Chapter 211 Goodbye Bai Jiawei, Li Huiran, and Li Yuyan

He Xinyan looked up and smiled when she was Li Yuyan, "Why do I need your permission? Li Yuyan, I am the chairman."

Li Yuyan opened and closed her mouth several times, ". . . Well, so! You can't fire me for no reason!"

He Xinyan stood up from her chair and leaned forward against her desk, "Like I said, I am the chairman. I don't need any reason to fire a lowly worker like you."

"You -"

"However, you're right. I should have a reason. . ."

Li Yuyan scoffed when she heard this and flipped her hair proudly.

"How about this? I won't fire you." He Xinyan smiled, "I will demote you to. . . to a bathroom cleaning lady!" He Xinyan clapped her hands together excitedly.

Meanwhile, Li Yuyan's face turned green and her body shook from anger.

She was the daughter of the He family as well! How could she be a bathroom cleaning lady?!

"He! Xin! Yan! How dare you treat me like this?!"

He Xinyan sighed and pressed a button on the landline phone on her desk. A few seconds later, several guards walked into the room and grabbed Li Yuyan.

"Ah, I'm tired of playing around with you. Li Yuyan, you are fired from my company. Goodbye."

"No! You can't do this! He Xinyan, go to he**! Let go of me!"

"Remember to throw her trash out with her," He Xinyan said to the guards before they left the room.

Finally, the room was silent again as He Xinyan sat down in the chair.

---

Li Yuyan entered her car in shame after getting thrown out of the building, and words couldn't explain how angry she was.

This was all happening to her because of He Xinyan and Su Zhiming!

She was going to get rid of them!

---

He Xinyan returned home after a tiring day of work earlier than usual today.

Because today was moving day!

Although the He mansion was free of all trash now, He Xinyan still didn't want to live alone inside the large mansion.

So, she was going to move into an even bigger mansion!

He Xinyan arrived at the He mansion to see Gu Yechen standing in front of the door already.

"The boxes are in the moving truck already. We can drive ahead of them."

He Xinyan looked at the large truck and nodded her head. They got into Gu Yechen's car and drove out of the Xihe Estates.

He Xinyan took a deep breath as the car left the front gate of the neighborhood.

After today, she didn't know when she would be back here again.

So much happened in this neighborhood. . .

In her first life, she was born and raised here. And she was kicked out of this neighborhood. . .

In her second life, she was able to live next to Gu Yechen in this neighborhood, and even sleep right next to each other on the same bed!

He Xinyan smiled as the car drove away.

The He mansion was always going to be hers, and she was certain she would be back sooner or later.

It was time to move on.

---

A few hours later, all of He Xinyan's belongings had been put into the "new house".

It was the huge mansion near the ocean that belonged to Gu Yechen, but also He Xinyan now.

They sat down to eat dinner that Gu Yechen ordered, and as they did, He Xinyan suddenly said:

"I don't want to see Bai Jiawei, Li Huiran, or Li Yuyan ever again."

Gu Yechen nodded his head, "I understand."

And he did.

--- Three days later

Gu Yechen had always been very angry at Bai Jiawei, Li Huiran, and Li Yuyan for trying to kill his baby, and he had been waiting for the moment when he would get to give them a punishment.

At the moment, Bai Jiawei, Li Huiran, and Li Yuyan were on an airplane with a bunch of animals to Country A.

Country A was number 1 on the list of worst countries to live in, most dangerous countries to live in, and the country with the worst pollution.

Gu Yechen had specially arranged three flight tickets for Bai Jiawei, Li Huiran, and Li Yuyan to Country A, where Bai Jiawei was going to spend the rest of his life in what is known as the worst prison in the world.

The prison had some of the worst prisoners from all around the world, and it was very dangerous and was situated in a horrible environment.

Li Huiran and Li Yuyan also got to enjoy the "amazing wonders" of Country A. They were forcefully sent to Country A so they could be close to their family member, Bai Jiawei.

The country had the highest poverty rate, and few people lived there. The people who did were either crazy or dying from hunger or other horrible reasons.

The ratio of men to women was also incredibly high, so sending two vulnerable women to that area was basically feeding them to predators.

For people like Bai Jiawei, Li Huiran, and Li Yuyan, who have been living in the upper class for all these years, this experience was much worse than death.

However, for Gu Yechen, he didn't care. He was being merciful by not torturing them himself.

Your welcome, Bai Jiawei, Li Yuyan, and Li Huiran.

---

He Xinyan was much busier now that she was the chairman of the company. There was a lot of work, and she finished work very late most days.

Early in the morning, He Xinyan went to go buy a cup of coffee before going to work.

Once she stepped into the shop, she saw a familiar man waiting for his order. When he saw her, his eyes lit up in surprise.

"Xinyan!" Su Zhiming walked over to her before she could run away.

"I have been looking for you! I went to go find you in the Xihe Estates, but you weren't there. I also wasn't allowed in the He Corporation."

He Xinyan rolled her eyes, "Why would they let you in?"

Su Zhiming was slightly taken aback as he reached for her hand, "Xinyan, I divorced Li Yuyan already! Let's get back together now! I promise I will treat you very well."

He Xinyan quickly pulled her hand away and took a step back, "Why is it my business whether you divorced Li Yuyan or not?! Of course I'm not going to get back together with you!"

"Didn't you say that if I divorce Li Yuyan, we will get together?!"

He Xinyan scoffed, "When did I say that?"

"You said it several times! Remember? In the elevator of the He Corporation, you told me to divorce Li Yuyan, and then. . . and then. . ." Su Zhiming blinked a few times as he remembered He Xinyan's words. She did not specifically say that they will get together if he divorced.

She only told him to divorce her first. . . He Xinyan didn't promise anything.

Su Zhiming seemed to just realize what happened as his eyes widened in shock, "You - You! You lied to me!"

He Xinyan grinned, "I never lied, Su Zhiming. It was all your imagination, so how can you blame it on me. It is your own fault."

He Xinyan wasn't in the mood for coffee anymore, so she left the shop and left.

Su Zhiming stood frozen for several minutes until his name was called. He also didn't take his finished coffee and angrily marched out of the shop.

---

Su Zhiming entered his company and angrily sat down in his chair.

So He Xinyan meant she wasn't going to get back together with him?!

How dare she lie to him? Su Zhiming slammed one fist onto the table and closed his eyes. He was definitely going to get her back!

---

After a long day of work, He Xinyan walked out of the company tiredly.

"Goodbye, chairman He."

"Good evening, chairman He."

"Goodbye, chairman He."

He Xinyan walked out of the building and immediately noticed the black car parked right in the center of the driveway. She smiled and opened the passenger seat.

Gu Yechen started the car once she got on and began driving home.

They began going home together and driving to work together since they lived together now.

As they drove, He Xinyan was so tired she could barely open her eyes.

Gu Yechen looked towards her and frowned. He reached back while driving with one hand and grabbed the blanket on the back seat.

"You can sleep for a few minutes."

He Xinyan put the blanket over her, but didn't close her eyes yet.

"Yechen, I'm tired," He Xinyan muttered.

Gu Yechen furrowed his eyebrows slightly as he placed his hand over hers, "I know, I know."

He Xinyan frowned, "Ah, my original life plan was definitely not to take care of a company. It is indeed harder than I thought."

Gu Yechen was silent for a few seconds before he finally said, "Go to sleep."

He Xinyan closed her eyes and slept for the rest of the car ride.

---

While eating dinner, Gu Yechen hesitated for several minutes before finally opening his mouth.

"Baby, you are always so tired these days because of work. I thought of an idea."

He Xinyan looked up, "Hm?"

Chapter 212 Our Child

He Xinyan looked up, "Hm?"

Gu Yechen put down his chopsticks, "You are always so tired and you barely have time now. . ."

His tone was a little sour as he said the end of the sentence, causing He Xinyan to chuckle.

"So, I was thinking that you don't actually have to take care of the company by yourself. I can have someone I trust to help take care of the company for you if you want."

Gu Yechen gulped, "Of course! If you don't want to, then it's okay. I. . . I just see that you are so tired all the time now."

He Xinyan grinned, "I think that is a great idea!"

To be honest, she never thought of spending the rest of her life leading a company, and she didn't want to either. It was only because she was forced into this situation, so she had to take on the mission for the time being.

However, that didn't mean she was going to spend the rest of her life being a cool female chairman.

He Xinyan also wanted a normal life. Get married, have kids, take care of kids, and get old. . .

However, from the looks of it, she wouldn't have much time for that if she continued to lead the He Corporation.

"Really?!" Gu Yechen was a little surprised. He only brought up the idea, not thinking she would actually agree. He just couldn't bear seeing her so tired all the time.

"Yes. I trust you, and I trust that you will help me. Plus, I think that whoever you find will probably be able to help lead the company better than I will."

Gu Yechen smiled, "You are doing really good. I just don't want to see you so tired all the time."

He Xinyan chuckled, "Aww, my little Chenchen is so considerate!"

A slight blush spread across Gu Yechen's face, and he embarrassedly looked away.

"However, the He Corporation will still have to stay He because my mom and grandpa worked hard for this company." He Xinyan said as she began eating again.

"Of course! It can go to our child in the future too!" Gu Yechen said as he leaned forward against the table.

This time, He Xinyan was the one to blush as she hid her face inside the bowl.

But then she realized something!

"If our child has to take care of the He Corporation and the Gu Corporation, he would be so exhausted!"

Gu Yechen chuckled when he heard her say "our child".

"Who said we can only have one child?"

He Xinyan gulped and focused on eating again. Right. . . right. . .

---

The next few days were also very tiring for He Xinyan, because they had to work on "changing chairman" again.

