Chapter 201: Kende Ji Maidang Lao Kentucky McDonald

PAK!

PAK!

All of a sudden, two spotlights beamed on the wall of the stage. There was a steel gate installed on the wall. The sound of chains hitting against locks could be heard from inside the cage. It was as if the creature inside the cage could not wait to break off the chains and come out from the cage. All the audience were holding their breaths. Their eyes were set on the cage.

Creak...

The steel gate opened automatically, and a grey shadow broke free from the darkness. It was a strong looking wolf! A sense of murderous aura was exuding from its crimson red eyes. Its saliva streamed down its fangs and dripped down on the ground constantly. The muscles on its body could be seen clearly. It seemed to be packed with explosive power.

"AwwwWooooo!"

The ferocious wolf started to run around the stage crazily after it howled. Its speed was really fast. Within few seconds, a dust storm was formed from its extreme speed. A series of claw marks could be seen on the loose sand.

"Blood Claw! The beast is out! It is so damn cool!"

"Is that the Blood Claw that has never lost any fight since the beginning of this coliseum? This is my first time seeing it! It looks really powerful and fierce!"

"Right! That's it! Its unbeatable record has made it impossible to bet against! Thus, it has been a long time since it last fought! Finally, we can feast our eyes today!"

"Blood Claw! Blood Claw!"

Every single audience member was excited when they saw the appearance of this ferocious wolf. They were all cheering excitedly.

"Everyone, please be quiet."

Xiao Zhe stood up with a microphone in his hand. He said, "Next, let's take a look at our challenger's beast! Behold!"

Every single pair of eyes landed on Chen after Xiao Zhe finished his announcement. Everyone was anticipating the awesome beast that Chen was going to bring out to fight Blood Claw. A few seconds later, they were disappointed when they saw that Sirius was the one being sent out to fight with Blood Claw. Some of them even started to curse Chen. Xiaobai was completely ignored by them.

"What the f*ck! Is that kid a retard? Is he really betting ten million on his stupid wolf-dog?! It seems like he has too much money with him and he wants to give it out for free!"

"Sigh... I thought I could watch some serious and awesome beast fight... This is total garbage!"

"A Grassland Wolf King was assigned to fight with Blood Claw last month. It was killed by Blood Claw within a few minutes. This wolf dog will not even last for a few seconds!"

"What kind of shit is this? Totally wasting my precious time!"

.....

A greedy looking face started to surface on Liu and Xiao face when they heard the comments from the audiences. To them, Chen's ten million already belonged to them. It was as easy as picking up money from the floor.

Chen started to get impatient when he saw their disgusting faces. Chen asked, "Can we begin now?"

"Sure! It can begin anytime from now!"

Xiao Zhe could not hold on to the excitement inside his heart anymore. He proceeded to say arrogantly, "I don't think it's going to make any difference if we delay it any further since you are going to lose this bet anyway!"

"Go! Sirius!"

Chen ordered Sirius calmly. He did not pay attention to the beast fight because he wanted to see the reaction on Xiao and Liu's faces when they lost the bet!

Fusssshhh!

Sirius charged at Blood Claw without any hesitation.

"What kind of speed is that?! So fast!"

Liu and Xiao were shouting at the same time. All they saw was Sirius turning into a black shadow and charging towards Blood Claw. Sirius's movements were not visible to their eyes at all. On the other hand, every single audience was quietened down. The phantom-like, black shadow that they saw earlier had killed Blood Claw without them even realizing it!

Yes! We are talking about the Blood Claw that killed Grassland Wolf King within a few seconds! The Blood Claw that had an unbeatable winning record in this coliseum! The superstar beast had fallen! Blood started to gush out from its neck. Six hundred audience members had their eyes fixed on the incredible scene that just happened right in front of them! Other than Chen and Xiaobai, no one knew exactly what had just happened inside the fighting ring. That was the true power of a One-Star Spirit Beast!

It was impossible for ordinary human beings to see how a One-Star Spirit Beast fights against others! They couldn't even comprehend the unbelievable scene that just happened right before their eyes.

Earlier on, some of them had said that Blood Claw would kill Sirius within a few seconds!

That is one big ass joke!

Blood Claw did not even know how it was killed in the end!

The result of the fight landed a tight slap on everyone's face. The slaps made them speechless and shameful of what they said earlier about Sirius!

"Xiao Zhe, transfer twenty million to me if you are not blind! Don't waste my time! We can play few more rounds after this!" Chen laughed mockingly.

Xiao Zhe was petrified. He had a hard time recovering from the heartbreaking result. He did not even hear Chen calling out to him. Liu was in shock as well. His jaw had dropped to the ground. They had a hard time accepting the fact that Blood Claw had just lost the fight.

Blood Claw was more than a ferocious looking wolf! It was trained strictly from time to time! Also, it was shot with adrenaline before it entered the fighting ring! To them, it was impossible for Blood Claw to lose to any beast! The two of them were even thinking about how to divide Chen's money after the bet. Well, the result was clear. They could not deny it.

"Xiao Zhe!"

Chen snatched the microphone from Xiao Zhen and screamed.

"Oh my lord!"

Xiao and Liu were scared to death when they heard Chen's scream. Both of them were holding on to each other.

"What the f*ck!"

Chen cried in surprise, "People always tell me about the good relationship that you guys have! After all, two of you are Kende Ji Maidang Lao (The combination of Ji and Lao means gay)!"

"Huh? Kentucky? McDonald? What the hell are you talking about?" Xiao and Liu looked at Chen puzzledly.

People around them were confused about the things that Chen just said as well.

"Is that kid okay? What kind of shit is he talking about? It doesn't make sense at all!"

"Hehe...! Do guys want to know what did I just said? Let me count one, two, and three, and you guys will now read the last work of Kende Ji and Maidang Lao!"

Chen shouted evilly with his microphone, "One! Two! Three!"

His charm allowed him to influence the audience effortlessly.

Every single audience including Liu Mang and Xiao Ji shouted, "Ji... Lao...! (Gay)"

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 202: The True Gay Love

"Hahahaha..."

Everyone was laughing crazily when they shouted the word "Ji Lao".

"Damn! I never realized that Xiao Zhe and Liu Mang were a couple! Look at how they're hugging each other! This is so sweet! I'm getting envious now!"

"I wonder who is the passive one and who is the aggressive one in this relationship!"

"Blarrggghh... This is some hardcore shit! Allow me to puke my guts first!"

"This kid is kind of creative! I can't believe he just thought up of things like this!"

"Right! From today onwards, I can't eat my fried chicken without thinking about this dirty gay shit stuff!"

"Look at them! Look at them! Look at how dirty they are! They are still holding on to each other!"

"Blarrggghh..."

"Damn!"

The teasing from the audience turned Liu and Xiao face red. It looked like blood was going to burst out from their faces. They then pushed away from each other. Both of them wanted to explain to the audience the reason behind the hug. A startle was the reason that made them hugged each other. It was a pure and innocent hug. Nothing about it was dirty, hardcore or gay-ish!

However, the microphone was in Chen's hand. Xiao and Liu's shouting could not cover the laughter from the audience. Both of them felt so wronged. They stared at Chen furiously at the same time. Chen was definitely a mean bastard. He just called both of them a gay couple in front of six hundred people!

"Everyone, please be quiet for a while!"

Chen calmed the audience down and said seriously, "We should come back to serious business after the laughter! Aren't they supposed to pay me after this gay couple lost their bet?"

