Chapter 241 Wedding Planning (1)

After a very long night, He Xinyan returned home with Gu Yechen.

In the car, she asked him several questions, like:

"So Auntie Xu was helping you and she knew all along?"

"Yes."

"That is why you came home so late these past few days? You were preparing this?"

"Yes."

"This ring looks pretty. Where did you get it from?"

"I designed it myself -"

"What?!" He Xinyan's eyes lit up in surprise, and a second later, they were filled with a happy and sweet sparkle as she looked at the ring a little differently. He designed this especially for her. . . It was their wedding ring!

By the time they returned home, it was almost midnight already.

An hour later, they were on the bed, supposed to be asleep.

However, of course they both couldn't fall asleep. They just got engaged a few hours ago! Both of them were still too excited to even think about sleeping.

What would they do instead of sleeping at night?

Of course, it would be. . .

Talk!

*helemon's note: Hm! Hm! Don't be shy, don't be shy. Which of you had dirty thoughts when I asked that question? Be honest with me ^o^

They talked endlessly about the engagement ceremony that just took place and even went on to talk about plans for their wedding.

Of course, He Xinyan did most of the talking while Gu Ye Chen listened with a gentle smile on his face.

Maybe because she talked for too long, but He Xinyan slowly felt her eyelids get heavy and before long, she had fallen asleep.

However, Gu Ye Chen couldn't sleep that easily. He didn't feel any sense of fatigue as he stared at his fiancée's beautiful and cute face.

Her face was a little red, even in her sleep, and he guessed that she might still feel very excited about the events that had happened today.

He had spent the past few weeks planning this proposal out, a few months to finish designing the ring himself. Every detail, every event, every person.

In the end, the result was exactly what he wanted it to be like.

Most of all, he was glad that the person he did all of this for liked it. To be honest, he was still a little scared and nervous that she might not agree right away.

After all, he wasn't sure if she was ready for marriage yet. They rarely talked about this topic. Luckily, the heavens were helping him and she agreed, faster than he had expected.

Gu Ye Chen lifted his hand up, gently pushing the few strands of hair that had fallen back to behind her ear. Then, he rested his warm hand onto a side of her cheek, touching her so carefully it felt like if he used any force, she would break.

He Xinyan moaned softly in her sleep and instinctively reached one hand out of the blanket. Gu Ye Chen thought he had woken her up, and he immediately tried to pull his hand away.

However, before he could do so, He Xinyan's small hand grabbed onto his ring finger.

"Mm. . ." She moaned softly again, moving her head over closer to Gu Ye Chen. He looked down at his finger, which was inside the grasp of He Xinyan's hand.

He smiled softly, thinking that his baby was so cute.

However, he couldn't focus on that at the moment. He Xinyan's two soft moaning sounds had woken "someone" up, accidentally.

Gu Ye Chen took a deep breath as he closed his eyes. It's okay.

He was almost there! It won't be long until he will be able to do as he wished.

Gu Yechen licked his lips as he closed his eyes in an attempt to fall asleep. Several minutes later, he did.

For the entire next two months or so, everyone's energy would be on preparing for the grandest wedding of the century.

They had set the wedding date on the first day of spring because Xu Mengya had gone to find a fortune teller, and he had told her that the best date anytime soon was the first day of spring, which was about two months away.

However, two months was not much time to prepare for a wedding, especially a wedding of this size. It was the richest man in the country marrying! Of course, it had to be grand!

The fortune-teller had told Xu Mengya that the next "lucky day" to get married would be in the late summertime already, and no one wanted to wait that long until the marriage, especially Gu Yechen and He Xinyan.

So, even though no one trusted the fortune teller other than Xu Mengya, they still decided to go with the first day of spring option.

That meant they had a little under two months to plan and get everything ready.

Everyone was extremely busy during this time, and the busiest was. . . Chen Xiao!

Since Gu Yechen was busy planning for his wedding and spending time with his fiancée, of course all the other work went to his employees and most importantly, his assistant, Chen Xiao.

Everyone else was busy preparing for the wedding. . . He Xinyan, Gu Yechen, Xu Mengya, Gu Hanyu, Wu Minger, and many more.

About three weeks after Gu Kexin's death, Gu Yechen was able to find some way to get the actual murderer to admit his crimes.

The actual murderer was indeed the person Gu Yechen had guessed, a worker of Wang Yani. After Wang Yani's death, his plan was to run away, but Gu Yechen caught him right before he could.

Using Gu Yechen's methods, he was able to get the murderer to walk to the police station himself and tell the police everything he did.

Therefore, Gu Yechen's suspicion was completely washed away, and his trial was also canceled. The entire commotion was so big that the head officer of the police station even came out himself to apologize to Gu Yechen for the confusion caused.

Since that was over with, everyone's focus was on the wedding by now.

There were many things to plan.

Wedding location, outfits, food, guests, and so much more.

Although Gu Yechen took much more breaks than usual and came off of work earlier than most days, he still had to go to work to earn money for his "baby" and future baby.

Therefore, the heavy load was carried onto He Xinyan's shoulders. . . Well, not really.

Xu Mengya had basically moved into Gu Yechen's mansion as she came over every single day to help He Xinyan make decisions and look over all of the possibilities.

Since his wife was at his son's house all the time, this also meant that Gu Hanyu came over to visit almost every day.

However, most of the time, he would just sit in the corner drinking his tea and not speaking much.

Gu Yechen had specifically said that He Xinyan would be in charge of all the wedding plans.

In other words, whatever she wanted, they were going to have!

Chapter 242 Wedding Planning (2)

In a month, the guest list had been finalized and the invitations had all been created and sent out. A lot of people were invited to their grand wedding because Gu Yechen wanted many people to witness their marriage.

The chefs had also been invited and they were all extremely famous chefs from all around the world. The food choices have also been decided on, and it ended up being . . . everything, because He Xinyan wanted to try everything that was given as an option.

The priest has been invited, the bridesmaid and groomsmen chosen, the color scheme and flowers chosen, the rings bought, the dance decided on, the music chosen and performers invited.

The final things to be decided on were the most important: the location of the wedding and the wedding dress.

On this day about a month before the wedding, He Xinyan was going to try out the special wedding dresses that Qin Lai had designed for her. Wu Minger and Xu Mengya also went with her since she needed to try bridesmaid dresses as well.

Yes, you heard me right. Xu Mengya was also going to be a bridesmaid in addition to her role as the groom's mother.

Xu Mengya had successfully convinced her husband, her son, and He Xinyan to let her be a bridesmaid by saying how she has never had the opportunity to be a bridesmaid her entire life.

At first, they were all a little hesitant since she was the mother of the groom at the wedding, so it would be a little weird if she was also the bridesmaid.

However, in the end, He Xinyan agreed. She didn't have many female friends besides Wu Minger and it would be awkward if there was only one bridesmaid. Xu Mengya was also her best friend in addition to being her mother-in-law, so there was nothing wrong with her being the bridesmaid.

Of course, since He Xinyan agreed, Gu Yechen also said yes.

Therefore, Xu Mengya was able to get her request approved.

As for the groomsmen, the best man was obviously going to be Gu Yebei. Then, there was Qin Lai, Chen Xiao, and many other people that had attended He Xinyan's birthday party.

He Xinyan, Xu Mengya, and Wu Minger arrived in front of Qin Lai's shop, and he was waiting for them already in front of the door.

Qin Lai never designed wedding dresses before, and he didn't plan to. However, Gu Yechen was his boss and he was getting married! Of course, Qin Lai had to design the dress for his boss's wedding.

He Xinyan has always been a fan of Qin Lai's works, and she was more than happy to wear one of his dresses at her wedding.

It would definitely be one of the most famous wedding dresses ever created in history!

The four of them entered the studio and were led to the VIP section right away. Qin Lai first showed them the bridesmaid dresses.

He Xinyan had wanted the color theme of their wedding to be blue and white since her favorite color was sky blue. Therefore, the bridesmaid dresses were in a blue color that was a little darker than sky blue but lighter than navy blue.

They were very simple, with an off-shoulder design on the top and a simple A-line dress bottom.

Both Wu Minger and Xu Mengya went to try it out, and they were both very pleased with it. The wedding was going to be held in the late afternoon to the nighttime, so the sky will be most likely dark.

Although the dress looked very simple, when Qin Lai dimmed the lights, they started to sparkle. Where the sparkle was coming from, they didn't know.

Qin Lai also refused to tell them, saying that it was his business secret.

However, it looked like stars shining in the sky, making the dress a million times more beautiful than it already was.

