Chapter 191: Have You Ever Seen A Chinese Sword?

"He disappeared!"

"Where is he?"

"Oh, my God? How did he disappear into thin air?"

The mercenaries stopped with their shooting when they realized something was wrong. Chen had moved to the back of one of the mercenaries.

Crack!

The mercenary's neck was broken along with the crispy sound echoing in the air. He died instantly.

"This... This is not possible! I... I must be dreaming!"

Shi Kelang's face was filled with extreme shock, "The speed of that bastard is so much faster as compared to the time when he fought with me! This... This is simply not humanly possible!"

He would never know how Chen improved his combat power in such a short period of time! That was not scientific at all!

"Second... Second master... What is happening now?"

At the same time, Shi Dafeng, Shi Dabiao, and Shi Mingwei were in deep shock as well. Their legs went soft. Thus, none of them could stand properly on the ground. A few minutes ago, they imagined how Chen would be captured by the mercenaries, crippled and tortured mercilessly by them. None of them expected Chen's combat power to skyrocket enough to defeat all the mercenaries! Basically, Chen was killing the mercenaries like stepping on ants! At this moment, Chen was like a demon to them when they look at Chen's stare. Their hearts and souls had been completely flooded by extreme fear!

"Far... Mr. Farker... You guys must kill that bastard! Don't let him live! If not, the consequences of him staying alive will be real bad!" Shi Kelang's voice sounded shaky. Chen's combat power was a destructive impact on him. Deep inside his soul, he was so afraid of Chen.

"Needless to say, I will definitely kill that bastard!"

Farker was starting at Chen furiously like a volcano waiting to erupt. Chen managed to kill a few more mercenaries when they were talking to each other. The rest of them had fallen into complete chaos. It was just a matter of time before Chen killed the rest of them!

"Mr. Shi...! There's something I need to tell you before I kill him!"

Farker did not charge at Chen immediately. He talked about the loss that he just suffered from Shi Kelang.

"This bastard is so much more powerful than what you told me earlier! Your inaccurate intel caused all my gang members to die in vain! What are you going to do about my loss?!"

"Don't worry! Mr. Farker!"

Without hesitation, he said immediately, "We will be able to collect a huge ransom from the Lan Family after you kill this bastard! I will then use the money to cover your loss! By that time, you will have enough money to build a new army!"

"Alright! Deal!"

Farker licked his lips and laughed coldly, "I wanted to change this batch of garbage for better ones long before this! I will go to Africa to recruit some warlords after I receive the money that you promised me! Those warlords and mercenaries in Africa are the real deal!"

He did not move a single bit after he made the statement. He was literally watching his comrades being massacred by Chen! It was pretty obvious that those dead mercenaries were just tools that could be replaced by him. Since he was getting a batch of better replacements, he could not care less about his current batch of mercenaries!

Even animals knew how to protect their partners. But, this Farker had no regards towards his partners at all. His atrocity would make one boil with anger. This Farker was worse any animal!

POM!

Finally, the last mercenary was killed by Chen with a hard kick that caved his chest in. The Netherspirit Battlescouter started to display a series of notifications to Chen.

Ding!

[You have killed a big bad guy. 1000 merit points had been awarded to you!]

Ding!

[You have killed a big bad guy. 1000 merit points had been awarded to you!]

.....

Ding!

[Your current merit points are 100000. You still need another 200000 merit points to go to next level!]

Ding!

[Congratulation! You have become Philanthropist the Third! Charm: 10000, Luck: 10000!]

Chen wasn't affected by the good news at all. To him, this was just the beginning.

Clap!

Farker clapped his hand and walked towards Chen with an arrogant face and said, "Real elites do not use guns! Real elite like me uses melee weapons to destroy their opponents!"

Shiiiink!

Farker took out a rapier from his waist while talking arrogantly! He was trying to tell Chen that he was the Jianghu elite while Chen was just a weakling that used a gun to kill his opponents.

"Elite? You are far from that!"

Chen raised his eyebrow and looked at Farker condescendingly.

Ding!

[Cultivation: Later phase of physical stage, Health: 2000, Combat power: 2000!]

Chen already saw through him even though he acted like he is some kind of ten thousand combat power elite! Two thousand combat power was a huge number to old Chen. At then, he stood at a higher ground. Thus, an opponent with two thousand combat power was just another piece of dead meat to him. Chen wanted to reward him with a word; hehe!

"You will know soon whether I'm an elite or not!"

Farker shook his wrist, and the rapier became really straight. It was like a giant needle that gleamed menacingly!

"Wow! This is awesome!"

It was like some kind of special effect in movies; the whole Shi Family could not look away from him. A hope for victory started to light up inside their hearts. There was a saying; amateurs know only the surface but elites know the inside out of everything!

Shi Kelang started to compliment Farker nonstop when he saw the impressive move, "Mr. Farker, such powerful move! I don't think I can possess such arm strength even after I have trained for ten years! The ending is pretty much set with your presence here!"

"Hmph! Don't you worry! Monkeys like him will not live when I decide to fight him personally!"

Farker was really proud when he heard the compliments from Shi Family. He looked at Chen in disdain.

"Bastard! I will let you witness the power of sword skill of the Farker Family that has been passed down from generation to generation! My sword skill is definitely better than your Chinese sword skill by hundred folds!"

Farker squinted and filled his body with a murderous aura!

Fssshhh...

Farker stepped on the ground hard and burst to Chen like an arrow! He did not reserve any of his two thousand combat power. At the same time, he aimed his rapier at Chen's heart! The rapier was thin and long. A powerful thrust like this could penetrate through a steel board, let alone a human body! Technically speaking, a rapier embedded with such power was definitely more powerful than a gun! Unfortunately, that was just another joke to Chen.

"So, this is it? You said this is more powerful than out Chinese sword skill! You are such an amateur! Have you seen the real Chinese sword skill?!"

Chen lifted his arm and aimed it at Farker.

"Sword!"

Chapter 192: Vengeance Best Served Hot!

"What is this bastard trying to do?"

"I can't figure out what is he trying to do... Is he trying to use his palm to stop Farker's sword?"

"I think he just went full retard! Mr. Farker's awesome sword skill made his brain short-circuit! Hahaha..."

The Shi Family started to laugh at Chen.

"Bastard! Are you not going to struggle before you die? It's no fun killing a person who doesn't struggle! Hahaha..."

Farker started to laugh arrogantly as well.

His bloodthirsty stare showed that he was looking forward to penetrating Chen's heart with his soft blade. The scene of blood gushing out from Chen's chest made him really excited! Blood and women were the only things in this world that could make Farker excited!

However, he never thought that he would not even witness a blood gushing scene.

"Go!*

Chen was calmed. He shouted and a dragon that had waited for a long time to have a taste of blood burst out from his palm!

Roar!

A shadow-like black dragon let out its powerful and dominating presence!

"What... What is this thing?"

Everyone was in awe. Especially Farker! His confidence and arrogant had completely disappeared into thin air. They were replaced by trembling fear deep inside his heart and soul! He felt like he was just an useless tiny dust as compared to that powerful black dragon. As the leader of Demon Mercenary, Farker had been through more than one life and death situations. He was so used to those kinds of situations! However, the fear that he felt this time was completely different from the fear that he familiar with. His pupils contracted, hands and feet went cold. He was completely powerless in front of the black dragon. He could not even breath properly at this critical situation. Let alone fight against the black dragon.

This is the true fear! Unfortunately, it was too late for him to realize it!

"Fusssshhhh..."

The Black Dragon penetrated his chest. A bloody hole could be seen on Farker's chest after the Black Dragon disappeared. His heart and lung were completely disintegrated by the Black Dragon. The blood gushed out like a fountain from his back. He did not even know how he died in the end.

"Oh my god... Shit! What the f*ck is that thing?"

