

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 1071-1080

Chapter 1071

"Well, George, you never thought I'd have backup, did you? I've already allied with the Fields—otherwise, why would I dare to attack Leon and risk going against you—the Collins?" Harold cackled.

"Harold, you crook!" George's heart sank as he took in a deep breath. He was in such a rush that he only managed to bring a dozen or so martial artists with him, but the Fields were different—they brought most, if not all, of their best fighters with them! Besides Walter, another one of the Fields' master martial artists, Denzel, who was also at the Overlord State, joined the battle, along with a few other warriors at the Semi Overlord State.

With the Fields, Harold, and Melvin combining forces, the three of them could easily take down any of the major families in Springfield City!

Even if George brought all of the Collins' best fighters along with him, they still would not be a match for Harold at all!

There was no doubt who would be the winner in this battle!

"Thank you, George! I'll give you another chance—be smart and stand aside, and if you do so, I might consider showing you mercy, but if you don't, you're just asking for it!" Harold sneered as he threatened them. Even though his side was indeed at a power advantage, the Collins' were still not people he wanted to cross, especially George. He already attained the Intermediate Overlord State and was certainly not an easy opponent.

Therefore, it would be better if George and the rest of the Collins could stay out of this!

George's expression was dark. He ignored Harvey's threat entirely and instead turned to stare at Walter. Old Walter, are you sure you want to be on Harold's side and make the Collins your enemy?"

Tl

"Of course! That Leon Wolf has crossed us many times and even crippled my grandson, Theodore. Today, I'll kill him and avenge my Theodore!" Walter paused, then continued curtly, "Old Collins, don't say I never warned you, but if you insist on protecting Leon Wolf after this, I won't cease until I drag you down with him, even if it kills me!"

"You—" George's heart sank at this. He knew that Walter meant this, and with the Fields' power, combined with Harold, Melvin, and the rest, he would be no match for them at all, no matter how powerful the Collins were!

The only way out of this was if a miracle happened!

"Oh no!" Neither Albert nor Gilbert could smile at this. They initially hoped that the Collins could rid them of Harold and allow them to return to the Youngs, but now, with the Fields joining, the Collins would not even be able to protect themselves, much less them!

The small glimmer of hope that ignited within them was instantly dissipated. However, they were not the only ones disappointed -Iris and Ruth were just as distraught, especially Iris. She knew that Leon's power was limited, and even Harold alone would be able to defeat him easily, much less with the Fields' combined forces! If her guesses were correct, there was no way Leon would walk out of this alive! One could only imagine the distress she felt!

Chapter 1072

"Leon, the others and I will help you fend them off, and you take Jacob hostage, then try to find a way to escape with Ruth and Iris," George instructed in a low voice. Not only were Leon and the Collins working hand in hand, but Leon even risked his life to sneak into the Youngs and rescue Ruth from Jacob!

Therefore, there was no way George could stand by and watch idly when Leon fell into Harold and the Fields' hands!

Fortunately, Leon managed to capture Jacob, God knows how!

With Jacob as a hostage, and with George, who was already at the Intermediate Overlord state, leading the rest of the Collins' martial artists, they could fend off the opposition momentarily, and Leon would have a chance to escape with the two women!

Once Leon got to safety, there would be plenty of time for him and the Collins to come up with a plan to take revenge!

"There's no need to escape! Don't worry, Elder Collins, I'll take care of Harold and the Fields. You just have to help me with one thing—keep an eye on Iris!" Leon replied calmly.

"What? You're going to take on Harold and the Fields by yourself? Leon, have you gone insane?" George could not believe his ears. Not even he dared to challenge Harold and the Fields on his own, yet Leon, who was only at the Peak Supreme State, dared to do so!

Only an idiot would place so much trust in him!

"I'm not insane! The Fields have tried to assassinate me numerous times, and I've been wanting to take revenge on them! Since they've shown up right on my doorstep, I'll gladly fulfill their death wish!" Leon sneered. follow Alaniniz(dot)com For Latest Update Both Harold and the Fields were his mortal enemies, and he intended to take on the Fields after he defeated Harold, but lo and behold, the Fields showed up of their own accord.