Xu Mengya, even in her late 40s, looked absolutely young and gorgeous in the dress.

Standing next to Wu Minger, who was in her 20s, people would believe them if they said they were sisters.

There were a few adjustments to be made since Wu Minger was shorter than expected. However, besides that, the dress was perfect.

Next, it was time for the bride dress, the wedding dress, the most important and most beautiful dress He Xinyan was going to wear in her lifetime.

She was only going to get married once in her entire life, so she wanted to take this opportunity to look as beautiful as she possibly could be and dress like a princess.

She had spoken with Qin Lai over the phone and told him some details about how she wanted her dress to look like. He Xinyan had a basic image of the dress she wanted, but she just couldn't phrase the details out.

It was almost like she could imagine this absolutely gorgeous and perfect dress, but she didn't exactly know what it should look like.

So, she left it up to Qin Lai to design the final product and hoped that he understood her. And, He Xinyan trusted him. She liked all of his designs so she was certain that the wedding dress he designed for her would also be perfect.

The three of them sat down to talk while drinking some tea as Qin Lai disappeared into his "secret den" to fetch the dress.

"Ah!" A sound of a crash came from inside the room and then the sound of Qin Lai's voice, "Don't worry, don't worry! Nothing happened."

He Xinyan raised one eyebrow before setting the teacup down. As she stood up, the door opened and Qin Lai pushed a full-sized mannequin out of the room. It was on a stand that could be pushed by wheels, and he rolled it out to where they were sitting.

The mannequin was covered with what seemed like a glass dome, and there was a red velvet blanket covering the dome so they couldn't see what was inside.

Love you and have a great day ^o^

Chapter 243 Wedding Planning (3)

"I promise this is probably the best design I have ever made in my life. Ah, I wouldn't even want to give it away if it weren't for the fact that it was specially designed for my boss's wife."

Qin Lai put one hand over his chest like he was suffering severe pain from giving the dress away. This only made all of them more curious about how the dress looked like.

"Show me! Show me!" He Xinyan urged as she walked over to the display. However, before she could get close, Qin Lai immediately put both hands up, keeping her from getting near.

"This is a holy place, you shall not come near!" He said with a very dramatic voice, causing He Xinyan to frown.

"Oh, really?! Well, guess what. I will be wearing this dress later, so I will be getting as close to it as possible!"

Qin Lai's face scrunched up and he looked like he was about to cry as he sighed, "Ah, I am just a poor slave for Boss Gu. What shall I do?"

He Xinyan suppressed a laugh, "Okay, stop with your dramatic act. Show us."

Qin Lai grabbed onto the red cover and took a deep breath before closing his eyes helplessly, looking like he was about to face his death.

Then, he pulled the red cover off, revealing the dress inside the glass dome.

At once, gasps filled the room as everyone's eyes glued onto the beautiful piece of cloth.

He Xinyan couldn't help but step forward to the dress, placing one hand onto the glass longingly. This was exactly the dress of her dreams. . .

The wedding dress was in the typical ball gown style, and the chain of the dress was at least six feet in length.

It was an off-shoulder design, and the two extremely short sleeves seemed to be made of real white flowers when looking from far away, forming a wreath that was the sleeve. However, when looking closely, it was clear that the "flowers" were actually also made of cloth and embroidered into what seemed like real flowers.

The entire upper bodice of the dress was also filled with flower patterns and designs. It looked so real and it almost seemed like they were moving in the wind, but they weren't.

With all the flowers, it didn't make the dress look tacky at all, unlike most wedding gowns with a ton of flowers. Instead, it created an elegant and natural feeling unable to be found in any other dress.

The bodice was really short to make the wearer's legs look longer, and the dress puffed out around the waist, the flower pattern fading out into a solid white fabric.

The solid white color stayed all the way until around her knees, and the flowers reappeared all the way to the ground, reaching her toes. Next to the dress, there was also a pair of shoes.

They were high heels with heels about two and a half inches tall. Unlike most heels, this pair was made of glass. However, several diamonds were also glued on so it wasn't completely transparent.

"I want to try this on," He Xinyan said immediately, her mind still in a slight daze.

She walked into the changing room with Qin Lai following behind her, dragging the display along with him.

"Be careful!" This time, it was He Xinyan that spoke and Qin Lai blinked a few times in surprise. Um. . . Wasn't that supposed to be his line?!

A few minutes later, He Xinyan walked out in the wedding dress. For the entire past month, she had been on a diet. Although she was extremely frustrated and sad for the entire past month, she wasn't anymore.

Exercising and saying no to food did not go to waste! The dress hugged her upper body perfectly and it didn't feel tight or loose. Her arms and waist were definitely skinnier than before after all the painful exercise, but she didn't feel any pain anymore.

Due to the exercises, she looked like an angel in the white dress with her dainty arms and body.

If it was her body before, she would still look gorgeous since she was always skinny, but it definitely wouldn't have the angelic feeling she had now.

She slowly stepped back out to the waiting room to find Xu Mengya and Wu Minger talking. However, when she stepped out, all of the talking stopped as they both stood up.

The beautiful dress had just become beautiful-er. Yes, that isn't a word but it is now.

Since a real person was wearing it now, there was movement and the flowers on the bodice seemed to dance with each small action.

What was even more amazing, the flowers on the bottom of the dress experienced more movement when she walked, and it looked like she was walking on a beautiful floor of white flowers.

Coincidentally, the bouquet of flowers they had ordered was also white, with a few light blue flowers in the middle to accentuate the blue color scheme.

With the bouquet, the dress would definitely look even more beautiful.

"You look. . . gorgeous," Wu Minger exclaimed as Xu Mengya nodded her head furiously.

He Xinyan smiled and turned around. As she did so, Qin Lai dimmed the lights again.

At once, the dress lit up.

It wasn't like the sparkle the bridesmaid dresses had, but it was actually lit up. Like completely lit up. It reminded He Xinyan of Cinderella when she transformed. The dress was like the star galaxy, shining brightly in the darkness.

You couldn't see the flowers clearly anymore, but that couldn't even compare to this design. It wasn't part of He Xinyan's dream dress, because. . . well, it was even better!

"The dress is hollow inside so it doesn't feel heavy, right?" Qin Lai spoke up, explaining the "science" behind the dress.

He Xinyan nodded, staring at herself through the mirror in awe.

"It lights up because of LED lights and 30 battery packs. It took me two weeks to think of how to make that work," Qin Lai said proudly.

He Xinyan turned around, looking towards Qin Lai with tears in her eyes.

"Thank you, Qin Lai. I love this."

Qin Lai looked away awkwardly because he didn't know what to do when girls cried, but he couldn't hide the happy smile on his face. After all, all of his designs were like his babies. He treasured each and every one of them.

"I'm glad you like it."

Chapter 244 Wedding Planning (4)

The dresses were kept at Qin Lai's shop to make sure that they were well-protected and didn't get damaged, especially He Xinyan's wedding dress.

The three of them returned to Gu Yechen's mansion to continue the wedding plans. They still had a few more things to decide on, and the wedding was only a little over three weeks away.

Most importantly, they had to decide on a wedding location.

Church, beach, field, there were way too many options. They had looked through so many but weren't completely satisfied with any of them.

At night, He Xinyan and Gu Yechen laid down on the bed in each other's embrace, getting ready to go to sleep. In the darkness, He Xinyan still couldn't stop thinking about the dress she had worn today in Qin Lai's shop.

Gu Yechen hadn't gone with her because he had a very important meeting he had postponed for over a week already to plan for the wedding.

He had originally insisted on going and postponing the meeting more, but He Xinyan firmly said no.

"You have to make money for our wedding, my clothes, my bags, my food, our future baby's milk, his toys, his clothes, his education fee, and his future wedding! You can't just slack from work like this! Go work!" He Xinyan had firmly scolded him, and Gu Yechen finally decided to go to work because of her very . . . accurate reasoning.

Before going to sleep, He Xinyan had told Gu Yechen all about the dress and just how beautiful it was. In the end, Gu Yechen decided to give Qin Lai a pay raise, and He Xinyan had no objections.

He Xinyan played around with the button on Gu Yechen's silk pajamas and placed her arm around his waist, "Gu Yechen, where do you want our wedding location to be?"

"Wherever you want it to be," he responded.

He Xinyan was silent for a few seconds before she said softly, "I have an idea. . . But I don't know if it is possible."

"If you want to, anything is possible." Gu Yechen responded, encouraging He Xinyan to tell him her thoughts.

"How about an island? We can have our wedding on an island!"