"That is so damn scary! Is that some kind of alien technology? I think that bastard is an alien instead of a human!"

"God! I think we just offended a powerful monster!"

Shi Dafeng, Shi Dabiao, and Shi Mingwei were too scared to move their bodies. Goosebumps were all over their bodies. Three of them had a hard time controlling their bladders. They might just pee themselves anytime soon. To them, that Black Dragon was not the kind of thing that should exist in this world! Normal people like them could never accept abnormalities like this!

"Fly... Flying Sword! That was the legendary Flying Sword!"

As a Jianghu guy, Shi Kelang managed to identify the sword skill that Chen just used to kill Farker. His eyes were wide opened, and his jaw almost fell to the ground.

Shhiiiiing!

The Black Dragon flew back to Chen. A bloody sword mark could be seen from the dragon head. That was the mark of Chaos Sword Essence that fed on enemies' blood! It rested in Chen's body for quite some time. It had more than enough time to finish its transformation. It was definitely more powerful as compared to the time when Chen used it to defeat his enemies. Since Chen's cultivation had improved a lot, it was not necessary for it to return to Chen immediately.

Chen's strength allowed him to use the sword three more times without feeling tired or exhausted. The Black Dragon was circling around Chen. His powerful presence brought a huge impact on the Shi Family. Three of them could feel their hearts being crushed slowly as Chen walked towards them.

"How is this possible? Legend had it that only few Jianghu elites possessed the ability to maneuver the Flying Sword! How did Chen manage to... Oh god... This bastard is a monster..."

Shi Kelang was so shocked. He began to doubt everything that he knew so far.

Ding!

[You have killed a Two Life Times Bad Guy! 20000 merit points had been awarded to you!]

Ding!

[Your current merit points is 120000. You need another 180000 merit to go to next level! Charm: 12000, Luck: 12000!]

Chen knew that he received a huge amount of merit points after his Netherspirit Battlesocuter showed him the notification. Finally, the Demon Mercenary Gang was destroyed!

"So, four of you there! Decide the way you want to die!"

Chen stared coldly at the last four family members from Shi Family. There was still no sense of emotion could be seen from Chen. He looked at them like four corpses rather than four live persons!

"Oh my god... I don't want to die!"

Shi Mingwei knelt down and started to cry like a big baby. He was a coward from the beginning. It was impossible for him to withstand the pressure from Chen and the Chaos Sword Essence! Thus, it was totally understandable that he finally broke down.

"Second master! We still have our hostage with us! The hostage!"

As compare to Shi Mingwei's cowardice, Shi Dafeng and Shi Dabiao hung on to their last hope to survive!

"That's right! Lan Mengchen is still in our hand! Why should we afraid of him?!"

Shi Kelang was all lighted up when he was reminded of the hostage. He ran to Lan like he was just given a shot of adrenaline.

"Such kiddy move! Do you really think you can run faster than me?!"

Chen looked at him coldly and shouted, "Sword! Go!"

Shiiiiing!

The wind blew all of a sudden. The presence of the Black Dragon tore open the space and caught up with Shi Kelang!

"Shit! I'm so done..."

Shi Kelang could feel the powerful presence at his back! All hope was lost. He couldn't react to the Flying Sword's lightning speed. A heart wrecking pain started to spread to his whole body. The blood gushed out the next second. The Black Dragon managed to cut his body in half.

"Second master!!!"

Shi Dafeng and Shi Dabiao screamed hysterically! It was not the death of their family member that made them scream, but the hope that had been completely destroyed by Chen!

"Stop screaming! The two of you are going to accompany him on the way to hell! You won't be lonely when you reach hell!"

Chen moved his finger and the black dragon flew to them.

Shiiing!

Shiiing!

The heads of Shi Dabiao and Shi Dafeng were cut off along with the sound. Their eyes were still opened wide when their head landed on the ground!

Splash!

Splash!

Two streams of blood splashed to Shi Mingwei! He was covered it blood completely! He broke down earlier when he could longer see any hope to live through the day. Another powerful stab landed on his weakened heart when he saw two more of his family members died in a gruesome way.

His eyes were rolled back. He did not manage to express his feeling. He had been scared to death, literally! Finally, the whole Shi Family was completely massacred by Chen! Chen's bloodlust finally calmed down. He walked to Lan slowly.

Chapter 193: Weird Request From Mengpo

It seemed that Lan's condition was still pretty good. Maybe Shi Kelang was worried that hurting the hostage might have reduced the chances of getting the ransom. All he did was to knock her out. It was not strong enough to cause any injuries. He then carried Lan to his car.

Ding!

Ding!

Ding!

Ding!

The Netherspirit Battlescouter displayed another four notification. Chen received another fifty thousand merit points for killing the four family members of Shi Family.

Ding!

[Your current merit points is 170000. You need another 130000 merit points to go to another level!
Charm: 17000, Luck: 17000!]

"Not bad at all! Mengchen did not suffer any injuries, and I received one hundred thousand merit points as well! The path to helping Brother Yu get back to his male body is getting closer and closer!"

The corner of Chen's mouth raised up, and a genuine smile was shown on Chen's face. Not only did the harvest today enable him to shorten the gap to helping Xiangyu, his charm and luck were improved greatly as well. It might just bring Chen some good surprises!

Chen locked the car door and went back to the warehouse. First, he moved all thirty-five corpses together and poured the rest of the bodies from his treasure chest onto the pile of corpses as well.

"Finally, I get to use the Body Dissolving Poison that I mixed earlier!" Chen raised his eyebrows and took out a small china bottle from his treasure chest. He opened the lid and poured the black liquid on the pile of bodies.

Fitzzzz!

Fitzzzz!

Fitzzzz!

The black liquid started to react with the corpses. White smoke was seen rising from the pile of corpses. Next, muscles, bone, clothes and even guns started to dissolve really fast!

"Damn! This is some potent shit!"

Chen said shockingly, "Not even a single thing was not dissolved by the poison! There's only a pool of blood on the ground. I don't think they can tie me to the blood! I need to bring this good shit with me whenever I want to kill people!"

Chen went back to the car after he dealt with all the bodies. Lan was still in a comatose state. That was not a big problem to Chen. All he needed to do was feed a bottle of Hundred Herbs Potion to her, and all the hunger and tiredness would disappear completely.

"Hold on!"

Chen hesitated and thought, "How am I going to explain to her about what happened in there just now? Even if Lan agrees to help me to keep the secret, the Ice Demon Queen might suspect that I'm the person behind this massacre! Then, I will be in huge trouble!"

"It's tough for me to fool everyone after I kill so many people! Lan might be traumatized by this incident! It will be great if she can forget everything about it! Oh! Right!"

Chen was all lighted up. He then took out the Mengpo's Soup from his treasure chest. The liquid in the bowl was dark green. At then, there was another problem.

"How much should I feed her to forget about the things that happened in these two days? I will be in huge trouble if I overfeed her! To be safe, I should ask Mengpo about it!"

Chen quickly opened up his Red Envelop group chat.

Chen: Aunt Mengpo, are you there?

Mengpo: Cough God Chen, you are such a naughty guy! I'm old enough to become your great-grandmother. And, you just called me your aunty! Lol...

Chen: Haha... Please don't get angry at me. I was worried that you might get angry if I call you old grandma. (Act cute emoji)

Mengpo: Such a sweet mouth! Spill it... Why are you looking for me?

Chen: I would like to know how much Mengpo's Soup should I feed to a person if I want her to forget about the things that happened in two days?

Mengpo: One drop of it is more than enough.

Chen: Okay... Thank you so much, Mengpo. I don't have anything else to ask you.

Mengpo: Hold on, God Chen! I have a favor to ask you!

Chen: Please say.

