

Reborn To Love #Chapter 271 Yi Qiansi's Story (5) - Read Reborn To Love Chapter 271 Yi Qiansi's Story (5)

Chapter 271 Yi Qiansi's Story (5)

The man turned around and looked down at Yi Qiansi. Then, he bent down so he was looking up at Yi Qiansi. Then, he smiled. . . an unknown smile that Yi Qiansi couldn't read.

"Do you want to come with me?"

Yi Qiansi took a step away from the man, "Who are you?"

The man raised one eyebrow, "Let me introduce myself again. My name is Snow. . . Have you ever heard of the KMK group?"

Of course, Yi Qiansi has heard of the KMK group. It was probably the largest terrorist and underground group in the world, and no one knew who they were, where it was, or even. . . what exactly it was.

The group touched in so many areas that people couldn't even know exactly everything the group did. Besides that, the KMK group had people all around the world.

Maybe your best friend was actually part of the KMK group. . .

Almost everyone knew about it and feared it to some extent. They would appear once in a while with a huge attack to remind people of their presence.

"Are you -" Yi Qiansi almost fell back. Not too long ago, the KMK group had bombed a large building not too far away, and he still remembered his parents talking about it.

The man smiled, "Don't worry. I won't hurt you."

"So you -"

"I am the leader of the KMK group," a sparkle flashed past the man's eyes as he said this, and it seemed like he was very proud of his identity.

"You. . ." Yi Qiansi gulped and his eyes darted around as he began to think of where to run.

"Don't run away. I am here to help you," the man immediately saw through Yi Qiansi's plans, "I know you don't want to go to the orphanage, and your parents helped me several years ago. I would like to repay their kindness, and I am sure they wouldn't want their only son to end up in an orphanage."

Yi Qiansi didn't really trust the man anymore, but the man's words struck something in his heart. He did not want to go to the orphanage.

Noticing the hesitation, the man took another push.

"I do not have a child, so I will raise you as my own child, which will definitely be better than an orphanage. I will give you a great education and help you. . . take revenge for your parent's deaths. . . the Gu family."

Hearing the final three words, Yi Qiansi's eyes widened as he looked up. When he looked into the man's determined but also anticipating eyes, he knew a decision had already been made inside his head.

"But the KMK Group. . ."

The man smiled, "Don't worry. I won't make you participate in what the KMK Group does."

Yi Qiansi's eyes sparkled before he nodded his head, "I'll go with you!"

He did not want to end up like those other kids, inside an orphanage, where he won't have any clue what his future will be like.

A bad education, alone, and no hope for the future. . . The only purpose in life: waiting for a family to maybe end up picking you to go be their "child".

Yi Qiansi would much rather go with the KMK Group's leader. He could see a much brighter future choosing this path. . . Even if it had something to do with the infamous KMK Group.

And, what finally convinced him was being able to get back at the Gu family. . . They destroyed his family, so he was going to destroy theirs.

The next day, Yi Qiansi had packed his stuff and left the cramped apartment, leaving everything and all the memories behind, bad and good.

He arrived at the international airport with Snow, looking out the window the entire ride. Memories of him walking down the street with his mom and dad, eating ice cream, or going to school, all came back.

When they drove by what used to be the Yi Mansion, Yi Qiansi placed one hand up to the car window, looking at the building longingly.

"When you grow up and become powerful, you can buy that house back." Snow said when he noticed Yi Qiansi's reaction, as a smile crossed his face.

Yi Qiansi nodded his head as his hand slowly slid down the window after the building was completely out of sight.

Good memories and bad memories. . . He was going to leave them all behind and start a new life.

After this experience, Yi Qiansi had learned. Power equals life. Money equals strength. The Gu family had both, so they were able to ruin the Yi family's life and strength.

At this point, Yi Qiansi didn't actually care if he had to join the KMK Group anymore. . . He was determined.

One day. . . One day. . . He was going to come back here more powerful than all others, and take revenge and get back what was his.

They didn't end up going to an airport, but instead, they drove to this large patch of empty land. They came to a stop in front of the grass and got off.

The man did not help him carry his luggage, so Yi Qiansi ended up carrying his one suitcase himself. However, that did not really matter since he did not have much stuff with him anyway, so it wasn't heavy.

In the middle of the grass, there was a helicopter already getting ready for take-off. Yi Qiansi took a long look at the helicopter and thought that it was weird they were riding a helicopter to Country X, and not a plane.

The man had told him the KMK Group Headquarters was in Country X, and it would be the first time he would ever go to Country X.

They boarded the helicopter and began the ride over to Country X.

The entire ride didn't take a long time and they landed on a mountain near the ocean. He knew it was near the ocean because he could hear the sound of the waves crashing against the shore.

They got off the helicopter and Yi Qiansi looked up at the large. . . castle in front of him.

"This is the KMK Group headquarters?" Yi Qiansi asked in awe. He did not know a lot about the KMK Group since he was still a child, and it wasn't like the KMK Group was taught about in school.

All he knew about it was the few times he heard his parents talking about it.

"Yes, welcome to your new home."

Yi Qiansi looked up and saw Snow looking at the building with a very proud and arrogant expression. However, the next second, he leaned forward, looking at Yi Qiansi with a very genuine smile.

"I am also a businessman. I am not a charity. I make deals or trades. Since I am giving you a new home, a new guardian, a new opportunity, a new hope, and a chance for revenge, of course, it is only natural for me to ask for something in return, right?"

Yi Qiansi blinked a few times. He had not known about this "trade" when Snow first talked to him about "adopting" him.

However, Yi Qiansi understood that it was only natural he also agreed to give something back since it was true. . . This man in front of him was basically giving him a new life.

Yi Qiansi nodded his head, receiving a smile from Snow.

"Good!" Snow stood up straight and grabbed onto Yi Qiansi's arm. Together, they walked into the palace. Yi Qiansi followed the man down several hallways.

The walls were painted black and the hallways were all empty. They were dimly lit and no natural sunlight was able to enter the palace.

They stopped in front of a large room and Snow pulled open the door, walking inside with Yi Qiansi. When they entered, the room was completely dark.

Then, there was a click as Snow opened the lights, and the room lit up.

There was a desk in the front with several files piled on it. To the left, there was a whole wall filled with guns, pistols, rifles, machine guns. . . Guns of all different sizes and types.

Then, underneath the guns, there was also a rack of knives. They were glistening inside the room, and it was clear that they were probably cleaned very often.

To the right of the room, there was a couch and then above the couch, there was a coat rack, but it wasn't coats hanging from the racks.

Instead, there were several whips.

Yi Qiansi couldn't help but get a little nervous looking at Snow's collection of weapons, and he gulped as he took a step away.

Seeing his reaction, Snow chuckled softly.

"Don't worry. By next month, I promise you that you won't be scared of those anymore, because. . . You will be the one using them."

Yi Qiansi gulped and said inside his head, 'I don't want to use them.'

Snow sat down on the couch and stretched out his neck, "Since you have agreed to come, don't try to leave anymore."

Yi Qiansi began having a bad feeling inside of him, but he tried to ignore it. He had always known that no matter what road you chose, since you chose it, you would have to finish it.

No matter how hard or difficult it was, even if you were crawling, there was no going back.

And since he had chosen to come with this man instead of going to the orphanage, then he would have to listen to this man.

"I do not have any children, so I have decided. You will be my heir."

Chapter 272 Yi Qiansi's Story (6)

"I do not have any children, so I have decided. You will be my heir."

Yi Qiansi did not know if he should be happy or scared about this.

"You will inherit everything that belongs to me, and. . . become me." When he said this, a fierce and slightly crazy smile appeared on his face, causing Yi Qiansi to fall back a few steps.

"It is getting late. Let me show you to your room."

They left the room and walked for several minutes before stopping in front of another door. Snow opened it and they walked in.

The room was very big, and it was decorated using only black colors. The bedsheets, the pillow covers, the table, everything was black.

"This will be your room. I will have someone bring you dinner later. When you are done, go to sleep."

Then, Snow left.

Yi Qiansi walked around the room and saw that there were clothes inside the drawer. They were all the same black shirts and pants.

