

Chapter 32

Amanda's POV

"I'm not doing it. I don't want to. Just leave me alone!" I started yelling the temperature in the room fell instantly.

"If not we have no choice but to arrest you. After all you are the reason for the multiple choice deaths over the past three years" my eyes widened.

"I killed under your command. I am an assassin I am supposed to kill. And now your telling me the person who sent me to kill that I'm going to be arrested for the deaths you arranged. When I started business with you I warned you every death is on your shoulders" I can't believe them.

"You have a choice" he stated calmly.

"I'm doing it for the parents of the girls and Shawn. But know this if anyone tries to arrest me I will not hesitate to kill them or you. When I am finished with this mission I will leave. If any of you gang decides to come after me. That's there deathwish" I told him then slammed the door in his face marching down to the dungeons.

"Back already" Laim said smirking. I took up the nearest gun and shot him in the leg.

"As you can see I am not in the mood to play where are the girls so I may reunite you with your mate" he howled in pain as I shot him again.

"Talk" he smirked as he started spitting out blood.

"Never" I took up the Angel's sword and held it right at his chest not caring about that pain I was feeling.

"Just do it" I sent it straight through the his chest but instantly regretting it since I just let Shawn the one other person who knew on the roof top yesterday. Great Amanda just great.

I wiped the blood of the sword then placed it back on the wall of weapons. I then uncurled Liam's chains and pulled him over to Blaise. I opened the door and threw him in locking it back when done.

"Shit! What am I supposed to do now?" I asked myself. It was nightfall so maybe I could catch up with Samantha I wonder how she's doing?

"Are you sure you'll be okay sleeping by your self. I mean my office is right next door" I rolled my eyes at my brother's voice he was never this protective.

"I'm going to be fine. I used to train you remember " she joked I heard him sigh then walked out but no before whispering an I love you.

"So your marked now?" I asked in the shadows Samantha jumped up like she had just seen a ghost. Ha get it she is half ghost you know what never mind.

"Amanda! You sacred me"

"Your losing your touch. It wasn't supposed to be easy to frighten you" I said what is up with her.

"I'm not. Why aren't you with Tyler" I instantly tensed upon hearing his name.

"He's busy. I came to you. The council is losing there mind and your name is there they can charge you for the deaths" her eyes widened.

"No! My life is finally coming together again this can't happen what about the wedding and the baby" What wedding and a baby.

"A wedding is there something I'm missing here?" I asked leaning on the wall behind me.

"I'm getting married" she whispered. I smiled at least one of us will have a happy ending.

"That's great! Anything else like why I can hear another heartbeat from you" she blushed.

"I'm pregnant" I grinned I'm going to be an auntie.

"That's wonderful I'm so happy for you but how was I not invited?" I asked raising an eyebrow.

"You aren't exactly the easiest person to find" I laughed then frowned.

"You won't see me" I whispered looking down.

"Why not?" She asked worried.

"I have to fix things end this mission focus on work and deal with Cindy" she laughed.

"It's okay knowing you I doubt you'll even have time to come to the baby shower"

"I'm sorry but I can't"

"Don't worry you made an effort to come here right now. That's enough for me besides you've done so much for me" she came to hug me. I hugged back this may be the last time I see her.

"Good bye bestie tell your father is said hi" she nodded. I hugged her one last time then jumped out the window.

*

"one week later"

"Amanda your back!" I smiled and walked into my office I'm not staying for long.

"Your working late. It's time for me to leave" I told Lucas.

"Oh yeah. Sorry I was out with Jones and-" I cut him off.

"It's okay. But I have somewhere to go soon good night" he nodded then bid farewell. I stepped into my office but was shocked to see Shawn standing there with a bloody nose and black eye.

"Shawn! What happened" I rushed over to him he looked like he was about to collapse.

"There going to kill them all of them tonight" my eyes widened.

"How do you know this where are they?" He handed me a piece of paper with an address on it.

"Hurry don't worry about me just save her" I shook my head then lifted him up bridal style.

"It's dark out and we're using the back entrance. Hold on tight" and this is why I'm glad I wore pants.

I phased through the back wall which lead me to the back entrance. I shifted to weight so I would be the one landing first. Once felt my feet touch the ground and immediately sprinted for the car hoping no one saw. By now Shawn was unconscious.

I placed him in the car then called up Nova who came instantly.

"I need you to bring him to the house I have something else to deal with" she nodded.

*

This is the place. Security is tight. I hid behind a tree waiting for a guard to come up to me.

"Can't wait till this is over" I went into the shadows hoping to not be seen.

"Did you hear that?" Shit! He came over to where I was. He stopped right in front of me. Sneaking from behind I snapped his neck allowing his body to fall lifeless to the ground. He had a pass this could come in handy.

"You good back there" time to leave. I stepped away from the body taking out my dagger no guns until I'm inside.

"Oh no! We have a-" I didn't let him finish I just stabbed him in the chest. Quick kill. Two down a hundred more to go.

I sneaked up to the main entrance where four guards stood checking everyone. And here I thought a quick kill would work but no. I sneaked behind the first one that snapped his neck.

The other three turned to me and gasped.

"Oh hey I'm your killer nice to meet you" I greeted smiling. The looked confused so I took this time to take out my gun and shoot all three.

"And now your dead" I said to my self. I used the pass from earlier and I got in. I stepped in but stopped when I saw all forty something guards turning to look at me. What is this a prison break?

"Um....is this where someone called Hannah stays?" I asked.

"Yeah" I grinned at the guard.

"Thanks" I said the shot him. One ran up to me but I dodged.

Catching his fist I crushed it until I heard a satisfying crack. Taking my gun I placed it under his chin the fired. Blood splashed everywhere but whatever.

Instead giving every detail let's cut it short I shot everyone in the room okay. I ran towards the door then phased through it. Yes! This room was the one with the girls and thankfully there were guards. Sarcasm.

"Someone here called Hannah" I asked loud enough. I heard someone say yes and smiled.

"Who are you?" A guard asked.

"I'm Amanda Black nice to meet you" I said shooting him.

"You look wonderful today you know that" I complimented another guard shooting him.

"Nice tie" I said to another guard pulling him by his tie then shot him in the head.

"Amanda!" I know that voice....Adam?

"Right here" I said looking at him he was dressed as an assassin. What!

"Hold the phone. Why are you dressed like that it does look nice on you but still why" he laughed.

"You still haven't figured it out. Pathetic. And I've let so many signs Amanda who do you think told the rouges who you really were who do you think told the council about your partner relationship I was always envious of your father" my eyes widened.

It's him! He planned all this. He killed the missing girls. It was him all along. The council was so stupid. They let him in. The demon king. How did I not see this sooner he was the only one my parents trusted with there secret. It all makes sense now.

"Why did you do it?" I asked through gritted teeth. I held my head down knowing if I looked at him in would rip every limb off his body. I couldn't let that happen these girls have seen enough.

"So I could see your true potential. You still haven't reached it though. I organized the death of you aunt thinking that would set you on edge I even drugged your mate hoping you would lose it but your still here. Seems Michael did a number on you but your still here " my eyes were red. I clenched my fist trying to calm my breath.

"But what I enjoyed most was getting rid of the girl. She put up quite a struggle but I managed to silence her" That's it. He's dead!

Hello there!

Hold the phone....Adam! It was you! Darn he looked so cute too. So much drama I think im going to faint. I still need a name for the bady though. Well did you like it did you? I'll never know if you don't comment and vote thank you!

I love you guys 🍷🍷🍷🍷🍷🍷

Bye Angels 🍷🍷🍷🍷🍷🍷🍷🍷
