

Reborn To Love 147

Chapter 147 Li Yuyan's New Plan

He Xinyan turned around and looked at Bai Jiawei with a smile, "Right, dad?"

Bai Jiawei's mouth fell open in surprise and his eyes also widened, "What?!"

He Xinyan nodded her head, "Of course! I am old enough to work in the company by now. I should get ready and get used to what goes on in the company to prepare for taking over."

Most of the shareholders of the He Corporation attended the party tonight, and most of them knew He Xinyan, because her grandfather was the founder.

Some of them nodded their heads in agreement. They were older and were friends with He Xinyan's grandpa, so they obviously knew that the company should rightfully go to He Xinyan.

Bai Jiawei's first response was to say no, but there were a lot of guests here tonight. Most were friends with the He family, and they knew that He Xinyan was the heir to the He Corporation.

If he said no. . . Not only He Xinyan, but other people would also realize something was wrong. There were several large shareholders here, and Bai Jiawei couldn't say no.

What if they think that he was trying to swallow the company for himself? Although that was his goal, he couldn't show it!

After several seconds of silence, Bai Jiawei finally smiled reluctantly, "Of course! Yes. . ."

He Xinyan grinned, "Thank you."

She stepped back and smiled triumphantly.

'I will take back what should belong to me and the He family.' He Xinyan took a deep breath. Her drama was ending very soon, and she wouldn't be picking up a new one.

Although her dream also meant a lot to her, there were more important things to do. She had to take back what was hers and also take revenge.

In the crowd, Gu Yechen crossed his arms together with a smile.

His baby was so cool! To be honest, to Gu Yechen, He Xinyan didn't have to do all of this. She could literally just tell him to help her, and he would buy the He Corporation and kick Bai Jiawei out of the game.

However, that wasn't what she wanted. She wanted to take back what belonged to her by herself, and Gu Yechen was going to support her.

After the speech, He Xinyan walked back to Gu Yechen happily. Meanwhile, Bai Jiawei and Li Huiran were very scared. Li Huiran was also in a very bad mood because of He Xinyan's announcement. She couldn't let that happen!

He Xinyan walked quickly to Gu Yechen and hugged him.

He patted her on the head gently and kissed her forehead, "Tell me if you need anything."

"I know!" He Xinyan lifted her shoulder up excitedly and they walked over to the food tables together to eat.

Su Zhiming was at the corner of the room with Li Yuyan, but his eyes were on He Xinyan. Why was Li Yuyan pregnant?!

Su Zhiming clenched his fists together. Things are going to be difficult from now on. . . How would he leave Li Yuyan if she was pregnant?

But he couldn't let go of He Xinyan either! Su Zhiming sighed and glanced at Li Yuyan, "I'm going to the restroom."

Li Yuyan was very unhappy that her spotlight was once again stolen away from He Xinyan. Also, she was scared about He Xinyan joining the He Corporation. She was also the daughter of the He family!

She should get a portion of He Corporation too! Li Yuyan pressed her lips together and took a deep breath.

Things have changed. In the beginning, she had agreed to sleep with Liu Wei for filming opportunities. However, He Xinyan wasn't going to film anymore, so what was the point even if she had amazing roles?!

Li Yuyan knit her eyebrows together as she thought of the possibility that she slept with that ugly man for nothing.

No, it wasn't for nothing. Li Yuyan glared at He Xinyan, who was eating a slice of cake next to Gu Yechen, and clenched her fists together. She couldn't film now because she was pregnant, so she was going to stop He Xinyan.

She couldn't let the He Corporation go to He Xinyan! It was hers! Li Yuyan grinned as she glared at He Xinyan.

She had his child now, so he had to help her! There was no way the company would go to He Xinyan. With Liu Wei's help, it was definitely going to be hers!

Li Yuyan also walked over to the food tables and grabbed a cup of champagne. Her first plan to embarrass He Xinyan with the present failed, but she had a new one!

Li Yuyan's smile widened as she took a small sip of the champagne.

He Xinyan had walked over to talk with some of the shareholders of the He Corporation, and Gu Yechen stood a few feet away from her, holding her plate of unfinished cake.

Li Yuyan walked past several guests, moving closer and closer to He Xinyan.

She grasped the glass of champagne tightly and stopped when she was about a foot away from He Xinyan.

Li Yuyan tapped He Xinyan on the back and when He Xinyan turned around, she lifted up the bottle of champagne and smiled, "Cheers!"

He Xinyan frowned as she lifted up her glass of wine. The next second, Li Yuyan tilted her glass forward and the liquid inside was on the border of spilling out.

"Ah!" Li Yuyan screamed.

Right before the liquid spilled, He Xinyan quickly pushed the glass back, and it landed on Li Yuyan's dress, right below the waist.

"You!" Li Yuyan tried to wipe away the liquid, but it had stained a large portion of her dress.

He Xinyan raised one eyebrow and didn't say anything. A few drops had landed on her white dress, but she didn't care about it.

"Look -" Some of the people around them began whispering and He Xinyan looked up curiously.

Although Li Yuyan was furiously trying to wipe away the champagne, it obviously wasn't working. Her dress's color was very light, and the fabric was also very thin, so the liquid bled through the fabric, making it translucent.

The part where the champagne had spilled was right under the waist, hence where the underwear should be.

However, Li Yuyan wasn't wearing any underwear!