This was exactly what he wanted!

He would seize this opportunity to defeat the Fields once and for all!

"You!" George was unsure whether to cry or laugh at this. He knew of Leon's situation, but he still could not understand what gave Leon the courage to take on both Harold and the Fields at the same time.

"Leon, please wake up, snap out of this!" both Iris and Ruth were outraged by this, especially Ruth. When Leon first caught hold of Jacob, she advised him numerous times to escape while he could, taking Jacob hostage, but not only did Leon ignore her, he even declared that he would not rest until he killed Harold!

Not only that, but now that the Fields joined in, he wanted to take them on at the same time!

What was wrong with this man? If it were not for the fact that she could not match up to Leon physically at all, she would have cracked his skull apart by now to see what was wrong with his brain!

“Escape? Not so fast!” seeing that Leon and George were whispering amongst each other, Harold realized something was amiss and gestured at his subordinates. All of a sudden, all the fighters from the Lowes, Youngs, and Fields surrounded Leon, blocking all his paths of escape.

“Leon, you idiot! You wasted the perfect opportunity to escape,” George was so frustrated that his entire face turned red, and there was nothing he wanted more than to slap Leon at this moment.

If Leon listened to him and escaped before Harold or the Fields could realize what was going on, he, as well as Ruth and Iris, would be safe by now.

Chapter 1073

However, now, Harold already blocked off all their escape routes, and Leon would never be able to run away even if he wanted to!

“Let me warn you, Leon Wolf—let go of my son right now, or else I’ll make sure you, Iris, and the rest of her family die alongside him!” Harold snapped, his expression ruthless.

“Let go of Jacob? In your dreams! I’ve already told you—I will kill your son right before your eyes so that you’ll be able to taste for yourself just how it feels to lose a loved one! I’m a man of my word!” Leon scoffed as he lifted Jacob off the ground by his neck.

“Don’t you dare, Leon Wolf! If you do so, my father will rip you into shreds!” Jacob exclaimed, writhing as he gazed at Leon with a look of pure hatred. Now that Harold and the Fields were at a clear advantage, Jacob grew even more confident that Leon would not dare to hurt him. he was not an idiot, after all!

He had nothing to worry about!

“You’ll find out soon enough! You bastard—not only did you almost kill Louisa, but you even attempted to assault Iris and Ruth. I’ll let you have a taste of your own medicine, and I will avenge all of them! Die, you bastard!” the more Leon spoke, the more furious he got, and the look in his eyes grew even colder.

With that, he suddenly reached out and landed a punch squarely in the middle of Jacob’s chest, where his true energy penetrated right through his flesh, leaving behind a hole the exact size of Leon’s fist and killing Jacob almost instantly.

Jacob widened his eyes in shock and stared down at the bloody hole in his chest, then crumpled to the ground in a heap, limp and lifeless.

Even until the last moment before his death, he was still in disbelief that Leon dared to kill him!

“How...how can this be?” everyone was stunned by this. No one ever expected, not even in their wildest dreams, that Leon would dare to kill Jacob, knowing what a disadvantageous position he was in right now!

Everyone was utterly stunned by Leon's courageous behavior, one that some would even call manic!

"Leon, have you gone insane..." George, Ruth, and the rest were frozen in shock. Now that they were surrounded by Harold's men, Jacob was their only ticket to safety, and as long as Leon continued to take Jacob hostage, Harold would refrain from attacking, and they stood a chance of escaping!

However, now, Leon killed Jacob, their one and only piece of hope!

What idiotic behavior was this? Jacob was Harold's son, and now that he was killed, there was no doubt Harold would take revenge on them! When that happened, not only would Leon and Iris taste his wrath, but the Collins would inevitably get involved as well!

One could only imagine the despair in George and Albert's hearts.

"Leon Wolf, you wretched punk! I'm going to kill you, and spill your remains all over this earth!" Harold shrieked in horror, his eyes almost bursting out of his head in anger. He lost all his rationality and immediately stormed toward Leon, raising his fist in a stance so powerful it stirred up the air around them.

