

Real Daughter 881

Chapter 881: Study Assistance Project

Lin Yin asked Sun Biao to collect information of those graduate female students who had once been sponsored by the Yue Corporation -before she went to bed.

The next morning, Sun Biao sent a list of names. Lin Yin did not expect that the Yue Corporation had sponsored many students. If there were no other problems, this could be considered a thoughtful corporation.

Lin Yin got someone to divide these female students into groups and secretly investigate their situation.

She thought that she would find some abnormalities, but after investigating for two days, those students said the same things. They were all very grateful for the Yue Corporation's financial support.

Whether it was the students who transferred to schools under the Yue Corporation or the students who did not transfer and only accepted funding, they were all grateful to the Yue Corporation, causing Lin Yin to feel that she did not know Yue Chi well enough.

Perhaps Yue Chi was a demon, but perhaps this demon would not do anything to damage his Corporation's reputation?

Wei Ji looked at the stunned Lin Yin and asked softly, "Yinyin, what's wrong? Why were you distracted all morning?"

Lin Yin came back to her senses slightly. When she saw Wei Ji, she asked, "Didn't your second uncle collaborate with Yue Chi on that school support project? Did the collaboration go smoothly? Was there anything abnormal?"

Wei Ji frowned and thought for a moment before answering, "I don't know much about it, but they should be working well. I heard that they've been working together for a year or two. What's wrong? If you're interested, I'll help you ask when I meet Second Uncle when I'm home?"

Lin Yin quickly shook her head and said, "There's no need. I'm just asking. I want to get some experience. When the time comes, our Corporation will also create a school support project to increase the reputation of the company and promote it."

"Do you really not need me to go back and ask for you? Actually, it's just a matter of mentioning it. The Yue Family has sponsored the children in my second uncle's school for a long time. They've always worked well together. I think they must have some good experience," Wei Ji said.

Lin Yin quickly refused. "There's really no need. By the way, don't tell your second uncle about this, understand?"

Wei Ji frowned in confusion and asked, "Why? My second uncle will be very happy if he finds out that you want to do a student support program. There are many people in this world who need help. Just like how the Yue Family doesn't sponsor every student."

"Then are there any requirements to be a student sponsored by the Yue family?" Lin Yin asked Wei Ji.

Wei Ji seemed to be racking his brains to recall. After a long time, he said,

"Maybe those who are good in their studies but have a bad family background?"

After all, only those who have good results are worth being sponsored."

Feng Yu leaned over and said, "You might not believe it, but the Yue Corporation sponsors students not only based on their family background, but also their results and looks. My sister joked with me before and said that. She said her new classmates are all quite good-looking."

Lin Yin suddenly turned to look at Feng Yu. Their looks?

Wei Ti said in disbelief. "That's impossible- It's too unfair to sponsor a student based on their looks."

Feng Yu looked at the podium and lowered her voice. "It's true. My sister was sponsored by the Yue Corporation. She said that even if she's a country bumpkin, she's still conventionally pretty. Otherwise, tell me, I have the same family background and academic results as my sister. I'm not bad either. Why doesn't the Yue Corporation sponsor me? It's all because my sister is prettier than me."

Lin Yin's expression turned serious. She looked at Feng Yu and said, "Feng Yu, call your sister more often to chat when you have time. If possible, ask her out this weekend. I have something to ask her."

Seeing Lin Yin's serious expression, Feng Yu did not know what had happened, but she still nodded.

Although she had yet to obtain any information that Lin Yin wanted to know, Lin Yin already had a vague guess. Perhaps some of the students sponsored were used to deceive others, and some were the people the Yue Corporation wanted.

If things were really as she thought, was Wei Chuan involved?

Lin Yin quickly and seriously instructed Wei Ji not to go back and mention to Wei Chuan that she was interested in the Huaqiang Study Network to avoid raising suspicion. Otherwise, the other party would hide before she could investigate.

Feng Yu promised Lin Yin that she would ask her sister out. In the end, after a long time, Feng Rong sent a message saying that she was going to perform to the kind people who sponsored them this weekend, so she couldn't come meet her..

Chapter 882: Conflict

"Gratitude performance?" Su Su was caught between laughter and tears. "The leaders of this school are really interesting. They like to do such fake things."

Feng Yu retorted, "You can't say that. They're sponsoring the students' tuition and living expenses. Isn't it good to go over and perform to show their gratitude? You have to show gratitude."

Lin Yin lowered her eyes and looked at Feng Yu. "Feng Yu, ask where your sister is going to perform. We'll go take a look too."

"What are we going to do?" Feng Yu was puzzled. "Although I think there needs to be a performance, I don't think it will be very good."

Lin Yin tried her best not to look too serious. She said with a smile, "They sponsored your sister. As her sister, shouldn't you go and see what this kind person looks like? I'm your roommate, and your sister is my sister. Isn't it normal for me to go and see what a kind person looks like?"

Feng Yu did not expect Lin Yin to say that and was a little touched.

Su Su smiled and said, "Yinyin, if you want to watch the show, just say it. Why say you want to go and see what kind people look like? It's not like you haven't seen the Yue Family before. If you call them now, you might be able to ask them out to take a good look."

