

I Rejected You, Alpha – Chapter 41

ELEIA'S POV

Rosie went to her room , she said she wanted to be alone and I know I shouldn't leave her alone right now , but I am worried about those kids .

I sit on the stairs , staring at the front door , the interior in the house growing darker as night fall rolls in .

'Aiden , where are you ?' I ask worriedly through the mind link .

He doesn't answer , but the door flies open and two teenagers follow suit with Stefan coming in last.

I raise to my feet , stepping down the last step , "Where were they ?" I stand right in front of Aiden and he rolls his eyes , "I don't even ..." he takes his fingers through his raven hair , "What ?" I ask , glancing at them and the girl is flushed , her eyes stare at the ground .

"They were making out ." Stefan scoffs , laughing and my eyes widen as they flick between the two .

"Young love... are you mates ?" I cross my arms over my chest and they glance at one another , shaking their heads .

"Then why ?" I don't stop from staring them down .

"Do you love each other ?" I ask and they look at one another in fear , as if they didn't even know .

"Okay , come on ." I gesture with my hand towards the living room and they keep their heads down as they stride towards the couches , sitting down .

"Do you think that you'll be mates or are you just bored ? Because it's very uncertain that you love one another ." I sit on the coffee table in front of them , the granite below my a*s cold , but I focus on them .

The girl shrugs and they stay silent .

'Maybe they're scared of you .' Crystal mutters , but they have no reason to be .

I am kind and caring , I just want to help them...

'Your resting bh face doesn't help at all .' Crystal scoffs and I force a smile onto my face .

I don't think that I have a bh face , but then again , I am not the one looking at me .

"Look , we aren't mad at you two , we want to help and we can't do that if you don't talk to us ." I lean forward , resting my elbows on my knees .

"He yelled at us ." The girl inhales a deep breath and my head snaps at Aiden who's standing with folded arms , staring at us .

"Why ?" I glare at him , "They made me worry ." He scoffs and I roll my eyes before looking at the girl .

She seems like she'll work with me .

"It's okay to make out , I just want to know if you two are together or friends ?" I ask and they hold each other's hands , staring deep into the other's eyes .

"He's my boyfriend ." She smiles at him and I could tell that she loved him , but I don't know if they are going to say it .

"Okay and that's cool , it's perfectly fine but you two can't just go running off into the woods , especially outside the premises ." My hands hold one another .

"We want to protect you ." I smile , but the anger radiating off the boy is undeniable .

"He killed our alpha and Luna , why should we trust him ?" He snaps , ripping his hand away from hers .

"Because we don't hurt kids . The adults would have tried to kill us for revenge , but kids are good and they can see who the real evil is and you know it's not Aiden , because it was Alpha Night that was the terror in that pack ."

The words just fall from my mouth .

“He was kind .” The boy argues .

“Was he or did he make you believe he was ?” I ck my head at him and his eyes grow dark , “Are you saying that I was stupid to believe my alpha ?” He raises to his feet and I sit upright , staring at him blankly .

No boy will ever intimidate me.

“No , he was just smarter than all of us .” I gulp , the back of my eyes stinging as I think back of how much he cared for me when we found out we were mates , but the hard truth was that he was acting.

It was all an act .

“How can you say that ?” He grabs his hair , tugging at it and I raise to my feet .

“Because I was his first mate , someone who he convinced he cared for before sleeping with me and then rejecting me and now I am carrying his child and he ruined my life !” I bellow , tears forming in my eyes and the boy freezes , her eyes flicking down to my stomach before he steps back and sits down .

“You can be lying to me .” He shakes his head , as if fighting himself to not believe me .

“Get the papers please .” I grit out , “Are you sure ?” Aiden asks and I nod .

I could hear him walk away before coming back and he holds out the piece of paper to me .

I snatch is angrily before giving it to the boy and he stares at it with narrowed eyes , “Really ?” He scoffs and I shrug , dropping it into his lap .

He sighs before opening it and he stares at it blankly .

“Okay .” He folds the paper , “Say I believe you , what now ? We just forget that he killed our parents ?” The boy crosses his arms before leaning back .

“They were all blindly following him , but you have a wonderful opportunity to start over and if you don’t want to stay here...then go , we’ll let you leave , but then you’ll be rogues and it’s not a threat , it’s a fact .” I sigh while Aiden rubs my back .

I am slowly losing patience , I want to help these kids , but they are hell bend on ruining us .

What if Aiden was right ? What if the kids are too old and won't listen ?

I glance at Aiden and he sighs , wiping the tears from my cheeks .

“Let them be .” He sighs , taking my hand , “You two can go back to the foster family that cares for you or you can leave . It's your choice .” Aiden forces a smile , he looks so lost like he too wanted to help them .