The menace in his entire being seemed to tower above him, as though he was determined to split Leon right in half!

"Leon, I'll help you fend Harold off first. You escape with Ruth and Iris."

Chapter 1074

George let out a cry, then sent out a punch in retaliation straight toward Harold without a second thought.

"Old George, you should be fighting us instead!" Walter scoffed. He and Denzel sprang into action, leaping right into George's path.

"Leon, what are you standing there for? Run!" Ruth screamed in frustration, then reached out to grab hold of Leon, but he did not budge.

"Harold, now that Jacob's dead, you're next!" a glimmer of malice flashed through Leon's eyes and he sprinted straight toward Harold, his arm cocked back in a fist.

"Die, you twat!" Harold yelled with bloodshot eyes. He knew that Leon was only at the Peak Supreme State and could never withstand his Thunder Strike!

Now that Leon willingly stepped up to the battle, this was exactly what Harold wanted. He immediately channeled more power into his fist, intending to kill Leon once and for all!

"Leon, you idiot!" George almost exploded in anger at this sight. He risked everything to save Leon, even at expense of his family, in hopes that Leon would escape with Ruth and Iris, but not only did he fail to do so, but he was also even attempting to rise to the battle against Harold, even though he was only at the Peak Supreme State! Did this man have a death wish?

George wanted to help Leon as much as he could, but unfortunately, Walter and Denzel combined were barely enough for him to handle, and he could not possibly tear himself away from fighting these two to help Leon instead.

"Oh no, Leon's going to die," Albert and Gilbert's hearts sank at this. They both knew that Leon was no match for Harold at all and could not possibly withstand his attacks! There was no doubt Leon would not be able to survive this!

If Leon died, their, and even the Collins' fate would not be a good one.

"Leon, why are you so stupid? How on earth am I going to continue living if you die," Iris's face was pale and her body quivered in fear. Her entire heart was filled with despair at the thought of losing Leon!

"Your Majesty, kill that bastard!"

"Tear him into shreds and avenge our Young Master!"

The rest of the Lowes cheered as they watched on, their eyes ablaze with rage and hatred.

The Youngs and the Fields were doing the same—they were staring at Leon with looks so cold they could kill, and none of them believed that Leon could withstand Harold's attack at all unless there was a miracle!

"Thud—"

Leon's punch collided with Harold's in a manner that shook the ground, and then—a miracle happened.

Leon's true energy burst through Harold's punch, tearing his energy apart and striking him squarely in the middle of his chest.

Harold spat out three mouthfuls of blood, and his entire body was propelled backward like a kite that lost its string, flying backward until he finally crumpled in a heap a few feet away.

An excruciating pain shot through his entire body. He could feel that at least five or six of his ribs were broken from the impact, and he suffered substantial internal bleeding.

"How's this possible?" both Ruth and Iris were stunned by this.

George and Albert's jaws dropped.

Everyone, including the Youngs, the Fields, and the Lowes, were stunned by this.

Chapter 1075

Neither of them ever thought, not even in their wildest dreams, that not only would Leon survive Harold's attack, he even managed to injure him instead!

Harold already attained the Overlord State, and yet he fell victim to Leon!

One could only imagine the immense shock everyone was experiencing now!

The entire place fell into an eerie silence.

Even George, Walter, and Denzel, who were engaged in combat up until now, stopped to stare in Leon's direction, unable to believe their eyes.

"Harold, are you okay?" Daisy was the first to break out of her stupor. She quickly sprung into action and quickly helped Harold up.

"This isn't possible!" Harold staggered to his feet, trying to stifle the pain in his chest.

Despite managing to get back on his feet, he felt as though his entire mind was stirred upside down by this.

He could not believe that he, a warrior in the Initial Overlord State, lost to Leon!

This was unbelievable!

Harold found it difficult to accept his fact.

However, on second thought, he finally put two and two together.

"Leon, you're only at the Peak Supreme State, so could you have defeated me so easily? Could you already have attained the Overlord State?" Harold's face was distraught at this realization.