"That's different," Lin Yin replied simply. Then, she urged Feng Yu to quickly contact Feng Rong.

Feng Yu looked at the time. It was already past ten in the evening. Feng Rong should be preparing to sleep at this time. Most importantly, she did not know if the cell phone was with Feng Rong.

Even so, Feng Yu still called Feng Rong. As expected, no one picked up.

Feng Yu sighed and said to Lin Yin, 'My sister didn't accept it. Ever since she transferred to this new school, we can only contact her when she contacts us. When we contact her, we can't get her answer in time. They have training and performances. Sigh! She sounds very busy.'

Lin Yin had originally wanted to investigate the Yue Family's student support network from Feng Yu's sister, but now it seemed to be a little difficult. She kept feeling that there was a problem with this gratitude performance.

Lin Yin turned around and asked Sun Biao to investigate Feng Rong. Since Feng Rong was going to that gratitude performance this weekend, as long as she found out where Feng Rong was, she could take the opportunity to sneak in and find out.

If Yue Chi really did something immoral, she could use this to deal with Yue Chi.

Ever since that fake Yue Chi took the blame for Yue Chi last time, almost everything that Yue Chi had done before was cleared.

Lin Yin couldn't find any evidence to prove that the person who committed those crimes back then was the real Yue Chi, so she could only let Yue Chi get away with it.

Coupled with the fact that Yue Chi had really restrained himself a lot during this period of time, Lin Yin didn't have anything on Yue Chi. This made her want to deal with Yue Chi, but she didn't know where to start.

Lin Yin had thought about it. If Yue Chi really turned over a new leaf from now on, how could the girls who had been violated by Yue Chi be reconciled? And how could the girls who had lost their lives because of Yue Chi rest in peace?

And how could she get over the harm she had suffered in her previous life? She couldn't directly find someone to assassinate Yue Chi.

If that was really the outcome, then the Heavens were too unfair.

Actually, Lin Yin was feeling quite conflicted. She hoped that Yue Chi would not change even if he died. This way, she would definitely have a chance to catch evidence of Yue Chi committing another crime.

However, this meant that a new girl was suffering, such as this incident with the student support network. Lin Yin did hope that there was something unspeakable and dirty going on. This way, she could uncover Yue Chi and let him receive the punishment he deserved.

However, she also hoped that there was nothing dubious going on with the help network. She was afraid that something would really happen. She was afraid that she would see innocent girls be in harmful situations but be isolated and helpless. Just like her in her previous life, she could not seek help and was bullied.

Lin Yin thought that it would be a while before Sun Biao could find out Feng Rong's whereabouts. She did not expect that Sun Biao would send her Feng Rong's location at noon the next day.

However, this matter was too easy to investigate. When Sun Biao saw Lin Yin, he said suspiciously, "Boss, I think there's something fishy about this. I sent someone to infiltrate the girl's school you mentioned yesterday. I couldn't find her at first, but it was such a coincidence that I happened to hear someone discussing Feng Rong, and then I heard her whereabouts."

Lin Yin also frowned slightly. "You mean that someone might have known that we were investigating Feng Rong and even knew your whereabouts.. They even specially appeared when your people went to investigate and leaked Feng Rong's whereabouts to you?"

Chapter 883: Sneaking Away

Sun Biao nodded. "My first reaction at that time was that someone had set a trap for you to fall into. After all, the manager of this student support network is Yue Chi. It's possible that Yue Chi deliberately used your roommate's sister to lure you into the trap."

"Otherwise, how could it be such a coincidence that you happened to have a conflict with Yue Chi and your roommate's sister suddenly transferred to a school under the Yue Family? Is it really such a coincidence?"

Lin Yin felt that Sun Biao's words made sense and suddenly remembered seeing Yue Chi at the Wei Family.

According to Sun Biao, could it be that Yue Chi had deliberately appeared in the Wei Family to attract her attention and lure her into the trap?

“Boss, I think we have to be careful about this matter. I suspect that this Feng Rong is probably fake. If you go, you’ll probably be doomed. Why don’t we forget it? If you want to save Feng Rong, I’ll bring people to save her. You don’t have to take the risk,” Sun Biao said with a worried expression. He knew very well that Lin Yin must have wanted him to investigate personally.

Moreover, in Sun Biao’s opinion, Lin Yin had a grudge with Yue Chi, so Lin Yin wouldn’t take the risk easily. If Lin Yin wanted to investigate Yue Chi this time, it must be to save her roommate’s sister. As long as he saved the girl, Lin Yin wouldn’t have to take the risk.

Lin Yin knew what Sun Biao was thinking, but with Yue Chi’s current attitude towards her, as long as Yue Chi had the chance to attack her, Lin Yin believed that Yue Chi would definitely kill her without hesitation.

Yue Chi’s existence was like a time bomb. Nothing could be certain. She and Yue Chi would probably have to die in this life to settle the grudge between them.

Because Yue Chi held a grudge, she, Lin Yin, also held a grudge.

“I know what to do about this. Don’t worry, if Yue Chi doesn’t die, I definitely won’t die,” Lin Yin said coldly.