Besides that, the He Corporation would also be under the Gu Corporation's care as well.

For the He Corporation, this was very good news. It was the dream of almost all companies to be able to work with the Gu Corporation, because that basically promised growth and more money.

He Xinyan returned home happily after her last day of work and bought a cake on the way back. She went to work in her own car today because she was going to leave early as well.

When she left the bakery, she didn't go home right away. Instead, she made several extra turns before finally returning to the main route to Gu Ye Chen's house.

He Xinyan looked at her back mirror again and let out a breath of relief when she didn't see the black car that was following her anymore.

In fact, she recognized the black car.

It belonged to Su Zhiming

---

When she returned home, He Xinyan saw the pile of mail for the week on the doorstep, and she brought it into the house as she walked in.

She quickly scanned through all the mail, and her eyes landed on a small envelope that listed the receiver as He Xinyan.

Who would write her mail?!

He Xinyan put the other mail onto the table and opened the small white envelope. Inside, there were two sheets of paper.

She unfolded the first one and saw that it was a short letter.

'Hello, Xinyan! Congratulations on winning the battle against Bai Jiawei. Please check the other paper for my small gift. - Yi Shao'

It took a few seconds before He Xinyan finally remembered who Yi Shao was.

He Xinyan opened the other paper and saw that it was a shares transfer agreement.

That's right! Yi Shao was a large shareholder of the He Corporation. He Xinyan saw that he had signed his name onto the agreement already, and she just had to sign it on the receiver end.

But why would he transfer his shares to her? The amount of shares he had was still worth a lot of money.

More importantly, how did he know that she was fighting against Bai Jiawei?! It was natural for him to know that she was the new chairman, since he was a director and shareholder of the He Corporation.

The news of Bai Jiawei going to jail was also huge news, so He Xinyan wasn't surprised that Yi Shao knew about this.

However, his word choice is a little weird.

'Battle. . .'

The door opened and Gu Yechen entered the house. He walked over and kissed her on the forehead, "Congratulations on retiring."

He Xinyan chuckled, "That makes me sound so old!"

Gu Yechen grinned, "What are you looking at?"

He Xinyan took out both pieces of paper, "Remember Yi Shao? The person that saved me?"

Gu Yechen quickly read through the note and then looked at the shares transfer agreement. He frowned before folding it back up.

"That's good. It is better for you to have more shares."

He Xinyan nodded her head, "Okay. I will fill out the agreement."

"I'll go make dinner." Gu Yechen entered the kitchen and closed the door. He then pulled out his phone and texted Chen Xiao again.

'I want you to look into the person called Yi Shao again. Use Group X to investigate if you have to. As fast as possible.'

Gu Yechen closed his phone and leaned back against the refrigerator.

He had this weird feeling about this person called Yi Shao, but he didn't know why. . .

---

It was finally the weekend, and there was an important event planned.

Gu Yechen, He Xinyan, Gu Yebei, and Wu Minger were going to go on a double date!

Gu Yechen wanted his baby to be able to relax a little. She had been working very hard for the past year already.

Now, Bai Jiawei, Li Huiran, Li Yuyan were all gone. She also didn't have to focus on work anymore.

It was a great time to go on a short break and let go of all the stress she had been holding all this time.

And of course. . . When Gu Yebei heard of his brother's plan, he had to shamelessly shove himself in as well! So, a single, romantic date Gu Yechen had planned turned into a double date.

In the morning, He Xinyan excitedly woke up and began packing for their two-day trip.

They were going to go to the most famous hot spring place in Country Z. It was a part of a 5-star hotel, and many people often went there for vacation.

Of course, Gu Yechen wasn't a normal person.

He had booked the entire hot spring for the two days they were going there. He Xinyan didn't know how much that cost, and he didn't dare ask either.

A few hours later, they were in Gu Yechen's car with Gu Yebei and Wu Minger.

Gu Yebei and Wu Minger were very well-prepared with snacks for the road trip. They shared all of their snacks and discussed the different tastes of all the snacks as they ate.

He Xinyan was also successful in stealing some of their snacks to eat, and she would occasionally feed Gu Yechen, who was driving.

Late after lunch time, they arrived at the hotel. Everything was set, and there were many workers including the manager that came outside to welcome them.

Their luggage was brought up to their rooms by workers, and all they had to do was enjoy the free lunch that the hotel provided.

He Xinyan was starving and she was very happy about the fact that the food was served very quickly.

As she busily ate, Gu Yechen helped put food onto her plate so it was never empty.

Wu Minger watched the two of them with a frown, before she finally hit Gu Yebei.

"Look at them! Learn from your brother! See how he is so considerate and you are just busy eating?!" Wu Minger said angrily.

Gu Yebei was still in shock from Wu Minger's sudden scream, and he looked around confusedly, ". . . What?"

Hearing Gu Yebei's confused tone, He Xinyan couldn't help but burst into laughter.

"You two are too funny! Hahaha. . ." This time, Wu Minger was also confused as she looked over at He Xinyan, who was practically dying from laughter. A small smile appeared on Gu Yechen's face when he saw He Xinyan laugh, and he continued to put food on her plate.

"Ah, Minger. Don't expect too much. Yebei is very. . . decent already. This guy right here," He Xinyan said, pointing a finger at Gu Yechen, "is just a little. . . special."

Gu Yechen raised one eyebrow, "Special?"

Chapter 213 Hot Springs Are Steamy

Gu Yechen raised one eyebrow, "Special?"

He Xinyan gulped and put one thumb up, "That is definitely a positive term."

Gu Yechen chuckled before eating a small bite of the food himself.

Learning from his brother, Gu Yebei would occasionally put some food into Wu Minger's plate now, and Wu Minger was very pleased with his improvement.

He Xinyan watched the two of them like a mom looking at her kids, and she smiled excitedly.

Noticing this, Gu Yechen leaned towards her so his lips were brushing against her ear as he whispered, "Focus on eating."

He Xinyan shuddered slightly because her ear was very sensitive, and she nodded her head obediently.

---

After eating lunch, they returned to the hotel room. There were two rooms that were connected by a door. Gu Yechen and He Xinyan were in one, Gu Yebei and Wu Minger were in the other.

He Xinyan took out her clothes for bathing in the hot springs and laid it onto the bed.

Then, she jumped onto the bed and began looking through her phone. A few minutes later, Gu Yechen sat down next to her on the bed and leaned down, so his head was resting on her upper legs.

He Xinyan looked down in surprise and saw that he had closed his eyes already.

From this distance, she could clearly see his perfect smooth skin, long and thick eyelashes and eyebrows, and his slightly open lips.

She smiled and rested one hand onto his hair, gently brushing through it.

She began looking at her phone again, turning down the volume so she wouldn't disturb his nap.

However, he wasn't actually asleep yet. Feeling her fingers running through his hair, a small smile appeared on his face as he moved slightly to find a more comfortable position.

They stayed like this for several hours until it was time to go to the hot springs.

Gu Yechen slowly blinked his eyes open and got off of He Xinyan's legs, which were numb from being in the same position for so long.

"Is it time to go?" Gu Yechen pulled He Xinyan onto his lap and kissed her gently on the cheek.

"Yes. . ."

"I'll go call Yebei and Minger. You can go change." Gu Yechen kissed her again before getting off the bed and going over to the other room.

He Xinyan grabbed her outfit and went to the restroom to change.

She had brought a two-piece swimsuit that she had bought with Wu Minger when they were shopping together for this trip.

There was a black bikini top and a short ruffled skirt on the bottom.

Only after putting it on did He Xinyan begin to get a little self-conscious about how much skin she was showing.

When she had tried it on with Wu Minger, she didn't care much because they were friends, and this was how much skin a normal swimsuit was supposed to expose.

However, now, she began to feel a little worried. After all, there was a dangerous predator right outside, in the same exact room as her!

He Xinyan grabbed a large towel and wrapped it around her body, covering up her chest to the top of her legs. After tying a knot at the top so the towel wouldn't fall, she stepped out of the bathroom.

Gu Yechen looked up from the noise, and he raised one eyebrow at the sight of He Xinyan.

He stood up and walked over, "Are you cold?"

He Xinyan wrapped her arms around herself and avoided making eye contact with him, "No. . ."

"Then why do you have a towel on?" Gu Yechen asked with a small smile.

"Well. . . actually, I am cold!" He Xinyan nodded her head and blinked a few times.

Gu Yechen's smile widened as he walked towards the restroom, "Wait for me."

A minute later, he had changed into a single swim trunk, revealing his entire upper body. He Xinyan's mouth fell open when she saw him and clicked her tongue several times.

"When do you even exercise? I never see you do it." It seemed like Gu Yechen's body was always getting better, but she rarely sees him exercise! There is no way he was just born with a naturally amazing body. . . right?

Well, by now, He Xinyan wouldn't even be surprised if that was true.

Gu Yechen smiled, "I sometimes do early in the morning or when I take a short break from work. Come on, let's go."

He grabbed onto He Xinyan's hand and they walked out of the hotel room to find Gu Yebei and Wu Minger already waiting for them.

Gu Yebei obviously also had an amazing body since he was a celebrity, but he was more on the skinnier end of the spectrum, whereas Gu Yechen was skinny and also muscular.

The four of them rode the elevator down to the first floor and several workers escorted them out to the back of the hotel, where the hot springs were located.

The hotel was located on a mountain, and the hot springs sat at the edge of the mountain, so you could look down to see the canyon below.

There were several different hot springs, including normal hot water, mountain water, warm water hot spring, and even a red wine hot spring filled with red wine.

Wu Minger and Gu Yebei immediately went to the red wine hot spring, and Gu Yechen and He Xinyan decided to go to the normal hot water one closest to the edge of the cliff.