The fact that Leon could defeat him meant that he was probably more powerful than him, and probably already attained the Overlord State!

However, this was not the point. The point was, just a few days ago, when he ambushed Leon, Harold sensed that Leon's power level was only at the Peak Supreme State and was yet to even reach the Semi Overlord State!

When he attacked Leon at that time, not only did he manage to break one of Leon's arms, but even almost killed him!

If George did not interfere, Leon would have been dead by now!

However, just a few days passed, and yet Leon seemed to have crossed two power levels and attained the Overlord State!

One could only imagine Harold's disbelief.

Harold's statement made everyone erupt into a flurry of activity.

"What?"

"It turns out Leon Wolf already attained the Overlord State. It's no wonder he managed to defeat the Northern King!"

"But how old is he? He's probably in his mid-twenties, yet he's already attained the Overlord State. This is frightening to think about!"

Everyone was utterly shocked by this.

One could count the number of martial artists who attained the Overlord State in Springfield City on one hand, and all of them were members of an elite society!

Some time ago, Harold managed to attain the Overlord State just before Vincent, and was one of the youngest people in Springfield City to do so! This was an impressive feat that not many people his age could achieve!

However, Leon was less than twice his age, and yet he already attained the Overlord State, and even defeated Harold!

The legendary Northern King, Harold Lowe, who possessed outstanding martial arts prowess and was one of the youngest of his generation to attain the Overlord State, was defeated by none other than Leon Wolf!

How could one not be shocked by this?

Not only that, but the heads of the four major families were the most powerful people in Springfield City, and apart from Albert, who was already crippled, the remainder of the four—George, Walter, and Benedict only attained the Intermediate Overlord States!

Chapter 1076

If Leon managed to attain the Overlord State at such a young age, there was no limit as to what he could achieve if he had more time!

It would not be long before he attained the Intermediate Overlord State and even surpass the three of them In his martial arts trainin

If that happened, not only would he be the youngest person in the entire Springfield City history to do so, but he would no doubt dominate the entire city!

This was an impressive and scary feat!

"That's good, that's good! Leon, you've already attained the Overlord State. I'm proud of you!” Iris was over the moon to hear this. She wrapped her arms around Leon’s elbow, utterly shaken by ecstasy.

All her despair and distress dissipated at this realization. The truth was, just the night before, Leon made it clear to her that he would be able to attain a new level in his martial arts training in a month, and then he would be able to help her return to her family!

However, because a month seemed too short of a time to achieve all this, she was convinced that Leon was either overestimating himself, or was just trying to make her feel better, but it turned out she was wrong- Leon managed to attain the Overlord State overnight!

One could only imagine the delight Iris felt over this!

“Leon, how’d you do this?” Ruth stared at him dazedly.

She crossed paths with Leon when she tried to learn the Mysterious Maiden Method in secret, and at that time, Leon was only at the Intermediate Supreme State, yet he managed to attain the Peak Supreme State a few days ago when they were ambushed by Harold!

Now, just a few days passed, and he already reached the Overlord State.

This was unbelievable!

Ruth was always proud of her martial arts talent and was convinced that no one else in Springfield city was a quicker learner than her. Not even Harvey or Anson could compare to her!

However, ever since she met Leon, everything changed—she turned out to be nothing more than a naive little girl in front of him.

To level up as quickly as possible, she stole the Mysterious Maiden Method from Leon and then took the Pure Energy Pill from him, which in combination managed to help her attain the Advanced Supreme State!

She could not believe how easily Leon managed to attain all of this—and at breakneck speed, too.

Ruth could not help starting to doubt herself.

“I can’t believe Leon attained the Overlord State!”

“Am I dreaming or what?”

Albert and Gilbert were both utterly stunned by this, especially Gilbert. He looked down on Leon for being an orphan with nothing under his name, which led him to forcibly break Leon and Iris up..

Chapter 1077

“So what if he’s at the Overlord State?”

“Leon Wolf, you killed my son, and today, I’m going to scatter your remains!” Harold’s gaze was filled with hatred.