Sun Biao was slightly shocked. He knew that Lin Yin and Yue Chi had a conflict, but this was the first time he had heard Lin Yin say it so seriously. Sun Biao had also investigated a lot of things between Lin Yin and Yue Chi, but it didn’t seem to be to the extent of life and death.

Did something happen between Lin Yin and Yue Chi that he didn’t know about? Lin Yin’s finger swiped across the microcomputer and she asked, “The address you sent me isn’t at Feng Kong’s school, so Feng Hong isn’t in school anymore?”

Sun Biao nodded and said, “Feng Rong’s not in her school, but in another school. It’s another private high school under the Yue Corporation, Dexin Girls High School.”

“This school is completely sealed off and it’s a girls’ school. It took our people a lot of time to sneak in. The investigation is quite strict. I don’t know if it’s because they patrol like this usually or because of the gratitude performance party on the weekend that they’re so strict.”

Lin Yin had some impression of this Dexin Girls High School. The school’s enrollment rate was quite good. In addition, the school only accepted female students from poor families, so it had a good reputation in society. It attracted the sponsorship of many kind-hearted people in society, including some large corporations.

“Help me prepare a school uniform and nametag for this school. It’s best if I can have an identity. I’ll go in and take a look this weekend,” Lin Yin said. Regardless of whether Yue Chi was setting up a trap, Lin Yin planned to investigate it herself.

Sun Biao was worried, but he could only follow Lin Yin’s orders. All he could do now was arrange for as many people as possible to enter.

In order not to worry the Mu Family, Lin Yin did not reveal anything about this to Long Huang and Dongyi. She planned to find an opportunity to shake off these two groups of people when the time came to prevent Yue Chi from running away early if too many people knew.

As long as Yue Chi was really doing something heartless, she would definitely let Yue Chi suffer the consequences. If not, she would stare at Yue Chi for the rest of her life, he better not let her find any dirt!

In the library on Saturday, Lin Yin looked up at Long Huang and Dongyi, who were pretending to be students reading not far away. Then, she stood up and pretended to go to the toilet. She jumped out of the window from the toilet and shook off Long Huang and Dongyi.

She knew that Long Huang and Dong Yi would definitely be anxious to come in and check if she did not come out for a long time. When those two people were anxious, they would not care about gender, so she even thoughtfully left a small note: I’m going for a breather, don’t follow me!

Long Huang and Dong Yi saw that Lin Yin did not come out of the washroom for a long time. As Lin Yin had expected, the two of them rushed into the female washroom..

Chapter 884: Prey

The two of them looked at each other when they saw the note Lin Yin left.

They thought that they would be able to get along well with Lin Yin during this period of time and that Lin Yin would no longer shake them off. They did not expect Lin Yin to do it again after a short period of peace.

Long Huang and Dong Yi resigned themselves to fate and quickly got someone to look for Lin Yin. The other party immediately reported to their respective bosses.

The usually quiet Saturday campus was bustling with activity. Lin Yin pretended to be a student of the school and walked on the campus path of Dexin Girls High School.

There were many people arranged by Sun Biao hiding in the crowd and following Lin Yin at a distance.

Originally, Sun Biao had planned to come himself, but Sun Biao's big build and his age and gender really did not match the school's style.

Lin Yin believed that as long as Sun Biao appeared in school, he would be the center of attention along the way. This would not be good, so Lin Yin asked Sun Biao to wait outside to keep watch.

Fortunately, some of the people who had already sneaked in previously were compatible with the students' temperament. They hid in the crowd and no one noticed.

There were two segments for today's gratitude event. One was the auditorium performance in the afternoon, and the other was the banquet tonight.

Therefore, at this moment, the students were looking at the school's auditorium in twos and threes and happily discussing today's gratitude performance party.

"I heard that the school invited many big shots this time. Some are big bosses of various corporations, and some are government officials."

"This is a small matter. You newcomers don't know, but our school has a good reputation. The people who sponsor our school are all famous people in society, so it's normal to see some big shots you don't usually see in our school. "

"Sigh, it's just that I'm not strong. Otherwise, if I could become an outstanding student, I would have a chance to entertain VIPs at the banquet tonight and admire big shots up close!"

"With your looks, it's useless no matter how capable you are. Didn't you see that the school chose all the good looking people? You look so ordinary. You won't have a chance in this life!"

Lin Yin followed behind these people silently and listened to their conversation for a while. Soon, they arrived at the hall.

When she saw a few people checking the nametags at the entrance of the auditorium, Lin Yin frowned slightly. There was actually someone checking? Did they have to be so strict?

It was just a show of gratitude. Was there a need?

Lin Yin looked down at the nametag on her chest and wondered if it was a real name tag and if she could enter later.

Lin Yin looked up at her surroundings. After seeing a slightly familiar face, she gave a look. The person immediately understood and walked in front of Lin Yin towards the person who was checking the nametag.

She looked at the inspection at the door. Seeing that her people had successfully entered, Lin Yin was relieved. It seemed that Sun Biao's forgery skills were not bad.

Lin Yin straightened her back and walked up to the person checking the nametag with a happy expression. She gladly let the other party check. When the other party waved her in, Lin Yin heaved a sigh of relief.

