Chapter 201 Vice President

He Xinyan clapped her hands together happily and looked towards Gu Yechen.

"When it is time for the board of directors meeting, can Mr. Qu come with me so he can explain it to everyone, and Bai Jiawei won't be able to deny it."

Gu Yechen nodded, "You heard Mrs. Gu. You can give her your contact information so she can contact you when it is time for the meeting."

"Yes, President Gu." Qu Fei gave He Xinyan his phone number under Gu Yechen's scary glare, although he was the one that told Qu Fei to do so.

He Xinyan happily stood up and bowed slightly to show her gratitude towards Qu Fei, because "someone" wouldn't let her shake his hand.

"Thank you very much for your help!"

"No problem, Mrs. Gu."

He Xinyan quickly returned to the He Corporation so she wouldn't be gone too long, and she sat down inside her office.

She read through the will once more and a smile crossed her face.

She's ready. Now, all she had to do was wait for the board meeting.

A week went by quickly, and it was almost time for the board meeting. He Xinyan had prepared everything and organized it so she was ready to go.

After work, she returned home. She was about to step into Gu Yechen's house when she suddenly received a message.

"Come back home tonight."

He Xinyan furrowed her eyebrows together and read Bai Jiawei's message twice. She switched over to text Gu Yechen that she would be a little late today before walking down the front porch and over to the He mansion.

Once she walked in, she saw Bai Jiawei, Li Huiran and Li Yuyan all sitting on the couch. This sight was never a good sign.

"Xinyan, you're back!" Bai Jiawei stood up with a smile, which was even a worse sign.

He Xinyan raised one eyebrow and sat down on the empty couch, "What is it?"

Bai Jiawei wasn't pleased with her attitude, but he also sat down and went straight to the point, "Yanyan, I have something to disc- tell you."

He Xinyan crossed her arms together and glanced at Li Huiran and Li Yuyan, "What is it?"

"You have been the CEO of the company for quite a while now. During this time, Yuyan has also been working hard in the company and contributing a lot."

He Xinyan licked his lips as she had a basic guess of where this conversation was going to go.

"So, I have decided to make Yuyan the vice president of the He Corporation." Bai Jiawei tried to stay calm as he firmly stated his "decision".

"I object your decision," He Xinyan said softly.

"Why?! What power do you have to do that?!" Li Yuyan jumped up angrily and pointed one finger at He Xinyan. She had lost the opportunity to be CEO because of He Xinyan, so she wasn't going to let He Xinyan steal away her chance to be vice president anymore.

"The power of the CEO and director on the board."

Bai Jiawei cleared his throat, "Xinyan, why are you so against your sister? You are the CEO, so you can help your sister."

"First of all, it is stepsister, not sister. Second of all, just because she is my stepsister and your daughter doesn't make her eligible for the position of vice president."

"Well, then why are you the CEO?!" Li Yuyan glared at He Xinyan.

"Because this is my company sooner or later," He Xinyan looked at Li Yuyan like she was looking at a clown.

Hearing this, Bai Jiawei immediately frowned.

"Well, I am the chairman of the He Corporation right now, and I am still the biggest shareholder. So, I declare that Li Yuyan will be the vice president," Bai Jiawei said firmly.

"Oh, really? Are you the biggest shareholder?" He Xinyan leaned forward and smirked.

"Of course!" Bai Jiawei cleared his throat, "He Xinyan, you are getting more and more disrespectful towards me and your Auntie Li, and also your sister Yuyan! This is very bad! There is no need for further discussion. Yuyan will be the vice president starting from tomorrow! I will also notify the board of directors in the next meeting."

Bai Jiawei stood up to leave, but He Xinyan also jumped up.

"Li Yuyan will not be the vice president!"

Li Yuyan glared at He Xinyan and jumped forward, but Li Huiran stopped her.

"He Xinyan!" Bai Jiawei glared at He Xinyan with his face slightly red. He needed to get his authority back! He Xinyan was getting more and more out of hand!

"Dad, as the CEO and future leader of the company, I think that I have a huge say in this. Li Yuyan will not be the vice president!" He Xinyan stared straight into Bai Jiawei's eyes.

"As the biggest shareholder of the company and the chairman, I have a bigger say!"

He Xinyan stepped forward, "Are you the biggest shareholder? Dad, how many shares do you have?"

Bai Jiawei broke their eye contact guiltily and took a deep breath, "Your mom gave all her shares to me to control until I retire, then it will be given to you."

"How many shares is that?" He Xinyan crossed her arms together with a smile.

"31 percent!" Bai Jiawei waved it off, "Stop going off topic. He Xinyan, I don't care if you are the CEO. The company is mine right now, and Li Yuyan is going to be vice president!"

Bai Jiawei can't lose any more power, or else the company will actually fall into He Xinyan's hands. His only other choice was Li Yuyan, so he had to push her up for now. After He Xinyan was gone, he could think of the rest.

"It doesn't matter if she does, because the company will be mine soon. Once it does, she will have to leave anyway."

"He Xinyan! You b****!" Li Yuyan stood up and she looked like she was ready to slap her, but Li Huiran pushed her back down again.

"Xinyan, don't be so rude to your dad." Li Huiran stood up, "I don't see why Yuyan can't be the vice president. It is not good to be so petty and selfish."

He Xinyan grinned, "Are you saying I'm petty and selfish?"

Li Huiran rolled her eyes and sat back down.

"Yes, you are! He Xinyan, you have to get it clear! The company is mine right now! Mine! I will make Li Yuyan the vice president!" Bai Jiawei stomped one foot on the ground and turned around to leave.

"We will see what the board of directors think."

"They will agree with me!" Bai Jiawei turned around and screamed.

"Once the company comes to me, I don't think they will anymore."

Bai Jiawei lost it when he heard her, and he swiftly lifted his arm up and slapped He Xinyan across the face. He Xinyan wasn't looking his way, so she couldn't defend herself.

The force caused her to fall back, and her body hit the hard hand rest of the couch.

Li Huiran and Li Yuyan were shocked for a second before Li Yuyan began laughing.

Hearing the laughter, He Xinyan looked up and gently touched her red cheek. She could stand words, but violence. . . that was a different issue.

"See! What did I tell you? Be more respectful, or else this is what you will get." Li Huiran said with a smile as she took a sip of tea.

He Xinyan knit her eyebrows together. Did Li Huiran forget about something?

That's fine. . . She can remember for her!

"You better shut your mouth up or else I will slap you again! As your father, I have the right to punish you if you do something wrong! The company is mine right now, so I have the biggest power, you understand?!"

He Xinyan took a deep breath and pushed herself up from the ground. It wasn't time to get rid of Bai Jiawei yet, so she couldn't fight back as of now. However, it was a different case for the two other people inside the room.

"Wait right here." He Xinyan glanced at Li Huiran and Li Yuyan, who were very happy about He Xinyan getting slapped. However, the smile on their faces won't stay for much longer.

She walked up the stairs with Bai Jiawei screaming behind her, "Where are you going?! Do you understand?! He Xinyan!"

Inside her bedroom, she unlocked the top drawer of her nightstand and took out a black folder. She locked the drawer again before leaving her room.

Bai Jiawei was still screaming downstairs when she walked back down.

"Calm down, dad. I sincerely apologize for my behavior just now. To express it, I have prepared a gift for you." He Xinyan bent down to pick up her phone and opened up a recording.

'From when you first met Li Huiran to how Li Yuyan came to be to. . . just everything! Well, I first met Li Huiran. . .'

At once, Li Huiran's body tensed up and she glared at He Xinyan.

Chapter 202 Bai Jiawei's Daughter?

At once, Li Huiran's body tensed up and she glared at He Xinyan.

'I remember she was very angry and sad at that time because Bai Jiawei was still married to his former wife, and Huiran was mad that she had to stay hidden and could only meet up with Bai Jiawei occasionally. . .'

"He Xinyan!" Li Huiran jumped up and ran over to go stop the recording, because she knew what was coming on, "You -"

He Xinyan used one arm to push Li Huiran back down to the couch nearby and stopped the recording so it wouldn't be cut off, "Shut up and stay still!"

Li Huiran shivered from He Xinyan's scary expression, "You promised me -"

"Then you shouldn't have trusted me!" He Xinyan grinned and started the recording again.

'I was a worker. . . That night, Huiran was in a very bad mood. I didn't know why. . . She drank -'

"Stop!" Li Huiran tried to grab onto He Xinyan's phone again, but this time, Bai Jiawei was the one to stop her.

"Shut up!" Bai Jiawei wasn't dumb. From just the beginning of the recording, he had a guess of what was going on already. He needed to hear the rest. . .