"Yes!"

"They should keep their promise! This is what a real human being should do!"

"Boss Xiao! Pay the young man! I always looked up to you!"

"Quick! Quick! Quick! Pay him, and we can start the next round of betting!"

The audience started to cheer.

They landed their attention on Xiao, waiting for him to pay Chen.

"This..."

Xiao's face darkened. He could feel the ballache spreading through his body. That ten million was all the money he had right now. The financial chain of the Beast Fight Colosseum would be completely broken if he gave all his money to Chen. In the end, his business would be forced to be put on hold. On the other hand, his reputation would be vaporized if he refused to pay Chen the money. After all, credibility set the foundation of a gambling facility. No one would come here and gamble anymore if the credibility was lost! They would face bankruptcy in the end as well.

Suddenly, Xiao Zhe was being put in a tough position. The two options that he thought of would definitely shake the foundation of his colosseum! That was the true purpose of Chen coming to gamble with them! He wanted to make sure this gambling den would go down for the sake of the society!

"Bro Xiao! There's no need to rush!"

Liu stood up and said, "I still have ten million with me! Pay him first! Then, we will be able to get back all our money during the next round of gambling!"

"Bro Liu!"

Xiao was touched, and he said sincerely, "You are my good brother! I know I can rely on you during critical moments like this!"

"Damn! What a touching moment here!"

Chen held the microphone and said evilly, "Everyone! Did you hear that?! Xiao Zhe just mentioned that he could rely on Liu Mang during critical moments like this! This is true gay love!"

Xiao Zhe raised his chin and said proudly, "That's right! My Bro Liu is the best! This is true gay love..."

Eh?

Something was wrong...

Xiao Zhe froze. He almost spat blood onto the roof when he realized the thing that Chen made him say.

What a mean asshole!

Xiao Zhe fell into Chen's trap when he was not paying attention to it. Now, he could not even detect the trap!

"Hahahahaha!!!!!"

Their laughter became louder than before when the audience realized that Xiao had admitted that he was gay.

"Damn! This is so funny... Xiao Zhe just admitted that he is gay! They are a pair of gay couples!"

"Since Xiao is the one that needs to rely on Liu! I believe that Xiao is the passive one in this relationship!"

"Liu's waist is so thick! He must be very strong! But, normally, guys with thick waists have a hard time lasting longer in bed! He must be a premature ejaculator!"

"Hahahahaha!!!"

.....

Tears started to roll down on Xiao's face when he heard the mocking laughter from the audience. He could never clear his name anymore! On the other hand, Liu was depressed. He was crowned with the title of an early ejaculator! Both of them were looking at each other. They wanted to just hug each other and cry.

At this very moment, they realized the darkest path that they had ever walked in their life was the path that set by Chen! Such a painful realization!

"Mr. Chen... I beg you... Can you stop fooling around, please? I will transfer the money to you immediately! Let's not waste time and go on to the next round!"

Xiao was scared of Chen. He did not want Chen to set traps for him anymore. If not, he would suffer another mental breakdown.

Ding!

Chen received a message that about twenty million had just been wired into his bank account.

Chen then finally passed back the microphone to Xiao Zhe. He laughed mockingly, "Don't you worry! I don't discriminate gay couple! As long as you have money with you, I will play with you till the very end!"

"I..." Xiao gritted his teeth. Chen was still laughing at him mockingly after he transferred the money to Chen.

When he thought about the fact that he was a straight guy, he just wanted to charge at Chen and destroy him along with himself.

"Bro Xiao! Stop wasting time! Let's go to the next round now! We cannot lose, this time!"

Liu quickly pulled Xiao away from Chen when he was about to lose control. After twenty minutes, waves of sound with excitement could be heard from the audience. Most of them stood up and paid attention to the biggest steel gate of the colosseum.

Splash!

The sound of liquid flowing can be heard behind the steel gate.

Chen frowned and he was curious. He looked at Sirius and asked, "Do you know what's behind that steel gate?"

"Yes..."

Sirius nodded, but he seemed worried. A sense of fear could be seen inside his brown eyes. A One-Star Spirit Beast with two thousand combat power was trembling! How scary was the thing behind the steel gate?

"That is the Bloody Pool that I mentioned earlier!" Sirius said in a deep voice.

Chapter 203: Pressure From Higher Power And Temptation From Money!

Creak...

The audience held their breath when the steel gate finally opened.

Splash...

A gigantic fish tank was being pushed out! The width and the length of the fish tank were around five meters each. The height of it is around two meters. The fish tank was made of fortified glass. From afar, it looked like a small pond. It was filled with clear water.

The reason behind the name; Bloody Pool was because there were hundreds of piranhas inside the fish tank! Through the glass, one could see that those black and grey fishes were swimming in groups. They were like deaths that walk among us, waiting to devour another soul.

Quack...

Quack...

A duck was tossed into the Bloody Pool by Liu Mang. Once the duck landed on the water, those piranhas started to bite the duck's feet and drag it under the water. Only blood of the duck was left inside the fish tank after five seconds. The remainder of the duck was devoured entirely by them.

"Damn! So, this is one of their secret winning weapons! It's so damn exciting to watch an animal being thrown into the Bloody Pool!"

"It's been two months since we last saw Bloody Pool! I remember when there an Amazon alligator being thrown into the Bloody Pool to fight with the piranhas!"

"Yes! The alligator! It looked scary but it was consumed by the group of piranhas within half a minute!"

.....

People were commenting on the Bloody Pool excitedly. All of them seemed pretty excited about it. Xiao and Liu walked to Chen from the fighting ring.

"Kid! How is it? Do you have the balls to bet with us on this round?" Xiao Zhe got himself a microphone and asked tauntingly.

Everyone started to pay attention to Chen.

"Boss Xiao came out with the Bloody Pool for this round of betting. Seems like he's pretty confident at winning this round of betting!"

"What kind of bullshit is that? Boss Xiao wants to win back the money that he lost to Chen earlier! That young man might not accept this risky betting!"

"Erm... I agree with you. Only idiots will bet on this guarantee-lose-zero-winning-rate kind of betting!"

"You are right! Even that black wolf-dog can't win the Bloody Pool challenge!"

.....

Chen gave an absolute answer when everyone was still talking about it.

"I'm a man big balls of steel! I will definitely play with them this round!"

Chen shrugged and said casually, "We must make clear about the rules and bet before this round begins!"

"The betting for this round is ten million! I have transferred my money into the system! You can totally check out the display!"

Xiao raised his eyebrows and said seriously, "The rule is simple! You will win this bet as long as Sirius can survive in the Blood Pool for a minute!"

On the other hand, Liu said intimidatingly, "We are not bullying you! The original rule of the Bloody Pool challenge is that the beast might survive for at least three minutes inside the Bloody Pool! Now, we just gave you a two minutes discount! Be grateful... Hehehe..."

Two of them started to laugh evilly. There should be no uncontrollable variable in this challenge. Even the most ferocious alligator could not survive in the tank for more than a minute! How was it possible for a dog that could not swim well going to survive in this Bloody Pool? It would be a miracle if Sirius could make some waves in the water!

"That young man just accepted the challenge! He is sending the black wolf-dog to a suicidal mission!"

"That's right! The wolf dog's strength and speed are going to be restricted under the water! He won't survive this challenge!"

"What is wrong with that kid?!"

.....

