Chapter 691: The World's Most Powerful Family

'Toxic bitch!'

Taken aback, Niya thought that she could use her body and her beautiful face to seduce Chen Xiaobei. However, Chen Xiaobei was not interested in her at all. Instead, it was a slap to her face. Even if she took off all her clothes, Chen Xiaobei would not do anything to her as well.

"I... I will slap my own face... Is that okay with you?"

With no options left, Niya had to take a step back and do whatever that pleased Chen Xiaobei. Asking her to slap her own face was the biggest humiliation that she had ever faced. However, it was still better than being killed by him. To her surprise, Chen Xiaobei shook his head. He took a look at her seven bodyguards and said, "All seven of you! Come here and take turns to slap her!"

Upon hearing that, Niya and her seven bodyguards were perturbed. Asking seven muscular men to slap a defenseless woman with so much power that could decide their fates was definitely a crazy move. However, there was no way that the seven bodyguards would do what they were told to do.

"Just kill me! I will never slap Ms. Niya!" said a black man.

"Hehe... No doubt... You are really loyal! I will kill her and the other six bodyguards if you refuse to slap her! But, I will let you live!"

"What?! How can you do this? I've never come across anyone who would do something like this!"

"Shark! Shut up! He is the Sea Messenger! He can do whatever he likes!" said Niya.

"This..."

"Why are you guys still standing there?! Come over here and slap me now!"

Promptly, Niya hastened them. Normally, Niya would be angered by all kinds of things that did not go her way. Asking someone to slap her was definitely an ultra-rare scene.

"All seven of you! Don't just stand there! Your mistress is asking all of you to slap her! Go and satisfy her needs now! This is my first time hearing someone make such humiliating demand!"

"I..."

Niya almost vomited a mouthful of blood.

'I wouldn't have made such humiliating and ridiculous demand if you didn't threaten me!'

Holding off her anger and frustration, Niya hastened her bodyguards once again.

"Come and slap me now before I make your lives miserable!"

"Yes... Yes..."

Leaving them with other options, all seven of them gathered around Niya and started to take turns to slap her well-taken-care-of face.

*Slap!*

*Slap!*

The explosive sound reverberated on the deck – sounding more exciting than the explosion of firecrackers during Chinese New Year. After witnessing such an insane scene, Abuzabi and Blaszcykowski were extremely shocked. Though Luo Puti knew the ending from beginning; still, she was taken aback seeing Niya being slapped by her bodyguards. She knew that Chen Xiaobei would use mother-child worm to put fear into his enemies. However, she never expected that Chen Xiaobei would ask all his enemies to slap themselves. Feeling relieved, Luo Puti was pleased to see that the arrogant Niya and Park Chan-ho were being slapped in a brutal manner.

"We can depart to Paradise Island now!"

Chen Xiaobei then walked to the captain and ordered.

One of the captains shook his head and said, "All the devices that used to control the yacht are destroyed. I'm afraid we can't kickstart the engine!"

Immediately, the other captain tapped on his shoulder and said, "Stop talking nonsense! Mr. Messenger will not lie to us! Just go and do it!"

All three captain returned to the control room and tried to kickstart the engines. As expected, all three yachts were working fine. It was as if there was no damage happened to it before! In the end, all three captains idolized and respected Chen Xiaobei even more than before. Those that stood by Chen Xiaobei's side got to take a rest inside the yacht after the yachts set sail to Paradise Island. On the other hand, Niya and the rest of the people were kneeling on the deck. Without Chen Xiaobei's permission, none of them dared to get up.

Through chatting with the young Arabian man, Chen Xiaobei knew that he was supposed to tag along with his father to come to this Paradise Island for holiday. However, he got into a fight with a few thugs when he snuck out to have some fun by himself. That was why his attire so old and tattered. As for the Russian tycoon, his sole purpose to travel to Paradise Island was to have some fun.

"Mr. Messenger, I remember you told us that we are supposed to help with the task given by the Sea God, right? Actually, what are we supposed to do?" Like newborn calves that were not afraid of tigers, the young Arabian mustered up his courage and asked.

"The area where the yachts stopped working is the holy spot of the ocean. What I need to do is to make the owner of Paradise Island to change the course of the yachts permanently!"

"I'm afraid this is going to be a difficult task! This sailing course is set by the owner of the Paradise Island! On Paradise Island, he is like an emperor! The decisions that made by him is like a holy order! It is damn near impossible to make him change his mind!" said Blaszcykowski.

"You said damn near. That means somebody has done it before. Tell me. What should I do to make him change his mind?"

"There is no fixed rule to this. All you need to do is meet up with him and talk to him about it."

"Meet up with him? That sounds simple!"

"Simple? No! It's not simple at all! The owner of Paradise Island is high and mighty! Let alone plebians like us! Even the president of America can't meet up with him whenever he wants!"

"That's sounds so exaggerated! He is just a businessman! There is no way that he could act in such an arrogant manner!" said Luo Puti.

"The owner of Paradise Island is no ordinary businessman! You wouldn't say that I have exaggerated his influence if you know his name!"

"His name? Do enlighten me!"

"Focker Rothschild!"

"What?! I can't believe he is from Rothschild Family!"

"What's so great about that family? Why are you so shocked by it?" asked Chen Xiaobei in a curious manner.

"The Rothschild Family is considered as the most powerful and wealthy family on this earth! Rumor has it that their family have complete control over the Federal Reserve System! Their accumulated wealth is estimated at fifty trillion! And, rumor has it that they are serving a demigod! In other words, their family is as powerful as the most powerful hidden ancient faction in China!"

Upon hearing that, Chen Xiaobei could feel his blood rushing. This world was so big that he felt like he had to continue to discovering all the unknowns!

"Mr. Messenger. Now you should know meeting Focker is as difficult as building a stairway to heaven!"

"Meet up with his is actually is not as hard as you think! If I'm not mistaken, he will come to the harbor personally to welcome me!"

Chapter 692: Crawl over Here

At Paradise Island.

White was the theme of this island. The white sandy beach was surrounded by a dozen luxurious white buildings. Located in the middle of the ocean, the whole island looked like a fluffy white cloud that floated on the sky. There was no disease, no disaster, and no conflicts here. All that left were freedom, enjoyment, and happiness! It was no wonder this island was named Paradise Island!

In the middle of the island stood a snowy-white European castle! That was where the owner of the Paradise Island, Focker Rothschild resided.

"Master Focker, something big happened! Your presence is needed!"

An extremely gorgeous European woman in a maid outfit crawled into Focker's bedroom.

"This is so annoying! What is it? Must I go and check it out personally?"

A half-naked man with blond hair and blue eyes sat on the bed and used a remote control to turn on the projected screen on the wall. Three yachts could be seen heading towards the island.

"I'm afraid these three yachts are the one that lost communication with us yesterday! There are some really important guests on the yachts. If they have gone missing and we fail to come up with a proper explanation, it will definitely affect the reputation of Paradise Island..."

"The supposedly missing yachts? I remember the first lady of America is in one of the yachts. However, a lowly person is not worthy of my time! Let Hades deals with them!"

"No. You have misunderstood me! Mr. Hades will not alert you if the person is just a lowly person! Enlarge the pictures and look at the people that kneeled on the deck!"

"Kneel?"

With his curiosity being triggered, Focker enlarged the pictures on TV with his remote control until he could see the faces of those people.

"Damn! Who the hell are they? Their faces are so swollen that they look like a group of pigs! Who the f*ck allowed them to come to my island?! This is blasphemy!"

"Their swollen faces were caused by intensive slapping. That Asian pig is the CEO of Samsung, Park Chan-ho! That white-haired pig is Duke Gustav of the Deathbane Family from America! And, finally, that female pig is the first lady of America, Niya! The rest of the pigs are their bodyguards! Another thing is Macky the Wolverine is nowhere to be seen! Mr. Hades speculates that Macky was killed and tossed into the sea!"

