

Chapter 8

Be Quiet. I want to Sleep

Dawn thought they would stay for a night or two, but seeing how she fell unconscious and her unwillingness to be with him, alpha Zenith decided to leave. He didn't even drink a drop of water nor he saw the room that had been prepared for him.

Meanwhile, in Dawn's mind she would use this time to convince this alpha to let her go, since she didn't want to be mated with him. How wrong and naïve she was, because the moment she opened her eyes, she was about to be taken away from her pack without a proper goodbye.

But then, whose deserved her farewell? All the people she called family and even her ex-mate were an asshole!

And now, Blake tried to stop her by fighting alpha Zenith. She hoped this big, scary alpha would give him a permanent scar or two! Dawn would be grateful! Despite the thought of Blake was being hurt still didn't sit well with her.

Dang the mate bond! It seemed, there was still remaining feeling there.

However, even a blind people could see how Blake was not a match for the alpha from the north. The difference of their strength was appalling!

As the first son of the beta of the pack, Blake was by no mean shabby at all. He had gone through harsh training like the other warrior in this pack. You could say, he was one of the best warriors they had currently.

But it seemed, the alpha from the north was built differently. He managed to tackle Blake down in three moves. Dawn's father and the beta had not yet intervened when the fight had stopped and with a strong Intimidation, alpha zenith managed to force Blake to shift back into his human form, which shock them all, where after that, came the humiliation.

Blake growled threateningly at alpha zenith, but beta Jason immediately stopped his son, where it was a good decision, because everyone could see how easy the alpha was capable of killing Blake.

Thankfully, things were not escalated and alpha Zenith didn't pursue this matter further.

"Handle your son, I don't use to let my attacker live." Alpha Zenith was not playing with what he said.

And after that he turned around, paid no mind to the crazy Blake, who kept trying to get away from his father.

"Shut up!" Alpha Tony roared angrily at Blake. "Take away your son from here!" He lost his patient and beta Jason immediately dragged Blake away, while he cried for Dawn.

This scene was pretty embarrassing, even Emily felt humiliated. Not only Blake lost to alpha zenith within a few second, but he also cried for another woman in front of the woman, who currently pregnant with his flesh and blood.

"Dawn, please! Please don't leave with him! I don't accept the rejection! I don't accept it!" Blake was still fighting against his father when he was being dragged away.

Needed two more warriors to stop him and took him away from there.

"Please, forgive me! I am sorry, Dawn. I am so sorry! I didn't mean to hurt you! That's never be my intention!" Blake cried so hard.

This was the first time for Dawn to see him like that. There was this uncomfortable feeling that she felt, it would take time to really dear her feeling from him. No matter what, they had been together for years and she thought, they would be together forever. He was the person that Dawn thought of growing old together with and his betrayal shattered everything she believed.

"Are you going to stay here?" Alpha Zenith stood in front of Dawn, blocking her view from looking at Blake.

For a second, Dawn forgot about her heartbreak, because her mind was being distracted by how tall and big this alpha from the north!

However, what distracted her the most when she lifted her head was; his face!

Heaven!

Dawn must have been very sick earlier not to notice him! He was ... very handsome! Was he even real? God must be very bias when he created this man!

His chiseled jaw, his pointed nose, his clear blue eyes... looking into those eyes felt like staring at deep ocean! His short hair was a little bit curly, which looked so cute, but then his intimidating presence making the word 'cute' sounded like an insult instead.

"Have you done ogling at me?" Alpha Zenith asked, his voice was deep and demanding.

Dawn knew that every alpha would have this strong, intimidating presence, but there was something more about this alpha from the north. Something dangerous and... thrilling.

"Yes," Dawn replied sheepishly because she was being caught red handed ogling at him. she lowered her head.

"Good." Alpha Zenith nodded at the carriage behind her back. "Get inside. We are leaving now."

Probably, because she was too embarrassed, or maybe slightly afraid of this alpha, Dawn immediately climbed into the carriage without protest.

Dawn glanced at her father, but he didn't even look at her, he had his head hang so low. It was clear for her now that she had no place in this pack anymore.

Gritting her teeth, Dawn stilled her heart.

"Can I see her some time?" Alpha Tony asked, once Dawn entered the carriage.

"After you tried to trick me by giving your stepdaughter? I don't think so."
Zenith didn't stay for long and entered the carriage.

Inside the carriage, Dawn was sitting silently, but when it started moving, she looked at the alpha with confusion. "We are ridding the same carriage?" Dawn thought he would ride different carriage, because this one didn't look fancy, something that suited his status as an alpha.

Alpha Zenith glanced at her. "Do you want to walk until my pack?"

Dawn pursed her lips. "No."

"Be quiet. I want to sleep."

Dawn was right with one theory if you had a good face and body, your personality must be questionable. This man was too perfect to have a good personality