In the restroom, there was a showerplace, where he took a shower. When he finished, there was a tray of food on the table.

He ate the dinner, which was still warm but did not taste very good. Then, he fell asleep.

"Wake up!"

Yi Qiansi's eyes burst open and he was met with the darkness. It took several seconds before he finally adjusted to the darkness and he saw Snow's face.

"Wake up if you want breakfast."

"What time is it?" Yi Qiansi asked.

"It doesn't matter. I want to see you in the dining room in ten minutes."

After Snow left, Yi Qiansi blinked a few times and tried to get out of bed, but after a few seconds, he fell asleep again.

He did not know how early it was, but it was definitely very early, because he could not get himself to get out of bed.

The next time Yi Qiansi woke up, it was because of the pain. When he woke up, he saw Snow with a scarily red face, and in his hand, there was one of the whips he had seen resting inside Snow's room yesterday.

And, he was hitting him extremely aggressively with the whip, "Didn't I tell you to wake up ten minutes ago?! What are you still doing on the bed?"

Snow leaned forward and pulled Yi Qiansi up by the shirt collar, "I will be nice since it is your first day here, but next time you ignore my words, I will bring you to the dungeons."

Yi Qiansi did not know what the dungeons were, and he did not want to know.

He immediately got out of bed, and he saw that the slash created by the whip was bleeding on his back. He tried to ignore the pain as he changed and entered the dining room.

He sat down across Snow and did not know how to feel.

It was obvious that the character Snow had created when they first met was fake. He was definitely a completely different person. . . A person more like the leader of the KMK Group. This was how the KMK Group should be like.

However, to be honest, Yi Qiansi has expected this.

He had noticed some ways Snow acted when they first met, and his horrible temper and patience many times when he rejected him the first few times.

But that did not matter. . . As long as Snow could give him what he wanted, it did not matter if he suffered a little.

Snow very violently ate his food with a fork, stabbing into the food with much more force than he needed.

"You will not be going to school here. You will be taking lessons on combat by the best trainers in the world, geography, the different weapons, and body parts. . ." Snow smirked, "Of course, this also means you will be learning the best way to kill people using your knowledge on body parts."

Yi Qiansi slowly ate his food, which did not taste like anything. Snow was actually crazy. . . Yi Qiansi was beginning to think if he had made the right decision.

He did not want to kill people. . .

After several minutes, Yi Qiansi suddenly fearlessly said, "You know this is child abuse, right?"

Snow laughed, "Child abuse?! What is that?" He clenched his fist together in a menacing manner, "I kill people on a daily basis. Child abuse?" He laughed maniacally.

Yi Qiansi felt a chill run down his spine. His parents were friends with a person like this?!

By now, the only thing in Yi Qiansi's mind was how he could get out of here.

--- 3 years later

Today was Yi Qiansi's 12th birthday.

Of course, no one knew about this and even Yi Qiansi himself has forgotten.

Like every other day, Yi Qiansi got out of bed at 3 A.M. in the morning, and he entered the showerplace to take a shower.

He took off his clothes to reveal a very strong body, something most 12-year-olds did not have. However, on his back and many other parts of his body, there were scars and bruises scattered around his pale skin.

Some of them were very light, and it was clear that they were from a long time ago but would probably leave a mark for the rest of his life.

Others were still very clear and one or two were still bleeding softly.

The scars were all different sizes, but most of them were extremely long, with one slashing across his entire back.

Almost as if he couldn't feel the pain, Yi Qiansi stepped into the showerplace and took a cold shower. Without any expression, he then quickly washed his face, changed into his black clothes, and left the room.

A worker followed him to the dining room. He was supposed to be his guard, but he was really just Snow's spy on him, making sure he did not try to do anything he shouldn't do.

Like every other day, Snow was waiting in the dining room to eat breakfast today.

When he arrived, he noticed that something was different today. Unlike every other day, Snow had a smile on his face.

When he saw Yi Qiansi, he grinned, "Happy birthday!"

Chapter 273 Yi Qiansi's Story (7)

When he saw Yi Qiansi, he grinned, "Happy birthday!"

Yi Qiansi frowned slightly, shocked himself that today was his birthday! He had lost track of time inside this dark palace, where there was never any sunlight or even moonlight.

It would be a miracle if he would still remember what day it was after three years.

"I have a present for you," Snow said cheerfully. "I will give it to you after you finish your training for today."

After breakfast, Yi Qiansi walked down the dungeons, where the training took place.

When he arrived, he saw all the other boys training. When they saw Yi Qiansi, all of them glared at him angrily before continuing training.

A day after he arrived, Yi Qiansi found out that he wasn't the only one here.

It turns out that Snow actually found kids he took favor in from all over the world, bringing them here to his "training" camp.

He would tell all of them they would be his heir, but in reality, it was whoever came out on top in the training.

However, Snow particularly had a liking in Yi Qiansi, for whatever reason that Snow claimed to be that he knew Yi Qiansi's parents.

When the other kids all lived in small bunk beds in the dungeons, he had his own room. When all the other kids ate the same oatmeal for every meal that tasted like chalkboard, he ate actual food.

And, he was able to eat with Snow. . . But that wasn't necessarily a good thing. One year ago, Snow had gotten mad and threw a knife at him, which he was lucky and fast enough to duck to avoid the knife from hitting his head.

As the special one, of course the other kids did not like him.

It was clear that once Yi Qiansi came, they were all back-ups for him. Of course, Yi Qiansi also did end up coming on top.

He was the best at combat, the best shooter when it came to guns and knives, and number 1 in all of the tests.

However, this wasn't because he was the smartest or the strongest, it was because of his special treatment. He had private lessons with the "best" teachers and had "extra" class time, meaning he had to stay up until midnight most days with Snow to practice.

In the dungeons, there was absolutely no sunlight, and it was all lit up with candles. There was also no noise except the sounds of the trainers screaming at the kids, and the kids' helpless screams of pain.

It was also much colder underground, and all the kids wore the same black shirt and pants, which were definitely not enough for the temperature.

There was a shooting test today, and the kids lined up for the test with Yi Qiansi in the back.

He casually picked up the gun and pointed it at the fake human target. With only a quick glance, he shot and the bullet went straight through the center of the head.

Bang! The next shot went straight through the heart.

Bang! The final shot went straight for the neck, blasting the head off of the human.

All of the trainers immediately began applauding, and the other kids were forced to clap fakely as well for their "role model".

Yi Qiansi didn't care as he tossed the gun back to the trainer and left to go practice hand to hand combat.

Yi Qiansi ate lunch in the dungeons with the other kids, and he also ate the oatmeal. All the other kids were slim as sticks because of malnutrition, and he was the only one with a tall and healthy body. Well, not so healthy if you took account of the scars and bruises.

He sat alone at the table to the far corner and quickly finished his meal before going back to training.

"Look. That try-hard is trying hard again!" One boy said and the other ones around him began laughing. However, the trainers quickly silenced them.

After a long day of training, Yi Qiansi left the dungeons alone and back to the ground level, where there still was no sunlight.

Yi Qiansi thought back and could not remember the last time he felt the sun's warmth against his skin.

When he reached the dining room to eat dinner, there was no food on the table.

However, Snow was standing near the table with a sinister smile on his face, "You're here! Come with me. Let me go show you your birthday present."

Yi Qiansi did not have a good feeling about this "birthday present" as he followed Snow down to the dungeons, but not the first level where the training took place.

Instead, it was the second level below ground, where there were cells and rooms where beatings took place. Yi Qiansi has visited here twice. . . with Snow.

He gulped as they walked out and he followed Snow down the many aisles and twists and turns, stopping in front of the cell at the very end of the hallway.

"Look who I brought here for you!"

Yi Qiansi looked up and into the cell, but because it was super dark and the person inside was facing the other direction, he couldn't tell who it was.

Snow also noticed this problem, and his horrible temper immediately arrived as he turned around, marching back in the direction they came from, ordering the worker of the second floor, "Bring him up to the first floor dungeon!"

The worker nodded and walked over to the cell, unlocking the door and walking over to the person laying inside the cell.