Lin Yin, who had walked into the hall, did not realize that after she entered, on the windowsill on the second floor not far away, a middle-aged man wearing glasses retracted his gaze from his prey and took a sip of tea in satisfaction. Then, he turned to look at a huge screen in the room. On it was the front photo of Lin Yin who had just entered the hall.

"The goods this time are indeed not bad. I want this one. Once the matter is settled today, I'll implement your matter as soon as possible," the middle-aged man in glasses said in a low voice.

Yue Chi looked at the man's satisfied expression and a cruel smile appeared on his lips. During this period of time, he had been obedient and did not find trouble with Lin Yin. He was just waiting for Lin Yin to take the initiative to attack.

As expected, Lin Yin was here!

At first, he couldn't understand. He didn't have any deep hatred for Lin Yin. At most, he had coveted Lin Yin before. In addition, he didn't succeed at that time. In the end, he was warned by Lu Ming and beaten up. Logically speaking, Lin Yin shouldn't have dealt with him.

However, after what had happened last time, Yue Chi knew that there could not be peace between him and Lin Yin. Lin Yin seemed to have a persistent entanglement with him, and he could not tolerate this!

Since he couldn't attack Lin Yin directly, he could at least use someone else to kill her, right? If Lin Yin was played to death, it would have nothing to do with him.

It would be best if the man in front of her and the Mu Family had a dogfight and both of them were injured!

At this moment, Lin Yin, who was completely unaware that she was being targeted, was looking for a seat in the auditorium..

Chapter 885: Flowers

Lin Yin found a relatively remote spot. When it was close to three in the afternoon, a group of people entered from the side door of the auditorium. The host on the stage immediately made all the students stand up and clap to welcome them.

After the thunderous applause, everyone sat down.

Other than Wei Chuan and Yue Chi, Lin Yin did not know anyone else. They should be the leaders of some large corporations.

There was nothing abnormal about the entire gratitude performance. Lin Yin held Feng Rong's photo she had obtained from Feng Yu and compared it seriously to the girl performing on stage. In the end, when the show was about to end, Lin Yin still couldn't find the girl in the photo.

Could it be that her appearance had changed because she had makeup on? Lin Yin frowned as she looked at the stage. Then, she stood up and decided to go backstage to look for her.

However, just as Lin Yin stood up, a beam of light suddenly landed on her. Lin Yin looked up in shock. The emcee on the stage said, "Then please come up and offer our gratitude to our leaders."

Lin Yin subconsciously looked in the direction of Yue Chi and Wei Chuan. Others might not know her, but Wei Chuan and Yue Chi knew her.

When she saw that there was no one in Wei Chuan and Yue Chi's seats, Lin Yin heaved a sigh of relief.

When the emcee urged her to go on stage again, Lin Yin was dumbfounded. Offer her gratitude? How? She had been too busy looking at the photos on her cell phone to pay attention to what the emcee said.

A girl beside her kindly reminded her, "The emcee asked you to represent the students to give those leaders flowers!"

At this moment, Lin Yin saw that many girls were already standing on the stage with flowers in their hands. It seemed like they were the students who had been chosen to present the flowers. With a slight glance, Lin Yin saw a girl who looked similar to Feng Rong's sister.

Lin Yin, who was still hesitating, thought for a moment and finally walked towards the middle of the stage. If she suddenly turned around and ran, she would attract attention, right?

Without Wei Chuan and Yue Chi, Lin Yin successfully walked to the middle of the stage and stood on it with the flowers in her hand like the other female students.

Soon, the leaders in the first row below the stage stood up and slowly walked to the middle of the stage. Then, they stood behind the girls one-on-one.

After the emcee finished speaking, Lin Yin turned around with the others to face the so-called leaders behind her.

In front of her was a man wearing gold-rimmed glasses. He had a refined smile on his face and a warm aura around him. He did not look like he was doing business. Instead, he looked like a politician who had been in politics for a long time.

Lin Yin followed the others and handed the flowers in her hand to the person opposite her. Then, she retreated slightly and bowed to that person. When she looked up, her scalp suddenly tightened. Before Lin Yin could move, a gentle voice sounded above her head. "Don't move first. Your hair is tangled in the branches."

Lin Yin stopped looking up. She couldn't see that person, but she could feel his gentle movements.

The emcee tried to smooth things over. "It seems like this student is very excited to see a kind person she usually can't see. She's so excited that her hair got tangled."

Laughter came from below. Lin Yin only wanted to roll her eyes. At the same time, Lin Yin was very puzzled. She had clearly taken a step back just now before bowing. The bow was not big, so why was her hair tangled?

Fortunately, it did not take long for her hair to be untied. Lin Yin was only embarrassed for a while before she heard the person laugh softly. "Alright, you can look up."

Only then did Lin Yin look up. The middle-aged man's smiling gaze met Lin Yin's eyes. His gentle and amiable eyes made Lin Yin feel inexplicably uncomfortable and disgusted, she felt a sense of invasion.

"You have to be gentle next time. Don't hurt your hair again," the man said with a smile. He spoke unhurriedly with a calm atmosphere.

The aggressive gaze from before had disappeared, replaced by the man's gentle eyes.

Lin Yin just lowered her head and didn't say anything, because she had already seen from the corner of her eye that Wei Chuan and Yue Chi had returned.

