

Reborn To Love 79

79 The Engagement Ceremony

Li Yuyan cleared her throat and plastered a smile onto her face, "Hello, Mr. Gu. I am Li Yuyan, Yanyan's sister."

Li Yuyen cleared her throat and plastered a smile onto her face, "Hello, Mr. Gu. I am Li Yuyen, Yanyan's sister."

Gu Yechen didn't even bother glancing at Li Yuyen, but instead turned to look at He Xinyen, "Sister? When did you have a sister?"

Xinyen opened her mouth to speak, but Li Yuyen beat her to it.

"Hehehe, Yanyan must have forgotten to tell you about me. I'm her older sister, Li Yuyen." Li Yuyen used one hand to move a few strands of hair back and smiled as she spoke softly, acting like a great sister.

"No, I didn't forget." He Xinyen grinned, "I don't have a sister. . . You're my stepsister."

This time, Li Yuyen succeeded in holding her anger in as she brought back her ultimate move from her past life. The pity card!

She looked down and bit her lip, "I know you don't like me, but I have always treated you as my biological sister."

Bei Jiawei frowned deeply, "Yanyan, don't talk to your sister like that!"

"Is there a problem? There is indeed a difference between sister and stepsister." Gu Yechen raised one eyebrow lazily and spoke with a cold tone.

"Well. . . No, there is no problem. President Gu is correct, there is a difference."

Li Yuyen glanced at her dad and clenched her teeth together angrily.

"Well, we just came over to congratulate you. . . stepsister. If there is nothing else, we are going to get seated." He Xinyen held onto Gu Yechen's hand and she waved with a smile before walking away.

They found their seats in the front row and set down. Almost like wasps attracted to light, people began coming over and introducing themselves a little too eagerly.

"Hello, President Gu and Miss He! I'm the chairman of the Qinhe Entertainment Business. Nice to meet you, nice to meet you!"

To everyone's disappointment, only He Xinyen politely greeted them back whereas Gu Yechen had no reaction to any of them as he was completely focused on playing with He Xinyen's hand.

Almost everyone in the room had come over already, and it was quite amusing to He Xinyen to look at the lonely people at the front of the room.

To be honest, she didn't have any sense of guilt or pity towards them for what she did. Maybe it was because she was just a bad and evil person in general. However, this really was nothing compared to what she had received in her past life.

As she watched them, another man who seemed to be older than Gu Yechen but younger than Bei Jiawei walked over.

"Hello, Mr. and Mrs. Gu! I'm Li Yijian, nice to meet you."

Gu Yechen's hands froze for a second and he looked up at the man standing in front of them.

"What do you want?"

He Xinyen's eyes widened. This was the first time Gu Yechen actually acknowledged the people that came over.

The man himself was also quite surprised, "Hehehe, nothing. I just came over to introduce myself."

"I'm not a patient person. Sponsor or corporation?" Gu Yechen frowned slightly.

"Sponsor!" The man said quickly, "I need money for a new project."

"Is 5 million enough?"

"Yes, yes! More than enough! My company is the Luqi Corporation. Thank you! Thank you very much!"

Everyone else in the room stared at them wide-eyed. Why did that man get a sponsor from Gu Yechen, but they didn't?! That wasn't fair.

After the man had left, He Xinyen had got it figured out, "Did you give him the sponsor because he called me Mrs. Gu?"

Gu Yechen picked up her hand again and began playing around with her fingers, "My baby is the smartest."

". . ."

All of the guests had arrived, and because not many people went up to congratulate Li Yuyen and Su Zhiming anymore, the ceremony began earlier than expected.

He Xinyen found the ceremony to be extremely boring as she watched the two disgusting people on stage speak and act all lovey-dovey.

The ceremony finally ended right before she was about to fall asleep, and she was the first to stand up from the chair and drag Gu Yechen over to the refreshment tables.

"Ah, this is the only good thing about this ceremony," He Xinyen said as she looked at the food.

Xinyen had decided that she and Gu Yechen had done enough already, and she will be generous and allow the rest of the engagement ceremony to be peaceful and planned.

There was still a lot of fun ahead at the wedding. . .

For the rest of the time, she ate, until it was time to go home. Bei Jiawei came over and told her that she could go home and rest to show Gu Yechen that he was a good father, but he did not expect He Xinyen to reply:

"I didn't plan on staying to help anyway."

With that, she and Gu Yechen had left the hotel, entered their car, and returned back to the Xihe Estates.