Yi Qiansi followed Snow back to the first level of the dungeon, where all of the kids were still training.

When they arrived, the kids and trainers stopped and greeted Snow. All of the Kids had to be respectful to Snow even though everyone hated him and internally wanted to kill him.

They had the same feelings towards the boy walking next to Snow. Why did he get to have such good treatment in comparison to them?

What they all did not know was that Yi Qiansi suffered much more than them.

He received beatings from not the trainers, but Snow, who was much more vicious and merciless than the trainers. And, when the other boys trained until 11 P.M., Yi Qiansi had to stay up until way after midnight training with Snow.

Snow and Yi Qiansi stopped in the center of the room, and Snow randomly pointed to a boy and said, "Come over."

The boy looked over at his trainer, who pushed him over to Snow. The boy was scared Snow was going to ask him to fight Yi Qiansi, because Snow had done that several times before.

In front of Snow, Yi Qiansi was much more aggressive than the other practice combats.

The little boy stood in front of Snow with his head down.

Snow grinned, "Bring him over."

The worker from the second dungeon level brought over another little boy who had been in the cell Snow had shown Yi Qiansi.

This time, the boy was conscious with his face up.

At once, Yi Qiansi recognized the face he had not seen in so long.

Gu Yechen!

Reborn To Love #Chapter 274 Yi Qiansi's Story (8) - Read Reborn To Love Chapter 274 Yi Qiansi's Story (8)

Chapter 274 Yi Qiansi's Story (8)

At once, Yi Qiansi recognized the face he had not seen in so long.

Gu Yechen!

Gu Yechen also saw Yi Qiansi and his eyes widened. He opened his mouth to call Yi Qiansi, but he then stopped himself.

Gu Yechen and the other boy were brought to the place the fake human targets were usually placed and Snow pulled out a gun from nowhere.

"Happy birthday, Yi Qiansi. When I turned 12, my dad gave me the same birthday present. . . The first person I killed!" Snow smiled as he thought back to the memory, "It was the best feeling. So I am passing it onto you."

He pointed at Gu Yechen and the other boy, "And, I especially brought you the Gu family's son! Here you go!"

He handed the gun to Yi Qiansi and pushed him over, leaving Yi Qiansi in shock.

He has hurt many people under the pressure of Snow and shot many times, but he has never actually killed a live human being.

His hand shook as he held onto the gun and after several seconds, he turned around and met with Snow's eager eyes, "I don't want this birthday present."

Snow's smile immediately disappeared, "You think you have a choice?! Hurry up!"

Yi Qiansi's hand tightened around the gun but he still didn't make a move. Snow walked over suddenly and grabbed onto Yi Qiansi, his eyes red from anger.

"If you don't do it, then you will be the one to die. Make your decision!"

Yi Qiansi gulped as he looked down at the gun in his hands. His eyes then moved up to look at Gu Yechen, who was looking back at him with a confused but also calm expression.

Yi Qiansi suddenly lifted the gun up, pointing at Gu Yechen. His hand was shaking, something that never happened when he usually shot.

With a gun pointing at him, Gu Ye Chen did not cry or scream or have any sense of surprise. Instead, he stared straight into Yi Qiansi's eyes, almost as if he was looking into his soul.

This eye contact made Yi Qiansi very uncomfortable, and his arms began shaking even more violently.

"Hurry up, you bast! Everyone will die with you if you don't make a move now!"

Hearing that, the other boys became scared as well as they all took a step back.

Then. . .

Bang!

Yi Qiansi had pulled the trigger.

Everyone inside the room gasped, as no one except the trainers and Snow had actually killed a real person in their lifetime.

Snow's eyes widened in shock as the boy fell down onto the ground, taking one last breath before he closed his eyes.

On the side, Gu Ye Chen glanced at the boy with shock and confusion in his eyes.

Yi Qiansi was also surprised as he wondered why he had moved his hand just slightly the second before he shot, moving his target from Gu Ye Chen to the other boy.

He dropped the gun onto the floor, and the next second, he felt a strong force grab onto the back of his shirt and pull him away.

The next minute, he was inside a room on the second floor of the dungeon, and inside, there were knives, guns, and whips.

"You useless -" Snow screamed as he dragged Yi Qiansi to the center of the room and immediately punched him across the face.

Then, right away, it was another kick that caused Yi Qiansi to grunt in pain.

For the rest of the night, Yi Qiansi fought Snow, or more like, he got attacked by Snow with fists, feet, and even knives.

Throughout the endless hours, Yi Qiansi did regret his decision many times.

Why didn't he kill Gu Ye Chen?!

His life was like this right now because of the Gu family! The Gu family killed his family! Why didn't he pull the trigger?! What stopped him?! His plan all along was to kill Gu Yechen, but at the last second, why did he change his target?

The night seemed to be endless as the seconds slowly ticked by with each punch, each kick, and each ear-piercing scream. When he returned to his room the next day, his body was filled with several new scars, all of which were bleeding.

Several days later, he went to the second floor of the dungeon to visit Gu Yechen.

When he saw him, he noticed that Gu Yechen had gotten much skinnier and also had several scars on his body. He did not know what caused those scars, but he did not really care either.

They stared at each other for several long seconds before Yi Qiansi turned around and walked away, without saying anything.

"Goodbye," Gu Yechen said and Yi Qiansi heard, but he did not reply.

About a month later, news spread across the palace that Snow's prisoner had escaped.

When Yi Qiansi heard, he was not surprised at all. Because, the night when Gu Yechen had escaped, he had run into him. . .

Snow was furious and that night, Yi Qiansi's scars increased.

After Gu Yechen returned to the Gu mansion, he stayed silent for an entire month. His parents and grandparents were all worried sick about him.

He did not talk, did not smile, and did not show any emotions. It took a full year before he recovered mostly, but ever since the incident, the little Gu Yechen never came back.

Ever since, he has been a very cold person and did not show affection to anyone.

When he got kidnapped a month ago, they had tried everything to try and find him and rescue him, but nothing worked.

They all believed that it was a miracle when Gu Yechen was able to escape.

But only Gu Yechen knew he did not actually escape on his own. . . Yi Qiansi had saved him twice.

--- Many Years Later

Yi Qiansi was almost 20 by now, and the weak little boy had grown up into a handsome man. With a taller and more muscular body than all the other people in the palace, he was naturally also feared by the others.

His features had grown out to be sharper and scarier than before, but they also made him look more attractive.

Most of the boys that had grown up with him were still here, while some had died.

Yi Qiansi returned to his room at night after eating dinner by himself. Snow and many people were away from the palace on a mission to kill someone he did not know of.

They had been gone for five days already, and they were supposed to be back a day ago.

When he entered the room, he saw Snow's assistant inside.

"What are you doing here in my room?" Yi Qiansi asked gravely, narrowing his eyes. After the last few years, he had developed this cold and quite scary temperament very similar to the one Snow had.

Even Snow's assistant couldn't help but be afraid of Yi Qiansi, "I have news."

"What news? Hurry up."

The assistant cleared his throat and announced, "Snow and Team B unfortunately. . . died during mission X."

Yi Qiansi raised one eyebrow, "So what now?"

"Snow has written a will a while back, and it states that you are to be the next leader of the KMK Group."

--- A Month Later

All across the world, the newspapers, articles, videos, everything, were talking about the breaking news that had happened a few days ago.

The KMK Group launched its biggest attack in several years, killing hundreds of people. After the attack, the KMK Group announced that the old leader had died and a new leader had taken over.

In less than a month since the new leader took over, he caused this big of a commotion. It was clear that this new leader wasn't easy to deal with.

For the next few years, the KMK Group would be haunting the lives of many people.

--- Present

Gu Yechen opened his eyes and realized that they were in the air already. He did not know how long he had been sleeping, but he had many dreams during his sleep, mostly bad.

He lifted one hand up and touched his forehead to find that it was wet with sweat all over it.

Chen Xiao handed over a napkin worriedly, "Mr. Gu. . ."

Gu Yechen wiped his forehead and sighed, "Thank you."

After a few seconds, Chen Xiao bravely said, "Mr. Gu, don't be too worried. I am certain that Mrs. Gu and the baby will be okay."

