

After the Divorce CEO Realizes He's the Stand-In Lover By Madison King

Chapter 201 Strange Coincidence

Niki furrowed her brows and saw the visitor clearly. Her entire face turned terrible, and her tone was not very good. "Natalie, why are you here again?"

Why is Natalie like a sticky paster? And she can't even shake it off if she wants to.

"What? I can't come?" Said Natalie, looking around while saying, then she saw her uncle.

"This hospital is not owned by you. How dare you question me like this?"

"Said Natalie as she walked towards Tory.

Tory saw his niece suddenly appearing here. He scratched his head and then lowered his head to glance at his watch, wondering why Natalie had found him so quickly.

Just as Natalie was approaching Tory, a pair of black soled leather shoes. appeared in sight.

"Natalie, the hospital has a distinguished guest coming today and you are not welcome."

She looked up and saw Julian's deep eyes staring straight at her, clearly not welcoming her arrival.

Natalie curled her lips and smiled, naturally knowing that Julian didn't want to see her. "Don't worry, I'll leave right away, and I won't be in your way here."

As she spoke, she walked straight around Julian, who was standing in front of her, and came to Tory.

"Let's go. I'll treat you today. "Her tone was very casual and ordinary.

Although she didn't know why Tory came to the Hospital of the Graham, after all, he came over early in the morning and definitely didn't eat.

She plans to take her uncle to have a meal first, and then carefully interrogate him about what he's doing here.

As soon as this was said, Niki's face immediately turned ugly. "Natalie, don't you know who this is?"

As an orphan here, it's not her turn to speak to the member of the Spears family in such a tone.

"You said you want to treat him? Don't make any trouble here, go out quickly."

As soon as Niki finished speaking, Tory's expressionless face suddenly changed.

How can this woman talk to Natalie in this way? He was the first to be unwilling to hear this!

He turned his head to look at Julian and said, "It seems that I accidentally heard this lady say that she invited me to treat Mr. Graham's illness?"

Hearing this, Natalie was immediately startled and couldn't help but laugh out loud, "Niki said she invited you?"

Niki doesn't even know her uncle, how could it be that she invited him? She wanted to take all the credit.

She can still lie without feeling one ounce of guilt.

Natalie had a sarcastic smile on the corner of her mouth, her eyes fixed on Niki, and her gaze ranged from top to bottom, making Niki feel uneasy all over.

Julian didn't feel anything wrong, so he nodded.

Chapter 201 Strange Coincid

"Isn't she?"

Niki was a bit flustered. She had originally thought that Dr. Spears looked like a stiff man and would leave after the surgery, so he wouldn't stay any longer.

Moreover, the Spears family has a great business and does not care about these things at all. In her mind, she speculated that the sudden visit of Dr. Spears may also be compassionate and do good deeds casually.

So she happened to take all the credit on herself, and no one would know whose credit it was after the doctor left.

But she didn't expect that so far, things seem to be moving in a bad direction. She quickly spoke up and wanted to change the topic, "Dr. Spears, are you tired? Can I treat you to meal?"

"Do you understand the meaning of 'priority queue'? Didn't you hear what I said earlier about treating this doctor? Natalie raised her eyebrows and sneered.

"You said that I'm not qualified to invite the doctor to have a meal, then you're qualified?"

Originally, Natalie didn't intend to choke her out, but after hearing that Niki was so shameless, she felt that she had to humiliate her in order to calm her inner anger.

"May I ask how high and prestigious your background is to be so qualified to treat a doctor?"

"Natalie! "Niki was so angry that her mouth was crooked.

She immediately wanted to go up and pushed Natalie out. The man reached out his big hand and stopped her directly.

"Am I usually too kind to you?"

Julian grabbed Niki's wrist with a slightly larger movement, causing her to make half a turn before finally stopping.

“Stand aside.” Julian didn’t give Niki a half look, but his attitude conveyed in these words were already clear enough.

As soon as his extremely intimidating words were spoken, Niki was too imposing to breathe. She gave Natalie a stern look and retreated to one side. Far from the center of the war, Joey helped to see Niki walking towards him,, and he quickly obsequiously gave up his position.

Niki was already annoyed. Seeing such a flattering smile made her mood not only bad, but even more annoyed.

She opened her little mouth and coldly uttered, “Get away!”

Joey helped quickly retreat to the corner.

Tory stared at Niki’s back but suddenly frowned.

Just when Niki was about to take action against Natalie. he immediately stood up and wanted to protect her.

In a daze, he was attracted by what was on the woman opposite him.

He fixed his eyes on it.

How can the amulet worn by this woman be exactly the same as Natalie’s?

Tory’s expression was complex.

The amulet of Natalie was personally gifted by Mr. Spears since her birth.

He dares to guarantee that the amulet is not only extremely expensive in material, but also extremely scarce, making it absolutely unique. The Spears family couldn’t find a second piece.

How could this woman have it?

Tory was extremely puzzled in his heart.

“Dr. Spears, if you have anything you want to ask, just say it. “Julian interrupted Tory’s thoughts.

Tory regained his composure.

He temporarily forgot his question and slowly spoke up.

“I came to treat Mr. Graham today, but it’s not because of this impolite young lady. “Tory glanced at Niki, and his tone was serious.

.Upon hearing this, Julian took a deep breath.

In fact, when he saw Niki’s slightly flustered reaction, he had some doubts in his heart.

After hearing Dr. Spears’s words and he directly debunking Niki’s lie, he actually had a mixed feeling in his heart.

All that came upon him was disappointment, a real disappointment.

He didn’t understand why Niki had come to this point and why she would lie one after another.

Even to the point where lying becomes habitual... Julian felt disgusted with her.

Julian tried to be looked as calm as possible, “Since it’s not because of Niki, are you coming for...?”

Tory cleared his throat and said, “I came to treat Mr. Graham today because of Nana.”

The Bayt

“If it weren’t for the hard work Nana had on Mr. Graham’s surgery yesterday, I wouldn’t have come today.”

Mr. Graham’s life and death have nothing to do with him, he only cares about whether Natalie is happy or not.

Last night, Natalie was so tired that she couldn't even keep her eyes open. He fell asleep without finishing her words, and he saw all of this in his eyes. Seeing Natalie's tired appearance after completing the surgery, he really felt sorry for her.

Tory is very clear about Natalie's temperament. She loves Julian so much, and she must have been worried about her Grandpa Graham. If Mr. Graham 'doesn't do well for a day, his Natalie will suffer more.

Tory thought about it and decided to directly treat Mr. Graham, so that she wouldn't keep worrying about him.

... Nana?

Julian's eyes suddenly turned black, puzzled. Isn't Nana the nickname of Niki?

In his mind came the scene of the first time he met Niki. At that time he had just been rescued and saw the smiling eyes as soon as he opened his eyes.

Before he could react, the girl was shouted away with the sound of "Nana", and her big eyes disappeared in front of him.

Niki's nickname is Nana, but why did Tory say that Niki didn't invite him?

"Did you just say Nana invited you to come?" Julian asked again

Tory nodded and said, "That's right."

Julian's expression was immediately unpredictable, and a hint of regret flashed in his heart. Did he misunderstand Niki?

It seems that Niki's uncle did help, but Dr. Spears only knew her uncle and was indirectly entrusted by Niki, so he didn't know her.

Chapter 202 Late Regret

Niki stood on the side, her face was originally not very good.

After all, Dr. Spears exposed her on the spot just now, and she didn't even know how to face Julian next.

But then Dr. Spears suddenly said he was here because of Nana.

She couldn't help but feel a thrill in her heart.

She was puzzled at first, then pricked up her ears and listened carefully, and it was indeed her nickname.

Niki's waist suddenly straightened out.

The doctor had previously spoken ill of her, but now his attitude has turned sharply. Is this because he had seen that she was being attacked by Julian, so his heart softened?

Although Niki couldn't fathom the heart of Dr. Spears, she was still very happy to hear him say so.

Niki quickly handed Tory a grateful gaze.

Tory felt uneasy and goosebumps all over his body when he was looked at by the woman's soft and sparkling eyes.

How could this woman look at him with that kind of gaze?

It's disgusting..

He quickly moved towards Natalie to avoid Niki's blinking eyes.

Julian noticed Dr. Spears's movements and couldn't help but turn around to look at Niki standing behind him.

