Chapter 1281 This Woman's Screwed Me Over

On the phone, Kisa was disgusted and continued to talk badly about Gilbert and kept insulting him repeatedly.

"Only his looks are nice His temper is horrible I can honestly say that no woman can endure it."

"Tsk, no need to be so harsh on him. He still has some good qualities."

"You're wrong. I've had enough of him. He always says nothing and just sits there looking unhappy. I didn't even make him angry, so why does he keep giving me attitude? Seriously!

Kisa continued, Tm telling you; he's been this cold since we were kids. After he grew up, he became all full of himself and now he thinks he's all cool and stuff, but to be honest, he's just annoying!"

"Kisa!"

Kisa was furiously complaining about Gilbert but was suddenly interrupted as the sound of someone's angry voice through clenched teeth echoed in the car

Kisa flinched as she squeezed the sandwiches in her hand until they changed shape

She mechanically turned her head and asked Felicity. "I think I heard Gilbert's voice just now."

"H think I heard it too," Felicity was shocked as she said.

Lea nodded. She still worriedly asked, "So, is my baby all right? Can I keep this baby?"

"Regarding this... You have to be more careful if you want to keep the baby." The doctor awkwardly said, "In the future, try not to have sexual intercourse Even if you really want to do it, don't do it too intensely. And you need to rest more in bed. Refrain from strenuous exercise."

Lea listened and did not care about the embarrassment or feel awkward. She just nodded.

For the past few days, Anthony had indeed kept having s*x with her carelessly and aggressively, without caring about her health or her feelings.

Sometimes, even she could not bear the pain he caused her, let alone this vulnerable fetus.

"Since you're all done eating, I'll drive the car over You all just wait for me by the entrance," Anthony said.

Then, he walked to the parking lot without looking Karen and Layla in the eyes.

"Even though I'm a womanizer, I'm not interested in arrogant women like those in the Reyes family. he thought.

Right after Anthony left, Jane hurriedly smiled at Layla and Karen, "Look at how sensible my son is; he's purposefully driving the car over from the parking lot as if he doesn't want Karen to walk."

Karen's face brimmed with joy and embarrassment.

Layla snorted, "Do you hear yourself? From what I see, he seems very cold. I wonder if he's got a problem with my daughter

"No, no. Definitely not. It's an honor for Anthony to like someone as good as Karen," Jane simpered in a panic.

Just as Layla wanted to speak, Karen quickly grabbed her arm and said, "Mom, stop picking on Anthony. He really is a great guy."

Layla glanced at her daughter in resignation.

A scream rang through the street, turning the heads of those passing by.

Jane was startled and instinctively released Lea.

Lea's knees buckled and she fell right onto the ground.

She felt a cramping pain in her stomach. It hurt so much that she curled up into a ball.

But aside from the wrenching pain she felt in her stomach, she also felt fear and hopelessness in her heart.

Layla watched the woman on the ground as her face contorted in pain. She felt a little terrified

She grabbed her daughter, “What's this? Why did you hit her?”

Kisa was leaning against the car window and enjoying the cold air when she saw a familiar figure. Her heart sank, and she quickly shouted for Felicity.

Felicity stopped the car at the side of the road and asked, "What's wrong? Kisa did not have the time to respond. She quickly got out of the car and yelled, "Lea!"

She ran over to Lea, shocked when she saw the pale and distorted look on her face. There was blood on her pants. "W-What happened? W-Who did this?" Kisa said in a trembling voice.

She looked around, feeling sad and angry, when she suddenly saw the backs of Anthony Mullen and Karen Reyes.

An intense rage suddenly arose in her heart. She wanted to avenge Lea by teaching them a lesson. Suddenly, Lea grabbed the corner of Kisa's clothes and said, "S-Save Save my child. "Lea's lips. turned pale. She was too weak and injured to speak properly.

Under the dazzling headline was a picture of Anthony dancing with Karen. There was also a picture of him smiling at her as he held her waist. The two of them really looked like a match made in heaven.

Kisa stared fiercely at her phone, her face full of ridicule and bitterness. She scrolled down the news and looked for an address. She put away her phone and walked toward the elevator. Before she left the hospital, she hired a temporary nurse to help take care of Lea.

Anthony and Karen were having fun in the most romantic bar in Athadale while Lea had lost her child and was lying unconscious in the hospital. Kisa's heart filled with grief and indignation when she thought of Lea's condition.

Ugh. If he wants to climb the ranks of the Reyes family, so be it. I will help them fulfill their wish."

Chapter 1287 Proposal

Jane had planned this for a long time, and it was she who brought in all the reporters. She knew Karen liked Anthony, and if Anthony proposed, Karen would definitely say yes. As long as Karen said yes to Anthony's proposal in front of the press, the marriage between Anthony and Karen would be inevitable, even if the Reyes family disagreed.

By now, Layla was looking not too happy Jane glanced at her and chuckled as if nothing had happened. "Mrs. Reyes, look, they're such a perfect match."

"Heh, you're well prepared for this secret rendezvous, eh? I forgot that you've always been a schemer You also used such a tactic when you first came to the Mullen family. I didn't expect that after all these years, you're still so insidious. I really underestimated you and your son." Layla's voice was full of mockery and disdain.

Jane laughed, sounding indifferent. "Don't say that. Look, Karen is happy. What's more important is that they are happy."

Layla looked at her with disgust, not wanting to talk to her.

Jane smirked and looked toward the Chapter 1288 Insisting on Meddling

With the woman's loud voice interrupting, the people in the hall subconsciously split into two columns, all curiously looking toward the entrance. They saw a woman walking in with a sneer on her face Those who did not know her started to speculate about her relationship with Anthony Because of her remark, they wondered if she was pregnant with Anthony's baby, which Anthony had inadvertently killed. Did she then deliberately crash the party as a form of revenge?

Kisa calmly met the strange stares of these people. She straightened her back and slowly walked to the stage.

On the stage, Anthony looked at her quietly, his expression changing. Jane was the most anxious, while Layla was the happiest at this moment. Layla hurriedly came on stage and pulled Karen into her arms as if Anthony was a villain playing with Karen's feelings.

Jane looked at Kisa Instead of showing anger, she smiled politely at Kisa, making Kisa look like she was really here to crash the party.

"I wonder what Mrs. Kooper just meant by that statement I know the Kooper family has always been at odds with the Mullen family, but please don't bring this kind of family feud to us personally.

The look on Anthony's face changed. It became very dark and gloomy.

He stared at Kisa and sneered. "Did she ask you to come here and tell me this?"

His tone sounded very cruel and unstable. It sent a chill down Kisa's spine.

Kisa felt very indignant on behalf of Lea.

She looked into Anthony's eyes and said calmly, "She's still in a coma. I came here because I want to."

"Anthony. you killed your own child."

"Shut up!" Anthony got agitated suddenly and yelled That's impossible It's not possible that she was bearing my child. She has never told me about it."
