'Without much effort

there was a snap

and the heel of the shoe broke in two.'

'He Xinyen smirked and did the same with the other shoe

but the other shoe was perfectly normal and didn't break.'

'He Xinyen had to say that Li Hui ren wasn't very . . . diverse in her use of schemes.'

'Two times. . . In her past life

Li Hui ren had used the exact same strategy.'

'And she was stupid enough to fall for it.'

'He Xinyen remembered Bei Jiewei's 60th birthday party very clearly because she had gotten a severe scolding after it.'

'Just like this time

Li Hui ren had given her a pair of shoes in her past life too. A pair of broken shoes.'

'The shoes wouldn't break when simply walking because there was direct pressure on the heel with each step

so it would stay in place.'

'However

when dancing

it was easier for the heel to come loose

and one wrong step would mean the shoe breaking.'

'And that was what happened. . .'