Mengpo: God Chen, you should know that there are two options for a people after they die. Option one; they can enter the earth realm to continue to train themselves. Option two; they can choose to be reincarnated. I have a group of besties with me. They have been waiting at the Naihe Bridge for more than thousand years. They still can't decide on what they want to do.

Chen: Why?

Mengpo: They spent their entire life in the emperor's palace. Thus, they are still virgins (blush). The fact that they died as virgins bother them greatly!

Chen: Erm...

Mengpo: Right! They might turn into evil spirit if they still can't make a decision! And, they will be banished to hell! I can't afford to see them turning into evil spirits! Thus, I'm hoping that you can help me with this problem.

"Errrr...."

Chen was completely stunned when he saw Mengpo's request.

He thought, "A group of old virgins... Man! This is so bizarre! Where should I even begin to help them? I can't be sending them a bucket of cucumbers and asking them to do it themselves, right?"

Chen was having a headache when he thought about it. Initially, he was going to decline helping Mengpo but those grannies were actually quite pitiful. Thus, Chen decided to think of a way to help them.

Chen: Mengpo granny, I don't have any ideas with me right now... Allow me to have some time to think about it... I will contact you once I figure out something.

Mengpo: Okay! Okay! Okay! I'm so grateful for your promise!

Chen: You are most welcome, Mengpo granny! I should go back to take care of my friend. See you around! Bye!

Mengpo: Okay! See you around too, God Chen!

Chen put down his phone and fed a drop of Mengpo's Soup to Lan. Then, he kept the rest of the Mengpo's Soup back in his treasure chest. After that, he took a bottle of Hundred Herbs Potion and fed it to Lan.

"Ermmm..."

A few minutes later, Lan finally regained her conscious. At the same time, Chen already drove to Binghai driveway away from the warehouse at the harbor.

"I... Where am I?"

Lan lifted her hands slowly and rubbed on her temples. She took a look at her left and right side.

"Xiaobei! Why am I in your car?" Lan asked shockingly.

Her beautiful eyes were opened wide when she saw Chen.

"I was going to ask you about that. Why were you sleeping at the beach? You have been missing for two days! We were really worried about you!" Chen was trying to make up some bullshit story.

Lan rolled her eyes and pouted, "I'm not going to fool around with you. I have to go home to celebrate Mid-Autumn Festival with my family!"

"I'm not lying to you! Now, it's four in the afternoon. Listen to the news on the radio, and you will know I'm telling you the truth."

Chen proceeded to turn on the radio.

A woman's voice can be heard on the radio.

"Good afternoon everyone! Today is the 25th of September. The time now is four in the afternoon! Welcome to my show called Your Moon My Songs. I'm your good friend; Zhang Xiaoxian!"

"This... How is this even possible?!" Lan was shocked she heard the news from the radio station. Chen might have lied to her but the broadcaster from the radio station would never lie to her audience! Next, Chen was shocked by the news that was reported by the radio station!

1. Naihe Bridge: Bridge of Helplessness", a bridge every soul has to cross before being reincarnated, they are said to drink the Mengpo soup(孟婆汤) at Naihe Qiao so they will forget everything in their current lives and prepare for reincarnation.

Chapter 194: The Secret Dance!

"Line dancing is one of the hottest kind of dances in China recently. Almost all the middle-aged aunties and grannies are crazy about this dance!"

"I believe that you have heard something like this before; everything can be solved with line dancing between aunties! Two rounds of line dancing and everything is good again!"

"Next, let's shake it with the music that I'm going to play now! The name of this song is called Little Apple!"

A familiar tune started to play on the radio after the voice of the broadcaster faded off in the background.

[You are my little apple! A fire, fire, fire, fire, fire that lights up my life!]

Frankly speaking, whether you are a music person, a funny guy or even an arrogant guy, this music would make you sing along, shake your head and move your legs. This is the true power of this song!

"What if... I teach those grannies how to do line dancing... It might just distract them from the fact that they are still virgins... Can it dissolve the hatred in their heart as well?" Chen was shaking his legs while thinking about this ultimate solution. The scene of teaching thousands of spirits line dancing together was too just too damn beautiful to imagine!

"Okay! I have made up my mind! I'm going to try it no matter what! It might just work well!"

Chen raised his eyebrows and made the decision inside his heart. He planned to record a tutorial clip of line dancing after sending Lan home safely.

At the South Lake Mansion, Lan Zhengguo was still like an ant on the hot pot. He had high hopes that Luo would solve this case. But, Luo herself didn't even have an idea of where to begin to solve this case. She was just as worried as Lan Zhengguo. Let alone solving the case, there was not a single lead surface after two full days. As an inspector of Six Doors Organization, she was embarrassed by herself for not being to solve the case as soon as possible. This actually affected the reputation of Six Doors Organization.

"Dad!"

A pitiful voice echoed to Lan Zhangguo's ears.

"Mengchen!"

Lan Zhengguo was all lighted up when he saw his daughter walked towards him. Mengchen rarely saw her dad being so excited. Thus, she was touched as well. She cried when she hugged her dad. Although she could not remember most of the things that had happened for the past two days, she did feel like she had been through life and death situation deep inside her heart. It was a rebirthing moment for her when she got to see her dad again.

"Mengchen, are you alright? Where have you been for the past two days?"

Lan Zhengguo asked immediately.

"I have no idea what happened to me for the past two days. Luckily, Chen found me. If not, I don't think I can see you again..." She rubbed her teary eyes and said.

"It doesn't matter what happened to you! I'm glad that you come home without any injuries!"

Lan Zhengguo rubbed his eyes and looked at Chen seriously. He bowed at Chen and said in a deep voice, "Mr. Chen, thank you so much..."

"You are most welcome! It's just an easy task." Chen shook his hands and said.

What! Easy task?!

Everyone was shocked when they heard Chen's words.

The head of the family, Lan Zhengguo had his eyes wide opened in shock. Two elders at the pinnacle phase of physical stage; Uncle Qin and Uncle Feng were completely stunned. The most expressive award went to Luo Puti. Her mouth became an O shape. They could not believe Chen said this was just an easy job!

All the powerful individuals in the house failed to find any single lead, even after they had gathered their efforts together. If Lan was not brought back home safely, Chen would definitely have been beaten up like a criminal!

Well, since Chen managed to bring back Lan home safely, he had earned everyone's respect in this mansion! Lan Zhengguo looked at Chen from a completely different angle right now. His heart started to shaken up by Chen's capability. He was considering whether to tell Chen about his family's tough situation. It was not necessary for him to stop her daughter and Chen being together if Chen could solve his family problem.

On the other hand, Uncle Feng did not like Chen initially. Now, Chen became one of his favorite persons! Even though he did not say anything, he just decided secretly that he owed Chen a big favor! He would help Chen whenever Chen needed his help! For Luo, she was still petrified. She thought that she could defeat Chen in every matter. She was wrong the moment Chen brought back Lan home safely. It crushed her confidence completely! She needed some time to recover from the huge impact that Chen brought to her heart. One could not argue with facts. Thus, she had to admit that she just lost to Chen.

"Mr. Chen! You have done a great favor to our family! Let me know if you need any help in the future! I will do my best to help you as long as the matter is not illegal!" Lan Zhengguo was very serious about it. The way he addressed became extremely polite and respectful. Less than five persons had managed to earn his respect in Green Vine City. That was a truly genuine gratitude!

"Your words would mean a lot of things!"

Chen pouted and continued to say, "I want to marry your daughter! Will you agree to it? It's not illegal, right?"

"Erm..." Lan Zhengguo was completely speechless.

"Pssst... Asshole Xiaobei... What are you talking about?" Lan Mengchen said shyly.

"Hmph! You are one true asshole! You just committed a multiple marriage crime! How dare you say that this is not illegal?" Luo rolled her eyes and Chen and thought.

