

Chapter 13

Amanda's POV

I made sure to put on a shirt that covered me scar since it was right above me belly button. I then slipped on some shorts and some sneakers then brushed my teeth washed my face and went outside leaving the room just as it is I am not sleeping in it again.

"Good Morning" I mumbled to Sam and Carlos. Cameron was still a sleep with Cassandra in his arms they made such a cute couple.

"Morning.....what's up?" I mumbled a I'm fine and continued making my self a bowl of cereal.

"So.....what are going to do today?" I shrugged sitting down to eat me cereal.

"I'm up!" Cameron said stretching while coming downstairs.

"Yo Manda your room is a mess and Maxine is not in a good mood" I groaned into was hoping she would clean it for me.

"She said and I quote She must learn to clean up her own mess you can't go around wrecking things get your anger under control " I heard I don't have anger problems.

"Fine I'll clean it or at least made sure it's clean. Right now we need to train so I can go buy a replacement for all the stuff I broke.

"No!" Cassandra yelled running down stairs she didn't even stop she just continued running out the door with three guys I have never seen before chasing behind her.

"Hold this" I told the others running after her. Wow she's fast I easily went past the boys but it took me a while to reach her.

"Whats wrong Cass?" I asked my friend she clutched her head mumbling they'll hurt me.

"No they won't trust me they wouldn't dare" I sat helping her up but I was pushed back by the three boys.

"And who are you?" they asked.

"None of your business now if you excuse me I have a traumatized friend here who needs my help" they just pushed me back down rude.

"It was them" Cassandra whispered. I looked up at the guys they were about my age well built like most werewolves.

"So you were the ones messing with my friend?" I asked with an eyebrow raised.

"Yeah what you going to do about it?" they asked. I just ignored them then picked up Cassandra and walked back to the pack house knowing they were following.

"Yo I'm talking to you!" one yelled this was getting annoying.

"I said I was talking to you" they then pushed me down with Cassandra in my arms.

"Cassandra go and stay inside no matter what don't come out back okay?" she nodded rushing inside.

"Aww I'm so scared look at her trying to act tough" I stood up and brushed myself off.

"I would like you to say sorry" they laughed at me coming closer but I didn't move. It was then I realized we had attracted a crowd.

"I don't think you want to do this" I told them stretching.

"Or what you'll come fight us"

"Exactly" I appeared in front of him in an instant elbowing him then gripping his arm holding his hand.

"You know honour" I broke a finger causing him to scream in pain "maketh" There goes another finger "a" next finger gone "good man" I broke all his fingers the twisted his hand in an awkward position pushing him away.

"Now I really don't like repeating myself....I think you owe me an apology" they just growled shoving.

"Okay if that's the way you want it" one charged at me I ducked gripping his tail, I jumped up with him in hand before I fell I switched our positions so he would be the one to fall first.

"Now buddy be a smart one and bring your friends to the medical wing before the die" he nodded hurrying away.

But I stopped him "my apology" he looked scared but apologized rushing away again.

"You can go back now" I told them waving them away.

"Amanda...please tell me you didn't hurt them too bad" I chuckled.

"Let's just say they'll think twice about messing with me again" they laughed and I joined in.

"Okay training starts now everyone out" There were groans but eventually everyone came out.

.....

"Come one Amanda you need to clear your mind" Samantha said begging me to come with her.

"Fine I'll come just give me a few minutes" I told her shutting my room door shut.

I took a quick shower then changed into a tight blue dress that stopped at my mid thighs it was sleeveless and had a sweetheart cut with a low cut and the back. I put on light makeup and some strappy heels then walked out I finished at a surprising rate fifteen minutes.

"Ready?" she asked with Cassandra behind her.

I nodded walking out but not before sneaking in a bottle of vodka but it was in a common water bottle.

"Let's go" I whispered walking up to someone's red BMW I didn't know which model but didn't care. I stole their keys then started the car. We drove to the club and a little tipsy but not that bad.

"Name...ID" I nodded giving him my ID his eyes widened but nodded letting me in. Once I entered I could feel the music shaking the very earth itself.

"I need a drink come one" I pulled everyone with me not wanting to be alone.

"Two shots please" I told the bartender who nodded then handed me my drinks.

"And what's a pretty lady like you doing here?" I looked at him blankly then took a shot.

"None of your business " he laughed ordering a shot.

"Whats your name?" I took another shot then ordered more.

"Again none of your business" he chuckled.

"Playing hard to get aren't we" God he's annoying.

"Yeah we are except I'm not playing" I got up from my seat and walked away the creep.

Marcus POV

Where is she?

I looked everywhere for Amanda I wanted to say sorry but I couldn't cause she's nowhere to be found neither are her friends well only the female ones meaning my mate is missing.

I opened her room door seeing it was the only place I haven't looked. It was a mess the mirrors were shattered so was the furniture even the tv. There was a sledge hammer on the bed right beside a picture of the four of us with our parents.

"Marcus what a pleasure have you met the trainer I heard she's very strict. I hope she didn't go too hard on you. Well I'll be seeing her tomorrow with my son" I turned around to face the former Alpha.

"You" I hissed my eyes turning black.

"Um buddy you don't look so good are you okay?" I growled at him he was the one who caused her the most pain.

"It was you" I growled pinning him to the wall.

"What are you talking about?" he managed to croak out.

"What did you do to her?" I snarled in his face he wasn't able to free himself from my grip.

"To who" Blaze was this close to killing him.

"To.....my sister" I managed to say but I felt like I wasn't even allowed to call her that after what I did.

"The slut" he laughed "I did a lot of things".

"Like what?" I asked growling.

"Beat her scar her mark her" this caused me to punch him in the face.

"Monster!" I yelled but was pulled of him by Joshua.

"What are you doing and why do you smell like Amanda?" I glared at the two of them.

"That's not important..what's important now is that he tell me what he did to her" Micheal only laughed spitting out blood.

"What did you do to her?" I roared it wasn't blaze in control it was him....he was in control my reaper the one who is couldn't control.

"Oh Marcus weren't you the one who promised not to let anyone hurt her" I growled at the brink of shoving.

"I'm not Marcus " I laughed as the both paled.

"Then who are you?"

"I have no name but trust me you'll fear me" I chuckled.

"Now I asked what did you do to her" I summoned my scythe still not shoving.

"Your is reaper" Joshua concluded of course I am.

"Not the answer I was looking for" I trailed my scythe along his jaw causing it to bleed.

"Marcus stop!" That voice was the one that forced him to give me back control.