“Let's go .” Aiden tugs on my arm and I follow him , “We want to stay .” The boy stands and I turn to look at him , “Are you sure ?” I ask concerned , but a big part of me was relieved .

“Yes .” The girl smiles and I nod , “Okay , then let's get you home .”

My life feels better right now .

“Can I ask you something ?” The boy scratches his nape .

“Of course.” I smile , “What are you going to do with the baby ?” He asks and the girl elbows him , “What ? It's not the alpha's kid .” He snaps at her , “It's fine , we're keeping it . This baby will be nothing like Regan .” I hold my bump .

“You'll be a good mom .” The girl smiles and Aiden and I walk them to their homes before coming back and we eat and take a bath .

Sitting on opposite ends in the bath , our backs rested against the edges , Aiden is giving my foot a massage .

“You're very impressive .” He grins and my gaze raise from the bubbles I'm playing with .

“Why ?”

“You handled those two like a real Luna would and I am proud .” He shrugs .

My cheeks heat , “Well I had the best to teach me .” I continue to play with the bubbles , watching them disappear in my hands .

“Ohh , right there .” I beam as pleasure fills me when he uses his thumb on the middle of my foot .

“Like this ?” His voice is seductive as he continues to massage my feet , up to my ankles and back down below .

I lay with my head resting on the edge , smiling , “Yes .” I sigh .

He’s been spoiling me with love and attention , with foot rubs and care .

“I love you .” I sigh as my eyes fall shut , I am not tired , but having my feet rubbed in all the right places is relaxing me in a way I never have before .

“You’re only saying that because I am massaging your feet .” He scoffs , making my eyes slowly open , “Am not .” I glare at him and he chuckles , “Sure .” He mutters under his breath and I use my other foot to splash him with bubble water .

“Hey !” He grabs my other foot , pushing it under the water .

I smile innocently at him , “What ?” I beam as I watch the trail of bubbles dropping from his chiselled jaw .

“That is not fair .” He tuts and I giggle .

He changes the position of our legs and his one is on the outside , then mine , then his again and then mine again , his leg in between mine bent but he slowly straightens it and I gasp when his toe puts pressure onto my clit .

“Stop .” I grab his foot , trying to shove it back , but my body is weak from the intense pleasure that washes over me .

“Why ? You clearly like it .” He shrugs , wiggling his toes .

I jolt up , staring down at him as bubbles slide down my body , “I said stop .” I climb out and he chuckles , grinning at me .

“Don’t be like that , it could be fun .” His eyebrows wiggle and I shake my head at him , “For you .” I deadpan , wrapping my body in a towel .

“Don’t stop .” I moan , my hand gripping his hair as his lips are sucking my lower ones .

The growling coming from his chest sends vibrations up my spine , back down to my curling toes .

With him sucking on my sensitive nub , I am losing all senses to think straight .

I should have gotten dressed faster , but I was so tired and just as I was about to put my pajamas on , he sneaked up from behind , picked me up and took me to the bed , where he started to kiss me while his fingers were massaging my scalp , his hard wood pressed against my core and overwhelming pleasure took control of my body .

With his tongue dipping into my tight cunt , my walls clench around him as his thumb rubs my clit , circling it , making my eyes roll back as my body stiffens .

“Aiden .” I pant and as I glance down at him tongue fg me , his eyes meet mine , those dark ocean eyes making me come undone as he drags his tongue over my clit .

“That’s it .” He grins as he slips his fingers inside of me , helping me ride out my o*m .

From the electrifying experience my body took to relaxing has been exhausting , but the muscles that were tense a minute ago , is all loose right now .

He crawls up the bed beside me , dropping onto his side , his head resting in his palm .

“Do you forgive me now ?” His dark brows raise and I roll my eyes , smiling .

“I guess .” I tease and he tickles me , making my body tense again .

“Ouch .” I grab my bump and his eyes widen , “What ? What’s wrong ?” He asks and my legs kick out as I grab my stomach .

“What’s happening ?” I freak out , holding onto him .

He jumps up , putting on shorts before grabbing a gown and he helps me put it on as it feels like my insides are trying to break free .

“Aiden .” My nails dig into his skin .

“It’s alright .” He smiles as he carries me out of the house and towards the car .

He doesn’t even put me in my own seat , he climbs in behind the wheel with me , holding me as if I might break if he lets me go .

My back presses into the steering wheel as he halts in front of the hospital and when we get out , there’s a gurney already waiting for me .

As they roll me into a room and my doctor immediately arrives , “Shall I make this your second room ?” She jokes and I smile , giggling but it turns into a horrifying groaning sound .