Chen finally decided to say something when he saw Lan Zhengguo was being put in an awkward situation, "I know you will not promise me that. I will hold on to the favor that you owe me first. I will look for you when I encounter something that I cannot solve."

"Okay... Okay... Okay... I owe you a favor!" Lan Zhengguo sighed in relief.

"Alright... I should leave first and allow Mengchen to have a good rest." Chen did a simple parting with the rest of the people and left the mansion. However, Luo decided to stay for a while to ask Lan about the things that happened in past two days. Unfortunately, she could not remember a single thing at all. There was nothing that Luo could do about it. Thus, she left the mansion as well.

Chen went straight to his room upon reaching his house. At then, he was going complete a hard task. He turned on his computer and looked for a few line dancing videos involving the Little Apple song. He then chose the best one from it. After that, he took a few pieces of paper and drew out the steps after he finished analyzing the dancing clip. Also, he included a brief explanation for every single step. Finally, he made it into a book. It looked like one of those martial art scrolls.

"Now, it's all up to you to dissolve those grannies' hatred!"

Chen put the line dancing manual into the Red Envelope and sent it to Mengpo.

ED Note: Little Apple by Chopstick Brothers. There's a version of this song covered by T-ARA. Also became a heated topic when a fanmade MV of it featuring N.Korea's Kim Jong-Un drove the guy furious enough to send death threats to the party responsible for creating it. (Google Kim Jong-Un furious over viral dance video for more information). Personally, I sometimes sing a disgusting version of it to my close friends – by changing the lyrics from 'Little Apple' to 'Little Durian'.

Chapter 195: A Red Envelope From Granny Rong!

Chen downloaded the clip and sent it to Mengpo after sending the Red Envelope. He then briefly explained the line dancing steps to Mengpo. He did not get an immediate reply. However, Chen received a message from Mengpo after the lunch.

Ding!

[You have been invited to join the Little Apple Funland! Accept or decline?]

"Little Apple Funland... That is some adorable name..."

Chen did not expect this at all. He was so shocked after he tapped accept. There were three thousand people in the new group that Mengpo just created! Wait! Three thousand ghosts, not people!

There were Granny Zhang, Granny Li, Granny Fang, Granny Wong... And whole bunch of other grannies! Chen was overwhelmed by it. All of a sudden, Chen saw a familiar name! He was stunned. The officer of this group was none other than the legendary Granny Rong from Daming Lake!

Chen could not believe what he just saw. He was pretty surprised by the Wei Xiaobao incident last time. The granny group was even more unbelievable! At the same time, a series of messages started to pop out in the group.

Mengpo: Let's welcome God Chen!

Granny Zhang: Welcome! God Chen! You are our savior!

Granny Li: That's right! Initially, we thought we were going to be consumed by the grudge that we held on for a long, long time! Now, the song that you just sent us had lit up our hopes of living again!

Granny Fang: Our stone cold hearts began to warm up when the song played in the background!

Granny Wang: We feel so young and energetic whenever the dance with this song!

Granny Rong: Thank you, God Chen! We will never forget that you are the one who found us a safe harbor for our lost souls! I'm going to dance to this song every single day!

Soon, Chen's phone was flooded with messages. Almost all the members from Little Apple Funland sent a message to Chen. All those were truly genuine messages. Chen was so shocked when he received three thousand messages.

"All I did was teach them the line dancing? Why did it become such big deal?"

"These grannies are like those old people from old folks home. Their hearts were crushed by loneliness as time passed by. There was almost nothing for them to hold onto. Thus, most of them just spend their time waiting, to die. These old people would feel so happy when their sons and daughters visited them. To them, a simple line dancing had brought them so much hope. They never asked for more. We are the ones who did not give enough to them!"

Chen: Everyone! This is nothing! I'm so overwhelmed by your gratitude!

Mengpo: God Chen! You are too humble! And, you are worthy of our gratitude!

Granny Zhang: That's right! You are the only one in three realms which had the heart to save us from our loneliness! There's no one else worthy of our gratitude except for you!

Granny Li: Yes! Only you can provide us with such an awesome dance and song! God Chen, you are the best in these three realms!

Granny Fang: The song; Little Apple has conquered our hearts completely!

Granny Wang: Let me give you three hundred and twenty likes!

Chen: Hahaha! I will look for more interesting songs and dances and send them to you guys, since all of you like it so much! Then, you guys won't have to listen to the same song over and over again!

Mengpo: What?! There will be new songs?

Granny Zhang: And, new dance moves?

Granny Li: What will that be? What will that be?

Granny Fang: Please tell us now!

Chen: Be patient, everyone. I have a lot of interesting songs in my song collection! I will prepare three songs for you guys next time; The Coolest Diversity, Please Bring Me Around Old Driver, and The Song of Five Rings!

Mengpo: Wow! Three songs! God Chen, you are awesome!

Granny Zhang: God Chen, you are the coolest guy ever!

Granny Li: I wish that you will be able to live forever!

Granny Fang: That's a wrong thing to say!

Chen chit chatted with them for a short while. A message lit him up when he was about to leave the chat group.

Granny Rong: God Chen! You have done a great favor! As an officer of this Little Apple Funland, I have to represent my sisters and give you something to show our appreciation towards your effort!

Ding!

[Granny Rong just sent a Red Envelope to the chat group!]

Granny Rong: This is not something valuable! But, it represents our gratitude! I hope you don't mind this old item that I just gave you!

Chen: No! I don't mind at all! Thank you so much!

Ding!

[Congratulation! You have snatched a Red Envelope from Granny Rong! You have received the Needles of Damnation! It had been stored in your treasure chest!]

"The Needles... Of... Damnation"

Chen was sweating when he looked at his cellphone screen.

"This is the real legendary Granny Rong from Daming Lake!"

"Could it be the needles that she used to poke Zhiwei?"

Chen's eyes were wide opened. He then proceeded to open the treasure chest.

Ding!

[The Needles of Damnation; the torture tool of Granny Rong! It was soaked inside the grudge and Yin Qi in hell for a thousand years! Thus, it has become a spirit item! It can be used to magnify the pain when it pokes inside someone's body! Do you want to withdraw it?]

"Damn... This is some awesome tool!"

Chen tapped on no and laughed evilly, "I don't have the fetish of torturing someone! But, I will not hesitate on having my enemies have a taste of this awesome needle!"

Meow...

Xiaobai was standing behind Chen; It jumped on Chen's shoulder with minimal effort.

"Damn! I did not know the agility of a one-start Spirit Beast can be so great!"

Chen was really impressed.

"Pssst...There's nothing great about this simple move!"

Xiaobai licked his paw arrogantly and said, "Check out the backyard! I saw some guests there!"

"Guests? What kind of guests will go through the backyard to enter the house, instead of front door?!"
Chen was puzzled.

Soon, his face was filled with anger.

.....

Two suspicious persons could be seen hiding in the bushes in Chen's backyard.

"Brother Ji, I... When should we do it?" The skinny guy with sharp chin asked.

"Almost there! Get ready! We are going to it now!" Brother Ji is a fatty. He stood up slowly. The skinny guy gulped and followed him.

Two of them were holding a can of gasoline in their hands. They then walked towards the mansion suspiciously!

"Brother Ji! This is my first time killing someone by burning down the house... I'm really nervous..." Sweat started to roll down from the skinny guys' face.

Chapter 196: Have You Watched My Fair Princess Before?

"Don't you start getting f*cking nervous right now! We are here right now! Do you think our boss will not punish us if we fail to set fire to burn down this house!"

The fatty; Brother Ji continued to say, "It's an easy task! All we need to is light up the house with the gasoline that we brought here! Mission accomplished! We then can go back to receive the reward that our boss promised us earlier! After that, I will bring you to the best floating casino to reward yourself!"

