Chapter 321: It's So Painful!

"Mr Shanben! You are so damn powerful! Thank the gods that he is the leader of the Mid-Level Ninjas of Meichuan organization!"

"That powerful skill with the combination of Tierce Tear will definitely cut that kid in half!"

"Of course! That Katana can slice metal like butter!"

"Look at how Mr. Shanben uses the Katana! What a scene to enjoy! Cool! Awesome!"

.....

The bodyguards around were impressed by Shanben's combat skill.

"This slash...is so powerful that not even three Copper Toads stacked up together can withstand it! Chen Xiaobei is going to die this time..." Demonic Fox sighed.

"Chen Xiaobei! F*cking die!"

Meichuan laughed viciously and said, "Not only do I want to kill your parents, Murong Xiaoyao and Lin Xiang! I'm going to rape them before I kill them! Then, I will pass them on to my bodyguards to gang rape them! After that, I will f*cking kill them! Hahaha..."

Demonic Fox frowned and gave him a disgusted look.

"Eh? Why is this kid not dodging my attack?"

At the same time, Shanben was puzzled by Chen's move. Tierce Tear was really close to Chen, and Chen had no intention of dodging the attack at all! Was Chen going to kill himself? Shanben could not understand Chen's motive.

"Sword!"

Chen was not going to kill himself. He had already activated his Dragon Force. He was going to give Shanben a surprise attack!

"Go!"

The Dragon Force awoke when Chen shouted.

Roar!!!

The roaring of the Dragon echoed in the sky. A Black Dragon rushed out from Chen's palm. Its powerful presence petrified every single person!

"That...What the hell is that thing?"

"Dragon! It's Black Dragon...God...I must be dreaming...!"

"This is so real...It's cooler than those CGI effects!"

.....

At that moment, everyone had their eyes fixed on the dragon. It was something that they had never seen before!

"Such terrifying Sword Qi! What the hell is happening?"

Shanben felt like a mad dragon was charging at him. The level of fear that he experienced was more than any other person because he was the closest to the dragon! The fear was real! Shanben's pupils contracted, his heart was going crazy, even his breath was no longer smooth.

"Wind!"

The Black Dragon tore the sky open and charged at Shanben with lightning speed.

"Too fast! I have to block its attack!"

Shanben's heart skipped a beat. He was going to use all his force to block this attack. He decided that he will give up on attacking Chen for now. He turned around and blocked the dragon with his Katana!

Shinngg!!

Shanben held the Katana with both of his hands and slashed the dragon's head with all his might. The sound of metal colliding was heard clearly.

"Eh? This dragon was not as powerful as I expected it to be!"

Shanben put on an elated look and shouted arrogantly, "What kind of garbage is this? Waste of my time! Die now!"

Shanben pushed his combat power all the way up to eight thousand!

Shinngg!

An immense strength was added to the Katana, and the Black Dragon was obliterated! The blood red Chaos Sword Essence was exposed in the air. It could not block Tierce Tear's attack either. Then, it disappeared into the darkness.

"Garbage! Do you really think this kind of stupid skill could kill me?! What a joke!"

Shanben held the Katana with both of his hands. Then, he put on an arrogant look.

"Awesome! That's our Mr. Shanben for you! Too cool!"

"One slash and the stupid Chinese dragon is dead! Glory to our Japan! F*cking awesome!"

"Legendary Katana like this can only be paired with a hero like Mr. Shanben! Mr. Shanben, from today onwards, you are my idol!"

...

Those security guards shouted like lunatics in the asylum.

"Mr Shanben is really powerful! Tierce Tear definitely played a huge part in defeating that dragon as well! That slash is just too damn beautiful!" Demonic Fox complimented the slashed in awe.

"Hahaha! Mr. Shanben, you did not disappoint me at all! What an awesome and cool guy!"

Meichuan was laughing happily at the sidelines.

"With Mr. Shanben here, that Chen Xiaobei is just a useless bastard! Garbage! A piece of shit! Chen Xiaobei! Kneel in front of me right now! Hahaha..."

"Chen Xiaobei?! Where the hell is Chen Xiaobei?!"

Shanben was stunned. He was indulging in his prideful moment just now. He totally forgot about the existence of Chen. At the same time, everyone at the scene was completely stunned as well. They were focusing on complimenting Shanben. None of them had paid any attention to Chen.

"I don't know how to kneel in front of you! Do you mind teaching me?"

A stone-cold voice could be heard right behind Meichuan.

"Oh my God..."

Meichuan's anus contracted, and his body was shaking uncontrollably. That person was none other than Chen!

"Chen Xiaobei! Don't hurt my master! If not, I will chop you into thousands of pieces!" Shanben did not expect the Black Dragon to distract him. Chen's target was not him, but Meichuan!

"Hehe...It seems like you are not too clear about your current circumstance!"

Chen laughed coldly and ignored Shanben's threat. On the contrary, Chen threatened them and said, "Meichuan's head will roll if you take another step near me!"

Meichuan shouted hysterically after hearing Chen's threat, "Shanben! You are not allowed to come near me! Back off! My father will kill your entire family if you cause my death!"

"This..."

Shanben was shocked. He did not dare to take another step. After all, he was just a servant of Meichuan Family. Meichuan Neiku was the future leader of the Meichuan Family. The whole family had high hopes on him. If Meichuan Neiku dies, Shanben will be the one to be blamed. Also, Meichuan Family was famous for their merciless ways of doing things. Killing Shanben's entire family was definitely not a joke!

"Chen Xiaobei! Don't hurt Meichuan Master! Let's talk!" Shanben put his Katana back into his sheath and retreated.

"Hehe...Why should I not hurt him when you told me not to hurt him? Am I your dog?"

Chen grinned and put on a vicious smile.

"Shit!"

Demonic Fox quickly realized that Chen was going to something bad! That was the exact same look that Chen put on when he did bad things to her.

"Nut..."

Chen moved his right leg back and aimed it at Meichuan's crotch. Then, he landed a kick on his manhood!

"Buster!"

"Ouch...Oh...Oh...Oh..."

Meichuan flew into the starry sky. All the men tightened their thighs reflexively!

What a painful moment!

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 322: You May be Strong, You're Still Going Down!

"POM!*

Meichuan fell from ten meters high in the sky. He was spitting blood from his mouth, and his crotch was bleeding at the same time as well. He was practically half dead!

"Master! Master!"

Shanben and those security guards shouted at the same time. All of them were afraid that Meichuan would die from the injuries. Demonic Fox covered her mouth and slowly moved away from Chen. She did not dare to get close to Chen. Chen stood still, all the while ignoring the panic.

"I think it's time for you to pay the debt!"

Chen bowed down and picked Meichuan up like a flopping piece of raw meat.

"Er...Mercy...Mercy..."

Meichuan was shaking uncontrollably. His eyes were filled with desperation. The pain from his balls being destroyed had robbed him of all his strength to even speak.

PIAK!

PIAK!

PIAK!

Chen ignored Meichuan's begging and proceeded to slap him with all his strength. Those loud explosive sounds broke through the silent atmosphere. Soon, Meichuan's face was completely swollen. Blood kept on flowing out from his mouth like a waterfall. His teeth were scattered all over the floor as well.

"You son of a bitch! Why did you break all the rules during friendly matches? You were lucky that I did not hold you responsible for your stupid moves! You should have returned peacefully to Japan! Why did you come back here to make me angry? You want to kill my parents, right? You want to rape my women, right? You shouldn't have said that! I will f*cking kill you even if lightning does not strike you!"

Chen slapped Meichuan and scolded him at the same time. Meichuan was in a very bad shape. All his teeth were completely gone, and his face was messed up as well. He was rolling his eyes the whole time. Also, Chen's slaps would repeatedly revive him whenever he was about to lose consciousness.

The worst thing for Meichuan was not death. It was the feeling of wanting to end his own life, but he was not allowed to do so.