He Xinyan said, looking up hopefully. However, Gu Yechen blinked a few times and didn't respond for several seconds. She thought that he didn't want to or thought it was too extravagant, and she pressed her lips together before looking down, "Never mind. Forget about that."

Seeing her disappointment, Gu Yechen finally recovered from his stupor, "No, no! Yes, we can do it there!"

He Xinyan thought he was only saying it because he wanted to make her happy, and she shook her head with a small smile.

"It's okay, forget about that. Where do you want the wedding to be at?" She didn't want to be selfish enough to have their wedding in a place only she liked and he didn't like. It was their wedding after all, the two of them!

Gu Yechen knew she had misunderstood his moment of silence, and he quickly grabbed onto her hand, "No, I want it to be on an island. That is a great idea. I didn't respond immediately because I had expected you to maybe say something like going to space or under the sea. So, I was really surprised when you merely said an island."

He Xinyan raised one eyebrow in surprise. Outer space, under the sea?! That was possible?! Okay, He Xinyan apologizes for forgetting about the type of person Gu Yechen was.

Even if she had said outer space or under the sea, he would probably agree. After all, he had the power and money to do that.

However, she still liked the idea of an island. Near the ocean, on their own private land. . . A wedding there would be really romantic.

"Oh. . . so you are fine with it?"

"I love your idea," Gu Yechen responded, kissing her on the forehead.

He Xinyan's happy smile returned, "Okay! I will tell Auntie Xu about it tomorrow!"

The next morning, Xu Mengya arrived at the house to see a very excited He Xinyan waiting for her in the doorway.

"Auntie Xu!" He Xinyan immediately ran over excitedly, grabbing onto both of Xu Mengya's hands and pulling her into the room.

"I have decided on where the wedding will be held!"

Xu Mengya's eyes widened, "Where?! Where?!" He Xinyan has been indecisive about the location for the past few weeks already, and they were all getting a little impatient and anxious. So, she was extremely excited to finally hear that He Xinyan has decided.

He Xinyan smiled sweetly, "On an island! I talked with Yechen already, and he said he will look for an island."

Xu Mengya's eyes sparkled with excitement, "An island?!" She clapped her hands together, "That is a great idea! How come you never told me about it?"

He Xinyan scratched her head, "I thought it would be a little too extravagant and maybe expensive. . . So, I didn't talk to you about it."

Xu Mengya's mouth fell open and she rolled her eyes, "Xinyan, you must be spending too much time with my stupid son that you are becoming like him now! Extravagant?! Expensive?! You can go to outer space to hold the wedding and it wouldn't be too extravagant!"

He Xinyan chuckled slightly as she listened to Xu Mengya speak dramatically.

"I know that my son isn't exactly the perfect man, but he is still Gu Yechen." Xu Mengya's eyes sparkled as she spoke about her son, "He is the richest and most powerful man in the country! So, have the most extravagant wedding you want! Show everyone that you are the wife of the richest man!"

He Xinyan laughed happily hearing Xu Mengya speak, "Okay, Auntie Xu."

Xu Mengya cleared her throat and said a little sourly, "Why are you still calling me Auntie Xu?"

He Xinyan raised one eyebrow before sweetly saying, "Okay, mother-in-law!"

--- Three days later

He Xinyan followed Gu Yechen to work together because they were going to go practice the dance they were going to do together during the wedding right after he got off of work.

She sat on the couch scrolling through wedding pictures with a happy smile on her face.

"Wifey." Gu Yechen suddenly called her, using his very new nickname for He Xinyan.

She looked up and closed her phone, walking over to his desk, "What?"

Gu Yechen pushed his chair back slightly and wrapped his arm around He Xinyan's waist, pulling her down onto his lap. He then pushed his chair back in so He Xinyan was sitting on his lap, facing the computer.

He Xinyan looked over at the screen and blinked a few times. She had expected to see a document filled with words or something related to work, but that was not what she saw.

Instead, there were several pictures of an island on his screen, and his cursor was on the first one. Gu Yechen clicked in as he wrapped his left arm around her waist, pulling her closer to him.

However, that was a very dangerous move. As He Xinyan was pulled closer to Gu Yechen's body, she suddenly felt her bottom and lower back touch something around the area of his pelvis.

Something dangerous, something where it shouldn't be, something that felt unusually. . . large.

He Xinyan looked back slightly anxiously but saw that Gu Yechen didn't seem to have noticed. His eyes were still on the computer screen as he looked at the first image.

She took a deep breath and tried to remain calm. As long as he didn't know, everything was okay. But how was that possible? He couldn't feel it?

Her body tensed up as she tried to stay as still as a statue, looking forward at the bright computer screen. The item wasn't even awake yet, but why did it feel so large against her skin.

He Xinyan began to feel a little scared for herself. . . They were about to get married, which meant they were also about to. . . Gu Yechen had told her she needed to pay for all the nights he "suffered". . .

She had to pay her debt sooner or later.

He Xinyan gulped as she tried to move slightly, but Gu Yechen's arm was tightly wrapped around her waist. She didn't want to make the situation known to Gu Yechen, so she decided to just try and stay as still as possible.

She looked up at the computer screen and heard Gu Yechen say, "How do you like this island?"

He Xinyan focused on the images he was showing her, and she slowly got more and more excited. The pictures were obviously taken during summertime, because the sun was shining very brightly.

"Yes, yes! This looks gorgeous!"

The next picture showed a building made of glass on all four walls and the ceiling. Gu Yechen paused on this picture and looked at He Xinyan from behind, "We can hold the wedding ceremony here."

He Xinyan nodded her head excitedly, "Look at those flowers outside the building! It will be so beautiful!"

She took the mouse from Gu Yechen and began looking through the images herself. She got more and more excited until she reached the final image, which was a picture taken from the sky, showing the entire island.

She excitedly turned around, completely forgetting about the fact that her body position was in a very awkward situation.

"Darling, what island is this? Can we hold our wedding here?"

Gu Yechen grinned slightly, "This island doesn't have a name yet, because it is your island now. I bought it."

". . . What?!"

Chapter 245 Wedding Planning (5)

Gu Yecheen grinned slightly, "This island doesn't have a name yet, because it is your island now. I bought it."

". . . What?!" He Xinyan almost slid off of Gu Yecheen's lap when she heard this. She had asked him to just find an island and rent a small piece of land for them to hold the wedding, not buy a whole island!

How much would this have cost?! It seems like Auntie Xu was right. . . Their wedding was indeed going to be extremely extravagant.

Gu Yecheen licked his lips as his eyes fell down slightly, looking at where He Xinyan was sitting and his upper thighs.

Of course he had realized. . . He was just staying silent. He was very patient. He had waited for this long already, a few more days won't matter.

He Xinyan quickly looked through the island pictures again, "You bought this island?! This huge island?! For our wedding?! How much did it cost?!"

Gu Yecheen smiled, "Not much. I'm glad you liked it." He kissed her on the cheek and couldn't help but notice that there didn't seem to be as much fat on it as before.

He frowned, "Once our wedding is over, you are going back to your original eating habits, understand?"

He Xinyan nodded her head immediately, "Of course! I'm so sick of this diet! I already saved a ton of restaurants I want to go eat after the wedding. I am going to gain all of my weight back and more!"

He Xinyan's eyes lit up at the topic of food, and she rubbed her flat stomach.

Gu Yecheen chuckled, "Okay."

"You can't dislike me if I get fat! It will be too late anyway since we will be married." He Xinyan smiled sinisterly, "If I get fat and you want to divorce me, I will go find Auntie Xu and have her chop your legs off!"

Gu Yecheen didn't get mad at all from her threatening, but instead smiled happily, "You won't have to worry. You can get fat and ugly and I will still like you."

"Ch!" He Xinyan rolled her eyes, "I would be dumb to believe you. I swear, if I do actually get fat and ugly, you won't like me anymore. Liar!"

Gu Yechen pinched He Xinyan's nose gently, "You can try it? Let's see if I am right or you are right?"

He Xinyan pushed his hand away and lifted her hand up, pinching his nose, "I am definitely right! Don't lie to me and say that you didn't fall in love with my appearance when you first saw me."

Gu Yechen thought back to when he first saw her and indeed. . . He had to admit that the first thing that attracted him was indeed her outer appearance. However, now it has changed. Now, he liked his outer appearance, but also who she was inside and just. . . He Xinyan in general.

He Xinyan smiled proudly, seeing that he had no response, "I know, I know. I am very pretty!"

She flipped her hair, causing Gu Yechen to remember when they first met. To convince him that he had made the right decision to pick her as his girlfriend, she had given three reasons:

"I am very pretty."