Seeing that Lin Yin didn't respond, the man wasn't angry. He just smiled at Lin Yin and gestured to the emcee.

The emcee immediately smiled and asked these students to leave..

Chapter 886: Makeup Artist

When she walked off the stage, Lin Yin looked up slightly. When she saw that Wei Chuan and Yue Chi were not paying attention to her, she secretly followed Feng Rong backstage.

Before Lin Yin could see the layout clearly, someone pulled her and urged, "Hurry up and change your clothes. We have to rush to the reception hall to welcome the VIP leaders first."

Before Lin Yin could react, she changed into a white dress like Feng Rong and the other students and was sent to the so-called reception hall.

As Lin Yin fiddled with the chores at the dining table with the others, she paid attention to the environment of the entire banquet hall.

After tidying up, the teacher in charge even emphasized to everyone what to take note of later. Then, he asked these students to return to the dressing room and let the makeup artist do the makeup for these female students.

Lin Yin imitated those female students and obediently sat on the chair to let the makeup artist do her makeup.

When the makeup artist saw Lin Yin's face, surprise flashed across her eyes. Then, she sighed and shook her head regretfully.

Lin Yin frowned and opened her mouth to ask something, but when she saw that the surroundings were filled with people, she tactfully chose to shut up.

However, Lin Yin could still detect something unusual from the makeup artist's expression. It seemed that her guess was right. Tonight's banquet was definitely not simple.

The teacher in the lead urged her, and the makeup artist's hands moved faster.

Lin Yin asked softly, "Can you help me make the makeup thicker? It's best if it's the kind of beauty that even my parents don't recognize. Only then will my parents' eyes light up when I go home."

"You're already very beautiful without makeup," the makeup artist blurted out. Then, she looked around and whispered, "Sometimes it's not a good thing to be too beautiful."

Lin Yin blinked her bright eyes slightly and looked at the makeup artist. She asked in an ignorant voice that only the two of them could hear, “Why? Isn’t it good to be beautiful? As long as you’re beautiful, you can get more attention. Just like the opportunity to welcome the leaders today. If I were a little uglier, I wouldn’t have this opportunity, right?”

The makeup artist’s gaze landed on Lin Yin’s deliberately puzzled expression. She opened her mouth but didn’t say anything in the end, which disappointed Lin Yin slightly.

This makeup artist clearly knew something. The makeup artist even wanted to reveal something to her, so she asked secretly.

However, it seemed like this makeup artist still had some concerns.

Lin Yin didn’t force her, but she still insisted on her makeup. She didn’t want Wei Chuan and Yue Chi to recognize her, or she wouldn’t be able to find out anything.

“Change to someone else? Alright, I’ll let you see my strength.” The makeup artist lowered her voice and smiled.

The makeup artist’s hand moved quickly across Lin Yin’s face and she quickly completed her makeup.

When Lin Yin saw herself in the mirror, she was dumbfounded. She had completely become another person. It was not an exaggeration to say that this makeup technique was a disguise technique.

She thought of Huo Ge and Zhou Hai. They were clearly the same person, but they had different appearances. It seemed like he must have a very good makeup artist by his side, right?

Lin Yin looked around, then leaned closer to the makeup artist and whispered,

“Your skills are too good. Can I have your contact information?”

The makeup artist did not expect Lin Yin to have such a thought. She smiled and picked up an eyeliner pen to write her number on the hand of the girl who was unaware that she was in danger. She looked at Lin Yin and smiled. "My name is Shen Lin. I wish you good luck tonight."

Lin Yin smiled and nodded. "Okay, thank you for your blessings."

The leader at the door continued to urge her. Lin Yin stood up and tidied her clothes. She picked up her phone and was about to walk out when she was stopped at the door.

The lead teacher looked at the cell phone in Lin Yin's hand and shifted his expressionless gaze to Lin Yin's face. He pointed at a basket beside him and said coldly, "In order to let the guests and leaders have an undisturbed dinner, leave your phone with me first."

Lin Yin frowned slightly and said hesitantly, "But I still have to take a photo with those leaders later. It's not easy for me to have the chance to interact with kind people. It would be a pity if I don't take a photo with them. My parents also want to meet these kind people.."

Chapter 887: Not Cause Trouble

The teacher's expression turned sharp. "It's just not allowed. Why are you talking so much nonsense?"

As she spoke, the teacher reached out and shouted at Lin Yin, "Hurry up and take it out. Don't waste everyone's time."

Lin Yin nimbly pressed the data lock button on her cell phone before handing it over.

Lin Yin did not care about handing over the cell phone. After all, there was nothing important on the surface. It was just that some information on the cell phone shouldn't be seen by others. Lin Yin could only lock down all the information.

Yue Chi was very surprised that Lin Yin would hand over her cell phone. He sneered. Lin Yin really didn't care about anything else as long as she could catch him red-handed.

Yue Chi handed Lin Yin's phone to his assistant. "Find someone to decipher the password. I want to see if there are any secrets in this cell phone."

The assistant took the cell phone and went down.

In the silent surveillance room, Yue Chi's gaze landed on the huge split screen in front of him like a poisonous snake. Every screen monitored Lin Yin's every move from different angles.