Gu Yechen nodded his head, "I know that Yi Qiansi won't hurt them. . . That isn't his goal."

Chen Xiao nodded his head, "That's great! As long as he doesn't hurt Mr. Gu and the baby, then we can always figure out a plan to get them out!"

Gu Yechen shook his head softly, "What I am most afraid of is. . . Yi Qiansi might fall in love with her."

Gu Yechen furrowed his eyebrows together, "We are the same type of people. . . We have both lived in the darkness for too long that a little sunlight shining in is like a magnet, so captivating. . ."

Gu Yechen closed his eyes again.

His Xinyan is like a little sun. . . He couldn't help but be scared that Yi Qiansi would fall in love with her too.

Chapter 275 Visiting The Gu Mansion

After Gu Yechen left, He Xinyan was silent for a long time, eating her meals inside her room and not causing any commotion.

Yi Qiansi had visited her a few times and she seemed very calm, eating her meals and even humming sometimes to herself.

He could not tell what she was thinking about or if she was happy or sad.

Inside her room, He Xinyan was in a very good mood as she gently rubbed her stomach and sang a few songs she remembered.

Gu Ye Chen was alive and she was pregnant! That was the best news she could possibly hear! Now, all she had to wait for was for Gu Ye Chen to rescue her out. She was certain it would be soon.

However, it wasn't very soon.

For the next three months, Gu Ye Chen and the Gu Corporation launched attack after attack at the KMK Group, but nothing worked. The KMK Group was indeed the largest and most complex system and group in all of the underworld, and it wasn't so easy to destroy it or break through it.

Gu Ye Chen was getting very stressed at the idea of He Xinyan still being in Yi Qiansi's hands, and she was pregnant with his baby! He was furious that he couldn't spend the months of her being pregnant with her! He definitely couldn't miss her labor!

Meanwhile, He Xinyan was trying to stay calm and hopeful but as her stomach slowly got bigger and bigger, she was also beginning to get a little nervous.

She asked Yi Qiansi once in a while when he would let her go, but he would always say no. Then, she would ask him what he was still keeping her here for.

Whenever she asked him that, he seemed a little lost. . . almost like he did not even know why he still had her here, or for what reason he was keeping her here.

At night, He Xinyan was sitting on the bed getting ready to go to sleep when suddenly the door was pushed open. She whipped her head around cautiously, instinctively placing one hand over her stomach.

When she saw Yi Qiansi walk in, she relaxed a little but still stared at him cautiously.

"What are you doing here? I need to go to bed." She might not be tired, but her baby might be! She had to get a lot of quality sleep for her baby so when he is born, he will be the most handsome little baby in the world!

Yi Qiansi didn't smile as he placed his hands into his suit pant pockets and lifted his chin up slightly, "We are going to go pay the Gu family a visit."

Several hours later, the private helicopter landed on a large patch of grass. Then, He Xinyan and Yi Qiansi entered a car.

The city was dark already, and the only thing illuminating the streets were the dim street lamps and the headlights of the car.

However, even so, He Xinyan felt extremely happy to be back in the country and place she was familiar with. The buildings on the sidewalks, the smell of the crisp night air, and everything. . . it was all so familiar and calming.

A while later, they came to a stop in front of the large gate that He Xinyan immediately recognized.

Gu Ye Chen's house!

They were actually here. It has been so long since she last came back here that she almost forgot how it looked. It would appear in her dreams once in a while, but her dreams were getting more and more blurry as time went on.

The car entered the gate somehow and it drove up all the way until they came to a stop in front of the house. Her house! Was Gu Ye Chen inside right now? He should be.

Most importantly, since they were here, she might be able to find some way to stay!

Yi Qiansi noticed the hope in He Xinyan's eyes, and he looked down before opening the door, "Let's go."

He Xinyan excitedly jumped off the car as fast as she could, still staying careful because she was not alone at the moment.

They walked over to the door together and He Xinyan felt her heartbeat speeding up as Yi Qiansi knocked on it.

A minute passed, maybe two. . . He Xinyan was beginning to become doubtful whether the door would ever open. Maybe Gu Ye Chen wasn't home.

Then, there was a click and the door was pulled open.

Originally, Gu Ye Chen had a very cold expression on his face but when the two people standing outside his door came into focus, his eyes widened in surprise.

Without bothering to care about Yi Qiansi's presence, He Xinyan took a step forward and threw herself into Gu Ye Chen's embrace.

"Ye Chen!"

Gu Ye Chen was in shock for many seconds, and he almost couldn't believe that this was real. Was he dreaming again?

Finally, he concluded that this wasn't a dream and he wrapped his arms around He Xinyan's waist gently, remembering that she was pregnant.

Yi Qiansi's eyes dimmed when he saw this sight and he looked down, avoiding the two people.

The hug didn't last long as Gu Ye Chen immediately pulled He Xinyan behind him and looked up at Yi Qiansi cautiously, "What are you doing?"

He did not believe that Yi Qiansi was kind enough to just let He Xinyan come back to him.

"I am here to negotiate some. . . deals." Yi Qiansi said with a cool expression, running his fingers through his silver hair.

Without waiting, Yi Qiansi stepped into the room and walked in, taking a look around the house.

"Your house is quite nice. . . Of course, what do I expect from the Gu family?"

Gu Ye Chen told He Xinyan to go up into their room and wait for him there before walking back over to Yi Qiansi. As He Xinyan quickly walked upstairs, her heartbeat still beating unusually fast, Gu Ye Chen and Yi Qiansi entered Gu Ye Chen's private office.

--- Over an hour later

He Xinyan was getting very stressed and began sweating as she stayed inside the bedroom as Gu Ye Chen had instructed.

Because she couldn't sit still on the bed any longer, she stood up and began pacing around the room, wondering why it was taking so long.

What did Yi Qiansi want? Did he want Gu Ye Chen's life again?

He Xinyan was getting more and more worried and she was very tempted to go downstairs to see what was going on, but she still decided to listen to Gu Ye Chen and stay inside the room.

Another few minutes passed until finally, the door opened.

She whipped around and let out a breath of relief when she saw Gu Ye Chen. She immediately ran over, grabbing onto his hand.

"What happened? What did you guys talk about? I'm going to stay here, right? There is no way I am going back here. . . It is quite dumb Yi Qiansi brought me over here. I. . ." He Xinyan gulped and looked up, "Is everything okay?"

Gu Yechen smiled and didn't respond. Instead, he leaned forward and gently kissed her on the lips, the first true kiss they had in a very long time.

He Xinyan couldn't help but still worry, but she pushed those thoughts to the back of her head and returned the kiss. After this experience, she couldn't help but worry about when the next one would be.

A minute passed before He Xinyan finally pushed Gu Yechen away because she couldn't wait any longer, "So, what happened?"

Gu Yechen smiled and licked his lips, "Don't worry, he is gone."

"What?!" He Xinyan couldn't believe that Yi Qiansi would just leave like this, "What did you give him?"

Gu Yechen looked down and pinched the area of skin between his two eyebrows, causing He Xinyan to worry.

"Tell me," she said sternly.

Gu Yechen finally looked up and smiled, "Nothing."

--- An hour ago

After entering the room, Yi Qiansi shamelessly sat down in the center of the black couch inside the room and casually folded his legs together.

"I'm tired of playing with you. My deal is this. . . You destroyed everything my parents and I had. I have decided to be nice. . . Give me the Gu Corporation and ruin the Gu family with your own hands. Then, I will stop bothering you once and for all."

Gu Yechen furrowed his eyebrows together, "I destroyed the Yi family?"

Yi Qiansi scoffed, "Don't pretend like you don't know anything or remember anything now. 17 years ago. . . I lost everything."

Gu Yechen knit his eyebrows together and sat down across from Yi Qiansi, "Are you talking about the collapse of the Yi Company and the death of your dad and mom?"

Yi Qiansi's face darkened upon hearing the mention of his parents, "Yes. . . so you do know."

Gu Yechen crossed his legs together and sighed, "I looked into what happened to the Yi family a few years ago. And I was correct. . . So you really have been mistaken."