"With that being said, there is someone powerful enough to kill Macky on the yacht! And, that person manages to make Duke Gustav and the first lady to kneel in front of him!"

"You are right! Master Focker is so smart!"

"I know Niya is one arrogant, prideful, and insecure woman! The person that made her kneel on the deck is definitely not an ordinary person!"

Immediately, Focker lifted up his blanket and got down from his bed fully naked.

"This person is worthy of my time! I'm going to meet him personally!"

Focker then put on his clothes and prepared to meet that person. Under his blanket, there were four masterpieces lying there with no clothes on.

.....

At the harbor of Paradise Island.

All the other unrelated personnel were dismissed. Only Focker and a white-haired elder with black long robes were waiting there for the yachts.

"Hades, who do you the person is? How did he make Niya kneel before him? And, her face is swollen as well!" asked Focker.

"I'm not sure... Clearly, this person could not care less about America! We should not underestimate him!"

Hades narrowed his eyes and paid attention to three incoming yachts.

"If it was you, would you dare to do things like that?"

"America is not the country that we should mess with! My combat power is only fifty thousand! I'm definitely not powerful enough to challenge a country like America!" said Hades while shaking his head.

"How about the demigod that we serve in my family?" asked Focker with a smile on his face.

"That demigod is definitely powerful enough to challenge an entire country! Standing on top of pyramid, he can destroy America easily!"

"Do you think there is another demigod on the yacht? I'm so looking forward to it!"

Feeling excited, Focker could not shift his attention from the incoming yachts. On the other hand, Hades was just staring at the yachts without saying anything. Soon, the yachts finally arrived at the harbor. Chen Xiaobei was the first one that got off from the yacht. Luo Puti and the rest of them were following behind him.

"Foc... Focker... He is really here..." said Blaszczykowski.

He could not believe what he just witnessed. To his surprise, the person that the president of America could not meet had come to the harbor to welcome them. Even those people that kneeled on the deck were shocked when they saw Focker.

"It seems like everyone here can recognize me. I'm going to introduce myself then! I have traveled here to see which of you here made Niya kneel!"

"It's me!" said Chen Xiaobei in a calm manner.

"You? Can you not fool around with me? A lowly person like you is not worthy of my time! Bring out the real master! I will definitely treat him with utmost politeness!" said Focker scornfully.

On the other hand, Hades had no intention to pay attention to Chen Xiaobei as well. Instead, he kept looking at the yacht. Clearly, his thought was similar to Focker – the real master was not here yet. To them, Chen Xiaobei had nothing to do with the master that they expected. Seeing their disdain, Chen Xiaobei did not even bother to explain the whole thing to them.

"Master Focker! Listen to me! This young man right here is the Sea Messenger! A task given by the Sea God has landed on his shoulder! He is here to meet you to talk about it!"

Fearing that things might get ugly, Blaszczykowski tried to explain the whole thing to Focker.

"What? Sea Messenger? Him? Stop joking! He is just an immature kid! And Asian! He is definitely no Sea Messenger! If he is the Sea Messenger; then I'm the Poseidon! Hahaha..." said Focker.

"I thought there is supposed to be a master on this yacht. To my surprise, he is just a coward that does not dare to show himself! This is funny!" said Hades.

"You guys are the jokers here! I'm standing right here! How dare you talk bad about me when you can't recognize the Sea Messenger? I can only think of two words for you guys – f*cking retard!"

"Motherf*cker! How dare you call us f*cking retard? It seems like you have lost the intention to continue to live in this world!" shouted Focker.

Filled with murderous intent, Hades was ready to kill Chen Xiaobei. The two of them had never been scolded by anyone on this island.

"Do you guys really not believe that I'm the Sea Messenger?"

Chen Xiaobei then glared at Niya and the rest of the people that were still kneeling on the deck and said, "Crawl over here! Tell them who I am!"

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 693: Apologize Personally

'Crawl over here?'

Upon hearing that, Niya and the rest of them dared not to give it a second thought. Immediately, they moved to Chen Xiaobei with their hands and legs on the ground like a dog.

"Master Focker... We can prove that... This young master over here is the Sea Messenger!"

"Yes... Yes... Yes... We all can prove that as well... He is here to complete the task given by the God of Sea!"

"The God of Sea had already hand over our lives to the Sea Messenger! We are here to help him to complete the task!"

"Master Focker! Never anger the Sea Messenger!"

.....

Seeing that Niya and others were forced to crawl over to Chen Xiaobei, Focker and Hades were bemused.

"How is that even possible?"

Focker had seen a lot of weird and upheaval events throughout his life. Usually, it was hard to shake him down. However, when he saw that the first lady of America, grand duke of Deathbane family, CEO of Samsung, bodyguards with True Nirvana cultivation, and Halfstep True Nirvana Cultivation being ordered around by Chen Xiaobei like maids, he was truly shocked.

At the same time, Hades lost his composure. After putting some thought into it, he said, "Master Focker, I think we should invite the Sea Messenger to step foot on the island first!"

"Sea Messenger?"

Taken aback, Focker knew that Hades had already confirmed that Chen Xiaobei was the real deal. With the facts laid before them, there was no way for them to deny the truth.

"Right! You are right!"

"It is our pleasure to welcome Mr. Messenger to our island! Don't just stand there. Please allow us to give you a proper welcome!"

Focker instantly became polite while talking to Chen Xiaobei.

The crowd was bewildered as they had never seen Focker behave in such a polite manner. As he was like a king on the island, smiling from ear-to-ear to another person was unprecedented! However, Chen Xiaobei pretended that he did not hear a single word. It seemed like he had no intention on stepping foot on the island.

"This..."

Focker felt embarrassed, rooted to the spot. Meanwhile, the crowd too was astonished by Chen Xiaobei's act of rejecting Focker's invitation. That was a brutal face slapping moment for him. The whole situation became really awkward. After hesitated for a short while, Hades lifted his left hand and placed on his chest. He then bowed at Chen Xiaobei and said, "Mr. Messenger. This is a big misunderstanding. I would like to represent the whole of Paradise Island to apologize to you!"

The crowd froze after witnessing Hades apologizing to Chen Xiaobei. It was crucial to know that Hades was extremely powerful on Paradise Island. Other than that, he was an elite with 50,000 combat power and legend has it that he possessed the ability to communicate with the underworld. Apologizing to other willingly was unprecedented as well – just like Focker treated others with a smile on his face.

Clearly, Hades was trying to protect Focker's face. That was why he stepped forward to apologize to Chen Xiaobei. Still, Chen Xiaobei was not moved by his apology. There was no emotion on his face. Upon seeing that, the crowd felt even more puzzled. Chen Xiaobei's arrogant manner was literally insane! After ignoring Focker, he proceeded to ignore Hades. As a result, Focker's and Hades's faces displayed awkwardness.

On the other hand, Niya and the others were filled with anticipation and excitement. To them, Chen Xiaobei's pride would definitely cost him later. Without a doubt, hatred from Hades and Focker had already accumulated. A huge conflict would bound to happen if Focker and Hades were angered. The perfect ending for them would be Chen Xiaobei being killed Hades. By that time, Niya and the others would regain their freedom. After that, they could go and kill everyone that was related to Chen Xiaobei in the most brutal manner possible. Upon thinking about that, they could feel the adrenaline rushing inside their bodies.

At the same time, Luo Puti felt really worried about Chen Xiaobei. Clearly, she knew that death would come upon Chen Xiaobei if he managed to cross Focker's and Hades's line. However, something unexpected happened the next second.

Focker took the initiative to step forward and bowed at Chen Xiaobei.