“Let’s see .” She opens my robe around my stomach and squeezes gel onto it before scanning it .

“What’s wrong ?” I ask , my voice high and my heart rate out of control .

“Am I going to lose the baby ?” I continue to panic .

“Relax , he’s just kicking .” She smiles and my eyes widen , “He has feet ?” My eyebrows raise , “Yes .” She smiles , “And it’s a boy ?” My eyes start to tear up .

“Indeed .” She wipes the gel off my stomach , “And he is healthy , don’t worry that much , alright ?”

“Can I feel ?” Aiden suddenly asks and it’s like my heart is exploding with serotonin as he steps closer , standing shirtless next to me , reaching for my bump .

“Yeah .” I reach for his hand and I rest mine on top of his , placing his palm where the little boy is kicking my ribs out .

The absentminded smile that crosses his face makes me want to break out into a sob , but I stay strong when I see his orbs glass over .

“It’s amazing , right ?” Tears form in my eyes and I can’t stop them from falling .

My emotions are all over the place .

He nods , dragging his free hand through his raven locks , “It’s magical .” He murmurs .

Even if he hated Regan , I believe that he will love this child like his own...

“You’re more than half way there , so stay safe and healthy , got it ?” The doctor demands and I nod .

I can not believe that weeks and months go by so fast .

“I think I should stop the end of the month parties until the baby is here .” Aiden mutters as we drive back home , practically idling all the way .

“No , I can still do it . I’ll sit on the bed while you rub my feet , I’ll make calls while you bring me everything to eat , I can do it . I want to .” I smile and as he puts the car in park in front of the house , he stares at me dumbfounded .

“What ?” I giggle .

“I’m just really proud of you .” His smile is sincere and loving .

“Me too . But don’t take the party away , everyone loves it and maybe we can make next week’s party theme blue and let the pack know that we are having a boy .” I beam and he chuckles , “Your mind is amazing. It sounds perfect .” He grins and I didn’t actually think it would work , but it just did .

“I really am sorry it’s not yours .” I rest my hand over his and he shrugs , “It will be because I am going to be the dad .”

The joy in his eyes are undeniable .

“Oeh .” I blow out a breath as I hold my stomach , “Is he kicking again ?” He chuckles as if this were a joke , but it really does sting .

“Yeah .” I roll my eyes as I open the door , the cool breeze kissing my hot skin as I climb out .

“Be careful .” He rushes out and around the car , grabbing my hand .

“I can walk Aiden .” I snap at him unexpectedly , I gasp , my hand raising to my mouth , “I’m sorry , I didn’t mean to do that .” I shake my head and instead of frowning at me like I expected him to do , he smiles as he cups my face .

“I know , you’re emotional .” He shrugs and I guess by all the crying after I laugh at a joke and being angry when he’s nice to me over the weeks I have been here and learned I was pregnant has taught him how emotional I am .

“Still , I am sorry .” I sigh and he kisses my temple , smiling like he’s the real father and I guess in a way , he is .

He will raise this kid just to be as good as an alpha as he is , he will treat him like his own , they will go hunting together , have the talk with him , play soccer and teach him responsibilities that only a man needs to know .

The rumbling of my stomach when we enter the house makes me freeze and I glance down , “Did the baby just growl at us ?” I ask and he burst out in a fit of laughter , his head lols back as he holds his stomach , the sound being so joyful , yet annoying .

“That was all you babe .” He chuckles , letting out a deep sigh as he stops .

“I didn’t growl .” I scoff , “When last did you eat ?” He asks and realization sets in that I only ate at the picnic today , and not a lot either .

“At the picnic .” I shrug and he tuts , leaning forward and he grabs my hand , “What do you want to eat ?” He asks and I roll my eyes .

“I don’t know .” I whine like a kid , feeling embarrassed about it .

He lifts me onto the counter with a grunt , smiling , “How about you guess what I am making you ?” I could hear the grin in his voice as he has his back turned to me , opening the fridge , “Pizza ?” I ask and he claps his hands , “Yes . Good guess .” He murmurs and I feel like something is up , like there’s something he isn’t telling me .

“Aiden .” I drag his name out and he turns , looking at me with arched brows , “Why did you say it like that ?” I ask and his brows furrow , “I don’t know what you mean .” He shrugs and my tongue clicks as I shake my head at him , “Liar .” I toss a grape from the fruit bowl at him , making him gasp over dramatically .

“How dare you ? Those are good grapes .” He squats to pick it up , rinsing it under the tap before popping it into his mouth .

He grabs a frozen pizza from the double door freezer and peels the plastic off before popping it into the already heated oven .

I glare at him all the way as he takes out a plate , grabs a glass and fills it with water , placing it in front of me .