In sight, Niki obediently stood behind him, looking aggrieved.

Seeing that Niki didn't interrupt anymore, but was as timid as a weak woman, Julian's heart was complicated.

He turned his gaze back and spoke, "Dr. Spears, there must be some misunderstanding among you two.

“Misunderstanding?”

“Are you commissioned by Nana’s uncle to come?” Julian hesitated for a moment, but still decided that Niki shouldn’t be wronged.

After all, no one wants to be wronged for making a lot of efforts without any reason.

“Nana’s uncle?” Tory’s slightly wrinkled eyes widened, “I am...”

Before the words ‘I am Nana’s uncle. ‘could be uttered, Natalie stopped him. Natalie took a step ahead of him and said, “It doesn’t matter who Dr. Spears came for.”

“What does it mean if you don’t go in and see Grandpa, and don’t confirm if Grandpa has opened his eyes and awakened, but instead, you’re holding Dr. Spears here and not letting him go.”

Julian remained expressionless and said, “I believe in Dr. Spears’s clinical skills.”

“Since Dr. Spears has come out of the intensive care unit, it means that Grandpa has recovered.”

Natalie raised her eyebrows, but Julian had no intention of leaving.

Since he won’t leave, she will.

“Since Grandpa Graham has recovered, we’ll leave first.”

Natalie pulled Tory and walked out.

Originally, she came to Graham’s private hospital to find her uncle. Now that her uncle has been founded, she has to leave this land of trouble immediately and doesn’t want to stay any longer.

Tory was forcibly pulled away by his niece. As he walked, he turned around and glanced at Julian, “Nana, why is this guy talking to you like this? Isn’t his attitude too bad?”

The man kept muttering, “His face is terrible as a shit!”

Finally, he tried to sum up, ‘This Julian wouldn’t be worthy of you!’ He was quite indignant.

‘Natalie was helpless as she walked and spoke out to comfort him, “I understood. I’ve already known that Julian is not worthy of me.”

How can Niki tolerate it when Seeing Natalie directly take away Dr. Spears?

How could Natalie grabbed her opportunity to get close to the member of the Spears family.

She quickly stepped forward and spoke in a hurried tone, “Julian, aren’t you going to treat Dr. Spears to thank him? Why did Dr. Spears follow Natalie to leave?”

Natalie was so eager to take Dr. Spears away, he must have taken the opportunity to make friends with the Spears family, ” Niki said in a tone of sarcasm.

She doesn’t understand anything, and she represents the face of our family. If she says something wrong in front of Dr. Spears, the consequences will be unimaginable.”

Even Niki knows about it, then how could Julian not understand these truths?

Before Niki could finish her words, she saw that Julian had already disappeared in front of her.

As soon as Niki raised her eyes, Julian had already taken big steps and stood in front of Natalie.

The man had no bedding and coldly uttered three words, “You can’t leave.”

Natalie was confused.

She was startled and said, "Why can't I leave?"

Has the Graham family been able to restrict others' personal freedom these days?

When Natalie said this, Julian realized that his words were ambiguous. He explained, "You can go, but you can't take Dr. Spears with you."

"Dr. Spears has a noble status and he is not someone you can get close to."

Tory was already very dissatisfied with Julian due to his words and actions. This time, Julian not only did not restrain his attitude, but also became more serious in treating his Nana.

He couldn't bear it anymore, "Julian, how could you speak to Nana like that?"

"What do you mean by this is that Nana's status is not prestigious enough?"

Julian raised his eyes and saw Tory glaring at him angrily. He instinctively wanted to apologize, "Of course not."

He suddenly realized something was wrong when he finished half of his words.

What Dr. Spears just said... The man carefully thought and finally realized where something was wrong.

He raised his eyes with a somewhat incredulous expression, "Is that the Nana you're talking about is Natalie by your side?"

Tory looked at Julian and regarded him as an idiot and said, "That's true.

There's only one Nana in the world, and I'm definitely talking about her."

"Nana did a surgery for Mr. Graham yesterday, and she was so tired. Not only did you not even thank her, but you also spoke to her like this. I don't know why Nana is interested in you?"

"There are so many good men in the world, and I don't understand why she has to choose you."

Julian was stunned for a moment, and his eyebrows furrowed.

'Natalie's nickname is also called Nana?

How could it be?

And today, Dr. Spears, who was treating Mr. Graham, was not invited by Niki, Surprisingly, it was actually invited by Natalie?

Julian's mood was complex.

"You...", the man looked at Natalie, feeling a bit too complicated in his heart, and he didn't know what to say.

Natalie raised her eyes, and her eyes showed her confusion.

The two looked at each other.

Julian's mind once again conjured up the pair of eyes that had captivated him in the sunlight of his childhood.

Hè lay on the grass, wet all over. The girl lowered her eyes and looked at him,

Chanter 202 i sta Rasial

her pupils as clear as crystal, transparent and clean.

Like an angel.

At this moment, Natalie's eyes overlapped with those in his memory, and Julian's heart flashed with a hint of confusion.

After waking up, he only remembered the girl's clear pretty eyes and the amulet she carried.

The amulet was not large, and he only vaguely glanced at it, not very clear.

The only thing left that can distinguish a girl's identity is the cries of "Nana" from people in the trees.

But Natalie's nickname was also called Nana.. This shook Julian, who had previously believed in Niki's identity, a bit.

Is that girl back then really Niki?

"Just say anything you want directly." Natalie and Julian looked at each other for a moment, but when she saw that he didn't speak, she couldn't help but urge him out loud.

Tory looked at Julian's expression, which was somewhat confused. He sighed and regarded Julian as a fool.

"Nana, let's go."

You can't force a fool to be smart, and this Julian is totally an idiot.

He's afraid no matter how much he tried to fight for Nana. Julian's heart won't ripple a bit. No matter how much Nana does for the Graham family, he cannot see it.

Troy took Su Natalie's arm and walked out.

Just as Julian was about to catch up, Natalie's words drifted into his ear,

"Don't follow Dr. Spears anymore. Dr. Spears doesn't need the gratitude of the Graham family."

"You'd better urge your girl to get rid of the bad habit of lying first."

The voice drifted down with great determination.

Upon hearing this, Julian paused and stared at Natalie's back for a moment.

After a while, he lifted his lips and said dryly, "Thank you." His voice still carried a hint of regret for coming late.

Chapter 203 Stop pretending

Troy quickly pulled Natalie out of the hospital, looking back as he walked, afraid that Julian might stick up like a plaster.

It wasn't until he completely left the hospital gate that he breathed a sigh of relief.

"Nana, does Julian usually talk to you like this?" Troy took Natalie's hand and spoke in a dissatisfied tone.

"He has this kind of bad personality." Natalie said in a neutral tone. "I've got used to it."

Upon hearing this, Troy's tone suddenly increased several times. "He's really excessive! How can you get used to it?"

If he had known this earlier, he would have taken this ignorant guy apart long ago.

Troy wanted to continue accusing Julian, but Natalie directly chose to push him to go. "Don't be angry, I'm not even angry, and you don't need to be angry for me"

She had no place for Julian in her heart, and what Julian said or did could not make her angry or happy.

"How can I not be angry? I'm trying to hold your grievances!"

"Alright, alright." Natalie spoke softly to comfort him.

She knew that her uncle was always thinking about her.

Seeing that Troy's anger couldn't dissipate for a while, Natalie quickly changed the topic and said, "Shall we go eat?"

"You got up so early, and you definitely didn't eat."

Troy tilted his gaze towards his niece, how could he not know her thoughts?

Didn't she just want to shift the topic and stop him from scolding Julian?

"You!" Troy frowned and reached out to flick the woman's forehead, feeling quite helpless.

His Nana only knows to protect Julian.

"Uncle, let's go eat." Seeing Troy's slightly helpless expression and knew he had compromised.

She quickly pushed Troy to the front of her car, then opened the door and said, "Please sit here."

.Troy was forced to sit in the passenger seat after his niece's pushing.

Natalie also got into the car and started the engine. "Uncle, do you have anything you want to eat? There are many Michelin restaurants nearby, and the taste is quite good."

Troy didn't speak.

Natalie glanced at Troy and said, "If you don't choose, I'll just choose the one for you?"

"Why don't we go eat some seafood? I haven't eaten it for a long time, and I'm a bit greedy."