The audience was pretty sure that Sirius would not be able to complete the challenge. Even Sirius himself was filled with worry. There was no sense of confidence seen from his eyes.

Xiao and Liu were getting more and more excited. It was like they saw the victorious light at the end of the tunnel.

But!

Chen gave a shockingly weird response the next second.

"Who told you guys that I'm going to send Sirius to complete this challenge?"

Chen lifted his arms with Xiaobai in his hands and said loudly, "He is going to be the challenger completing this task!"

What??!!

This simple sentence was like a TNT that Chen had tossed inside everyone's heart!

KABOOM!

"What the actual f*ck?! Is he crazy?! He's sending a freaking cat to complete this challenge!"

"You know nothing, my friend! He is damn smart! He knew that he is not going to win in this match. Thus, he decided to sacrifice the cat to protect the wolf-dog! This, my friend, is a strategy!"

"Haih...! What a pitiful cat! He is going to die soon..."

"Such adorable little cat! Don't let him die please!"

.....

Xiaobai started to meow angrily when he heard the comments from the audience, "F*ck you guys! What a bunch of stupid humans! I'm a Frosty Jade Lion! Not your ordinary stupid household cat! F*ck off!"

"Xiaobai... Stop it..."

Chen held Xiaobai close to him and said softly, "They can't understand what are you trying to say. The best way to keep their mouths shut is to prove it to them that you can complete this challenge! It will be extremely satisfied to look at their reactions later!"

"Hmph! Don't even try! I will not complete this challenge for you!"

Xiaobai shook his head and rejected Chen arrogantly, "I'm a precious Frosty Jade Lion! I don't show off my ability in front of these stupid humans! They are going to taint my priceless identity!"

Chen rolled his eyes on Xiaobai and started to threaten him, "If I were you, I would just do what I asked you to do! I will restrict you from meeting Puti if you refuse to complete this challenge!"

"What? You... You can't do this to me..."

Xiaobai was stunned when he heard Chen's suggestion. His sapphire-like blue eyes were filled with hatred towards Chen.

"Hmph! Cut the crap!"

Then, Chen asked evily, "Do you want Puti to feed you peaches while holding you in her embrace? Do you want to fall asleep on her voluptuous boobies? Do you want to..."

"Alright! Stop it! I will go!"

Xiaobai surrendered to Chen completely. He could not say no to the delicious offers that Chen just made to him. It was useless to fight with Chen.

"Hehehe... You are not worthy to fight with me." Chen grinned evily.

Xiaobai was speechless. He jumped to the Bloody Pool with a few light steps.

"Eh... That cat is pretty agile!"

"Eeeeeek.... Such a clever cat! Don't send him on this suicide mission!"

"I can't watch this! This little cure creature will be devoured within three seconds... Such brutality!"

.....

The audience was worried for Xiaobai.

Xiao and Liu laughed happily and said arrogantly, "Kid! You are a smart guy! You are sending your cat to sacrifice for Sirius! We are going to collect the ten million from you later! Put twenty million in the next bet later! I dare you!"

"Hehe... We don't know the results yet... You might get slaps in your face if you make assumptions like this!" Chen smiled calmly.

"Slaps? Do you really think that your cat can complete this challenge? Muahahaha... This is the stupidest joke that I ever heard!"

Xiao and Liu started to laugh at Chen. They did not bother to listen to Chen at all.

On the other hand, Xiaobai had not jumped into the Bloody Pool. He stood at the edge of the fish tank, lowered down his head and said, "Oi! Stupid fishes! Get out from the fish tank now!"

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 204: Damn! Good stuff!

The audience could not understand Zoolingualism but they had a pair of eyes to see what was going on in the fighting ring. Everyone had their eyes wide opened the next second. A weird and bizarre scene shocked every single audience to the core! Hundreds of piranhas floated on the surface of the water after hearing Xiaobai's command. A few seconds later, the surface of the water was wholly occupied by them.

"This water is so smelly!" Xiaobai put a cold shoulder and said. He then went into the Bloody Pool while stepping on those piranhas. None of them dared to move while Xiaobai was on their bodies. Especially the four big piranhas that Xiaobai stepped on in the middle of the Bloody Pool. Their faces were filled with fear. There was not even a single bubble coming out from their mouth. They were afraid that Xiaobai might be upset by them.

Other than Chen and Sirius, everyone else was shocked to death. They had never thought that the whole challenge could take such a bizarre turn. Their eyes were wide opened. It was as big as cow's eyes. Their mouths were wide enough to fit a fist. Everyone was speechless. There were no words that could describe how they felt right now.

"Xiao Zhe, let's do the countdown now. Don't mention to me about me taking advantage of you later! We follow the old rules! Three minutes!"

Chen grinned and said happily, "Easy ten million! Easy money! Hehehe..."

Blarrgghh!

Xiao Zhe almost spat a warm mouthful of blood.

"Kid! This is cheating!"

Liu gritted his teeth and stared at Chen furiously, "This is cheating! What kind of sorcery is this?! How can the cat still breathe in Bloody Pool?!"

"Don't be a shameless bastard, please! You are more than happy to take the money when you win but you are accusing me of cheating when you lose!"

Chen said condescendingly, "How the hell am I going to cheat in a challenge like this? You can try it! And, if you succeed, I will transfer ten million to you without any hesitation!"

"I..."

Liu looked at Chen and had nothing to counter Chen's remark. Initially, the Bloody Pool was designed to be a guaranteed win challenge. No one was supposed to beat this challenge. Even Liu and Xiao had no idea on how to win in this absurd challenge. They never thought of Xiaobai would use those piranhas as stepping stones to complete the challenge.

"Speechless now?"

Chen's face turned dark and said, "Pay me now if you have nothing to say! Don't try to renege a promise in front of six hundred audiences!"

"I..."

Liu and Xiao's faces turned green immediately. This awkward situation was the same as what that happened earlier! They were giving all their hard-earned savings to Chen for more than ten years if they decide to pay him. It was worse than killing them! On the other hand, their credibility would be destroyed if they refuse to pay Chen. Their customers would not go back to them anymore. In the end, they would be forced to close down this money tree!

These two options were equally painful!

"I will pay you the money! But, I want to do one last bet with you!" Xiao Zhe finally made a decision half a minute later. Clearly, he didn't want to pay Chen nor close down the colosseum. The only way to these problems was set up one last betting with Chen. He would be able to win back everything that he had lost to Chen earlier with this one last bet! Xiaozhe had made up his mind. He then proceeded to transfer the money to Chen.

Chen quickly used his cellphone to check his bank account. He had forty million in the beginning. After two winning bets, a whopping twenty million was added to his bank account. It was extremely satisfying by just looking at the figures.

"I don't think you have any money left with you! What are you going to use to bet with me?"

Chen put away his cellphone and said, "I don't think your house or cars are worth twenty million! It's impossible for you to win back the twenty million!"

"No! I want to put fifty million into this bet this time! Do you have the balls to do it?"

Xiao's voice was deep and low. Both of his eyes were blood red, and his face looked really angry. It was as if he wanted to eat Chen alive!

"Hehe... Bold move!"

Chen raised his eyebrows and said calmly, "I can transfer fifty million to your system right now! Can you come out with something worth fifty million? I will continue this bet with if you have it with you now!"

"Hold on!"

Xiao Zhe gritted his teeth and ran out.