"You! Go bring Li Huiran to her room!" Bai Jiawei pointed at a few workers nearby, and they immediately pulled Li Huiran up the stairs and into the master bedroom.

The entire way, Li Huiran was screaming, "Stop it! Let go of me! He Xinyan, you b****! How dare you lie to me?! Yuyan, stop her!"

"Mom! Mom!" Li Yuyan tried to help Li Huiran, but wasn't successful, "Dad what are you doing?! He Xinyan, what are you trying to do now?!"

"We will see. Li Yuyan, you should listen to this too. You will be. . . mind blown!" He Xinyan chuckled and started the recording again.

You could still hear Li Huiran's screams coming from upstairs, but the recording was louder.

'She was drunk, and we ended up sleeping together. After that night, she came over to the bar often and slept with me whenever Bai Jiawei couldn't be with her.'

Bai Jiawei's eyes widened as he stared at the phone He Xinyan was holding. Li Yuyan also gasped in surprise. She wanted to stop He Xinyan, but she also couldn't stop her bursting curiosity.

He Xinyan calmly sat down on the couch and continued to play the recording, 'In one of those nights, she got pregnant with Li Yuyan. . . my daughter.'

"What?!" Li Yuyan jumped up from the couch and began shaking slightly, "He Xinyan, what are you trying to do?! Where did you get this fake recording?! Stop it!"

Li Yuyan reached for the phone, but Bai Jiawei stepped forward and pushed her back down onto the couch.

"Sit still if you don't want to be dragged away like your mom! Keep playing, He Xinyan!" Bai Jiawei's face was scarily red as he glared at the phone.

Li Yuyan shook on the couch as her fingers dug into the pillowcase. The recording was fake. . . It was fake! He Xinyan had purposely made a fake recording to come and trick them! Li Yuyan shook her head as she tried to convince herself. She was Bai Jiawei's daughter!

'That is why he decided to lie to Bai Jiawei and say the kid was his. I was just a worker in the bar, so I couldn't raise the child too. . .' The recording continued, 'What about the DNA test? Do you know about the DNA test when Li Huiran first entered the He mansion? How did she get past it?'

Li Yuyan looked up. Exactly! They did a DNA test! She was Bai Jiawei's daughter!

'She was very worried. She asked me about it too. . . All I know is in the end, she bribed the hospital that did the test, so it was. . . fake.'

Li Yuyan looked like she was struck by lightning, "He Xinyan, where did you get this fake recording from?! Stop trying to trick me and dad!"

Bai Jiawei took several seconds to recover after listening to the recording, "He Xinyan, where did you get this recording from?"

He Xinyan shrugged, "I was eating lunch with Gu Yechen one day, and I coincidentally came across this man that looked a lot like Li Yuyan. I was surprised so I talked to him for a bit. Turns out, he is Li Yuyan's biological dad! How funny is that?! Hahahaha!"

Bai Jiawei glared at He Xinyan, and she quickly stopped laughing. However, Bai Jiawei's anger for He Xinyan had been covered.

"Dad, she is lying! Dad, I am your daughter! Go ask my mom -"

"Do you think your mom is going to be dumb enough to admit that you aren't Bai Jiawei's biological daughter?! Oh wait, she is!"

He Xinyan smiled happily as she began playing another recording. It started with her showing the recording to Li Huiran, and then her conversation with Li Huiran, ending before Li Huiran began telling the story of how He Yuxin died.

"Your mom did admit herself that you are not Bai Jiawei's biological daughter."

Of course Bai Jiawei and Li Yuyan recognized Li Huiran's voice, so there was no denying it now.

"You're lying. . . You're lying. . . You found someone to fake the recording!" Li Yuyan shook her head and glared at He Xinyan, looking as if she wanted to kill her.

"Don't worry! Be patient, I have more." He Xinyan picked up the file folder she brought from upstairs and pulled out two papers. One for Bai Jiawei, one for Li Yuyan!

Once Bai Jiawei saw the paper, it crumpled up into a ball. His eyes became red and it looked so scary He Xinyan took a step back.

"Li Huiran! Bring her down!"

Once the door opened, Li Huiran ran out of the room and down the stairs.

"He Xinyan! You -" Li Huiran lunged for He Xinyan, but Bai Jiawei stopped her and slapped her across her cheek.

"Ah!" The slap was probably several times harder than the one Bai Jiawei "gave" He Xinyan, and Li Huiran fell back onto the cold and hard ground.

Her cheek immediately swelled up, and you could see five finger marks on her cheek.

"Don't listen to her! She is lying! She is a liar! Yuyan is your kid!" Li Huiran said not so clearly because her jaw hurt.

"Lying? Two recordings and a DNA report! You say she is lying?!"

"DNA report?" Li Huiran's eyes widened. She had talked to Ma Yuhao after her deal with He Xinyan, and Ma Yuhao told her that He Xinyan gave him the final copy of the DNA report.

"Yes! Look at it yourself!" Bai Jiawei threw the crumpled sheet of paper to Li Huiran, who read it over several times, "No, this can't be true. This can't be - This is fake! He Xinyan is lying! She got a fake one!"

He Xinyan chuckled, "Auntie Li, I am not like you. I don't have the . . . audacity to make a fake DNA report. If you don't believe me, you can conduct one again."

"I. . ." Li Huiran's eyes darted around nervously, and they landed on Li Yuyan, who was crying on the couch.

"There is no need." Bai Jiawei stretched his neck and pulled out his phone, "Lawyer Li, please bring over the divorce documents right now. Yes, the He mansion."

Li Huiran's mouth fell open and she pushed herself off the floor, falling down twice as she did so, "No! Jiawei, no! Yuyan is your kid! The DNA report is fake! He Xinyan is lying! That b****, she is lying!"

Bai Jiawei hung up the call and slapped Li Huiran on the other cheek again, causing her to fall back onto the ground.

"Do you think I'm stupid?! How dare you lie to me for all these years?! And I always tried to help your daughter, thinking that she was also my daughter! But you have been lying to me! How dare you?! You will definitely get punished! Hmph!"

He Xinyan sat down on the couch and casually ate fruit before smiling at Li Yuyan, who was shaking as tears fell down her face.

"You!" Li Yuyan lunged at He Xinyan after seeing her smile, but He Xinyan was ready. She stuck her feet out, and it perfectly hit Li Yuyan's upper body, causing her to fall onto the ground with a thump.

If this was in the past, Bai Jiawei would have gotten furious at He Xinyan, but he didn't care anymore. Li Yuyan wasn't her daughter anyway.

"Jiawei, you have treated Yuyan like your daughter for all these years, and she has treated you as her dad for all these years! You can't do this! I can leave, but don't do this to Yuyan!"

"Did she know about this?" Bai Jiawei glared at Li Yuyan then at her mother.

"No! No, Li Yuyan knew nothing about this!" Li Huiran immediately shook her head.

Bai Jiawei scoffed, "It doesn't matter. Do you think I will keep taking care of someone else's daughter! No way! Li Yuyan will go to he** with you!"

Li Yuyan began sobbing as she shook her head, not wanting to believe this. No way! She was Bai Jiawei's daughter! She was the daughter of the He family as well! Not some daughter of a restaurant waiter!

A few minutes later, the lawyer that always worked with the He family and Bai Jiawei arrived.

He didn't ask any questions as he gave the divorce files to Bai Jiawei, "Here are the legal documents you need to sign for a divorce."

Chapter 203 The Show

"No, Jiawei! No!" Li Huiran shook her head violently and looked towards Li Yuyan, "Help me!"

Li Yuyan finally recovered from her shock as she looked between Li Huiran and Bai Jiawei. Finally, she decided to help Li Huiran. . . also helping herself.

"Dad, calm down -"

"I'm not your dad!" Bai Jiawei shot Li Yuyan an angry glare, causing her to shut up.

Bai Jiawei forcefully signed all of the pages and threw it at Li Huiran, "Sign it!"

"No. . . no. . . no!" Li Huiran shook her head violently, "Jiawei, please! I'm sorry! I was wrong! Please forgive me! I should have told you. . ."

Bai Jiawei rolled his eyes and put one hand up to his forehead, "You think I am just angry at you for not telling me?! How dare you cheat on me with another guy and give birth to his child?!"

"Well. . . you cheated on my mom too. . ." He Xinyan said softly, but loud enough for Bai Jiawei to hear.

"Shut up!" Bai Jiawei glared at He Xinyan, but didn't acknowledge her further.

He Xinyan shrugged and stopped talking. This wasn't her show! She was watching the show.

"You made me raise your daughter with another man for 25 years! How dare you?! Be grateful that I am not sending you to jail for this?!"