"That bastard is too brutal...Our master will definitely die if we don't stop him right now!"

"Don't worry...I don't think that the kid has the balls to kill Master Meichuan! After all, Master Meichuan is his only thing that keeping him alive so far! Mr. Shanben will definitely chop him into pieces if he kills Master Meichuan!"

"You are right! That kid will definitely not kill Master Meichuan with Mr. Shanben here! He will negotiate with us rationally after his anger is gone!"

.....

The bodyguards were discussing this matter among themselves. On the other hand, Demonic Fox was staying far from them to observe the whole thing. Just like everyone else, she was looking forward to how Chen was going to deal with this matter. Shanben held the Katana in his hands tightly and threatened Chen, "Kid! I think you better stop now and return our master to us! If not..."

"If not, what?"

Chen looked at Shanben coldly. His commanding presence managed to make Shanben eat his own words.

"Such terrifying presence!"

Shanben gulped. He could not figure out how did Chen's stare make him feel like falling into some deep and endless pit! On the other hand, Chen was not paying him much attention. He continued to focus on slapping Meichuan.

"Twenty-eight...Twenty-nine...Thirty!!!"

Chen was counting, and then he shouted it out loud when it reached thirty hits. At the last slap, he paused for a while to imbue strength in his palm to deliver the final slap.

PIAK!!

Everyone was shocked when they saw what happened to Meichuan. His head flew off his body like a water balloon!

Ding!

[You have killed a first-generation bad guy! You have received 10000 merit points!]

Ding!

[Your current merit points are 230000. You will need another 70000 merit points to go to next level. (Charm: 23000, Luck: 23000)]

The Netherspirit Battlescouter showed Chen a notification of receiving merit points. Meichuan Neiku was still relatively young, but he was already a first-generation bad guy! Looks like he has done a lot of bad things before he crossed paths with Chen.

"Hey! Bastard! Here's your master! Take it!"

Chen grinned and tossed the headless body to Shanben.

"..."

Everyone was in extreme shock state at the moment. Their eyes and mouth were wide open. All of them thought that Chen would not have the balls to kill Meichuan. They did not expect Chen to kill Meichuan in such a brutal way!

"Chen Xiaobei! How dare you kill my master?! Aren't you afraid of me killing you?!" Shanben finally recovered from his shock state and he started to shout hysterically.

"This is not about fear. A man should have his principles!"

Chen looked at Shanben coldly and continued to say, "Those who cross my line will be killed by me no matter how powerful the person is!"

*Deep breath!"

Everyone took a deep breath after hearing Chen's claim. That statement was short, but it was filled with power. Chen will not care whether you are Meichuan Neiku or a king. Death will be their ending if they have the balls to cross Chen's drawn line. At that very moment, the way those bodyguards looked at Chen was like staring at a powerful and ruthless king! Blood will flow with the King's wrath. Their eyes were filled with fear. Most of them took a step back. There were few cowards' whose legs went soft, falling to the ground!

"This kid...He is too scary..."

Demonic Fox bit her lips, and she suddenly thought of something that Copper Toad had said earlier; if we don't kill Chen Xiaobei today, he would be a huge threat to all of us!

Demonic Fox clenched her fist and shouted, "Mr. Shanben! Quickly kill Chen Xiaobei! Do not let him live! If not, your Meichuan Family will face his wrath!"

"I don't need you to remind me about that!"

Shanben's stare turned ice-cold and said with a strong sense of killing, "No matter what, I will definitely kill this bastard today! If not, the head of Meichuan Family will kill my whole family!" He took out his Tierce Tear again, and the air around him froze.

"Everyone! Calm down! Mr. Shanben is going to kill that kid right now!"

"Right! Calm down! The combination of Tierce Tear and Mr. Shanben are basically invincible!"

"Mr. Shanben! Use your Tierce Tear to kill that asshole!"

...

Those bodyguards came to life again. To them, Shanben was the most powerful individual! Tierce Tear was a fine piece of weapon! Killing Chen will be an easy job! Actually, even Chen had to agree that Shanben was more powerful than him! Just now, Chaos Sword Essence had taken a hit from Tierce Tear. The Dragon Force that Chen used just now had consumed a large amount of True Qi from him as well! Thus, Chen had to think of something else to win this battle against Shanben.

Chen was really calm. He did not make any rash decisions. What he planned to do was to take out his cellphone and withdraw the Monkey Fur of Prosperity to help him in this battle. Coincidentally, Chen's cellphone rang at the same time.

Ding!

[Congratulations! You have received a Red Envelope from The Prime of Tongtian!]

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 323: The Most Powerful Saber!

"Eh? Why did my Sifu suddenly send me a Red Envelope?" Chen was holding his cellphone, puzzled. Then, he got really excited over it. He could pretty much guess the item inside the Red Envelope.

"Son of the bitch! My Katana is out! How dare you play with your cell phone during the battle! Such arrogant piece of shit! I'm gonna kill you now!"

Shanben shouted from afar and charged at Chen with his Katana.

Fuhhhh...

Shanben unleashed all of his eight thousand combat power! The sharpness of Tierce Tear was flickering in the dark. Shanben's extremely fast movement speeds turned Tierce Tear into a silver line!

"Damn it! Can't you just let me check on the Red Envelope first?"

Chen took a look at Shanben and used his Lightning Step to dodge the attack. At the same time, he tapped the Red Envelope as well.

Ding!

[Congratulation! You have snatched a Red Envelope from The Prime of Tongtian! You have received a combat saber; Demonic Dragon Apocalypse! It has been stored inside your treasure chest!]

"Haha! My guess was correct! My Sifu has already transformed the Black Dragon Bone into a combat saber! Demonic Dragon Apocalypse! Man! What a powerful name!" Chen was really hyped up. The Black Dragon Bone came from the vault of the Pagoda Bearing King! Then, it was stolen by NeZha. He almost got punished for stealing it. Even the Jade Emperor was called to intervene the incident. It is pretty obvious that the Black Dragon Bone is something really precious in the heaven! The most important thing is that, The Prime of Tongtian is an extremely powerful deity and he volunteered to craft Black Dragon Bone into a saber for Chen! Needless to say, this saber is going to be the most powerful weapon of all three realms!

In other words, the ending of the battle between Chen and Shanben will be changed entirely, because of this saber! Chen was literally laughing out loud out of the happiness of receiving such powerful weapon.

"What the hell? Why is that kid laughing?!"

"Could it be that his fear towards Tierce Tear made him lost his mind?"

"It doesn't really matter anymore! That kid will surely die when Tierce Tear touches him!"

.....

Those bodyguards were having their own discussion while looking forward to their boss slashing Chen in half!

Fuhhh...

Lightning Step was fast, but Tierce Tear was faster. Shanben waved the Katana with his two hands. A ray of silver light approached Chen. Chen's body was completely exposed to the sharp Katana, and there was no way he can dodge that attack.

However, Chen did not flinch. He was still playing with his cellphone. He completely ignored Tierce Tear.

"Son of the bitch! I will take your life since you don't want it anymore! Split in half now!" Shanben was taken over by his anger. He swung Tierce Tear with all his strength. He was going to land Tierce Tear on Chen's head to cut him in half.

"Chen Xiaobei...Are you really going to die now?" Demonic Fox sighed at Chen's last moment. Her mood was very complicated.

Shinggg...

Tierce Tear was dropped, and everyone was extremely shocked. That extremely sharp Katana stopped right on top of Chen's head. It did not touch Chen at all. In other words, Chen was not hurt at all.

"How...How is this even possible?"

Everyone was trying really hard to figure out what that had just happened. They could not figure out how Tierce Tear had managed to cut Copper Toad in half, yet Chen remained scatheless. There should be at least some wounds even if Chen's skin was made of iron. Something was not right and it was spooky.