Natalie said as she unintentionally looking at Troy:

She knows that her uncle never eats seafood.

Sure enough, upon hearing this, Troy couldn't hold back any longer. He spoke, "Let's go home and get some food."

"Eating at home?" Natalie frowned.

"Let Ryan cook for me, I think the food cooked by him is very delicious."

Natalie smiled and said, "Ryan is in the laboratory. How can he cook for you?"

"If it weren't for Troy running to the hospital early in the morning, she would have come out to find him and probably would have done experiments in the laboratory as well.

However, Natalie thought for a moment and still spoke up, “The nanny happened to be at home this morning. Let’s try her craft and it’s also good.”

Troy nodded.

The car drove towards the Greenlife Villa, and the atmosphere inside the car remained silent all the way.

The reason why Natalie chose not to speak was because she was afraid of saying anything casually, and her uncle could bring the topic to Julian.

As they were about to arrive, Troy looked out of the window and suddenly opened his mouth, “Nana, the symptoms of Mr. Graham... I didn’t succeed at the surgery.”

As soon as the conversation ended, Natalie stepped on the brake and almost hit the dashboard with her own and Troy.

“You didn’t succeed?”

Natalie was startled by Troy’s words.

“Hey, pay attention to the car and focus on driving. “Troy patted his chest, feeling extremely scared.

Natalie nodded and focused her attention on the car. After the car smoothly hit the road, she finally came to her senses and said, “Uncle, what’s going on?”

The woman’s tone was inevitably urgent.

Troy didn’t have any special expression, “Well, Mr. Graham’s symptom... to be honest, it’s quite complex,”

Natalie nodded.

She is very clear about the symptoms of Mr. Graham’s body, and it is indeed complex.

She was startled to hear the news.

But later, she managed to clam down and regained her sanity. With the medical level of her uncle, it was impossible for him to fail.

Is there someone who is causing trouble again?

Natalie furrowed her brows and looked serious, waiting for Troy's next words.

Julian stood in place for a long time, his deep eyes looking down, and the sunlight casting a small shadow of him.

Niki arrived late and stopped to look around.

The figures of Natalie and Dr. Spears have long disappeared.

How could Julian not stop them? Niki was anxious.

She walked towards Julian and said, "Julian, where's Dr. Spears?"

Julian's did not answer her and his tone was cold. "Why are you lying?"

His words seemed to quench the chill, making people couldn't help but tremble.

"What? "Not only did Niki not receive the answer she wanted, but she instead received questioning.

She felt flustered and managed to maintain her composure. "Julian, what are you talking about?"

She pretended not to understand.

Julian's face turned even colder, and since Niki was willing to continue pretending, he chose to directly point it out.

The man raised his tone and said, "Dr. Spears wasn't invited by you, why did 'you lie?"

Niki's eyelashes blinked.

“This is not your first time lying, is it? “The man’s eyes shot straight at him. like sharp blades, making Niki’s lie nowhere to hide.

“You lied a few times before, you don’t need I to tell them all?”

He never forgot it once.

But the previous few times, he only thought it was Niki’s temporary idea and she was just having a temper.

He can forgive telling some harmless little lies.

But he didn’t expect his indifference to make Niki more and more excessive.

Niki trembled uncontrollably, feeling a bit flustered in her heart. Julian’s determined tone made her mood a bit complicated.

“Julian... what are you talking about? I don’t understand.” Her eyes were watery, and she decided to continue to pretend that she was innocent and she didn’t know anything.

Julian had already lost patience, “Are you not going to admit until I show you the direct evidence?”

“I’ve already known everything, and there’s no need for you to pretend anymore.”

Now, seeing Niki’s fake innocent and pure face, all he felt was disgust.

“Just now Dr. Spears has made it clear. He was invited by Natalie, and he’s not exactly invited by you as twhat you said.”

Now Julian even has some doubts about Niki’s identity. Is she really from the Spears family?

Why else would she lie?

“How could it be? “Niki muttered in her tone.

Just now she personally heard Dr. Spears say that he came because he was invited by Nana, couldn't he have changed his script?

"Just now Dr. Spears clearly said that he was invited by me, how could he suddenly change his mind...?" Niki muttered to herself.

Moreover, if Dr. Spears's changed his words causally, then he is even less credibility. How can Julian believe such a person who changed his words easily?

Julian mercilessly interrupted her, his tone extremely cold, "Dr. Spears has been talking about Natalie from beginning to end."

Niki looked up.

"Natalie's nickname is also called Nana."

"That's impossible...", Niki blinked her eyes and looked incredulous.

Julian looked up, perhaps he was tired, or perhaps the disappointment and disgust in his heart had reached their peak.

He no longer had the patience to watch Niki perform, and the man withdrew his gaze and walked straight towards the intensive care unit.

Niki quickly chased after him, "Julian, wait! Julian."

She stumbled over.

Joey stood in the corner, watching everything.

Niki was very shining in the sunlight.

The woman shrank her slender body and stumbled at a trot. As she ran, her eyes seemed to be covered in a layer of water, with a pitiful and delicate expression.

Even he couldn't help but feel a bit soft after seeing it.

But Julian was still unmoved.

Chapter 204 The man's questioning

Julian walked ahead with great strides, ignoring the women behind him..

He went straight to the intensive care unit, and the bodyguard guarding the door saw him approaching and immediately respectfully opened the door. Old Mr. Graham was lying on the bed, and next to him was the machinery. The man's face turned pale, and the wrinkles on his face were clearly visible. Although his breathing was normal, there was no sign of awakening.

Julian frowned.

He didn't know why his grandpa shown any signs of awakening. A bad premonition flashed through his mind.

At this moment, Niki looked pitiful and stumbled to the entrance of the intensive care unit.

She only saw Julian standing in place with a serious expression and no movement, so she didn't even think about it and wanted to pounce directly. But she had not yet met the man, and an arm crossed in front of her and stopped her straight away.

Niki frowned as she looked at the owner of the suddenly appearing arm. Who dares to stop her?

She raised her eyes and looked at Joey, who had a serious face. The man's powerful shoulders lay between the door and Julian, making her unable to move forward or backward.

Joey straightened his back and said, "Miss, Mr. Graham doesn't want to see you. Please leave."

How dare an assistant stop her?

The anger in her eyes was about to overflow, and she spoke, "How dare you stop me?"

I naturally dare not stop you, but all of this is Mr. Graham's intention. Please forgive me," Joey said with a nonchalant tone.

Niki gave him a cold eye. She knew it was Joey's intent. She felt that he just bullied her when she lost Julian's favor.

"Get out of the way."

She tried to push away him and said, "I don't believe Julian would treat me like this."

Seeing Joey without any fear, she had to turn her focus and look at Julian, *Julian... listen to my explanation... Can't you not give me the opportunity to explain?"

People all knew her intent.

Julian was already annoyed, and when he heard this, he was more agitated.

He walked towards Mr. Graham as he spoke, "Take her away."

The tone was extremely cold, without any emotion.

"Yes," Joey gave the nearby bodyguard a look. "Take Miss Linch away."

The bodyguard immediately set off, rudely pulling Niki over and dragging her downstairs without any hint of pity.

Julian... listen to my explanation..." Niki's voice gradually faded away until it dissipated.

Julian only has a partial understanding of medicine and does not understand how grandpa would be if he was effectively treated in this situation.

But his intuition told him that if the treatment was successful, it would definitely not be the way it is now.

"Get the doctor in."

The man's voice is cold and hard.

Delta instinctively wanted to go out with Niki, but he hesitated for a moment and still didn't go out.

He just stood in place, silently watching as Niki was taken out of the hospital.

At this moment, he heard Julian's voice and immediately pushed the door in.

"Mr. Graham, I am the doctor." His tone was extremely respectful.

Doctors, who had stood at the door for a moment, heard his voice, but no one dared to move. It wasn't until Delta pushed the door that they followed

1.

Julian glanced up at Delta and said, "Let's see why the patient hasn't woken up yet."

Delta lowered his eyes and said, "Yes."

He approached Mr. Graham and carefully examined. Julian stood aside with his face filled with annoyance throughout the room.

"Mr. Graham, this..." Delta paused and hesitated in his tone.

"Say it quickly."

"Mr. Graham's current physical condition is indeed much better than before, but his internal condition is not enough to support his recovery."

Julian's face froze.