"Jia -"

"If you don't sign the divorce papers and get out now, I will send you to jail with your daughter!" Bai Jiawei screamed, his entire face red as a tomato.

Bai Jiawei's lawyer shifted uncomfortably and looked down. He knew that Li Huiran's actions weren't actually enough for her to be put into prison, but it was best for him to not say anything if he didn't want to be fired.

Li Huiran immediately picked up the pen when Bai Jiawei mentioned putting her to jail. Of course she didn't want to go to jail! And Yuyan couldn't go to jail either!

She reluctantly signed her name on the papers, and before she could even put the pen back down, Bai Jiawei had snatched the papers away and handed it to the lawyer.

"Can you settle the divorce?" Bai Jiawei asked the lawyer.

"Yes, Mr. Bai. I will have it done by the end of tomorrow." The lawyer looked at everyone in the room once before leaving the house.

Li Huiran was sobbing by now, and she looked like the sky had just fallen on her.

"Shut up!" Bai Jiawei had no mercy whatsoever to give to Li Huiran or Li Yuyan. He had tried so hard to push Li Yuyan up, and always thought of her as the replacement for He Xinyan. However, he would have never thought that Li Yuyan wasn't even his biological child?!

He spent all his time and money on someone else's child?! Bai Jiawei wanted to kill Li Huiran by now! How dare she?!

"You have ten minutes to pack your things and leave!!" Bai Jiawei sat down on the couch and drank all the tea inside his cup before smashing the porcelain cup onto the ground.

Li Yuyan was shaking as she also sat back down and shook her head, "No! I'm not leaving! This is my house, my house! I can't leave!"

He Xinyan rolled her eyes and ate a piece of fruit on the table. This was her house, okay?!

Bai Jiawei glared at Li Yuyan, "You disgusting bast***! This is my house, my house! You are only living here because you are - I thought you were my daughter! But you are just a bast*** from outside!"

He Xinyan rolled her eyes again, "This is my house."

Bai Jiawei shot an angry glare at her but didn't say anything.

"You two still have 9 minutes! After these 9 minutes, I don't care if you have your stuff yet or not, I will kick you out of the house! If I ever see either of you again, I will make sure to send you both to jail! And I mean it!" Bai Jiawei took deep breaths, his face scarily red.

Li Yuyan dug her nails deep into her hand before finally standing up. If she was going to have to leave, then she would rather leave with her belongings!

Most of her stuff was in her house with Su Zhiming, so she didn't have many things. However, Li Huiran did. Li Huiran still refused to move as she sat on the ground, sobbing.

Li Yuyan was also angry at her mom for lying to her all this time, and since she had no one else to blame, she put her blame on her mom for her biological dad being a mere worker. She should be the daughter of an upper-class family! She is the daughter of an upper-class family!

A few minutes later, Bai Jiawei stood up and looked over at a few workers nearby, "Take Li Huiran and her daughter out of the house! Now!"

A few of the workers ran upstairs and dragged Li Yuyan down as she screamed, "No! What are you guys doing?! I'm not done yet! Let go of me!"

Li Huiran also tried to resist, but she couldn't compare to all the workers pulling her.

"Stop! I am the female owner of this house! Let go of me! How dare you do this to me?! Jiawei, forgive me! Give me another chance! Please! I am wrong! I didn't mean to lie to you!" Noticing that Bai Jiawei didn't seem to care about her screaming, Li Huiran turned her attention onto He Xinyan.

"He Xinyan, you disgusting b****! How dare you lie to me?! Why don't you go to he**?! Why didn't you die just like your mother?! Your mother -"

Bai Jiawei's eyes widened as he ran over to Li Huiran and slapped her on the face again, causing her sentence to be cut off.

"Hurry up and throw her out! Shut up, Li Huiran!" Bai Jiawei glared at Li Huiran and pushed her away, towards the door.

Li Yuyan was also "escorted" down the stairs with her half-packed luggage and thrown out the door.

The workers returned back into the house after Li Huiran and Li Yuyan were gone and locked the door. Many of them didn't really like the Li mother or daughter either.

"Yuyan-ah, what are we going to do now?" Li Huiran fell back down onto the floor and began sobbing again.

Li Yuyan was also crying as she looked down at Li Huiran, "Am I really a bar worker's daughter?"

Li Huiran's sobbing sounds grew even louder as she tried to escape the question.

"Mom! Tell me!" Li Yuyan held onto Li Huiran's shoulders and shook her.

Li Huiran gulped and looked down before slowly nodding her head, "You are. . ."

Li Yuyan looked like she had been struck by lightning as she fell back onto the ground, "What?! How could you lie to me?"

"I didn't mean to! It. . . It just happened! This all wouldn't have happened if it weren't for He Xinyan! A few days ago, she came and blackmailed me, and she said she deleted the recording, but who knew she was lying?! It is all because of her!"

Li Yuyan clenched her fists together and punched the hard ground. He Xinyan!!

"Yuyan, where are we going to go now?" Li Huiran began sobbing again. Why did this happen?! No, she can't live like this! She can't live like this!

Li Yuyan was slightly angry at her mom, and she pushed herself up, "I'm going to my house with Su Zhiming."

Li Huiran slowly stood up, "Okay."

Li Yuyan glared at her mom before grabbing her luggage and walking away.

Back inside the house, Bai Jiawei had drunk two full glasses of water to try and calm himself down, but he was still furious.

After the first argument with Li Huiran about her giving money to Su Zhiming, he had never really liked her. Then, she lied to him about getting pregnant. He had been holding in his anger and frustration all the way until now, thinking that the most important thing was to get rid of He Xinyan.

However, today was the last straw.

No matter how much he disliked Li Huiran, he would have never thought she would lie to him about Li Yuyan being his daughter. It has been over 20 years that he didn't even think about this.

Plus, they did a DNA test when Li Huiran and Li Yuyan first came into the He mansion. . . but it was fake! Bai Jiawei slammed the glass onto the table and stood up.

He glanced at He Xinyan and walked over to the stairs, but suddenly stopped.

"He Xinyan, how did you get the recording?"

He Xinyan blinked a few times, "I told you! I saw Li Yuyan's biological dad at a restaurant and got interested, so I talked to him a little more."

"What about the DNA report?"

Chapter 204 The Board Meeting (1)

"What about the DNA report?" Bai Jiawei narrowed his eyes.

He Xinyan smiled, "I didn't believe him, because I have treated Auntie Li and Li Yuyan as my family for so long. So, I decided to do a DNA test. . . But who would have thought?! It is true!"

He Xinyan sighed and looked down dramatically.

Although Bai Jiawei didn't really believe He Xinyan's dramatic act, it didn't matter. Li Yuyan wasn't his kid and Li Huiran has been lying to him all these years. That was all that mattered.

Bai Jiawei angrily marched up the stairs and slammed the door shut, disappearing into his room.

He Xinyan jumped up happily and ate another piece of fruit. That was indeed a very good show! If she had some popcorn and maybe someone to watch with her, it would have been better! That someone being. . . Gu Yechen of course!

Now that Li Huiran and Bai Jiawei had divorced and Bai Jiawei is no longer depending on Li Yuyan as his option anymore, it was time to get rid of Bai Jiawei.

But before then, she had to go celebrate!

He Xinyan grabbed her phone, bag, and the DNA report and skipped out of the house, down the street, and over to Gu Yechen's house.

The sky was black by now after the long and amazing show, and Gu Yechen was waiting for her with all the food heated and ready.

"Aww, love you baby!" When He Xinyan saw that all the food was ready, she pinched Gu Yechen's two cheeks like he was a baby and blew him a kiss.

Gu Ye Chen was very happy as he pulled her in for a real kiss. However, it ended when He Xinyan's stomach began grumbling because she was hungry.

During dinner, she told him all about what happened today from beginning to end.

She got more and more excited as she spoke that she stopped eating so she could finish the story. When she finally finished, Gu Ye Chen put a bunch of food into her bowl and said forcefully, "Now eat."

He Xinyan obediently nodded her head and began stuffing food down her throat.

At night, He Xinyan decided to go back to the He mansion to sleep. It would be the first night without two bugs inside the house!

Since the two bugs were gone, there was only one bug left. He Xinyan guessed that the final bug was inside his room, and she was right.

So, for the first time, Gu Ye Chen didn't have to climb walls. He was able to walk in through the front door proudly with He Xinyan!

Inside the room, He Xinyan and Gu Ye Chen laid down on the bed together and Gu Ye Chen began playing around with He Xinyan's hair.

"In a few days, I will be finished. . ." He Xinyan said softly.

Gu Ye Chen nodded his head, "Let's go to sleep."

The next few days passed by quickly, and it was a great time for He Xinyan.