"Bro Xiao! I think you should put more thought into it..." Liu wanted to stop Xiao from making such irrational decision. Thus, he ran out to catch on with Xiao.

"Bro Liu, don't try to stop me from making this decision! This is the only way to get back everything that we lost just now!" Xiao said with determination.

"It sounds really rewarding. But, have you thought of the consequences if we lose the second match?" Liu frowned and asked.

"Lose? Do you think that kid can win the Tiger Cage challenge?" Xiao asked rhetorically.

"Well, Tiger Cage is our ultimate weapon... I have to say that kid is too damn bizarre! Did you see how he complete the Bloody Pool challenge just now? What if... What if he manages to complete the Tiger Cage challenge as well?" Liu frowned and he was looking worried.

"Bro Liu! You are a gang leader! Don't get all worried about me right now!"

Xiao checked his surrounding to make sure no one is listening to them. He said, "We will kill him if he forced our hand! At most, we will fight him to the death!"

"You mean... I understand now! Let me make some arrangements now!"

Liu realized the thing that Xiao told him, and he put on a vicious look. A few minutes later, Xiao Zhe went back to Chen with an old but well-kept document bag.

"What is this?" Chen asked excitedly.

"This old document bag contains the land deed of this island!"

Xiao Zhe said seriously, "This island is our Xiao Family's most valuable property! Its value is around fifty million!"

"Ah... Land deed!"

Chen was delighted when he heard about it.

Damn!

That was some good stuff! The perimeter of this island was really big. It could be used to do all kind of things with proper planning. With water surrounding it, this could be good private, personal paradise. No matter how rich you were in Green Vine City, it was impossible to buy land like this! He never thought that Xiao would use the land deed of this island as a tool of betting.

That was a golden opportunity! Chen was in a euphoric state right now. If Xiao did not take out the land deed of this island, Chen would not get to own this island even if he killed Xiao. Things changed when he beat Xiao in front of six hundred people! The whole island would become Chen's property without any questions asked. Not even the government or other Xiao family members had the right to touch this land!

"Alright! Bring me the land deed! I will transfer fifty million into your system!" Chen had shit tonnes of money inside his bank account. Thus, he said it without any hesitation.

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 205: I Have Balls Of Steel!

"Do you really think I'm that stupid? I will not give the land deed to you!" Xiao Zhe said angrily.

"Then, do I look stupid to you? Now, you are holding the land deed, and my money is in your system as well! What if you break your promise? Who can I complain to?"

Chen shrugged and laughed evilly, "I'm not going to do this betting if you refuse to do what I ask you to do! Anyway, I have won twenty million today! Thus, I'm pretty happy! So, I will go back to where I came from... Bye!"

"Hold it right there!"

Xiao Zhe was extremely pissed off. His plan would be ruined if Chen refused to bet in this final round. Chen had the advantage, thus, Xiao Zhe had no option but to follow's order.

"Alright! You can have the land deed! Please be careful! Don't crumble it! " Xiao said nervously.

"You talk too much! Hand it over to me now!"

Chen snatched the bag from Xiao and held it tightly. From that second onwards, that land deed belonged to Chen. However, Chen still needed to transfer fifty million into Xiao's system to show everyone that he won the land deed fair and square. The crowd was all hyped up again when they fifty million being displayed on the big screen.

"Oh my god! Are they crazy? Fifty freaking million!"

"Who is that young man?! He is filthy rich! I'm so envious of him!"

"This is unbelievable! Betting like this is too damn terrifying!"

"How come Boss Xiao did not put money into the system? There's only fifty million from that young man that just put into the system. Where is the other fifty million?"

.....

Chen quickly used the microphone to announce to the audience that Xiao had just used the land deed of this island as his betting on this final round of beast fighting. Everyone was now the witnesses to this betting.

"What the f*ck! Boss Xiao is playing with fire! How can he use the land deed that was passed down from generation to generation to bet with that young man?!"

"So, the total amount of money being put in the round of betting is one hundred million! Oh my God! This is insane! They are f*cking insane!"

"Needless to say, Tiger Cage will be the challenge for this final round of betting!"

"Of course! Xiao Zhe will not risk his land deed of this island if he is not going to do the Tiger Cage challenge!"

"I wonder, how is that young man going to overcome the challenge!"

"No matter what, this is going to be a tough fight for him! That is the legendary Tiger Cage!"

"Here it comes!"

Suddenly, the gigantic steel gate was opened up. Two small cars dragged out a huge cage. The size of the cage was similar to the fish tank that was brought out earlier. The whole cage was made up of fortified metal. But, Xiao was still worried that the creature inside the might be able to destroy the cage. Thus, he used rivets to fortify every single corner of the cage. It was better to be safe than sorry. The consequences would be catastrophic if the creature managed to escape from the cage!

Grrrrr...

The creature inside was finally awoken by the spotlight and the sound surrounding it.

"POM!*

It charged at the side of the cage. A huge and strong front paw was pressing against the steel bar. There were chains around his paws. It then lifted its head up and looked at the whole colosseum with its killing stare. It seemed like the creature was not happy about being locked up inside the cage. It opened up its big bloody mouth and roared at everyone.

"ROAR!!!!!"

The roaring was enough to shake the whole colosseum. Everyone could feel the goosebumps starting to crawl on their backs, their hearts thumping crazily fast, and their blood was boiling as well!

That's right!

That tiger was the trump card of this colosseum! The creature that everyone was afraid of!

"Blood Roar! The invincible king of every beast!"

Xiao shouted excitedly. His face turned red when he saw his trump card being brought out to the fighting ring.

"Hey, kid! Did you just pee yourself?!"

Xiao looked at Chen arrogantly and said mockingly, "Blood Roar is not those ordinary tigers that you normally see in the zoo! It was living in the jungle before we captured it! This time! You will lose to my Blood Roar! You can send all your dogs and cats to fight with it but still lose!"

Meow!

Xiaobai meowed condescendingly before Chen talked. Even Sirius was not happy about the thing that Xiao just said! That was one fierce tiger in the cage but Xiaobai and Sirius were One-Star Sprit Beasts with two thousand combat power levels! Both of them were not afraid of it at all! They were all ready to fight the tiger!

"Say! Which one of you here is ready to get killed by my Blood Roar!" Xiao Zhe looked at Xiaobai and Sirius coldly. To him, it did not really matter because both of them will be killed by Blood Roar Eventually.

Xiaobai was triggered by it. He started to scold Xiao Zhe with vulgarities, "F*ck you! This bitch is too f*cking arrogant! I will go! Watch how I f*ck up your stupid tiger! I will show you who is the king of beasts is here!"

Sirius refused to be inferior either. He volunteered himself and said, "I will go! There was nothing I can do to complete the Bloody Pool challenge earlier but I'm pretty sure that I can defeat this stupid tiger!"

However, Chen shook his head at them. He looked kind of serious.

"What happened? Could it be that tiger is more powerful than us?!"

Xiaobai was smart enough to catch Chen's intention even though he did not say a single word.

"Impossible... I know how strong is Blood Roar! He is definitely weaker than us! Unless..."

Sirius was stunned for a while and came to a quick realization, "Unless it had been injected with an excessive amount of adrenaline shot!"

Chen nodded and confirmed everything that Sirius just said.

Ding!

[Cultivation: Later phase of physical stage, Health: 1800, Combat power: 2800!]