"He can't wake up now? What did the doctor come for just now? Didn't they just say they could use the Spears family's secret medicine?"

Three consecutive questions left Delta unable to answer. He could only shake his head and said, "I am not on site regarding the specific matter of that doctor's rescue just now, so I am not clear."

"But now it seems that it is indeed a fact that Mr. Graham cannot wake up."

Julian's face turned black.

Perhaps he didn't believe it in his heart, but subconsciously he still trusted the Spears family. "Did you make a mistake?"

Before Delta could speak, he shouted directly at the doctor standing behind him, "Come and check."

A row of doctors immediately arrived at the bed to check Old Mr. Graham's condition.

But obviously the final result was not as good as the man's wish.

"Mr. Graham, he did not make a mistake in his examination. This... it's really not possible to wake up."

Julian's face was ugly, and he almost immediately took out his phone, found Natalie's phone number, and dialed it out.

The bell vibrates, waiting to be dialed. Julian held his phone in hand and a sarcastic expression gradually appeared on his face.

Did she already know this result?

At this moment, Natalie was driving while carefully listening to Tory's explanation of Mr. Graham's physical condition.

"I thought Mr. Graham's physical condition wasn't that bad, but when I took out the medicinal herbs and prepared to start, I realized something was wrong."

"Someone intentionally drugged the old man, I guess they wanted to turn him into a vegetable directly." Tory lowered his head and played with the wooden box in his hand.

Natalie nodded with a flat tone and said, "I know it was made by the woman next to Julian just now. She did it herself."

Upon hearing this, a hint of surprise flashed in Tory's eyes, as the woman looked very eager to save Mr. Graham.

Originally, he thought there were countless intrigues and conflict only in big aristocratic families like the Spears family, due to the addition of many members from the main clan and other branches.

Unexpectedly, there are also many hidden affairs in this small family.

Tory sighed, "But the medicine was probably too aggressively. The ingredients inside happened to clash with the old man's body condition, making it impossible to completely suppress it even with our secret medicine."

Natalie frowned.

She recalled the scene that Julian firmly said he believed in doctor Spears.

Now that Mr. Graham didn't wake up, she didn't know what he would think. Her eyelashes trembled at the thought of this.

He would come to her if he found grandpa didn't wake up.

"In this situation, if you want to save him, I'm afraid only your grandfather can do it."

Natalie squinted her eyes.

Her grandpa?

The car gradually drove away and then arrived at Greenlife villa. As soon as she stopped the car, she heard a sound of mobile phone vibrations.

She lowered her eyes and glanced at the name, which was indeed Julian.

"Uncle, you go first. I'll answer the phone." She got out of the car with his phone.

As soon as the phone was connected, the questioning voice rushed towards her, "Is the doctor you invited really from Spears family?"

Before she could answer, the next question had already been exported, "Is that medicinal herb really a secret medicine of the Spears family?"

Natalie raised her eyebrows and said, "Believe it or not."

She originally thought that he was calling to ask for countermeasures, but she didn't expect the man to come to question her.

"If it were true, how could Grandpa still be lying in the hospital bed and not waking up yet?" The man was full of distrust, "Did you already know that Grandpa wouldn't wake up?"

Through the phone, Natalie could feel his anger at the moment, as well as the darkness on his face.

Chapter 205 The Divine Doctor from the Spears Family

Natalie frowned and said, "What do you mean by that?"

"Dr. Tory kindly came to treat Grandpa and didn't take a penny in return. What did he end up with? All he got was your complaint."

The more she spoke, the colder her tone became. "Do you know how many people outside are begging him to treat them?"

Without waiting for Julian to speak, she continued, "If you insist on questioning his professionalism, then forget it."

If a person makes a subjective judgment, no matter how much others say, they cannot persuade them.

Tory got out of the car and didn't leave. He came to where Natalie was and said, "Who is it? Julian?"

Natalie nodded and then waved her hand to him, "You go ahead. I'll talk to him."

He hates Julian so much, if he answers the phone, it will definitely exacerbate the conflict.

Tory was unwilling to leave. He reached out his arm and took Natalie's phone, "I'll talk to him."

Old Mr. Graham was his patient, so naturally he had to take responsibility.

"So even with the Spears' family's secret medicine, it couldn't save Grandpa?"

Julian muttered on his phone.

He clearly had calmed down, and his tone was not as cold as before.

Natalie was about to speak, but Tory took her phone. After all, Tory is her uncle. She couldn't reach out to grab it back, so she had to stand by and pray in her heart that they wouldn't argue.

"I am the doctor just now.". Tory took his phone and directly identified himself.

"It is indeed my responsibility to fail to awaken Mr. Graham."

He said in a polite manner, not at all superior just because he was from the Spears family, but rather with the calmness of a doctor.

Such frank words made Julian speechless.

"But one thing I want to clarify is that although I am partly responsible for the occurrence of this problem with Mr. Graham, it is only a small part."

Julian frowned and still didn't speak, but quietly listened to him.

"The biggest problem is someone trapped him and added some special drugs into his medicine. This leads to the elderly being unable to bear it in their body and eventually to a major disaster

Julian keenly grasped the key point of this statement: did someone really trap Grandpa?

After Tory finished his previous sentence, he continued, "As for whether my identity is real, Natalie has just explained it. If you don't believe it, you can go check."

After all, he even gave the Spears family secret medicine to Mr. Graham, there are no need to question the authenticity of his identity.

He, as a Spears family member, can't have to be self-deprecating to prove his identity.

After a somewhat sincere speech, Julian, who had already realized his impulsiveness, said in an apologetic manner, "Doctor, I'm sorry. It's all my fault just now."

TL

Julian calmed himself down, and he knew that offending him due to a momentary impulse was not worth the loss.

The man realized the point and changed his topic, "May I ask if Grandpa still has a way to wake up in this situation?"

"As long as it can save Grandpa, the Graham family is willing to pay all the costs."

Pay all the costs? That's such a big word. Tory raised his eyebrows.

"I am not capable to wake him up. If you can..." Tory said with a sigh, "invite the divine doctor of the Spears family..."

"The divine doctor of the Spears family?" Julian's eyebrows almost twisted.

It was Natalie who invited doctor here. As for the divine doctor... The difficulty is countless times greater than getting the secret medicine.

"That's all I have to say," Tory said.

Being able to calmly say so much to Julian is already his limit.

As he was about to return the phone to Natalie, Julian's voice came from the phone.

"Doctor, you just said that someone trapped Mr. Graham, which worsened his symptoms."

Julian paused for half a minute and slowly spoke, "Do you know who it is?"

There was a hint of vague anticipation in the words.

Tory seemed to find the words really funny, and he couldn't help but chuckle and say, "How would I know?"

Natalie heard her uncle's laughter and raised her eyes upon hearing the words. She was a bit more inquisitive, as she had just told him who did it.

"If you don't even have the ability to find the person, then quit the job as the president of the Graham group."

Then he hung up the phone directly.

He held the phone in his hand and looked at Natalie standing by, shaking his head. He wanted to say something, but didn't.

He just said, "Natalie, let's go home."

Julian stood in place, looking at the home page on his phone, with a thoughtful expression.

Joey stood by, looking at his unpredictable expression and trying to ask tentatively, "Mr. Graham, Ms. Linch is unwilling to leave outside and has been begging to see you."

"Do you want her to come in?"

The temperature outside the door has already reached below zero. And she usually wears thin skirts, so staying outside is sure to bring cold.

Julian didn't speak, and his eyes became increasingly pitch black.

Seeing that Julian did not immediately refuse, Jiang Joey didn't what he was thinking, and said again, "Mr. Graham, the weather outside is actually quite cold."

After all, no one knew what Mr. Graham was thinking. Niki will seek Mr.

Chanter 205. The Divine Doctor from the Canare Camila

Graham's forgiveness and say something bad to Joey by the side of Mr. Graham's pillow, and then Joey would lose his work.

Every moment is walking on the tip of the ice.

"Since she is unwilling to leave, let her stay outside." Julian finally spoke.

Obviously, he has already hardened his heart.

"Yes." Joey lowered his eyes and his heart stabilized a bit.

"Go and help me check the news of the divine doctor in the Spears family.

The sooner the better."

Joey didn't even think about it and immediately replied, "Yes."

"Screen all the surveillance in the hospital to see if there are any suspicious individuals. As soon as any suspicious individuals appear, focus on screening immediately."