"I am truly very pretty."

"I am truly extremely pretty!"

Although the times have changed and her looks have also changed slightly, the heart inside never changes. Gu Yechen sweetly patted her on the head before lifting her off of the chair, carrying her by her two legs.

"I'm done with work. Let's go practice the dance!"

He Xinyan nodded her head excitedly, "Wait, so about the island. . . When are we going to go visit it? If it is ours, is it completely private then? Will we be the only people on there during the wedding?"

Gu Yechen bent down to pick up He Xinyan's handbag from the couch, "We can go visit it whenever you want. It is about 40 miles from the beach, and the ferry ride will take a little over an hour. It is completely private. The island is under your name, so you can come up with a name for it."

He Xinyan thought for a few seconds, "Let's call it Yanchen Island!"

Gu Yechen quickly figured out the meaning behind the name, and he nodded his head with a smile, "Okay!"

The two of them left the company way before all the other employees did, and He Xinyan couldn't help but think that the big boss Gu Yechen seemed to have an even easier job than his employees did!

However, she didn't complain. She liked spending more time with him preparing the wedding together.

They drove to the dance studio where they were going to practice, and entered the building hand in hand. Once they entered, they were met with the manager of the studio and the dance teacher they were learning under, the best teacher in the studio and in the country.

The teacher was a woman around her 40s, but even so, she was extremely elegant and poised and had an amazing body.

He Xinyan was always envious when she saw the teacher, and she dreamed and hoped that she would still look as elegant and slim as the teacher in her later years.

They followed the manager and the teacher into the practice room and sat down together to change to more comfortable dancing shoes.

After putting on his shoes, Gu Yechen then leaned forward to help He Xinyan put on her shoes.

As he did so, He Xinyan suddenly remembered something.

"Gu Yechen, you never told me!" She exclaimed.

"What?"

"That day, you played the piano. When did you learn how to play the piano?!" She had asked him once the night after they returned from the beach, but he told her he would tell her the next morning because it was very late already.

However, for the past month, He Xinyan was so busy and excited with preparing for the wedding she had completely forgotten about this subject!

Gu Yechen chuckled softly, "You still remember?"

"Yes! Tell me now!"

The teacher had gone to get the CD for the music so they still had some time.

Gu Yechen looked up at He Xinyan with a soft smile, "I learned when I was a little kid for a while, however, I hadn't played it for a long time. I started practicing again a few months ago."

He Xinyan's mouth fell open in surprise, "I never knew you learned piano when you were a kid! Wait, so you have been preparing for the proposal for several months already?"

Gu Yechen nodded his head and the teacher walked back in. The two of them stood up and the lesson began.

They were doing the classic waltz during their wedding after the ceremony and they had planned a few lessons before the wedding.

Since both of them came from upper class families, they both knew how to do the simple waltz. However, there were still some special moves He Xinyan wanted to add during the dance to make it look more beautiful, so they had to practice and learn a few things.

They also had to learn the routine to go with the song that was going to be played.

"Let's see what you remember from the next class." The teacher began the music and the practice began.

Gu Yechen placed his hand on He Xinyan's waist and her on his shoulder, and the dance began. Without any heels on, He Xinyan had a perfect view of Gu Yechen's chest as they danced.

They danced to the beat of the music and once they finished, they began learning the next part of the dance. The teacher was indeed very experienced and great at dancing herself, and the two of them learned quickly.

In the car, He Xinyan seemed to be deep in thought about something.

"What do you want to eat for dinner?" Gu Yechen asked.

"I want to eat your cooking. I haven't eaten it in a long time!" They have both been very busy and Gu Yechen didn't cook very often in the past month. Since Gu Hanyu and Xu Mengya were at their house most of the time, Gu Hanyu cooked.

"Okay, wifey."

They drove for a while in silence before Gu Yechen finally asked, "What are you thinking about?"

He Xinyan pressed her lips together and turned around, facing Gu Yechen, who kept his eyes on the road.

"We are both very good at dancing," she exclaimed.

Gu Ye Chen chuckled, "We are both coordinated and quick at learning." He wouldn't say they were good, they were just decent.

He Xinyan nodded her head, "I am beautiful and smart, you are handsome and smart and rich and powerful and basically good at everything, like cooking, playing the piano, business stuff, and even dancing!"

Gu Ye Chen smiled proudly upon hearing He Xinyan compliment him like this. Every man would feel good if the woman they loved said good things about them.

"You are more than just beautiful and smart," he said, his voice deeper than earlier.

Chapter 246 The Island

"You are more than just beautiful and smart," he said, his voice deeper than earlier.

He Xinyan clicked her tongue with a sweet smile on her face and gently slapped Gu Ye Chen on the arm as a sign of embarrassment, "That's not my point. . . Although that is quite true."

She brushed her hair to the back of her ear proudly and went back to the main topic, "What I am saying is that, we are such perfect parents! If we have a kid. . . and he gets all of our great genes. . . and he is born into a rich and powerful family like ours. . . Oh my!"

He Xinyan put one hand up to her mouth dramatically, "Our child will really be the prince of the world! He will be tall, handsome, smart, powerful, rich, good at cooking, good at piano, good at dance, and so much more!"

He Xinyan turned to look at Gu Ye Chen, shaking his arm, "Gu Ye Chen, as the parents of our perfect kid, we have to be careful. I am certain that my baby boy will definitely have a ton of admirers and girls that like him and want to chase him. However, not all girls are as amazing and pure as me. We have to keep an eye out and make sure our kid doesn't fall in the wrong trap!"

He Xinyan nodded her head as she spoke, not forgetting to compliment herself as she talked about her "future kid".

*helemon's note: Pay attention to the gender pronoun our Yanyan is using when talking about her child ^o^

He Xinyan's face was filled with excitement as she spoke about her "to-be-perfect child", and she didn't notice that a frown had formed on Gu Ye Chen's face.

Throughout the entire ride home, He Xinyan was lost in her amazing thoughts about just how amazing her child with Gu Ye Chen was going to be.

At the same time, several thoughts also ran through Gu Yechen's head. . . Some maybe a little sour thoughts. . .

They returned home and Gu Yechen immediately entered the kitchen to cook dinner.

They ate dinner together, talking about the wedding and many more. After dinner, they went upstairs and fell asleep.

--- A week later

Gu Yechen took a short break from work for wedding planning. . . again.

This time, Gu Yechen, He Xinyan, Xu Mengya, and Gu Hanyu went to the island Gu Yechen had bought to go check it out and also prepare for the wedding.

They had decided already to hold the wedding and the glass building located at the center of the island, but they still had to set it up.

The building was originally supposed to be a glass greenhouse, but there were no plants inside it. However, it was large enough to hold a wedding, and it was extremely gorgeous in the open sunlight with several plants and flowers surrounding it outside.

The boat ride over to the island took a little over an hour, and the guests on the wedding date were going to ride a cruise over to the island and stay for the entire day before riding back.

The four of them arrived at the island and they got off, immediately following the guide who had sold Gu Yechen the island over to the building for the wedding.

The building was huge, the size of a church, and several tents were going to be set up around it for preparation to do the bride and groom's makeup during the wedding and more.

Gu Yechen had sent several workers over onto the island already to prepare, and the building had several benches placed already for the guests to sit on.

On the sides, there were several tall vases that were going to hold flowers.

In the front, the decorations were also prepared, with places that were going to be filled with flowers and the podium for the priest to speak.

"It's so beautiful," He Xinyan exclaimed as she sat down on the bench at the very front, looking around. The best thing about the glass building was that you were able to look outside and see the beautiful plants and weather that wouldn't be possible in an enclosed building.

Gu Yechen sat down next to her and wrapped his arm around her shoulder. He Xinyan leaned her head against his shoulder, smiling happily.

She was getting married. . .

24 years on this world and she was finally getting married. . . Married to the man she loved the most.

He Xinyan's smile widened as she looked around, unable to believe what was happening. She was getting married! Marriage was probably one of the most important things to both a woman and a man.

It was a promise. . . an eternal promise.

She looked behind to see Xu Mengya also looking around the building with Gu Hanyu following behind her.

Xu Mengya was also really amazed with this location, as she didn't know that Gu Yechen had bought a private island for the wedding until a few days ago.

"Over there, move that to the right a little. It doesn't look symmetrical right now," Xu Mengya said to a worker as she pointed to a vase on the side.

The worker nodded and did as Xu Mengya told him to for several tries until Xu Mengya was satisfied.