Yi Qiansi narrowed his eyes, "What do you mean by mistaken? Gu Yechen, don't try to play tricks or lie to me. I know everything."

Gu Yechen leaned forward, "Do you?"

Several seconds of silence passed.

"The Gu family did not do it."

Chapter 276 The Truth

Gu Yechen leaned forward, "Do you?"

Several seconds of silence passed.

"The Gu family did not do it."

Another several seconds, and then suddenly, Yi Qiansi burst into laughter.

"Gu Yechen do you think I'm stupid? Don't even try to lie to me. I know who did it."

Gu Yechen stood up from his spot and walked over to his desk. He pulled open several cabinets, flipping through tons of papers. After a long time, he finally found a folder laying around in the very bottom of the third cabinet.

He walked back over to the couch and threw the folder onto the table.

Yi Qiansi looked up at Gu Yechen and then down at the folder, not moving.

"All of the Yi Company's information and screenshots and analysis of its stock in the final days before it collapsed are all in there. There are also records of the Gu Corporation's transactions, meeting information, and basically the work the Gu Corporation had at the same time 17 years ago. You are smart. . . If I can see it easily, you can too. The Gu Corporation did not do it."

Yi Qiansi slowly picked up the folder and began looking through all the pages. His eyes got more and more red as he read, unable to believe the information on the pages.

As he read, Gu Yechen walked over to his desk and grabbed his laptop. Then, he took a while to find a USB flash drive and then stuck it into his computer.

He opened a video and placed it onto the table so Yi Qiansi could see, "Your mother also did not commit suicide from supposed stress. Someone had murdered her."

He started playing the video but it didn't have any sound. From the angle, you could see a woman standing near the railing.

She stood there for a very long time. Then, suddenly, another man entered the recording screen and they watched as the man walked over to a few steps behind the woman.

It took another minute before the woman turned around. Yi Qiansi's eyes immediately widened when he saw the woman's face. . . It was his mom.

He leaned forward slightly, his leg beginning to shake as he watched.

The woman seemed to say something to the man, and they stood there for a few seconds before the woman took a step forward towards the direction of the camera.

Maybe it was because the camera quality was bad back then or because the video was too old, but the movements were very robotic and chunky. However, it was still easy to tell what was going on.

The woman had only taken four steps when suddenly, the man reached his hand up and placed it onto the woman's shoulder. Then, his movements faster than wind, he pushed the woman back towards the railing, and with what seemed like a light push, he tossed her body over the railing, where it disappeared down into the abyss.

The man's movements were very fast and powerful, and it was clear that he was a professional. After he had pushed the woman over, he bent over the railing and took a quick look before turning around and walking away.

Then, he walked over to the camera they were watching the recording from. His face showed up straight in front of the camera for a few seconds before the screen went black.

However, that quick second was enough.

The folder Yi Qiansi was holding in his hands fell onto the ground. That man. . . That man. . .

He was Snow's assistant!

Gu Yechen was not very surprised by Yi Qiansi's reaction, and he sighed before pulling out a final small picture.

"This is supposedly the man who had destroyed the Yi Company. I tried to find out who he is, but he seems to almost be nonexistent. . . I still can't figure out who he is."

By now, Yi Qiansi was trusting Gu Yechen's words, and he immediately reached for the picture.

His breathing quickened when the man on the black and white picture registered inside his brain. No way. . . There was no way.

He looked up at Gu Yechen, who was looking straight back at him.

Then, his eyes returned to the picture and an entire minute later, a soft word escaped from his mouth, "Snow."

He Xinyan took a very long shower before returning to the bed, taking her time as she laid down next to Gu Yechen in the most comfortable position.

He spent the next hour telling her his story with Yi Qiansi, starting from the very beginning.

In the end, He Xinyan had her eyebrows tightly furrowed together.

"It must be very painful to know that all his life. . . he had been hating the wrong person." For a quick second, He Xinyan couldn't help but feel a quick sense of pity for Yi Qiansi. However, she quickly pushed it away, or hid it deeper within herself.

Gu Yechen nodded his head as he ran his fingers through He Xinyan's soft hair, taking a deep breath. He had never felt this relaxed in a very, very, very long time.

"But that man is dead now, right?" He Xinyan asked.

Gu Yechen nodded his head, "I still don't know who that man is, but he is dead."

"So, Yi Qiansi won't come back to bother us anymore?" He Xinyan asked hopefully.

Gu Yechen nodded his head again and bent down, kissing He Xinyan continuously on her lips and then her cheeks and her neck and wherever he could, "Yes. . ."

When Yi Qiansi returned to the Wei Jing Palace, it was after dawn already.

The helicopter landed on the large patch of grass near the cliff and he stepped off the helicopter, still in shock.

He stood outside the palace for a very long time, looking out at the ocean. The helicopter took off again and the world was almost silent again, except for the sound of the waves crashing against the rock.

After a very long time, Yi Qiansi turned around, planning to return to the palace.

However, he immediately stopped when the bright yellow color entered her eyes.

He stared at them for a very, very long time. So long that when he finally returned to his senses, the sun was high up in the sky already.

He looked up at the sun with a complicated expression. Even after realizing that his entire life goal had been. . . a mistake, Yi Qiansi wanted to feel sad or angry.

However, he could not feel the pain inside his heart anymore.

He closed his eyes, letting the warmth of the sun enter his body.

Snow was dead.

But he wasn't.

He opened his eyes and turned back to look at the patch of yellow.

Will he ever be able to return to the light?

He looked at the bright color one last time before entering the palace, back into the darkness.

The sunflowers have bloomed.

--- Author's Note:

hello readers ~

That should be the end of Yi Qiansi. To be honest, I actually felt very sad when writing that last part of Yi Qiansi looking out at the sunflowers. . . This may be a little abrupt ending for him, but hopefully it will be the best for both him and our main couple.

Goodbye, Yi Qiansi. I hope you can find your way back into the light in the near future! :)

Chapter 277 Boy Or Girl?

He Xinyan and Gu Yechen went to sleep after midnight.

Well, Gu Yechen couldn't fall asleep the entire night. He still couldn't believe that his Xinyan was finally back by his side. . . It had been about a year since their marriage already, but now, they were truly finally back together.

Although He Xinyan also really wanted to stay awake, she couldn't fight the fatigue side effect from being pregnant, and she ultimately fell asleep.

The next morning, when He Xinyan woke up, it was almost noon already.

The first thing she saw after waking up was Gu Ye Chen's face. He had his eyes closed and his breathing was slow and even.

He Xinyan smiled, moving a little closer to him. Her stomach was quite small for a woman 5 months pregnant, so she could still comfortably sleep on her side.

She lifted one arm out of the blanket and rested it onto Gu Ye Chen's face. He woke up immediately from her touch, and he suddenly sat up, looking around nervously.

"Ye Chen!" He Xinyan called surprisedly, wondering why he seemed so nervous.

Gu Ye Chen looked back and he gulped, letting out a sigh of relief. He immediately pulled her up into his embrace, "You're here. . . It wasn't a dream."

He Xinyan felt her heart twist up in pain from his words, and she held onto him tightly, "Don't worry, don't worry. I'm here. . . Both me and the baby."

Gu Ye Chen finally relaxed a little after hearing her words, and he pressed his lips together tightly, closing his eyes, "I missed you so much."

"Me too. . ." Only in the morning time, with the sun up and the warmth around them, did it really feel like they were finally and truly back together with each other.

"I'll go make breakfast," Gu Ye Chen proposed as he pulled away, but He Xinyan immediately grabbed onto him.

"Can you just lay down with me. . . We can get breakfast later! We still have to tell mom and dad that I am back. . ."

Of course, Gu Ye Chen couldn't reject any of He Xinyan's requests, "Okay."

Together, they laid down on the bed again even though the sun was way up in the sky already. Due to her big tummy, He Xinyan faced the other direction and Gu Ye Chen hugged her from behind, resting his hand on her stomach.

"We should go to the hospital and do a check-up," Gu Ye Chen said softly.

He Xinyan nodded her head, "Yes. We can go tomorrow."