It was actually the act of the Ultimate Protective Puppet! Unfortunately, none of them had Yin Yang Eyes to see the truth. A more shocking move was revealed after that spooky moment. Chen pulled out a pitch black long saber out of nowhere. The length of the saber was around three meters. The saber was fully covered in dragon scales. The handle of the saber took the shape of a Black Dragon. The dragon's horn, claw, and teeth were so well crafted that it managed to stun everyone that laid their eyes on it.

"What the hell?! Is that kid a magician? How did he take out a saber out of nowhere?"

"The design of that pitch-black saber is so cool! That dragon sculpture is something out of this world!"

"Cool is useless at this moment! All the other swords, Katana, or saber are garbage in front of Tierce Tear!"

"You are right! Tierce Tear will be listed as one of the ten most powerful Divine Weapons in Japan! Its value is more than that stupid kid!"

"Mr. Shanben! Kill that kid! Avenge our Master Meichuan!"

"F*cking kill him!"

.....

All those bodyguards were shouting excitedly.

Shanben was still really confident that he could surely defeat Chen. He laughed viciously, "Kid, is that a toy in your hand? Do you really think that you can defeat me with your saber skill?"

"I don't think so," Chen said.

Chen moved back for five meters and said calmly, "Actually, I don't really know any saber skills. But, I think that a good saber is more important than any skill!"

"What? You must be kidding me!"

Shanben laughed loudly and said, "You actually think that piece of broken toy in your hand is better than my Tierce Tear! Hahaha...This is the dumbest joke that I ever heard!"

The security guards around them laughed as well. To them, Tierce Tear was the most powerful Divine Weapon of all time. They thought that there was nothing special about Chen's saber, other than its cool design. Also, they could see that Chen's saber was not made of metal. It was no wonder that Shanben thought that the saber was a toy!

"I don't blame you for treating it as a toy. It probably needs some polishing. Wait until I use your blood as a polish, then, your mind will definitely change!" Chen shrugged and said calmly.

"Motherf*cker! Don't act like you can defeat me before your death! You are just a moron who doesn't know any saber skills with a piece of broken toy in your hand! You are humiliating me!" Shanben was so angry that he roared like a tiger.

"Mr Shanben! Do not underestimate Chen Xiaobei! His skill is rather unique! He's just blocked your attack twice! He is not that weak!" Demonic Fox reminded Shanben at the same time.

Chaos Sword Essence and Ultimate Protective Puppet were the skills that Chen had used just now to block Shanben's attack. Demonic Fox was really shocked by it. Her female instincts told her that there will be something different happening on the third strike.

"Ms Yinmu, don't worry! He won't able to block my third attack! After my third slash, Chen Xiaobei will disappear from this world forever and ever!" Shanben was still acting really confidently. But, he did not underestimate Chen at all. He directed all his True Qi to both of his arms. At the same time, his green True Qi surrounded Tierce Tear as well. It made Tierce Tear even more terrifying!

"This is going to be Mr. Shanben's most powerful final strike!"

Demonic Fox and those security guards held their breath and placed their attention on Chen!

Chen moved finally!

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 324: He Has Already Won

Shanben was like a tiger that charged at Chen, and Tierce Tear was like his claws! Everyone knew that he had put in everything he had in this final strike! On the other hand, Chen did not have too many movements in his attacking and defending maneuvers. All he did was holding the saber with his two hands and made a simple move to face Shanben's attack.

Chen was like a rabbit waiting for the tiger to charge at him.

"That kid is a piece of dead meat!"

Every single bodyguard took a deep breath. They were waiting to cheer in excitement after Tierce Tear kills Chen.

"Chen Xiaobei...Finally, I don't have to see your face anymore...You are a real man...Unfortunately..."
Demonic Fox loosened up her closed lips and sighed.

Shingg!

The next second, Shanben finally landed Tierce Tear on Chen at lightning speed. Chen used his Demonic Dragon Apocalypse to block the attack from Shanben. The two weapons collided with each other and the crashing echo from both weapons was deafening. Chen was still standing his ground, but Shanben had managed to charge as far as five meters behind Chen.

"What is going on? Did Mr. Shanben manage to kill that kid?"

"Both of them are not moving...I think it's a draw..."

"What the f*ck! That kid is too good! A draw between him and Mr. Shanben with Tierce Tear!"

"He's more than powerful! He must be some kind of prodigy! Look at how young he is! Ten more years of training, he could have defeated Mr. Shanben easily!"

.....

Those security guards were looking at Chen in awe. They did not expect the result of the battle to be a draw instead of Shanben defeating Chen.

"You guys are wrong..."

Demonic Fox continues to say in a shaky voice, "He doesn't need another ten years of training...Chen Xiaobei...has already won..."

"What? How is this even possible?"

All those security guards were stunned. They were all doubtful of what Demonic Fox just said. However, their bodies and emotions were completely petrified in the next second!

Kringg!

The Tierce Tear in Shanben's hand broke in half and fell on the floor pathetically. Nobody would have thought that the Divine Weapon would break in half. It took thirty-six years to craft this Katana, but it was completely destroyed in its first ever battle. The Katana was forced to retire before it could even create any legendary tales. Two seconds later, a red line appeared on Shanben's throat. Skin and flesh were exposed along that red line.

Phishhh!

Shanben's head fell to the ground. His blood shot in the sky like a fountain. Shanben was dead! It was an atomic-bomb level of shocking truth for everyone, except Chen. There were no words that could describe how they felt right now! Rational was far beyond that they could think then.

"What a good Demonic Dragon! Let me see your true colors!"

Chen spared no second to even glance at the other spectators. He raised the sword up high and only swung it down towards his side.

Splash!

All the blood that was on the sword splattered on the ground. The moment the blood coated the sword, the pitch-black color was gone! A metallic luster that only belonged to metal shone from the Demonic Dragon Apocalypse! A powerful Sword Qi burst out! It was like the King of Demon himself had made his presence known in the human realm, looking at those puny humans with his merciless gaze! The Demonic Dragon Apocalypse had finally woken up after tasting blood from its enemy!

It was definitely on the same level with Tierce Tear! That was the true Divine Weapon!

"Oh my god! That is too scary...Run...It's better that a few of us stay alive than all of us getting killed by Chen...It's impossible for us to defeat him..." Demonic Fox shook uncontrollably. Then, she shouted, turned around and ran as fast as possible.

Fuhhh...

A bloody shadow came after Demonic Fox from far. It was aiming at her head!

"Ah!!!" Demonic Fox screamed in fear.

That bloody shadow was none other than Chen's Chaos Sword Essence! Sword Qi from the Black Dragon Saber had not fully gathered yet, but the speed and power of Chaos Sword Essence was enough to kill Demonic Fox easily. That was the moment for Demonic Fox to feel the death knocking at her door, truly. She felt as if she was one step away from hell. However, the Chaos Sword Essence did not kill Demonic Fox. It stopped half a meter in front of her.

"You mentioned something about not killing my friends and families. Thus, I shall spare you! Off you go..." Chen said calmly. Demonic Fox shook uncontrollably. She felt something sharp poking her heart. Then, she started to run like nobody business into the darkness. On the other hand, those security guards were not as lucky as her.

"Ah...Er...Mercy...Mercy..."

Those shrill cries and the mixture of begging voices echoed in the air. The security guards were reduced into pools of blood, one by one. All of them were killed by Chaos Sword Essence and Demonic Dragon Apocalypse.

Ding!

[You have killed an evil guy. You have received 300 merit points!]

Ding!

[You have killed a bad guy...]

Ding!

[You have killed...]

Chen might seem brutal and cruel for killing all those security guards. The merit points that Chen received showed those security guards were not good people. In other words, Chen was doing the world a favor by killing all of them. In the end, Chen received a total of ten thousand merit points for killing all the security guards.

Ding!

