chapter 35

Sylvia landed lightly, and then fought with him.

After Sylvia launched dozens of attacks upon Henry, Henry was hurt badly. Sylvia, on the contrary, was fine.

Henry, like the audience off the stage, thought he could beat this woman with no effort.

But now he had to admit that this woman was very strong!

He needed to win. He couldn't lose to a woman, which would humiliate him.

He suddenly jumped up and grabbed her waist with both hands, trying to slam her to the ground.

Sylvia clasped her hands around his neck. She was still calm.

Her hands were around his neck like pincers. He felt it hard to breathe.

His eyes widened with horror and he did not doubt that the next moment this woman would break his neck.

He roared like a wild animal with his strong desire to live.

He threw Sylvia away instantly with all his strength.

She fell heavily on the ring with a thud. But her moves were still perfect as if she couldn't feel the pain.

The audience felt as if they were watching an action movie.

Henry regained his freedom, gasping for air, and before he could react, he was kicked.

He, six feet tall, and 230 pounds, was kicked out of the ring so easily, and people had barely time to avoid him.

He fell unconscious on the spot, blood gushing out continuously from his mouth.

Paramedics rushed over to help him up.

Franklin stared at the familiar figure in the ring.

His heart rate jumped up and down like he was on a roller coaster.

Thank God he was young, or he would have had a heart attack.

'Sylvia, what are you? How many more secrets did you hide from me? How could you fight like that?' He thought to himself.

Everyone started to cheer!

"Amber! Amber!"

"She's really Amber!"

“She won!”

“Did you see that? That kick was great!”

“Awesome! Sorry, I’m about to cry! Her moves were so smooth as if she was a superwoman in a movie.”

“Oh, I didn’t expect Amber to be a woman. My idol is indeed unique.”

Many of Amber’s fans started crying and even bowing to her to apologize for their previous doubts and misunderstandings.

While those rich people who were watching the live streaming started to give tips online.

They knew that some of the money they tip would be given to their idol, so they spent a lot of money.

“It is worth it to see Amber’s boxing match again.”

“Amber, marry me, please!”

“Amber, take me with you! I’m rich. I’ll give you anything you want and take good care of you.”

“Can you take off your mask and let me see your face?”

The world’s wealthiest people went crazy.

They wanted to leave everything behind and rush over to see her.

Their comments scrolled on the big screen next to the ring.

The judge declared Amber the winner.

The spectators were shocked by the result.

Jaden and his men were shocked as well but for a completely different reason.

They were afraid that Sylvia would kill them since they knew such a big secret.

She was Amber, who got so much admiration from those rich men.

Would she kill them to keep their mouths shut? They were so scared.

Sylvia was about to leave the stage when the door leading from backstage to the ring was opened. A tall, handsome Evodroupolian, rushed out.

He stretched out his arms and hugged her while he was shouting with excitement, “Amber!”

“Amber! It’s you, it’s really you! You’re not dead! I’m so happy now.”

Some spectators recognized that this man was Kasper Burke, the owner of this underground boxing, who was a typical native Iqethi with a charming face.

He was not only the boss of this place but also the leader of the mafia.

Franklin stared at Kasper's hands. He recognized this man as well, thinking 'Why was he so close to Sylvia? He hugged her in public. Even I have never done this before. How can this woman flirt with men wherever she goes?'

He took a deep breath but failed to suppress his anger, feeling that his concerns seemed ridiculous.

He wanted to throw a punch at Kasper.

The spectators were stunned.

Kasper! He was legendary in Iqethi. No one would dare to question Amber's identity since he came out and said she was Amber.

It seemed that Kasper was on good terms with Amber.

Those who questioned Amber's identity before were proved to be wrong and felt embarrassed.

Some people started taking pictures of Amber because they didn't know when she would come out again after this time. If it wasn't for the turf battle between the Mafia and the Dark, Amber wouldn't have appeared.

Wait. So, did Amber work for the Dark? Or did she know someone at the Dark?

Kasper hugged Sylvia tightly and Sylvia got uncomfortable. She was not used to being so close to other men.

"Let go of me first, Kasper," Sylvia said coldly. Kasper hurriedly let go of her.

"I can't believe it was you when my men told me. I thought I was dreaming. Where have you been? Since you are still alive, why have you never come to me?"
