

Chapter 30

Amanda's POV

"Where are they?" I asked spinning around I'm my chair. Feels god to be back here the smell of death invaded my nostrils and I sighed dreamily. Smells nice.

"And why would I tell you?" Liam asked.

"Unless you want to live to see the sunrise you will tell me where they are" he smirked.

"I don't have to. If you kill me you will never find out where they are" I growled.

He was right. If I do kill him the girls die and I failed again. But if there's someone else who knows where they are. A smirk crept upon my face.

"You are of no use to me then. You aren't the only one who knows where the girls are. The humans do as well" I looked at the sword before me the same one they used to kill my parents the same one I'm going to use to kill Michael.

"I have lived my life and I accept death" I can't have that now can I. He want to die he knows that there's someone else I can work with someone else I can get my information form.

"No I'm not letting you go that easy. I know which company your selling there blood to. Once the press finds out hal You can kiss your sorry excuse for a business good bye" he didn't say anything knowing I was right.

"Victor. I don't like you. Your the first target that ever escaped a quick dealt will work for you" his eyes widened as I unchained him.

"Please no. Your shoot me already don't leave me down there" I smirked.

"No can do. Blaise needs his feeding I've been gone for so long he's probably starving" I said in a babies voice walking over to the cage. There were no bars just a little window so I could see my little pet. Blaise. The wolf I found he's an ordinary wolf other than the fact he had vampire DNA in him.

"Blaise mommy's brought you a gi " I called out. I heard a growl then there jumped out Blaise my little red wolf with black eyes not a good combination.

"I brought you some food. Wouldn't want you to starve" I opened the cell then went in to hug him. He wouldn't hurt me a er all I'm the one who saved him he owes me.

"Please don't leave me here" I looked at him bored.

"Could you shut up for once. If you hadn't escaped the first time you wouldn't be in this mess" I turned back to Blaise.

"Now this is our guest Victor be gentle with him" the wolf growled at Victor who cowered back in fear.

"Good bye now mommy has to work" I closed the cell but stopped and listened to Victor's screams of pain until silence. It's either he passed out or Blaise killed him. Either way I didn't care.

"Your sick" Liam said in disgust.

"I know" I replied then skipped upstairs. I didn't have to work today it was my day o so I finally had some me time.

I smiled at my appearance in the window I stopped at the coffee shop near by. I really needed a boost of energy seeing it was my day of I thought why not some shopping bad idea.

"What can I get you?" The guy at the cash register asked.

"An iced white chocolate mocha" I told him. He nodded then went to get my drink soon he came back out with my mocha in hand. I thanked and payed him then walked out to sit outside admiring the view.

I looked at my company's building which was a couple blocks form here. I frowned can't I go one day without remembering that place. I mean all my family members once owned it but now it's just me.

I'll go there just for a little bit since it doesn't look like I can take my mind o the place. I quickly finished my drink and threw away the cup then made my way the he building hoping I made the right choice.

There goes my day of relaxation.

"Miss Black. I thought you called in saying you weren't coming" Lucas said in surprise.

"I'm not coming to work I just le something in my o ice" he nodded and I walked over to my personal elevator then pressed the button leading to the top floor.

Once I got there is was greeted but Nova who smiled brightly seeing me.

"Amanda your back! What happened to you?" They didn't know.

"I was kidnapped by Liam but don't worry I had a lazy ass mate to motivate me to save my self" she looked pissed.

"Your telling me Mr Alpha couldn't get of his ass to come help you. Who the fuck does he think he is. Just wait till I get my hands on him" she followed me to my o ice rambling about how she would kill Tyler if she saw him.

"Nova relax what matters is that I'm fine now. And no one important got hurt" I had to put in the important part since that bitch who was kissing Tyler was irrelevant.

"Fine but if I ever see his face I am going to kill him" I rolled my eyes and walked into the o ice but force when I saw Shawn standing there looking like he was waiting for me.

"Shawn?" I asked suprised.

"Who's Shawn. Oh that's Shawn. Hey Shawn! Wait Shawn! " she repeated his name like seven times.

"Your here" he stood up straight looking at me with pleading eyes.

"I need your help" kidnapper and torturer say what.....

Tyler POV

I messed up big time. She's right I didn't look for her I just sent out other people because I was ashamed that I lost her. I've been trying to come up with excuses to why I couldn't save her. I didn't even tell her family.

I'm a horrible person. She has every right to be mad at me but I can't stand her upset. It breaks my heart knowing I did this ti her and there's no way I could stop. Once Storm and Clover found out they were pissed. Both of them got along well with Amanda and hearing what happened they just le and said they gave up there position refusing to stay here as long as I was alpha.

That was a little drastic but could I blame them I was an absolute ass to my mate. I mean she was kidnapped and I just sat there refusing to go look for her. I know she had a hard time growing but I still le here there. I bet she feels like no one cares for her.

I wish I could take back what I did. Making out with that girl at the party I didn't even know Amanda was there. She wasn't there for me she was there for another reason. She killed that poor girl and attempted to kill that guy named Liam.

That's not the Amanda I know. She's di erent but I just can't tell why. The Amanda I know is caring and thought full. She helps those in need despite her nature to kill. This one is a cold blooded kill. But no matter which I have made it my duty to find her and claim her as mine and no one will stand in my way.