[Your current merit points are 240000. You will need another 60000 merit points to go to next level! (Charm: 24000, Luck: 24000)!]

Fuhhh...

Chen felt relieved. He calmed himself down eventually.

"I'm getting closer to collecting three hundred thousand merit points! The days are getting closer for Brother Yu's spirit to transfer to a new body! I might be able to make it come true after returning from Emperor Tan's tomb!"

Chen smiled after thinking about all the good things that were going to happen. After that, Chen used the Body Dissolving Poison to destroy all the bodies. He kept all the SUVs into his treasure chest and returned home after that.

Upon returning home, Chen took a shower and lay on the bed. Before he slept, he took out his cellphone to give thanks to The Prime of Tongtian. If Chen had not received the Red Envelope in time, he might not have been able to win the battle against Shanben, even with the Monkey Fur of Prosperity.

A few seconds later, Tongtian replied Chen.

Tongtian: You are most welcome. I need to tell you something about this Demonic Dragon Apocalypse.

Chen Xiaobei: Okay. I wanted to ask you something as well. My treasure chest did not elaborate on the details of this item.

Tongtian: Actually, I know that you are still quite weak. It's impossible for you to use it even if I turn it into a Divine Weapon! Thus, all I forged was a normal saber. It does not have any abilities of its own!

Chen: After all that it could do, you're telling me that the Demonic Dragon Apocalypse is not a finished product?

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 325: Surrender?

Tongtian: Yes, the Demonic Dragon Apocalypse is not the completed product. When you reach a new level of cultivation in the future, I will help you upgrade this saber!

Chen: Demonic Dragon Apocalypse is extremely powerful, even though it's just a half-done product! It should be pretty enough for me handle most of the combat encounters for now. Sorry for troubling you so much, Sifu!

Tongtian: This is no trouble. But, you can modify the saber by yourself if you know how to do it.

Chen: Can I? Can you please tell me in details on how to modify Demonic Dragon Apocalypse? (Curious)

Tongtian: Do you still remember the Tongtian Sword Shaping Manual that I gave you earlier? The methods of modifying your weapon are recorded in this manual. It is applicable to sabers as well.

Chen: Alright! Thank you so much for your guidance, Sifu! There have not been many changes with my Chaos Sword Essence. Thus, I stopped reading the manual. I should totally pick it up again! (Smile)

Tongtian: Pay more attention to your Chaos Sword Essence. If I'm not mistaken, it should grow anytime soon!

Chen: Is that real? (surprise) That's great!

Tongtian: Yea! Just be careful! Opportunity and disaster are a pair!

Chen: Thank you so much for your reminder, Sifu!

Tongtian: Okay. I shall return to the Ancient Land if there is no other business. I might be able to bring you a present when I return from the Ancient Land.

Chen: Damn! Sifu! You are really helpful to me! Please take care! I will be here waiting for your big Red Envelope! (Hehehe...)

Tongtian: See you!

Chen closed the chat box. Needless to say, he was excited.

"Last time my Sifu brought me the Primordial Witch King Combat Enhancement Training when he returned from the Ancient Land! I will be drowning in a euphoric state if he brings me another item that is as powerful as the Primordial Witch King Combat Enhancement! Waahaha..."

"So, my Chaos Sword Essence is going to grow soon! I will be able to collect a total of three hundred thousand merit points! Good things just keep on coming to me!"

Chen thought. He felt really happy for a while. He then returned back to reality and told himself, "Sifu told me that opportunity and disaster coexist! I have to prepare myself properly before I head to the tomb tomorrow! I will kill those who try to stop me!"

After that, Chen mixed a bottle of powdered roofie, a bottle of Body Dissolving Poison, and a bottle of itchy power! He then proceeded to check his treasure chest. The items that could aid him in combat were four Monkey Furs of Prosperity, a bowl of Mengpo Soup, Nighthstalker Outfit, Silver Needle of Damnation, Chaos Sword Essence, and Demonic Dragon Apocalypse! Other than that, he still had one thousand bottles of Hundred Herbs Potions with him.

"I think that my ammunition is plenty enough for combat. I will teach those who have the balls to go against me a valuable life lesson! Hehehe..."

Chen grinned. He then went to sleep peacefully.

The second morning, Chen got Bao Linshuang's mask from Wenyuan! Everything was ready! Chen had also left Xiaobai and Sirius at home to safeguard his parents. He even added an extra layer of security by calling Yap over to keep an eye on his mansion. To ensure that everything was in place, Chen went to Luo's place in a cab. They then drove to Chen Village in a police car.

"Where is your disguise? Are you kidding me?"

Luo asked, infuriated when she got into the car. Luo was wearing her black skin-tight outfit. She looked just like Cat Woman from that movie. Her voluptuous body was tightly bundled up in the outfit. It was so seductive that no men in this world would pass on her. There was a dagger hidden at the side of the boots. It was Chen's first time seeing it. Looks like, Luo was fully prepared for today's operation. She will not let Chen mess with the plan.

"What if I told you that I'm not ready for the disguise? What are you going to do about it?" Chen asked with a smile on his face.

"What?!"

Luo glared at Chen and said coldly, "I'm going to kick you out from this car if you are not ready for it!"

"Erm...What if I'm ready for it?" Chen asked again.

"Get on with it if you are ready!"

Luo rolled her eyes at Chen and said, "Do you not know how important this operation is? I'm not in the mood to kid around with you!"

"My art of disguising is going to shock the whole world! You must earn it if you want to see it!"

Chen grinned and continued to say, "Let's bet! Kiss me if you can't differentiate me from Bao Linshuang! What do you think about it?"

"*sshole! What if I can see the flaw in it?" Luo asked angrily.

"Simple! You have to kiss me!" Chen laughed.

"Get lost!"

Luo glared and rolled her eyes at Chen and said coldly, "Teach me Nine Dragon Acupuncture Skill if I can see flaws in it! What do you think about it?"

"Why do you want to learn this skill?" Chen asked curiously.

"Have I not told you that it is my grandfather's wish is to see this skill performed in front of him?" Luo said.

"Bring me to your grandfather, and I will show him!" Chen said.

"My grandfather is not ready to meet an outsider."

Luo went on to say, "I will travel back to Dragon City after I'm done with this operation! My grandfather will be pleased if I can perform this skill in front of him!"

"Such a filial granddaughter."

Chen shrugged and said, "It's not that I don't want to teach you. But this skill is not easy to learn at all! It's impossible for you to learn it in a short period of time!"

"Just say it! Do you agree with this bet or not? Don't act like an old woman!" Luo frowned. She was not happy with Chen's attitude.

"I can master it if a kid like you can master it! I'm the almighty Luo Puti, and I live it up to this title!" Luo thought.

"Sure! I agree with this bet!"

Chen grinned and took out the mask from his pocket. He then started applying it to his face. Wenyan created this mask with her spiritual strength. It could be considered as a low-level item. Thus, there should not be any visible flaws in it.

"Hmph! Please don't come to me and tell me that I'm bullying you! Put it on properly! I'm an inspector! No tiny flaw can escape my eyes!"

"Done! Take a look now! Are you going to admit that you lose the bet? Hehe..."

Chen lifted up his head and changed his voice to Bao's voice. He grinned and smiled evilly.

"God...How is this even possible...?"

Luo was shocked. Her hands shook, and she almost crashed the car into the divider. She thought that Bao was back from his death. The facial expression and voice were flawless! The Art of Disguise was really something!

"I think you have lost this bet since you are so speechless."

Chen puckered his lips and moved closer to Luo.

"Come on! M'lady! Let's kiss!"

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 326: Six Doors Organization is at work!

"I'm not going kiss you, punk-ass! Do you believe that I will kick you out form this car?!" Luo glared at Chen and growled.

"You are breaking your promise!! You were happy when you made the bet just now! Now, you are a completely different woman!" Chen said sadly.