Gu Yechen stepped into the water and turned around to see He Xinyan looking back and forth between the chair and the hot spring.

She untied the knot of her towel and quickly threw it onto the chair before jumping into the hot spring.

"Ah, it's hot!" She screamed as her body submerged into the water.

Gu Yechen chuckled and pulled her over close to him, "You realize that I can still see your body even if it's underwater, right?"

He Xinyan looked down and indeed, the water was so clear she could make out her body.

She sighed and shrugged, "Whatever."

They sat down near the edge with He Xinyan on Gu Yechen's lap, facing each other. He Xinyan rested her chin onto his shoulder as she looked out at the mountain view.

It was getting dark, but the sky was filled with stars that illuminated the night.

He Xinyan moved forward a little, closer to Gu Yechen's body, so she could look over and see how close they were to the very edge of the cliff.

When she did, she immediately pulled back. They were so close she was afraid that the hot spring would tip over and they would fall over the cliff at any moment.

She stopped looking and rested her head against Gu Yechen's shoulder, closing her eyes.

"This feels so nice," she muttered, and Gu Yechen nodded his head slightly.

She put her hand down onto her leg and took a deep breath of the mountain air. The silence of the night and the warmth of the hot spring was like a sleeping antidote, and He Xinyan felt her eyelids getting heavier and heavier.

She was almost asleep when the touch of something caused her to wake up.

Something hard. . .

Something hard at a place where it shouldn't be. . .

He Xinyan looked up into Gu Yechen's eyes, and her guess was affirmed when she saw his lips tightly pressed together and his eyes narrowed.

"You. . ." He Xinyan immediately pulled her hand away, which had slipped and accidentally fell onto Gu Yechen's. . .

"You're too close," Gu Yechen said with a grin, his voice deeper than usual.

And indeed, she was. She was so close she could feel the unusual "object" against her leg.

He Xinyan gasped and immediately pushed herself off, causing her to fall into the water. She stood up and wiped the water off her face and hair.

"Gu Yechen!" He Xinyan glared at him, but her face turned red right after.

She swam over to the stairs and walked out of the hot spring and into the cold air, "I'm going to go find Minger!"

Gu Yechen watched her go with a smile and ran his fingers through his hair.

Maybe hot springs weren't so relaxing for him. . .

---

They stayed in the hot springs for several hours before returning to their hotel rooms. He Xinyan took a shower first, and then Gu Yechen did the same as she brushed her teeth.

As He Xinyan brushed her teeth, she looked back at the shower place, which was covered by a shower curtain. However, she could still see a silhouette of Gu Yechen's body shape.

He seemed to be washing the shampoo off of his hair at the moment, and He Xinyan instinctively gulped when her eyes landed on him.

"Ack! Ah!" He Xinyan accidentally choked on the toothpaste as she gulped and began coughing aggressively.

The water sound immediately stopped and Gu Yechen pushed away the shower curtain, exposing his entire body.

"What's wrong?"

He Xinyan looked up. . .

Chapter 214 Meeting Su Zhiming

He Xinyan looked up and when she saw what she shouldn't have seen, her coughing became even more violent.

"You - Ack!" He Xinyan put down her cup and spat out all the toothpaste bubbles.

Gu Yechen stepped out of the shower, still dripping wet, and walked over to He Xinyan.

"Are you okay? What happened?" He placed one hand onto her back as she continued to cough and rinse out the remaining toothpaste she had swallowed.

After the coughing finally stopped and the spicy test was gone, He Xinyan turned around to see Gu Yechen standing right in front of her, without any. . none. . . nothing. . . 0. . . no clothes on!

"Ah!" He Xinyan immediately put both hands onto her eyes to prevent herself from being tempted to look down.

Meanwhile, Gu Yechen seemed to just notice that he had no clothes on, and he looked down at his body.

"I'll go finish my shower first. Be careful." He gently patted He Xinyan's hair and reentered the shower.

He Xinyan finally opened her eyes when she heard the water sound again, and she quickly did her skincare routine and left the restroom.

She jumped onto the bed and buried herself under the blankets. It was easy to sweat while bathing in hot springs, and He Xinyan was very tired after staying in the hot water for several hours.

She quickly fell asleep in a few minutes, and when Gu Yechen came out, she was deep asleep already.

He sat down next to her quietly and hugged her from behind, resting his arm onto her waist.

They both slept well tonight.

---

After eating breakfast the next day, the four of them returned home.

They arrived a little after lunchtime, and He Xinyan went to go eat lunch with Gu Yechen. As they did, she suddenly received a message.

'Su Zhiming: I need to talk to you. Let's meet up at the Dasi Hotel restaurant at 6 tonight.'

He Xinyan tilted her head slightly before a small grin crept up her face.

'Okay.'

She closed her phone and looked up, "Mr. Husband, I need your help."

---

At 5:45 P.M., He Xinyan left the mansion and drove to the Dasi Hotel.

She arrived at 6:05, and when she entered the restaurant, she immediately noticed Su Zhiming sitting alone in a corner.

She walked over and sat down across from him.

"Xinyan." Su Zhiming sat up a little straighter when he saw her.

"Be quick, I don't have much time." He Xinyan's eyes landed on the cup of coffee already placed in front of her, and she licked her lips to hide her smile.

She picked up the cup and pretended to take a small sip, but her lips were shut so no liquid entered her mouth.

While she did this, she focused on Su Zhiming's expression, and he noticed his eyes narrow when she "took a sip".

She put the cup down and folded her hands together, "What is it?"

"Xinyan, let's get back together."

He Xinyan rolled her eyes, "Su Zhiming, are you stupid? Why would I break up with Gu Yechen to get back together with a person like you."

Su Zhiming's self-confidence and pride were greatly hurt by her words, and he clenched his fists up. He took another look at the coffee cup and gulped.

"The coffee here is very good. Take another sip."

He Xinyan raised one eyebrow and obediently "took another sip."

This time, she drank a little of the coffee, but not a lot.

"The food here is also really good. What would you like to eat?"

"I have a dinner date already. If you have nothing else to say, I am going to leave."

He Xinyan stood up and wobbled slightly, lifting one hand up to her head, "Why do I feel so tired?" She muttered to herself.

Su Zhiming smirked and also stood up, "That's right."

Hearing those two words, He Xinyan closed her eyes and fell down. Su Zhiming swiftly stretched his arms out and caught He Xinyan in his arms.

He then picked up her bag and carried her out of the room, attracting glances from several people, but no one stopped him.

As they went, He Xinyan's eyelashes twitched slightly and one corner of her lips curled up so slightly it was hard to notice.

Su Zhiming must have forgotten that her original occupation was an actress. . .

Su Zhiming brought He Xinyan up to the 15th floor, where he had booked a room. He didn't turn the lights on when they arrived, and he gently placed her onto the large bed.

He sat down next to her and gently ran a finger down the side of her cheek, "Xinyan. . . My Yanyan. . . You lied to me, but I still want you. . . So I have to do this. Don't blame me."

Su Zhiming stood up from the bed and removed his suit jacket. He then began unbuttoning the buttons on his shirt.

When he moved on to his pants, the door suddenly burst open.

"Ah!" Su Zhiming jumped back from shock and quickly folded the two sides of his open shirt together, "Who is it?! What are you doing?! This is my room! You're in the wrong room!"

Su Zhiming was so focused on buttoning his shirt again, he didn't see who was at the door.

Several people barged into the room, making the original large room feel cramped all of a sudden. They formed two separate lines.

The line on the left were several tall and buff men wearing black suits and sunglasses.

The line on the right were all police officers wearing their police suits.

Noticing that something wasn't right, Su Zhiming finally turned around. He gasped when he saw all the people, and he was so scared he fell back down onto the couch behind him.

"You - Who are all of you?! What are you doing here? Did you enter the wrong room?! Who are you?!" Su Zhiming stood back up and looked at the two long lines of men.

Finally, one last person entered the room.

He was also wearing a black suit, but he didn't have sunglasses on, differentiating himself from the line of bodyguards. His strong and cold presence was also different, and the temperature in the room seemed to lower right away.

Su Zhiming blinked his eyes a few times, and it took a few seconds before he finally recognized the man that had just walked in, "Gu Yechen?!"

Gu Yechen ignored him and walked over to the bed, "Are you okay?"

He Xinyan sighed and lifted one arm up, rubbing her eye as she sat up on the bed, "Yeah, kind of. I need to take a shower and disinfect my entire body when we get home."

Su Zhiming seemed like he just saw a ghost as he fell back down onto the floor, "You - Xinyan. . . You. . . Aren't you supposed to be unconscious?!"

He Xinyan glanced at him and rolled her eyes, "I am supposed to be, but I'm not."

Su Zhiming's eyes widened, "How? I saw you. . . You drank the coffee!"

"Are you sure I did?" He Xinyan said with a smile.

It took several seconds for Su Zhiming to finally realize what had happened, "You! You lied to me again!"

He Xinyan laughed, "Yes, I did. But, you can't blame me. You're just too dumb."

Su Zhiming's lip was quivering from anger, "You -"

Gu Yechen knit his eyebrows together and pinched the skin area between his eyebrows, "Did you get that? Bring him away now."

The guards and police nodded, and all of them rushed over to "escort" Su Zhiming out the room.

A police officer pulled out handcuffs and locked Su Zhiming's hands behind his back.

"What are you doing?! You can't do this to me! Let go of me! This is illegal!" Su Zhiming screamed as he was forcefully lifted up off the ground.

The police scoffed, "You are getting arrested for attempted ra**, which is illegal."

Su Zhiming looked like he had been struck by lightning, "What?! Arrested?!"