"Mr. Messenger! I'm so sorry that we have offended you! Here I am to apologize to you once again! I hope you can forget all of our wrongdoings and forgive us!" said Focker.

"Good heavens! Master Focker is apologizing to him! Am I hearing it right?"

The crowd's eyes widened when they heard Focker's apology. He was after all the young master of Rothschild Family! The word 'apologize' does not even exist in their dictionary! However, it was true that Focker just apologized to Chen Xiaobei! How unbelievable! Even Hades was shocked by it! He watched Focker grew up to an adult. If he remembered it right, this should be the first time Focker apologized to someone else!

"Okay. You look really sincere!"

Finally, Chen Xiaobei spoke and stepped foot on Paradise Island. Immediately, Luo Puti let out a sigh of relieve. On the other hand, Niya and those who sided with her were filled with fear.

"Mr. Messenger! What should I do with those people that are still kneeling on the yacht? I think it's inappropriate for them to crawl to the island," said Focker in a careful manner.

"It's up to you!"

"Yes... Hades, send all of them to hospital. I'm going to arrange a place for Mr. Messenger to stay!"

Hades nodded his head and they went separate ways. Chen Xiaobei and Luo Puti checked into an extremely luxurious hotel. As for the Russian, he went to his favorite casino, while Abuzabi returned to his father. Finally, the chaotic trip on the ocean ended.

At the royal hospital of Paradise Island.

Focker went to the hospital immediately after making sure Chen Xiaobei and Luo Puti were well taken care of. Once Hades saw Focker approaching the hospital, he went and greeted him hastily.

"Master, I have never thought that you would take the initiative to apologize to a young man!"

"That kid exuded a dominant aura! It is as if his pitch black eyes have seen through everything! My status on this island did not even startle him! Clearly, he couldn't care less about me! A person like him is no ordinary individual!"

"Before figuring his real identity, we should try our best to avoid offending him! It will not end well for us if he's the real deal!"

"Master's decision is really wise! That kid is really not ordinary at all!"

"Did Niya says anything about this incident?"

"They have told me everything! About the holy sea! And, the giant serpent! I think the thing that we have been looking for is located in that area of the ocean!"

"What are we waiting for? I will call the president of America right now to borrow a carrier from the Indian Ocean Military Base!"

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 694: Killing Someone with Another's Knife

"Master, there's no need to rush! Niya mentioned to me that their lives are in that Chinese kid's hand! She doesn't even know how that kid killed Macky. All she remembers is Macky was killed within seconds!"

"Just as I expected! That kid is not as simple as we thought!"

"Maybe that kid is a demigod!"

"That doesn't really matter to me anymore! We can always ask someone to deal with him if he is really a demigod!"

"What do you mean by that?"

"Macky's autopsy report is here. According to the report, his heart was crushed by an unusual bug! I have asked someone to do an MRI on Niya and the rest of them. There are traces of the bug found on Duke Gustav and three of Niya's most powerful bodyguards!"

"Are you trying to say that the Chinese kid used some bug to control the five most powerful individuals on the yacht? Making the rest completely terrified of him? Truthfully, their lives are not in his hands!"

"Master, you are so smart!"

"Hehe! With that being said, we don't have to deal with him anymore!"

"Bring me to Niya! Though she is just a small fry, I believe she is the best person to take the blame!"

.....

At the special care unit.

A pile of MRI reports and Macky's autopsy report were placed in front of Niya.

"Master... Master Focker... Are you trying to say that my life is not in that kid's hands? He was lying to me?"

Niya was in disbelief.

"You can choose not to believe in me but you have to believe in science! The report stated clearly that the bug that caused Macky's death is not in your body! You were fooled by that kid!"

"F*cking bastard! How dare he lie to me?! He tossed me into the sea, asked me to kneel before him, forced me to crawl like a dog, and even made seven men gang up on me!"

"What?!"

Upon hearing that, Focker and Hades were taken aback. That was really extreme! Being gang raped by seven men! The president of America would become the second biggest victim of this incident since his wife was forced to have sex with other men!

Immediately, Niya realized that she did not word it properly. She then explained, "Please don't misunderstand. They just took turns slapping me, nothing more!"

*Cough*

"How do you plan to deal with this matter?"

"I want revenge! No matter what, I will make him pay for what he did to me!" Niya screamed. She could not remain composed anymore.

"I understand how you feel right now. But, there is a high chance that the Chinese kid is really too powerful for us to handle! Also, he possesses the ability to communicate with the giant serpent! This revenge that you want is not going to be easy to be achieved!"

"I don't care about his ability! I'm the first lady of America! I will have my revenge! Watch me! I'm going to call my husband now!"

Burning with rage, Niya started to look for a cell phone to call her husband.

"You can use my phone first."

Focker then handed his cell phone to Niya and watched her calmly.

"Thank you Master Focker!"

Immediately, Niya dialed an unusual combination of numbers. She had to try a couple of times for the call to reach her husband.

"Honey! I thought I would not be able to listen to your voice anymore!"

*Sob*

*Sob*

Immediately, Niya had a change of personality – turning into a defenseless woman that had suffered a lot.

"A terrorist almost killed me... Right! A terrorist! It's true! Why would I lie to you! If it wasn't for Mr. Focker, I would be gang-raped by hundreds of terrorists!"

"That's right! Honey! We have the same thought! We need to take revenge! Use your power to suppress those ruthless bastards! You have to know that other than helping me get payback, it would help your career as well! Elections are coming soon. I believe that you have to everything you can to deal with this matter!"

"What? Zuckerberg Carrier from the Indian Ocean is nearby? That is great! Okay! No problem! Have them contact me when they are here! I'm willing to lead them to the terrorists personally!"

Finally, the call ended. Niya's acting made the president of America believe that Chen Xiaobei was the terrorist that made his wife suffer. Terrorism had always been America's public enemy. Even without this grudge, they would send their armies over to deal with them. After being convinced by Niya, the military from America would definitely make sure to wipe Chen Xiaobei's existence off the face of this world!

"Mr. Focker! I think you heard that the Zuckerberg Carrier from the Indian Ocean is on its way to here! Whether that son of a bitch possesses some super powerful abilities or being protected by the sea monster, the carrier battle group will crush him easily!"

"I don't doubt that! Unless that kid is a demigod, there was no way that he can defeat a group of carriers!"

"Now, with everything set in stone. Mr. Focker, you need to go and deal with that kid first. When the carrier is ready, I need you to lure him to where the sea monster is located! I'm going to destroy them all in one go!"

"No problem! We will do whatever you ask us to do!"

At that moment, Focker and Hades were pleased that their evil strategy worked flawlessly. They wanted to make use of others to kill their common enemy! If Chen Xiaobei was just a conman, Niya would crush him instantly. However, if Chen Xiaobei was a demigod, Niya would be the one that takes all the blame!

In the end, Focker and Hades could claim the reward – venturing into the holy sea to look for the thing that they wanted.

"I have a question! There are four people being controlled by that kid currently! In order to make sure that they do not side with him, I think we should deal with them first!" said Hades.

"Among that four people. One of them is Duke Gustav and the other three are Ms. Niya's bodyguards! We need to do something to them now! If not, they would cause us unnecessary trouble!" said Focker.

"Kill them! Kill them all! This time, I must kill that bastard! Everything that gets into our way must be destroyed! I will never allow them to affect my plan!"

"Okay. I'm glad to hear that from you, Ms. Niya. I will make sure all the threats disappear from this world!" said Hades.

He then left the room. Niya and Focker looked into each other's eyes and smiled triumphantly.

....

At the bathroom of the hotel. Luo Puti was done with her shower, combing her hair in front of a mirror. On the neck collar of her shirt, the Qinglian Bellyband that Chen Xiaobei gifted to her could be seen. It was sticking closely to her perfect skin, which accentuated her voluptuous figure!