"Who...Who's the one who said I'm breaking the promise? We have to set our priorities right! This thing can wait! We will talk about it later!" Luo said. Actually, she had decided not to stick to her promise.

"Why wait? It only needs one second to be complete!"

Chen continued to say happily, "Don't you worry! I promise that I will just kiss you in an innocent way. I will not carry any bad thoughts with me!"

"Go to hell! Come near me if you have the balls!" Luo was like an angry lion. She steeled her decision.

"Don't be shy! It's not your first time anyway!"

Chen pursed his lips and continued to say, "Remember the time when you were drunk and poisoned? You were on fire! You literally kissed every single inch of my body!"

"Shut up or get lost!" Luo snarled. Her face was red.

That was her traumatic experience. She was the almighty Luo Puti! The prodigy in Dragon City! The inspector of Six Doors Organization! That dark and traumatic history of her should not even exist in the first place! She felt like Chen had completely ruined her reputation!

"Alright...I will shut up for now... For the sake of my ambition! I will endure!" Chen sighed and complained.

"Are you kidding me? I don't think an asshole like you would have an actual ambition!" Luo said.

"Of course, I have an ambition! I want to be able to protect you! I will not allow anyone hurt you!" Chen said proudly.

Luo was touched after hearing Chen's ambition. Still, her tone was still stone-cold. She said, "You? Don't be overconfident of yourself! I will be so glad if you don't mess anything up! Protect me? Are you trying to be funny?"

"I know that you are way more powerful than me! But, a woman always needs her man! For example, when you are in bed..." Chen said seriously.

"Shut up! asshole!"

"I'm talking about curing you on the bed! Why am I an asshole? Your way of thinking is too dirty! Damn!"

"Chen Xiaobei! I...I will jump out from this car right now if you don't shut your mouth!"

...

At the ravine of Chen Village, right beside Chen village. There were hundreds of people gathered there right now. Judging by their outfits, there should be around five to six factions here. Out of the factions that were gathered there, the strongest faction present had the least members; there were only eight members.

A hunchback old man with white hair and beard was holding a Luopan to check out the Fengshui around this area. The old man was none other than the brain of the Hundred Beasts Faction; Old Tortoise! Other than his extraordinary wit, he was good at things that are related to Fengshui as well. He was the only one that had the skill to locate the tomb of Emperor Yan. Behind the old man, was Long Aotian in his trademark white shirt, pants and shoes, and six other members from Hundred Beasts Faction. There were also around five hundred people from five factions who closely followed them, by a gap of over ten meters.

It was obvious that they were not powerful, at all! Five hundred people were so afraid of eight members from the Hundred Beasts Faction! They were from the small factions around Green Vine City. According to Luo's plan, they will be acting as eyewitnesses today.

"Master! I found something!"

Old Tortoise stopped moving forward, all of a sudden. He pointed at the wall of the mountain and said, "The Fengshui here is perfect! This will be the best place to bury someone within hundreds of miles! The tomb of Emperor Yan is definitely here!"

"Behind this wall of mountains?" Long frowned and asked.

Old Tortoise stroked his beard and said wittily, "If I'm not mistaken, the thickness of this wall should be around five meters! This is the legendary Wall of Dragon Slayer! It was used to lock down a tomb!"

"Five meters thick?"

"Savage Cow! I will leave this to you." Long gave out an order nonchalantly.

"Alright!"

A man with muscle mass that was comparable to Mr. Olympia walked forward and said, "Old Tortoise, please step back, I don't want to hurt you by accident."

Long and Old Tortoise moved back together.

Exhale

Savage Cow blew out a blast of hot air and stomped on the ground with his feet. He crushed the rocks on the ground with ease. He then started to charge at the wall. Every step that he took left a deep footprint on the ground.

POM!

He used his rock-hard shoulder to tackle the wall. The flesh of only a human colliding with that of a solid mountain, yet he walked away unharmed. On the contrary, while the human did not suffer any visible damage, the mountain wall was cracking. There was a deep imprint along with cracks that spread on the wall where he had just tackled. He then took a few steps back and continued to charge at the same spot.

POM!

POM!

POM!

The crack got wider and deeper. It was just a matter of time before he destroys the five meters thick wall! Those five hundred people from five factions were awestruck by Savage Cow's strength.

"Oh, god! He must be some kind of monster! His physical strength was better than a digging machine!"

"You know nothing! It's not just pure physical strength! He is using a skill called Eight Edges Mountain Breaking Dash! He must have broken at least one hundred poles to get to where he is right now!"

"Damn! That sounds awesome! Factions from Dragon City are so much more powerful than us!"

"No doubt about that! They could kill all of us here easily if we offend them!"

"Seems like it's impossible for us to get anything from the Emperor Yan's tomb!"

.....

Most of them were upset and frustrated, yet there was nothing they could do about it. In Jianghu, the strong prey on the weak! The weak will only be food for the strong! It was the only rule.

Stone falling

Savage Cow had already destroyed the five meters thick wall by the time they had exchanged those few sentences. There was a big hole in the wall!

"Master! Old Tortoise!"

Savage Cow ran to them and said excitedly, "I saw the entrance of the tomb! There is nine dragons sculpture on it! It was truly grand! I'm pretty sure, that is Emperor Yan's tomb!"

"Great! This is great!"

Old Tortoise and Long looked at the other. Both of them were really certain about it.

"Old Tortoise, come and take a look. How should we open the door?" Savage Cow said excitedly.

"Excuse me! You guys are not allowed to enter the tomb!"

A stone-cold voice was heard.

"Who's that?"

Savage Cow looked to the side unconsciously. A shadow charged at Savage Cow with a unique movement skill.

POM!

A kick landed on Savage Cow before he could figure out who the person was. The immense strength from the kick sent Savage Cow several eight meters away! At the same time, the person that had landed a kick on Savage Cow stood at the entrance of the tomb and looked at the rest of the people in disdain.

With an arrogant tone in his voice, he said, "Six Doors Organization will take over from here! Non-authorized personnel is not allowed to interfere with our operation!"

1. Luopan: The luopan or geomantic compass is a Chinese magnetic compass, also known as a Feng Shui compass. It is used by a Feng Shui practitioner to determine the precise direction of a structure or other item.

Chapter 327: I'm Scared

"Damn! Who is that guy? He is so powerful! He just defeated the digging machine with a single kick!"

"The way he speaks makes him sound like an inspector from the Six Doors Organization!"

"Six Doors Organization is the organization formed by the government to govern Jianghu. The people who work for this organization is just mysterious!"

"What a strategy! The mantis stalks the cicada, unaware of the oriole behind! I don't think that the Hundred Beasts Faction can get anything from the tomb this time!"

"Things might change. The leader of the Hundred Beasts Faction is not the type of man who succumbs to authority. Seems like, they are going to put on a show."

...

Those five factions were discussing the matter. At the same time, they were smart enough to play as the audience. None of them dared to get involved.

"Motherf*cker! Who attacked me?!"

Savage Cow jumped up. By the looks of his movement, he was not hurt by the attack. He charged at Chen while growling.

"Stop!"

Old Tortoise shouted. Savage Cow then quickly stopped his attack. It was obvious that the position of the Old Tortoise was high in Hundred Beasts Faction.

Long squinted and asked, "Old Tortoise, do you know this inspector?"

"I don't really know him! I have seen his picture from the intel given by Sky Pigeon."

Old Tortoise lowered his voice and went on, "The name of this person is Bao Linshuang. He is a junior inspector from Six Doors Organization. He just reached the early phase of Qi refining stage not too long ago. His combat power is around five thousand!"

Long put on an arrogant look after hearing the intel that was told by Old Tortoise. He said condescendingly, "Only a garbage with five thousand combat power! Do not even try to act tough in front of me! Watch me kill him!"

"Master! He is not worthy to be your opponent! Let me kill him!" Savage Cow rubbed his fist against his palm. He was ready to attack Chen.