As she did so, He Xinyan watched from the bench with a mixed expression that was grateful, happy, gentle, longing, and even a little jealous all at once.

Although Xu Mengya treated her like her own daughter and He Xinyan was very grateful to have a mother-in-law like Xu Mengya, she still couldn't help but miss her own biological mother.

She didn't miss Bai Jiawei, but she did miss her father. . . a fatherly figure that would walk her down the aisle during the wedding ceremony and give his daughter's hand over to the man she would marry.

However, she didn't have that. And the motherly figure in her life was also gone. As a child, she also missed and loved her parents.

However, the heavens were fair. Her biological parents were both taken away from her, but she got such amazing in-laws and a perfect husband.

One cannot be too greedy! She should be happy with what she has already.

He Xinyan smiled and pulled Gu Yeichen up from the bench, "Let's go walk around!"

Gu Yeichen nodded his head and the two of them left the building, walking around the island.

The island wasn't extremely tropical, although it was filled with trees and greenery. It had been developed before Gu Yeichen bought it, and there were several buildings that were mainly empty.

Together, they walked down a trail that led into a tropical zone with many trees and colorful plants.

"This island is so beautiful. . ." He Xinyan didn't even know that an island like this was located a few miles away from Country Z.

"We can come here for vacation often. It is yours now."

He Xinyan smiled and wrapped her arm tightly around Gu Yeichen's elbow, "I love you so much, baby Chenchen!"

Gu Yeichen raised one eyebrow as he stopped walking and turned around, hugging her, "Why so suddenly?"

"It's not sudden! I always loved you," He Xinyan said, a little angrily as she looked up at Gu Yeichen.

Gu Yeichen chuckled, "Is it because I bought you an island?"

"Not only that. . ." He Xinyan hugged Gu Yeichen tightly, feeling his strong and lean waist and back, "You treat me so well. What am I going to do without you?"

He Xinyan suddenly looked up seriously, "You can't die earlier than me, understand? I have to die before you!"

Gu Yeichen's smile disappeared, "If that's the case, then I hope we can die together. If you die before me and leave me alone, I would rather die too. Understand?"

He Xinyan nodded her head, because she felt the exact same way.

They walked for several minutes before they made their way back to the building, because they still had to go look at the restaurant they were going to hold the wedding dinner in.

The four of them rode this cart from the building over to this large building that was lit up, and two rows of people stood outside the door.

"President Gu, Mrs. Gu," they all bowed down when the cart arrived.

The four of them entered the building and He Xinyan noticed that it was designed like a hotel, except that no one would be staying inside it.

They walked to the left of the first floor, where the huge ballroom was located.

When they walked in, He Xinyan saw that all of the tables and chairs were set up already, and the utensils and other decorations would be set up by the workers a day before the actual wedding.

There were several tables but in the center, there were no tables set up.

"Is this where the dance will be?" He Xinyan asked, receiving a nod from Gu Yechen.

They stayed in the restaurant for a while as well, and even stayed for lunch to try out the menu that would be served during the wedding.

"This is so good!" He Xinyan exclaimed even though she had tried it before already. The chefs were the best in the world, and there were 5 different main chefs that would be cooking all the courses of the meal.

"We should charge our guests," He Xinyan said jokingly. It would be very very expensive to eat a meal cooked by these chefs!

After a long day hanging around on the island, they returned to the mainland.

He Xinyan was very tired although they didn't even do much, and she was sleepy as she ate dinner with Gu Yechen and their parents.

Then, Xu Mengya and Gu Hanyu returned home, and the two of them went upstairs, getting ready to go to sleep.

However, when they entered the room, He Xinyan stopped.

Gu Yechen turned around, "Let's go get ready for bed."

"Not yet." He Xinyan stepped forward and looked up, wrapping her arms around Gu Yechen's neck. He thought she was going to kiss him, and he was ready to return it.

However, his guess was wrong.

He Xinyan smiled and said, "Let's go get registered and get our marriage license!"

Chapter 247 Legally Married

He Xinyan smiled and said, "Let's go get registered and get our marriage license!"

Gu Yechen's mouth fell open in surprise, not expecting to hear that from He Xinyan.

Although they were engaged already and were going to hold their wedding soon, the two of them still haven't gone to the county's Recorder Department and registered for marriage yet.

So, technically they weren't husband and wife yet.

They had planned to do it after the wedding ceremony since they were both quite busy at the moment, so Gu Yechen wasn't sure why He Xinyan suddenly changed her mind.

"Right now?"

He Xinyan nodded her head.

"Why?" Gu Yechen raised one eyebrow.

"Why? You don't want to," He Xinyan crossed her arms together.

Gu Yechen immediately grabbed onto her arm and turned around, "Let's go."

And so, the two of them left the house once again and entered Gu Yechen's car. The county Recorder Department where all registration for marriages took place wasn't open at this time already, but. . .

Gu Yechen was Gu Yechen.

Half past 9 P.M. in the night, the Recorder Department opened once again just for one couple wanting to get married.

They walked into the building and He Xinyan quickly disappeared into the restroom for a few minutes to put some makeup on.

This was going to be her wedding photo! This photo would stay on her wedding certificate for the rest of her life! Of course she had to look nice.

It took several minutes before He Xinyan finally stepped out of the restroom, still brushing out her hair with her fingers.

Gu Ye Chen smiled gently when he saw her, and he grabbed onto her hand, "You look beautiful. Come on, let's go take the picture."

He didn't know why she suddenly wanted to get their marriage registered, but she was more than happy to do so! After tonight, they would be legally husband and wife!

They entered the room where the picture would be taken and the photographer took several pictures. Together, they decided on the best one.

The manager helped them create the license, and it was finished in a few minutes.

Two.

One in He Xinyan's hand, the other in Gu Ye Chen's hand.

He Xinyan held the little red booklet up into the night sky, the street lamps shining on it, illuminating their picture.

Gu Ye Chen was wearing his usual black suit and He Xinyan was wearing a white dress she had worn the entire day.

He Xinyan was smiling brightly, and Gu Ye Chen. . . Well, to be fair, it was the biggest smile He Xinyan has ever seen on his face since their first meeting.

"Ah, I should have washed my hair! It looks so oily!" He Xinyan complained as she stared at the picture, rubbing it with her finger.

Gu Ye Chen smiled and kissed He Xinyan's head, "My wife looks beautiful no matter what."

He Xinyan smiled and closed the booklet, turning around to face Gu Ye Chen. She lifted her heels off of the ground but still couldn't reach his forehead, so she kissed his cheek.

"And my husband looks handsome no matter what."

--- The Big Day

Before long, it was the day of the wedding ceremony.

Everything was prepared, and the only thing missing now was the actual ceremony to happen!

Early in the morning, everyone boarded the cruise ship to sail to the island.

The last night, He Xinyan, Gu Ye Chen, Xu Mengya, Gu Hanyu, Gu Yebei, and Wu Minger had slept on the cruise ship already, waiting for the next day.

Gu Yechen had privately booked the large ship, and it was very luxurious. The food was very delicious and all of the guests were able to eat on it during the one-hour trip to the island.

The rooms were also very large and comfortable.

He Xinyan slept in one room with Wu Minger the night before the wedding, and they talked endlessly about many topics.

He Xinyan has decided to not meet Gu Yechen the entire day until the wedding tomorrow. She heard that this was a custom for couples to not see each other before marriage, and she decided to do the same!

While He Xinyan was having fun talking with her girl friend, Gu Yechen was suffering alone inside his own room.

It had been so long since he last slept alone, and it felt so different and . . . uncomfortable. It was only one night, but he already longed for He Xinyan's body smell as they slept together, the softness inside his arms, the sound of her breathing, and the warm feeling of her breathing against his chest.

Gu Yechen couldn't fall asleep for the longest time, and he tried several methods. In the end, he hugged onto a pillow and slowly fell asleep because it was too late and he had to get ready for the wedding tomorrow.

As the guests enjoyed their time on the cruise, He Xinyan and Gu Yechen were already getting ready.

The dress was also on the cruise and Qin Lai was checking for all final alterations and making sure that it could light up. He Xinyan was going to change into a dress on the island just to be careful.

The makeup artist helped do He Xinyan's makeup, and it almost took up the entire hour of the boat ride. When they arrived, all of the guests filed off of the boat and entered several cars that would drive them over to the glass building.

In the end, He Xinyan entered the car and drove with Wu Minger and Xu Mengya over to the wedding location, and Gu Yechen, Gu Yebei, Gu Hanyu, and the other groomsmen were the very last to leave the cruise.