When Bei Jiewei, Li Huiwen, Li Yuyun, and Su Zhiming returned home, He Xinyun was on the couch watching television with a bag of chips on her lap.

Li Yuyun's eyes turned red with rage when she saw He Xinyun and she marched over, "He Xinyun! You did that on purpose didn't you?!"

"What?" He Xinyun asked innocently. Li Yuyun wasn't only mad about Gu Yechen, but she had also realized that during the entire ceremony, Su Zhiming's eyes and attention were fixed onto He Xinyun, and he would glance at her every few seconds.

She had purposely dressed like an evil vixen to steal her spotlight! Of course, Li Yuyun couldn't actually say that, or else she would be telling He Xinyun she was scared of her.

Even now, Su Zhiming had his eyes glued onto He Xinyun. She had always been very conservative in the past when she was with him, and she never wore revealing clothes like the one she had worn today.

It was different but also very attractive. . . He had been like this for a while now. It seemed like He Xinyun could control his heart, and his every movement or word was like an attraction spell to Su Zhiming. Especially today, she looked so beautiful. . .

But it was too late now. He couldn't break off the wedding with Li Yuyun, and even if he did, he wasn't sure if he would be able to get Xinyun back.

"You cannot bring Mr. Gu to my wedding! I know you are purposely trying to draw attention to yourself, but not at my wedding!"

He Xinyun shrugged, "I won't bring him. He is a very busy person, you know? It's an honor he even spent the time to go to your engagement ceremony. He doesn't have the spare time or energy to go to your wedding, so don't overthink."

Li Yuyun opened her mouth to say something else, but Bei Jiewei suddenly stepped forward.

"Yunyun, I need to talk to you. Come with me to my office."

Li Yuyun cleared her throat and plastered a smile onto her face, "Hello, Mr. Gu. I am Li Yuyun, Yonyun's sister."

Gu Yechen didn't even bother glancing at Li Yuyun, but instead turned to look at He Xinyun, "Sister? When did you have a sister?"

Xinyun opened her mouth to speak, but Li Yuyun beat her to it.

"Hohoho, Yonyun must have forgotten to tell you about me. I'm her older sister, Li Yuyun." Li Yuyun used one hand to move a few strands of hair back and smiled as she spoke softly, acting like a great sister.

"No, I didn't forget." He Xinyun grinned, "I don't have a sister. . . You're my stepsister."

This time, Li Yuyon succeeded in holding her anger in as she brought back her ultimate move from her past life. The pity card!

She looked down and bit her lip, "I know you don't like me, but I have always treated you as my biological sister."

Boi Jiwei frowned deeply, "Yonyon, don't talk to your sister like that!"

"Is there a problem? There is indeed a difference between sister and stepsister." Gu Yechen raised one eyebrow lazily and spoke with a cold tone.

"Well. . . No, there is no problem. President Gu is correct, there is a difference."

Li Yuyon glanced at her dad and clenched her teeth together angrily.

"Well, we just come over to congratulate you. . . stepsister. If there is nothing else, we are going to go get seated." He Xinyon held onto Gu Yechen's hand and she wowed with a smile before walking away.

They found their seat in the front row and sat down. Almost like wasps attracted to light, people began coming over and introducing themselves a little too eagerly.

"Hello, President Gu and Miss He! I'm the chairman of the Qinhe Entertainment Business. Nice to meet you, nice to meet you!"

To everyone's disappointment, only He Xinyon politely greeted them back whereas Gu Yechen had no reaction to any of them as he was completely focused on playing with He Xinyon's hand.

Almost everyone in the room had come over already, and it was quite amusing to He Xinyon to look at the lonely people at the front of the room.

To be honest, she didn't have any sense of guilt or pity towards them for what she did. Maybe it was because she was just a bad and evil person in general. However, this really was nothing compared to what she had received in her past life.

As she watched them, another man who seemed to be older than Gu Yechen but younger than Boi Jiwei walked over.

"Hello, Mr. and Mrs. Gu! I'm Li Yijun, nice to meet you."

Gu Yechen's hands froze for a second and he looked up at the man standing in front of them.

"What do you want?"

He Xinyon's eyes widened. This was the first time Gu Yechen actually acknowledged the people that come over.

The man himself was also quite surprised, "Hohoho, nothing. I just come over to introduce myself."

"I'm not a potent person. Sponsor or corporation?" Gu Yechen frowned slightly.

"Sponsor!" The man said quickly, "I need money for a new project."

"Is 5 million enough?"

"Yes, yes! More than enough! My company is the Luqi Corporation. Thank you! Thank you very much!"