"Yes." The police officer then pushed him out of the room, signaling that no further discussion was needed. Su Zhiming's screaming could be heard all the way until he disappeared into the elevator.

--- A few hours ago

"Mr. Husband, I need your help."

Gu Yechen looked up, "What is it?"

"Su Zhiming just asked me to go meet him at the Dasi Hotel tonight at 6. I'm sure that he is up to something, since last time he was pretty mad. . . Can you send some people to follow me?"

Gu Yechen's face darkened at the mention of Su Zhiming wanting to meet her, and he immediately nodded his head, "I'll go myself too."

He Xinyan blinked her eyes a few times, "Is he that important?"

Gu Yechen picked up his chopsticks again, "He isn't, but you are."

He Xinyan smiled sweetly and placed a large chunk of meat onto Gu Yechen's plate, "Thank you! Mwah! Eat, eat."

Gu Yechen smiled as he picked up the meat and said, "There is no need to thank Mr. Husband."

He Xinyan chuckled and continued to eat herself.

Chapter 215 Gu Yechen in the Trash

Su Zhiming was taken to jail to await his trial. He had the right to a lawyer and a trial, but all of that was no use in the face of Gu Yechen.

The trial was going to start in a few days, and He Xinyan and Gu Yechen were going to watch, since He Xinyan was the victim and Gu Yechen was a witness.

However, today, He Xinyan was going to go visit two people she hasn't seen in a long time.

Gu Yechen and He Xinyan drove and stopped in front of the house. The door to the house was opened already, and Xu Mengya stood in front of it.

She jumped up and down excitedly when she saw the two of them, and she ran out without any shoes on to greet them.

"Xinyan!" She ran straight into He Xinyan's arms and hugged her tightly, "Oh, I missed you. We haven't seen each other in so long!"

He Xinyan nodded her head, "Auntie Xu, I miss you too!"

"Come in, come in." Xu Mengya held onto He Xinyan's hand and pulled her into the house. Throughout this entire conversation, Gu Yechen was ignored.

He sighed with a small smile and walked behind them and into the house.

However, when they reached the door, Xu Mengya slammed the door shut after she had walked in with He Xinyan, right at Gu Yechen's face.

He blinked a few times and pressed his lips together to try and remain calm.

The next second, the door opened again. Xu Mengya's face peeked out and she chuckled awkwardly, "Hahaha, oops! I forgot about you!"

Gu Yechen raised one eyebrow but didn't say anything. Maybe he was actually found in a trash dump when he was a baby. . .

Once they entered the room, the delicious smell of food entered their noses.

It was lunchtime, so they immediately began eating once they arrived.

Gu Hanyu once again cooked up several delicious dishes, and they were all Xu Mengya's favorites.

"Eat this, it's really good," Xu Mengya said as she placed a piece of salmon on He Xinyan's plate.

"Mm. . . it's so good!" He Xinyan's eyes widened as she took another piece of the salmon.

Hearing He Xinyan compliment her husband's cooking, Xu Mengya smiled happily and continued to eat the food placed into her plate by Gu Hanyu.

Halfway through the meal, Gu Hanyu, who was usually silent, finally spoke up.

He looked up at Gu Yechen and casually asked, "When do you two plan on getting married?"

He Xinyan almost choked on her food as she looked over at Gu Yechen, who seemed very calm. To be honest, she didn't think about marriage, because she was still quite young.

She still wanted to stay as an "unmarried individual" for a while longer!

Gu Yechen ate another bite of rice, "Soon -"

"Soon?!" He Xinyan gasped. When did it become soon?!

Gu Hanyu nodded his head and went back to being silent again. Meanwhile, Xu Mengya got very excited at this topic.

She put down her chopsticks and looked over at her son, "What do you mean by soon? When is soon? What date? Is the proposal ready? What is your proposal plan? When is the wedding date -"

"Madam Xu," Gu Yechen looked up and raised one eyebrow. Xu Mengya rolled her eyes and turned to He Xinyan.

"Xinyan, is it really soon? When are you two going to get married?"

He Xinyan blinked a few times, "Um. . . Well. . . I don't know."

Xu Mengya glared at Gu Yechen, "See! Yanyan doesn't even want to marry you yet! Stop overthinking! Ch!"

Gu Yechen looked over at He Xinyan, "You don't want to marry me?"

He Xinyan looked between Gu Yechen and his mom, "It's just a matter of time."

Gu Yechen was pleased with this answer, and he continued to eat happily.

After eating, He Xinyan sat down and talked with Xu Mengya for a while before they left. When they returned home, Gu Yechen didn't immediately get out of the car.

He turned around and looked over at He Xinyan, "So, when are we going to get married?"

He Xinyan thought for a few seconds before replying with a grin, "Soon!"

---

The first day of Su Zhiming's trial was here.

He Xinyan and Gu Yechen arrived at the court early in the morning and sat down in the front row of the audience section.

It was a private trial, so there were only a few people there.

A few minutes after they arrived, Su Zhiming was brought out.

Su Zhiming had brought his private lawyer that worked for his company and him. On the other side, Gu Yechen had invited the Gu Corporation's lawyer team, also known as the strongest lawyer team in the country.

Therefore, Su Zhiming basically stood no chance.

The trial began and during the first day, both sides read their opening statements, and there were a few questions. Nothing much happened and the first day of the trial finished.

He Xinyan looked over at Su Zhiming once in a while, and something confused her. She expected him to be very nervous or anxious. After all, there was no way he wanted to go to jail.

And, the lawyer team on the other side was the Gu Corporation! There was basically no way he would win.

However, he seemed very relaxed and didn't even seem to care about what was going on during the trial.

During the car ride home, He Xinyan decided to ask Gu Yechen, the all-knowing person!

When he heard the question, he smiled. Smiled?

"Why are you smiling?" He Xinyan frowned.

"Su Zhiming is just going to pay his way out of jail even if he gets in," Gu Yechen said.

"What?! Can he do that? Can't you only do that prior to sentencing?" He Xinyan wasn't very familiar with law, but she didn't think it was possible to buy your way out of jail. . . right?

Unless you were Gu Yechen.

"Su Zhiming's company is doing quite well now. He definitely has a lot of money by now, and there is no way he would want to go to prison during a time like this. My guess is that his plan is to buy his way out of prison if he does get sentenced to jail."

"That is possible?!" He Xinyan asked. The legal system was this corrupt?!

Gu Yechen grinned, "With me, it isn't."

---

The next day, the biggest news on all of the news companies was the bankruptcy of a big entertainment company: Newstart Entertainment.

All of Su Zhiming's hard work all these years had been destroyed overnight. . . by Gu Yechen.

He Xinyan's mouth fell open when she saw this news, "You - You did this?!"

"His company is no match for the Gu Corporation. It isn't even that powerful. This was just like stepping on a fly," Gu Yechen said proudly, glancing at He Xinyan, almost as if he was asking for her compliment. After all, Su Zhiming was still her ex-boyfriend and first boyfriend.

No matter how disgusting and lowly Su Zhiming was in comparison to Gu Yechen, he still felt a little. . . just a little. . . maybe quite. . . okay, very jealous.

He had been waiting to get rid of Su Zhiming for forever! Now, he finally did it!

He Xinyan noticed Gu Yechen's eager expression, and she leaned forward to kiss him quickly on the lips, "Good job, good job! You did great!"

Gu Yechen smiled happily, and his cheeks turned just a little pink, making him look incredibly cute!

He Xinyan couldn't help but reach up and pinch his cheeks, "Aww, my baby is so cute!"

Gu Yechen raised one eyebrow and used one finger to lift He Xinyan's chin up. Then, he leaned down for another kiss. . . a much longer one.

---

Su Zhiming's trial was continuing, and the next few days, Su Zhiming's attitude during the trial had changed completely.

He was very anxious, and you could tell that he hadn't slept well in several days. The dark circles under his eyes were so dark and big that He Xinyan could see them from several feet away.

His skin had also turned into an unhealthy color, and his hair seemed to have not been brushed in a long time.

In the end, the Gu Corporation's lawyer team won the case easily, and with Gu Yechen in the back controlling the case, Su Zhiming's punishment was much worse than normal cases of this sort.

He was sentenced to life imprisonment in jail.

Upon hearing the final verdict, He Xinyan couldn't help but feel a little, just a little bad for Su Zhiming. If he had just divorced Li Yuyan and lived his life without bothering her, maybe he wouldn't have ended up like this.

Gu Yechen would have definitely done something to punish Su Zhiming, but it wouldn't be as bad as life imprisonment in jail.

However, the small feeling of pity quickly went away.

After all, He Xinyan was the victim.

And, Su Zhiming deserved it.

The case was closed.

Reborn To Love #Chapter 216 Gu Yechen's Family - Read Reborn To Love Chapter 216 Gu Yechen's Family

Chapter 216 Gu Yechen's Family

It has been several months since filming for Beautiful Things Past ended, but it had only just started broadcasting now.

In only a few days, the drama became the most popular and most viewed drama on all television stations and websites.

Besides Yang Siyue and Gu Yebei being the two most popular subjects of discussion because they were the main leads, He Xinyan was also surprisingly very popular for her breathtaking looks and outfits in the film and her amazing acting.

The top 3 most searched topics were:

1. Beautiful Things Past Latest Episode

2. Yang Siyue and Gu Yebei

3. He Xinyan Newbie Actress

He Xinyan's popularity was getting higher and higher, and more people were interested in her and searching her up on the Internet.

Many were able to dig up information about her like how she was the chairman of the He Corporation, and the granddaughter of the founder of the He Corporation.

Many people were waiting for her next film, so she had to post on her social media to clarify that she had left the entertainment industry already.