They arrived at the building and He Xinyan immediately changed into the dress. Even though she had worn it already before, she was still very surprised at just how beautiful the dress looked on her body.

She took a deep breath and felt her heartbeat quicken. She lifted both hands up to her chest and felt her heartbeat against her chest, making her feel both excited and nervous.

Qin Lai then helped He Xinyan do her hair since he was also skilled in that area, and he knew just how he wanted the hairstyle to be to match the dress.

When he finished, he put the tiara onto her head just as Xu Mengya and Wu Minger walked into the tent.

He Xinyan turned around, facing Xu Mengya and Wu Minger, and they gasped in surprise.

"Oh, Yanyan - daughter, you look beautiful!" Xu Mengya exclaimed and Wu Minger nodded her head in agreement.

Xu Mengya knew that He Xinyan and Gu Yechen had gotten registered already, so she began calling He Xinyan 'daughter'.

"Is the wedding starting soon?" He Xinyan asked, her voice a little shaky from nervousness.

Wu Minger noticed it and she patted He Xinyan on the shoulders, "Soon, in a few minutes. Relax!"

He Xinyan smiled and winked at Wu Minger, "When am I going to receive your wedding invitation?"

Xu Mengya also looked over at Wu Minger eagerly. Her older son was set now, and all she had to worry about was her younger son! When was he going to get married?

"Yes, Minger. You and Yebei also have to hurry up! It is better to give birth earlier because your body may get more sensitive as you get older!" Xu Mengya said, although she wasn't sure if what she was saying was true either.

"Auntie Xu, how are you talking about giving birth already?" Wu Minger said with a blush, "Don't talk about me now. Today is Yanyan's wedding!"

They continued to talk for a while until a woman worker stepped into the tent, "Mrs. Gu, the wedding is beginning. Please make your way to the door."

He Xinyan was a little less nervous after talking to Xu Mengya and Wu Minger, but after hearing that the wedding was starting, she suddenly began to shake again.

It originally didn't feel so cold since it was almost springtime, but He Xinyan suddenly felt that it was so cold as goosebumps ran down her arms.

Xu Mengya gently patted He Xinyan on the shoulder, "Relax, daughter! The wedding is going to be fun! You should enjoy it since it will only happen once in your entire life."

He Xinyan nodded her head.

Xu Mengya and Wu Minger stood up to go get into their bridesmaid positions, and He Xinyan also walked out from behind the tent. She couldn't let the guests and Gu Ye Chen see her!

With Qin Lai and other workers' help, they made their way to the entrance of the building. The door was blocked by a white blanket so she couldn't see inside and the people inside couldn't see her either.

Since her father was. . . she would be walking down the aisle alone. He Xinyan was originally a little sad about having to walk alone, but she wasn't anymore.

She wasn't alone. Her mother and grandfather were all watching her from above, and they would be walking down the aisle with her.

She took a deep breath and grasped onto the flower bouquet tighter.

With a happy smile on her face, He Xinyan stepped forward and nodded towards the two workers holding onto both handles of the door.

Receiving her signal, the two workers simultaneously pulled the door open.

At once, everyone looked her way.

Chapter 248 The Wedding

Note: Helemon's music recommendation to listen to while reading this chapter:

Bridal Chorus by Wagner, also known as Here Comes the Bride

Receiving her signal, the two workers simultaneously pulled the door open.

At once, everyone looked her way, including the man standing at the very front of the room in his black and white tuxedo.

Several gasps filled the room as people stared in awe at He Xinyan, who was even more gorgeous than ever. Her hair was put up into an elegant bun, and there were several diamonds embedded into her black hair, sparkling in the sunlight.

In the center, there was a tiara, elegantly resting on her head.

However, the spotlight was still on her dress. Qin Lai stood as the groomsmen, and he smiled proudly upon seeing his dress perform so amazingly.

The lights on the dress weren't turned on yet since the sun was still out, and it wouldn't be as astonishing in the sunlight.

He Xinyan smiled brightly and slowly stepped forward one foot at a time, the flowers on her dress dancing with each movement.

As she smiled, Gu Ye Chen also did the same. At this time, they were the two happiest people in this entire world.

Although she looked very calm as she walked slowly down the aisle with Wagner's Bridal Chorus playing by the live musicians, her palms were sweating as she grasped on tightly to the flower bouquet.

Several pairs of eyes followed her as she walked, one step at a time, towards the man that she would spend the rest of her life with.

27 steps. . . She counted.

He Xinyan came to a stop in front of Gu Ye Chen, turning around to face him. Xu Mengya and Wu Minger helped her arrange her long dress, and Gu Hanyu grinned as he watched his wife stand up there with his daughter-in-law.

The priest began reading off of his script, but He Xinyan couldn't hear a single word. All she could hear was a buzzing noise in her ears.

"Do you, He Xinyan, take this man to be your wedded husband?"

He Xinyan heard the priest say. Her eyes widened slightly in surprise. He had asked Gu Ye Chen already? She looked up to see Gu Ye Chen smiling at her with a sweet and gentle smile.

Without thinking, she said, "I do."

Then, they made their wedding vows. All of this time, He Xinyan's mind was blank as the only thing she could see was Gu Ye Chen smiling happier than she had ever seen him.

"May I have the rings, please?"

Xu Mengya carried out the two rings on a velvet pillow. Gu Ye Chen picked it up and gently slipped it onto He Xinyan's ring finger, the diamond sparkling under the sunlight.

Xu Mengya stared happily at the ring, and then looked up proudly at her son. Finally! Now, all she has to do is wait for her little grandchild.

He Xinyan then picked up the male ring and slipped it onto Gu Ye Chen's finger. She was about to let go, but Gu Ye Chen grabbed onto her hand, refusing to let go.

He Xinyan stared at him and tried to pull her arm away, but she only received a smile from Gu Ye Chen, who didn't let go.

The priest looked at them for a few seconds before he cleared his throat and continued, "By the power of your love and commitment, and the power vested in me, I now pronounce you husband and wife!"

He turned to Gu Ye Chen, "You may now kiss the bride!"

Without waiting for another second, Gu Ye Chen took a step forward and pulled He Xinyan into his embrace, bending down slightly and kissing her on the lips.

This kiss was gentle and forceful at the same time, and He Xinyan, who was already slightly out of breath, found it hard to breathe.

Qin Lai's eyes widened as he took a step forward, "The dress!"

Gu Ye Chen had one arm around He Xinyan's waist, and his toes had accidentally stepped onto the edge of the dress.

However, Gu Yebei immediately pulled Qin Lai back and glared at him. Qin Lai frowned before looking down to stop himself from seeing the horrendous sight again.

The guests all began clapping in excitement, and Wu Minger began crying in the back from watching the emotional scene.

Oh, how she still remembered when He Xinyan had first told her that his boyfriend was Gu Ye Chen! She didn't even believe her!

'So, what do you want?'

'I want you. Let's make a deal. You become my girlfriend and you can ask for anything in return.'

'Anything?' He Xinyan had repeated.

Gu Ye Chen had nodded his head and said, 'Anything.'

'How long would this deal last?'

'However long I feel like.'

'And. . . that is about how long?'

'Forever.'

And, forever was indeed forever. Gu Ye Chen has kept every promise to He Xinyan since the first time they met. And now, marriage has bound them together. . . A promise that would last forever.

Gu Ye Chen and He Xinyan left together, and the guests followed right after. They were going to go to the restaurant to eat.

Before eating, Gu Ye Chen and He Xinyan thanked the guests for coming and they had to perform their dance they had been preparing for.

He Xinyan and Gu Ye Chen made their way over to the middle of the large room and He Xinyan placed her hand onto his shoulder, getting ready for the music to begin.

In the room, the lights were very dim, and the room was mainly lit up by the candles on the tables.

The music began and the two of them also began dancing. At the beginning of the dance, all of the guests watched the beautiful sight without much excitement.

However, soon, the climax of the music and the dance came. He Xinyan took a step out for a turn, and as she did so, the dress suddenly lit up, from the bottom up to the top.

Everyone in the room gasped and some even stood up to make sure they weren't seeing things. The dress had lit up!

The fact that it lit up in the middle of a turn only made it more beautiful and magical.

"Wow. . ." Several people exclaimed as they watched the dance continue in awe. Standing on the side of the room, Qin Lai also smiled satisfactorily, putting away the remote he had used to light up the dress.

Xu Mengya clapped her hands together excitedly as she watched the dance, swaying her body slightly herself as she watched them.

The dance finished with the dip dance move, and He Xinyan fell back into Gu Yechen's arm. The music finished and He Xinyan was about to push herself up when Gu Yechen suddenly bent down and kissed her on the lips again.