“Go ahead , drink some because if you haven’t eaten , you clearly didn’t drink anything either .”

I gulp the glass of water down effortlessly , only realizing then how thirsty I was .

“Thanks .” I mutter and he rinses the glass before putting it onto the drying rack next to the sink .

As we wait for the pizza to heat and cook , he stands between my parted knees , his hands rested on either side of my body on the counter .

“You know...” he takes one hand , tugging at the knotted strings of my robe , loosening it , “I think the baby kicked because your body liked how you felt .” He loosens it completely , letting it fall open and the way his baby blue orbs trail my body has me sucking in a strong breath .

“Hmm ?” I hum in response as his hand kneads my thighs , moving up and down , teasing me .

The house isn’t warm , but with him standing shirtless in front of me , it gets hotter by the second .

“But if I do this...” his hands grab my thighs at the top where my hip and legs meet , his thumb sliding over my wet clit , drawing a moan from my parted lips as I lean backwards .

His arm snakes around the small of my back before he tugs me to the edge , his hips higher up than the counter , his shaft in line with my entrance .

I lay back on my elbows as he tugs his pants down to his knees , slowly rubbing his tip against my entrance .

My juices coat his hard wood and before I could remind him about the pizza , he slides right into me as he tugs me closer to him , the pizza slipping from my mind as his head hits that spot inside of me that makes my body jerk and my eyes roll back .

“Do you enjoy this ?” His hand trails up over my abdomen , between my breasts as he grabs my throat , lightly wrapping his fingers around my neck .

I nod and he thrusts into me hard , “Aiden .” I moan and he grins , “Scream if you like .” He picks up his pace , but continues to slam into me .

“There are people .” My body curls as I glare at him .

“Screw them .” He scoffs , his hand dragging down to my breast , he rolls my n*e in between his fingers , pinching them , making me shriek and moan .

The smell of the baking pizza makes him go faster and harder and I reach in between my legs , pleasuring myself and when I look at him , he’s looking at my hand .

“Don’t stop .” His voice is full of demand , yet on the verge of breaking and I can feel my body tense once more , my legs clamping around him as the pressure builds in the base of my spine , everything warm and once a scream erupts from my throat and my o*m rips through me , he stills , heat spilling inside of me as he cums .

“The pizza .” Is all I say , but his tongue glides over his bottom lip , “It can wait , nothing will spill out of you .” He stays inside , slowly moving in and out until he slides out , grinning as he pulls me up .

“And now for your main course .” He beams , tugging his pants up before grabbing gloves and takes the pizza out of the oven , leaving me blushing as I roll my eyes .

I Rejected You, Alpha – Chapter 43

ELEIA ‘S POV

Aiden was so surprised that I pulled off that party last time that he agreed to let me do it again if I stay in bed or on the couch while he’s training .

The sun is hotter than ever and I am bigger than an elephant .

As promised , we had a big sleepover with all the kids under the stars outside when it became hot again .

The summer is my favorite time of year , the sun is warm , the flowers bloom , the trees get colour , the water gets more appreciation than in the winter .

Everything is good .

I sit in his office under the aircon , stuffing my mouth with fruits and chocolates .

If I wanted to , I could balance a glass on top of my belly right now , but I'm no child , even if it is tempting .

After I made all the arrangements and called to order everything , I went to the couch , smiling as I pass the vase with blue metal flowers .

Our last end of the month party to celebrate everyone , the theme was blue . I wore a baby blue dress because my bump wasn't as big as I am now , everyone where or blue or white and the decorations were blue too .

When we announced that we were having a boy , the entire pack went wild , howled , clapped and yelled in excitement and it felt like magic .

I felt like a princess in that moment .

As the winter became summer , Aiden had air installed in our home , he never really cared for the heat , but he said that because I was pregnant , being in humid weather was not good for the baby or me and he is right .

The only time I do leave this house is when it's late noon or even in the evening itself for some fresh air because then it cooled down and my baby and I aren't cooking .

It's almost time to bring this boy into the land of the living , where he will breath on his own , grow more , start to crawl and then walk and I believe that I am the happiest person because I get to do it with my mate .

"Eleia ." Aiden's breathless voice booms as the front door slams shut and I raise my head from laying on the couch , "Aiden ?" I ask worriedly , slowly getting up .

It's been harder since I got bigger because the baby is like a magnetic force wanting me to stay down the entire time .

"Good , you're okay ." He smiles in relief .

I lose focus when my eyes trail his sweaty body .

The snapping of his fingers makes me snap out of my haze and my eyes focus on his , "What ?" I shrug as if I weren't just eye fg him .

"Why did you send someone to tell me to come and help you ?" He snaps and my brows furrow , "Excuse me ? I did not ." I fold my arms over my chest , resting it on my big bump .

