

Chapter 16

Amanda's POV

I took up my suit which consisted of a brown blazer, white undershirt and a brown pencil foot shirt with low heels. I got changed in the restroom built inside me o ice I'm still not comfortable with the Tyler here.

"You fired him?" was the first question he asked I stepped out fully changed.

"I did okay" I took up my files and handbag making sure to have all the important thing checked. Let's see phone, glasses, files, purse, tampons. Yup I'm ready.

"Let's go" I walked out my o ice with him trailing behind me. We both walked into the elevator it was silence until he spoke up.m

"So your their boss" I nodded as we excited the elevator. I needed to hurry up it was 6:00 and I had to get back to Tyler's pack before midnight.

"I'll drive " he o ered I looked around then growled so ly stepping into my car one of the cheapest ones I one a 2016 red Ferrari.

"Fine your drive. I'm okay with that" I watched as he carefully entered my car.

"Nice car!" he complimented I didn't reply I just sped o hoping I wasn't in to much trouble this was a three hour meeting.

"So...tell me about your self?" I glanced at him through my pherial vision. Is he serious.

"There isn't much to tell" I said bluntly.

"Oh come on miss big bad reaper afraid.....well then tell me your life story your childhood and so forth" I gripped the steering wheel tighter.

"Well...my parents were the best I could ask for so where my brothers...we were the perfect family until.....my parents got caught and we're acused of forbid love you see they were the first to mate with another species...so they were killed" I told him with a straight face trying not to seem phased.

"I...I'm sorry for your lost" I nodded keeping my eyes on the road.

"Enough about me what's your life story?" I asked plainly.

"Hmm....I grew up with my loving parents and little sister Skylar Marco" my head snapped in his direction.

"Is her name Skylar Juliette Marco?" I asked.

"Yeah how'd you know" I now regretted my decision a week ago.

"How is she?" I asked he sighed and continued his story.

"She....started doing drugs getting high and going out with random guys. I told her she needed to stop but she didn't listen. She accidentally got pregnant with her abusive boyfriend that was when she reviewed her life and came to me. But I told her that I was going to give her a house but she had to sort this out her self and that's the last I saw her" he whispered the last part.

"Well you'll see her soon enough pass my phone" he took my bag and began searching through it as I drove in through the parking lot. I easily parked the car then glanced at Tyler who had a faint hint of pink on his cheeks.

"Whats wrong?" I asked looked at what he was staring at. My tampons!

"Gimme that!" I dragged it form him opening the car door. He followed still blushing god he looked adorable. Snap out of it!

"Let's just go" I pressed the bottom on the car keys locking the car. We walked side by side until we reach the entrance being stopped by the guards.

"Name, reason your here" the guards asked looking at my up and down then back up until his eyes settled on my breasts causing Tyler to growl lowly.

"Amanda Black, this is my colleague were here for the meeting with the boss" I said to him showing him my ID. He nodded letting me in.

"Miss Black your here" Lucas called out with Kayla they were both sitting down in the waiting room. Good were early the meeting is supposed begin now. As if un cue a lady in her midtwenties came in and called us in but I had to show her my I'd seeing she didn't let me in.

"Ladies....Gentlemen welcome. It's an honor that you could make it. Now let's get straight to business. As you know in the twenty first century everything has evolved into some way" I nodded wait aren't we supposed to be discussing the deal.

"It has evolved to the point were eighteen year old girls are eligible to own one of the world's most successful companies" I tried to withhold a growl this guy has been trying to ruin my company for years.

"Um I'm sorry to interrupted but isn't this about the deal that was le open. Miss Black only came here to state her reason why she is eligible for this position" I looked at Tyler in shock but he only kept his head straight.

"Yes but we are also here to discuss how the company in no way should belong to her" I growled lowly turning away as my eyes flashed red.

"I'm afraid that is not your decision to make. She was the only person trusted worthy enough to receive the position" Lucas spoke up. I smirked looking at my opponent.

"This is an outrage!" I looked at him plainly with my hands connected at the finger tips.

"This is only an outrage seeing your company has fallen bankrupt and you need mine to bring it back up am I right" his eyes twitched in annoyance.

"My companies state is none of your concern" I smirked more at that comment.

"Neither is mine now I will not sit here and let you disgrace my family's work" he sighed but sat down allowing someone else to speak.

"With no further delays, I am Mr Powers the head of PowerPoint industry. As I have been notified you are here for the business deal" I nodded.