Luckily Chen used his Netherspirit Battlescouter to check on the tiger. Xiaobai and Sirius will surely lose to Blood Roar! Its combat power was much higher than its health because the adrenaline shot allowed it to boost its combat power temporarily. Chen would not send Sirius and Xiaobai to fight with it.

"Xiao Zhe, can I discuss something with you?" Chen asked.

"What did you want to talk about?"

Xiao frowned and said cautiously, "I'm going to tell you something before you say anything! You are not allowed to back out from this betting! But, you are allowed to surrender!"

"Don't worry! I'm not going to back out from this betting!"

"I just want to ask you, can a human fight with Blood Roar instead of Xiaobai and Sirius?"

"A human?"

Xiao was stunned and pouted, "Humans are allowed to take part in this challenge but who would be stupid enough to fight with Blood Roar? Unless that guy has balls of steel!"

"Okay! I'm glad that humans can take part in this challenge!" Chen nodded and placed Xiaobai on the head of Sirius.

"Why did you ask about it? Are you planning to..." Xiao noticed Chen's movement. He put on an extremely shocked face.

Chapter 206: I'm A Prodigy At Art Of Healing!

"What the f*ck! Are you kidding me? Are you telling me that you want to enter the Tiger Cage and complete the challenge yourself?"

Xiao Zhe's eyes were wide open. There were as big as bull's eyes. He could not believe the thing that Chen just told him. The creature inside the cage was a wild tiger! A wild tiger that devoured everything in its sight! It was injected with an adrenaline shot. Its combat power had been maxed out to the highest possible level. Even the leader of Black Tiger Gang; Dongfang Hong would have no balls to enter the Tiger Cage and fight with it.

However, Chen gave a determined answer, "I have to time to joke around with you! I'm serious about entering the Tiger Cage and completing the challenge!"

"Alright! You have balls! I'm an idiot if I say no to you!" Xiao took a long sigh and nodded like an overclocked robot. To Xiao, Chen was not weak but one really need a good amount of experience to fight against such powerful creature. Chen was just twenty plus years old; it was impossible to compare him with Dongfang Hong that had been training himself since forever! It was suicidal to enter the Tiger Cage with little experience in combating!

Earlier, Xiao was thinking how to kill Chen. He had to say yes when Chen volunteered to enter the Tiger Cage. He could finally avenge his son when Blood Roar killed Chen in the cage. He then would be able to take back all the money that Chen won from his just now.

Xiao was worried that Chen might back out last minute. Thus, he held the microphone in his hand and announced to the audience, "Everyone! Please pay attention! Our Boss Chen just volunteered to enter the Tiger Cage and complete the challenge by himself! He wants to challenge the legendary Blood Roar!"

"What?!"

"How is this possible? He is crazy! That is completely suicidal!"

"He is going to die horribly!"

"Look at your face! This is a joke! No one is that stupid!"

"Yea... This must be some lame joke!"

....

Xiao quickly announced again when he heard the audience not taking his announcement seriously.

"This is not a joke! Boss Chen is the one who insisted on fighting with Blood Roar! I have told him the risks but seems like he had already made up his mind!"

At the same time, Chen stood up and confirmed everything that Xiao just said. Everyone's minds were blown.

"What the actual f*ck! Is there something wrong with his mind? He is going to kill himself!"

"There are all kinds of people in this world! This is my first time seeing such a daring person!"

"It's his life! He can do anything with it! We should just sit here and enjoy the show!"

"Right! Just enjoy the show! I have not seen Blood Roar kill someone for a long time!"

"I like watching Blood Roar tearing the flesh off its prey! Bloody and excited!"

The audiences were just as cold-hearted as the owners of the colosseum. Most of them witnessed a lot of bloody scenes throughout the years that they spent in this colosseum. That was definitely not the first time a human died here! They were shocked when they heard about Chen's decision but none of them had the intention of stopping Chen from doing it.

"Kid! You can go to the cage whenever you are ready! Brother Liu will open the door for you!" Xiao raised his eyebrows. He could not wait for Chen to die in that cage.

"Alright!"

Chen folded the document bag in his hand, slipped a hand inside his pocket and headed to the Tiger Cage.

"You..."

That was the Xiao's land deed that passed on from generation to generation. His heart was aching when he saw Chen folding up a fifty million worth land deed. Chen was already in the fighting ring when Xiao finished his thought.

"Kid! It never crossed my mind that you will make such a ridiculous request! Come on! I will open the gates of hell for you!" Liu stood beside the Tiger Cage and looked at Chen mockingly. He then opened the Tiger Cage when he saw Blood Roar across the arena.

Chen did not even bother to look at him. He took a big step and entered the cage.

ROAR!!!

Blood Roar quickly turned around when it sensed that someone had stepped into his territory. It charged at Chen immediately.

Clank!

The door was already closed by Liu. Its gigantic body landed on the door. The horrifying force managed to make the huge and heavy cage move for a few centimeters on the ground!

"Damn! Look at that power!!!"

Chen quickly moved aside to dodge the attack. He was impressed by it.

"Eh? Did you just speak in Zoolingualism?"

Blood Roar turned its head around and looked at Chen with its bloodshot eyes.

"Hehe... I know a lot of things!"

Chen grinned and continued to speak in Zoolingualism, "I'm pretty good at healing as well! Do you want to listen to my suggestions for you?"

"Healing? Hmph! Don't try to cheat me! There're no good human beings in this world! I want to tear open your body now! Then, I want to see you heal yourself from the fatal wound!" Blood Roar grinned, and its dagger-like fangs were shown.

A blood lusting aura can be sensed from the look of Blood Roar. It was enough to make someone piss his/her pants.

"Listen to me first, and you will know whether I'm bluffing or not."

Chen proceeded to say calmly, "The temperature of your body is extremely high, right now! You can feel the burning sensation, and your eyes are burning hot as well. Also, your mind is kind of blurry. You even feel nauseous!"

"This..."

Blood Roar was shocked. From its reaction, everything that Chen said about him is true!

"How did you know?" Blood Roar asked in a deep voice.

"It's simple! Because I'm a doctor!"

Chen grinned and walked towards Blood Roar, "For doctors like me, it's important for me to observe you closely. I'm a grandmaster at Chinese medicine! From the look on your face, I know that your sickness is severe!"

"This..."

Blood Roar was stunned, and it quickly asked, "What kind of sickness?"

"Come here, and I will tell you about it." Chen shook his hand to signal Blood Roar to go to him. Both of them squatted down and start to discuss the sickness. Chen even put his hand on Blood Roar shoulder when they talk about the exciting part. It was like they had been good brothers for quite some time.

"This... This... This..."

Everyone was shocked when they saw the thing happening in the cage.

"What the hell is happening here?"

"The brutal and bloody Blood Roar became a big household cat!"

"Oh, my god... What is going on here!"

"I have never seen such a thing in my life!"

Waves and waves of shocked faces could be seen in the audience seats. Liu and Xiao's faces were twisted. It was like someone had forced them to swallow a pile of shit.

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 207: There's Surprise!

"Are you telling me that all these symptoms are caused by the adrenaline shot?" Blood Roar opened its eyes wide and put on a serious face while listening to Chen.

"Yes! That's the problem! Adrenaline shot can boost your combat power temporarily but your body is not strong enough to withstand the sudden increase of combat power! As a result, your body is overloaded! You have hurt yourself before you hurt anyone!"