"If there are not enough manpower, you can use people in the dark lines of Graham house. We must find the person who placed the medicine."

Julian's eyes were fierce, and he would definitely make that person pay the price.

"Yes."

However, after the man had commanded everything, he still looked uneasy. After careful consideration, he stepped forward and walked towards the door.

Joey asked the caretakers to take care of old Mr. Graham and followed

Julian out of the door.

Niki stood in front of the door, and she started at inside.

Seeing Julian come out of the door, her eyes sparkled.

She knew that Julian would care her if she was standing alone in the cold wind.

He did indeed come.

Seeing the man walking towards her, she looked more pitiful at the moment. "Julian..." She choked as she walked towards him.

She believed that Graham would forgive her if she looked pitiful.

But Julian didn't seem to see her and walked straight towards the car parked in front of the gate.

He didn't even give her half a glance.

'Niki was confused, she couldn't believe the man was so cruel.

She stood in the same spot, feeling only the clumps of cold air pumping outward from her spine. Coupled with the resolute figure of a man, she felt even colder.

A second ago, the man was still affectionate towards her, admiring her immensely.

With Natalie's casual words, he became as cold and ruthless as this??? She can't accept it!

It's all Natalie's fault!

The bodyguard opened the car door, and Julian sat in the car, and said in a serious voice. "Go to the law firm and find Dylan." He must ask Dylan's help to find the divine doctor of the Spears family.

"Julian, take a look at me..." Niki's voice was desolate, and due to the cold, her words carried a chill.

Chapter 206 Hurt his pride

Niki trembled slightly as she walked towards the car, her hands and feet almost falling into an ice cellar due to the long waiting.

Julian sat in the warm car, but there was no expression on his face.

The driver held the steering wheel in his hand and looked in the rearview mirror at the woman following behind the car. He knew this person was favored by Mr. Graham, so he never dared to drive the car too fast.

Niki was chasing after the car, feeling the coldness in the winter, which made her feel that her blood had already been frozen.

Julian was originally sitting in the car, his eyebrows furrowed slightly, thinking about something, so he didn't pay attention to the speed of the car.

At present, he suddenly realized something was wrong. He looked out of the window and a hint of impatience flashed through his heart.

"Why are you driving so slowly?"

Upon hearing this, the driver dared not say anything more. He immediately accelerated the throttle.

However, before the car had just started, the man seemed to suddenly change his mind and extended his arm to signal the driver to stop.

The driver was puzzled, but the CEO told him to drive faster the previous second, and then reached out to stop him the next second.

The car slowly stopped by the roadside.

Julian didn't get off the car. The window glass was as black as ink as the eyes of the man sitting in the back seat.

Chapter 208 Hurt his pride.

Niki had not exercised for a long time, and her weak body had already lost its strength. The cold weather made her blood clot all over her body.

Even when she saw that the car had stopped, she couldn't catch up quickly, panting and walking slowly step by step.

The man sat in the car, tapping his knuckles gently, making a slight noise as time passed.

The car stopped at the roadside for a while, but the woman didn't catch up.

The man looked obscure and spoke, "Let's go."

The car swept away towards the law firm.

Julian sat on the sofa of the law firm, with a pot of tea placed in front of the table.

After waiting for about five minutes, Dylan walked out with a gentle demeanor, dressed in a dark blue suit and a pair of gold rimmed glasses, with his hands in his pockets.

He had just met the client when he received a phone call saying that Julian had come to the law firm. He quickly rushed over without stopping.

"Mr. Graham, how come you have time to come to me?" he walked towards Julian, with a smile on his face.

"I heard that the Graham group has been authorized again, and returned to its peak. Congratulations."

Julian raised his eyes without feeling that he was praising him.

He knew very well in his heart that this authorization was obtained because his mom begged Natalie, and he did not receive any credit.

The man picked up a pot of clear tea in front of him and poured himself a cup.

Seeing Julian not speaking, Dylan naturally knew that he was not in high spirits since they had been good friends for many years. So he didn't mention it again.

He pulled out his chair and sat at his desk, looking at Julian from afar. "Come on, what are you doing here today?"

Mr. Graham seldom came here. He must have something to ask for today.

Julian didn't chat much and came straight to the point, "I want you to help me inquire about the Spears family's divine doctor."

"The Spears family's divine doctor?" Dylan frowned.

"What for?" Los Angeles was different from New York.

If Julian asks him to inquire about any news in Los Angeles, he can guarantee that he will bring the news.

But the Spears family... It's difficult.

"A doctor from the Spears family came to grandpa's rescue, but he couldn't make him wake up either. Only the divine doctor can save him now." Julian said calmly.

"Is Grandpa sick?" Dylan couldn't help feeling nervous as he heard this.

"Yes. He's still lying in the hospital now." Julian lowered his eyes.

"Someone drugged Grandpa, causing him to become what he is now. I am currently trying to find the person."

Get Bor

"Someone dares to do that? It's really a big nerve." Dylan took a cold breath.

"Don't worry. I will do my best to help you inquire about the doctor." Upon hearing that, even if Dylan had any further concerns in his heart, he would still agree.

"But it's in Los Angeles, not in New York. And it's hard to say if we can find out in the end."

Dylan was hesitant.

Upon seeing this, Julian put down the tea in his hand and stood up directly, "I believe in you."

Dylan felt even more stressed in his heart.

From childhood to adulthood, it has been a long time since Julian entrusted him with such a serious task. This delegation, he must try his best.

He also stood up and gestured to Julian to sit down. "Okay. I will do my best to help you find this doctor."

"Thank you." After hearing the affirmative answer, the man's eyebrows slightly relaxed. "I'm waiting for your good news."

"But who told you that only the divine doctor of the Spears Family can treat grandpa?" he had some doubts in his heart, and he was afraid that someone would deliberately release false information.

"Natalie helped to invite the doctor." Julian looked up.

A hint of surprise flashed in Dylan's eyes, "Did she invite the doctor? How come?"

In his impression, she had always silently followed behind Julian. On weekdays, she stayed at the house to take care of household chores, as if she was isolated from the outside world.

Chapter 206 Hout his pride.

Since Niki returned, he has never heard of her.

"Yes." Julian's tone was flat, and Dylan was even more shocked by what he said the next second. "She is still Dr. Nancy's assistant."

"Dr. Nancy's assistant?" Dylan eyes widened and he even stood up excitedly.

"Did I hear you right? Is that the internationally renowned Dr. Nancy I know?"

Julian saw him so excited and didn't know what was causing it. He actually felt a bit angry.

The man gently bit his back teeth before slowly speaking, "Yes."

Dylan was clearly excited, "So she not only helped the Graham group obtain authorization as an assistant, but also invited the doctor to treat grandpa."

"She's too powerful, isn't she?"

"The Graham group must rely on her." Dylan looked thoughtful.

This is like thrusting a knife into Julian's self-esteem.

The man's face darkened a bit again.

"I'm leaving."

As soon as the words fell, he turned to leave.

"Hey, why don't you stay a little longer? You're leaving so soon?" Dylan obviously didn't realize that the man's emotions, so he begged him to stay.

"The group has a lot of things to deal with," Julian said stiffly and refused.

As Dylan heard this, he didn't say more. "Okay, don't worry. Even if I rush to New York now, I will definitely help you inquire about the divine doctor."

Before the words were finished, Julian had already left.

"Why is it so urgent?" Dylan scratched his head as he looked at the man's back, pondering where he had offended Julian.

On the other side, Natalie and Tory had already parked their cars and entered the villa one after another. The nanny had already prepared a meal that was full of color, aroma, and fragrance, and they could smell the aroma as soon as they entered the door.

As Tory took off his coat, he looked at Natalie and said, "Natalie, have you considered my suggestion? When are you planning to go back to Spears' house to see your grandfather?"

Chapter 207 The coldness and hatred

Upon hearing this, Natalie's eyelashes trembled, but she didn't speak.

The nanny consciously came to her side, took the coat she had just taken off, and placed it in the cleaning room.

"Why didn't you speak?" Tory looked at her.

Natalie smiled and said, "OK. When you finish handling your affairs here, I will go back to the family with you. How about that?"

After all these years of not returning to the family, she will eventually feel a sense of homesickness and hesitation.

Moreover, the recent drug development in the laboratory is led by Ryan. This is his first time participating in such a large development plan, and she is always a bit worried.