"Pervert! Why did you barge into my room?"

"Something bad has happened!"

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 695: Returning to the Devil's Den

"What did you say? Our enemies have found out the existence of mother-child voodoo worm?"

Luo Puti was startled as she knew better than anyone that Chen Xiaobei had to rely on that magical voodoo worm to place fear in the hearts of Niya and those who were on her side. That fear would disappear if they knew about his strategy. The consequences were far worse than they thought.

"Don't be nervous. The situation is not as bad as you think! The four mother worms died half an hour ago! In other words, those four people were killed by them half an hour ago! Considering that they have not done anything to us after such a long period of time, I'm pretty sure that they are still afraid of us!"

"Maybe they are coming up with some wicked scheme!"

"Perhaps so. Don't you worry about it! I will figure something out to counterattack their schemes! In the meantime, I want you to be cautious!"

"We should leave now! Like, right now! Our enemies are simply too powerful for us to handle! We are going to be killed if they decide to fight us!"

"No! If we leave now, the enemies will know that I tricked them! By that time, all their worries and fears would vanish and they will not hesitate to kill us!"

Immediately, Luo Puti realized they could not escape from their position. Sooner or later, trouble would come looking for them. It was certain that they would be killed instantly if they decided to leave right now!

"Yes. That's what I'm trying to tell you! Not only are we trapped, but we also have to make sure that we have everything under our control – by pretending that nothing has happened! Don't worry. I will definitely come up with something to deal with them! No matter what, I will not allow you to get hurt!" said Chen Xiaobei in a gentle yet determined manner.

"Quit the tough act! What can you come up with to deal with them? Our enemies are really powerful this time! I don't think we can defeat them even if they throw us a fair play! Now, they going to use dirty tricks to deal with us! An imminent catastrophe awaits us!"

After putting some thought into it.

"I've come up with a better plan! I'm going to think of a way to buy you some time to leave this place tonight! Then, I will figure out some other ways to leave this place! After all, my cultivation is higher than yours! Alright! It's settled! This is the plan! You are going to leave this place first!..."

"Eh? What are you trying to do?"

Before Luo Puti could finish her sentence, Chen Xiaobei embraced her.

"I just want to hug you."

Chen Xiaobei embraced her tightly. She might look like an ice-cold queen from the outside but during critical moments like these she would always put her life before Chen Xiaobei. She knew that the enemies were too powerful for her to handle but she still wanted to buy Chen Xiaobei enough time for him to escape from this island.

One could sense her love towards Chen Xiaobei through her action.

*Knock*

*Knock*

*Knock*

Suddenly, a knocking sound could be heard outside the room.

Following by that, Focker said, "Mr. Messenger! It's dinner time. I have prepared a table full of dishes to welcome you! Are you free now?"

"I'm planning to skip dinner! Half an hour later, I want to attend the auction that is being held on this island!"

"Okay. Half an hour, right? I will wait for you at the hotel lobby. Please allow me to send you there personally!"

Focker then walked away.

"You are a big idiot! You should look for an excuse not to go for the auction! How are you going to leave this place if he waits for you at the hotel lobby? Ughh you make me so mad!"

Luo Puti started hitting Chen Xiaobei's chest amidst her frustration and nervousness.

"No one can stop me if I want to leave this place! This is not the time for me to leave this island!"

"This is not the time for you to act tough! Surely, they are now guarding outside the hotel! There is no way for you to leave this place now! We are so done... So done..."

Luo Puti was so worried that tears started to roll down from her cheeks. All of a sudden, she felt a prickly sensation on her neck. In the next moment, she fell unconscious.

"Pumpkin, I'm going to bring you to a safe place now. No one will be able to stop me from doing that!"

Chen Xiaobei then carried Luo Puti out of the bathroom. After tidying up the room and making sure that Luo Puti's personal belongings were all packed, Chen Xiaobei took out his Somersault Cloud from his treasure chest. The balcony of their room was facing the sea. Upon stepping on the Somersault Cloud while holding Luo Puti in his embrace, Chen Xiaobei flew into the sunset. Clearly, Chen Xiaobei wanted to send Luo Puti back to Dragon City to make sure she would not be involved in this conflict.

That was the best way to prevent Luo Puti from getting hurt. Somersault Cloud could travel hundreds of thousands of miles daily. Within ten minutes, Chen Xiaobei had arrived at the Luo Family's mansion. He then snuck into the mansion and placed Luo Puti on her bed.

"You mentioned to me before that you like heroes that can walk on a colorful prosperous cloud! I'm going to be the hero that you want me to be this time!"

Chen Xiaobei then stroked Luo Puti's hair gently. Right after that, Chen Xiaobei left Luo Puti's room and returned to the devil's den!

....

At the hotel lobby of Paradise Island.

Chen Xiaobei strode towards Focker slowly.

"Mr. Messenger! Where is the lady that travels alongside you? Why is she not here?"

"The auction is too boring for her! She didn't want to go there. So, she decided to stay and rest in the room."

"Alright. Let's head to the auction now!"

The auction was not too far from the hotel. It only takes around ten minutes for one to walk over there. With Focker leading the way, the journey was smooth sailing. While sitting in the VVIP seat, Chen Xiaobei became the center of attention. Everyone from the auction was trying to figure out the real identity of this Asian. They were wondering how he made Focker keep him company. The VVIP seats were placed nearest to the stage. The staff would only set it up when Focker arrived here. They had to move all the others seat away from his VVIP seat to make sure that his status outshone everyone.

Before the auction begun, Focker tried to ask Chen Xiaobei, "Mr. Messenger. I know that you have to carry out the task given by the God of Sea. Can you tell me more about the task?"

"Actually, it's not as complicated as you think it is. To you, it's just an easy task. The route that you set for the yachts to pick up your customers is sailing on the holy sea. In other words, you are disrespecting the God of Sea. Everything will be fine as long as you change the route."

"It is really a simple task for me! Honestly, I'm a worshipper of the God of Sea! I will definitely make sure to complete this task as soon as possible! However, can you bring me to the holy sea to worship the God of Sea?"

"You wish to travel to the holy sea? Sure! I can bring you there after the auction!"

Chapter 696: Ruyi Jingu Bang

"What's the hurry?"

Focker was undoubtedly startled.

Though Niya mentioned that the carrier, Zuckerberg from the Indian Ocean was just nearby, he was wondering that whether they could reach the holy sea before the auction ended.

"Hurry? Are you trying to make the God of Sea wait for you?"

"No... No... No... I don't mean that... I will follow whatever you say since you have already set a time to meet the God of Sea! Please sit tight. I'm going to arrange a yacht for us to sail to the holy sea later!"

Focker then left the auction through a private passage. On the other hand, Chen Xiaobei could not care less about him. Immediately, he took out his cell phone and tapped into his brotherhood chat group. Judging from Focker's look, Chen Xiaobei could guess that the war was going to be carried out at the holy sea. His cultivation was weaker than his enemies but he had a group of good friends that he could rely on.

Chen Xiaobei: My brothers! I have encountered something really serious and dangerous! Later, a war will break out at sea later! I need your backup!

Yanwang: What happened? Are the enemies powerful?

Chen Xiaobei: Very powerful! They are the most powerful enemies that I've ever encountered! I will be sent to the underworld to meet up with you if I fail to defeat them!

Yanwang: No! I will not let that happen! I still want to have a taste of all the delicacies from the human realm!

Chang'e: @NeZha! Come out now! You are an expert at sea combat! Come and help God Chen!

Hong Haier: Right! With his Heavenly Red Silk Scarf and Qiankun Ring, he can easily flip the sea over! He is definitely the right person to help God Chen!

Xiao Tianquan: *Cough!* Though I'm just a dog, I have to agree with him!