A lot of people expressed their sadness and regret about this, but she wasn't going to change her decision. She really liked and enjoyed her life right now, and she wanted to hold onto it while it lasted.

One day, He Xinyan and Gu Yechen were watching television after eating dinner. The final few episodes of Beautiful Things Past were broadcasting right now, and He Xinyan was very focused in watching her final few scenes before Concubine Xi would die.

The first episode finished and there was a short advertisement break before the next episode would start playing.

During this time, He Xinyan went to go get two more bags of chips since she finished the ones she was eating already.

When she came back, Gu Yechen pulled her closer to him on the couch and looked at her.

"Baby, I have something to ask you." He began playing with He Xinyan's hair as he spoke.

"What is it?" He Xinyan opened the new bag of chips and took a bite

"Well. . . My grandma's 80th birthday is next week and there is a family gathering. Do you want to come with me?"

He Xinyan stopped chewing for a few seconds and scratched her head.

The Gu family. . . Even the sound of it was scary.

He Xinyan looked up at Gu Yechen's nervous expression and grinned, "Sure!"

Gu Yechen's eyes widened in surprise, "Really?"

"Yes, why not! I want to go visit the Gu mansion. I heard it is really big!" He Xinyan's eyes sparkled at the image. So what if the Gu family was scary? She had Gu Yechen! And, the trip was worth it since only a few people ever got the chance to see the Gu mansion in person.

And, maybe she was overthinking. Xu Mengya was such a nice and easygoing person! Maybe the rest of his family was also going to be very nice.

He Xinyan knew that it wasn't going to be very likely, especially since the Gu family was a very, very powerful family. However, it was going to be okay. She had Gu Yechen with her!

"Tell me about your family," He Xinyan said as she turned off the television and leaned against Gu Yechen's chest.

"My grandma is the oldest member alive of the Gu family. She is a very traditional person. Next, my dad is the oldest son of three children. My second uncle has two daughters, and my third uncle has a son and a daughter. There is also Gu Kexin, who was an orphan adopted by my grandmother as a child and raised under her. However, you don't have to worry about them," Gu Yechen said casually as he continued to play with He Xinyan's hair.

"An orphan?" He Xinyan looked up at Gu Yechen in surprise. The Gu family didn't seem like the type to take in an orphan randomly.

"Yes," Gu Yechen nodded his head lightly.

He Xinyan leaned back down and furrowed her eyebrows together, "Then are your family members nice and easygoing?"

"You don't need to worry. When we go, you can just act like me. You only need to get along well with Madam Xu and Mister Gu. The rest, you don't need to."

". . ." He Xinyan didn't know what to say. After all, they were still his relatives!

He might be the crown prince of the family, but she wasn't the crown princess! Even if she was, she still had to respect the elders. . . right?

He Xinyan tried to stay calm but she still felt a little nervous about going to see the Gu family.

"Xinyan, remember. You don't need to care about anyone else. You are my woman. No one can bully you. . . except me. Understand?!" Gu Yechen lifted up He Xinyan's face and stared into her eyes seriously.

He Xinyan rolled her eyes, "You! Bully me? Ch! Do you dare to?"

Gu Yechen smirked, "Yes, I do."

Then, he bent down and blocked her lips with his. . .

---

A few days before the birthday party, He Xinyan dragged Gu Yechen to a shop to go find presents for all of his relatives.

Although Gu Yechen said there was no need, He Xinyan still insisted on doing so. It was the first time she was visiting his relatives. And, it was a very important event! So, it would be impolite if she didn't bring any presents.

"Do you think grandma will like this celadon tea set?" He Xinyan was inside a shop that sold celadon and porcelain items, and she immediately noticed this celadon tea set in the center of the shop.

Gu Yechen looked at the tea set for a few seconds before nodding his head, "Yes."

He Xinyan smiled and turned to the worker standing nearby, "Please help me package this nicely."

The worker walked over and took the box holding the tea set away, "One moment."

"Let's keep looking. It's the first time I'm meeting your grandma. The gift can't be too cheap." He Xinyan wrapped her arm around Gu Yechen's elbow and pulled him over to another corner of the store.

Gu Yechen patiently looked around with He Xinyan, "You're too nervous."

"If my present is too cheap, you will lose face!" He Xinyan glanced at him, "Don't forget! I am also a very, very rich woman! Of course my present needs to be at least decent. Besides, your grandma is the oldest in your family. If she likes me, then no one can stop me anymore!" He Xinyan lifted her thumb up and giggled evilly.

Gu Yechen smiled, "Yes, rich woman. Then do you want to be my sugar mama?"

"No."

Gu Yechen raised one eyebrow, "Why?"

"Any smart person would rather take other people's money and put it in their own pocket, than take money out of their own pocket and give it to others!" He Xinyan thought for a second, "Maybe if you go bankrupt, then I will think about being your sugar mama."

Gu Yechen narrowed his eyes, "It seems like I have to work hard on earning money, so you won't ever have to think about being my sugar mama."

He Xinyan smiled softly and looked over at a worker nearby. She pointed at a red jade bracelet hanging on the wall and said, "Can you bring that down so I can take a look at it?"

The worker had packed the tea set into a box already, and she placed it on a table as she walked over to take the bracelet off the wall, "Miss, you have very good taste! This is the treasure of our shop. It is called the Xinyao Bracelet. It was made from very rare Xinyao jade."

The worker placed the bracelet on He Xinyan's hands.

"If one wears this bracelet on themselves for long enough, they will become immune to all poison, and this bracelet can also bring good luck! This bracelet can also last for a very long time. It can be passed on from generation to generation for several hundred or even thousand years, and it will still look just like it does now."

He Xinyan looked over the bracelet and brought it up to her nose to smell it. There was a very pleasant smell on the bracelet.

She looked at Gu Yechen, "Immune to poison? Really?"

Gu Yechen glanced at the bracelet and raised one eyebrow, "Do you believe it?"

He Xinyan frowned and shook her head slightly, "If it was actually that amazing, it wouldn't be here then."

Immune to poison. . . bring good luck. . . This was all just made up. No one ever tried it, so how would they know?

He Xinyan smelled the bracelet again, "But this bracelet does have a very great smell."

"You like it?" Gu Yechen asked.

He Xinyan shrugged and handed the bracelet back to the worker, "This is the treasure of the shop. There is no way they will sell this. I was just asking."

Gu Yechen looked at He Xinyan for several seconds before walking over to the worker and taking the bracelet back from her, "If you really want it, there is a way to get it."

He Xinyan looked up, "What?"

Gu Yechen played around with the bracelet before calmly saying, "I am the owner of this shop."

Chapter 217 Eat You and Spit it Out

Gu Yechen played around with the bracelet before calmly saying, "I am the owner of this shop."

He Xinyan's mouth fell open, and it took several seconds before she replied, "You what?!" He was joking. . . He had to be joking!

Gu Yechen smiled sweetly and turned to the worker, "Call your CEO."

He opened up his phone and showed the girl a phone number. The worker quickly called the number on the phone.

"CEO Wu will be here right away!"

In less than five minutes, a black car pulled up in front of the shop. A man walked in and the worker immediately bowed down slightly, "CEO Wu."

Wu Hua nodded his head slightly and looked over at Gu Yechen and He Xinyan, "President Gu, sister-in-law!"

He Xinyan seemed to recognize Wu Hua's face a little, and she thought that maybe he had shown up at her birthday party as well.

"Do you sell this bracelet?" Gu Yechen asked Wu Hua, lifting up the bracelet.

Wu Hua looked at the red jade bracelet and gulped, "Well. . . Normally, we can't sell this since this is the treasure of the shop. But, you are the owner. So. . ."

Gu Yechen grabbed onto the bracelet and He Xinyan's hand before walking out of the shop, "Good."

Wu Hua blinked a few times in confusion as he watched Gu Yechen and He Xinyan just leave the shop. After a few minutes, he left himself.

Whatever! Gu Yechen was the boss. Whatever he says and whatever he wants!

---

Once He Xinyan entered the car, she stopped smiling and crossed her arms together.

"What's wrong?" Gu Yechen asked.

"CEO Gu is so good at doing business, taking me to your shop to buy things. You even want to earn my money." He Xinyan glanced at him and said annoyingly.

He Xinyan didn't actually really care about this. She was just wondering if Gu Yechen would be the owner of whichever shop she entered.

Gu Yechen grinned softly and turned around, helping He Xinyan put on her seatbelt, "Mines if yours. Going shopping is just for the mood, right? If you are unhappy, how about I treat you to a good meal right now?"

He Xinyan saw that he was smiling casually, and she pinched his arm angrily, "Yours is mines, and mines is mines. Since you ate mine you have to spit it out!"

Gu Yechen nodded his head in agreement, "Then if I eat you and I can't spit it out, what do I do?"

". . ." He Xinyan opened her mouth and closed it again before looking away.

Gu Yechen smiled and leaned back against his car seat, "Baby, you can eat me up! I won't request for you to spit it back out. You can eat as much as you want!"

He Xinyan: ". . ."

"Gu Yechen, tell me honestly. In this street, how many shops belong to you?"

"I don't know."

He Xinyan frowned, "What does 'I don't know' mean?"

Gu Yechen started the car and began driving, "I can't be certain since I am not the one who takes care of this."

He Xinyan nodded her head and stopped speaking.

Who knew exactly how rich and powerful this man was?

--- A few days later

He Xinyan and Gu Yechen boarded a private airplane early in the morning and flew across Country Z to the very northeast section of the country.

It was right at the border of the country, and there were many rumors about the huge building surrounded by all the tall trees and a huge gate. The building was said to take up 10 acres, or 40 thousand square meters of land, and it belonged to the Gu family.