“You? Don’t make a fool out of yourself!” Leon scoffed, taking no notice of Harold’s threat at all.

“Don’t be so cocky, Leon Wolf! Even though you’ve already attained the Overlord State, we still have plenty of other martial artists who have already attained the Overlord and Semi Overlord States here! No matter how powerful you are, there’s no way you’ll walk out of here alive!” Harold said with a dark expression as he finally regained his composure.

“Um,” George, Iris, and the others’ smiles froze on their faces when they heard this. They knew that Harold was right— apart from Harold, he still had Walter, Denzel, and Melvin with him, who were all warriors of the Overlord State as well. Not only that, but he had a dozen or so martial artists who attained the Semi Overlord State and plenty of others who were members of the realm of Supreme Masters!

Leon’s side, however, had only George and Leon himself running the show, and the rest were mediocre fighters. They were overpowered in both number and power, by a significant margin!

It was clear who would be the winner of the day’s fight!

“Leon, I’ll help you fend off Walter, while you escape with Ruth and Iris,” George said. He knew that members of the Overlord State were not to be messed up, and even though he and Leon could not match up against Harold at all, Leon still stood a chance of escaping.

Walter was the only one capable of stopping Leon from escaping!

Leon was utterly speechless by this. He already made it clear that he would not run away, yet George still tried to make him do so!

He did not know whether to cry or laugh at this.

“You want to escape? Not so fast!” a glimmer of menace flashed through Walter’s eyes as he swept his arm back, bringing it down in a powerful punch that was headed straight toward Leon at breakneck speed.

Leon was not only Harold’s nemesis, but an enemy of the Fields as well, and now that Harold was defeated and had no way of fighting Leon, Walter would take over!

“You should be fighting me, Old Walter!” George sneered and countered Walter’s attack with a spinning move. Not only did he manage to fend off Walter’s punch, but he even managed to drag Denzel into his tornado and prevent him from getting close to Leon at all.

“Rats!” Both Walter and Denzel were utterly annoyed by this. They tried to stop George just now, but now, the tables turned and George fended them off instead!

Since George was already at the Intermediate Overlord State, they were preoccupied with fighting him and could not possibly be distracted by trying to attack Leon at all.

“Master Young, please send your men out. Don’t let that wretched Leon escape!” Harold was worried that Leon would attempt to escape during this mess and quickly asked Melvin for help.

Since Leon’s attack crippled him badly, there was no way Harold could fight Leon head-on, and had no choice but to place his hope on Melvin and the rest.

“Um,” Melvin hesitated. Even though he promised to help Harold defeat Leon together, he still could not help thinking twice, knowing that Leon already attained the Overlord State.

Chapter 1078

After all, a warrior of the Overlord State was not an easy opponent to go up against in battle, and Leon was still young and thus had plenty of potential for his future!

If he continued to go against Leon, there was the risk of Leon surviving and coming back to get revenge on them once he gained power in the future!

“Master Young, are you worried that the rest of the Youngs won’t be able to match up against Leon? Don’t worry-he’s only just attained the Overlord State, and the reason I lost to him was because I still carried some old injuries from my previous fight, and I severely underestimated him! he’s all of his own, and with the help of your fellow martial artists, you can defeat him easily!” Harold added. He was not an idiot, and could easily deduce that since Leon just attained the Overlord State, there was no doubt he was yet to gain full control over his powers and was thus vulnerable.

However, the last time he ambushed Leon, he suffered serious injuries as a result of George’s attacks and was yet to fully recover from them. Therefore, he was convinced that this was the reason he lost to Leon- after all, Leon was at the same power level as he was, and there was no way he would lose to him!

“But,” Melvin was still a little worried. He knew that Leon just attained the Overlord State, and he could easily defeat Leon, considering he was at the Overlord State for some time now, and he had the rest of the Youngs by his side, but he did not think it was worth the risk!

“No buts! Master Young, if you help me kill Leon, I’ll return all of Young Group’s shares to you!” Harold declared, trying to make his offer even more attractive.

He was convinced that Melvin would eventually relent at this!