Did Lin Yin really think that she could pretend to be another person just by changing her appearance? Unfortunately, he had been keeping a close eye on her. Even if Lin Yin turned into a mosquito, he could accurately find which mosquito she was.

This time, Lin Yin had miscalculated.

The vibration of his cell phone interrupted Yue Chi's hateful gaze towards Lin Yin on the screen. Yue Chi looked down at his cell phone. It was a message from Gong Han.

Gong Han: "Ah Chi, when are you coming back for dinner tonight? Should I wait for you, or should I get the helper to keep your food warm?"

Yue Chi's eyebrows relaxed a little, losing the hostility he had when he looked at Lin Yin just now.

During this period of time, Yue Chi was already used to the feeling of someone asking when he was going back for dinner. He had gone from being strange and unaccustomed at the beginning to being used to it.

He looked down at the time. It was already time for dinner. It was too late to go back now, so he replied: I won't go back tonight. You can eat first.

Gong Han's message came again very quickly: Before your brother went on a business trip, he instructed me to keep an eye on you. Don't cause trouble outside, understand?

Yue Chi, who was originally in a good mood, suddenly became a little frustrated. Even though he was annoyed, he did not forget to reply: "Got it!"

Yue Chi put down his phone and heard a knock on the door. He nimbly switched the screen in front of him to another position before getting up to open the door. When he saw that it was Wei Chuan, Yue Chi immediately smiled and said, "Uncle Wei, you're here?"

Wei Chuan frowned and asked, "What's the meaning of you stopping me from entering the hall? Yue Chi, your brother handed the school support project to you. I didn't object on account of your brother. But if you do anything to me tonight and offend an esteemed guest and affect our Wei family, I won't be polite."

Yue Chi said with a smile, "Uncle Wei, don't be angry first. I'm just adding to your Wei Family's career. I know that you've always wanted Wei Ying to become an official and back Wei Yang up when he takes over the Wei Family in the future. I also know that you've been trying to rope in Li Mu, but the previous mediocre girls you've sent him have never caught his eye. You couldn't get close to him."

Wei Chuan narrowed his eyes and asked in a low voice, "Why are you investigating this? What do you want to do by saying this now?"

Yue Chi was different from Yue Han. Although Yue Han was ruthless in his dealings, he was also predictable and knew how to be cautious.

However, Yue Chi was a libertine. He was unrestrained and had no bottom line or scruples. Wei Chuan naturally could not guess what Yue Chi wanted to do.

Yue Han would weigh the pros and cons. Yue Chi did things based on his personality.

Yue Chi chuckled and said, "Uncle Wei, why are you so guarded? I just want to understand. This way, I'll know how to help you, right? Look, Li Mu has really taken fancy to someone now. I've also helped you fight for it. Li Mu said that after it's done, he'll implement Wei Ying's matter."

Wei Chuan looked incredulous. "Are you sure? Li Mu came several times, but he never once took away a female student. Which girl is it? Bring her out for me to see."

Seeing that Wei Chuan was about to check the surveillance cameras, Yue Chi immediately stopped him. "Uncle Wei, I'm not lying to you. It's just that Li Mu took a fancy to this person. I naturally arranged for her to leave long ago. She won't be at the banquet now."

Wei Chuan thought about it and agreed. The original intention of this banquet was to let those people take a look and see which girl they wanted. Since she had already been chosen, there was naturally no need for her to be chosen at the banquet.

However, Wei Chuan was still a little worried about Yue Chi. He looked at Yue Chi and said coldly, "I'll believe you this time.."

Chapter 888: Cigar Man

Yue Chi smiled. "Uncle Wei, you can trust me when I do things."

Although Yue Chi scoffed at Lin Yin in his heart, he had to admit that Lin Yin's face was indeed useful. Li Mu had always been arrogant, but he took a fancy to Lin Yin with just one look.

On the other hand, Wei Chuan still did not trust Yue Chi. However, nothing had happened to their student support program all these years. It should not be a problem this time.

Moreover, it would be great help if Yue Chi really helped him set Wei Ying's matter in stone “That girl’s family has a little power, so I stopped you from attending the banquet. If anything happens and you’re not present, they can’t blame it on you, right? I’m doing this for your own good,” Yue Chi explained.

Yue Chi didn’t let Wei Chuan see Lin Yin because he was afraid that Wei Chuan would recognize her. At that time, Wei Chuan would be afraid of the Mu family’s power and stop him from dealing with Lin Yin.

“Are you sure there’s no problem? There’s nothing wrong with that girl’s family, right? Yue Chi, you know why we’ve only been looking for these poor girls with no power,” Wei Chuan said.

Even if something really happened one day, they could just use some money to shoo these poor girls away.

Even if someone died, their families would tacitly sell their daughters’ lives for some benefits. Especially the girls they chose, they were all girls whose families wouldn’t stand up for them.

This way, it would be safe for them and those with high positions.

Yue Chi smiled naturally and said, “There’s definitely no problem. Don’t worry, Uncle Wei.”

Hearing Yue Chi’s answer, Wei Chuan was slightly relieved. After tacitly agreeing to Yue Chi’s actions, he instructed him a few times and left.