Once He Xinyan got out of the airplane, she saw two very expensive sports cars parked outside. Standing in front of the cars, there were two men wearing suits.

When they saw He Xinyan and Gu Yechen, they walked over and greeted them.

"Young master Gu, Miss He, welcome back."

Gu Yechen held onto He Xinyan's hand and they entered the car together.

The driver put the luggage onto the other car before coming back to the driver's seat, and starting the car.

The entire time, He Xinyan was grasping tightly onto Gu Yechen's sleeve, and Gu Yechen noticed that she gulped very frequently.

Gu Yechen looked over at her and placed his other hand onto her hand, "You're nervous again?"

"A little." He Xinyan gulped again after speaking. "How about, I go to a hotel first. Once I am not so nervous anymore, I can go visit your relatives?"

"You're sure?" Gu Yechen noticed that since they got onto the plane, He Xinyan's palm was wet with sweat. He was also a little worried for her.

He was sad but also happy; sad that she was so nervous, and happy that she was nervous because she was going to go meet his family members.

She was nervous because she cared about him.

He Xinyan licked her lips and gulped once again, "Yes."

Gu Yechen thought for a few seconds before grabbing onto her hand and coldly saying to the driver, "Go to the Royal Qin Hotel."

"Young master, Madam Wang ordered for us to come and pick you up early in the morning. She also ordered the butler to prepare dinner for you. Are you really not going to go back?"

"I will call grandma and explain to her."

"But -"

"Do you not understand my words?" Gu Yechen's voice suddenly turned cold and direct, causing He Xinyan to even shudder slightly because she was so close to him.

He Xinyan glanced at the driver and suddenly felt a little bad. After all, Gu Yechen wasn't going back because of her, and his grandmother, Madam Wang, seemed to be really anticipating his arrival.

She used her finger to scratch his palm softly, "Mm. . . maybe we should just go."

"It's okay. I am also tired." Gu Yechen stretched out his neck, "I don't want to go meet all those annoying relatives. We can go tomorrow."

His voice was much softer when he talked to He Xinyan.

He Xinyan rested her head onto his shoulder and didn't say anything else.

She was indeed very nervous today. . . She didn't know why, but she was.

The car stopped in front of the Royal Qin Hotel.

"We are already here, but we don't go visit your relatives first thing after we arrive. . . Will that be a little impolite?" He Xinyan has never been so indecisive in her life. If she had known it would be like this, she shouldn't have agreed to come!

Gu Yechen gently patted her head, "You don't need to be so indecisive and nervous. If you don't like it, we can return home tomorrow. There is no need to stay here, okay?"

He Xinyan immediately shook her head, "It's your grandma's 80th birthday! That is a very big birthday! If you just leave like this, wouldn't you be given the title of an unfilial grandson? Others will also say that you were seduced by beauty. I might even be given the title of an evil and seductive vixen!"

She didn't want to cause problems for Gu Yechen. . . It was just, she felt kind of scared. Weird. . .

Gu Yechen raised one eyebrow and nodded his head seriously, "Unfilial grandson and seductive vixen. . . That is a pretty good match!"

". . ."

The luggage was brought out from the other car and pushed into the hotel. They didn't have to register, and Gu Yechen walked straight for the elevator.

They rode the elevator up to the very top floor, which only had four rooms in total.

Gu Yechen held onto He Xinyan's hand as they walked to the room at the very end of the hall. He lifted his finger up and put it up to the electronic lock on the door.

There was a green check after the lock recognized Gu Yechen's fingerprint, and the door opened.

"This room is yours?!" He Xinyan asked, not sure if she should be surprised.

Gu Yechen nodded his head as he opened the light, revealing the gigantic room. It was so big it could be a whole house by itself. There was even a small second floor that had another bed and a balcony that overlooked the entire city view.

Once they had settled in the room, there was a phone call.

Gu Yechen picked up his phone and answered the call.

'Stupid son, how dare you hide Xinyan?!' Xu Mengya's voice was very loud, so loud that Gu Yechen had to pull the phone away from his ear.

He Xinyan, who was standing a few feet away from Gu Yechen, also heard Xu Mengya's voice. She chuckled and quickly used her hands to cover up her mouth.

Gu Yechen raised one eyebrow, "So what?"

"Ch! So what?! Stupid son, are you at Royal Qin? I'm going over right now! I have to see Xinyan today!" There was some rustling noise on the other end of the phone, "Oh, right! Even if you don't want to return to the Gu mansion, you can still come to your parent's house, right? Ch! Just wait for me to arrive and see how I will punish you!"

He Xinyan had both hands over her mouth as she moved away, trying not to laugh out loud.

The all-powerful Gu Yechen was just a stupid guy in front of Madam Xu!

Hahahaha!

Gu Yechen noticed He Xinyan's reaction, and his face turned a little darker, "Madam Xu, let me warn you. If you call me stupid guy in front of my woman one more time. . ."

Xu Mengya rolled her eyes, "So what?! What can you do?"

Gu Yechen smirked, "I remember that a few months ago, Madam Xu was on the phone with a man with the surname Qu. And, the phone call was five whole minutes. If this information accidentally gets leaked to Mister Gu. . . I wonder how many days Madam Xu won't be able to leave the house?"

On the side, He Xinyan couldn't help but feel bad for Auntie Xu.

How did she give birth to a son like this?!

Chapter 218 The Gu Mansion

How did she give birth to a son like this?!

Xu Mengya was so angry she was at a loss for words.

He Xinyan gently poked Gu Yechen and furrowed her eyebrows together. Gu Yechen casually raised one eyebrow and turned his attention back to the phone, "Madam Xu, we have to go eat now. I will see you tomorrow morning."

After that, Gu Yechen hung up the call.

"That's your mom! Can't you be more respectful?" He Xinyan rolled her eyes at Gu Yechen.

He put down his phone and crossed his arms together, "You are already on your mother-in-law's side?"

Gu Yechen picked up a scarf and wrapped it around He Xinyan's neck. Then, he gently pinched both sides of her cheeks.

"Mother-in-law?! Stop overthinking! Plus, Auntie Xu isn't only your mother! She is also my friend. I can't let you treat her so disrespectfully like that!"

Gu Yechen tilted his head slightly and frowned, "Baby, other families all have problems in the relationships between the mother and daughter-in-law. Why do I feel like in our family, this problem doesn't exist."

He Xinyan rolled her eyes.

"But now I am worried about myself. I think you two should not get together too often. Or else, my life won't be very good. . ."

"You're overthinking!" He Xinyan scoffed.

"What am I overthinking?"

"Me meeting Auntie Xu has nothing to do with whether your life will be good or not.

Gu Yechen suddenly became very serious as he looked at He Xinyan, "Xinyan, have you ever thought about marrying me?"

He Xinyan's hand that was reaching for her purse froze for a second before she replied, "You never asked me to marry you."

". . ."

The two of them entered the restaurant on the first floor of the hotel. The waiter immediately led them to a private room when they saw Gu Yechen, and He Xinyan was beginning to wonder if everyone around this area knew of him.

As they ate, He Xinyan asked, "What time are we leaving tomorrow?"

"Whenever you want."

"I never want to go," He Xinyan replied truthfully.

Gu Yechen looked up at her, "If you really don't want to go, then we can just return home."

He Xinyan gulped and looked up, "Whatever, let's go tomorrow. We are here already. If we don't go, then it will be too rude. It's okay! They can't do anything to me anyway. Even if they bully me, I still have you, right?" He Xinyan didn't know if she was saying this to him or to herself.

Gu Yechen grinned, "Don't worry, they aren't monsters. I am there, and my parents are also there. No one can bully you."

---

The next morning, He Xinyan woke up before the sky outside even woke up.

She flipped around to look at the clock and saw that it was only 6 A.M. When she turned back around, she was met with a pair of dark eyes.

"Why are you awake so early? You can't fall asleep?" Gu Yechen asked as he pulled her closer to him.

"Yep. . ." He Xinyan replied.

"You're still nervous?"

He Xinyan shook her head, "No."

"Then why can't you go to sleep?"

He Xinyan pressed her lips together, "Maybe. . . it's because I'm not used to the bed here."

After saying this reason, He Xinyan couldn't help but laugh. She lifted her head up and looked at Gu Yechen, who was also smiling.

After smiling, it was like everything turned clear, including her attitude.

Somehow, the nervousness she was feeling the previous day seemed to all disappear after a good night's sleep. Now, she didn't seem to even care much about this event anymore.

It was just meeting some strangers! She did that every single day. If they liked her, then that was great! If they didn't like her, then there was nothing she could do.

It didn't matter. She wasn't the one that wanted to go anyway! It was Gu Yechen that dragged her here to annoy his relatives.

Yes. It had absolutely nothing to do with her.

Thinking like this, He Xinyan relaxed a lot more.

"It's not even 7 yet, it's too early. It is also very cold outside. Sleep a little more."

He Xinyan nodded and closed her eyes, "Okay."

Gu Yechen kissed her gently on the forehead and closed his eyes as well.

---

Besides Gu Yechen's grandma's 80th birthday, there was also another important event coming up.

The end of this year was coming up and it was almost New Year's Day already. So, when Gu Yechen and He Xinyan left the hotel to go to the Gu mansion, there weren't many cars out on the street.

Besides that, few people ever came to the most northeast part of Country Z anyway.

Gu Yechen drove the car, and he made several turns until the car finally turned onto an old brick road. The buildings here weren't as modern and large as the ones they had previously seen anymore. Instead, they had a more historical and authentic feeling.

It was clear that they had probably been around for a while now.

The trees on both sides of the road were also very thick and tall. However, since it was wintertime, there were no leaves. They were so tall He Xinyan couldn't even see the tops of them when looking from the side window of the car.