During this time, Li Huiran and Li Yuyan came back to the He mansion several times, in hopes of being able to convince Bai Jiawei to let them back.

However, they were kept outside the door every single time, and after a while, they left.

Bai Jiawei had a horrible temper every day, and it didn't seem like his anger would go away anytime soon.

Before long, it was time for the board meeting.

The most important board meeting He Xinyan will ever attend.

She couldn't fall asleep the entire night, and got out of bed before the sun rose to prepare for the meeting.

Her mother's will. . . all the recordings she needed as evidence. . . a text to Lawyer Qu. . . a text to Manager Fu. . .

He Xinyan left with Gu Ye Chen today in his car, and his presence helped to calm herself down a little. If all failed, she still had him.

They arrived earlier than most workers and Gu Ye Chen kissed He Xinyan for a long time before he finally let her go. This wasn't like the usual gentle and soft kisses, but instead, it was powerful and quite forceful.

He Xinyan took several shallow breaths after the kiss and she threw an angry glare at Gu Ye Chen.

He chuckled softly and patted her head gently, "Good luck! I will be waiting with a strawberry cream cake at home to celebrate with you."

He Xinyan's eyes immediately sparkled excitedly, "Okay, okay! It better be an 8-inch cake!"

"Of course," Gu Ye Chen smiled sweetly.

He Xinyan happily got out of the car and double checked that she had everything before walking into the building.

The meeting started in less than an hour, and it was supposed to last for two hours, but He Xinyan had a strong feeling that it would be longer.

He Xinyan was the first to arrive in the room, and she sat down in her chair, putting her bag full of stuff underneath the table.

She then pulled out her phone and texted Lawyer Qu.

'Mr. Qu, are you almost here?'

There was a reply right away:

'Dear Mrs. Gu, I just arrived. I will wait in the parking lot and please text me when you want me to go up.'

He Xinyan grinned, 'Okay!'

She then switched to texting Manager Fu:

'Hello, Manager Fu. You know that the board meeting is today, right?'

It took a minute for a reply to come, 'Yes, CEO He.'

'Then let me remind you what I told you last time. Remember to keep your deal! If you don't, the one to suffer won't be just you. . . It will also include your parents, wife, and kids. Don't be scared. I promise you that if you help me and not Bai Jiawei, you will be safe. If you don't. . . even Bai Jiawei can't protect you.'

It took several minutes before Fu Qi replied.

'Yes, I know.'

He Xinyan smiled, 'Good.'

After she sent the message, the door opened and Bai Jiawei walked in.

Chapter 205 The Board Meeting (2)

After she sent the message, the door opened and Bai Jiawei walked in.

He Xinyan smiled and stood up, kicking the bag of her things forward slightly, "Yes."

"Okay. The other board members should be here soon." Bai Jiawei sighed and sat down in his chair at the center of the room.

There were several minutes of silence as He Xinyan calmly took small sips of water and looked over at Bai Jiawei once in a while.

At exactly the time the meeting was supposed to start, the board of directors slowly filed into the meeting room one by one, and the presentation today was projected onto the screen.

When the presentation lit up, He Xinyan looked over at the person controlling the computer and then looked down towards her phone.

Before long, the meeting began.

He Xinyan didn't pay much attention during the entire tiresome two-hour meeting, which talked about the company's progress the past month and the plans for the future.

Finally, the presentation finished and Bai Jiawei sat back down.

"Are there any questions?"

A few shareholders raised their hands and Bai Jiawei answered all of their questions. There were a few seconds of silence before Bai Jiawei clapped his hands together.

"Okay, then that is for the board of director's meeting today. The next meeting will be in two to three months. I will contact you before the next meeting time. If there are no more questions, the meeting is -"

"One second!" He Xinyan raised one hand up.

Bai Jiawei furrowed his eyebrows together and folded his hands together, "What is it, CEO He?"

"I have a few questions that . . . I think should be asked in front of all the other shareholders." He Xinyan smiled and leaned forward against the table.

"Yes, CEO He. What is it?" Bai Jiawei put one hand onto the table impatiently.

He Xinyan sent the message that had been waiting in her messages for a while now, before closing her phone and pulling several file folders out from the bag underneath the table.

She walked around the large meeting room, putting a folder in front of each director, before finally putting one in front of Bai Jiawei.

"Please take a look at the pages inside the folder in front of you. The pages you have in front of you are copies of my mother - and the founder of the He Corporation, He Qin's daughter - He Yuxin's will. The one in my hands . . . is the original copy."

Bai Jiawei's eyes widened as he immediately flipped open the folder in front of him. After scanning through the top few sentences, his mouth also fell open in surprise as he immediately looked up at He Xinyan.

He Xinyan met with his gaze and smiled, "As you all know, our current chairman, Bai Jiawei, has 31% percent of the company's shares. This 31% all belonged to my mother before she died."

"As you can see from the will, she transferred 10% to my dad. For the remaining 21%, she gave 5% to my dad and 16% to me. I'll kindly do the math for you."

He Xinyan chuckled slightly, "That means that I have 16% of the company shares and Bai Jiawei has 15%, making me the largest shareholder -"

"What are you doing, He Xinyan?!" Bai Jiawei slammed one hand onto the table angrily and jumped up from his chair, "I will give you your rightful shares sooner or later! Why are you making such a fuss during the board of directors' meeting?!"

"Sooner or later?" He Xinyan scoffed, "How late will it be? After I die?"

Bai Jiawei narrowed his eyes, "He Xinyan, as your father, I demand you to stop now! This is naive and horrendous behavior! Do you think I will keep your shares from you?! I am your father! Stop creating trouble here! It isn't time for you to get your shares yet!"

He Xinyan threw her folder onto the table, creating a loud and sudden noise, and the room began quiet again. She pressed both of her hands onto the table and leaned forward.

"Isn't time? Dad, don't get mad. I definitely trust you! It is just that I want to get my shares now -"

"It isn't time! Didn't I tell you?! It says until I retire!" Bai Jiawei's eyes wavered, and He Xinyan clearly noticed him gulp.

"Be patient, dad. We can continue reading the will. Please look down to the bottom half of the will. It clearly says the shares will be under my dad until I reach the age of 23 years old or until Mr. Bai Jiawei is ready to retire. For those that don't know, I am 23 years old already."

Many of the shareholders gasped as they read the part of the will.

He Xinyan was very pleased with their reactions and she pulled out her phone, quickly sending a message.

"Now, I know that what I say might not be that trustworthy, since I am not a professional. So, I invited the leader of the lawyer group of the Gu Corporation, Lawyer Qu Fei."

Many of the people inside the room did recognize the name Qu Fei, since he was probably the most well-known lawyer in the country, and he worked for the Gu Corporation.

Bai Jiawei took a step back and he glared at He Xinyan, mouthing the words, "What are you doing?! Stop! Now!"

The door to the meeting room opened and Qu Fei stepped in, holding a briefcase.

"Mrs. Gu." He bowed slightly to He Xinyan before turning to the rest of the room.

"Good morning, everyone. I am Qu Fei, Miss He Xinyan's lawyer. Today, I am here to explain to you the legal issues about Miss He Yuxin's will."

Bai Jiawei wanted to stop Qu Fei, but he couldn't do anything.

"I believe that you all know about the distribution of Miss He Yuxin's shares by now, so I will now explain the terms about Miss He Xinyan's shares."

He Xinyan turned to look at the person controlling the computer and nodded her head.

The person clicked a few buttons on the computer, and a scanned picture of He Yuxin's will was projected onto the screen.

Chapter 206 The Board Meeting (3)

Qu Fei walked over and pointed towards the screen, "If you look here, it writes, 'Therefore, the 16 percent of shares will be under Mr. Bai Jiawei until Miss He Xinyan reaches the age of 23 years old, or until Mr. Bai Jiawei is ready to retire.' The word 'or' in here is very important."

The screen moved onto the next slide and it showed the legal definition of the word "or".

"The word 'or' is the term for the concept either-or, meaning that as long as one condition is met, the term will be effective. In this case, one out of the two terms is met. Miss He Xinyan turned 23 months ago, meaning that she has met one of the conditions."

Qu Fei looked towards Bai Jiawei, "Although Mr. Bai Jiawei isn't at the age of retirement, it doesn't matter now since Miss He Xinyan has met the first requirement."

Since Miss He Xinyan is asking for her company shares now, legally, Mr. Bai Jiawei has to transfer her shares back to her."

Bai Jiawei fell back slightly and his face turned pale, "He Xinyan, what are you doing?! Are you purposely going against your dad?! What is the meaning of this?!"