So after hearing this, she didn't make up her mind for a moment.

Upon hearing this, Tory immediately smiled and looked very satisfied. "Sure!

Then we'll make a deal. When I finish my work in Los Angeles, we'll go back to the family."

"Okay." Natalie half coaxed and half pushed him to sit down. "Hurry up and have a meal. You must be very tired after surgery today, so go rest after dinner."

Tory nodded and pulled out his chair to sit down. The nanny originally thought there was only one person in the villa, so she only put a pair of bowls and chopsticks.

Seeing someone else in the villa, she immediately ran to the kitchen and added extra dishes.

"Thank you," said Tory politely.

Natalie put some vegetables into her uncle's bowl, and a voice came in her ear, "What happened to Mr. Graham..."

"Hmm?" Natalie looked up, not knowing what he was going to say.

"Do you need me to invite your grandfather?" he spoke seriously.

He was incapable to cure Old Mr. Graham. And they had to asked Mr. Spears' help.

He felt that Natalie had left the family for three years and was embarrassed to beg Grandpa.

Instead of making her difficult, it's better for him to personally help her.

"Hmm?!" Natalie heard this and couldn't even hold her chopsticks steady.

She quickly swallowed the food in her mouth.

Even due to swallowing too quickly, she choked slightly twice.

“Be careful. No one is competing with you.” Tory quickly raised his hand and beckoned the nanny to bring her a cup of cool tea.

Natalie took the tea, took a few sips, took a slightly smoother breath, and quickly spoke up, “No need.”

She was afraid that he would make any more assertive decisions like today to help her deal with the mess of the Graham family.

“Really?” Tory looked puzzled, as if he didn’t quite believe it. “You don’t have to be afraid to trouble me. I can still help with this favor.”

“No, thank you for your kindness.” Natalie quickly waved his hand. “Actually, I didn’t plan to help them. If Julian had the ability to find Grandpa and persuade him to treat Grandpa Graham, that would be his ability.”

“If he doesn’t have the ability to find grandfather or persuade him to treat old Mr. Graham, these are fate. And I won’t intervene further.”

She spoke calmly.

“Do you really think so?” Tory had a smile in his eyes.

“Yes.” She nodded.

“That’s great. Leave it to him. You can’t do everything for him.” Tory was obviously happy.

He didn’t originally think this meal was delicious, because her statement made him feel that the dish was much better, and even happily ate an extra bowl of rice.

Niki stood on the cold road, watching the car sweep away. After biting her teeth tightly, her eyes gradually turned towards despair.

She felt like she was about to fall on this cold road.

At the moment of despair, the car in front suddenly stopped.

She was surprised and she felt that Julian was still worried about her.

She wanted to walk over, but it was obvious that her legs were frozen.

She is wearing a small violet dress today, covered in a cashmere coat. She didn't feel cold indoors, but it wasn't until she came out that she realized how cold the weather was.

Just as she was about to reach the location of the car, the car suddenly started and drove away from her.

Chapter 207. The coldass

She was a bit dumbfounded. She watched the car leave in a daze, and it took her a long time to react again.

What does he mean by this?

Is he intentional?

There's no need to do this to her, is there?

At this moment, she felt that she had been teased. In an instant, all her blood rushed up to her head, and she felt extremely angry.

It's all Natalie's fault. If it weren't for her, she wouldn't have ended up like this.

If it weren't for her, she would have already been Mrs. Graham with countless assets. She could buy whatever she wants.

*Instead of being unable to move a step in the cold weather like now! Even facing a crisis of impending fainting.

She had a splitting headache, and the more she thought about it, the more hatred she had. At this moment, she even wanted to kill Natalie.

She returned to the apartment with such a sense of embarrassment and deep hatred.

Gina heard the doorbell outside the door and quickly ran over to open it. As soon as she opened the door, she was startled by the cold air all over Niki's body, and she quickly pulled her in.

“Miss, what’s the matter?” She quickly raised the indoor temperature, looking a bit flustered.

“It’s okay,” Niki waved her hand.

She doesn’t want anyone to see her awkward appearance, including the nanny.

“How come?” Gina saw that Lin her body was still trembling uncontrollably.

She quickly went and took two blankets to cover her.

“I’ll help you prepare warm water. You can quickly have a bath.”

Niki nodded.

Gina hurriedly went to the bathroom to drain the water, but she didn’t know what was wrong with Miss? How could she freeze like this?

Should she report to Mr. Graham? She was hesitated.

Mr. Graham told her that she had to report to him if Miss had anything wrong.

“Miss, the bath is ready for you.” Gina came out of the bathroom.

“I’ll go and make you some ginger tea again, so that you won’t get cold again.”

Niki didn’t answer, she took off her clothes and walked into the bathtub.

The hot water rushed over, and she felt a hint of warmth and felt herself coming back to life.

She sat in the bathtub, gradually regaining her sanity, but the hatred in her heart did not diminish at all.

She must let Natalie also feel the pain!

Thinking this, she asked Gina to hand her the phone and find a phone number from her phone address book.

The owner of this number once made her feel extremely nauseous, but now in this situation, it's nothing at all.

Chapter 201 The coldness

She dialed the phone and said, "Mr. War?"

Roger received a rare call from Niki, with an inexplicable tone of coldness and charm, saying, "Yo, little beauty, you take the initiative to call me?"

"Mr. Ward, please do me a favor." She came to the straight point.

"Help?" Roger chuckled, "But there's always a price."

"I am willing to pay the price." Her tone was calm, and the dense water vapor filled her surroundings, making her outline appear vague.

"Okay! What's that?" Roger was in a good mood.

"Help me kidnap someone."

Chapter 208 In a remote area

"Kidnap someone? "Roger's smile became bigger when he heard Niki's request.

"That's right. "Niki sat in the bathtub, her expression bleak.

As if feeling that the water was not hot enough, she stood up, raised her head, and increased the temperature, causing more water mist in the room.

Over the phone, Roger didn't ask Niki why she wanted to kidnap someone. Instead, he curled his lips and smiled, "That's funny."

"What? Is that a yes or no?" Niki sounded calm.

Roger's greasy voice made her think of how he appeared at the banquet that day.

At that time, Roger misunderstood that Philip liked her, so he wanted to friend her on WhatsApp with bad intentions but was rejected mercilessly by her.

She didn't want too many backburners. She just wanted elite ones.

But later on, Niki realized how foolish she was. She was completely tricked by Natalie and Philip. Her plan to keep backburners was forced to stop.

Roger became her only option. She had to choose him.

When Niki thought of this, her expression became fiercer. She had to let Natalie pay back, including what Philip owed her.

The temperature in the room continued to rise. With the dense mist in the air, the hot water gradually flowed into the white bathtub.

Women seem to be completely unable to feel the temperature.

“Hi, beautiful. How can I refuse since it’s your request?”

Upon hearing the affirmative answer, Niki finally had her expression changed.

“But I have one request. Let me command your people. I will do it myself.”

“What? “Roger was quite puzzled.

“I will give them orders. You don’t need to help me.”

She must take revenge on them personally. Only by doing this could her anger be relieved.

“You want to do it on your own?” Roger sounded more excited. “I really want to witness it with my own eyes.”

“No need for that. Just lend me some people. I will give you enough reward after it’s done.”

“Okay. No problem at all since it’s your request.” Obviously, Roger chose to help.

He said coldly, “They will be at your service. Just do whatever you want.”

He appeared that he would agree with whatever Niki wanted to do.

What could he do? She was really his type.

Niki hung up.

She sat alone in the bathtub, looking out the window. It was unknown what she was thinking.

Gina made Niki food outside. She was anxious since Niki didn’t come out after a long time.

She waited anxiously for another half hour, but Niki still didn't come out. In a Chapter 20 in a remote area.

panic, she pushed the door open and went in.

Niki lived alone here, so the bathroom in the apartment wasn't big. Or, it could be called small.

Upon going in, Gina found that she couldn't see anything clearly since the mist was too dense.

Gina groped inside. She only stayed there for half a minute, but the high temperature frightened her. The temperature wasn't normal at all.

She panicked and only found out when she reached Niki's side that the water temperature in the bathtub was terrifying.

"Ms. Linch, why do you keep the temperature so high? Lower the temperature quickly in case you are burnt."