"Well give us a proper reason and it is yours" I saw a mischievous glint in his eyes and that seductive smirk I knew all to well.

"Of course. As you all know my family has always been loyal to there word. With me being the youngest to ever run our compay that may cause a problem. I assure you giving me this deal will not only better your company but also help raise economic growth" I looked at Lucas who nodded then set up the chart.

"Our company Black's Technological Enterprise, BTE thinks with all the buzz lately about advanced technology, seeing I am from the more youthful side of the population it would be best to hand me the project. Creating a machine that can bend the laws of physics it's self us quite a big deal" they looked unfazed so I continued with my boring lecture.

"And in conclusion this could not only help economic growth but also help with the amount of unemployed youths. Most may be more qualified than you and me. This is a revolutionary discovery please do not make the wrong decision" I ended my boring lecture with those words then sat down.

Three hours wasted on that. God there's nothing go to do these days. Tyler surprisingly said nothing during my lecture which was werid seeing he was more experienced than me.

"Thank you Miss Black you may leave now. We will call if any thing comes up" I nodded getting my things together. I then looked at the others I think they got the message since the moved instantly.

"I can't believe this" I groaned slamming my head unto my wooden desk I was now in my o ice catching up on the work I missed. I had no idea if I fired Samuel I would need a replacement that fast.

"Um....Miss Black I there's someone here to-" I cut him o quickly.

"What is it this time?" I snapped.

"There's someone he calls him self Mr Bloodshot. He has no appointment but he said you would he earned to see him" this caused Tyler to growl.

"Um are you okay. Or do you need a doctor?" Liam asked worried. I glared at Tyler. Does he not know he can't growl with humans around.

"Yeah just something in my throat" Lucas nodded then looked at me waiting for an explanation.

"Yeah send him in" he nodded then walked out right as Nova walked in.

"Amanda a girl named Skylar is here you had an appointment with her" I nodded then told her to let her in.

"Um....Good a ernoon Miss Black. Look I'm really sorry I just....please it don't have the money to pay the rent and my boy isn't well. Please it need this job" Skylar said as she stepped in.

She looked horrible he hair in a sloppy ponytail. There where bags under her eyes. She was wearing a sweater with worn out jeans and slippers. God I feel guilty.

"First do you have any qualifications. My company specializes in technological industry if your not qualified I can't help you" I slid of my glasses to look at her better.

"I have some designs for a few inventions I'm working on" my ears perked up at this.

"Well then let me see them tomorrow morning bright and early I'll think from there" I then looked back at the countless designs on desk.

"Wait- where is his design. I give him the chance to create his dream and he doesn't even give me the blue prints. What is wrong with him? I can't fund a project blindly" Tyler stepped outof the shadows looking at his sister.

"Um....Sky I need your help right now. I'm supposed receive a call in the next two minutes but I'm going downstairs if I get the call write down all important details" she nodded then sat down in the chair infront of me.

"Wait....do you know how to speak Dutch or French?" she shook her head but then Tyler spoke up.

"I can speak Dutch fluently just not French" I nodded. I can't believe we both can't talk French. Well I can but not that well.

"Great I'll be right back and Tyler"

"Yes"

"Talk to your sister she's right there" his eyes widened causing me to giggle. I quickly shut the door then entered the elevator pressing the button which represented the second floor.

Bing

I got out of the elevator with a very angry expression. My employees must of noticed this since the tensed instantly.

"Listen up!" All talking came to a stop as there heads snapped in my direction.

"I expected all your designs by this a ernoon. I told you when I came early I wanted your designs if I can't get them that means your not dedicated if your not dedicated that means you can't work. And I can't have that" I said calmly with one hand on my hip.

"Now all design must be in my hand right now. Quickly! Oh and Conner to my o ice" I patted him on the back causing him to turn around.

"Um yes...madam" I raised an eyebrow at him then glanced at the screen. He wasn't human I could say that much but I'm not sure what he was.

"What were you doing?" I asked once I realized he was hiding the screen from me.

"Nothing" he said a little too quickly.

"Right. To my o ice oh and bring your designs in need to see all the new concepts we have developed" he nodded reaching for his file. I walked around the second floor collecting everyone's designs then walked back to the elevator with Connor already there.

Before I le I heard someone whisper to someone close by I think they were males seeing there conversation.

"Damn she looks hot"

"Yeah but she's our boss"

I looked at the two as I stepped into the elevator then winked causing them to blush. Really? Here way to old for me.