He Xinyan grinned and looked down, "There is no meaning of this. Dad, I'm just asking for my shares. Since there are so many people here today, I wanted to be professional, so I invited Mr. Qu Fei over. There is no other meaning! Don't worry, dad! You just have to sign these pages and Mr. Qu Fei will leave."

He Xinyan reached down into her bag and pulled out a black folder. She opened it and took a pen out before pushing it over to Bai Jiawei.

'Shares Transfer Agreement'

His hands shook as he grabbed onto the form and ripped out of the folder, ripping it into pieces.

Many of the shareholders furrowed their eyebrows together when they saw Bai Jiawei's action. One of the older shareholders that was friends with He Xinyan's grandfather stood up.

"Chairman Bai, what are you doing? I believe that you don't want to break the law. CEO He has all the right to ask for her shares. After all, her mother left them for her, and you were only temporarily keeping it for her."

She pushed it over to Bai Jiawei, who glared at her.

"He Xinyan, do you really want to do this?! I am your father -"

"I know you are!" He Xinyan said innocently, "Dad, I'm not asking for much. I'm just asking for my shares. I thought that you would happily give it back to me because you are my father, but I guess not. . ."

Bai Jiawei was left with no words to say. After all, there was nothing wrong with him giving He Xinyan back her shares, but it was wrong in every way for him! How could he give it to He Xinyan?! It was his!

"Chairman Bai, as a lawyer, I advise you to sign it. If Miss He Xinyan were to decide to bring this to court, the negative effects on you and the company would be much bigger."

He Xinyan smiled, "Of course I won't bring this to court! Why is there a need for that? Dad just has to sign a paper to give me back my shares. Why would we have to bring it to court?"

Qu Fei understood the sarcasm in He Xinyan's voice, and he quickly responded.

"I am only saying in the scenario that he doesn't sign it."

He Xinyan raised one eyebrow as her smile widened, "Of course you'll sign it, right? After all, the shares are mine. And, you will still be the second-largest shareholder after me!"

He Xinyan clapped her hands together and urged Bai Jiawei to sign it.

"Chairman Bai, are you not going to sign it?" A shareholder asked.

Bai Jiawei glared at him and looked down at the paper. He pressed his lips together before squeezing a smile out and walking over to He Xinyan.

"Yanyan-ah, why do you want to do this during the board meeting? That is your mistake. We shouldn't waste everyone's time. We can figure this out alone."

He Xinyan scratched her head confusedly, "How does this waste time? Dad, you just have to sign your name right there. I signed it already. It doesn't waste time."

Bai Jiawei's lip twitched angrily. Was she pretending to not understand or did she actually not understand? Bai Jiawei cleared his throat and tried again.

"Why would I keep your shares from you? Of course I will give it to you. However, now isn't the time. The company is pushing out its makeup line very soon, and it is a very important time right now. Transferring more than half my shares to you is a big risk."

This time, Qu Fei spoke.

"Chairman Bai, you misunderstood. As the Gu Corporation's lawyer group, I can promise you that there is no risk in transferring the shares now. You will still stay as the chairman, but you just won't have the most shares anymore. With that, your say in making company decisions will also decrease, but I believe that Miss He Xinyan will definitely be able to make the best decisions for her company."

He Xinyan was very pleased with Qu Fei's word choice. He was indeed the lawyer of the Gu Corporation!

"Chairman Bai, after listening to CEO He and Lawyer Qu, I believe that you should transfer the shares back to CEO He. After all, CEO He's mother did indeed leave the shares to her, so it is wrong of you to keep it from her."

Bai Jiawei shot the director that spoke with an angry glare and looked over at He Xinyan again.

"Xinyan, now isn't the time. I'll tell you why in private. Let's end the meeting first and then I can talk to you in private, okay?" Bai Jiawei tried to keep a calm and nice expression, but it looked like his face muscles were frozen.

He Xinyan smiled at him, "Sure, we can talk in private! But you can sign this first!"

Bai Jiawei's smile immediately disappeared, "He Xinyan, I will not transfer the shares to you. . . now!"

He Xinyan blinked a few times and turned to look at Qu Fei, "Lawyer Qu, what is the punishment for not adhering to what is written on the will even though he signed it?"

Qu Fei smiled, "Miss He, that would be a fund of at least 10 thousand dollars and possibly being fired from the company. If he doesn't adhere to this part of the will, then the part about Miss He Yuxin giving Mr. Bai Jiawei 16% of her shares and also giving the position of chairman over to him also wouldn't be effective. Therefore, he would have no relation with the company anymore."

Chapter 207 The Board Meeting (4)

He Xinyan nodded her head and looked over at Bai Jiawei, "Dad, are you fine with that? If you are, then you can choose to not sign it."

She said all of this with a sweet smile, so Bai Jiawei had no reason to get mad at her.

Bai Jiawei slowly picked up the pen and glared at He Xinyan.

"Chairman Bai, I think you should sign it," another chairman said, receiving a glare from Bai Jiawei.

Bai Jiawei tried to think of more ways to get himself out of this, but his slow and stupid brain couldn't think of any. The pen slowly touched the paper and finally, he reluctantly signed the name and wrote the date down.

"Thank you, dad!" She gave it to Qu Fei, who was going to take care of the transfer of the shares for her. However, since Bai Jiawei had signed the agreement, it basically meant that the shares already belonged to He Xinyan now.

Furthermore, there were so many witnesses, so he couldn't deny it.

Bai Jiawei glared at her and grasped the pen tightly. If it weren't for the fact that there were so many people inside the room, he probably would have hit He Xinyan already.

The only thing he could do now was to wait for everyone to leave, and then he would definitely punish He Xinyan for her actions today!

"Now, the meeting is -"

"Wait!" He Xinyan suddenly screamed again.

Bai Jiawei immediately knit his eyebrows together, and many of the directors also frowned slightly. Many of them had other things to get to, so they couldn't waste too much time here.

He Xinyan realized this, "I am sorry for taking up everyone's time. I promise that if you stay for the next few minutes, it will definitely be worth it."

He Xinyan let out a breath of relief and then quickly sent the message that was waiting on her phone for a long time.

She looked over at Bai Jiawei, whose face was red from anger now.

"He Xinyan, what are you doing now?! This is very immature and disrespectful of you!"

He Xinyan grinned, "Let me show you what is immature, disrespectful, selfish, and . . . against the law!"

She looked over at the person controlling the computer again and nodded her head.

Her mother's will disappeared from the screen, and a video was replaced. It was very blurry and shaky, but one could tell that whoever was taking the video was peeking through a door.

'I know, I know. But it is just this once - Who read it? Did you send it to anyone yet?'

Everyone in the room recognized Bai Jiawei's voice, but no one, including Bai Jiawei, knew what the recording was about yet.

'I just gave it to CEO He this morning, but I don't know if she got a chance to look at it yet. Okay, okay. Did you send the money for this month over to me yet?'

Bai Jiawei's mouth fell open as he finally remembered where this video came from.

He looked from the screen to He Xinyan to the screen again.

'Chairman Bai. . . how much longer are you going to take money? What are you even using this money for? That is none of your business. But. . . But what if we get caught? I'm scared, chairman Bai! I have to raise my family, and my parents are also depending on me! If anyone realizes that I am helping you embezzle money I will be screwed -'

At once, all of the shareholders inside the room gasped in shock and looked at each other. The only person inside the room that was still calm was He Xinyan.

'Shut up! You're so loud! What do you mean?! I'm not embezzling money. . . It is my company! Whatever, just do what I say, or else I will fire you! Do you understand?! I want the money by tomorrow!'

There were a few moments of silence and the camera moved suddenly, shaking violently as the person filming ran away from the door.

'Manager Fu! Why is the door open?! I. . . I - Be careful next time!'

Then, the door opened and the camera clearly captured Bai Jiawei's angry face as he marched out of the room. Then, the recording came to an end.

The meeting room was dead silent as everyone processed the information. It was clear what was happening from the video.

"No, no! That is fake! It isn't what you think! I didn't - !!" Bai Jiawei looked over at the person who was controlling the computer, and ran over to try and turn off the computer.

However, once he took the first step, He Xinyan swiftly stretched her leg out and Bai Jiawei tripped, landing onto the ground with a loud bang.

"Oh my! Oops! I'm so sorry!" He Xinyan put one hand over her mouth dramatically before standing up from her chair, not helping Bai Jiawei up from the ground.

"I believe that everyone knows what is going on from that video now. I admit that I took that video myself. A while back, I saw this."

The screen switched and a picture of last month's financial report was shown on the screen. All of the directors had seen this report before, so they all recognized it.

"I was sent all the reports from all the departments first, since I am the CEO. Therefore, the reports all of you saw didn't have this obvious mistake."