"Do not make any rash moves!"

Old Tortoise was very cautious. He reminded, "Bao is not a threat to us! We will be in trouble if there are other inspectors around here!"

"Old Tortoise, you worry too much!"

Long shook his head and said, "We are in Green Vine province now. We rushed here once we received news of the tomb! I don't think that the guys from Six Doors Organization would have already arrived here!"

"That is true..."

Old Tortoise nodded and said, "According to the intel from Sky Pigeon, people from Six Doors Organization departed from Dragon City today. They will only arrive tomorrow!"

"It was obvious that Bas was around here by coincidence! He was giving out false news. Looks like, he wants to take possession of all the treasure in the tomb!"

Long glared and said coldly, "I bet that there are no other inspectors around here! Savage Cow! Go and kill that garbage!"

"With pleasure!"

Savage Cow smiled and nodded, before charging at Chen.

"What the hell is going on now? Members of Hundred Beasts Faction are attacking the inspector from Six Doors Organization! What a bold move!"

"They are pretty arrogant! Authorities from the Six Doors Organization have the privilege to kill first before talking! Normal folks like us definitely do not have the guts to taunt them!"

"That means that the digging machine is pretty confident about his combat power! He truly intends to kill that inspector!"

"Here comes the good show! Hehehe!"

....

Members of the five factions were rubbing their hands and getting ready to enjoy a good show. They would be really happy if they had popcorn and coke with them right now.

"Garbage! Die now!"

At the same time, the battle finally began. The Savage Cow put all his strength in to attack Chen. The attack was more powerful than his previous attacks on the mountain wall. The ground cracked, and dust was brought up into the air! His posture in the fight was that of a tank itself!

"Damn! It seems like you have balls of steel! How dare you attack the authority of Six Doors Organization publicly?" Bao pursed his lips condescendingly.

Ding!

[Cultivation: Early phase of Qi refining stage. Health: 5000. Combat power: 6000!]

Chen's Netherspirit Battlescouter was activated, and the combat power of Savage Cow was revealed to Chen. Needless to say, the Bao Linshuang's true identity was none other than Chen. At then, anyone with Six thousand combat power was nothing to Chen.

Rumbling

Savage Cow was charging at Chen at full speed. It could crush and destroy a normal human being easily! But, Savage Cow was completely put to stop when he reached Chen. He was held stationary.

"Damn son! That inspector from Six Doors Organization is so damn powerful! He just stopped the digging machine with one hand!"

"Indeed! That digging machine just used his Eight Edges Mountain Breaking Dash to put a hole into the five-meter-thick mountain wall! But, he can't break through that inspector's hand!"

"I feel like something really bad is going to happen to the digging machine!"

...

Everyone had their attention placed on Chen. Chen then grabbed hold of Savage Cow's neck and asked, "Do you know the meaning of my name?"

"No... I don't know..."

Savage Cow flinched. He could not free himself from Chen. Yet even if he could, he did not dare to do so. He knew clearly that Chen's strength could stop his attack and break his neck like a toothpick.

"Hehe... You don't know? Let me tell you!"

Chen raised his eyebrows and said, "My name is Bao Linshuang! It means that I can guarantee your satisfaction!"

PIAK!

PIAK!

PIAK!

Chen lifted up his hands and started to slap Savage Cow non-stop before he could react to it. Chen had five thousand and seven hundred combat power. But, his combat power had increased to seven thousand and six hundred after activating the Primordial Witch King Combat Enhancement Training! To Chen, Savage Cow was just another chicken for him to squash!

"Ouch... Ouch... Master, please save me! Old Tortoise...Please save me..."

Soon, Savage Cow's face was completely swollen up. His broken teeth were all over the floor. He was shouting out for help, while puking blood.

"Old Tortoise! I thought that you told me this Bao guy only has five thousand combat power? Why is he so much stronger than Savage Cow?" Long frowned and said.

"I'm not clear about it either! I got that from the intel of Sky Pigeon..." Old Tortoise was baffled as well. He quickly pushed the blame to Sky Pigeon.

"Hmph! Sky Pigeon's intel is not accurate at all! I will punish that fool when I return!"

Long said with his stone-cold voice. He shouted arrogantly, "Bao Linshuang! Let Savage Cow go right now!"

Chen ignored Long and looked at Savage Cow with a smile and asked, "How was it? Was it satisfying?"

"F*ck you! My master will f*cking kill you later!" Savage Cow roared.

"Damn! I'm so scared!"

Chen glared at Savage Cow and pulled him close to himself.

POM!

Chen landed a powerful knee hit on Savage Cow's stomach!

"Ah... You... How dare you destroy my cultivation...?"

Blargghh...

Savage Cow screamed in agony and puked out another mouthful of blood. The place that Chen had struck was the storage of True Qi! All the True Qi will be dispersed when the vessel was broken! Ten plus years of training would be reduced to zero! It was a fate worse than death for Jianghu members.

"Is it satisfying now?"

Chen tapped Savage Cow's face and coldly said, "It seems like you are not quite satisfied with my service! In that case, I will have to use my ultimate skill on you!"

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 328: Brushing off a Worm

"Huh? Ultimate skill? No... No, No - I'm already very satisfied... Really! I'm not lying!"

Savage Cow turned green as he shivered.

"Are you certain that you're satisfied?" Chen Xiaobei shouted, his eyebrows raised. "Then why are you still here?"

Pow!

Savage Cow's crotch was hurt badly; the immense strength from Chen Xiaobei 's Nutbuster kick had even sent Savage Cow flying!

"Ouch... Ow- Ow- Ow-"

Savage Cow was sent ten meters in the air, yelling in utter agony as his crotch bled. Guess there's a new member in the eunuch club!

"F*ck! It hurts!!"

Every single one of the five hundred gang members crossed their legs together subconsciously, as if they could feel Savage Cow's pain.

Boom!

The sound of an impact echoed. Savage Cow landed right in front of Long Aotian.

"Master..."

Savage Cow's face was swollen, his Dantian destroyed – and his crotch was still bleeding incessantly. He was no different than a dead man!

"Motherf*cker!"

Long Aotian frowned in such fury that veins floated on his face. "Bao Linshuang!" He shouted in rage, "How dare you beat up my man?!"

"And I did it on a whim too! What can you do about it?!" Chen Xiaobei's mouth twitched as he maintained his arrogant streak. "As an inspector of the Six Doors Organization, I have the right to punch first and ask questions later! You guys should be grateful that I stayed my hand! Now, thank me!"

"F*ck you!" Long Aotian retorted angrily. "You want me to thank you for beating up my people? You've given up on life!"

"What? Are you going to kill a Six Doors Organization inspector in public? How dare you?!"

"Do you really think that I can't snuff you out? You were just lucky to defeat Savage Cow! You can't handle a dragon like me!" Long Aotian boasted proudly.

Ding!

[Cultivation: Latter phase of Qi refining stage. Health: 10000. Combat power: 10000!]

Chen Xiaobei had activated his Netherspirit Battlescouter to examine Long Aotian, but he kept his smile. "I'll admit that I can't defeat you, but my sister is nearby! She can crush you like a pathetic worm!"

"Motherf*cker?! Who are you calling a worm?" yelled Long Aotian, now positively apoplectic. "And where is your sister? Tell her to come, now! I will have you watch me as I annihilate her!"

"I'd advise you not to mess with my sister! With her abilities, everyone else here is just trash! She will trample over every single one of you, and that is the truth! And I'm not singling anyone out either!" Chen Xiaobei boasted with a shrug.

Chen Xiaobei's claims completely petrified the five hundred gang members; they'd lose to Chen Xiaobei even if all of them were to attack him at the same time.

Meanwhile, the members of the Hundred Beasts Faction were getting cross.

"Motherf*cker! Us, trash? The rest of us here are more powerful than Savage Cow! Call your sister! You will watch while we rape her together!"