Chen continued to explain, "The reason that you feel a burning sensation in your body is because the adrenaline shot is burning your muscle and veins! Your internal organs are taking damage right now! Thus, the vomiting! And, when you do vomit, it will be blood!"

"Blood?! This is really serious!" Blood Roar put on a shocking face.

"This is not the worst part!"

Chen shook his head and continued to say, "Just like a machine! A machine will come to a point beyond repair, due to overloading it! You will surely die when your muscles, veins and internal organs start to break down!"

"This..."

Blood Roar was completely at lost. It looked at Chen with its teary eyes and said pitifully, "Bro! You must save me... I'm still a virgin... I have not had sex with any females... I don't want to die!"

Death is a big deal to all kinds of living beings. Do not think that animals are not afraid of death just because you cannot understand their language!

Chen nodded and said, "I can save you, but others cannot see me treating you. You have to feign defeat and let me settle my business in this colosseum first."

"This is easy! I can put on a show! I'm actually pretty good at it!"

Blood Roar jumped up and ran around the cage. It then did a dramatic attacking move at Chen.

ROAR!!!

It even roared as loud as possible to make it look real. His signature roar managed to wake everyone up from their shocked states.

"It moves! Blood Roar is going to attack now!"

"That's what I tried to say earlier! Blood Roar is born to kill! It tears its opponents piece by piece every single time!"

"Blood Roar! Go! Let's us witness your passion in killing!"

"Blood Roar! Blood Roar! Blood Roar..."

.....

The audience got really excited. Some of them even started to danced and cheered. At the same time, Xiao and Liu were relieved.

"Damn! I was scared to death earlier on! I thought that there was something wrong with Blood Roar! Now, I can sit back, relax, and watch the show!"

Xiao grinned and put on a vicious smile, "We can totally chill, as long as Blood Roar does not cease its attacks! Let's watch how Blood Roar destroys that kiddo!"

"That's right!"

Liu nodded and started to laugh greedily, "All his money and the land deed will come back to us when Blood Roar kills him! Hahaha!"

"Blood Roar! Blood Roar..."

Liu and Xiao looked at each other in the eyes and invited the crowd to cheer as well. It was quite astounding when six hundred people cheer together. The sound wave was big enough to shake the colosseum!

On the other hand, Blood Roar used its claws to scratch the base of the cage. A series of claw marks could be seen clearly. It pretended to use all his strength to charge at Chen.

"Damn! This Blood Roar is quite a good actor!" Chen had his eyes wide open. He would have thought that Blood Roar had wanted to kill him if it had not told him about this whole acting thing.

"Your acting is good, but my acting is not bad either!"

Chen started to act like a mighty grandmaster and said, "I'm sorry, you have already lost to me!"

POM!

Chen touched Blood Roar lightly with a closed fist.

Roar...

It unleashed its full potential at acting and started to roll on the floor while pretending it had just received some fatal blow. After a while, it went from excessive moving to zero movements.

"WHAT THE F*CK!!!!!"

None of them had seen this coming. Most of them were still cheering when Blood Roar was knocked down. They were looking forward to its performance.

POM!

Chen kicked the door open and walked out from the cage.

"Xiao Zhe! You can return my fifty million to me!" Chen shouted at the VIP seat with his mocking tone.

"I..."

Xiao's face was so twisted that it might be the worst day of his entire life. The sound of him gritting his teeth could be heard from afar. He never thought he would lose to Chen once again. A complete loss that is beyond salvation! There was not even a single opportunity to defend himself. The result of the betting was set in stone in the eyes of six hundred audiences. Xiao failed to win back the money that he had lost to Chen earlier. This time, even the land deed of this island was being handed over to Chen.

Xiao was at the end of the cliff, now. However, the situation was different from the betting earlier. Xiao and Liu were prepared for this worst outcome.

"Brother Liu! Let's clear the area!" Xiao shouted angrily.

Liu nodded and proceeded to make a call.

He snatched a microphone and shouted at the audience, "Everyone, listen! The colosseum is going to close now! You have five minutes to leave the place before I ask my gang members to do something horrible to you guys!"

A gang of thugs started to flood the colosseum once Xiao finished with his announcement. They were chasing the people out rudely.

"What the hell happened? This had never happened to this place before!"

"Are you dumb?! Can't you see it?! Xiao is trying to go back on the promise that he made to that young man earlier! He is going to kill him!"

"Damn! What an asshole! He is not a real man!"

"That gangster Liu had Xiao's back! There's nothing we can do even if we are angry at him! Let's go! Those thugs are not someone that you want to mess with!"

"Sigh... I pity that young man... Seems like he will be killed by them!"

.....

All the audience left in a hurry. They were sent back to where they came from with speedboats. At the same time, Chen was surrounded by dozens of thugs.

"Chen Xiaobei, I don't think you saw this coming!"

Liu was standing at some high place. He laughed evilly and said, "I managed to bring in all my best fighters from my gang to come here and kill you! You are going to hell today for messing with the wrong people!"

However, Chen was not affected by it at all. He laughed condescendingly and said, "Hehe... Do you really think that you can outsmart me? Call and ask your men about the territories that are under your control! I have some surprises for you!"

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 208: Xiaobai, The King!

"Make a call? What do you mean by that? Is there something wrong with my territories?" Liu had his eyes wide opened and had a hard time believing the thing that Chen just mentioned to him. Fearing that Chen was telling him the truth, he took out his cellphone and made the call eventually.

"#$%^&"

A jumbled and chaotic din could be heard from the other side of the phone.

"Boss! Something bad is going on! Real bad!"

Then one of the gang members said nervously, "Fire... The Fire Boss brought a lot of people to take control of your territory! So many people! So brutal..."

"The Fire Boss? The one that took control of Xiao Tianma's territories?"

Liu could not believe the things that he just heard and said shockingly, "That son of the bitch was still trying to settle down! Where did he get the balls to take over my territories? This is impossible!"

"It's true!"

The gang member continued to say, "The moment you called all the elite fighters away, they came and struck us! Now we can't even defend ourselves... We have lost a lot of brothers!"

"How is this even possible? How do they even know that I summoned all my elite fighters to the colosseum? Such a coincidence!" Liu was lost. Then, he took a look at Chen.

"Could it be his doing?" Liu thought.

"Not just one territory! The Fire Boss called out to all his gang members to take control of all your territories! Boss! All of our territories on the south side of the city will be completely taken over if you don't come back now!"

"What?!" Liu was like an ant on a hotpot.

He knew better than anyone how serious this incident was. The Fire Boss had just recruited every single one of Xiao Tianma's gang members. He was extremely powerful right at then! That was not something that can be set aside. Liu will turn into a stray dog once the Fire Boss takes over all his territories! Plus, his boss, Dongfang Hong might punish him severely for losing so many territories in such a short period of time.

"Don't! Don't hit my face...Help us! Boss!"

A painful voice can be heard from the other side of the phone. Then, the call was cut off.

"Shit..."

Liu was so furious that his palms turned purple. He almost threw his cellphone on the floor.

"Brother Liu? What happened to you?" Xiao frowned. He had never seen Liu so anxious before.

Liu ignored him and shouted at Chen angrily, "Son of the bitch! Are you the one who messed with my territories? How dare you set me up?!"

"Hehe...What kind of logic is that? So, you are allowed to plot up against me, and I'm not allowed to do so?"

Chen raised his eyebrows and continued to say, "Obviously, you are the biggest idiot here! Nobody asked you to plot up to kill me! Now, I live! Thus, I asked the Fire Boss to take charge of all your territories!"