NeZha: Have you guys forgotten that I'm Li Sanqian? The Heavenly Red Silk Scarf and Qiankun Ring are with my father! I don't think that stubborn old man will lend his precious magical items to God Chen! He is after all a disciple of Chanism!

Chang'e: What should we do now? I don't want God Chen to be killed in this war!

Shaoba Xingjun: *Cough*... How can all of you forget about the commotion that the Monkey King caused at the East Ocean?

Monkey King: Here I am! Brother Xiaobei! Get ready to receive my personal package for you!

Chen Xiaobei: Damn! My monkey brother is the best! He gives me something immediately once he comes online! Is it something that can help with sea combat?

Monkey King: When it comes to sea combat, I don't have any special strategy that I can pass on to you! All I know is to crush them with absolute strength!

Chen Xiaobei: Such a powerful statement! I'm going to check out the item that you've sent to me first!

Ding!

[Congratulation! You have snatched a Red Envelope from Monkey King! You have received a Ruyi Jingu Bang. It has been stored in your treasure chest!]

"Damn! I can't believe the Red Envelope contains Ruyi Jingu Bang!"

Feeling excited, Chen Xiaobei almost jumped up from his seat. He never thought that Monkey King would send something so powerful to him. Almost every Chinese have dreamt about holding the Jingu Bang like the almighty Monkey King. With this weapon, one could defeat all kind of enemies with ease! The enemies were going to beg for their lives! Other than that, almost everyone knew that Jingu Bang was the weapon wielded by the Monkey King.

It was forged from Divine Steel by the Grand Supreme Lord, Laotzu. After that, it was lent to Yu the Great to solve the great flood problem. When the great flood problem was solved, Jingu Bang was being fixed in the middle of East Ocean. It was also known as the needle of the God of Sea. In the end, Monkey King was the one that took the Jingu Bang into possession and beat up the Old Dragon King and his tribe!

"Let me take a look at this precious baby!"

Immediately, Chen Xiaobei could see the image of a rod being shown on his cell phone. Prosperous clouds were engraved on both ends of the rod. Its body was made of black Divine Steel.

"Its design is definitely cooler and looks more powerful than the one that I saw in the cartoon! Let me read the description! I want to know the way to use it!"

Chen Xiaobei then continued to read the description.

Ding!

[Ruyi Jingu Bang: It belongs to Sun Wukong. Its weight is 13,500 pounds! It can minimize and enlarge at your will! (Requires a thousand years Dao Path to use it). Do you wish to withdraw it?]

"No! Not going to withdraw it now! My health is only 20,000. In other words, I can only lift thing that weights around 8,000 pounds! Also, I don't possess a thousand years' worth of Dao Path to wield this weapon! There's no way for me to use this weapon!"

Ding!

Just when Chen Xiaobei felt frustrated by it, he received a message.

Monkey King: Brother! Don't you worry! I know what you are thinking right now! I have channeled some magic inside the Jingu Bang. It allows you to wield the Jingu Bang once! I think it's more than enough to beat your enemies into a pulp!

Chen Xiaobei: Err... Brother... The enemies that I'm going to face are more than one!

Monkey King: Crap... All I did just now was send you the Red Envelope without asking you about the war... You can send it back to me and I will re-adjust the setting for you.

Chen Xiaobei: No rush. I have a question. What if I channel my Spiritual Qi into the Jingu Bang? Can it replace Dao Path?

Earlier, Chen Xiaobei did use his Spiritual Qi to activate his Pure Yang Thunder Catalyst. That was why Chen Xiaobei thought it could work with Jingu Bang as well.

Monkey King: Spiritual Qi can replace Dao Path!

Chen Xiaobei: Why? Can you tell me more about it?

Monkey King: High tier Magical and Spiritual Items require a lot of energy to activate them! The higher the tier of the item, the more energy is needed to activate it.

Monkey King: Dao Path is equivalent to the cultivation of a normal human. When your Dao Path is not sufficient, you can always use your Spiritual Qi to activate the items that you wish to use! It will not weaken the item!

Chen Xiaobei: I see now! Brother, you don't have to waste your Dao Path on it! I have around 13,000 Spiritual Stones with me! I think it should be more than enough, right?

Monkey King: With 10,000 Spiritual Stones, you can wield the Jingu Bang for a minute! More than enough to deal with mortal beings!

Chen Xiaobei: Only one minute! Spiritual Qi is not as valuable as I thought!

NeZha: It's not that Spiritual Qi is worthless. The Jingu Bang is just too powerful! Only those who have used it before will know the cost of using it! Honestly speaking, it is definitely more powerful than my Qiankun Ring!

Chen Xiaobei: Alright! I shouldn't fear my enemies then! One hit from it is enough to destroy them!

Monkey King: That's right! Crush them with absolute strength!

Chen Xiaobei: Okay! Wait for my victorious return! I will send you guys a wave of Red Envelopes! I have something good here! We will see who the lucky one is!

Right after that, Chen Xiaobei sent tiramisu garnished with gold flakes to the group. Coincidentally, Monkey King managed to snatch his Red Envelope. Chen Xiaobei then did not say much about it because Focker had returned.

"Mr. Messenger, the yacht is ready. We can depart to the holy sea once the auction ends!" said Focker with a smile on his face.

"Okay! This is exactly what I want!"

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 697: All of You Wish to Die?

'That is exactly what you want?'

Upon hearing that, Focker did not show any emotion on his face. Deep down, he was laughing at Chen Xiaobei

'Bastard, you have no idea about the catastrophic event that you are going to face later!'

Truth to be told, it was actually normal for Focker to come up with such thought. A carrier battle group was enough to destroy anyone that was not demigod easily! Even an elite like Hades with Pinnacle Phase of True Nirvana Stage had to run for his life when he confronted a carrier battle group! And, he might not be able to outrun them as well!

To Focker, if Chen Xiaobei was lying to them – he would definitely be destroyed later. He would have never thought that though Chen Xiaobei was not a demigod, he had already possessed the power of a true god! An imminent war was about to break out later but Chen Xiaobei would not be the one that is standing on the losing side.

"Ladies and gentlemen..."

The host of the auction walked on the stage, gave a simple speech, and the auction started officially.

"Today, our first item to be auctioned off is..."

While the host wanted to make an announcement, someone interrupted him.

"Hold on!"

Focker spoke up and the host had to be silent immediately. Everyone as was speechless as well. After all, Focker was after all the king of this island. He could basically do whatever he wanted to do.

"Mr. Messenger. I think it's time for us to worship the God of Sea! Why not you just tell me the item that you want? I will have them to bring it over to you! It saves time! What do you think?"

"Have them to bring over to me?"

With his eyebrows raised, Chen Xiaobei knew that Niya was ready to deal with him since Focker had already started to rush him. Of course, Chen Xiaobei would not mind departing now since they were looking forward to be killed by him. Since Focker would show his true colors soon, Chen Xiaobei did not hesitate to take this opportunity to take advantage of him.

"So, are you trying to say that you are going to pay for the item that I want?"

Focker was sharp enough to know that Chen Xiaobei was trying to take advantage of him. After putting some thought into it, he knew that he could retrieve the item that he gave to Chen Xiaobei since Chen Xiaobei was going to be killed by carrier battle group really soon.

"I will pay for it! Think of it as a welcome gift to you!"

"Great! I like that! I want the thousand years old ginseng!"

"The... thousand years old... ginseng..."

Clearly, Focker was startled by Chen Xiaobei's demand as the ginseng was going to be the last epic item to be auctioned off. After a brief estimation, the final auction price for the ginseng could easily reach six billion! A lot like that was equivalent to asking him to cut a piece of flesh from him.

"What now? You don't want to do it?"

"It's all good! I can get it for you!"