"Yeah! We will give her some fine loving if she's hot, or we will pass her to Poison Rat if she's ugly!"

.....

A skinny guy with small eyes laughed in a revolting manner. "I don't care whether she's beautiful or ugly! I'll be happy as long as it's a woman! Hehehe..."

"Stop laughing and shut the f*ck up!"

Long Aotian's face turned black as he screamed again. He turned around to Chen Xiaobei and told him icily: "Kid, I'm going to count to three! Get your sister to come here or we kill you!"

"Let me count for you! One, two, three!" Chen laughed in a casual manner.

"F*ck you! I shall grant your death wish since you want to die so badly!" Long Aotian roared and charged.

He was indeed powerful. Words fail to describe the scene as the man who possessed ten thousand points in combat power launched himself at his opponent.

Fast would have been an understatement.

"God! What is with that speed?!"

Five hundred pairs of eyes could not catch Long Aotian's movement clearly; all they saw was a white blur lunging at Chen Xiaobei. He frowned, but he had no intention of dodging.

"This pathetic worm is pretty powerful," Chen continued darkly, "but it's useless!"

"F*ck! Still calling me a pathetic worm before your own doom?! My name won't be Long Aotian if I don't kill you today!"

With an angry howl, Long Aotian's palm reached Chen Xiaobei's face. His fingers suddenly turned into claws wrapped in white; it's True Qi! It had the exact image of dragon talons!

"How formidable! The dragon talons could be seen clearly! Our master's True Qi is the strongest among us!"

"Those things can claw through a metal board! That kid is dead meat now!"

"Master! Don't just kill him! Rip his chest open! Let him suffer and die slowly!"

"That's right! He was so arrogant just now! It's karma!"

....

Members of the Hundred Beasts Faction cheered in excitement. For them, it was clear that killing Chen Xiaobei was a mere trifle for Long Aotian.

"Master! Look out! To your left!"

Old Tortoise screamed in fear out of the blue. Though the old man wasn't great in combat, his mind and wits were outstanding; everyone had been cheering Long Aotian on while he alone was watching their surroundings with his keen eyes.

"What?!" Surprised, Long Aotian, quickly looked to his left, and his vision was soon filled with the sight of an unknown black phantom shooting towards him.

Wham!

Long Aotian was stunned in an instant as he felt the sensation of a foot striking his handsome face.

The shoe was quite small; it caught just half of Long's face.

A woman's shoe.

That was Long's last thought as he felt the world spin.

Sent flying ten meters away like a meteor, Long Aotian hit the ground and formed a crater as he landed.

"Master! Master..."

"My goodness... Am I seeing this right... Our master was blown away with a single kick!"

"I'm scared... Our master was the strongest! And he didn't even get to hit back!"

"We'd be dead if that were any of us!"

The Hundred Beasts Faction were astounded. They can't quite believe what they were seeing!

"She turned around! A woman! God! And she's hot!"

"Damn! What a pretty lady! Just look at her! She's perfect!"

"I can indulge in that voluptuous body for the rest of my life! A true goddess!"

"The rest of your life? I will trim my life ten years short just to get in bed with her!"

.....

The gang members who stood at a distance screamed in excitement, most of them having the sudden urge to lick her shoes.

Looks!

Body!

Combat power!

There was only one woman who possessed these three factors, and she was none other than Luo Puti!

"Six Doors Organization is taking over! Long Aotian is a fine example for those who would mess with me!"

Luo Puti went to stand beside Chen Xiaobei; her cool, serious and ruthless demeanor was exactly like an Ice Demon Queen!

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 329: Unhappy Entrance!

"She... She is the senior inspector in Six Doors Organization... Luo Puti... The pinnacle of Qi refining whose combat power is said to be around twenty thousand!"

Old Tortoise recognized her immediately.

"Twenty thousand?! That is insane..."

Though most of the onlookers were shocked that a single kick had defeated Long Aotian, they now learned that Luo Puti was actually being merciful. She could have killed him with a single kick if she wanted to!

Ten thousand combat power versus twenty thousand combat power! They were of totally different worlds and incomparable!

Blaaargh...

Meanwhile, Long Aotian had his knees on the ground, and began to vomit blood. Suffering from an extreme headache and dizziness, he barely had the strength to get back to his feet.

"Bao Linshuang... You asshole... Why didn't you tell me your sister is Luo Puti! I would not have attacked you if you said so!" Long Aotian was frustrated. Most of the people in Dragon City knew her, and he would not have went up against her even if he had balls of steel!

"Listen up! All of you!" Luo Puti stepped up and told them sternly. "The key to Emperor Yan's tomb had been handed over by Chen Xiaobei and Murong Xiaoyao to the government! From this moment forth the tomb is official government business! Failure to comply is punishable by death!"

Members from the five factions retreated over ten meters at her words. Luo Puti had made herself quite clear; none of them had the guts to challenge her authority.

"Inspector Luo had her say! We have to obey her! Pull back!" Old Tortoise said as he prepared to lead the members of Hundred Beasts Faction back where they came from.

"Hold on!" Chen Xiaobei shouted all of a sudden.

"Inspector Bao, how may we assist you?" Old Tortoise said politely while the rest of the six members bowed reverently as if they were Chen Xiaobei's grandchildren.

"You people! I want all of you to slap yourself ten times! And then get lost!" the enforcer ordered.

"That... May I ask why?" Old Tortoise was shocked, and clearly not too happy about it.

"Why? You guys were just talking about gangbangng my sister not too long ago! I remember those words!" Chen Xiaobei glared at them coldly. It was definitely a non-negotiable order.

"This..."

The Hundred Beasts Faction were stunned. However, they could not deny that they had been vocal in their intentions to violate Luo Puti. All of them stole a glance at her only to find that the Ice Demon Queen was positively furious.

Obviously, they were scared to death.

"Are you going to slap yourself or not? Don't waste my time! My sister is getting impatient!" Chen Xiaobei said, raising his eyebrows. "Think about it! Do you really think that ten slaps outweigh your lives? Am I asking too much here?"

"No... Not at all... We will slap ourselves now..."

All of them were seriously frustrated, but none had the guts to bargain in front of the Ice Demon Queen!

Smack!

Smack!

Smack!

All of them – including the respectable Old Tortoise – raised their hands and began to slap themselves. Worried that the pair might not be happy with the way they slapped themselves, all of them put their backs into it – so much so that their faces became swollen in a purple hue.

"We... We have done slapping ourselves..." Old Tortoise said with a teary face.

"Get lost if you're done!" Chen ordered, rolling his eyes. "Remember what my sister had said! She will slay those who steal from the tomb!"

"Yes... We remember..." All of them nodded, not daring to say another word.

"Let's go in." Luo Puti said casually as she headed for the tomb, with Chen Xiaobei at her heels like a loyal dog.

They reached a thirty-meters-long hallway after walking past a wall that was five-meters thick; they had finally arrived at the core of the mountain.

There was a huge stone door by the end of the hallway. An artistic impression of nine dragons fighting for a single dragon ball was carved out on the stone door; a majestic scene.

"Take out the jade seal and the safety jade pendant."

Upon closer observation, Luo Puti found square and round slots on the dragon ball; those were keyholes.

"Nice!"

Chen Xiaobei had carried his backpack with him today so that nobody could see him operate his cellphone. He kept it in his backpack, which in turn allows him to pick stuff out from his treasure chest under concealment.

And he would not need to worry about Luo Puti learning his secrets.

"Here you go! I think we can just slot in these two items into the keyholes."

Chen Xiaobei glanced at the keyholes before pushing the jade seal into the square keyhole, and the safety pendant into the round keyhole!

Click!

Both of them heard a loud click, and a crack formed around the dragon ball.

"Try turning it," Luo Puti suggested.

"Alright!"