The image enlarged to the chart with the mistake, and He Xinyan briefly explained the math involved.

The directors were able to understand easily. If they had just seen that by itself, they might think it was a typo mistake by the financial department. However, after watching the video, they knew exactly what that meant.

"I was very confused. So, I asked my assistant, Wu Minger, to find someone from the financial department and ask them about it. Lin Xi, come in."

The young guy called Lin Xi that helped He Xinyan when she first figured out the problem in the financial report slowly walked into the room, and gulped when he saw the room full of people.

"Hello, everyone." He bowed several times, "I am Lin Xi, a worker in the financial department. I have been working in the He Corporation for a year now."

Then, he showed all of the past months' final financial report and the actual numbers from his own computer. After he finished explaining, all the directors were even more angry.

"Who are you?! Stop lying! You're fired!" Bai Jiawei screamed.

Lin Xi immediately jumped back in fear and looked towards He Xinyan to ask for help.

He Xinyan smiled at him, "You're not fired, don't worry. In fact, after this meeting, I will promote you. You can go back to work now. Thank you, Lin Xi."

Lin Xi's worried expression immediately disappeared and he smiled cheerfully, "Thank you, CEO He! Goodbye!"

"He Xinyan!" Bai Jiawei slammed one hand onto the table and glared at her.

"Dad, I'm pretty sure you know what I am talking about now, right?"

"What do you mean?! Stop trying to frame me for embezzling company money! Why would I do that? This is my company too!"

"Your company? Dad, you know perfectly well that this company will be going to me. You are just helping me temporarily lead it for now. Why would you do it? Because you are selfish and want to take my grandpa's hard work and steal it to start your own company!"

Bai Jiawei couldn't help but gasp in surprise. How did He Xinyan know all of this?! He was sure he never told anyone about his plan. How did she figure it out?!

"What. . . what are you talking about? I don't know what you are talking about."

He Xinyan scoffed, "It doesn't matter what you are trying to do with the money. What matters right now is you broke the law."

"I didn't! Stop framing me!" Bai Jiawei jumped up from the table but Qu Fei pushed him back down.

"What are you doing?!" Bai Jiawei glared at Qu Fei, who didn't seem to care.

"Manager Fu, come in!" He Xinyan said loudly and watched as Bai Jiawei's face turn as pale as a paper.

The door opened and Fu Qi walked in. He glanced at Bai Jiawei and immediately looked down.

"Now, I will let the manager of the financial department, Mr. Fu Qi, tell everyone exactly what is happening." He Xinyan glared at Fu Qi and crossed her arms together.

Fu Qi licked his lips and gulped several times uncomfortably.

"Manager Fu, hurry and tell them that He Xinyan is lying!" Bai Jiawei glared at Fu Qi and tried to send him eye signals, but Fu Qi refused to look up at him.

Finally, Fu Qi opened his mouth and said, "CEO He is telling the truth."

Chapter 208 The Board Meeting (5)

Finally, Fu Qi opened his mouth and said, "CEO He is telling the truth."

"Fu Qi!" Bai Jiawei jumped up from his chair again and glared at Fu Qi, but Qu Fei pushed him back down onto his chair again.

"For seven months already, Chairman Bai has been embezzling money from company funds. I remember that he came and found me seven months ago and threatened me to help him, or else he would fire me. I had no other choice! I didn't want to, but I couldn't lose my job!"

Manager Fu was sweating by now as he continued to speak, "He took 10 thousand dollars every month from company funds, and told me to hide it in the financial reports so no one knew."

All of the board members were furious by now. No wonder the company wasn't earning as much now! As directors of the company, Bai Jiawei was stealing their money!

Of course they can't stand this! The most important thing for these directors was the money! Nothing was worse than them losing money!

I have all the reports of the transactions here! Fu Qi pulled out a folder and showed all the pages to He Xinyan.

"This is indeed Bai Jiawei's private account," He Xinyan said with a smile. Fu Qi was more reliable than she thought! She didn't know he would bring this evidence, so it was a pleasant surprise for her.

She passed it to the other shareholders, and Bai Jiawei tried to stop it, but he failed miserably.

After all the shareholders had looked at it, the fourth biggest shareholder slammed his fist onto the table and jumped up.

"Bai Jiawei needs to be fired!"

Bai Jiawei gasped and looked over at the shareholder who spoke. It was one of the oldest shareholders that had worked along with He Qin, and he had never been on Bai Jiawei's side.

The other shareholders nodded their heads in agreement. No one supported Bai Jiawei now, even the people that used to.

Thrown into the fire!

"No! This is all fake! I didn't! Stop lying, Fu Qi! How dare you?! You are fired!" Bai Jiawei jumped up from the table and pointed one finger at Fu Qi, and then at He Xinyan.

"You unfilial daughter! How dare you try and frame your own dad?! How do I have a daughter like you?! I raised a white eyed wolf in my house for all these years!"

Bai Jiawei ran over to try and slap He Xinyan, but to everyone's surprise, Lawyer Qu Fei suddenly grabbed onto his arm and pushed him down onto the ground.

"Mr. Bai Jiawei, I already called the police. You are under arrest for the embezzlement of 70 thousand dollars. That should put you in prison for several years already. You don't want another crime of child abuse on top of that, do you?"

He Xinyan opened her mouth slightly in surprise. She didn't know Qu Fei was also good at self-defense. Wow! It seems like everyone from the Gu Corporation was multi-talented!

Bai Jiawei's eyes widened when he heard Qu Fei say he called the police already, and. . . and he was going to be sent to jail?!

That can't happen. . . No way! That can't happen!

"No! No! Fu Qi, how dare you betray me?! This is all because of you and He Xinyan! You two! I will kill you! I will make sure both of you get sent to he**!!!"

All of the shareholders shook their heads in disgust and disappointment, muttering their approval of firing Bai Jiawei.

He Xinyan crossed her arms together and walked to the center of the room.

"Now, we will take a vote. Who votes to fire Bai Jiawei as chairman?"

At once, everyone inside the room raised their hands in agreement.

He Xinyan smiled and looked over at Bai Jiawei, who was shaking in fear already. He didn't care about losing his position as chairman anymore. He couldn't go to prison! If he did, how could he take over the He Corporation and start a new company if he was in jail?!

"If Bai Jiawei is going to go into prison, then I personally think he shouldn't take his 15% of shares with him. Raise your hand if you agree?"

The shareholders thought for a few seconds before raising their hands.

He Xinyan smiled, "As the second largest shareholder, the granddaughter of the founder of the company, the future chairman of the company, and the daughter of the past chairman, I believe that the shares should go to me. Besides, the shares originally belonged to my mother. If she knew that he would do something like this. . . I am sure that she would have given all the shares to me."

"You -" Bai Jiawei pointed one shaky finger at He Xinyan, and He Xinyan was scared for a second that he would die from a heart attack. That would be too easy on him. . .

"I agree," one of the shareholders raised their hand. At once, several of the other shareholders also nodded their heads in agreement.

He Xinyan looked over at Qu Fei and he obediently took out another shares transfer agreement. He Xinyan had signed it already, because this was all part of her plan.

He placed it in front of Bai Jiawei, who glared at the paper like his worst enemy.

"No! No, I will never give my shares away! They are mine! You disgusting robbers! How dare you treat me like that?! I am the chairman of the He Corporation -"

"Not anymore," He Xinyan said with a smile as she looked over at Qu Fei once more and nodded her head slightly.

Qu Fei put down his suitcase and bent down. He took out a red ink pad and forcefully grabbed Bai Jiawei's thumb.

"No! No! How dare you do this?! This is against the law! Stop! Stop! Someone stop him!" Bai Jiawei tried to fight, but it was all useless against Qu Fei.

Qu Fei pressed Bai Jiawei's thumb against the paper and pushed him back down onto the ground. After putting the "signed" paper back into his suitcase, Qu Fei bent down and stared into Bai Jiawei's eyes.

"Mr. Bai. . . In case you don't know, I am the lead lawyer of the Gu Corporation, and your. . . daughter is the wife of the Gu Corporation's CEO, Gu Yechen. And, CEO Gu. . . is the law." Qu Fei smirked and stood back up.

And indeed, Gu Yechen was the law here in Country Z. Even the legal system of Country Z was quite afraid of Gu Yechen and the Gu family's power.

In a few minutes, the police entered the room and bowed down politely when they saw Qu Fei.

"Lawyer Qu Fei, we received your call and came right away."

Qu Fei nodded his head, and turned to Bai Jiawei, "Mr. Bai Jiawei, you are arrested for embezzling 70 thousand dollars of company funds. You have the right to remain silent, and you have the right to an attorney. Take him away."

