

Chapter 8 (Christmas special part 2)

Amanda's POV

"Merry Christmas " I faked a smile handing him the present I think this one is a quote or something about the strength of the pack. I'm really not sure.

"Your handing me a present why?" he asked I could tell he was scared but he pride got in the way.

"Because it's Christmas oh and may I please speak to the Omega of this pack?" I asked getting straight to the point.

"Uh...okay Marcus get Cassandra " I sighed knowing this was going to take a while I'm a very busy person but it's Christmas and I should remember the holiday sprit that reminds me I have to go to the meeting with the board to sort out the issue concerning my transition to CEO of the company.

"Yes alpha" I heard a timid voice say. I looked up to see a girl with dirt and scratch marks all over her. Her hair was tangled, she had dried blood along her arms with bruises covering her body. God I mean she's in the state of all the people I've tortured I mean killed- no I mean Nova's friends yeah Nova's friends (liar liar pants on fire). a

"Whats wrong?" I asked sweetly. What I wasn't completely ruthless-ish.

"Oh nothing I'm fine alpha said you called me" she whispered holding her head down.

"Yeah I called you, your coming with me for Christmas seeing they don't need you" I directed the last part to Joshua.

"You can't do that" he sneered dragging her back inside.

"According to the law book page 17, paragraph three, second line : it is anyone's right to report or take into there own hands if a pack omega is not treated correctly meaning they are not feed, given proper clothes or is being abused. And it's seems that is what's happening here so I have every right" I stated pulling her back to tell the truth she did look mal nourished.

"Fine take her see if I care" I smirked then said "Merry Christmas " before dashing away with Cameron and Cassandra.

"So what do you want to do?" I asked the former omega of the Blue moon pack.

" I'm not sure" she whispered. I sighed as we neared the house taking her out of her current state will be hard.

"Okay listen what ever they did to you back there forget it I know Joshua an ass so is Marcus, Edward and Nicholas but you've got to forget them I know I did" I muttered the last part.

"How do you know them?" she asked. I laughed at the statement how do I not know them.

"There my brothers silly well they were my brohers" I said as we entered the house. a

"Wow this is bigger than my pack house!" she exclaimed looking around "former pack house".

"Cameron show her around then let her take a shower come back to me for clothes a er all the is your mate" I told the demon. He looked at me with wide eyes.

"How did-" I cut him o "The way you look at her gives it away" I whispered so only he could here.

"But she's human " he argued "and your a demon living with a reaper relax it won't kill you just give it sometime" I said to him patting his back. I then made my way to my room.

"What should I wear?" I asked my self looking at the outfits set in front of me Christmas morning is tomorrow and we're going to a feast so I need a dress and some casual clothes.

"Perfect!" I squealed clapping my hands. It was a green tank top with the words : X mas on it with a pair of decorative leggings with a red hoodie that had fur trim. I topped it of with my reindeer head band a Santa slippers (fuzzy slippers with a Santa hat on top).

I got dressed then rushed down stairs knowing Samantha was already there. Trying to avoid her I just know she'll be asking questions about our guest.

"Wait right there Miss Black how was I not told we had a guest?" Samantha's voice boomed.

"How was I not told you talked to Carlos " I shot back not turning around since I got no response I spoke again "That's what I thought".

"But for real now why is she here?" Samantha asked racing a er me.

"She was an omega who was treated very badly so I let her stay wih us" I told her.

"Wait there still doing that God is want to kill them?" I rolled my eyes at her she's not going to be the one doing that.

"Um....I need some clothes" I heard a small voice say from the room across form mine.

"I'll....Um be right back" I then heard Cameron's voice.

"Oh...Sam and Amanda I...Um I mean Cassandra needs some clothes" Cameron stuttered his cheeks had a slight layer of pink.

" I see you've found your mate congrats bro" Sam then pat him on the back.

"Gosh my room is on the top floor Cam I'll be right back" I turned on my heel and strutted back upstairs.

"Here you go" I said to Cassandra giving her a Santa onesie with some unused underwear. If it weren't for my super speed I would of taken forever.

"Thanks..uh" she trailed o .

"I'm Amanda Black but don't tell anyone I told you that or you die anyway the kitchen is down the hall turn le at the indoor swimming pool then make a right at the gym go straight down until you see the sign that says: Merry Christmas " I told her walking away.

"Amanda darling there's someone at he door" my aunts voice called my back from secretly eating more cookies.

"Yeah I'll be there" I replied taking one more bite of my cookie the closed the jar. If anyone asks you say nothing.

"Who is it.....Carlos!" I squealed seeing to was my best friend well male best friend.

"Hola amigos " he greeted in his Spanish accent.

"Your staying for chirstmas and you didn't tell me" I hit him playfully.

"No I'm staying all year" he corrected coming inside with his suit case.

"Carlos how are you?" my aunt asked as he sat down on the sofa right beside the Chirstmas tree.

"Amanda go prepare his room" she instructed me. I nodded walking up the stairs his room was on the second floor.

"Um Cass why are you here " I asked the Omega she was wondering around the second floor.

"I'm lost" she whispered.

"Okay first I'm not going to hurt you maybe but not sure and second I know you can talk louder than that" I said annoyed with her.

"Okay" she said a little louder. I smiled and approached Carlos temporary room.

"Shit Carlos!" I yelled looking at the state of his room. He came here in the summer and god this room is a mess there where clothes everywhere which I'm sure aren't his condoms and streamers practically painting the room.

"What is the oh-my goodness" Cassandra said coving her mouth.

"Uh don't worry I'm fine down here you just continue what your doing" he yelled from downstairs. That little bitch.

"Helga?!" I called there were mutts footsteps heard then the head maid came.

"Can you please clean this mess please cause I know if I do I'm going to kill someone" I said through gritted teeth she nodded .

"Okay now that that's finished let's go downstairs it's time for dinner and gi s " I sang rushing down the stairs with Cassandra in hand.

"I'm home!" Nova yelled coming inside I rolled my eyes at her.

"Let's go dinner time" I stated walking to the dinning room.

"Come along now sit down children" aunt Natalie instructed as the maids brought out the food.

"Ready guys?" I asked everyone.

"Ready" they said in unison.

"Merry Christmas and a happy new year!!!" We all yelled looking at our out door Christmas tree. Have a merry Christmas and a happy new year everyone.