She gasped in surprise and heard the room break into gasps, cheers, and applause.

When Gu Yechen finally let go, she helplessly hit him on the chest, "Gu Yechen!"

"Yes, Mrs. Gu?"

He Xinyan blushed and smiled as she walked off the dance floor, sitting down in her seat.

Dinner began!

After everyone had eaten dinner, the exciting wedding ceremony was finished. All of the guests boarded the cruise once again and enjoyed their last 1 hour of fun before they returned back to their normal lives.

He Xinyan and Gu Yechen also returned to their house near the beach, getting ready to spend their first night together as a married couple.

*helemon's note: Hm?! Hm?! Raise your hand, come on, don't be shy! Which of you had dirty thoughts after reading that last line?! You can't hide it from me mwahaha! I know you did ^o^

--- Country X

In the palace, Yi Qiansi was elegantly enjoying his dinner. His right hand held the knife and his left hand the fork as he cut the medium rare piece of steak up into five pieces.

There was suddenly a knock at the door and a man walked in with a file folder in his hands, "Master Yi, I apologize for disturbing you during your dinner."

Yi Qiansi raised one eyebrow and took a bite of the steak, "What is it?"

The man held out the file folder with both hands, bowing down slightly as he did so. Yi Qiansi put down his fork and knife, crossing them together over his plate.

He then took his time as he wiped his lips with the napkin before finally taking over the folder. He opened it and pulled out the pictures inside.

The first picture was of Gu Yechen and He Xinyan kissing under the bright sunlight inside the glass building, both with happy smiles on their faces.

A small grin appeared on Yi Qiansi's face as he took a long look at the image before flipping to the next one.

Then, it was Gu Yechen and He Xinyan dancing, then slicing the cake, pouring the wine, He Xinyan in her wedding dress, and many more of their grand wedding.

After looking at the last picture, Yi Qiansi put them all back into the folder and threw it back at the man. He then picked up his knife and fork and began eating again.

"Should I get ready?"

A menacing smile crossed Yi Qiansi's face as he used his knife to stab the meat before elegantly bringing it up to his mouth to eat.

"No, let them have their little moment. After, we can start. . ."

Chapter 249 Give Yourself to Me

--- Country Z

In their house, Gu Yechen and He Xinyan had no clue what was going to happen as they got ready for bed.

Gu Yechen took a shower first as He Xinyan was busy posting on her social media about her grand wedding and scrolling through the news about their wedding.

Their wedding was the hottest topic on every single news station and newspaper in the world by now. There were several pictures that the few reporters who were able to attend had taken, and a video of them exchanging rings and kissing each other at the end of the ceremony.

The news article He Xinyan had read had over five million views already in less than two hours and had over a hundred thousand comments.

She scrolled through all of the comments with a happy smile on her face, giggling as she went.

'Ahh, did you guys see that second image?! Mr. and Mrs. Gu look so cute together!! AHHH!!'

'No way! The wedding cost was over 1 million dollars?! Just for a one-day wedding! Ah, President Gu indeed loves his little wifey very much.'

'Am I the only one here to look at Qin Lai's one and only wedding dress design? The dress looks gorgeous! Like if you are Qin Lai's fan!'

'Omg, Mrs. Gu looks so pretty! The last picture of them dancing is gorgeous! She looks like a fairy and a princess and an angel and ahhh!!'

'How I wish I can have a grand wedding like this! It is literally like a prince and princess wedding!'

He Xinyan scrolled through hundreds of comments talking about herself, her husband, and her wedding before she finally reluctantly entered the restroom to take a shower and get ready for bed.

After drying her hair and washing her face, she stepped out of the restroom. He Xinyan frowned slightly when she didn't see Gu Ye Chen on the bed. Where was he?

"Ah!" It had only been a second after she stepped out of the restroom, and suddenly, a strong force grabbed onto her, lifting her up into the air.

He Xinyan looked up in surprise to see Gu Ye Chen, who had lifted her up, carrying her in his arms.

"Gu Ye Chen, what are you doing?"

"Call me husband. . . or hubby," Gu Ye Chen said forcefully.

He Xinyan frowned, "Let me down."

And, Gu Ye Chen did let her down. . . on the bed.

He Xinyan gasped, "What are you doing?"

Gu Ye Chen gently brushed her chin with his finger, "What do you think I'm doing?"

He Xinyan obviously knew what he was doing, and he immediately put her arms up to her upper body, crossing them together.

Gu Ye Chen raised one eyebrow and looked down at He Xinyan's smiling face. He also grinned before pressing down, blocking her lips and her words with his.

He Xinyan returned the kiss, wrapping her arms around his waist, pulling him down closer to her. Gu Ye Chen was slightly taken aback by her actions, and he pulled away.

"What?" He Xinyan asked, a little upset that he broke their moment.

Gu Ye Chen smiled, "Nothing, you are a little impatient, aren't you?"

He Xinyan's face turned red immediately and looked down, "I'm -"

However, before she could finish her sentence, her lips were blocked again. She was so lost inside the kiss that she didn't realize that Gu Ye Chen had slipped off her clothes until she felt the cold wind against her bare skin.

She gasped as she instinctively covered up her upper body with her arms, looking up at Gu Ye Chen nervously.

Gu Ye Chen smiled gently and grabbed onto her arm, "Relax. . . Give yourself to me."

He Xinyan blinked a few times before she nodded her head. Gu Ye Chen kissed her again gently, and then let go of her lips, slowly moving down her neck to her body.

He Xinyan closed her eyes, a little - very nervous as she grasped onto the white bedsheets.

Gu Ye Chen continued kissing every part of her skin, and began taking off his own clothes as he did so. The temperature in the room rose with each second and He Xinyan felt her breathing and heartbeat get faster.

Gu Ye Chen's breathing was also very heavy right now as he looked back up at He Xinyan and smiled.

"Are you ready?" His voice was slightly hoarse as he spoke, almost like he was trying very hard to control and restrain himself.

He Xinyan took a deep breath and looked down before nodding her head.

A romantic atmosphere filled the room and didn't disappear the entire night.

The next morning, He Xinyan didn't wake up until it was lunchtime already.

She slowly blinked her eyes open and slowly lifted one arm up to her face, trying to block the bright sunlight.

"Mm. . ." She moaned as she flipped around on the bed, and at once, she felt the pain and soreness of her body.

He Xinyan furrowed her eyebrows together and closed her eyes again. The pain wasn't only in her lower body, it was all over her body!

Indeed, Gu Ye Chen kept every single promise to her and he didn't lie either.

All the times she had rejected him in the past was added to her debt, and she would have to pay it back to him sooner or later.

Yesterday night. . . She must have paid it all back, right?!

He Xinyan always knew that Gu Yechen was very strong and exercised often, but she did not expect what happened yesterday night.

They started before 11 and they must have finished. . . He Xinyan couldn't remember very clearly because she fell asleep midway because she was too tired, but she was certain that it was over 3 hours, since she fell asleep at around 2 A.M. . .

So, maybe 4 hours?

He Xinyan sighed and put one hand up to her forehead. She already knew that her life in the future wouldn't be easy. . .

She suddenly heard a knock and the door opened, and she opened her eyes again to see Gu Yechen walk into the room with a tray in his hands.

He was wearing his black silk bathrobe and he smiled when he saw He Xinyan, "You're awake."

He Xinyan glared at him and pursed her lips out, "Hmph!"

Of course, Gu Yechen knew what He Xinyan was upset about, and he had to admit that he had maybe lost his self-control last night. He didn't plan to "exercise" with her for so long because he knew she was tired from the wedding already, but he ended up not being able to control himself.

The beast he had inside of him had been locked for 27 years already, and it was finally let out! Of course, it got a little out of control. . .

Gu Yechen immediately regretted his actions yesterday night from seeing He Xinyan look so tired and worn out, even though it was almost 12 P.M. already.

"I made some brunch. Eat some food and then sleep again."

He Xinyan glanced at the food and then decided to forgive Gu Yechen temporarily for the food. She pushed herself up and Gu Yechen placed the tray onto her lap before sitting down on the bed next to her.

He Xinyan was indeed very hungry and she immediately began eating. Gu Yechen watched her eat with a sweet smile.

"I'm sorry, I kind of. . . lost control yesterday. I will be more careful in the future."

He Xinyan rolled her eyes and said with a mouthful of food, "Ch! Liar!"

Gu Ye Chen didn't say something because he also knew he was lying. On the bed with her, he was like a different person. . . It was very hard to control himself.