With a forced smile on his face, Focker waved his hand to ask the host to come down from the stage. After talking with him for a while, the host ran backstage to retrieve the item that Chen Xiaobei wanted. Its shape looked like a dragon head and it was stored inside a well-designed sandalwood box. Upon using his Bagua Qi Observation Skill to look at the ginseng, Chen Xiaobei could see that a strong purple aura was surrounding it.

That was one legendary item!

"Let's go!"

Immediately, Chen Xiaobei took the sandalwood box from the host and got ready to leave this place.

"Alright! Let's go now!"

Focker nodded his head and followed right behind him.

Upon witnessing that bizarre scene, the guests in the room were jealous, shocked, and disappointed. The thousand years old ginseng was after all the epic item of this auction. A lot of them had prepared a huge sum of money to purchase it. Others were here to watch the ultra-rich individuals bid for the ginseng. A single order from Focker just destroyed everyone's anticipation.

Even though they were furious, no one dared to step up and criticize them. One could see that Focker's power and status was enough to crush everyone in the room. The name Rothschild was not to be messed around with!

....

There was a car waiting outside the auction hall to send Chen Xiaobei and Focker to the dock. When they arrived at the dock, Chen Xiaobei could see a black yacht parked right beside the dock. It looked technologically advanced and it was definitely bigger than the yacht that Paradise Island used to ferry tourists. Clearly, it was Focker's private yacht.

Hades and sixteen bodyguards of different nationalities were standing at the entrance to welcome them.

"Mr. Messenger! If you'd please!"

With a smile on his face, Focker was acting really politely towards Chen Xiaobei. On the other hand, Hades was impassive towards Chen Xiaobei. Half of the sixteen bodyguards looked at Chen Xiaobei with disdain. It was as if they were thinking this kid had no right to receive such polite treatment from Mr. Focker.

"Okay."

Chen Xiaobei nodded his head and stepped on the yacht. At the same time, he used his Netherspirit Battlescouter to scan those sixteen arrogant-looking bodyguards. To his surprise, all sixteen of them were at Middle Phase or Later Phase of True Nirvana Stage. The one with the lowest cultivation had 40,000 combat power – as powerful as Macky the Wolverine! The most powerful one among them possessed a whopping 45,000 combat power!

Immediately, Chen Xiaobei was reminded of the thing that Luo Puti told him not too long ago. Rothschild Family was as powerful as the most powerful hidden ancient faction of China! This statement was actually not exaggerating at all. Chen Xiaobei could dominate the entire Dragon City if he had a group of bodyguards like that.

Soon, the yacht set sailed to the destination after everyone boarded the yacht. Chen Xiaobei then went into the control room and directed the yacht to the graveyard of the giant serpent. At night, the sea was calm.

Not too long after, the yacht had finally arrived at the destination.

"Mr. Messenger! Is this the holy sea that you mentioned to me earlier? I don't see there's anything special here!"

The smile on Focker's face disappeared and he started to talk to Chen Xiaobei coldly.

"You are just an ordinary mortal being! It is totally normal that you can't find anything special here!"

"Bastard! How dare you talk to Mr. Focker in such a rude manner! Do you think I wouldn't toss you into the ocean and feed you to the fishes?!" a baldy shouted at him furiously.

Upon hearing that, Chen Xiaobei frowned and looked at Focker.

He then asked, "Did you not tell your bodyguards my real identity?"

"I have told them that you are the Sea Messenger! I cannot guarantee that they will believe what I told them!"

Promptly, Chen Xiaobei realized that they were going to carry out their wicked scheme really soon! Focker had already started to turn hostile.

"Of course, we won't believe that! This bastard is fooling us around!"

"That's right! How can the God of Sea from the western world choose a yellow skin Asian as his messenger?! Do you really think we will be stupid enough to believe what you say?"

"Stop wasting time talking to him! Let's toss him into the ocean now!"

.....

The bodyguards took turns to mock Chen Xiaobei. None of them believed that Chen Xiaobei was the Sea Messenger. With their combat power, they definitely had the right to look down on Chen Xiaobei.

"Do you want to die?" asked Chen Xiaobei while exuding murderous intent.

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 698: Hundreds of Thousands of Fishes at My Command

"What did you just said? You want to kill us?"

"What a joker! Do you how powerful we are? Stop acting tough and you won't be struck by lightning!"

"It seems like your ignorance has not done any good for you! Do you even know how to spell the word, death? Is that why you are not afraid of death? Idiot! Hahaha!"

All sixteen bodyguards started to laugh at Chen Xiaobei. It was as if Chen Xiaobei just told them a funny joke. To Chen Xiaobei, they looked like a bunch of suicidal idiots to him. On the other hand, Hades and Focker had no intention to stop the bodyguards. They stood aside and observed how Chen Xiaobei would deal with a situation like this.

If he failed to deal with his bodyguards, they would inform Niya not to lead the carrier fleet to deal with Chen Xiaobei. A group of bodyguards with True Nirvana cultivation was more than enough to deal with a conman! Clearly, they wanted to test Chen Xiaobei. However, none of them knew that Chen Xiaobei had a trump card in his hand. That was why Chen Xiaobei was not afraid of them.

"If you wish to be killed by me, just step out! I'm more than happy to grant your wish!"

Looking calm, Chen Xiaobei was exuding a dominant aura. Meanwhile, all those bodyguards could not put up with Chen Xiaobei's arrogant attitude anymore. The baldy that threatened to toss Chen Xiaobei into the sea began to taunt Chen Xiaobei.

"I want to be killed by you! Just come at me! I want to watch how you are going to kill me!"

"Just stand there and wait for death to knock at your door! This is not the time yet!" Chen Xiaobei replied in a nonchalant manner. Staring at the sea, Chen Xiaobei had no intention to talk to the baldy further.

"Motherf*cker! Please continue acting like an arrogant bastard! Watch me toss you into the sea!"

The baldy shouted and charged at Chen Xiaobei with his fists that were as big as a bowl. This baldy was supposedly the most powerful one among the bodyguards. His cultivation was at Later Phase of True Nirvana Stage and he possessed 45,000 combat power! Emanating with True Kang, a giant combat hammer was formed around his fist. From the look of it, it seemed like it could destroy a mountain. When he took a step forward, the whole yacht shook.

"Fool!"

With no fear, Chen Xiaobei did not move from where he stood. He had no intention to dodge or block the attack.

"Gordon! Stop!" Suddenly, Focker shouted.

"Master?"

Baffled, the baldy stopped his attack and looked at Focker in a shocking manner.

"With strength like that, how dare you challenge Mr. Messenger? You are going to kill yourself if you attack him! How embarrassing!"

"Master? What do you mean by that? I'm confident enough to crush him!"

"Cut the crap! Back down!"

"Yes..."

Immediately, the baldy stepped back and returned to where he stood earlier. The rest of the bodyguards felt extremely frustrated as well. To them, Chen Xiaobei was just a weakling. They could easily kill him with a single slap! To their surprise, Focker had prevented them from hurting Chen Xiaobei. This scenario was like Focker stopping them from taking off their pants when a naked lady was lying in front of them. Sooner or later, they would be hurt from holding on to their inner desire for too long!

All of them were frustrated because they could not figure out what was going on in Focker's mind. As the young master of the Rothschild Family, Focker was extremely wealthy and powerful. That was why he was really afraid of death. Asking Niya to deal with Chen Xiaobei was how he planned to protect himself.

If he sensed a tad bit of fear from Chen Xiaobei just now, he would not have asked baldy to stop attacking Chen Xiaobei. To his surprise, Chen Xiaobei was not affected by baldy's dominant and powerful presence at all. Instead, he stood firm on his ground, which made Focker anxious.

If Chen Xiaobei was a demigod, he would be digging his own grave. In the end, he decided to let Niya test Chen Xiaobei. As always, Focker would never allow himself to take unnecessary risks.