“What? Do you mean it?” an expression of delight crossed Melvin’s face and he immediately began to contemplate this.

Harold previously promised to return only half of the Young Group’s shares, and keep the remainder for himself. This would pose limitations on the Youngs’ power, but now that Harold was willing to give back all of the Young Group’s shares, this was no doubt good news!

Melvin would be able to reclaim the Youngs’ power as long as he agreed to help Harold!

“Yes, I mean it!” Harold nodded.

“Alright, I’ll do it!” Melvin finally relented. Then, with a sweep of his arm, the Youngs charged toward Leon with Melvin in the lead.

Both Albert and Gilbert were exasperated by this.

“Melvin, did you get kicked in the head by a donkey? I can’t believe you’re still willing to help Harold fight us at this stage!” Albert screamed.

“Albert, I’m sorry, but I’m doing this all for the sake of our family’s blood, sweat, and tears,” Melvin replied, sighing.

“You!” Albert was so outraged his entire face turned scarlet, but there was nothing he could do about this.

Leon watched in silence all this while, but finally could not help interfering. “Master Young, seeing that you’re Iris’s great-uncle, I’m going to give you one last chance. If you’re smart enough to wake up to your mistake right now, you’ll join my forces against Harold. When I kill him, I will be able to help you take back what’s rightfully yours!

“However, if you insist on helping the wrong party, I won’t show you any mercy!”

Chapter 1079

Leon’s tone was as cold as ice.

Seeing that Melvin was still Iris’s relative after all, he finally decided to give them another chance, and this was the last act of kindness he could offer to them!

“Well, I guess you’re right!” Melvin realized that Leon was right. If Leon managed to get rid of Harold as he promised, the Youngs would easily be able to reclaim everything that was theirs!

Since then, why did he need to help Harold defeat Leon? This would just be wasting his time and energy!

Seeing that Melvin began to get swayed, Harold quickly added, “Master Young, don’t believe any of Leon Wolf’s lies! Have you forgotten that you’ve been trying to kill him since the beginning? Do you think he’ll forgive you so easily once he rises to power?”

“Um,” Melvin was speechless at this. He knew that Harold was right; he attempted to kill Leon many times. In the past, including the last time Harold tried to ambush Leon. It was Melvin’s son, Jonah, who tricked

Gilbert and Leon into this and even almost killed him and Iris!

Considering how deep their vengeance ran, Leon would never be able to forgive and forget so easily!

“Master Young, think about this; the Fields and the Lowes have so many people on our side, and even if you chose to go over to his side, there’s nothing I’d be able to do about it, but so what if you do, and he ends up killing me? With his help, he would surely reclaim the Youngs’ property and give it back to Gilbert and Albert why would he be helping you instead? You’re not even the direct descendant of the Youngs!” Harold sneered.

Melvin fell silent upon hearing this. Even though Leon defeated Harold, neither the Lowes nor the Fields would let this go so easily. Even if he chose to go over to Leon’s side, this would only result in their opposing forces becoming equal in number and power, and there was no guarantee Leon would even win!

Not only that, but he already betrayed Albert and the rest by choosing to stand by Harold’s side, and there was no turning back now!

If he did not try his best to kill Leon, there was no telling what Leon would do to him once he gained power!

“Father, the Northern King is right! Leon is at a disadvantage now, and he’s just trying to drive a wedge between us and the Lowes. Don’t fall for his tricks!” Jonah said. He knew that if Leon won, not only would he take revenge on Jonah and the others, but Leon would never do as he promised!

Even though it was well in his meaning to reclaim the Youngs' rightful property, he would never stand on Leon's side!

"You're right! I should never trust him!" Melvin took in a deep breath and finally came to a decision.

"That's splendid! You are wise, Master Young!" Harold could not help chuckling when he heard this.

"You fool!" Leon was outraged to hear this. He never thought that Melvin would be so foolish as to insist on helping Harold defeat him at a time like this!

What an idiot!

"Shut up, Leon, and we'll see who's laughing at the end!"

Chapter 1080

Melvin scoffed.