He gulped and chuckled awkwardly, "Eat more, eat more."

He Xinyan continued to eat and she began feeling more awake as she ate. She still couldn't believe that she was married already! Married to Gu Ye Chen!

Everything still felt like a dream, especially the wedding yesterday.

He Xinyan giggled to herself the more she thought about it, and Gu Ye Chen smiled as she watched her laugh out of nowhere.

His little baby was so cute! How could he treat her like that yesterday night?! He truly was a monster. . . Gu Ye Chen shook his head and looked down.

However, to be honest, he did not feel much regret. It was worth it. . . right?

He Xinyan finished all the breakfast on the plate and handed it back to Gu Ye Chen, glaring at him angrily, "Don't think you can earn my forgiveness with one meal!"

Gu Ye Chen chuckled, "Of course! Will a lifetime's meal be enough?"

He Xinyan glanced at him with a hint of a smile on her face, "Maybe. . ."

Upon careful thought, it wouldn't be a very good deal. She would have to suffer every night for the rest of her life in exchange for a lifetime of meals by him. . .

Was that a good trade? He Xinyan didn't know.

Gu Ye Chen left the room for a quick minute to go wash the plates before he came back, sitting on the bed again.

He Xinyan had her eyes closed but she wasn't asleep, and Gu Ye Chen knew.

He laid down next to her and hugged her around the waist, "Let's go on a honeymoon."

Chapter 250 Honeymoon (1)

He laid down next to her and hugged her around the waist, "Let's go on a honeymoon."

He Xinyan opened her eyes immediately as she looked up at Gu Ye Chen excitedly, "Honeymoon? When? Where?"

Gu Yechen smiled as he gently brushed his fingers through He Xinyan's hair, "We can go right away if you want. We can go wherever you want."

He Xinyan's eyes sparkled excitedly but then they dimmed slightly, "But. . . But don't you have work to do?"

"Don't worry about it. I can take a break. The company can survive without me."

Can it though? I am certain that Gu Yechen's workers will all suffer if their boss were to leave them alone again. And when Chen Xiao complained for a quick second, Gu Yechen responded:

"Why do I pay you such a high salary a month if you can't do anything? If you can't do it, then you can pack your things and go home now."

Chen Xiao immediately shut his mouth and left the room, immediately going back to work. He even made a note to warn all the other workers to not complain.

Boss Gu was nice to him by giving him a warning. . . If it were some other worker, they would have probably been fired straight away!

He Xinyan grinned, "Then I want to go! Where should we go?"

"Wherever you want."

He Xinyan closed her eyes again as she began thinking about all the places she wanted to go to.

"Let's go to Country H! I have always wanted to go there." He Xinyan turned around and reached for the phone, not caring about the soreness she still felt in her body anymore.

She opened up her photos and showed the images she had saved, "Look! This is Country H! And, it is springtime right now so all the cherry blossoms and flowers should be in full bloom right now! And, it isn't too hot or too cold there and it is super beautiful."

He Xinyan scrolled through the pictures excitedly, "We can go to the hot springs right here! And look at these flowers! And this restaurant!"

Gu Yechen nodded his head, "Let's go there. Where else do you want to go?"

He Xinyan thought for a few seconds before shaking her head, "Let's just go there for now. I don't want to pull you away for too long, or else your workers will be angry at their boss's wife for stealing their boss away!"

Gu Yechen raised one eyebrow, "They don't dare feel that way."

He Xinyan chuckled, "We still have a whole life ahead of us. We can go to other places together in the future. No need to be in a rush!"

Gu Ye Chen looked down at her gently with a pleased smile on his face, "Okay."

--- Four days later

After Gu Ye Chen had settled everything with the Gu Corporation, he and his wife were on the way to their honeymoon!

Early in the morning, the two of them woke up and left the house with the luggage they had prepared the day before already.

On the car ride to the airport, He Xinyan bounced up and down excitedly as she continued showing images of Country H to Gu Ye Chen and explaining all the plans of the places they would visit and the restaurants they would go eat at.

Gu Ye Chen listened patiently with a smile on his face. The thing that made him the most happy in this world was He Xinyan being happy.

The car ride to the airport took about an hour, and the car came to a stop in front of the VIP entrance.

Gu Ye Chen had originally offered for them to ride a private plane over to the country, but He Xinyan rejected the offer and said they could just ride a normal airplane.

The driver helped them take their luggage out of the car, and they each grabbed onto their own luggage, emptying the other hand to hold onto each other as they walked into the airport together.

The security check and other procedures took a very short amount of time, and after half an hour, they were sitting inside the VIP waiting room.

There was still an hour or so until the flight was supposed to take off, and He Xinyan began eating food as she watched videos of other people traveling to Country H.

She had so many places she wanted to visit and so many restaurants she wanted to eat in that she didn't know if they would have time to go to all of them.

Maybe they would have to eat 5 meals a day. . .

After a long time, they boarded the plane first as they were in First Class, and they sat down in their seats right next to each other.

"Gu Ye Chen, I'm so excited!" To be honest, He Xinyan didn't expect a honeymoon. She knew that Gu Ye Chen had already lost a lot of time by preparing for the wedding, and he was probably very behind in work. So, she was very surprised when he brought up the honeymoon idea.

"Me too, me too," Gu Ye Chen replied, gently rubbing her on the head.

The plane ride was going to be about 7 hours, and they would be eating lunch on the plane. In the past, Gu Ye Chen had gone on several long plane rides along to other countries for work, and he would always complete work on the plane or sleep.

However, this time, he did none of the two.

With a partner with him this time, he had someone to talk to and play with as they flew across the world for 7 hours.

As the plane left the airport and the ground, Gu Ye Chen and He Xinyan also got ready for their romantic honeymoon, their first trip together as a married couple.

Both of them had no clue what was in store for them. . .

--- 8 hours later

"On behalf of the H Airline, we would like to welcome you to Country H. We will be arriving at the gate momentarily. Please remain in your seats with your seat belt securely fastened until the aircraft has come to a complete stop at the terminal gate. Once again, thank you for flying with the H Airline".

He Xinyan woke up after a short nap on the airplane to hear this announcement, and she rubbed her eyes as she looked out the window.

Since they were on the runway of an airport, she couldn't see the beautiful spring scenery that pictures showed of Country H, but she was just as excited because knew it was going to come.

They were the first group of people to get off the airplane, and after a quick security check and baggage claim, they were out of the airport hand in hand.

He Xinyan's wedding ring glistened under the bright sunlight as she walked out of the airport holding Gu Ye Chen's hand, into the fresh air.

"It's late. Let's go to the hotel first," Gu Ye Chen suggested and He Xinyan nodded her head.

She enjoyed this feeling. It wasn't a very luxurious trip, and they were just like a normal couple going on vacation together. . . She was looking forward to another vacation in the future when they would have a little one with them.

They waited for the car Gu Yechen had booked to come and pick them up to the hotel, and as they did, several people recognized them.

"Isn't that Gu Yechen and his wife? The ones on the news?"

"I think so! The wedding, right? That one?"

"Yah. . ."

He Xinyan obviously caught onto the whispers, and she grinned as she moved a little closer to Gu Yechen.

Yes, that's right! This is her husband!

A few minutes later, the car arrived and picked them up, and they were on their way to the hotel.

About half an hour later, they arrived.

The hotel Gu Yechen had booked was the one He Xinyan had shown him several times. It was rated as the most beautiful place to stay in Country H, and was in the top 10 best hotels in the world.

The design of the hotel was very oriental, as it was made of wood.

It wasn't located in the bustling city, but instead, it was in a natural location. There were only 20 rooms available, and it was more difficult to book than expensive.

Right behind the rooms, there was a beautiful lake that was filled with colored flower trees around it since it was spring time right now.

Behind the lake, there was a large forest patch. Living there was an incredibly healing experience, and it was one of He Xinyan's dreams.

Married to the richest man in Country Z. . . having the perfect, grand wedding. . . Going on her dream honeymoon. . .

It seemed like many of her dreams have been accomplished this year already!

They checked into their hotel room and made their way around the front lobby building to the hotel building in the back.

The air quality was extremely good up here, and He Xinyan took a deep breath as they walked hand in hand up the stairs to their room.

The room they had ordered was the biggest size, and it was supposed to be for a family of 4. However, of course Gu Yechen had to get the most luxurious for his wife!

He Xinyan immediately dropped her luggage and Gu Yechen as she ran over to the balcony, opening the sliding door to look at the gorgeous lake and view.

She gasped once she saw it. . .

It was beautiful.