Several police quickly ran forward and grabbed onto both of Bai Jiawei's arms, lifting him off the ground and out of the room.

"No! No! Let go of me! He Xinyan, you - You will go to he**! How dare you do this to your dad?!"

Only until the elevator door closed was the meeting room fully silent again. He Xinyan moved Bai Jiawei's chair aside and pushed hers over to the center of the room.

She sat down and folded her hands in front of the table.

"Since Bai Jiawei is no longer the chairman or the largest shareholder, I will take over the position as chairman of the company. Please raise your hand if you agree."

There were several seconds of silence as the directors looked at each other. Finally, one of the directors raised his hand. One by one, everyone slowly raised their hands until the entire room had their hands up.

He Xinyan nodded her head satisfactorily and cleared her throat.

"I am familiar with many of the board members, but there are also a few that I don't know. For those that I don't know, I feel the need to introduce myself."

He Xinyan stood up and pressed her two palms onto the table, leaning forward slightly.

"I am He Xinyan, the daughter of He Qin, the founder of the company. As you all know, this is the He Corporation. Unfortunately, we had an outsider lead the company for the past years. However, now, we are back to the main route. I don't care how Bai Jiawei did things, I am the chairman now. I want all of you, especially the ones who were close with Bai Jiawei in the past. . ."

He Xinyan looked at all the people who had voted for Li Yuyan one by one, and no one dared to make eye contact with her.

". . . to forget about him, because he is in the past now. If you want the company to grow, and yourself to grow, then I hope that we will be able to work well together. Does everyone understand?"

Everyone nodded their heads. In the beginning, many of them were a little afraid to have a young girl in her 20s lead the company, but her presence was just too strong. They couldn't help but nod their heads and agree with whatever she was saying.

"Good! Then, I will be making many changes to the company too. We lost 70 thousand dollars because of Bai Jiawei in the past 7 months, so we will need to change how the company is running to make up for those 70 thousand dollars as quickly as possible. We will hold another emergency board meeting two weeks from now to discuss the future for the He Corporation and the changes that will be made."

He Xinyan looked around the meeting room before clapping her hands together, "Since there are no concerns, the meeting is adjourned."

She grabbed her bag and phone and walked out of the room proudly. After she was gone, all the shareholders let out a breath of relief and began talking amongst themselves.

The information load in this one meeting was way too huge!

Shares transfer, change of largest shareholder, embezzlement, and change of chairman?!

Did they just witness a revolution?!

Chapter 209 Darkness and Light

Only until she closed the door did she finally let out a breath of relief.

Phew! That was so intense. . . He Xinyan took a deep breath and grabbed the bottle of water next to her, gulping down the entire bottle in one go.

Then, she took out her phone and took a phone call.

"Hello, this is He Xinyan."

The person at the other end of the phone gasped, "Oh, CEO He! Yes, yes. You called a few days ago! How can I help you?"

The XX News Company was the biggest news company in all of Country Z, and He Xinyan had got the news director's phone number from Gu Yechen. She called him a few days ago just so he wouldn't think she was a stranger.

"It is Chairman He now," He Xinyan chuckled softly.

". . . What? Hahaha -"

"I'm not joking." He Xinyan opened another bottle of water, "I have really big news for you. I want you to put it out as tomorrow's breaking news. I need it to be everywhere. I don't care how much money, but I want it to be on all the news stations, all the newspapers, everywhere. Understand?"

The news director nodded his head, "Yes, yes. I will give you my email. Can you send me the news by tonight?"

"Yes, I will send it to you now." He Xinyan hung up the call and sent over the evidence about the embezzlement, the recording, a scanned copy of the shares transfer agreement, and a video of the police taking Bai Jiawei away.

She then summarized everything that happened before putting her phone away.

The entire morning had gone away already, and it was way after lunchtime, but He Xinyan wasn't hungry. She leaned back against the car seat and closed her eyes.

It was finally over.

She started the car and slowly drove back to the Xihe Estates. She knew that Gu Yechen would definitely be in his house waiting for her, but she still decided to go to the He mansion first.

There were no cars outside, and when she walked into the house, it was completely silent as well.

She looked around and several memories from a long time ago suddenly came back. Memories that she had long forgotten.

Herself as a little girl running around in the living room, playing with her mom and dad.

Her mom drawing a painting while she played on the couch next to her.

Unknowingly, she started crying as she stared at the empty living room. She made no noise as tears flowed down her cheeks, and she didn't know how long she stood there.

Since she was born, she was destined to not live a normal life.

She didn't have a normal family.

She died once and was reborn.

She was dating the richest and most powerful man in the nation.

He Xinyan wiped away her tears and her lips turned up into a small smile.

Even though life hasn't been the nicest to her, she was still grateful.

She was given a second chance, an amazing man, and she still had many wonderful things. . .

Even in darkness, there is light.

He Xinyan left the He mansion and walked over to the house next to it. The door was unlocked, and when she walked in, she immediately saw Gu Yechen standing at the doorway.

"Welcome back, baby." Gu Yechen immediately walked over to He Xinyan and hugged her tightly.

Somehow, this hit He Xinyan's cry button, and tears began flowing down her face again.

Gu Yechen looked down at her and gently patted her head, "Why are you crying?"

He Xinyan frowned and wiped away her tears, "Tears of happiness!"

Gu Yechen chuckled and held onto her hand as they walked into the house together, "Everything went well?"

He Xinyan nodded her head excitedly, "Yes! I am officially the chairman and the highest shareholder of the He Corporation. Bai Jiawei also got arrested by the police for embezzlement of company funds."

Gu Yechen pulled the chair out for her, "You can leave the rest up to me. I will take care of Bai Jiawei's trial."

He Xinyan leaned forward and kissed him on the cheek, "Okay!"

When she looked towards the table, her mouth fell open at the sight of two large boxes.

She recognized them! They were cakes from the Haosu Coffee Shop.

"You actually got it!" He Xinyan opened the boxes and licked her lips when she saw the beautiful 8 inch cakes.

"Of course. Let's eat lunch first."

After eating lunch, He Xinyan and Gu Yechen sat down on the couch to watch television while eating the cake.

He Xinyan ate slice after slice, and she was on her third slice already when she stopped eating and looked up at the television.

'Former chairman of the He Corporation arrested for embezzling 70 thousand dollars from company funds'

He Xinyan was slightly surprised that the news company was so quick, but she assumed that they probably prioritized her news above others.

And, this information was indeed very surprising, and it would attract a lot of views.

'The only granddaughter of the He Corporation's founder, He Qin, rises to the position of chairman of the He Corporation. With 31% of the He Corporation's shares, she also takes over as the largest shareholder.'

He Xinyan grinned as she began eating another slice of the cake.

--- Five days later

Bai Jiawei's court case closed two days later.

Usually, the trial would last longer. However, with Gu Yechen behind the case, it finished faster than usual. Because of Gu Yechen, the final verdict was also affected.

The final verdict was a life sentence.

In the afternoon, He Xinyan arrived at the community jail. She waited for several minutes before she was able to enter the visiting room.

It was a private visiting room, and once she stepped in, she saw Bai Jiawei dressed in a prisoner outfit on the other side of the glass.

His eyes were red and his mustache had grown out in the past few days he had been in jail.

He glared at He Xinyan as she walked in and sat down in the chair across from him. The door to the visiting room closed, blocking out most of the light in the room.

He Xinyan casually picked up the phone and leaned back against the chair.

"Hello, dad."

Bai Jiawei already had the phone close to his ear, and he clenched his teeth together when he heard He Xinyan speak.

"I don't have a daughter like you."

He Xinyan chuckled, "Why so angry, dad? I will always be your amazing and only daughter."

Bai Jiawei narrowed his eyes slightly, "You had everything under your control, didn't you?! Even the thing with Li Huiran and Li Yuyan was all because of you, right?"

He Xinyan's smile widened, "Dad, you got smarter. It's too bad that your brain cells came a little too late."

Bai Jiawei's lips twitched from anger, "Why are you doing this to your dad?! I can't believe that I raised such an unfilial and vicious daughter for all these years!"

"Vicious?" He Xinyan leaned forward, "The only reason why you aren't dead yet is because I am merciful and took into account all of the years you raised me."

Bai Jiawei flinched, "Dead?! How can you be so cruel?"

"I'm not cruel, dad. You are." He Xinyan knit her eyebrows together, "You gave me life so I didn't kill you. My mom gave you a purpose in life and everything you have in your life. . ."

He Xinyan took a second to watch Bai Jiawei's face turn pale.

". . . but you still killed her."

Bai Jiawei looked at He Xinyan for several seconds before he muttered, "I didn't kill her. What are you talking about?"