"The kid said..." he freezes , his face features sinking as realization dawns in and he rushes back outside , I follow to the door , standing in the frame .

I gasp when I see kids rushing towards the edge , two tall ones and then four , maybe five small ones .

"Stop !" He bellows in fear before he shifts into his beautiful raven colored wolf , charging after them .

I have no doubt that he would catch them because more than half of them can't even shift yet , so they are on foot .

I walk back to the couch , sitting down as I wonder why they would suddenly run ?

The kids we brought over from the Night pack were fitting in , they were enjoying themselves , all of them and it's about to go crap just because of.. of nothing !

I don't know why they ran .

Stefan and Rosie come into the house minutes later , Rosie dressed in overalls the same as Stefan .

"Are you two job hunting ?" I tease and they both turn to me , looking exhausted , yet still managing a smile .

"No ." Rosie pads over , tugging her overalls off , standing in shorts and a crop top beneath as she kicks the stained overalls to the side and she plops down next to me , “But we did paint the last walls today .” She grins , but it seems like she could pass out any minute .

“Crack a window , would you ?” Stefan wipes his nose with the back of his hand .

“Hell no , it’s hot out there .” I scoff and he rolls his eyes , “Don’t do that .” Rosie snaps at him , “She’s pregnant , goddess sake .” She snarls at him and I raise my hands , “No fighting , you’re both exhausted . Grab a shower and go sleep .” I demand , it’s nearly night and those two have been working day after day building their dream home .

I glance around , smiling at our home .

It’s not my dream home , but it’s better than what I had , it’s better than what I will ever have because this house is filled with love and soon it will be filled with baby things too .

Stefan suggested a baby shower and after he explained to Rosie and I what it was , we got excited about all the things .

We still didn’t have one because there’s just something going on each day , even if we don’t plan anything .

After Rosie and Stefan went upstairs , I continued to wait for Aiden to come back and he did , with six kids .

“Can you just deal with this ? I need a shower .” He grumbles when he walks in naked , not caring if the kids are looking at him .

They all line up in front of me and my eyes flick from left to right .

With them causing trouble , it’s like practicing for when my son comes .

“Sit , on the floor .” I demand and the four little ones do , but the two oldest ones don’t .

Two boys , just standing there all mighty .

“Sit !” I demand , my eyes darkening and they both drop to the floor , making me feel like I am winning .

“Why did you run ?” I ask annoyed that they are staring at my stomach .

I know it's big , but it is rude .

“Hello ?” I snap my fingers in front of my belly and their eyes lift to mine .

“We just followed our brothers .” The little girl mutters and I glance to the two boys , “Care to explain ?” I raise my brows and they shake their heads .

“So you had no reason to leave ? Then why run ? We are trying to help .” I snap a little too harshly .

“You are not our parents !” One of the eldest boys bellows at me and I stare at him wide eyed as his eyes glass over .

“I know , I could never be . No one can , but we do want to give you a better life .” I try to convince him to listen , but he just stares at the ground , the others do the same .

“We won't ever harm you , but you can not take your younger siblings with you out into the wild . If it were only you two , fine , because you look around sixteen , seventeen ? So it means you have your wolf , don't you ?” I ask , “We're eighteen and seventeen .” He boy murmurs , “Figured , but these four...” i glance at the four little ones holding each other's hands , “They aren't that lucky . They can not protect themselves and they can not leave here like you can . Or you can stay with them or you leave them behind , but neither I or Alpha Aiden will let you leave with them , got it ?” A low growl escapes me and their eyes flick up to me , nodding .

“Are you all in the same house ?”

“No .”

“Is that why you want to leave ?”

They nod and I get that they just want to be together .

“Then we will fix it. Just stay .” I hold out my hand to the little ones and the other hand to the older ones and they all stand , and so do I before I tug all of them into a group hug .

“We'll fix it , just talk to us . We aren't monsters .” I sigh and by the time Aiden comes back , it's all sorted and we're eating cookies while watching a show .

I expected another month , but here I am , weeks later , standing in the kitchen with liquid sliding down my thighs , joining the pool at my feet .

“Aiden !” I yell , knowing that he is coming down any minute , but when he doesn't answer , I mind link him .

‘It's time , get your a*s down here !’ I snap at him and the thudding of feet echoes through the house .

“Eleia ?” The horror in his tone makes me want to yell , I can't have him freaking out when I am freaking out .

“Mind link the doctor and tell her that we are on our way .” I mutter through deep breaths .

“Oh goddess ..” he scoops me up , his eyes glassing over as he carries me to the car and we carefully speed towards the hospital .