"That sounds easy, But, do you really think that fire can kill his whole family? Our boss will not pay us if he finds anyone still alive in the house after we set the fire!" The skinny guy said worryingly.

"Damn! You have a shit tonne of bullshit in your mouth!"

Brother Ji started to get pissed off. He stared at the skinny guy and said, "We have to burn down the house no matter what! The reward is not our priority right now! We have to complete the task! I don't want to be thrown into the Tiger Cage! Do you want me to describe to you what is going to happen to us if we are thrown into the cage?!"

"This..."

The skinny guy was petrified. He was filled with fear instantly. He gritted his teeth, "I don't want to be thrown into the Tiger Cage! Let me pour the gasoline around the house!"

"That's the spirit! Let's complete this troublesome task, and our boss will reward us well!" Brother Ji said in a deep voice.

"Too bad! You guys won't make it back to your boss!"

A stone cold voice crept into their backs all of a sudden.

"Who is that?"

Brother Ji got really nervous. Two huge hands were grabbing his face and neck the second he turned around to check out the person.

Crack!

Brother Ji's head was turned one hundred and eighty degrees along with the cracking sounds. That was not the Muscle and Bone Shifting Technique that Chen used normally. Chen really killed this guy by twisting his head.

One hit KO!

POM!

Brother Ji fell to the ground once Chen let go of his hands.

Siiii...

The skinny man sucked in a deep breath when he saw what happened to Brother Ji. His pair of eyeballs almost fell out of their sockets. His pupils turned into needle tips. The extreme fear managed to find a way to fill his body completely. His hands and feet were ice cold. He then started to shake uncontrollably.

"Don't scream if you don't want to die!" Chen said coldly.

"Erm..."

The skinny guy took another deep breath. He was going to scream loudly!

Chen's throat made him cover his mouth real tight! He shoved all his fearful screams back to his throat. He did not even dare to make a single sound.

"Who sent you guys here to burn down my house?" Chen asked. His stares were like sharp knives looking at the skinny guy.

"I... I..."

The skinny guy finally opened his mouth after some time, "I don't dare to say it out... My boss will kill me if I reveal his name..."

"Aren't you afraid of me killing you right now if you refuse to tell me the name of your boss?" Chen said coldly.

"Of course... I'm afraid..."

The skinny guy gulped and continued to say, "I would prefer that you be the one putting me down rather than my ruthless boss!"

"Eh? What do you mean by that?" Chen frowned and asked.

"My limbs will be torn off one by one, if my boss is executing me! At least... It will be a quick death if you are the one putting me down..." He had lost all his eyes. He looked at Brother Ji's corpse unconsciously. The instant and painless death that Brother Ji had just experienced was definitely a good way to leave this world as compared to being thrown into the Tiger Cage.

"Kill me now! I will never tell you a single word even though I know you are going to put me down now!" The skinny guy had made up his mind. Since the death is inevitable for him; he decided to choose the easiest way to be killed!

"I will definitely put you down since you have the intention to kill my whole family!"

Chen then said coldly, "You are too naive if you think I'm going to put you down without any torturing! I have a lot of ways to torture you!"

After that, Chen took out the Needles of Damnation from his treasure chest while talking to him.

"Oh my god... What kind of alien technology is that?" The skinny guy had his eyes and mouth wide open. He thought that Chen was playing some kind of magic trick! To Chen, this skinny guy was already a dead man. Thus, he did not mind letting him know his secret.

"Last chance! Are you going to tell me?"

Chen's look turned cold. He took out three needles from the old and classic pouch. The needles were extremely sharp. One could feel the Yin Qi covering the needles. It was actually kind of creepy!

"You... What are you going to do to me?"

The skinny guy's heart was jumping faster and faster. He could feel something bad was going to happen to him.

Chen asked coldly, "Have you watched the TV series; My Fair Princess? You will know there's a torturing method being shown in the series called needle treatment! I will make you suffer a hundred folds worse than Zhiwei!"

"My Fair Princess? Zhiwei?"

The skinny almost laughed it out loud when he heard Chen's words. He thought those needles would not hurt him.

He taunted Chen, "Do you dare to make a bet with me since you claimed that your needles are some kind of terrifying torturing tools! Let me go if I can hold on to your torturing for more than three minutes! I will tell you everything I know if I start to beg you to stop!"

"Hehe... If you said so. We should try."

Chen laughed coldly. He knew that the skinny guy would definitely yield. After that, he placed two needles on the skinny guy's neck at lightning speed.

"Eh?"

The skinny guy was shocked at the beginning. All he felt was slight itchiness in his throat.

He started to laugh coldly, "So, this is what you called needle treatment! It's no different from being bitten by mosquito..."

A few seconds later, he lost his voice completely.

"That is not needle treatment. I am going to make you lose your voice temporarily. I don't want you to disturb my parents when you squeal like a pig, later!"

Chen had mastered the technique of Nine Dragon Acupuncture. It was easy for him to make someone to lose their voice temporarily. At the same time, he placed the third needle on the skinny guy's chest.

"...."

The next second, his eyeballs almost burst out from the eye sockets. He fell to the ground like lightning just struck him. He was struggling really hard on the floor. His face was completely twisted. It showed that he was in extreme pain. Sweat started to roll down his forehead. Shortly after that, white foam started to come out from his mouth. That kind of excruciating pain was really hard to normal people to look at.

"Hehe... I thought you are going to hang on the pain for three minutes? What happened to it? It's only thirty seconds now!"

Chen looked at the skinny guy from up high and said, "Don't you worry! The best thing about this needle is you won't die from it, but you will suffer from this endless pain! I will make the pain last on your forever and ever if you still refuse to tell me what I want to know!"

His pupils contracted instantly after hearing Chen's words. He shook his head crazily. It was pretty obvious; the pain had taken hold of him. He chose not to suffer from this pain anymore.

Chen smiled coldly, squatted down and lifted the needle from his chest.

Chen continued to ask coldly, "Are you going to tell me now?"

The skinny guy took a deep breath and nodded his head repeatedly.

Chapter 197: A Lustful Kitty That Is Beyond Salvation!

He gave some time for the skinny guy to calm himself down and shake the pain off. He wanted to make sure that he would not scream out loud. Finally, Chen lifted the two remaining needles from his throat.

"Huuuu... Huuuu..."

The skinny guy was lying on the floor like a dead hunk of meat and taking in some heavy breaths. All of a sudden, he found out that the world was a wonderful place after the pain disappeared. Looking at Chen's ice cold face, the skinny guy did not dare to take up too much of Chen's time.

He said fearfully, "Boss Xiao and Boss Liu are the ones who sent us here to set the house on fire..."

"Which Boss Xiao? Which Boss Liu?" Chen asked coldly.

"Xiao Zhe! The owner of the South Lake Beast Fight Colosseum! And, Liu Mang! The leader of the Black Tiger Gang of South City! They are the ones who want to kill your whole family..." The skinny shivered and answered Chen immediately.

"Well, you didn't have to go through all that pain if you answer my questions earlier, right?" Chen's intention to kill was getting stronger and stronger.

He lifted his right leg and brought it down on the skinny guy's throat.

Crack!

His throat and spine were broken. It was an instant death for him. Chen then kept the bodies inside his treasure chest. He took a deep breath to eliminate all the killing instinct that came out from his body earlier. He did not want to scare off his parents. To Chen, his parents were the most important person in this world. He would protect them at all costs. To those who want to hurt his parents would eventually end up in death!

After that, Chen brought Xiaobai and Sirius along with him and drove to the south side of the city. He called the Fire Boss as he was driving.

"Bro Bei! Why did you call me all of a sudden?" The Fire Boss sounded energetic and lively.

One would get into high spirits when good things happen to the person. Not too long ago, The Fire Boss claimed every single one of Xiao Tianma's territory after he eliminated him. Tonnes of good things kept on pouring unto him since then.