"Mr. Messenger. My bodyguards do not know their boundaries. Please do not take offense!"

"I will never take back my words! I have promised that I will take his life! And I will do it!" said Chen Xiaobei icily.

Focker frowned as he could sense something really bad was about to happen.

"Motherf*cker! What promise? You are not even worthy to make any promise here! I'm going to toss you into the f*cking sea right now! I will let you know who the boss here is!"

"Kill him! Kill him!"

The rest of the bodyguards were not happy with Chen Xiaobei's attitude as well. All of them were getting ready to beat Chen Xiaobei up.

"Please line up to be killed by me!"

Chen Xiaobei looked at them in disdain and proceeded to walk to the deck.

"Line up? What the f*ck are you talking about?" shouted baldy.

Before he could finish his words, everyone in the yacht was startled.

*Buzz*

Dozens of lights shone at them from across the sea. The experts would know that the source of the lights came from high-powered searchlights from a military carrier! Judging from the number of the lights, one could tell that a carrier fleet was approaching them and that the carriers were extremely huge! The tallest one was as tall as a ten-floored building!

"Carrier... Carrier fleet!!!"

Baldy and the rest of the bodyguards were shocked to see a carrier fleet coming at them. They stood rooted to the spot, speechless. Though they were elites with True Nirvana cultivation, it was simply impossible for them to challenge a carrier fleet! They might be able to deflect the bullet that came from a handgun but they could never deflect bullets that came from a heavy machine gun!

With those armor-piercing shell, they would be filled with bullet holes within a few seconds after being fired at. Let alone the bullets, there were missiles, fighter jet, and cruise missiles on the carrier. Hades had mentioned earlier that no one could deal with terrifying weapons like that other than demigod!

Even Chen Xiaobei felt shocked when he saw the carrier fleet. He did not expect that the enemies would come up with such a huge formation to kill him. After putting some thought into it, Chen Xiaobei realized that they were worried that they might need to deal with the gigantic serpent. That was why Niya led a carrier fleet to the holy sea.

"Master Focker... What have we done... Why is a carrier fleet approaching us?"

All the bodyguards almost wet themselves.

"Don't be so full of yourselves. The carrier fleet is coming for Mr. Messenger. It's none of our business!"

With a grim smile on his face, Focker was just going to act like an audience in this battle.

"Me... Messenger..."

Immediately, all the bodyguards put their attention on Chen Xiaobei.

'How did a young man like him make a fleet of carriers attack him? Could he be the real Sea Messenger?'

"I'll be back!"

Right after that, Chen Xiaobei leaped off the edge of the deck into the sea.

"What is he trying to do? Suicide?"

Bewildered, they could not believe that Chen Xiaobei jumped into the sea. The thing that they were about to witness next was going to make them feel even more shocked!

*Swoosh*

Like a pillar that rose to the sky, the giant serpent surfaced from where Chen Xiaobei landed on the sea. Standing on the head of the giant serpent, Chen Xiaobei was ready to go against the powerful carrier fleet! At the same time, countless fishes surfaced and surrounded the giant serpent. From whale to prawn, all of them came to Chen Xiaobei like they were going to worship him. The number of sea creatures that surfaced from the sea almost turned the sea into land!

"Am... Am I seeing it right?"

Focker and his people were so shocked by it that they stood there, frozen. They thought they were just dreaming. Like a commander, Chen Xiaobei stood on top of the giant serpent's head with his arm lifted. A scenario like this could only be seen once every ten thousand years!

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 699: I'm Going to Bring You a Glorious Win!

"What the hell is happening over there?"

Inside the control tower of the largest carrier.

The commander was playing close attention to the screen. He saw that Chen Xiaobei was stepping on a snake and approaching them. Countless fishes were following behind him – like a group of loyal worshippers.

"I don't care what the hell is going on! Just shoot them!" Niya screamed in an angry and hysterical manner.

"I have never seen something like this before in my life! Maybe that kid has something to do with the God of Sea!"

"How is that even possible? If he has something to do with the God of Sea. Do you really think I can run away from him? You're the chief commander of Zuckerberg Carrier Fleet! All you need to do is obey the president's order! Do you really want me to tell you the consequences of disobeying a direct order?"

"But..."

It seemed like the commander was still hesitating.

"What's wrong? Are you afraid of him? In this carrier fleet, there are aircrafts, fifty F-22 Raptors, four Ticonderoga-class cruisers, four Destroyers, and four Corvettes! Every time during the meeting, you claim that your fleet is invincible! Saying that you can take control of the entire Indian Ocean! From there, you've always asked for more military funds!"

"Now, you are afraid of an Asian kid and bunch of fishes and prawns! You are literally slapping your own face! You are considered a reputable commander! Your cowardice is going to embarrass our entire country!"

Clearly, Niya was trying to push him into attacking Chen Xiaobei. However, the chief commander of the carrier fleet was really experienced in warfare! It seemed that Niya's trick did not work on him.

"I still feel like something is not right! I will explain the whole situation to the president!"

The commander's mind was calm enough not to do anything impulsive. One could see that he was not ordinary since he was entrusted with this position. Suddenly, a few military officers started to convince him to launch the attack.

"General! You shouldn't show any signs of hesitation! He is just a Chinese kid! You don't have to worry about him! I believe that a single round of attack is enough to teach him a good lesson!"

"That's right! The firepower on our carrier is enough to destroy an entire island! Why are we afraid of him?!"

"Stop hesitating! This time, we have to avenge Ms. Niya!"

.....

Clearly, some of the officers did not think that Chen Xiaobei could do anything horrible to them. There were a few officers among them were trying to lick Niya's boots. Some of them were trying their best to analyze the battle.

"General! Now, the problem is that kid is approaching us fast! I'm afraid that a great deal of damage will be done unto us after you report this unusual problem to the president!"

"According to our previous experience at battling with high combat power enemies, we can never allow him to get close to us no matter what! If not, all of our weapons will become useless!"

"That's right! Our firepower will be pushed to maximum effectiveness! When he gets nearer, we will be damaged by the blast wave from our own weapons!"

Actually, this was a rather simple theory. Just like the arrows and bows that were being used during old-time wars, shooting an arrow from far was effective at killing enemies. However, when the enemies got closer, it was almost impossible to use bows and arrows to deal with the enemies anymore.

Upon hearing that, the chief commander could not deny the fact they had to deal with Chen Xiaobei before it was too late.

"Okay! If that's the case, we shall test how powerful he is! Unless he is a demigod, we can definitely kill him with our firepower! Bring the Destroyers out!"

"Yes, sir!"

Immediately, the officers passed down the order to the captain on Destroyers. Soon, four Destroyers could be seen sailing towards Chen Xiaobei!

"Right! That's it! Use your firepower to turn him into a pulp! I want him to disappear completely! Hahaha..."

On the other hand, Focker had a happy look on his face as well.

"This is going to be awesome! Four Destroyers charging at him! Not even Hades can fight against four Destroyers!"

Upon hearing that, Hades did not deny the fact that he was just a speck of dust when it came to dealing with the Destroyer. The weapons on it were powerful enough to penetrate any True Kang materialized armor. Though he had 50,000 combat power, it was still impossible for him to stay alive after a single round of firing!

"Even Hades couldn't deflect an attack like that... Can... Can that kid do it?" The bodyguards asked fearfully.

"Hades... What do you think? You are really quiet today... Are you trying to come up with any evil plans?" asked Focker with a smile on his face.

"I'm not sure that kid could deflect the firing power as well. However, I feel that he already know that we are working together with Niya to kill him! So, we have to retreat immediately if he is powerful enough to deflect the attacks from those four Destroyers!"