It signified their age and strong perseverance in surviving through all these centuries.

Their stories were probably very, very long.

The road continued to go up, and it seemed like they were driving up a mountain. The angle wasn't very steep, so it took a while for them to finally reach their destination.

The car stopped in front of a huge gate, and there were two large lions on both sides of the gate.

The gate opened when Gu Yechen's car stopped in front of it. He drove inside, and the gate closed again after the car had entered.

Then, they drove for several more minutes up a steeper cliff. Once they reached the top of the mountain, the Gu mansion came into view.

He Xinyan gasped when she saw the gigantic mansion. It was designed in a very historical and oriental style, and the height of the building seemed to be at least two stories.

The two sides of the building had two stone lions, except they were at least three times bigger than the ones guarding the gate.

There were also four huge pillars that were carved as dragons in the front of the building.

He Xinyan was in awe for several seconds before she slowly asked, "This house must be very old already, right?"

Gu Yechen parked the car in front of the building, "Yes. It has several hundred years of history."

He unbuckled his seatbelt then helped He Xinyan unbuckle hers.

"Several hundred years?!" He Xinyan's mouth fell wide open, and her eyes did the same.

Gu Yechen nodded his head, "Yes. My great great grandfather was a general, and this house was ordered to be built by the emperor for him."

He Xinyan was even more surprised as Gu Yechen talked about his family's history. So, the Gu family wasn't just rich and powerful. Its power has been around for several hundred years.

The emperor built this place especially for his great great grandfather?! That was an honor that very few people could ever experience.

"So. . . So your family has been in power for several centuries already?" He Xinyan calculated quickly with her fingers, "Six generations?!"

Gu Yechen gently rubbed her head, "It's not as amazing as you think. Come on, let's go."

The two of them got out of the car and walked around to the trunk to get the gifts they had brought for Gu Yechen's relatives.

After they took them out of the car, they walked towards the building. The main building was still a walk away, and there was an area of water that seemed like a pond in the middle.

There were several fish swimming in the water, and several water lilies afloat on the top. Since it was winter, the water lilies weren't in bloom, but just thinking about the beautiful sight was breathtaking by itself.

To walk from the entrance to the main building, there was a single wide bridge that connected the two areas of land, and it was made of stone. There were some small cracks on the bridge to show how long it has been here already.

As they walked, He Xinyan looked around curiously at the beautiful sight. The rumors about this place didn't do it justice! This was much more grand and beautiful than what she had thought!

After the pond, there was an open space in the middle before reaching the building.

Gu Yechen walked slowly to allow He Xinyan to take in the environment around her. When they finally reached the open space, they could hear the chatter coming from the main building already.

Suddenly, there was a woman's voice and fast footsteps.

"I hear someone! It must be Gu Yechen!"

Chapter 219 Meeting Gu Yechen's Family

"I hear someone! It must be Gu Yechen!"

Once He Xinyan and Gu Yechen reached the stairsteps leading up to the building, they heard a familiar voice from inside. In a few seconds, He Xinyan saw Xu Mengya run out from the building.

When Xu Mengya saw He Xinyan, her smile widened as she ran straight into He Xinyan's arms.

"Yanyan, you're finally here! I arrived at the Gu mansion before 7 in the morning because I was afraid that stupid guy wouldn't let you come again." Xu Mengya glared at Gu Yechen before pulling He Xinyan into the building.

So, He Xinyan was dragged into the main building by Xu Mengya.

She looked back at Gu Yechen, whose smile had disappeared. He Xinyan sighed and smiled at him. Only did she notice his expression soften a little did she turn back around.

The outside of the building looked huge, but the inside of the building wasn't just big. It was also designed extremely exquisitely.

The furniture and decorations inside were not in trend at the moment, and many couldn't even be found in most shops. The interior design used the oriental style, and He Xinyan almost thought she had walked into the historical palace.

There was also a very pleasant smell in the building. Not a smell of food, but a gentle and very elegant plant smell.

The smell was very relaxing, but He Xinyan wasn't. Once she entered the room, she noticed that there were a lot of people sitting inside. She didn't dare look around, and she looked straight as she walked in with Xu Mengya next to her.

Gu Yechen also entered the large room and grabbed onto He Xinyan's other hand, pulling her away from Xu Mengya.

"You!" Xu Mengya glared at her son and frowned.

"Madam Xu, how many times do I have to tell you? Don't steal my woman," Gu Yechen said sternly.

"She -"

Gu Yechen immediately cut Xu Mengya off, "Don't say she isn't my woman. Or else, I will bring her away right now."

Xu Mengya pressed her lips together angrily. She must have done something very bad in her past life to earn herself a son like this.

She angrily marched over to her seat next to Gu Hanyu and sat down next to him, gently tugging at his sleeve as she pursed her lips out.

Gu Hanyu wrapped his arm around Xu Mengya's waist and glared at Gu Yechen, "She's your mom!"

"I know. That is why you should take good care of my mom. Or else, she is always thinking about my woman. This makes me wonder if you aren't taking good care of her, so she thinks her life is boring and is always looking for my woman to have more fun."

"You - You!" Xu Mengya pointed one angry finger at Gu Yechen.

Gu Hanyu opened his mouth to say something, but he was caught off by a woman's voice coming from the front of the room.

"Chener, you sure treat this lady well! Are you not going to introduce her to your grandma?"

He Xinyan's attention has been on the old lady sitting in the huge seat at the front of the room since she walked in. She was wearing a red qipao, and her presence was very strong even if she was old.

She had a whole head of white hair and the wrinkles on her face revealed her old age. Her facial features were quite sharp, even for her age, and her eyes stared straight at He Xinyan.

The seat she was sitting on was very large, and it could probably fit three people. However, she was the only one sitting on the chair.

Her posture was very good, with her head held high and her chin up. From her body movements and facial expressions, it gave off a sense of power and high esteem.

To the right, there was a man who looked very similar to Gu Hanyu, but he seemed a little younger. He wore a black suit and his posture was also very good. He had no expression on his face, and he looked straight forward.

To his right, a woman about Xu Mengya's age wore a purple qipao. She had very big and delicate facial features, and unlike the man sitting next to her, she was smiling. Her eyes turned into crescent moons as she smiled, and her entire temperament was very gentle and sweet.

Behind them, there were two girls. One of them inherited their mother's gentle and sweet looks, whereas the other daughter had a more stern face like her father.

He Xinyan guessed that the man sitting in the front was probably Gu Yechen's second uncle, since he had two daughters.

Sitting next to Gu Yechen's second uncle's family, was his third uncle's family.

The man sitting in the front didn't have as much of a stern and serious face as his two brothers.

The woman sitting next to him had on very thick makeup, with bold red lips and strong colored eyeshadow and eyebrows. Her lips were turned down and she had a very serious expression.

Behind them, there was a girl and a boy. The girl looked like her mom, except that she didn't have as much makeup on. She also had a serious and kind of scary expression.

The boy seemed to be about the age of Gu Yechen, and he had a very handsome face. . . Although it couldn't compare with Gu Yechen, of course.

His lips were curved up slightly, making him look much more pleasant than his sister and mom.

Gu Yechen picked up He Xinyan's hand and looked up at his grandma, "Grandma, this is He Xinyan, my. . . fiancée."

He Xinyan's mouth opened slightly as she looked up at Gu Yechen.

When did she become his fiancée? When did she agree?

Gu Yechen's grandma, Wang Yani's smile stiffened slightly, "Chener, your parents never talked about this. Chener, you know very well that all of the Gu family's descendants have to come to the Gu mansion for their engagement and wedding ceremony. You are breaking the family rules."

He Xinyan looked down slightly and took a deep breath.

She wasn't stupid. She could perfectly understand the meaning behind Gu Yechen's grandma's words.

Anything that didn't go through the Gu mansion and the Gu family's approval was against the rules.

This also meant that if Gu Yechen were to propose to her, or they were to get engaged or get married. . . The Gu family was not going to approve of it.

Meanwhile, Xu Mengya's face immediately darkened as she stood up.

"Mom, it is 20XX already! Whether they get engaged or get married is all of their business. I don't think it has anything to do with the rules."

Wang Yani continued to smile as she said, "So are you questioning the rules laid down by our ancestors?" She narrowed her eyes slightly as she spoke.

"That isn't my meaning. If you really think that them getting engaged outside privately is against the rules, then you can just have them engage again right here!"

Wang Yani looked down and sighed, "Mengya-ah, getting engaged or getting married is a big deal, especially for a family like us. Qinli from the Qin family found a random woman from outside and secretly got married without his family's approval. Look at him now! The woman he found had a disgusting private life before marriage, and now she can't even get pregnant! What use is a woman like that to the family?"

He Xinyan was looking down at her feet this entire time. Hearing this, she raised her head up slightly. Indeed, her bad premonition was accurate.

There was no way that things were going to always be smooth in life. There were definitely going to be some barriers along the road.

However, she did not think that her barrier would be the highest and most powerful elder in the entire Gu family.

Wang Yani's words were indirectly saying that she was a random woman, and she was also bringing up the possibility that her private life was very messy.

He Xinyan had no clue why Gu Yeichen's grandma had such a bad impression of her on their first meeting? She hasn't even said anything yet!

"Grandma, getting married is my business. Which woman I marry is also my business. You are getting old, so you don't have to worry about your grandchildren's business." Gu Yeichen tightened his grip on He Xinyan's hand as he spoke.

His voice had turned completely cold, without any warmth or feeling.

The smile on Wang Yani's face immediately disappeared after Gu Yeichen's words.

"Chener, you think I am getting into your business?" Wang Yani asked with a grave expression.

"I'm glad you know."