"How's thing going on the west side of the city?" Chen asked calmly.

The Fire Boss was actually quite powerful in the underworld right now, but he did not dare to act arrogantly in front of Chen.

He said respectfully, "I managed to fortify my stand on the west side of the city with your great help! Also, I have taken control of every single one of Xiao Tianma's territory! Please let me know if you need any help at all! I will make sure your favor will be done nicely!"

"Get ready to take over the territories of Black Tiger Gang on the south side of the city!" Chen said.

"What?!" The Fire Boss shouted shockingly.

Chen sounded casual. But, the Fire Boss' heart suffered from a huge impact after hearing Chen's statement. The territories of Black Tiger Gang at the south side of the city was bigger than the west side of the city! The leader of the South City was much more powerful than Xiao Tianma as well! It was definitely not an easy task to take control of all the territories. However, Chen made it sounded like an easy task that could be completed by a three-year-old kid. Chen was like a Genie in a bottle to the Fire Boss, everything that he promised him would most likely come true!

"Bei... Bro Bei... Are you serious?" The Fire Boss still couldn't believe what he just heard. The sound of gulping could be heard from his side.

"Cut the crap! I'm on my way to the south side of the city." Chen said.

"Erm... Do you even know what is it like on the south side of the city? Please don't tell me that it's another rushed decision that you made a second ago." Fire Boss asked.

"You are right! I just made this decision a second ago! Are you coming or not?! Don't waste my time!" Chen said impatiently.

"I'm going!"

"This Bro Bei is just too damn reckless! How can he execute such big task that he just decided a second ago?! There are no plans! There are no proper preparations! It's more casual than just going to the market to buy groceries! What do the territories at the south side of the city mean to Bro Bei? Are they just another piece broccoli to him?" The Fire Boss though. He could not comprehend Chen's thoughts at all. He felt like Chen was from a different realm. However, it would be useless for him to overthink it. All he needed to do was follow wherever he goes! He then would be able to grab some benefit from it.

"I will definitely go! Must go!"

The Fire Boss decided and said, "It's my pleasure that Bro Bei is willing to bring me around! I will gather all the manpower that I can get for now!"

He made the necessary preparation after he hung up the call.

On the other hand, Chen asked Sirius in Zoolingualism, "Sirius, tell me everything you know about this Beast Fight Coliseum."

"Yes, Master!"

Sirius was sitting in the passenger seat. He said seriously, "The location of the Coliseum is rather unique. It is located on the Hearty Island! And, the whole island belongs to Xiao Family!"

"Also, that place used to be Xiao's grandfather's private place for drinking tea. Then, Xiao Zhe decided to change it into a coliseum! It was illegal in the beginning. Thus, Xiao Zhe decided to build a good relationship with Liu Mang because Liu can use his influence to buy his way to legalize the coliseum!"

"As a return, Xiao Zhe will give a huge cut of what they earn from the coliseum to Liu Mang. After that, the business got better and better. So, their friendship got better as well."

"Liu even moved his headquarter at the south side of the city to the Hearty Island. Most of the core members of the gang will gather there to gamble when they have nothing to do."

Sirius was one of the oldest members of Beast Fight Coliseum. Thus, he knew everything inside out.

"Gamble? You mean, that's how the coliseum acquire their earnings every month right?" Chen asked.

Sirius said, "Normally, the gamblers will place their bets before the fight begins. Then, they can enjoy the excitement from watching the animals fight against each other and the uncertainty of gambling as well. People get addicted to it easily. I have seen a lot of people lose everything that they have in their lives. While their pockets are getting empty, Liu and Xiao's pockets are getting fuller and fuller!"

"How come so many people lose their bets all the time? Something fishy is going on behind the coliseum!" Chen asked.

"You are right!"

Sirius nodded and agreed with Chen, "People from the coliseum will inject adrenaline into the animals before they fight! Normally, they will give the adrenaline shot to the animal with highest win rate! This allows them to win all the time!"

"Damn! Such a shameless act!"

Chen's tone turned cold and said, "Initially, all I wanted to do is destroy Xiao Family. After hearing what you said, I think we should cut off this cancer from the society as well! I don't want anyone to fall into this endless cycle anymore!"

"I will do what you ask me to do!" Sirius nodded obediently. A sense of determination could be seen from its brown eyes. After feeding him with Heavenly Pet Food, he became a Spirit Beast with two thousand combat power! He was not afraid of the battle that he was going to face later. He was actually quite eager. A long overdue battle!

On the other hand, someone's attitude was not so appropriate when everyone else was in high battle spirits. Xiaobai was sleeping on the dashboard.

"Puti Sister... Puti Sister... Can I lean on your boobies... Erm... So soft... So bouncy... I love it...!" Xiaobai was talking in his dream.

"F*ck! What a lustful cat! He is definitely beyond salvation!" Chen felt a headache when he saw Xiaobai's attitude.

"What kind of Spirit Beast is this? I'm actually considering returning it to Bull Demon King!" Chen thought.

The car already reached the shore of the lake before they realized it. Chen locked on to the Hearty Island that was all lit up.

Chapter 198: The Best Helper!

Chen parked his car neatly and then followed Sirius's lead to a simple harbor that was located at the hidden spot of the forest. Chen took out his cellphone, activated the flashlight function and shone it at the Hearty Island. He was supposed to block the flashlight with his palm every three seconds. That was the secret signal that every gambler needed to do before they entered the Hearty Island. Without Sirius telling Chen about this, it was impossible for him to land his feet on the island at all. After repeating the signal for three times, a light responded from the Hearty Island. Then, a speedboat drove towards them.

"Eh? New faces!"

The driver of the speedboat was a huge middle-aged man with a beard. He looked at Chen at with a condescending stare. The surrounding was kind of dark. He couldn't recognize Sirius even after he took a look at him.

"My friend introduced this place to me earlier. That is why I didn't seem new," Chen said calmly.

"Hmph! I thought you were Boss Wang! Just a freaking amateur! What a letdown!"

The beardy put on an unhappy look and pointed at the seats behind him, "Get on! What are you waiting for? Don't waste my precious time!"

Chen did not say a word. He got on the speedboat and sat on the designated seat. He was holding Xiaobai in his arms, and Sirius was sitting beside him.

"Bro Bei! I want to kick this asshole into the lake and let the crocodiles feed on him!" Sirius snarled.

He was speaking in Zoolingulism. Only Chen and Xiaobai could understand the things that he said. Chen shook his head and signaled him to stay quiet.

"Damn it! I can get at least five hundred to six hundred Yuan as a tip if Boss Wang is the one sitting behind me! Are you not going to give me something?" The beardy complained while driving his speedboat.

"I don't have money." Chen sounded cold.

"I have not seen someone like you asking for tips shamelessly! I will not pay you any tips even though I'm filthy rich!" Chen thought.

"Motherf*cker! Another poor ass bastard! How dare you come to Beast Fight Coliseum if you couldn't afford to pay me tips! You are wasting my speedboat's gasoline! What a bad day!" The beardy scolded Chen and stared at him from time to time.

Woohoo...

Sirius was extremely unhappy about it. He opened up his mouth and rows of sharp teeth could be seen clearly. It was extra terrifying under the moonlight. However, that beardy had seen a lot of vicious beasts. Thus, he was not afraid of Sirius at all! He kept on mocking Chen on the way to the Hearty Island.

"Not only a poor ass bastard! You are a f*cking sissy! Why the f*ck are you holding a stupid cat in your arm? Are you trying to act cute?" The beardy scolded.

Wooooo...

Even Xiaobai was angry this time. He was swinging his claws and said, "F*cking retard! I'm a Frosty Jade Lion! Not your ordinary stupid cat! Your whole family is stupid cats!"