Everyone else in the room stared at them wide-eyed. Why did that man get a sponsor from Gu Yechen, but they didn't?! That wasn't fair.

After the man had left, He Xinyun had got it figured out, "Did you give him the sponsor because he called me Mrs. Gu?"

Gu Yechen picked up her hand again and began playing around with her fingers, "My baby is the smartest."

". . ."

All of the guests had arrived, and because not many people went up to congratulate Li Yuyun and Su Zhiming anymore, the ceremony began earlier than expected.

He Xinyun found the ceremony to be extremely boring as she watched the two disgusting people on stage speak and act all lovey-dovey.

The ceremony finally ended right before she was about to fall asleep, and she was the first to stand up from the chair and drag Gu Yechen over to the refreshment tables.

"Ah, this is the only good thing about this ceremony," He Xinyun said as she looked at the food.

Xinyun had decided that she and Gu Yechen had done enough already, and she will be generous and allow the rest of the engagement ceremony to be peaceful and planned.

There was still a lot of fun ahead at the wedding. . .

For the rest of the time, she ate, until it was time to go home. Boi Jiwei came over and told her that she could go home and rest to show Gu Yechen that he was a good father, but he did not expect He Xinyun to reply:

"I didn't plan on staying to help anyway."

With that, she and Gu Yechen had left the hotel, entered their car, and returned back to the Xihe Estates.

When Boi Jiwei, Li Huiran, Li Yuyun, and Su Zhiming returned home, He Xinyun was on the couch watching television with a bag of chips on her lap.

Li Yuyun's eyes turned red with rage when she saw He Xinyun and she marched over, "He Xinyun! You did that on purpose didn't you?!"

"What?" He Xinyun asked innocently. Li Yuyun wasn't only mad about Gu Yechen, but she had also realized that during the entire ceremony, Su Zhiming's eyes and attention were fixed onto He Xinyun, and he would glance at her every few seconds.

She had purposely dressed like an evil vixen to steal her spotlight! Of course, Li Yuyun couldn't actually say that, or else she would be telling He Xinyun she was scared of her.

Even now, Su Zhiming had his eyes glued onto He Xinyan. She had always been very conservative in the past when she was with him, and she never wore revealing clothes like the one she had worn today.

It was different but also very attractive. . . He had been like this for a while now. It seemed like He Xinyan could control his heart, and his every movement or word was like an attraction spell to Su Zhiming. Especially today, she looked so beautiful. . .

But it was too late now. He couldn't break off the wedding with Li Yuyan, and even if he did, he wasn't sure if he would be able to get Xinyan back.

"You cannot bring Mr. Gu to my wedding! I know you are purposely trying to draw attention to yourself, but not to my wedding!"

He Xinyan shrugged, "I won't bring him. He is a very busy person, you know? It's an honor he even spent the time to go to your engagement ceremony. He doesn't have the spare time or energy to go to your wedding, so don't overthink."

Li Yuyan opened her mouth to say something else, but Bai Jiawei suddenly stepped forward.

"Yuyan, I need to talk to you. Come with me to my office."

Li Yuyan cleared her throat and plastered a smile onto her face, "Hello, Mr. Gu. I am Li Yuyan, Yanyan's sister."

Gu Yechen didn't even bother glancing at Li Yuyan, but instead turned to look at He Xinyan, "Sister? When did you have a sister?"

Xinyan opened her mouth to speak, but Li Yuyan beat her to it.

"Hahaha, Yanyan must have forgotten to tell you about me. I'm her older sister, Li Yuyan." Li Yuyan used one hand to move a few strands of hair back and smiled as she spoke softly, acting like a great sister.

"No, I didn't forget." He Xinyan grinned, "I don't have a sister. . . You're my stepsister."

This time, Li Yuyan succeeded in holding her anger in as she brought back her ultimate move from her past life. The pity card!

She looked down and bit her lip, "I know you don't like me, but I have always treated you as my biological sister."

Bai Jiawei frowned deeply, "Yanyan, don't talk to your sister like that!"

"Is there a problem? There is indeed a difference between sister and stepsister." Gu Yechen raised one eyebrow lazily and spoke with a cold tone.

"Well. . . No, there is no problem. President Gu is correct, there is a difference."

Li Yuyan glanced at her dad and clenched her teeth together angrily.

"Well, we just came over to congratulate you. . . stepsister. If there is nothing else, we are going to get seated." He Xinyan held onto Gu Yechen's hand and she waved with a smile before walking away.