"Nooooo!!! I need to go back to save my territories! If not, I will lose all my status as a boss!"

He couldn't bother to fight with Chen anymore. All he wanted to do right now was leave this place as soon as possible.

"Unfortunately, none of you guys can leave this place alive!" Chen smiled coldly. A killing sense could be seen deep inside his eyes.

"What a joke! Do you really think you can stop me, and all of my best men?"

Liu looked down at Chen and commanded, "Brothers! Let's go! Ignore this f*cker!"

After that, Liu led all his elite fighters towards the exit.

"Ouch..."

The guy that walked in front was slapped by something with a huge brown body. His head was completely destroyed. All that was left was blood and brain matter on the floor. It was pretty terrifying to look at.

"This...How is this even possible?"

Liu and the rest of his elite fighters halted. They were extremely shocked. None of them dare to make another step forward. All of them started to take a few steps back.

"Oh my God!"

Even Xiao Zhe who stood far behind them was extremely shocked. Every single animal in the colosseum was gathered at the entrance. They were all led by the brown bear. From a single glance, there were at least dozens of bulls, wolves, snakes, and alligators. Also, there was a white fur ball sitting on top of the head of the brown bear. It had been overlooked by most of the people because of its small size. It was no wonder that group of thugs ran back to the fighting ring.

"This...What the hell is happening? Who the f*ck let all these animals out from their cages?" Xiao asked nervously.

"Do you really think I have the answer for you?"

Liu shouted nervously, "Quick! Ask the beast masters to chase all these animals away!"

"Alright...Alright..." Xiao nodded and took out his cellphone to make the call. However, none of the beast masters picked up his calls.

Meow...

Xiaobai pouted and said, "Those beast masters are dead! Such weaklings, but they had the balls to stop us from coming here! Idiots!"

"Our king is powerful! Those beast masters tortured us every single day! We felt so happy when our king killed them one by one!"

"All hail the king!"

"Our king is the most powerful creature in this world!"

The rest of the animal started on their boot-licking business with the brown bear. It was pretty obvious that Xiaobai was the one who freed them all. And, the one and only leader among them is none other than Xiaobai! At this very moment, Xiaobai was their almighty king! Chen put up his thumb from far when he saw what Xiaobai just did.

On the other hand, Xiao and Liu couldn't understand anything that they were talking about at all. They were still in shocked states. None of them had any idea about this bizarre event.

"There's not many options for us to choose at this moment! Let's fight until the end!"

Liu shouted and commanded, "Hold on to all these animals! Three of you, come with me to kill that Chen Xiaobei!"

Liu was forced to fight his way out. After all, he is the gang leader of the biggest gang at south side of the city. He decided to kill the mastermind behind this scheme! Once the mastermind falls, everything will fall together with him. He brought three of the best elite fighters with him to kill Chen. After that, they will focus on killing all the animals!

"Boss! Let me chop down that bastard's head for you!" The guy with a fancy shirt charged at Chen with a thirty-centimeter blade in his hand.

"Hehe..."

Chen was really calm. He didn't even plan to take down his opponent. He even started to play with his cellphone.

"I'm sorry. You are a piece of dead meat."

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 209: One Kick And Two Pairs Of Balls Are Gone!

"Is that kid crazy? He's playing with his cellphone! I'm going to kill you right now!" The guy with the fancy shirt put all his strength into the blade and slashed at Chen's neck.

ROAR!

A loud roar could be heard from behind Chen. The roar was trembling. It was enough to terrify someone.

"Oh my God!" The attacker's face was as pale as white paper and his eyes were wide opened as well. He never thought that the Blood Roar that should have been dead just now to jump at him without any warning.

Slash...!

Blood started gushing out like a fountain. The sound of skin and flesh being torn off was echoing in the air. The attacker was thrown, seven to eight meters away. His chest and stomach were ripped open. The shattered bones and the heart that was slowly coming to a stop could be seen clearly.

Roar...

Blood Roar lowered down its body and stood beside Chen. It was aiming at its next target, already in attack position.

"What the hell is going on?!"

Liu and the other guys were so scared that they almost collapsed.

"What the f*ck! Am I dreaming? Why is Blood Roar siding with that kid? I thought that humans are the thing that Blood Roar hates the most!"

Xiao who stood far from them had a hard time figuring out Blood Roar weird behavior as well.

Cough

Cough

Blood Roar coughed for a few times. It was the side effect of overdosing on the adrenaline shot. Its body had started to suffer from internal injuries.

"Come over here, take a few deep sniffs, and drink this as well."

Chen took out the Seven Treasury Fragrant Pouch and a bottle of Hundred Herbs Potion while everyone was still in their shocked states. The fragrant pouch will eliminate the poison of the excessive adrenaline in its body. Then, the potion would allow Blood Roar to rejuvenate all his lost strength in the shortest time possible.

"Bro! What did you just feed me? I feel so good now!" All the discomfort was gone completely when the Hundred Herbs Potion entered Blood Roar's body. It had never felt so good before!

"You should rest now. Do not get involved in any battles until your body is fully recovered." Chen smiled calmly and said.

"Okay!" Blood Roar nodded, walked to a far corner and rested.

"Liu Mang! I thought that you were going to kill me today?! Come over here and kill me already! I want to go back and take a nap later! Don't waste my time!" Chen pouted and put away his cellphone.

"This..."

Liu looked at the guys beside him but none of them dared to make any single move.

"Boss Liu, stop hesitating! Kill that son of the bitch now! Your men are dying real quick!" Xiao was shouting at the VIP seat. There were battles going on at the entrance as well. The combat powers of the elite fighters that Liu had summoned earlier were actually pretty strong. However, they are powerless against the beasts that were trained to fight.

Although the big brown bear's agility was not that great, it could still kill a person with a single slap. It was killing those elite fighters like flipping pancakes. On the other hand, alligators and anacondas may seemed heavy and slow but the strength generated from their bodies were extremely powerful. They could kill a person within few seconds as well. Lastly, bulls and wolves were the main killers in this battle. They were strong and agile. Also, they are pretty good at fighting alongside the other beasts. Thus, they took over the battle pretty quickly.

And, for those elite fighters, they were drowning in their blood one by one. Soon, all of them will be killed by the beasts.

"Shit! I cannot wait any longer! If not, I will be a piece of dead meat as well!" Liu's eyes turned red due to his extreme anger. He had just lost all his money and territories earlier today. He will be completely doomed if he loses all his elite fighters as well!

"Boss, Blood Roar had walked away from the battle! Let's fight that son of the birch together!" The guy that stood beside Liu with yellow hair said courageously.

"Alright! Let's fight him!" Liu shouted, but he purposely slowed down his footsteps. The guy with yellow hair did not realize the out of ordinary movement just made by Liu, He charged at Chen with all his might.

"You should go first!"

Liu landed a kick on the yellow hair when he was two to three meters away from Chen. The kick was extremely powerful. The yellow hair guy flew to Chen like a cannonball.

"Shameless *sshole! How can you treat your comrades like some disposable tool?" A sense of anger can be seen from Chen's eyes.

"All I care about is winning and losing! I just want to kill you! I don't really care about being a shameless *sshole!"

It was pretty obvious that Liu was trying to use the yellow hair guy to distract Chen. Then, he will be able to attack Chen when he is vulnerable to his surroundings. Liu made a quick decision in this critical moment. He wanted to land his kick on Chen's crotch.