Then, without another word, he took lead and charged toward Leon at breakneck speed

The rest of the Youngs did not hesitate and immediately followed behind him, sprinting toward Leon, braced for combat.

"Well, you asked for it!" Leon sneered. He gave Melvin plenty of chances, but Melvin failed to see this, and whatever he chose was outside of Leon's control!

However, Melvin and the rest of the Youngs were not easy opponents. When he saw them charging toward him so ferociously, he did not try to retaliate and instead dodged their attacks.

As he did so, he surreptitiously channeled his spiritual energy in his palms, in preparation to unleash his Double Attack when they least expected it!

“Leon, why aren’t you escaping?” George, who was engaged in combat against Walter and Denzel all this while, finally realized what was going on. He glanced in Leon’s direction, and his face turned pale when he realized not only did Leon not escape while he could, he even chose to engage in battle against the Youngs!

“Elder Collins, I’ve already told you— I’ll never run away from this! I don’t care if it’s Harold, the Youngs, or the Fields I’m up against; no matter who it is, I’m going to make them pay for being so stupid!” Leon sneered and finally unleashed all the power he channeled in his palms.

Then, he swung his arm back and sent a fireball hurling in Melvin’s way, zipping through the air and stirring up dust and ashes.

“What? Have you gone insane?” George was utterly stunned by this, especially when he saw that Leon changed from a position of defense to offense. He was convinced this man went crazy!

“Die, you punk!” a glimmer of malice flashed through Melvin’s eyes. He attained the Initial Overlord State a few years ago and was thus much more powerful than Leon, who just attained it a few days ago!

Therefore, he was not afraid of Leon’s attack at all!

With that, he cocked his arm back and flew straight toward Leon, as though he was released from a slingshot, carrying an immense surge of power with him.

“We’ll help you, Melvin!” The other elders were swift and quickly channeled their respective true energies, combining them with Melvin’s to form a bigger and more powerful attack!

With so many forces combined, the energy doubled in size, zooming straight toward Leon as though it would crush him at any moment!

“That poor boy’s dead!”

“He’s talented alright, but he’s overly confident and even bordering on cocky!”

“That’s right. He’s only just attained the Initial Overlord State, yet he has the audacity to face Melvin and the rest of the Youngs altogether. He probably has a death wish or something,” The Lowes and the Fields snickered at this, casting glances of contempt at Leon.

All of them knew that most of the Youngs already attained the Semi Overlord State, and even though it was still significantly less powerful than the Overlord State, with so many forces combined, it was more than enough to kill Leon!

On top of that, Melvin was already at the Overlord State, and one could only imagine the true extent of power he harnessed within him!

There was no way Leon could get out of this alive, unless he also possessed the power to the extent of the Intermediate Overlord State, just like George or Walter.

However, everyone knew that this was not the case. Leon just attained the Initial Overlord State, and there was no way he could defeat Melvin!

With that, he cocked his arm back and flew straight toward Leon, as though he was released from a slingshot, carrying an immense surge of power with him.

"We'll help you, Melvin!" The other elders were swift and quickly channeled their respective true energies, combining them with Melvin's to form a bigger and more powerful attack!

With so many forces combined, the energy doubled in size, zooming straight toward Leon as though it would crush him at any moment!

"That poor boy's dead!"

"He's talented alright, but he's overly confident and even bordering on cocky!"

"That's right. He's only just attained the Initial Overlord State, yet he has the audacity to face Melvin and the rest of the Youngs altogether. He probably has a death wish or something," The Lowes and the Fields snickered at this, casting glances of contempt at Leon.

All of them knew that most of the Youngs already attained the Semi Overlord State, and even though it was still significantly less powerful than the Overlord State, with so many forces combined, it was more than enough to kill Leon!

On top of that, Melvin was already at the Overlord State, and one could only imagine the true extent of power he harnessed within him!

There was no way Leon could get out of this alive, unless he also possessed the power to the extent of the Intermediate Overlord State, just like George or Walter.

However, everyone knew that this was not the case. Leon just attained the Initial Overlord State, and there was no way he could defeat Melvin!