Yue Chi turned on the surveillance cameras and watched as Lin Yin shuttled through the banquet. There was a smile on his lips. He enjoyed this feeling of being like a cat catching a mouse.

At this moment, Lin Yin looked at some girls present who were obviously only 11 or 12 years old and her heart filled with shock.

She knew that there were girls of all ages sponsored by Huaqiang Corporation, but she did not expect there to be such young girls on such an occasion.

Lin Yin held the decanter that was used to pour wine for those so-called big shots and stood at the side with a fake smile.

Those people who were still polite and upright in the school hall just now had more or less revealed their nature after drinking a few glasses of wine. They sized up the girls as if they were looking at goods and even had lewd gazes.

Lin Yin's gaze turned cold when she saw a man blatantly sizing up a girl who looked to be in her teens through the smoke as he lit a cigar.

Li Mu, who had been watching Lin Yin, followed her gaze and saw the man smoking a cigar comfortably. He immediately covered his mouth and coughed lightly.

The voice was not loud, but it was enough to attract the attention of the surrounding people. Seeing Li Mu looking at the man smoking the cigar, someone immediately reminded the man smoking a cigar.

The man was a little impatient at first when he was interrupted when admiring the young girl. However, when he looked over and saw Li Mu, his expression clearly became more fawning.

"It's a public place and there are students present. You should put away your cigarette first," Li Mu said unhurriedly. He was not very domineering, but his tone was obviously commanding.

The cigar man immediately extinguished his cigarette butt with an embarrassed smile, still apologizing.

Lin Yin saw this scene. She was not sure what Li Mu was like.

If he had no intention of toying with women, why would he be here? If he was really here to seek pleasure, then why would he act like that? Who was he pretending for?

Lin Yin retained her disdain for all the men present and was locked onto by Li Mu's gaze the next second.

Li Mu looked at Lin Yin and waved his hand. He said gently, "Miss, please refill my drink."

Everyone immediately looked meaningfully in Lin Yin's direction. Their blatant sizing-up made Lin Yin extremely uncomfortable and she even wanted to go forward and beat these people up.

Lin Yin looked at the decanter in her hand and replied, "I only have wine."

The next second, Lin Yin's hand was empty. Then, a large jug of drinks appeared in Lin Yin's hand. The little girl beside her exchanged the drinks for her wine.

"Sister, use mine," the little girl said as she blinked at Lin Yin. She exuded an ignorant aura and her face was red as she smiled sweetly..

Chapter 889: Lawless

This girl was the girl that the man smoking had been staring at disgustingly.

Seeing that Lin Yin was not moving, the girl stood on her tiptoes and said in Lin Yin's ear, "Sister, hurry up. We've received so much sponsorship from kind-hearted people. We have to serve them well so that we can have a bright future. We'll have delicious food, a big house, and a good future."

Lin Yin frowned and turned to look at the girl at the side. She lowered her voice and asked, "Who told you that?"

The girl didn't seem to know why Lin Yin's expression didn't look good. She just blurted out, "Our teacher said so, and so did my parents."

Lin Yin's eyes darkened. What kind of teachers and parents were these? She hoped from the bottom of her heart that when the girl's teacher told her parents, it wasn't as dirty as she thought.

Lin Yin's hesitation had already made her the center of attention. In order to avoid trouble, Lin Yin could only go forward and pour Li Mu a drink.

Li Mu looked at Lin Yin with interest. He found it interesting when he found out from Yue Chi that this young lady had actually asked the makeup artist to change her face.

A young girl full of youth had to be a little naughty. How boring would it be if they were dull?

Seeing the interest in Li Mu's eyes, everyone turned their gazes to the other girls. They knew the rules very well. If someone took a fancy to them in advance, they would not choose them unless they had a fetish.

"What grade are you in this year?" Li Mu looked at Lin Yin and asked.

"...Third Year." Lin Yin lowered her eyes and her voice was very soft, even a little timid.

Li Mu disliked such timid girls. He immediately frowned. "Why are you so quiet? There's no need to be afraid! At your age, you should be energetic and lawless."

Lin Yin was a little surprised. She could understand why he said energetic, but Lin Yin couldn't understand why Li Mu said lawless.

What person would say that girls should be lawless when they were young?

Lin Yin didn't look up and only nodded with lowered eyes.

"How many people are there in your family? What do your parents do?" Li Mu continued to ask as if he wanted to check her household register.

Lin Yin frowned and still replied softly, "There's Mom, Dad, and my three older brothers. Mom and Dad are farming at home."

At this moment, Mu Cheng and his wife, who had suddenly been arranged to be farmers by Lin Yin, were staring at their cell phones solemnly, waiting for Dongyi's message.

There must be a reason why Lin Yin suddenly shook off Dongyi. The couple was not afraid that Lin Yin would hide somewhere to play, but they were afraid that Lin Yin would do something dangerous.

Mu Cheng and his wife hadn't imagined it. Everything Lin Yin did in the past was dangerous.

Especially with Wei Ji's matter now, they were worried that Lin Yin would face the Wei Family alone because she didn't want to implicate the Mu Family, and there's even the Yue Family now.

At this moment, Lu Ming, who could not find Lin Yin, was equally anxious.