Niki seemed to not hear Gina's words at all. Only her shiny eyes could be seen in the dim bathroom.

In fact, it was a little terrifying.

The next morning.

Natalie woke up early. She got up and prepared herself a glass of tea to keep her head clear.

She went to the kitchen to get a clear porcelain cup and then raised her hand to take out some brown sugar, small crushed walnuts, and some honeysuckle from the cabinet.

Immediately after, Natalie rushed in with light tea. A sweet aroma of tea filled the air.

She lowered her head and took a sip.

The maid walked over when hearing the sound in the kitchen. Seeing that it was Natalie, she was surprised,

“Ms. Spears, you got up so early.”

Natalie politely smiled and said, ‘I’m used to it.’

The maid was even more surprised.

She had been serving rich families for decades. She never saw someone self-disciplined like Natalie.

The maid liked Natalie even more.

“I didn’t know that you got up so early, so I didn’t prepare breakfast. Please sit here for a rest. I’m right on it.”

Natalie held the cup and shook her head, “No need. I’m going out right now. Just make breakfast earlier next time.”

The maid was a little guilty when hearing this. She hurriedly answered, “Yes. I will make breakfast earlier next time.”

“Is Tory up?” Natalie changed the topic. Yesterday, Tory got up early to the hospital of the Graham Group. This made her a little afraid.

“Not yet,” replied the maid.

Natalie nodded, feeling relieved. “He was busy all day yesterday. He must be physically exhausted. Let’s let him sleep.”

“Make him breakfast when he wakes up.”

“Okay,” the maid hurriedly nodded and said.

Natalie drank all the tea in her cup, changed her clothes, and went out,

In the laboratory, Ryan had already changed into his laboratory clothes and started working.

After Natalie changed into her laboratory uniform, she also pushed the door

“Can we almost finish today?” Natalie looked at the petri dish next to her and saw that it grew exactly as she had expected. No mistakes happened at all.

“Doctor, I thought you wouldn’t come today.”

Recently, Natalie always had a lot of things to do at home. Although he could.

handle everything alone...

He felt lost without Natalie here.

“Why would I not come? I promised you. I won’t go back on my words.” Seeing Ryan’s aggrieved look, Natalie pursed her lips and smiled.

Ryan’s smile turned brighter when he saw Natalie’s smile. He was affected by her happiness. He even looked a lot proud, hoping to get Natalie’s praise.

“Doctor, take a look at my achievements. I did it!”

“I will definitely finish it today.” Ryan showed Natalie the proportion he was adjusting. He sounded confident.

“The current progress is completely in line with our plan, no more, no less, just right.”

“Later, when you get busy, I can help!”

Natalie’s eyes were clear and peaceful. She was also happy when seeing Ryan happy like this.

“We can handle our achievements to Jerry today.”

Ryan's face blushed red when hearing her praise. His heart beat fast and her ears were extremely red.

He couldn't hear what Natalie said next clearly.

Ryan's rapid heartbeat forced him to quickly bury his head and resume his previous work in a hurry. He couldn't even hold the reagent bottle steadily. It almost fell out of his hands.

"Did the Lance family urge you recently?" Natalie noticed that Ryan's ears were slightly red.

"Ah... Yes..." Ryan stammered. Suddenly, he came back to his senses. "No, he didn't."

Jerry seldom contacted him.

However, he didn't have any opinion on that since he didn't want to contact Jerry either.

After Ryan said this, he felt regretful in his heart. How could he stammer out of excitement?

Would Natalie think he was foolish?

"Then I will send the results to the Lance family in the afternoon. They must be anxious. The Lance family needed this medicine for a comeback.

Natalie took out her phone, found Jerry's phone number, and dialed it.

They greeted each other politely, then she came to the business.

"Send to the raw material factory of the Lance Group?" As the president of the group, he went to oversee the production in the factory? Natalie was a little surprised.

Ryan carefully listened to Jerry's words. When he heard about the raw material factory, he frowned.

The raw material factory of the Lance Group was located in a remote area. It was in the wild.

Natalie was going to such a desolate place?

Chapter 209 Not afraid

Jerry's voice wasn't clear through the phone, so Ryan couldn't hear him clearly.

But Ryan could basically understand what they were talking about. Jerry was saying that he wasn't home. He asked Natalie to send the results to the factory.

Ryan's eyebrows furrowed tightly.

"Okay. Deal. I will send you the sample in the afternoon." Natalie sounded calm.

She has no objections to Jerry's proposal.

Anyway, the experiment had ended and she had nothing to do this afternoon.

Moreover, Jerry was her business partner. She should send him the samples.

"Okay, thank you. I'll be waiting for you here." Jerry said politely.

He was deliberately alienating her.

After saying this, he added, "Take it easy. No hurry."

"I will go pick you up when you come. It's up to you."

Something went wrong in the raw material factory and the manager of the factory fell ill.

At this critical moment, Jerry couldn't leave.

Otherwise, he would definitely not have asked Natalie to personally come to the factory to deliver the samples. He would have personally come to pick them up.

Natalie thought for a while and found that she really didn’t know.”

“I don’t know.”

Ryan shook his head. No wonder Natalie agreed so quickly, it turned out she had no idea where the place was.

“It’s in a desolate place. Very far away from here.” Ryan emphasized.

Upon hearing this, Natalie blinked and said, “Desolate place?”

“That’s right.” Ryan nodded, “Yes, very desolate. It’s not easy to go there.”

Natalie looked at Ryan’s worried expression and raised her brows.

Was he worried about her?

Sure enough. After that, Ryan said in a worried tone, “Doctor, you are a girl. That place is too desolate. You shouldn’t go.”

“Let me send it over.”

Natalie pursed her lips, “You? Aren’t you afraid?”

How could he be afraid?

Ryan felt that he was looked down upon when he heard this.

He was eager to speak up and prove himself, “I’m...”

“You are what?” Natalie raised her eyebrows and said.

Ryan just wanted to prove himself. But just when he was about to say something, he realized that something was wrong.

Natalie wasn't aware of his identity.

Ryan could only reluctantly purse his lips. After thinking for a while, he said,

“I'm a brave man!”

Natalie smiled.

Later, she smiled more brightly.

She approached Ryan and said, ‘Yes, you are really a brave man!’

Ryan felt a little shy when he heard this from Natalie.

He regretted it again.

He should have thought carefully before saying anything. What he said just now was really stupid.

Natalie saw Ryan's ears turn red again. His face was even redder than the last time.

Perhaps it was because he looked too cute, Natalie couldn't help but go forward to rub his hair.

Ryan's hair was very fluffy. After Natalie rubbed his hair, his hair became

He looked even cuter.

Ryan was a bit stunned.

Natalie touched his head just now? Was it his illusion?

“I'm not afraid of desolate places. I fear those places the least.” Natalie sounded relaxed. "You don't need to worry about me."

She had been staying with her grandfather in Dragon Valley since childhood.

Dragon Valley was located in a secluded valley surrounded by mountains.

There were dense forests there. Only small paths were there.

She enjoyed searching for different kinds of herbs on her own, so she went out every day.

When she enjoyed it a lot, she would even go out to search for herbs at night.

So she didn't care whether the factory was desolate or not.

"Really? Just let me go." Ryan didn't believe it.

Afraid of Natalie's refusal, he added, "Maybe we can go together. At least, I can protect you when we are in danger."

Natalie did not agree.

"You spent so much effort on it. Just take a rest in the afternoon."

Being rejected by Natalie without hesitation, Ryan felt down and sad.

But he obediently replied, "Okay."

In the afternoon, Natalie got the final product as planned.

Natalie was careful. She could see that Ryan was still worried.

She had no other choices. She promised to take Hugh with her. Then Ryan looked no longer that worried.

Natalie got into the car.

Chapter 209 Not afraid

Hugh drove. He clicked on the address Jerry sent and used the navigation system to guide them there.

On the other side, by Peace Lake.

Niki arrived at the designated place on time according to the positioning sent by Roger.

But she didn't see Roger's subordinates.

She was puzzled. She took a few steps inside, and then tentatively shouted, "Is anyone here?"

As soon as she said this, the sound of footsteps came from behind.

'Niki turned her head. Instead of Roger's subordinates, she saw Roger.

He curled his lips and smiled sinisterly, "Hi, beautiful. Long time no see."

Niki furrowed her brows and instinctively took a step back, "Where are your guys?"