They found their seat in the front row and sat down. Almost like wasps attracted to light, people began coming over and introducing themselves a little too eagerly.

"Hello, President Gu and Miss He! I'm the chairman of the Qinhe Entertainment Business. Nice to meet you, nice to meet you!"

To everyone's disappointment, only He Xinyan politely greeted them back whereas Gu Yechen had no reaction to any of them as he was completely focused on playing with He Xinyan's hand.

Almost everyone in the room had come over already, and it was quite amusing to He Xinyan to look at the lonely people at the front of the room.

To be honest, she didn't have any sense of guilt or pity towards them for what she did. Maybe it was because she was just a bad and evil person in general. However, this really was nothing compared to what she had received in her past life.

As she watched them, another man who seemed to be older than Gu Yechen but younger than Bai Jiawei walked over.

"Hello, Mr. and Mrs. Gu! I'm Li Yijian, nice to meet you."

Gu Yechen's hands froze for a second and he looked up at the man standing in front of them.

"What do you want?"

He Xinyan's eyes widened. This was the first time Gu Yechen actually acknowledged the people that came over.

The man himself was also quite surprised, "Hahaha, nothing. I just came over to introduce myself."

"I'm not a patient person. Sponsor or corporation?" Gu Yechen frowned slightly.

"Sponsor!" The man said quickly, "I need money for a new project."

"Is 5 million enough?"

"Yes, yes! More than enough! My company is the Luqi Corporation. Thank you! Thank you very much!"

Everyone else in the room stared at them wide-eyed. Why did that man get a sponsor from Gu Yechen, but they didn't?! That wasn't fair.

After the man had left, He Xinyan had got it figured out, "Did you give him the sponsor because he called me Mrs. Gu?"

Gu Yechen picked up her hand again and began playing around with her fingers, "My baby is the smartest."

". . ."

All of the guests had arrived, and because not many people went up to congratulate Li Yuyan and Su Zhiming anymore, the ceremony began earlier than expected.

He Xinyan found the ceremony to be extremely boring as she watched the two disgusting people on stage speak and act all lovey-dovey.

The ceremony finally ended right before she was about to fall asleep, and she was the first to stand up from the chair and drag Gu Yechen over to the refreshment tables.

"Ah, this is the only good thing about this ceremony," He Xinyan said as she looked at the food.

Xinyan had decided that she and Gu Yechen had done enough already, and she will be generous and allow the rest of the engagement ceremony to be peaceful and planned.

There was still a lot of fun ahead at the wedding. . .

For the rest of the time, she ate, until it was time to go home. Bai Jiawei came over and told her that she could go home and rest to show Gu Yechen that he was a good father, but he did not expect He Xinyan to reply:

"I didn't plan on staying to help anyway."

With that, she and Gu Yechen had left the hotel, entered their car, and returned back to the Xihe Estates.

When Bai Jiawei, Li Huiran, Li Yuyan, and Su Zhiming returned home, He Xinyan was on the couch watching television with a bag of chips on her lap.

Li Yuyan's eyes turned red with rage when she saw He Xinyan and she marched over, "He Xinyan! You did that on purpose didn't you?!"

"What?" He Xinyan asked innocently. Li Yuyan wasn't only mad about Gu Yechen, but she had also realized that during the entire ceremony, Su Zhiming's eyes and attention were fixed onto He Xinyan, and he would glance at her every few seconds.

She had purposely dressed like an evil vixen to steal her spotlight! Of course, Li Yuyan couldn't actually say that, or else she would be telling He Xinyan she was scared of her.

Even now, Su Zhiming had his eyes glued onto He Xinyan. She had always been very conservative in the past when she was with him, and she never wore revealing clothes like the one she had worn today.

It was different but also very attractive. . . He had been like this for a while now. It seemed like He Xinyan could control his heart, and his every movement or word was like an attraction spell to Su Zhiming. Especially today, she looked so beautiful. . .

But it was too late now. He couldn't break off the wedding with Li Yuyan, and even if he did, he wasn't sure if he would be able to get Xinyan back.

"You cannot bring Mr. Gu to my wedding! I know you are purposely trying to draw attention to yourself, but not at my wedding!"

He Xinyan shrugged, "I won't bring him. He is a very busy person, you know? It's an honor he even spent the time to go to your engagement ceremony. He doesn't have the spare time or energy to go to your wedding, so don't overthink."

Li Yuyan opened her mouth to say something else, but Bai Jiawei suddenly stepped forward.

"Yanyan, I need to talk to you. Come with me to my office."