With my doctor doing to pelvic exam , I am trying my best not to lose my head over the pain shooting up and down my spine , my walls contacting , my body tearing apart just so that this baby can be born today , right now .

Four and a half months of carrying and growing a child and humans think that nine months aren't enough , if only they knew how we had it .

“Names , we don't have names .” I seethe as I crush Aiden's hand in mine .

I could tell I was hurting him , but he was forcing the most beautiful smile onto his face .

“You're doing great .” He smiles and when the contractions stop for just a minute , I can relax and breath .

“Oh , there's a head already .” The doctor gasps , “Nurse !” She yells through the open door and a whole team comes in .

“What ?” My eyes almost pop out .

“It’s time Luna , you’re doing great .” She smiles and before I could say anything , pain is everywhere and I scream once more , tears streaming down my cheeks .

“Come on , push !” The doctor encourages me , but my eyes lock on Aiden and he’s just smiling , holding my hand.

“I can’t..” I shake my head and his grip tightens on my hand , “You can and you will .”

After all the pain and the screaming , my body goes limp as a small cry fills the room .

“Congratulations to a healthy boy .” The doctor snips the cord before handing my boy to me .

Aiden stares at me with love and care before his eyes flick to the baby in my arms .

“He’s beautiful.” Aiden smiles and the nurses take him to clean him and put clothes on .

I lay exhausted , feeling like my body is dipped in acid .

“Water .” I breathe out and he grabs a glass , lifting my head as he helps me sip .

“You rest and I’ll wait for them to bring him back .” He drags his hand over my face and I nod before closing my eyes .

I jolt awake at the crying sound , afraid that I missed everything .

“Hey .” Aiden paces up and down in front of the bed I’m laying on , cradling the little bundle of joy .

“He just woke up .” He smiles , but not at me , at him .

“How long have I been asleep ?” I croak , gulping to wet my throat .

“Three hours . I know I should have woken you up , but you needed rest .” He shrugs , anger boiling in my chest .

“Can I hold him ?” I ask as I sit upright and he nods , “Of course , but he already loves me more .” He teases with a grin and I roll my eyes as he pads over and hands me my boy .

“We have to name him .” Aiden has his hands rested on the edge of the bed , leaning forward , his face close to mine , looking , hovering over the baby .

I feel like crying when I touch his hand and he holds my finger with his tiny ones .

“Oh my goddess .” I choke , sniffing as I try to blink the tears away , but it’s no use .

“He looks like a...” I inhale a deep breath as I take in his puffy features .

He’s so tiny and perfect .

“Ashton...no.” I exhale , shaking my head .

“Eric?” Aiden suggests , but my face scrunches up too fast for it to feel right .
“I don’t think so...”

“Felix?” My voice is a whisper , “I like that .” Aiden smiles and I glance up at him through my lashes , “Me too .”

“Felix Moon .” I continue and I grin as I look at Aiden , “Maybe we should give him your last name.. since I’m not really the father .” He shrugs and it makes sense , but it doesn’t mean it doesn’t break my heart to know that he doesn’t want to give Felix his last name .

“But I guess Moon is fine , once I adopt him as my own .” He smiles and my eyes light up .

“He’s ours ,no matter biology .” I take Aiden’s hand .

A day in the hospital was too long because Felix was getting checked and so was I , but when Aiden came to pick us up the next morning , he said he had a surprise .

He carried Felix up the stairs to our room and once we walked inside , I froze in awe .

“Aiden...” I breathe out in appreciation as my eyes glance over the corner that is painted blue , the beautiful white wooden crib that’s put together with toys dangling at the top , the changing station , everything I need , everything we need.

“When did you do this ?” Tears stream down my cheeks and for once , it’s happy ones .

Aiden places Felix in the crib , smiling at the little boy as he continues to sleep .

“Yesterday and last night , I had people get me everything and I put it all together last night with the help of Stefan and Rosie of course , they said they will come say hi tonight when they are done with their house . Seems like they’re moving out this week .” He smiles , striding over to me .

His arms snake around my waist as he pulls me closer to him , “You made a beautiful boy .” His nose nudges against mine playfully .

“How do you feel ?” His deep voice makes my insides twist and even if I want to say perfectly fine , I know I’m not .

“Still sore a bit unfortunately.” I sigh and he steps back , letting me go .

“That’s good , we can wait .” He leans in , kissing me lightly .

The baby starts to cry and I freeze , inhaling a deep breath as I stare at Aiden , “What do I do ?” My bottom lip trembles in fear and he glances at Felix before looking back at me , “Pick him up ?” He suggests , shrugging .

“I don’t know .” He scratches his nape as he turns to look at Felix once more .