They talked for a very long time about many things that they usually wouldn't talk about, and they both did not want to get up and separate.

However, He Xinyan and the baby were both getting hungry, so they finally got up to eat a late lunch.

"Ahh!!!!" Xu Mengya screamed when she saw He Xinyan, and at once. . . almost like a dam had broken, tears began flooding down her face.

"Oh, my Yanyan!" Xu Mengya immediately pulled He Xinyan into her embrace, but didn't expect Gu Yechen to immediately pull her away.

"Be careful of the baby!" Gu Yechen said angrily.

"Oh, oh. . ." Xu Mengya's eyes widened, "Yes, yes! Yanyan, you're pregnant! Oh my! I have to go home and find my secret recipes and medicines I took when I was pregnant to give birth to that stupid guy."

She ran around a little confusedly, her brain still a little in shock and surprise.

He Xinyan chuckled and grabbed onto Xu Mengya's hand, "It's okay, mom. You can do that later."

They sat down at the dining table to eat the meal Gu Yechen had cooked together, but of course Xu Mengya couldn't eat. Her head and mouth were filled with questions!

"What happened? Where were you?! That stupid guy wouldn't tell me anything and I was worried sick. What happened during the honeymoon? You -"

"Mom, let her eat. I'll tell you," Gu Yechen said a little helplessly. He then told the story about Yi Qiansi once again. Xu Mengya did not remember Yi Qiansi or the Yi family anymore, but Gu Hanyu remembered.

"The Yi family. . ." Gu Hanyu narrowed his eyes slightly and sighed, "I actually looked into it when the Yi Company went bankrupt. It was very weird how it suddenly just collapsed. So there was someone behind it. . . The Yi family's son thought it was us?"

Gu Yechen nodded his head.

Xu Mengya sighed and placed one hand onto He Xinyan's hand, "Oh, so it is actually the big and small devil's fault that you were taken away for so long! I'm so sorry that you got dragged into this."

He Xinyan shook her head, "Don't worry, Auntie Xu. I am fine now."

Xu Mengya pressed her lips together and looked down, placing her hand onto He Xinyan's gradually enlarging stomach, "I wonder if this little one is fine! Oh, I can't believe that I am becoming a grandmother soon!"

"And I can't believe I will be a mother soon. . ."

They ate lunch together and then Xu Mengya and Gu Hanyu returned home because Xu Mengya was insistent on going back to look for the magical pregnancy medications she took.

Meanwhile, He Xinyan and Gu Yechen decided to go to the hospital to do a check-up. Although Yi Qiansi had a doctor that did frequent check-ups on the baby, they had never gone to do one themselves, just the two of them.

Inside the hospital room, the ultrasound imaging was displayed on the screen. There were still about 5 months until the estimated period of labor, but the basic frame of the baby was pretty clear by now.

Gu Yechen grabbed onto He Xinyan's hand a little too harshly from excitement as he stared at the black and white image on the screen.

"It's moving," he said excitedly.

He Xinyan laughed, "Of course it's moving! It's a living baby!"

Gu Yechen was so excited his legs were shaking.

Although the doctor had other patients to go to, Gu Yechen insisted on looking at the baby for almost half an hour before He Xinyan got tired and the two of them finally left the hospital.

They did not ask the doctor about the gender of the baby since they wanted to keep it as a surprise, but they walked out of the hospital discussing the gender.

"A son!" He Xinyan said firmly.

"No, a daughter!"

"No, a son!"

Gu Yechen did not want to argue with her, so he sighed and reluctantly said, "Okay, okay. We will know in a few months."

"Hmph!" He Xinyan crossed her arms together, praying internally that the baby would be a boy. To be honest, she was also a little selfish and jealous. If it was a baby girl, then she wouldn't be Gu Yechen's favorite girl anymore!

Just like how Gu Yechen didn't want to see her kissing another boy, He Xinyan also did not want to see Gu Yechen kissing and hugging another girl, even if it was her own daughter!

So, we will all wait and see whether it will be a boy or a girl.

After visiting the hospital, they did not return home right away. The two of them wanted to spend as much time with each other as possible, especially after their separation.

Gu Yechen had completely forgotten that he was the CEO of the Gu Corporation, and he did not even bother to tell his workers he wouldn't be going to work. They could figure it out themselves.

The two of them walked into a shopping mall to go shopping for the baby.

They walked into a shop that only sold baby supplies and clothes, and a worker immediately walked over.

"Welcome to XX Baby Shop! Are you looking for anything in particular?" The young female worker couldn't help but take a second look at the man standing next to the pregnant woman, because he was way too handsome! However, the woman next to him was also very pretty. . . so they were a good match.

The worker came across many upper-class pregnant women working in this shop, but most of them were either getting out of shape or their skin was getting worse due to the pregnancy. However, this woman who seemed quite young to be pregnant still had perfect skin and every part of her body was skinny except for her stomach, which was also quite small.

"No, we are just looking around. Thank you." He Xinyan smiled before pulling Gu Yechen away because she realized that the young female worker seemed to have some bad intentions. She had peeked at Gu Yechen three times already!

Maybe it was because pregnant women were easily sensitive, but He Xinyan was more salty and jealous than before.

They walked over to the boy section of the store and He Xinyan began looking.

"What if it is a girl?"

He Xinyan obviously didn't want it to be a girl but she couldn't ignore that possibility. If she only bought boy clothes and it was a girl, then all of the clothes would go to waste!

He Xinyan frowned slightly. If they waited until the baby was born then that would be too late!

However, her problem was easily solved by Gu Yechen.

"It's okay. We can buy both."

Reborn To Love #Chapter 278 One Baby, Two Baby - Read Reborn To Love Chapter 278 One Baby, Two Baby

Chapter 278 One Baby, Two Baby

However, her problem was easily solved by Gu Yechen.

"It's okay. We can buy both."

He Xinyan blinked a few times, "Then that's such a waste!"

Gu Yechen obviously didn't care. He had more than enough money to waste!

He Xinyan blinked a few times and gulped, "Should we. . . maybe just ask about the gender?"

Gu Yechen looked around the shop and shrugged, "Sure, it is all up to you."

So, the two of them left the shop without buying anything and decided to wait another month until the next check-up so they could ask about the gender.

"What is this?" He Xinyan asked, scrunching her face up.

Xu Mengya smiled excitedly, "This is the magic medicine I'm talking about! I know it doesn't look super good, but it is good for the baby!"

He Xinyan stared at the bowl of what looked like black goo and gulped, "Are you sure it is supposed to be like this?"

Xu Mengya took a look and thought for a few seconds, "That seems to be a little. . . thicker and darker than what I had, but it should be right."

This only made He Xinyan more scared and she laughed nervously, "Ha. . . ha. . . Thank you, mom but I don't think I need it. The baby is very healthy! The doctor said yesterday that the baby is very, very healthy!"

Xu Mengya did not buy her attempt, "It doesn't matter. Trust me. That is how Gu Yechen is so smart! Drink up, drink up."

Very reluctantly, He Xinyan lifted up the spoon and slowly scooped up a very, very small amount. She lifted it up to her nose and took a sniff. It smelled disgusting.

"Don't worry. I know it doesn't taste really good, but it will definitely help!"

He Xinyan gulped and finally slowly put the spoon into her mouth. She had to use her tongue to get the contents of the spoon off because it was so thick, and immediately, she felt like throwing up. Part of it was because of her pregnancy side effects, but it was mainly because the "medicine" tasted way too disgusting.

She immediately ran over to the sink and spat out the medicine and began gagging. Since she hasn't eaten anything yet, she could not throw anything up.

Xu Mengya gasped and ran over, "Oh my, are you okay? It shouldn't be that bad. Did I do something wrong?"

Xu Mengya went over to the bowl and took a spoonful herself, a spoonful much bigger than the one He Xinyan had.

Immediately, her face turned green as she ran to the trash can and spat everything out, tears beginning to fill in her eyes because it was so bad.

"That tastes disgusting!!" Xu Mengya immediately threw the entire bowl into the trash can, including the bowl itself.