He Xinyan's eyes widened slightly as she pressed her lips together to stop herself from laughing. She gently scratched the palm of Gu Yeichen's hand to warn him not to talk to his grandma like that.

After all, she was getting old. . . what if she is so angry something bad happens?! He Xinyan didn't want to get involved with it.

Gu Yeichen responded by squeezing her hand gently.

"Yeichen, how can you talk to your grandma like that? She is trying to help you." Gu Yeichen's second aunt spoke up.

She stood up and walked over to Wang Yani, gently bending down, "Mom, calm down. Chener must have a good eye for people, and he really likes that girl. I think that girl isn't bad. Look, she also bought a present for you."

Everyone, don't worry! I promise that nothing bad or annoying will happen. Trust me ^o^

Chapter 220 Gu Kexin

"Mom, calm down. Chener must have a good eye for people, and he really likes that girl. I think that girl isn't bad. Look, she also bought a present for you."

As she spoke, she looked over at Gu Yechen and He Xinyan.

He Xinyan was looking down, so she obviously didn't notice.

On the other hand, Gu Yechen did notice, but he didn't move.

Wang Yani looked up and saw that they didn't move. She had also noticed He Xinyan's small finger movements to Gu Yechen, and that only made her dislike He Xinyan more.

Wang Yani scoffed, "You think the presents in her hands are for you? Ch! What do we not have that we need other people to give it to us?"

He Xinyan heard this and she finally looked up.

However, she still didn't move.

"Gu Yechen!" His second aunt, Li Xinqu, knit her eyebrows together and waved a hand at Gu Yechen, signaling for him to hurry and bring the present over to his grandma.

However, Gu Yechen was in no way going to listen to her.

"Grandma is right. The Gu family has everything. They don't lack presents or anything. . We didn't have much time, so we didn't prepare anything."

Li Xinqu's frown deepened as she pressed her lips together.

Wang Yani's face also darkened as there wasn't a single trace of a smile on her face anymore.

Meanwhile, He Xinyan was giggling internally. Her man was indeed very. . . cold.

And, she also had to praise her sixth sense. Indeed, this trip wasn't very smooth or pleasant. If she had known it would be like this, she definitely wouldn't have come to get herself into this mess.

Not everyone was like Auntie Xu. . .

And, she didn't expect everyone to be like Auntie Xu.

Gu Ye Chen pulled He Xinyan over to where Gu Hanyu and Xu Mengya were sitting, and sat down next to them.

Although Gu Ye Chen's behavior right now was very. . . unfilial, Gu Hanyu didn't seem to plan on helping his mother. He didn't seem to even notice the tense argument going on right now.

This made He Xinyan wonder why Gu Hanyu's attitude towards his own mother was so indifferent.

"Grandma, I called sister Kexin earlier, and she said she is almost back." At this moment, the son of Gu Ye Chen's third uncle, Gu Zihao, spoke.

"Really? Ah, that girl should be back soon. Xinqu, go tell the kitchen to cook some more dishes that she likes to eat. Who knows what she has been up to these days? She rarely comes home to visit me now even though she graduated college already."

Once the name Kexin was mentioned, Wang Yani's smile reappeared. Her eyes were full of gentleness as she spoke about her.

He Xinyan immediately recognized the name Kexin. . . Gu Kexin. . . The girl that Gu Ye Chen's grandmother adopted? She did not think that her position in Gu Ye Chen's grandmother's heart was so heavy.

"Yes, yes! I will go tell the kitchen right away. Ah, you just love that kid way too much. Even more than your own biological grandson!" Li Xinqu chuckled softly.

Wang Yani also laughed, "That kid is very obedient and also very sweet. She is the best at making me happy! I like kids like her."

He Xinyan raised one eyebrow slightly. She pretended to not understand the hidden meaning behind Wang Yani's words. However, she was becoming more and more curious about this person called Gu Kexin.

After all, He Xinyan knew that Wang Yani wasn't an easygoing or pleasant person. So, this person called Gu Kexin had to have some skill to be able to make Wang Yani like her so much.

He Xinyan suddenly looked over at Gu Yechen. A few days ago when she had asked Gu Yechen about his family members, he had briefly explained each one. . . except Gu Kexin.

"Why are you looking at me?" Gu Yechen asked.

"That person called Kexin. Why didn't you tell me about her?"

"An irrelevant person. Why should I tell you?"

". . ."

How could she forget? The proud and arrogant Mr. Gu. . . Why would he care about irrelevant people? Much less talk about them?!

He Xinyan nodded her head and stopped talking.

At this moment, Xu Mengya abandoned her husband once again and moved over to He Xinyan. If it weren't for the strong and protective glare from Gu Yechen, she would have wanted to ask to switch seats with him.

He Xinyan obviously noticed the unfriendliness between the mother and son, and she couldn't help but chuckle lightly.

"Xinyan, don't take the evil old woman's words to heart. She is just like that."

Xu Mengya pursed her lips out, "She actually thinks she is the emperor or something. She wants to meddle in everything. It's okay, Xinyan. You are my daughter-in-law, and no one can change that!" Xu Mengya whispered into He Xinyan's ear softly.

He Xinyan smiled as she looked up at Wang Yani, who was smiling as she spoke to Li Xinqu. Just from the happy smile on her face, He Xinyan knew that they were probably talking about Gu Kexin.

"Don't worry, Auntie Xu. I won't take her words to heart."

Xu Mengya placed her hand over He Xinyan's hand, "That's good."

The two of them spoke for a while longer, until there was suddenly the sound of a car engine turning off outside. Then, they heard the sound of high heels clicking against the stone ground.

Wang Yani immediately stood up from her chair with the help of Li Xinqu and walked around the table, "That child must be back!"

"Grandma!"

At once, a very sweet and bright sound came from outside the room. He Xinyan looked over and saw a tall and slim woman run in, straight for Wang Yani. She fell into Wang Yani's embrace and hugged her tightly.

"Oh, you child. You're finally back for your old grandma's birthday! Come, let me take a look at you. What have you been up to recently? I haven't seen you in so long." Wang Yani held onto Gu Kexin's hand tightly and pulled her over to the seat in the front.

Gu Kexin sat down next to her grandma, and a smile appeared on her beautiful face, "I was just a little busy. I'm here now, right grandma?"

When He Xinyan's eyes landed on Gu Kexin, she couldn't help but notice that Gu Kexin was very beautiful. It was the sweet type of beauty, but it was also very unique.

As He Xinyan's eyes landed on her, Gu Kexin's eyes also looked up, straight at He Xinyan.

Gu Kexin was wearing a white qipao with flowers embroidered over it, and it hugged her perfect body curves very well.

Coincidentally, He Xinyan had also chosen to wear a white qipao to the meeting today. Gu Yechen had told her that his grandma was a traditional person, so she chose a more traditional outfit.

Who would have thought that she would coincidentally wear a similar dress with Gu Kexin?!

Gu Kexin also noticed the similarity between their outfits, and her eyebrows furrowed together slightly.

Besides them, the other relatives in the room also realized the awkward situation.

Gu Zihao, Gu Yechen's third uncle's son, whispered lightly, "Sister Kexin and that woman's outfits look similar."

His sister also nodded her head, "They do. . . However, I think the woman brother Yechen brought looks better in the dress. If you look, not only does her face look better with the outfit, but the outfit also hugs the dress better."

Gu Zihao pursed her lips out, "I don't think so. I think sister Kexin looks better."

His sister rolled her eyes and stopped speaking with her brother.

Gu Kexin looked away from He Xinyan and her eyes landed on the man sitting next to her, "Brother Yechen is here!"

Gu Yechen didn't even seem to hear her as he casually lifted up the teacup in front of him and took a sip. Gu Kexin's smile stiffened slightly, and Wang Yani immediately noticed.

She pushed Gu Kexin slightly, "Xiner, go greet your brother."

Gu Kexin's smile returned as she stood up and walked over to where Gu Yechen was sitting, "Brother Yechen, I haven't seen you in a long time. I. . . I missed you!"

He Xinyan looked down slightly as she grinned. Indeed, the only road barrier here wasn't only Wang Yani. Another rock had just popped up!

Gu Yechen didn't even bother to look up as she turned to He Xinyan and frowned slightly, "Why are you grinning?"

He Xinyan also pretended not to notice that Gu Kexin had just spoken as she turned to face Gu Yechen, "Nothing! I'm not!"

Gu Yechen raised one eyebrow before smiling at her sweetly.

Gu Kexin's eyes immediately turned slightly red as she looked over at Wang Yani, asking for help. Wang Yani frowned angrily and glared at He Xinyan and Gu Yechen.

"It's okay, Xiner. You can go sit next to your sister Linglan." Gu Linglan was the older daughter of Gu Yechen's second uncle, and she immediately stood up and waved at Gu Kexin.

Gu Kexin pursed her lips out before reluctantly walking over to Gu Linglan.

Gu Linglan smiled sweetly at Gu Kexin, "Sister Kexin, you haven't been back for so long! I missed you so much!"

"Linglan, I missed you too," Gu Kexin's smile returned.

"Sister Kexin, you are pretty and have good manners. I like you the most!"

Gu Kexin smiled and looked over at Gu Yechen and He Xinyan, "Linglan, you are too sweet. I am not like Miss He, a daughter of a good family. I am just an orphan."

Gu Linglan smirked, "So what if you were born an orphan. Some rich family daughters might not even have as good of an upbringing as you! It doesn't matter, I like you!"

Gu Kexin blushed slightly as she smiled.

He Xinyan smiled slightly as she watched their performance. Is that Gu Linglan saying she doesn't have a good upbringing?

At this time, Gu Yechen stood up, pulling He Xinyan up with him.

"The air quality here isn't good, let's go back."