No one expected Lin Yin to appear in an unexpected place with a different face as a student.

Lin Yin couldn't care less about the worries of others. Her current thought was to get rid of this middle-aged man who seemed to be very interested in her because her target was Yue Chi, but Yue Chi had never appeared.

The surrounding people were only amazed that Lin Yin had three brothers in her family. Many people even thought that Lin Yin must be living very lowly in such a poor family when facing her three brothers.

Even Li Mu thought so. He looked at Lin Yin with pity. "Good child, it's been hard on you!"

Lin Yin was at a loss. She thought that Li Mu was saying that it was hard for her to pour the drinks and quickly said, "It's not hard. It's what I should do."

Her timid manner of replying made the surrounding men laugh. Only Li Mu's expression was shallow, as if he was smiling with everyone else, or expressionless, or maybe he was in a bad mood. It was impossible to tell.

Lin Yin sneered in her heart when she was being casually sized up by that disrespectful gaze. Then, she picked up the jug in her hand respectfully and poured drinks for everyone at the table.

Then, she nodded at everyone and turned around to refill her drink.

She looked a little angry. Li Mu, who originally had a faint expression, had a smile on his face.

While Lin Yin was going to refill her drink, she secretly turned on the small computer in her hand in the bathroom and hacked into the surveillance system of the banquet..

Chapter 890: Sponsor

The layout of the entire reception hall was oval. At the back of the oval, there were actually small rooms. There were more than 20 of them. The lights inside were all turned on, and the layout was different.

Some were dreamy purple, some were dusky red, some were antique study rooms, and some were romantic waterbeds.

The items inside were also different.

Lin Yin, who had finally confirmed it, sneered. These disgusting men knew how to enjoy themselves! They even installed surveillance cameras in every room!

Lin Yin did not expect that the well-dressed and righteous Principal of Capital University, Wei Chuan, would actually engage in such a heartless business like Yue Chi in private.

Thinking of Wei Chuan, who had supported her previously, Lin Yin couldn't help but feel disgusted.

In the many surveillance videos, Lin Yin quickly searched for Yue Chi. After a long time, Lin Yin finally saw Yue Chi in a slightly dark pink room.

This room was decorated like a pink little girl's room. There were small dolls everywhere, and it looked like a beautiful room.

At this moment, Yue Chi was not the only one in the room. There was also a small figure. Lin Yin took a closer look. Wasn't this girl the girl who had just called her sister?

Lin Yin didn't expect Yue Chi to take a fancy to such a young girl. He was simply a beast!

The girl had already changed into an English school uniform. The uniform had an extremely short pleated skirt and two small ponytails. She looked very young.

Facing Yue Chi's act of lifting the hem of her skirt with his feet, the girl only dodged back in fear.

Lin Yin cursed Yue Chi in her heart. She immediately followed the guidance of the surveillance cameras and approached Yue Chi.

At this moment, the banquet continued. Many men had already chosen their prey and left.

Feng Rong thought that the banquet was over and returned to the dressing room to change out of her clothes. However, before she could take off her clothes, someone came to call her, saying that someone wanted to sponsor her to go to university.

The girls beside her looked at Feng Rong enviously, and Feng Rong was even happier.

The Feng Family lived in a remote area. No matter how hard her parents worked, they were always struggling. Her sister, Feng Yu, got into university this year. If she had not applied for a student loan, she would not have been able to afford the tuition fees.

Coupled with the scholarship from the school and the occasional part-time job, Feng Yu could barely survive.

However, she was not as good at her studies as her sister. She did not know which school she would get into in the future. If she got into an ordinary school and did not have a scholarship fund as high as Capital University, she would have a very difficult life.

If someone could sponsor her university fees, it would naturally be a guarantee for her future.

Feng Rong smiled and tidied her clothes. Under everyone's envious gazes, she left with the person who came to inform her.

Then, many girls were taken away with such an excuse, leaving only some girls who were not chosen. They left with the lead teacher in disappointment and resentment.

Feng Rong arrived at the door of a room nervously. Under the guidance of the guide, she was excited and uneasy as she pushed open the door of the room.

When she saw the red room, an ominous feeling rose in her heart.

She turned to the person beside her and asked in confusion, "Is my sponsor really here?"

In Feng Rong's eyes, those who could sponsor poor girls to go to school must be kind people, and kind people must be righteous.

A righteous person was obviously incompatible with the red room in front of her.

In the end, that person only sneered and said, “Won’t you know when you go in? I’ve already said that opportunities are fleeting. If you don’t want these sponsors, there are plenty of other girls who want them.”

Feng Rong panicked and quickly said, “That’s not what I meant. I’ll go in. I’ll go in now.”

Feng Rong naturally would not let go of such a good opportunity. She thought that nothing would happen since she was still in school.

Feng Rong braced herself and walked into the room.

Amidst the redness, the two men she had seen at the banquet were sitting on a sofa and looking at her.

Feng Rong heaved a sigh of relief. She thought that with three people, there shouldn’t be any of the things she was thinking about, right?

One of the men smiled evilly and raised his head slightly at Feng Rong.. He said disdainfully, “Didn’t anyone teach you to close the door after entering?”