The beardy could not understand a single word from Xiaobai at all. Chen was completely stunned.

"Damn! This Xiaobai has learned more vulgar words! It's all over now! All over now! All he ever did is eat, sleep, think of dirty stuff, and spouts all those vulgar words! He is like a typical teenager that brings bad influence to others!"

"Hey f*cker! Asshole! How dare you call me a stupid cat? I want to kill you!"

Xiaobai was getting angrier while he scolded the beardy. He would have killed him if Chen did not hold him back.

"Nice! Now, he is super violent as well! I'm speechless. He has everything that a bad teenager has!" Chen thought. He was regretful that he did not teach Xiaobei when he was still young. Luckily, Xiaobai would never vent out his anger to his family members. He would only get angry at strangers. When it came to friends and family member, he would become very gentle and friendly.

"F*ck! Shut the f*ck up stupid cat! You are annoying me! Ask him to shut the f*ck up now! If not, I will throw him into the river!" The beardy shouted again. He did not realize Xiaobai's murderous instinct behind him.

This guy was obviously looking forward to meeting the grim reaper! Chen felt like he could not hold on to Xiaobai's anger any longer.

"Hey beardy! All I need to do is pull down the lever when I reach Hearty Island later, right?" Chen asked.

"Yes! Why did you ask?" The beardy answered Chen unconsciously.

"Erm... You will be fed to crocodiles soon...I 'm worried that I might not know how to stop the speedboat. Thus, I wanted to confirm it with you first." Chen said.

"What do you mean by that?"

The beardy was puzzled. He was stunned before he can finish his words.

Woooooo...

Xiaobai jumped on his head and started to use his paws to scratch the beardy's head crazily. He might look like a small cat but his strength was not something that one should joke around! Within few seconds, beardy's thick hair was all gone! He became a baldy! Blood started to gush out from those scratch marks.

Ouch! Ouch!

The beardy was groaning in pain. He wanted to use his hand to push away Xiaobai. But, Sirius had already charged at him and bit his arm. Sirius's teeth sunk deep into his flesh. The immense strength almost shattered his bone. Xiaobai was still angry. He jumped in front of baldy and started to scratch his face like nobody business. A free plastic surgery!

"Brother... Master... Please stop your pets from hurting me! I'm going to die from it!" The baldy was begging hysterically. There was nothing he could do when he faced two beasts with two thousand combat power. He started to beg Chen to let him go.

"It's useless to beg me. You are the one who made them angry. Basically, you are digging your own grave..."

Chen pouted and said, "Plus! I have been very patient with you! You said I'm a poor ass bastard! You said I'm a f*cking sissy! I'm not sorry that you have to die today! Your potty mouth brought death to yourself! People like you will never live longer than one episode in TV series!"

"Ouch... Please! I don't dare to repeat the same mistake anymore! Spare my life please!"

The baldy's heart turned cold when he heard Chen's words. He begged even harder after that. His face was already destroyed. Soon, Xiaobai was bored of him.

He ordered casually, "Sirius! Throw him into the water now!"

"Yes! Boss!"

Sirius obeyed Xiaobai without raising a single question. He bit the baldy's arms, twisted his body and tossed him into the river.

Splash...

It was not possible for him to swim to the shore safely with the wounds on his face and arms. He would become the crocodiles' dinner. Chen then moved to the driver seat and took a look at the controlling board. He found out that there was no big difference between driving a speedboat and a car. All he needed to do was pull the lever and turn the steering wheel.

Soon, they managed to reach the shore safely. Chen hugged Xiaobai in his arms and set foot on this new land with Sirius.

Chapter 199: It's So Big That You Are Going To Be Scared To Death!

Chen had seen dogfights and chicken fight on TV before. But, those fight could not be compared with the things that he saw on the island. There were a lot of cages here. Other than the usual fighting dogs, there were wild wolves and bears. Chen then saw snakes and crocodiles as he walked further inside.

"Damn! This Xiao Zhe seems experienced at managing this Beast Fight Coliseum!"

Chen sighed, "Even I want to watch the fight between all these beasts! It is no wonder that their business is so damn good!"

"This is actually nothing! The most attractive thing in this coliseum is the Tiger Cage and Bloody Pool!" Sirius said.

"Eh?"

Chen was stunned. He remembered that Brother Ji and the skinny guy that he killed earlier on had mentioned something about the Tiger Cage as well. Chen's curiosity was growing as he walked further into the Beast Fight Coliseum. Suddenly, a few muscular men walked towards Chen. Chen's thought was interrupted. From their physical appearance, attire, and expression, Chen knew that they were some kind of gang members on the street.

The one that walked at the front wore a pair of sunglasses at night. He had a goatee and an English word; a F*CK tattoo on his neck. They were definitely thugs!

"That guy is the leader of Black Tiger Gang at the south side of the city; Liu Mang!" Sirius told Chen in a soft voice.

A killing instinct could be seen in Chen's eyes. This was the first time Chen met Liu face to face, but he was involved in the plan of killing Chen family! Thus, Chen would definitely not let him live through the night!

"Hey, you there! Bastard! Who the f*ck are you?!"

Liu looked at Chen condescendingly and asked casually.

"Hehe..."

Chen laughed mockingly and said, "I thought you were trying to act cool with sunglasses on your face. Now, I know that you are a blind dude!"

"F*ck you! You are a blind shit! How dare you talk like that with me?! Trying to dig your own grave, huh?!" Liu took down his sunglasses and stared at Chen angrily. The gang members around him started to warm up their knuckles as well. It seemed like, all of them were ready to beat Chen up.

"Bo... Boss.."

One of the gang members spoke with a shaky voice. He was no nervous. It was like he just saw something horrifying in front of him.

"Say it! Don't act like a sissy!"

Liu rolled his eyes at him and scolded, "Shou Kun, you act like such a pussy after your pride was destroyed!"

That was the guy who had almost knocked down Chen's mom with his car; Shou Kun! It was such a pitiful state. His dick was bitten by Sirius earlier. Chen landed a final kick to destroy it. The doctor had cut it off completely when he was sent to the hospital. That was how he became one of the members of the eunuch club.

"This is the guy... Destroyed my dick..." Shou Kun gulped, and sweat started to roll down his forehead.

"What? How is this even possible?"

Liu opened his eyes wide when he heard Shou Kun's words. He asked shockingly, "I remember that you had eighteen people with you on that day! How could this kid defeat all of you guys?!"

At the same time, the gang members around Liu were terrified. They were extra cautious when they took another look at Chen again. Shou Kun was one of Liu's best brawler. Yet, he was completely defeated by Chen, along with his eighteen followers.

That was unbelievable!

"I'm telling you the truth! There was a female officer with him that day! But, he is the one responsible for our injuries!"

Shou Kun was sad and angry at the same time. He pointed at Chen and said, "Look at what's behind that kid if you don't believe in me! The Sirius that I had with me for a long time is now with that bastard! He is the one that stole my Sirius away!"

Everyone craned their necks to look behind Chen's back after he was finished with his sentence. They saw Sirius sitting there arrogantly.

"Damn! That is Sirius!"

*F*ck! Animals are animals! Shou Kun treated him so well! And, he just betrayed him!"

"That's right! If it wasn't for Shou Kun, this stupid dog will become another dog that would have to dig through garbage to look for food on the street!"

"What a traitor!"

All of them scolded at Sirius angrily. They sounded like they were telling the truth.

"Woof! Woof! Woof!"

On the other hand, Sirius stood up and started to bark at them! To them, Sirius was just barking meaninglessly. However, Chen and Xiaobai knew that Sirius was trying to tell them his horrible past!

"What a bunch of shameless humans!"

Sirius continued to bark furiously, "From the very beginning, all of you treated me like your money-making machine! Always fed me with food that was infused with hormone! You guys used to use a whip and a taser to torture me as well! Also, the adrenaline that you injected into my body in every fight messed up my body real bad!"