Why did Roger come alone instead?

To be honest, Niki was a little afraid when she saw Roger's gloomy face.

Niki subconsciously pulled her dress and held her arms.

Roger chuckled inwardly, "Are you afraid of me?"

Niki just frowned without saying anything.

Roger didn't get angry, though Niki didn't answer him. He was still smiling.

"I suddenly changed my mind. Tell me your request. I will do it myself.

She wanted to do it herself so as to feel the pleasure of taking revenge.

"You don't agree?" Roger smiled. "This is your only option."

"No... If you are willing to..." Roger didn't finish his words, but his eyes were filled with desire toward Niki.

He wanted Niki's beautiful body very much.

"As long as you agree to sleep with me, I will let you do it yourself. Do you agree?"

Niki immediately understood his meaning.

When she heard this, she looked up and said, "You!" She felt disgusted in her heart.

She took several more steps back this time.

Roger's subordinates were all mercenaries. They were cruel and powerful.

Niki thought that she would only be relaxed to have them deal with Natalie. If not for this, she wouldn't endure Roger's disgusting face. She would definitely leave.

It seemed that Niki finally couldn't endure Roger's lewd eyes, she chose to compromise. "Okay. I will just let you do it."

"Help me kidnap Natalie, the sooner the better."

"This is her photo," Niki said as she took out a photo from her bag.

She accidentally took Natalie's photo when she framed Natalie for having an affair with Jerry.

The room was dim, so the photo wasn't clear. However, the woman's face in the photo could be seen clearly.

Roger took it and put it directly into his pocket without even looking at it.

He fixed his eyes on Niki.

Niki felt uncomfortable all over and hastily said, "Notify me after everything is done." After that, she left.

She didn't stop for a moment, as if there were fierce beasts chasing after her.

"Don't forget about the price you have to pay." Roger reminded her with a sinister smile.

Nik felt tense again.

She gritted her teeth. She had to tell herself repeatedly in her heart that as long as she could make Natalie suffer, whatever price was worth it.

No matter what!

Niki didn't answer. She kept going forward and left this terrible place without looking back.

Roger watched Niki leave and turned to an inconspicuous boxing gym.

In the boxing gym, a group of men with strong muscles were fiercely fighting.

He pushed the door in and threw the photo at the man in charge, "You can stop now. You have a job here."

"Kidnap this woman in the photo."

Chapter 210 Car chase

Jaxton wearing boxers stopped punching when he saw Roger.

He took the photo from him and roughly glanced at the woman in the photo.

So beautiful.

He couldn't help but exclaim in his heart.

But was Roger going to kidnap such a beautiful woman?

"You've got new tricks, Mr. Ward," Jaxton swung the photo in his hand with a mysterious smile on his face.

He had to admit that Roger had some weird hobbies.

His smirk was exactly the same as Roger's.

Upon hearing this, Roger gave Jaxton a punch.

"Talk to the hand. Do it right now!"

“I guess it won’t take you long to find the girl, right? Bring her to me as soon as possible.”

He was itching to show his competence to Niki.

Roger’s punch made Jaxton dare not to say anything more. “Okay, I’m on it,” his tone turned respectful.

After-saying this, he put on his coat and was about to leave.

“Are you going alone?” Roger stopped him.

His voice was heavy with dissatisfaction.

“Yeah, it’s just a woman,” Jaxton answered, “I’m more than enough on my own.”

Roger ignored his confidence, “take more people with you.”

“But I’m good enough on my own…”

Roger knew his competence well.

He could defeat a group of strong men on his own, let alone a weak woman.

“That woman’s not ordinary. It’s foolproof to bring more people with you,” Roger said in a serious tone.

Upon hearing this, Jaxton frowned.

He pondered for a moment, then turned around and waved to a group of people behind him, “now put on your clothes and follow me.”

Then they set off in a mighty manner.

Natalie arrived at the raw material factory of the Lance Family.

As soon as Hugh parked the car, Jerry was already waiting for them at the door.

“This is the final result,” Natalie handed out the item to Jerry.

Jerry took it in silence.

“To be on the safe side, you could check it out today or tomorrow. If there are any problems, report to Ryan and we will definitely improve them,” said Natalie.

“Okay,” Jerry nodded.

Natalie turned around and was about to leave.

Just then, Jerry finally screwed up his courage and said,

“Well... Would you like to visit the Lance Family’s raw material factory?”

“What?” Natalie turned around to look at him.

“After all, you’re going to cooperate with the Lance Group. I think you could visit your partner’s raw material factories...” Jerry added uneasily.

Natalie pondered for a moment before answering, “okay.”

It was already completely dark outside after roughly visiting the raw material factory, Hugh drove back by the same route.

The night breeze was blowing from a distance; there was no one on the deserted road, everything seemed to be enveloped by the endless black.

Sitting in the back seat, Natalie quietly watched out from the window.

In dead silence, there was no other sound except for the faint chirping of insects.

Hugh was an introvert person. He wouldn’t utter a word if no one took the initiative to speak to him.

Even if someone talked to him, he wasn’t likely to speak.

Natalie felt kind of bored and drowsy in this quiet environment.

When she was falling into a dream, a sudden acceleration of the car woke her up, and the wheels made a sharp sound on the mountain road.

“What’s going on?!” Natalie was startled.

Holding the steering wheel tightly, Hugh glanced at Natalie in the rearview mirror, “hold still!”

Hugh put down the handbrake, pressed the accelerator and the car flew out like an arrow leaving the string.

The sudden movement gave Natalie a sharp shove, making her nose hit the seat. She groaned as a piercing pain came from her nose.

Hugh noticed the sound made by Natalie but instead of slowing down, he pressed the accelerator hard.

The car drove faster and faster, Natalie could only hold the safety belt tightly.

Why was Hugh driving so fast? Was there a wolf chasing him?

Natalie managed to stabilize herself and turned to look back.

She saw several off-roaders chasing behind their car with crazy speed.

They were all trying to crash into them!

Natalie was completely taken aback. While tightly grasping the handle to avoid being thrown out, she looked at the car behind her in disbelief, her face full of amazement.

“Where did these people come from? Why are they chasing us?!”

Hugh looked at the rearview mirror and gritted his teeth, “they’ve been following me ever since we came out of the raw material factory.”

“What?” Natalie looked back; her eyes filled with surprise.

There was no faint chirping of insects.

All that filled her ears now was the harsh sound of the wheels rubbing against the ground, one after another, like a bomb reminding her of her.

“They almost overtake us,” Natalie let out a warning as these off-roaders were getting so close to an extent that they almost hit them.

Hugh cast s curt glance at the rearview mirror.

“Be quick!” exclaimed Natalie.

However, it was too late. One off-roader behind rammed into their car, causing it to move forward.

The huge impact threw Natalie off from her seat.

The other party was obviously well prepared as they were all driving in off-roaders.

Natalie’s car couldn’t compete with them on speed...

Natalie broke into cold sweat.

At this urgent moment, Hugh found a way out.

The turning point was just in front of him. He suddenly slowed down to get closer to the cars behind him. Then just as the off-roader behind was about to hit him, he stepped on the accelerator and the car rushed out again in an instant.

Then he spun the wheel sharply with one hand and quickly shifted the gears with the other.

The car made a U turn around the bend with the wheels gripping the ground and fiercely rolling up the dust.

The wind mixed with dust immediately flew like a wild horse towards the other party’s windshield.

The distance was widened.

Seeing the car behind being stuck in mud and its speed significantly decreasing, Natalie took a deep breath.

She forced herself to calm down.

Judging from these people's action, combined with Hugh's words that they had been following Natalie's cars since they had left the raw material factory...

They came for her.

Someone wanted to take revenge on her?

Before Natalie could figure out who was behind the scenes, the next second, a hurried sound of wheels came to her ear: these outlaws came nearer and 'nearer.

Hugh gritted his teeth: now he had driven the car to its maximum speed, unable to accelerate further.

These crazy off-roaders were completely like helpless prisoners, crashing wildly towards them.

They seemed to feel no fear at all; they wanted to die with them!

"They are insane!" Natalie frowned.

"What are the odds of breaking away from them, Hugh?"

Hugh tightly grasped the wheel, his tone ragged, "I'm not sure..."

Upon hearing this, Natalie's lips trembled uncontrollably, she gritted her teeth in anger
