and stay for their character. This is what I've come to realize from Brother Ran.

"To be honest, the first time I chased after celebrities, I was indeed bewitched by Brother Ran's looks and entered the group in a daze. But later, I was really attracted by Brother Ran's talent and character. It was also the positive energy from Brother Ran and the older fans that I obtained some plans for the future. Even if my plans are a little vain, I'm no longer living in a daze like before."

"So it's Brother Ran's appearance that has led many fans who are confused about the future to find a way. Brother Ran's success has also become the motivation for many fans to work hard, making us look forward to the future and pursue it."

As Su Su spoke, she opened another girl's profile picture and said, "She's Mi Dou, she's a single mom who was abandoned when she was seven months pregnant. She was only 19 years old when she joined the group. She was about to commit suicide because she felt that she had embarrassed her parents and family. She also felt that there was no light in her future."

"But because she accidentally saw an interview with Brother Ran, she entered the group. She said that during that period of time, she watched Brother Ran's movies, television dramas, and various interviews and music. Even through the screen, Brother Ran's company and encouragement gave her the strength and courage to face the difficulties and setbacks in her life."

"She has no one else and she was in a whirlpool of life. She was about to die at any moment and she suddenly had something to hold on to. Isn't that considered Brother Ran's response to her? Brother Ran doesn't need to physically accompany us. He just needs to live a peaceful life.. That's all it takes to encourage and cheer for the many fans who can't cross the threshold of life, isn't it?"

Chapter 830: Big Problem

Su Su opened another girl's profile picture. "This girl's name is Long Long. She's depressed and doesn't have a single friend in her life. Her parents think that her depression is because she's pretentious and she's making a lot of fuss without actual illness. Later, a sister in the group who's a psychiatrist led everyone to cure that girl. It's not just online, but also offline. The group of us gathered together because of Brother Ran. We're like like-minded friends, we have a sense of belonging."

Su Su stood up and looked at Lin Yin. She said with a serious expression that Lin Yin had never seen on Su Su, "Lin Yin, there are too many people in the world. Some people are born evil, selfish, domineering, and unreasonable. You can't blame their natural evil on Brother Ran."

"For example, I'm lecherous, petty, jealous, vain, and cling to the rich and powerful. I'll also do some overboard things, but this isn't because I'm Brother Ran's fan. It's because I'm such a person to begin with. It's Brother Ran who made me restrain myself a little. You shouldn't deny Brother Ran because of the actions of some fans, or even some people who aren't fans at all."

Lin Yin put away her phone that had been recording and said with a smile, "Su Su, thank you for protecting my brother. "

Su Su looked at the cell phone in Lin Yin's hand and seemed to be in a daze. "Are you provoking me on purpose?"

"I'm sorry, but Brother Ran has indeed been in a bad mood recently, so I want him to hear the thoughts of his fans. Of course, if you mind, I'll delete it now." Lin Yin was about to delete the recording on her phone.

Su Su hurriedly went forward to stop Lin Yin and said anxiously, "You don't have to delete it. Anyway, these are the words of us fans. I'm not afraid of you letting Brother Ran listen to them."

However, when Su Su thought of her indignant words just now, she still rubbed her head in embarrassment. This was the first time she knew that she had such a righteous side.

"Su Su, help me do something." Lin Yin looked at Su Su and smiled.

Not only did she want Mu Ran to resolve the knot in his heart this time, but she also wanted Mu Ran to embrace the career he liked again.

When Su Su heard Lin Yin's plan, she nodded happily. Then, she picked up her computer and started writing with excitement on her face.

When Lin Yin played the recording in her hand to Mu Ran, Mu Ran's originally dim eyes lit up.

Mu Ran knew very well that he had indeed been working hard for his career all these years. He wanted to do his best and not let his fans down.

However, what happened to Xiluo this time confused him. He couldn't help but wonder if he had done something wrong to cause a fan like Xiluo to have bad morals.

It had to be said that Su Su's words had indeed relieved the uneasiness in Mu Ran's heart.

At this moment, many Mu Ran fans suddenly appeared on the Internet and started an event called: All these years with my idol, Mu Ran.

Every fan revealed the moments they had experienced with Mu Ran all these years. Some were depressed and comforted by Mu Ran's voice, some were motivated by Mu Ran's words when they were confused, and some cried and laughed at the youth they had experienced...

The Internet was filled with positive words. Lin Yin sighed. Perhaps this was the power of an idol.

Unknowingly, it affected those who paid attention to him.

No wonder someone said that celebrities with social influence had to keep themselves clean because their words and actions would have a subtle influence on their fans.

Lin Yin turned to look at Mu Ran and saw the sparkling light in his eyes. Then, she stood up and patted Mu Ran's shoulder. She silently left Mu Ran's room and let him think about it quietly.

When Mu Heng saw Lin Yin come out, he gave Lin Yin all the results of the investigation during this period of time and said, "That Xiluo is very problematic. It's not just Mu Ran. She's wooed other celebrities before, but she gave up on them when she was wooing Mu Ran. However, I got someone to repair her computer and saw many private photos she secretly took. In the past two years, when her parents were not around, her living expenses were exchanged for using the private photos she saved up in her early years to threaten those male celebrities."

As he spoke, Mu Heng pulled up many photos. "Xiluo even anonymously threatened many female celebrities who were close to Mu Ran. He even infiltrated the rooms of those female celebrities and pretended to be mysterious. In order to confirm, I got someone to specially find those who had been harassed by Xiluo to verify it. They said that they had indeed encountered such a thing before, but they were used to it and didn't investigate further at that time.."