"What the f*ck! How dare you aim my crotch?!" Chen was really unhappy with Liu's combat tactic. Chen had mastered his Nutbuster kick long time ago. He could destroy anyone's balls from any angle. Basically, Liu was showing off in front of the grandmaster of Nutbuster Kick! Actually, there's one hidden ability of Nutbuster Kick! It has to be trigger under certain circumstances. Chen quickly moved his right leg to the back. Then, he started to think of the keys to triggering that hidden skill.

"Why the f*ck are you talking to yourself? Die now!"

The yellow hair guy almost landed on Chen. Liu quickly bent his leg and aimed at Chen's crotch.

"Hidden special skill! One leg, two pairs of balls!" Chen shouted and he kicked with his right leg, from a very sharp and difficult angle.

POM!

Chen's leg, yellow hair guy's crotch and Liu's crotch became the golden triangle! The powerful kick managed to disintegrate their balls.

"Ouch...Ouch! Ouch!"

Liu and the yellow hair guy flew up the sky like cannon balls.

POM!

The yellow hair guy's head landed on the floor first. It shattered into some unidentified flesh!

Splash!

Liu dropped into the Bloody Pool.

"Luckily...I dropped into a pool of water...Water? Shit! There're piranhas inside the fish tank!" Liu face turned pale immediately. His crotch was still bleeding. Hundreds of piranhas rushed to him within seconds!

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 210: A Fruitful Ending!

"Oh my God!"

Xiao witnessed the horrible things that just happened to Liu and his elite fighters. He was all pale. And, his forehead and palms were soaked in sweat. Actually, he was pretty used to all these bloody scenes. But, these kinds of things usually happen to people who he had ill-feelings for. They had never happened to anyone from his side before. He witnessed Liu being consumed by the piranhas within minutes! There was basically nothing left in the fish tank except for blood!

It was pretty obvious that the next target will be Xiao Zhe himself!

"I...I have to run first!" Xiao calmed himself down. However, he hesitated when he stepped out from the VIP seats. He saw Sirius squatting at a place that was not so far from him. And, the document bag with the land deed was placed under Sirius's paws!

"Yes! I should grab the document bag with me before I leave this place!" Xiao gritted and took out a taser while tip-toeing to Sirius.

"What an idiot!" Sirius realized that Xiao was approaching him. Then, he rolled his eyes at him.

"Stupid dog! Die now!" Xiao did not know how powerful Sirius could be. He turned on the taser and charged at him blindly.

"You are the stupid one! Not me!" Sirius barked and managed to dodge the attack from Xiao.

Crunch!

An excoriating pain from Xiao's crotch spread to his body within seconds! Sirius's fangs were planted deep inside its balls.

"Ouch...Woouooooo!" Xiao looked at the sky and groaned in pain. His eyeballs almost popped out from his eye sockets. The veins could be seen from the surface of his skin as well! Also, sweat started to flow down from his forehead like rain! There's no man in this world that can hold on to this kind of pain. The pain had made him lost the ability to walk properly. He wished that he could chop off his own dick right now.

"Sirius! Toss him over here!" Chen looked up to the VIP seats and shouted.

"No! Please no! I will die if you toss me down from such a high place!" Xiao almost peed himself.

"Nobody care!"

Sirius ignored Xiao as well. He turned his body and utilized his two thousand combat power to toss Xiao down to the fighting ring. It was as easy as throwing garbage into the bin.

POM!

A splatter could be heard when Xiao landed on the ground. The distance from the VIP and the ground was around five meters. Thus, it was not fatal. Xiao could feel several bones inside his body being completely broken. Blood started to flow out from his mouth.

"Xiao Zhe! Give me back my fifty million now! Then, I shall grant you a quick death! If not, I will let you know the meaning of true pain! Hehehe..." Chen put on an evil smile and said.

"I..."

Xiao Zhe's face was completely twisted due to the extreme pain that he was experiencing. A picture of his son eating on the toilet bowl and Liu being devoured by the piranhas flashed through his mind. This made him trembling with fear. He no longer had the balls to disobey Chen.

Xiao said in a shaky voice, "I...I am willing to return the money to you! Please! Just end this pain!" Then, he quickly took out his cellphone and transferred the money to Chen via a banking app. Chen stepped on his neck after he checked the balance in his bank account.

Crack...

Chen twisted his ankle and Xiao's neck was broken.

"Finally, all the enemies that tried to kill my family are dead! Also, I just earned an extra twenty million and a land deed of this island! Such a fruitful ending! Hehehe..." Chen grinned.

Ding!

[You have eliminated a first-generation bad guy! You have received 10000 merit points!]

Ding!

[Your current merit points is 180000. You need another 120000 merit points to go to next level! Charm: 18000, Luck: 18000]

"Haha! I almost forgot about the merit points that I can earn after killing a bad guy!"

However, Chen was slightly unhappy about Liu dropping into the Bloody Pool. He had just lost a huge amount of merit points because he didn't get to kill Liu with his own hands. Well, it's just a small deal anyway. It might not be that bad after all!

"Other than Xiao Zhe, everyone else died from the brutal attacks from animals! I don't think that the law enforcement can connect the dots to me being the mastermind behind this massacre!"

Chen grinned and proceeded to use a piece of paper to wipe away his footprint from Xiao's neck.

"Okay! I just make it looked like the cause of Xiao's death was dropping from a high ground! Perfect!"

At the same time, Sirius walked to Chen with a document bag in his mouth. Also, Xiaobei led his army of animals to Chen as well. Xiaobai asked, "What should we do with our comrades here, since this place had been completely torn down?"

Chen laughed and said, "Easy! Bring the anacondas and alligators to the south lake. I will send the rest of the animals back to the North Mountain! Is everyone happy with my decision?"

"Alright! No problem!"

"Finally, we can return to nature!"

"This is great! Hahaha..."

All the animals were really happy about Chen's decision. Leaving the cage and returning to nature had always been their dreams.

"Bro! You just saved my life! I want to follow you around to fight for you for the rest of my life!" Blood Roar said proudly.

"Erm...I would love you bring you around to show off to other people...But...It's illegal to keep a tiger in our country..." Chen scratched his head. He never thought that Blood Roar would have a mind of its own. Chen will definitely bring him out if keeping a tiger is not illegal in his country.

Damn!

This is so exciting, just by thinking about it!

"Okay...Then, I should go back to North Mountain!"

Blood Roar nodded obediently and said, "But, you must come and visit me whenever you are free!"

"Sure thing! I promise you!" Chen smiled.

"Alright! A promise is a promise!" Blood Roar nodded its head again.

After that, Chen executed the plan that he thought of earlier. Anacondas and alligators were being sent to the South Lake. The rest of the animals were being sent to North Mountain with big trucks and boats.

There's nothing else special happened at that night.

Next day in the afternoon, TV was showing the news about people being killed by the animals at the colosseum. After a thorough investigation done by the law enforcement, it had been confirmed that there was nothing special about this case. Case closed.

"Hehe! Everything is under my control! I will take over the island officially when everything settles down!"

Chen grinned and counted, "Forty hundred and ninety million! Plus, the island that is worth fifty million! Plus the twenty million that I won from the betting! My net worth is five hundred and sixty million now! Muahahaha!"

Ding!

Chen received a message from the Red Envelope Group.