"Hehe... Just chill. Maybe he will be killed by heavy machine guns later!"

Upon hearing that, baldy added onto the thing that Focker just said.

"That's right! From what I see, I think that kid possesses the skill to communicate with animals! That's about it! He can never be a demigod even if he started training while in his mother's womb!"

"Anyone can become a demigod if it is that simple! He will definitely be destroyed if he is not a demigod!"

"Master Focker, great minds think alike! That kid is finished!"

At the same time, Chen Xiaobei lifted his arms slowly and all the fishes that followed behind him stopped swimming. Only Chen Xiaobei and the giant serpent continued to move forward.

"Benefactor... Are you sure about it? I know that others call you the Sea Messenger! But, you and I know that you are just a mortal being! There's nothing I can do to protect you if all four Destroyers fire at us at the same time!"

"You do not have to think of anything! Just let me deal with them!"

"Stop acting tough! Let me help you escape this place!"

"No escaping!"

Chen Xiaobei wanted to laugh at the giant serpent. It was after all the king of this area of ocean. With Pinnacle Phase of True Nirvana Stage, he never thought that it would act like a coward.

"I'm not acting tough! I have a trump card against them!"

Immediately, Chen Xiaobei took out a needle from his treasure chest. A spiritual link was then built between Chen Xiaobei and the needle, teaching him how to use it. Lastly, he took out his green jade gourd and poured two third of Spiritual Qi into the needle!

"Benefactor... We are about to enter the enemies' shooting range! I'll bring you away from this place if I sense that we are going to lose the battle!"

"No escaping! Just don't worry about it! Let me bring you this glorious win!"

Red Envelope Group of the Three Realms

Chapter 700: The Power from One Single Rod Swing

"Commander! The enemy is in our shooting range now!"

One of the soldiers reported in a loud voice.

"What are you waiting for? Shoot him! Today we can have seafood for dinner!"

"Fire!"

All four Destroyers shot at Chen Xiaobei at the same time.

*Boom!*

*Boom!*

Like bullet rain, the M61 Vulcans that were mounted on the Destroyers fired hundreds of armor-piercing shells at Chen Xiaobei and the giant serpent.

"We are so done... The destructive power of bullets like these is too damn powerful! It can penetrate my True Kang easily! I'm afraid we are going to turn into piles of mush in the end!"

"Why do you have to fear them?"

Chen Xiaobei shouted and leaped into the air.

"Benefactor! This is suicidal! Let's run..." The giant serpent shouted nervously. Initially, it wanted to bring Chen Xiaobei away from the battlefield. It did not expect Chen Xiaobei to leap into the air.

"What the f*ck! That kid is risking his life acting tough in front of us!"

Focker was wide-eyed. He could not believe that Chen Xiaobei would make move like that. At the same time, Focker and all sixteen bodyguards felt the same as well.

"Son of a bitch! Go to hell! Hahaha..."

Feeling ecstatic, Niya started to dance around with both arms in the air. Truthfully, she could not wait to see Chen Xiaobei spilled blood into the sea.

"I think there's no way he can survive this attack... He really doesn't look like a demigod to me..."

The chief commander of the carrier let out a sigh of relief. They had won this battle as long as Chen Xiaobei was not a demigod.

"Another victory! We will be awarded abundantly when we send that kid to hell! This is awesome!"

Thinking that they had already won the battle, all the officers in the carrier were looking excited and happy. Everyone in the carrier reacted differently. The only common thought they had in their mind was Chen Xiaobei's survival rate in this battle was close to zero!

"Grow longer!"

Ignoring the bullets that were coming at him, Chen Xiaobei swung his arms. The needle in his hand turned into Ruyi Jingu Bang immediately.

"Rising Monk Strike!"

The skill that Chen Xiaobei used was actually the Luohan Rod Skill! While Chen Xiaobei was swinging Jingu Bang in the air, the light reflected from the Jingu Bang looked like hundreds of fireworks exploded in the night sky. Though Chen Xiaobei, himself did not have enough strength to wield the Jingu Bang, the Spiritual Qi that he poured inside the Jingu Bang allowed him to use it freely.

With his Jingu Bang planted into the sea, Chen Xiaobei jumped even higher this time.

*Splash*

The next thing that he did managed to cause alarm to everyone – including himself.

A huge wave of hundreds of meters long and ten meters wide was created! It looked like a mega-tsunami that was about to engulf the entire island. With the mega wave being created in front of Chen Xiaobei, a natural barrier was formed! Once, there was a person did an experiment. Shooting the bottom of a bucket would definitely make a hole out of it. However, when the bucket was filled with water, it was impossible to make a hole out of it with a gun anymore!

*Swoosh!*

All the armor-piercing shells went into the wave. One could see the white trace of bullets inside the wave! All the momentum was being stripped off completely when the bullets traveled halfway into the wave. At that moment, everyone including Chen Xiaobei was left in a state of astonishment. It was as if they just witnessed a divine intervention!

"Oh my god... W-What the hell is going on?"

Niya was so shocked by it that her eyes almost fell out from its sockets! She just could not imagine how it was possible for a normal human being to possess such terrifying strength!

"T-That kid is a demigod... Retreat! Pass down my order! We have to retreat now!" The chief commander shouted in a hysterical manner. It was as if the apocalypse was coming down on him. Even though his carrier battle group could dominate the entire Indian Ocean, it was still possible to challenge a demigod! Being destroyed was just a matter of time!

"Shit... Quick... Retreat..."

Suddenly, all those officers that thought they had already claimed the victory were like ants going up a hotpot. They had no idea on how to retreat anymore.

"Demi... Demigod... That kid is a demigod..."

Standing there like a statue, Focker kept on repeating the same sentence over and over again. Within the Rothschild Family, they were actually worshipping and serving a demigod. Every year on the same day, the head of the family would lead all the family members to worship the demigod. To Focker, a demigod was the entity that stood on top of the food chain!

To his surprise, Chen Xiaobei was as powerful as a demigod!

"Run! We have to return to the Paradise Island! Contact the airport now! We have to ask them to prepare a private jet to send Master Focker back to his family! We can't wait anymore! Quick!"

Before Focker gave any orders, Hades took the initiative to give the order to the bodyguards. Immediately, all the bodyguards snapped back to reality and carried out the task given by Hades. Unfortunately, something bad happened to them the next second.

"Mr. Hades! Something bad is going on! All the electronic devices on the yacht are not working!"

"We can't start the engine and there's no signal here as well!"

"Mr. Hades... What should we do now?"

...

All the bodyguards lost their composure and they had to rely on Hades.

"Shit! That kid... No... Before that demigod left to the battlefield, he told us that he will return... There's nothing we can do now..."

With all hope lost, sweat started to pour down from Hades's forehead.

"Does... Does that mean we are doomed?"

With fear invading their bodies, all the bodyguards' pupils shrank and their bodies started to shake uncontrollably as well. Few of them even collapsed to the ground because their legs had lost all strength. To ordinary people, all of them were like monsters. However, when it came to demigods, they were no different from ordinary mortal beings!

"Wow! Ruyi Jingu Bang is so damn cool!!!" shouted Chen Xiaobei with joy.

The power of his previous came from the weapon itself. Only Chen Xiaobei could experience the destructive power that was delivered by Jingu Bang! Flipping the entire ocean and creating earth-shaking destruction could only be achieved by Divine Strength! At that moment, Chen Xiaobei could feel the dominant feeling of Sun Wukong, the Monkey King when he fought with the deities in heaven!

With the Jingu Bang in hand, one could plant fear in deities and even Buddha!

'This is so cool!

'This is beyond awesome! '

Initially, Chen Xiabei thought that it was a waste to invest ten thousand Spiritual Stones in this weapon. After experiencing Divine Strength, Chen Xiaobei thought otherwise! It was worth it!