With shaky legs , I walk over to him , picking up the bundle of crying , cradling him in my arms as I begin to pace , rocking him , but the crying gets worse .

“Maybe he’s hungry or has a diaper .” The panic in Aiden’s voice makes my blood run cold and I glance up at the roof as I take in a deep breath before walking over to the bed , laying Felix down .

He looks so tiny on the bed ..

Focus Eleia .

I check his diaper , which is full of poop .

“Oh gross .” She smell makes me ill and I pick him up , take him to the changing station and change his diaper .

He continues to cry and I go sit on the bed , breast feeding him until he quiets down and falls back asleep .

“That wasn’t too hard..” I sigh as he lays between Aiden and I .

“You’re a natural .” He grins, holding my hand .

I wouldn’t say that because I was freaking out the entire time , him sucking on my n*s was a pain because it physically hurt .

I fell asleep with Felix and when I woke up , he wasn’t in front of me .

I jolt up , finding Aiden sitting on the couch with him in his arms , smiling as he hums to Felix .

“You can’t do that .” I snap at him , “Do what ? I was just helping .” He shrugs , whispering in fear .

I know that fear , the fear of not wanting to wake up the baby .

“I know .” I drag my hands over my head , feeling all the bumps in my tied up hair .

“I need a shower .” I mutter as I pull the elastic from my hair .

“Then go , I got this .” Aiden smiles and the relief and annoyed feeling in my chest is leaving my mind a mess .

“Thanks .” I deadpan before walking into the bathroom .

After a minute ,the bathroom door opens and Aiden is fully naked , “I must say...” he grins out as he pads over to the shower , opening the door , “I did not like your tone .” He steps in , closing the door behind him .

“I don’t care .” I sigh as I wet my hair and he stands chest to chest with me .

“You should .” He tuts , staring down at me .

“I don’t.” I repeat and he rolls his neck before his hand grabs my nape , he keeps my head pulled back and his face inches closer .

“You’re going to apologise after this .” He grins before he lowers onto his knees .

“Aiden , I’m still...” my words are cut off as I gasp , feeling his tongue flick over me before he lifts one leg over his shoulder and then the other , burying his face in my cunt as he sucks and licks my clit , making me squirm and moan as he has my back pressed into the wall .

AIDEN’S POV

I never thought that I would love the little fella , but seeing him cradled in my mate’s arms is melting my heart , breaking down the walls I had built over years . It’s currently two am and Eleia and I are wide awake because Felix decided that he needed to eat and poop and cry for about an hour for no reason .

“Is he asleep ?” I ask in a mere whisper , hoping to not wake him up even though he sleeps through noise .

“Yeah .” Eleia’s smile is priceless as she stands with her arm rested on the edge of the crib , her other hand touching Felix , letting him know that she’s there with him and always will be .

“Come back to bed .” I mutter through a yawn and she hums .

I roll out of bed , standing and I softly walk over to her , finding her eyes shut as her head lays on her arm .

I smile , biting my tongue as I try my best not to laugh at how adorable she looks .

“Come on .” I scoop her up into my arms and her eyes ping open , “I’m awake .” She murmurs , her eyes narrowed , but I could tell she thought they were wide .

“Uh huh .”

I lay her down on the bed and she cuddles into me as soon as I lay down too .

This past week with her and Felix have been amazing , she’s getting the hang of his schedule , but there are some nights that he likes to change it up , leaving her exhausted so sometimes I take over .

Waking up with the sun shining into the room , it’s quiet , a little too quiet and it feels like something is missing .

I sit up , glancing at Eleia still passed out next to me , snoring lightly , her mouth hanging open .

I glance over at the time on the clock next to my bed as I stretch my arms above my head , seeing it’s eight and my eyes widen before I jolt up and rush over to the crib .

My heart sinks as I examine the empty crib and then I see a note .

I reach for it , wiping the sleep from my eyes before I read .

‘Calm your ts , you need rest , aunty Rosie is in the house and kidnapped Felix when he cried and neither of you woke up . Love Aunty Rosie and Uncle Stefan .’

Relief fills me and it’s like I am exhausted over again .

I yawn as I drag myself back to bed and I climb in , pulling Eleia to my chest .

“Is Felix awake ?” She murmurs with closed eyes and I chuckle , “Sort of , Rosie has him .” I grin and her eyes ping open , “What do you mean ?” The horrifying frown on her makes me want to crawl out of my skin and vanish .

“Apparently we were sleeping through the crying .” I raise my brows and Eleia sits up , glaring at me .

“Were you awake when she came in ?” The concern in her voice makes my stomach twist , “No , she left a note .” I frown.

“No..” her upper body twists and she glances at the time .