"Xinyan, I'm so sorry! I didn't know it tasted like that. I must have done something wrong. . . When Hanyu made it back then, it didn't taste like this."

He Xinyan smiled weakly, "It's okay. . . I should just stay away from medicine."

Xu Mengya chuckled awkwardly and scratched her head before also tossing the entire pot she had been brewing up.

Over a week later, Gu Yechen finally returned to work although he did not want to. He Xinyan made it clear that they would have a lot of money to spend on the kid after it was born, so he had to go and make money!

Although they both knew there was no way Gu Yechen wouldn't have enough money, he still listened to his wife and returned to the company because his workers were all suffering.

A month after the last check up, they entered the private hospital again for another check up. He Xinyan's stomach had gotten much bigger during this one-month period, and they all thought that it was a little weird.

Her 5-month old stomach looked almost like a 9-month old stomach ready for labor, and it was so uncomfortable she couldn't even sleep on her side anymore.

They entered the hospital and began doing the ultrasound again.

A few minutes later, the doctor gasped.

"I think. . . you have twins!"

He Xinyan's mouth fell open in surprise, ". . . T - Twins?!"

Knowing that this couple wasn't random people, the doctor checked again to make sure she didn't make a mistake. After a few seconds, she nodded her head again, "Yes. If you look here, you can see two embryos."

She pointed at the screen and traced out the two little babies so He Xinyan and Gu Yechen could see, "This should also be why Mrs. Gu's stomach is much larger than normal pregnant women at five months!"

He Xinyan grabbed onto Gu Yechen's hand excitedly, but also a little nervously. She did not know if she should be happy about having two kids at once or scared.

After all, giving birth to one kid was hard enough. . . Two?! She couldn't imagine.

"Doctor, can you tell if it is two boys or two girls?" He Xinyan asked cautiously, a little nervous to hear what gender the babies were.

The doctor nodded her head, "Since you are five months pregnant already, it should be easy to tell. Let me take a look."

The doctor turned around and looked at the ultrasound for a very long time, making sure what she saw was definitely correct. If she made a mistake, she did not know what this couple. . . especially that man, would do to her.

After careful examination, her eyes lit up and she turned around, "Congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Gu! It looks like fraternal twins, and it is a boy. . . and a girl!"

He Xinyan's eyes lit up when she heard the word boy, thinking she had won, but she was definitely not prepared for the next big news.

"A boy. . . and a girl?!" He Xinyan sat up slightly, taking a look at the ultrasound herself.

The doctor nodded, "If you look here, this one is the girl and right here, that is the boy."

He Xinyan patted Gu Yechen on the hand excitedly, "Did you hear?! It is a boy and a girl!"

Gu Yechen nodded his head. Of course he heard! He was already extremely surprised at the news of having twins, and now words couldn't even describe how excited he felt!

Having twins was already very rare, much less having a girl and a boy!

After the rest of the check-up, He Xinyan and Gu Yechen quickly left the hospital to go spread the good news to Xu Mengya and Gu Hanyu.

He Xinyan really hoped that the boy would come out before the girl. She had always wanted an older brother, but since she wasn't lucky enough to have one, she could only hope that her daughter would be able to.

Xu Mengya and Gu Hanyu were both extremely shocked by the news, and even Gu Hanyu, who was always calm and cold, couldn't help but smile and clap his hands together in excitement.

"Oh Yanyan, it will be hard on you. Two kids. . . at once!" Xu Mengya suffered greatly when giving birth to Gu Yechen and Gu Yebei, so she understood the pain and difficulty of going through labor.

Although she was excited to get two grandchildren at once, she also couldn't help but feel a little nervous for He Xinyan.

"Don't worry, mom. It won't be too bad. . . hopefully."

For the rest of the four months, He Xinyan was forced to stay inside all the time unless she was going outside for a walk to get some exercise in. Even so, she had to be under the accompaniment of either Gu Yechen or Xu Mengya.

All of the sharp edges in the house were covered with soft cushions, and Gu Yechen was seriously considering building an elevator inside the house, but He Xinyan said it wasn't necessary.

All of the ingredients and food they ate were completely organic and their diet was extremely well-balanced. He Xinyan could not watch her phone or the television for too long each day in fear of the UV rays hurting the babies, so her only source of entertainment was reading books now.

"Hmph! You care about the babies more than me," He Xinyan said sourly one day when Gu Yechen refused to buy her cake when she asked for it, but then when she said the babies wanted it he changed his mind.

Gu Yechen chuckled softly and hugged onto He Xinyan, gently kissing her on the cheek, "I want the babies to be healthy and happy so you will be healthy and happy. Hopefully that way, when you go into labor, it won't be so tiring and hard."

He Xinyan was obviously not convinced as her pregnancy attitude appeared and she angrily tilted her head to the side. The babies weren't even out yet, and Gu Ye Chen was already treating them like this!

What would happen when they actually came out?! She would become the least favorite of the family! Although on the outside He Xinyan was angry at the babies, internally, she was still happy that Gu Ye Chen liked the two of them so much.

Gu Ye Chen liked seeing jealous He Xinyan and he lifted one hand up, pinching her cheek. He Xinyan immediately swatted his hand away.

Gu Ye Chen then bent down and placed one hand over He Xinyan's gigantic stomach, "Look at you two. Your mother doesn't like you!"

He Xinyan immediately blew up, "Who said I don't like them?! I like them! I don't like you! Hmph!"

Reborn To Love #Chapter 279 It's Time - Read Reborn To Love Chapter 279 It's Time

Chapter 279 It's Time

He Xinyan immediately blew up, "Who said I don't like them?! I like them! I don't like you! Hmph!"

She angrily stood up slowly because it was much harder than usual with so much weight on her stomach and turned around, walking towards the stairs.

However, when she reached the stairs, Gu Ye Chen immediately appeared and grabbed onto her hand, helping her up the stairs.

She didn't resist this because she also didn't want to take any risks, and the stairs were quite dangerous, especially for a pregnant woman.

When they reached the top, she pushed Gu Ye Chen's hand off and entered the room, sitting down on the bed with one hand on her hip and the other on her stomach.

"Don't be mad anymore, the cake is here."

He Xinyan frowned, "Where?"

"I had Chen Xiao buy it earlier and he says he is here already. I'll go get it for you, okay?"

He Xinyan pursed her lips out and although she wanted to stay angry, she couldn't give up on the cake, ". . . Okay," she said gravely.

Gu Yechen smiled and rubbed her head softly before going down the stairs to get the cake. He opened the door, took the cake from Chen Xiao, and without any other words, closed it in Chen Xiao's face again.

Ah, poor Chen Xiao. He was playing a game and had to stop midway to go and buy a cake for Mrs. Gu. His teammates were probably still mad at him!

Gu Yechen brought the cake up and gave it to her angry little wifey, whose anger immediately dissipated when she started eating the cake.

Gu Yechen was used to her mood swings by now. One moment she was angry and upset, and the next she was happy again. Hopefully, it might be over once the babies are born. There were still about two weeks until the estimated delivery date, and they were visiting the hospital basically every other day by now.

The private hospital was completely focused on He Xinyan because not only did Gu Yechen have a special identity that no one dared to offend, but also because the fraternal girl and boy twins were very rare.

If anything happened, Gu Yechen had made it clear that the hospital would have to pay.

At night, He Xinyan went to bed before 10 P.M. She was used to sleeping early by now since Gu Yechen forced her to sleep early since she got pregnant.

After she fell asleep, Gu Yechen very carefully and slowly got out of bed and walked out of the room. He then entered his office to finish off some important work he didn't do.

He left the company again since it was almost time for He Xinyan's delivery date and he wanted to spend all the time at home with her just to be careful.

However, even so, he still had some work to do. So he would do all of it at night after He Xinyan had fallen asleep.

He stayed in the office for over three hours, and when he saw that it was 1 A.M. already, he closed the computer, stood up, closed the lights, and left the room.

He walked quietly and slowly, carefully opening the door to the bedroom and slowly walking in.

However, once he walked in, he noticed that something was wrong.

Although it was very weak and soft, in the silence of the night, it was still really easy to hear.

"Yecheh. . ."