"Dad, you know perfectly well what I am talking about." He Xinyan took out her phone and began playing the recording of Li Huiran telling the story of how He Yuxin died.

Bai Jiawei's expression turned uglier and uglier as the recording continued before he finally began laughing.

"So what?! I did kill your stupid mother! She's dead already! What can you do about it?!"

He Xinyan stopped the recording and stood up from the chair. She put the calling phone back down so Bai Jiawei couldn't hear her anymore and smiled.

"She is dead. But you're not dead. . . yet."

It took several seconds for Bai Jiawei's brain to figure out what He Xinyan had said by looking at the movement of her lips.

He Xinyan smirked and grabbed her bag before walking out of the room.

When the door opened, the room was immediately flooded with light. Bai Jiawei squinted his eyes from the sudden brightness. When he saw the person outside the door, he immediately jumped up and banged his fist against the glass.

"Let me out! Let me go! She's going to kill me! Help me! I need to get out!"

He Xinyan looked back at him one more time, and a small grin crossed her face before she stepped out into the light.

The room was dark once again.

Chapter 210 Have Fun In Prison

--- In prison

"Bai Jiawei, you have visitors again!"

Bai Jiawei looked up and dragged himself out of the hard wooden bed he was sitting on. The guard unlocked the door and he walked over to the visiting room once again.

He sat down and began playing around with the phone.

The door to the outside world opened and two people walked in this time.

Bai Jiawei sat up a little straighter when he saw them and excitedly put the phone to his ear.

The older woman of the two sat down in the chair and picked up the phone.

"Li Huiran, I can forgive you for what you did. You have to help get me out of here." Bai Jiawei said immediately as he leaned against the table.

Li Huiran scoffed, "Bai Jiawei, you think I am stupid?! Why would I help get you out?!"

Bai Jiawei widened his eyes and jumped up from the table before angrily sitting back down, "Li Huiran?! What do you mean? I said I can forgive you!"

Li Huiran laughed, "I don't care anymore. Bai Jiawei, you are a nobody now. You have nothing, and you are in debt if you ever leave jail. I am much better off without you."

"You -" Bai Jiawei's face turned red from anger, and he turned to look at Li Yuyan.

However, when their eyes met, Li Yuyan also looked away. She didn't want a father that was a prisoner and was in debt! Of course not!

Li Huiran smiled, "We just came over to see how horrible a position you are in right now. Since we accomplished our goal now, we will get going. Have fun in prison."

Li Huiran stood up and walked out of the prison. Li Yuyan also took one last look at Bai Jiawei before leaving the visiting room.

Bai Jiawei was furious as he slammed the phone down onto the table, creating a loud bang.

His only hope of getting out of this he** was gone now!

Li Huiran and Li Yuyan left the prison and entered Li Yuyan's car.

"Mom, what are we going to do?! We can't just stay in my house and live like that forever!"

"I know, I know." Li Huiran put on her seatbelt, "Why don't we go find Su Zhiming? He is still your husband after all."

Li Yuyan's mouth opened slightly, "Why didn't I think of this?! He will have to help us!"

Li Huiran and Li Yuyan drove to Su Zhiming's company and parked in the front parking lot. They got out of the car and entered the large building.

No one stopped them because they all recognized Li Yuyan as the president's wife.

On the top floor, Su Zhiming was having a meeting with all of the department managers when the door to the meeting room suddenly opened.

He looked up annoyingly and his expression only got worse when he saw Li Yuyan and Li Huiran.

"What are you two doing here?" Su Zhiming stood up from his chair and glared at Li Yuyan.

"Zhiming, I need to talk to you."

Su Zhiming looked at the managers inside the room and frowned. Everyone outside still thought that their relationship was normal, so Su Zhiming told the managers to wait and walked out of the meeting room with Li Yuyan and Li Huiran.

They entered his private office and Su Zhiming sat down in his chair.

"What are you two here for?! I consulted my lawyer already, and he is working on our divorce case. I will divorce you soon -"

"No!" Li Yuyan screamed. "We cannot divorce! No way! You have to take care of me! You are my husband!"

Su Zhiming scoffed, "No way, don't even think about it."

"You can't! The. . . The money for your company is from my dad! If you divorce me, your company is also over with!" Li Yuyan blinked a few times and tried to maintain a strong stance.

But Su Zhiming didn't fall for her again.

"Ha! Li Yuyan, do you think I am stupid?! I consulted my lawyer already! You can't keep me tied like this forever! Plus, I have the money now."

Su Zhiming walked over to his desk and quickly signed a check, "Here you go! Your precious money! Now leave! I will divorce you very soon!"

Li Yuyan saw the check and widened her eyes at the large amount of money. However, this made her not want to let go of Su Zhiming even more! If he had this much money, he definitely had more! She needed to cling onto him!

"Su Zhiming, I am not going to divorce you! How can you do this?! I helped you climb up here and you want to just throw me away right after?! No way!"

Su Zhiming smirked, "Then we will see. Since you don't want to divorce the simple way, I will have to take this to court. Let's see once they see the pictures of you having an affair, whether they will side with me or you."

Li Yuyan's face paled.

"Plus, do you think I don't see the news? I know that Bai Jiawei is over with! He is in jail now! You and your mom are screwed. Do you have the money and time to waste going to court?"

Li Yuyan turned to look at her mother panically, but Li Huiran was equally shocked.

Su Zhiming was right. . . If he was persistent in getting divorced and he took this to court, it was very likely the court would side with him.

And, she didn't want to waste the money to find a lawyer! She couldn't do that!

"So, I will give you another chance. You can either choose to just sign the divorce agreement, and it will be sweet and simple. Or, we can take this to court. We can both see whether I win or you win."

Li Yuyan shuddered slightly and glanced at Su Zhiming.

Finally, she pressed her lips together and muttered, "I'll sign the divorce papers."

"Good." Su Zhiming walked over to his desk and pulled out a folder he had inside there for a long time now.

"Sign."

Li Yuyan slowly picked up the pen and she finally understood how her mother felt when she had to sign the divorce paper with Bai Jiawei.

What would she do if she divorced Su Zhiming?!

She didn't have anything now, and it was all He Xinyan's fault!!

Li Yuyan narrowed her eyes. She still had a position in the He Corporation -

"Sign it!" Su Zhiming said impatiently. He still had a meeting to get to.

Li Yuyan reluctantly signed the paper and Su Zhiming snatched it back. He looked over the signature before putting it back into his desk drawer.

"I can complete the rest of the divorce by myself."

Normally, both partners would have to go to the Civil Affairs Bureau to divorce. However, Su Zhiming still had some power by now, and he would be able to settle it alone.

"Now get out."

Su Zhiming walked out of the door and called in two guards.

They "escorted" Li Yuyan and Li Huiran out of the room and the building.

"Ugh!!" Li Yuyan slammed her head against the car seat and closed her eyes.

Li Huiran wasn't very pleased either. They had been living in the house that belonged to Li Yuyan and Su Zhiming.

Originally, they were fine spending the money that Li Huiran had in her bank account Bai Jiawei gave her. However, a few days ago, the account was suddenly closed down!

It was probably because Bai Jiawei got arrested, but that also meant that Li Huiran and Li Yuyan had no more money anymore.

"I'm going to the He Corporation," Li Yuyan said as she started the car.

"What?!" Li Huiran immediately furrowed her eyebrows together as she thought of the fact that He Xinyan was the chairman now. It all should have been hers!

"I have a job there! He Xinyan can't kick me out!"

They arrived at the He Corporation and Li Yuyan went up alone this time. She entered her private office to find that all her stuff had been packed into boxes.

Her eyes widened and she marched out of the room, "Who did this?! Why are all of my things in boxes?! Who did this?"

The workers looked amongst each other before one said softly, "A few days ago, some people came in and packed all the things."

Li Yuyan clenched her fists together and marched over to the elevator.

A minute later, she barged into the chairman's office.

The entire office had been remodeled and everything that had once belonged to Bai Jiawei was thrown out. In the front of the room, there was a picture of He Qin and He Yuxin on the wall.

On the other side of the room, He Xinyan sat in front of the huge desk.

"He Xinyan! How dare you pack all of my things up without my permission?!"

He Xinyan looked up and smiled when she was Li Yuyan, "Why do I need your permission? Li Yuyan, I am the chairman."

--- Author's Note Announcement:

hello readers ~

Since I am on spring break from school (yayy), my family and I are going on a 4-day vacation. The place we are going to might not have the best Internet, so I may not be able to respond to all comments while I am away. I will do my best though :)

I set an alarm for the chapters for the next few days, so there will still be daily uploads!

Love you
