Hi I'm Amanda a hybrid of reaper and werewolf. I know what your thinking what's a reaper well there like the collectors of souls we can take someone's soul or talk to them, we turn into horrifying creatures like demons except the cape and the scythe we always have style, we can also do the death stare it makes you feel all the pain you've ever felt or inflicted on someone else were super strong and can phase through things. Since I'm a hybrid I'm stronger than the average werewolf or reaper. My parents died because it was forbidden love and all that junk. I could care less call me ruthless I don't care.

I hate everyone that isn't family I see them as reasons to make you weaker more vulnerable easier to break. My family and I haven't exactly been on the same page they hate me I hate them there only person I don't hate is my aunt Natalie she's like the mom I never had. She teaches me how to fight and self defense things I don't use alot. Since I live in the pack house everyone thinks I'm weak, nothing I'm the only hybrid no friends but I don't care.

I've had no one to lean on so I learned to be independent free. I act all so to amuse everyone but sometimes I need to stretch these muscles if I don't my reaper will get out of and and start killing everyone. I'm someone you don't want to have as an enemy.

Soon to be Alpha Joshua Richards he's an asshole like seriously I hate him.

Marcus my eldest brothers if I could I would kill him right now but I've got to saw I have a sweet spot for family.

Nicolas the second oldest he's soon to be third in command while Marcus is soon to be beta.

Edward the youngest of my brothers he's the player well they all are but him and Joshua stick out like a sore thumb and imagine he's only a werewolf while Marcus and Nicholas are reapers with a tip of werewolf in them but there still nicholas to stay in the pack don't get me wrong he knows all the reapers tradition he is considered one for some reason.

The queen bee of the school goddess of slut she her self Ashley Greene she's a totally bitch I hate her. I would kill her but I have a diet no human beings which includes supernatural beings only animals although there are some exceptions to that.

Anyways that my life I have to go now later.

If you liked his book please tell me in the comments below it would be appreciated thanks. Okay this book may contain some strong language but I'll warn you when it comes up seeing it's not that bad.

And remember vote, comment suggestions and follow.

I love you guys 😘😘😘😘