Gu Yecheh's eyes widened as he opened the lights and ran over to the bed, only to see He Xinyan's small face red and scrunched up in pain, and beads of sweat rolling down her face.

--- Half an hour ago

He Xinyan was deep into her sleep, lying uncomfortably on her back and unable to move because of her large stomach.

In her sleep, she furrowed her eyebrows together and a few seconds later, she slowly blinked her eyes open. It took quite a long time for her eyes to adjust to the darkness, and she gulped uncomfortably.

She placed one hand over her stomach and said softly, "Be good babies, okay? Mommy and daddy are trying to sleep."

She did not know why, but her stomach hurt a lot. It was almost like the two babies were fighting inside or something, but the pain was almost unbearable.

She closed her eyes again and tried to fall asleep, but the pain just seemed to get worse and suddenly, a scary thought flashed past her mind.

No way. . . There were still supposed to be two weeks? She was probably overthinking. . . right?

Although He Xinyan really wanted to just ignore the pain and continue to sleep, it was way too bad. She normally could not stand even the slightest bit of stomach pain, but this was 100 times worse than normal stomachaches.

Reluctantly, she turned to the side to wake Gu Yecheh up, but she didn't see him!

He Xinyan's eyes widened and she lifted one hand up, patting the empty space next to her. Where was he?

"Gu Yecheh!" She called and then waited for a few seconds in the silence with no reply.

"Husband!" She called again, still hearing no reply.

The pain was getting worse and worse and she tried to push herself up, but it was basically impossible with her gigantic stomach.

It was clear that she had twins because her stomach was at least 1.5 times larger than a normal pregnant woman. This made it much harder for her to do regular tasks. Even standing up felt like an exercise to her.

The pain only made it worse. He Xinyan tried again, using all of her energy but still with no success.

"Ah!" She cried out softly from the intense pain, and she almost wanted to just faint. The two worst types of pain in the world to her were stomachaches and headaches. She could not stand it!

"Yeichen!" She called again, but it seemed like he wasn't even in the room. Where was he?

Chapter 280 To The Hospital

"Yeichen!" She called again, but it seemed like he wasn't even in the room. Where was he?

She stayed laying on the bed in pain for a very long time, and each second seemed to be like eternity. Soon, she realized that the pain came in bursts. Sometimes, it would get a little better but then suddenly, it would be extremely bad again.

She was beginning to feel tired again, but she couldn't fall asleep because whenever she tried to, the pain would suddenly become even more unbearable. She was certain that the babies were trying to come out! Was she going to have a premature delivery?

Right as the burst of pain she just felt lessened slightly, she heard the door open.

"Yeichen. . ." She called as loudly as she could, but her voice still sounded very weak and in pain.

The lights opened and she opened her eyes slightly to see Gu Yeichen run over.

"Where were you?" She said, her voice cracking as she almost felt like crying.

Seeing her in pain, Gu Yeichen felt his heart clench up in pain and he immediately grabbed onto her hand, "I'm sorry, I was in the office. What's wrong? Does your stomach hurt?"

He Xinyan nodded her head and held on extremely tightly to Gu Yeichen's hand, "A lot -"

Gu Yeichen's pupils dilated and he felt his heartbeat speed up as he reached down and carefully lifted the blanket up.

"Do you feel like it's wet down there?" Gu Yeichen asked, not sure how to phrase the question well.

He Xinyan was so focused on the pain that she seemed to have lost most senses, and didn't bother to think about whether her water had broken or not until Gu Ye Chen's reminder.

"I. . ." She squirmed slightly and her eyes immediately widened, "Yes, yes. . . Gu Ye Chen, my water broke! It -"

She seemed to lose basic common sense or calmness when she realized that her water had broken two weeks before it should have, "Gu Ye Chen, what do I do?"

Gu Ye Chen had looked up a lot of information about what to do, but at the moment, he was also a little lost, "I'll. . . I'll call the ambulance."

He did not know if he was supposed to carry her up or move her, so the best decision was to probably call the ambulance.

After making it clear that he wanted the people here in five minutes, he hung up the call and wrapped both hands around He Xinyan's sweating hand.

"Does it hurt a lot?" Gu Ye Chen asked, although he already knew the answer from looking at her sweaty and pale face. The almighty King and genius Gu Ye Chen also had times when his brain would jumble up and he would be also too nervous to think clearly.

He Xinyan closed her eyes and nodded her head as she pressed her lips together.

Gu Ye Chen felt his heart ache with pain from her response, and he gently placed one hand onto her cheek, brushing through her hair.

"Hang on, okay? I promise it won't be for too long. . . I will buy you as much cake as you want when this is over!"

He Xinyan chuckled weakly, "I will get fat. . ."

"It's okay, you are too skinny." Gu Ye Chen smiled and gently placed one hand onto He Xinyan's stomach, rubbing it in circles in hopes of decreasing her pain.

"The ambulance is coming very soon. Don't worry. . ." Just as he spoke, the sound of the sirens on an ambulance could be heard from outside, and Gu Ye Chen let out a breath of relief, "Do you hear that? The ambulance is here. Let's go to the hospital, okay?"

He Xinyan nodded her head.

"I'll go get the door. I'll be right back." Gu Ye Chen kissed her on the lips quickly before running out the room and down the stairs. He opened the door and coldly glared at the doctors and nurses standing outside, "Hurry up!!"

At once, a stretcher was pushed into the room by the nurses and doctors and they ran up the stairs. They all knew how important this patient was, so they were all 101% alert.

A few minutes later, He Xinyan and Gu Ye Chen were in the ambulance on the way to the hospital. Luckily, since it was very early in the morning, there weren't many cars on the road.

Gu Ye Chen called Xu Mengya and Gu Hanyu and they were originally upset about getting woken up at this time, but when they heard what was happening, they both quickly jumped off the bed, put on a jacket, and ran out the door.

Although all the nurses were rushing around in the ambulance, Gu Ye Chen still stayed right next to He Xinyan the entire time, holding onto her hand.

About 12 minutes later, they arrived at the hospital and were immediately pushed in. Although it was just a pregnancy, the entire hospital was in a rush because it wasn't just any pregnancy. .. it was the wife of Gu Ye Chen's pregnancy!!

Gu Ye Chen was kept outside the room as He Xinyan was pushed in to prepare for labor, and he fell back onto the chair in the empty hallway.

He couldn't help but blame himself for tonight. He should have just stayed inside the room with her. Why did he leave to go to work?!

Gu Ye Chen slammed his fist onto the armrest of the chair and buried his head into his hands. He didn't know for how long she was in pain, and what it would be like to have no one around her when she was suffering, not even him.

He took a deep breath to try and calm himself and he looked up, tapping his feet against the ground anxiously.

A few minutes later, he heard the sound of hurried footsteps and he looked up to see Xu Mengya and Gu Hanyu running towards him.

"Where is Yanyan? How is she? When did she start feeling pain?" Xu Mengya asked nervously, still in her pink bunny slippers. It was clear she had forgotten a jacket because Gu Hanyu's jacket was over her and he was in his sleepwear.

Gu Ye Chen gulped and felt a little guilty when thinking about how he had been away from her when she was in pain, "She's inside. . . I'm not sure."

"How can you not be sure? Ah, isn't her delivery date supposed to be two weeks later? What happened?"

Gu Ye Chen gulped, "I was in my office doing work, and when I returned she was calling for me."

Xu Mengya's mouth fell open, "How could you be doing work?!" She angrily slapped him on the shoulder and looked towards her husband, "Look at your son! Is work more important than your children?!"

Gu Yechen obediently listened without any objections this time and he also felt incredibly guilty inside. He should have been more considerate. He completely didn't think about the possibility of premature delivery, so that was why he didn't think much and went to work.

Xu Mengya angrily sat down a few seats away from Gu Yechen and crossed her arms together angrily. The three of them were in silence for a minute until suddenly, the door opened and a nurse walked out.

The three of them immediately jumped up simultaneously.

"Mr. Gu, do you want to be present during childbirth with Mrs. Gu?" The nurse asked.

Without any hesitation, Gu Yechen nodded, "Yes."