Chen used both his hands to grab hold of the huge dragon ball and quickly rotated it.

Click!

Click!

Click!

Brrrooomm...

The stone door opened automatically just like in the movies. All that lay within the tomb was now within reach.

"That..."

Stunned at the scene that welcome them, Chen and Luo stared blankly ahead.

....

Outside the tomb, Long Aotian finally recovered from the Ice Demon Queen's kick. He stared at the entrance of the tomb in anger.

He had come expressively to the Green Vine Province for Emperor Yan's tomb! And then Luo Puti came and simply took everything away from him after all the effort he made to locating the tomb. It was as if someone stole his life savings!

"Poison Rat! How many Flaming Pills do you have with you right now?" he asked coldly.

"Five! Other than Savage Cow, Old Tortoise and me, you guys can have one each!"

"Give it to me!" Long extended his hands to Poison Rat.

"Master! Please think about it!" Old Tortoise quickly interrupted him. "Flaming Pills may increase your combat power for three days but its side effects are not something that should be messed around with!"

"I thought about it! My body could recover after suffering the side effects, and an opportunity like this will be gone forever if we don't grab it now!"

"But... Your combat power will only be boosted to twelve thousand! You still can't defeat Luo Puti!" Old Tortoise added hesitantly.

"Savage Cow is gone, we can count him out! And there are five people here, plus your wittiness and Poison Rat's poison. I say we have the chance to take out Luo Puti!" Long Aotian continued determinedly. "Let's go for it! We might be able to turn a bicycle into a motorcycle! Pebbles into boulders! As long as we kill Luo Puti, we will be able to rule the world!"

"Yes, master! Wealth on this scale can only be acquired with risk! We are more than willing to take the risk!"

All of them hailed from Jianghu; most of them had been through life-threatening situations.

And with greed being the motivator, none of them protested against Long Aotian's decision.

"Alright! Let's do this!" Old Tortoise finally nodded.

Poison Rat took out five Flaming Pills.

Chapter 330: Eight Hundred Bronze Soldiers

A vast arena lay beyond the stone door; the floor had been garnished with white marble trimmed on each end to form an octagonal shape.

In ancient times, construction of such scale in the absence of heavy machinery was almost a miracle; but what amazed Chen Xiaobei and Luo Puti were the eight hundred bronze soldiers that stood in the arena! They bore a stark resemblance to the Terracotta Soldiers of the Qin Dynasty, and appeared to have been buried together with the king.

Though ancient, their armor looked brand new; dried corpses lay within every set, each reminiscent of mummies. The skin and muscles of those remains were completely dried but their bodies did not have a hint of decomposition. What's more, their skin glistened with an ancient bronze; they were indeed copper corpses!

"This is amazing!" Luo Puti uttered in wide-eyed wonder.

"What? What did you find?" Chan Xiaobei asked.

"Every single one of them had been trained in some sort of body-enhancement skill before they died! Their health would have been around ten thousand! That was why their bodies did not decompose even after they died!" Luo explained.

"Wow! That's awesome!" Chen Xiaobei's face was lit, his tone chipper. "If all these soldiers were already so formidable, could you even imagine how powerful the king was? The world would have trembled at his martial arts!"

"This is not the time for that!" Luo Puti frowned. "Take a look around. Do you see any exits?"

Chen Xiaobei swept his gaze across the arena. It was indeed a closed space with no obvious escape route; there weren't objects that looked like coffins either. "You're right... Perhaps we need to solve some puzzle here to unlock the next door!"

"You should wait here if that's the case. I will go down and check things out," Luo Puti said as she headed for the arena.

"I'll help," Chen said.

"That's not necessary! I'll be very happy if you could just mind your own business!" Luo retorted without turning to him.

"F*ck! How dare she underestimate me? Don't come looking for me when you get into trouble!" Chen pouted, folding his arms as he watched the scene unfold.

Click!

Something happened the moment Luo stepped on the floor of the arena in her high heels.

Whoosh...

A cold wind came in out of nowhere! The temperature of the arena dropped significantly as the wind entered the copper corpses.

Klak!

Klak!

Soldiers who died hundreds of years ago came to life in the blink of an eye! All of them drew their knives that looked brand new just like their armor! The blades were even sharp enough to cut through metal.

Some of them looked special; those had eyes filled with blue flame, and each had a piece of jade resembling puzzle that hung on the center of their helmets.

"I should be able to unlock the next door after collecting those eight jade pieces!"

Luo Puti was, after all, a senior inspector of the Six Door Organization. She had seen enough bizarreness throughout her career, which in turn allows her to stay calm in all situations. And now, not only was she unafraid of those copper soldiers, she figured out the puzzle in split seconds.

"Puti! Please be careful! Those copper soldiers are really powerful!"

All the while, Chen Xiaobei stood outside the arena and kept shouting at Luo.

"Evil spirits are possessing those eight special copper soldiers! Don't get careless!"

A warmth welmed within Luo Puti from Chen Xiaobei's words, although she chose to flaunt herself instead. "Hmph! I don't need you to remind me! Feast your eyes as I solve this puzzle! I'm a million times your superior in combat power!"

Klak!

Klak!

Klak!

The eight hundred copper soldiers quickly surrounded Luo.

"Kid's play! Let me start with you!"

Luo 's eyebrows twitched. She dashed for the copper soldier that stood in front of her, while those copper soldiers lunged at her with their swords in return.

Their combat power was somewhat average – numbering only around five thousand – but Luo was flesh and blood. Though she possessed immense power, she would still get hurt when the swords landed on her.

And even an army of ants could defeat an elephant! It would be fatal for Luo Puti if she got hundreds of papercuts.

Shiiing...

Luo Puti herself was aware of the threat. She quickly lowered herself and drew the dagger that she hid in her boots; wrapping it in white and icy True Qi, beautiful curves formed in the air as she waved it around.

Clang!

Clang!

Clang!

The sound of metal colliding echoed; hundreds of swords were repelled.

"Damn! That True Qi is so concentrated, it's almost tangible!"

Chen Xiaobai exclaimed in surprise as he kept observing the True Qi. "It's Yang Ice! It's no wonder that Xiaobai always sticks to Puti! They have the same attribute!"

"Eh? Where are the soldiers?"

Luo muttered as she kicked away the swords that surround her. She then found that one of the leading soldiers that she had locked on too had already changed positions.

"It seems like these copper soldiers are no brainless puppets! I have to do better!"

Luo focused and swung her dagger at the copper soldiers that stood near her.

"Wind!"

The dagger splits open a copper soldier's stomach.

Pow!

Pow!

Luo Puti leapt into the air and landed a kick on another copper soldier. Using its skull as a jumping point before landing another kick on a second copper soldier. Both of them were sent flying at the others like meteors; the force causing a large group of those minions to drop on the floor.

Luo Puti was truly formidable as she activated her rampage mode to wipe out every copper soldier around her as she sent them streaking through the air. However, there was a lingering worry in her mind.

"This is weird. Why are the soldiers that I've pummeled still attacking me...? And their leaders just keep moving around; It is tough for me to lock on to them..." she thought, frowning.

She has the upper hand, but the eight hundred soldiers were virtually indestructible, and were not afraid of dying! They were keeping up their offense with their swords, even when their heads have already been knocked off.

Scary wouldn't be enough to describe the scene. Luo's True Qi was limited; sooner or later, her True Qi would run dry! Even if she had three heads and six arms, her weakness would be uncovered eventually in this attritional battle!

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

A dozen swords came at Luo Puti, and she held them off.

And then she screamed.

"Shit! I can't dodge this!"

Several of the undead soldiers had held their swords aloft, ready to slash the weak point was her back! They would definitely deal a severe blow to her even if she managed to survive!

"Don't be afraid! I will protect you...! Hehe..."

A happy voice could be heard laughing, and Luo Puti finally felt that she could depend on a certain person!