“Rosie wouldn’t even get up at eight if the house was burning , she wouldn’t hear Felix cry .” She tosses the duvet off her before jumping out of bed and she darts out the door .

I am hot on her trail and she doesn’t even knock before barging into Stefan’s room .

“Where’s Felix ?” Her hoarse voice makes my heart ache , fear making my body tremble as I stand in the door frame , seeing Rosie and Stefan asleep .

What the hell is going on ?

“Why would we have your child ?” Stefan sits up and Rosie frowns at her in confusion .

No , no , no...

Rosie slowly climbs off the bed , or I’m just seeing everything in slow motion .

“We’ll find him .” Stefan also gets up , not even caring that he’s naked and he tugs his shorts on .

“Mind link , everyone .” I demand before I announce to everyone that Felix has been taken .

A lot of people answer , saying that they are on it before I just turn , leaving Eleia with Rosie before I rush down the stairs , also wearing just shorts .

I arrive outside and the bodies that are being dragged towards my home makes my blood boil .

“What the hell ?” My arms raise in the air as I scream at them , my voice cracking .

“We don’t know sir .” The one mutters , “They were on the night shift and didn’t report anything .

I glance down at their cut throats , this wasn’t just a random attack , it was someone who planned this , someone who didn’t want to be seen and caught .

“Inform the families .” I turn , my entire body feeling like it’s about to shred apart in heartache .

Whoever killed these men , took our kid .

The moment Eleia steps out of the house , her eyes are swollen from crying , the whites of her eyes are red , her cheeks are stained with tear tracks and Rosie is holding her hand , also looking distraught as their eyes look past me at the dead bodies .

“Did you find him ?” She croaks out and I hate to crash her hopes .

I can’t speak , my mouth can not even form the words so I shake my head and she turns to Rosie , burying her face into her best friend .

How did we not wake up ?

How did they get into the house ?

How did they sneak past everyone ?

How did I not smell them ?

How did I sleep that late ?

My body feels like collapsing and I can’t even imagine what my mate is feeling because she’s completely shut off .

I stride towards her , pulling her towards me by her shoulders , “We’ll find him .” I comfort her , but it feels like a lie .

I have no clue where to start , I don’t know who would want to steal him .

The entire night pack is deceased , Regan’s parents are dead , his mate is gone , he is gone...

They must want something...

Holding my mate in my arms , she’s trembling , sobbing and her heart breaking cries makes me want to murder everyone .

“Take her for a walk .” I hand her to Rosie as I stare at Stefan standing in the door with a knowing look .

Once they walk , I follow him inside and he crosses his arms , staring at me with a serious expression .

“Spit it out .” I snap impatiently .

“We don’t sleep this late .” He points out the obvious .

“I was up most of the night with Eleia and Felix..” , “I don’t sleep this late .” He interrupts , “And I had no one keeping me up .” His jaw rolls before tensing .

“Rosie and I have been getting up at six every morning , no matter how late we went to bed because our alarms wake us .” His tongue glides over the top row of his teeth .

I don’t know what he’s getting at , but I don’t like it .

I have never , ever , seen him this serious .

“Close the door .” He nods his head to behind me , “Why ?” I frown , “Just do it .” He snaps and I kick the door shut behind me , “Now , the windows are closed because we keep the air on for Felix .” He points out .

“Yes and ?” I raise a questionable brow .

“Inhale , deeply .”

My eyes narrow before I inhale a deep breath , but I start to choke on the air , coughing loudly .

“Exactly .” He tuts before rounding me and opening the door .

“No .” I slam the door shut , “We need this house to be tested .”

I mind link the scientist before running up the stairs , focusing on smelling whatever is in the air .

The stench of poison leads me to the vents that is connected to every room in this house and Stefan stays in the door .

“If you shut it off now , it will stop circulating .” He mutters and my jaw tenses .

We were poisoned by air , making us sleep...

“Who would do this ?” I sigh , sitting on the couch as I feel light headed .

“No clue , but they are smart .”

I growl at his comment , not because he’s wrong , but because he’s right .

I hate it because if a person is this smart , to knock us out while we’re asleep , how are we suppose to outsmart them ?

“All we can do is wait for the results of the tests .” He sighs , joining me and we both stare out of the window , “I hate funerals and now we have at least a dozen holes to dig again .” I grumble , hating that my warriors died and I didn’t even know because I was drugged .

“Do you think someone survived ?”

My jaw ticks at the thought , but it’s impossible because we made sure everyone was dead . Even the Luna , who did not deserve it , but she had a choice and made her bed .

“No . It has to be someone else.. outside of the pack...”

My head lols back against the back rest of the couch , “But when I find out who the hell it is... They will die like the rest of the Night Pack , but slower and a lot more painful...”