"There was once when I fainted for three days and three nights because there was something wrong with the adrenaline rush! When I finally escaped from the gate of hell, I realized that I had been abandoned and tossed aside into a pile of garbage!"

"To you guys, I'm useless when I can't make money anymore! Is this how you treat me well?! I hate you guys!"

After hearing Sirius's story, those gang members became so ugly! All their accusations and scolding were all lies! Chen felt shameful for them since he was a human as well.

Even, Xiaobai could not stand by and do nothing anymore! He said angrily, "Don't be sad, Sirius. We know how you feel! We will make them pay for what they did to you!"

"It's a must!"

Chen looked at Sirius and gave a determined reply.

Sirius managed to calm himself down after hearing Chen and Xiaobai's promise to him. He lifted up his head and looked at Chen and Xiaobai. A warm feeling started to spread in his heart.

"Bastard! It seems like you got lucky recently!"

Li raised his eyebrows and said, "I think the two guys that I assigned to burn down your house have already been killed by you, right?"

"Are you sure about it? I think you sent two animals to my place, not humans!" Chen said calmly.

"Hmph! Such arrogance!"

Liu looked at Chen viciously and said coldly, "I'm going to make myself clear! We shall settle all our hatred towards each other tonight since you are here now! Just tell me how would you like to deal with it? My gang members and I will definitely do it with you till we settle our problems!"

"Hehe... I'm at Beast Fight Colosseum! So, I'm going to do some gambling!"

Chen grinned and said, "Also, I heard that there are a lot of ways to gamble around here! My hands are getting itchy! Maybe I can play some cards with you guys here!"

"Hehe... Sure thing! We are going to play it big, since you want to gamble with us!" Liu put on a smile with suspicious intentions.

"Big! It has to be big! So big that it will scare you to death!" Chen grinned as well. It was an evil smile.

Chapter 200: Ten Million VS Ten Million

"Kid! You are so damn arrogant! Aren't you afraid of losing your life here?!"

Liu squinted and looked at Chen mockingly.

"Cut the crap! Bring me in! Such a long-winded asshole!" Chen said impatiently.

"Alright! Follow me!"

Liu's eyes twitched, and a sense of killing can be seen in his eyes. Chen was the first one at the south side of the city, at this very coliseum who had the balls to speak rudely to Liu Mang!

"I'm going to make this kid regret coming here! He will not be able to go back to where he came from!" Liu thought and gritted his teeth. He was walking in front to lead the way. The coliseum was located in the middle of the island. It was a cylindrical shaped building. From afar, it looked like the ancient coliseum in Rome. But, this coliseum was definitely smaller than the coliseum in Rome. There were at least five hundred to six hundred seats inside the coliseum. All seats were filled! It was really crowded. The zone surrounded by the seats, about five meters down was the stage for the beasts to fight against each other.

There were a lot of spotlights shone at the stage. Everything could be seen clearly under the light. At then, the stage was still empty. But, there was some dried blood left on the stage. Probably, a beast fight just ended a while ago. Undeniably, any beast that went on the stage would suffer from some kind of injury or even death!

"You can sit beside me." Liu led Chen to where he normally sat. He asked Chen to sit beside him. It seemed like he was afraid of Chen running away from him. However, Chen did not mind it at all. Liu then made a call.

After some time, Xiao Zhe rushed to the coliseum with two eyes on fire. He looked like he wanted to eat Chen up with the furious look on his face. His son; Xiao Jianzhong was disfigured by Chen. His son had to sit on the toilet bowl while eating. There were few times when his son shat while eating. That caused him to vomit everything out. This was all caused by Chen. It is no wonder Xiao Zhe hated Chen so much.

"You son of the bitch! How dare you come to my territory! I will f*cking kill you today!" Xiao Zhe shouted. He ignored all the audience around him.

All of a sudden, all eyes were on him.

"Brother Xiao! Calm down!"

Liu pulled Xiao away and said softly, "This kid will die today! But, we can take everything he has before we kill him!"

"What kind of thing?" Xiao Zhe was shocked.

"He wanted to do beast fighting with us! In other words, he is giving everything he has to us!"

Liu smiled greedily and continued to say, "I heard that this kid is filthy rich! Rare opportunities like this do not always happen to us!"

"Is that so? Since he does not know his place, we should play with him!" Xiao Zhe put on a greedy smile as well.

Xiao Zhe had heard about Chen's wealth. He did not want to pass the opportunity to suck all the money out of him. The beast fighting seemed fair from the surface. Xiao Zhe had a lot of ways to manipulate the result. To Liu and Xiao, Chen had come here voluntarily to offer his head to them. In the end, the two of them managed to come to the same ground.

Li went back to Chen and said tauntingly, "The beast fight can begin anytime from now. But, as I mentioned to you earlier, the bet for this beast fight has to be big! One million for one round! We will not bother to play with you if you can't afford this number!"

"One million?"

Looking at Liu's arrogant face, Chen raised his eyebrows and activated his filthy rich aura. He said condescendingly, "What is one million? I have wiped this figure off my mind for a long time ago! Ten million for one beast fight! I will look down on you guys if you guys can't afford this number!"

"Erm..."

Liu and Xiao were stunned after Chen change the offer. Both of them were ashamed of what they said earlier. Their faces were burning hot like thousands of slaps just landed on them. They got to witness a truly filthy rich man! Ten million seemed like an absurd amount of money to put into one single bet. Liu and Xiao might reject Chen if it wasn't a beast fighting bet. They even wanted Chen to put more money into his bet.

However, they knew they should wait for Chen to spend more time in this gamble and the witnesses to sink deeper and deeper inside their traps. They then would be able to suck all the money from Chen. If Chen quit after the first round of betting, they would not be able to get any money from him.

"Alright! Ten million for this round!" Liu and Xiao looked at each other and tapped on the table.

"Now, you can't just promise us the money that you are going to put in this bet! You have to wire the money into our system first! We will put our money into the system as well. When the fight ends, the system will transfer the money to the winner's account automatically!"

In order to make Chen not to be suspicious at their betting system, Liu quickly said, "Don't you worry. All the audience here uses this system as well! This is definitely more than fair!"

"Oh? Does this kind of system exist?"

Chen squinted and looked at Sirius secretly.

Sirius nodded at Chen and said softly in Zoolingualism, "That system is real. Xiao Zhe can manipulate the winner or loser for every single fight. Thus, he doesn't need to mess with the system at all."

"Okay! I will wire the money into his system!" Chen nodded and wired the money immediately.

Xiao Zhe did not fool around. He quickly wired his ten million into the system as well. He had around ten million in his bank account, but he never thought that he would lose the bet. Thus, he did not hesitate putting all his money into this bet.

The crowd was getting really hyped. Shouts and cheers could be heard from all the directions.

"Wow! Look at the screen! It's a bet with an astronomical amount of money!"

"Oh my God! The bet is too damn big! This is madness!"

"What the f*ck! What is money to them? It's terrifying to see one put so much money into one single bet!"

The big screen at the stage was displaying the betting information between Chen and Xiao.

Ten million VS ten million!

Such huge figures hammered every audiences' heart hard. A normal gambler would put only thousand or ten of thousand into one single bet. Those who put hundreds of thousand into one single bet are extremely rare! The total bet for one single beast fight is only few million at most!

So, the figure of twenty million being shown on the screen was something never happened before in this coliseum!

"Everyone!"

Xiao Zhe got himself a microphone and shouted, "There's a special big boss visiting our coliseum today! He wanted to put ten million in this beast fight with me! In order to show him our highest respect, we have decided to send out our superstar beast; Blood Claw!"

"Wow..."

The announcement boiled up the audience once again.
