Chapter 1082-1090

Chapter 1082

Then, he pinched himself on his thigh, and the pain finally reminded him that this was real, and not just a dream!

"I'm beginning to wonder that too and if this is truly just a dream, I wish to never wake up from this," Albert said wistfully, his voice beginning to tremble from the excitement.

Just

the night before, he talked to Gilbert about this, and they both agreed that with Leon's current power level, he needed at least a few more years to break through to the Overlord State and stand a chance against Harold!

Because of this, they finally agreed that they would try to separate Leon and Iris once more, and force Iris to accept Anson's declarations of love so that the Youngs would stand a chance against Harold and reclaim their power!

However, fate decided to play a prank on him!

He never thought, not even in his wildest dreams, that Leon would manage to attain the Overlord State overnight, and the Intermediate Overlord State, no less!

Albert finally realized just how foolish he and Gilbert's intentions to separate Iris and Leon were!

Thankfully, they were yet to put this plan into action. If they had, one could only imagine how regretful they would be over their actions!

At the same time, George, Walter, and Denzel froze unanimously to watch this series of events unfolding, and George quickly strode back to Leon's side.

"Leon, did you attain the Intermediate Overlord State?" he asked, staring at Leon with a look one usually reserved for monsters or beasts.

He could not understand how Leon managed to surpass so many power levels in just a few days!

This was a miracle!

If he did not witness this with his own eyes, George would never have believed this was possible!

“Well, I guess you can say that! I just got lucky, that’s all.” Leon smiled.

Seeing that Leon did not deny this, the spectators grew even more certain that Leon attained the Intermediate Overlord State, and erupted into another flurry of murmurs.

“My God, who’s this man? I can’t believe he’s already attained the Intermediate Overlord State at such a young age.”

“That’s right. The most powerful martial artist in town has only attained the Intermediate Overlord State, yet he managed to achieve this at such a young age. Who knows what can happen in the future?”

Besides Albert, the only other three people who attained the Intermediate Overlord State were George, Walter, and Benedict.

Either one of these people was the most powerful man in Springfield City and was well respected in this area. Initially, everyone thought that since Leon just attained the Initial Overlord State, it would take some time before he reached their heights, but now, it turned out Leon proved all of them wrong—they underestimated him once again!

From this moment onwards, Leon surpassed Albert, and became the fourth member of the elite group who attained the Intermediate Overlord State!

This was an achievement that one could only look on in awe!

No one, not even Harold or the Fields, would dare to pick on him again in the future!

“Thud! Thud!”

Chapter 1083

Just as everyone was still in shock, footsteps suddenly rang out from behind them as Goliath, one of the Collins' mightiest fighters, arrived with the rest of the Collins' backup.

'Oh no, the Collins' help has arrived!' Harold, Melvin, and the Fields turned pale when they saw this.

What rotten timing! Leon and George were at a significant disadvantage up until now, but with the discovery that Leon attained the Intermediate Overlord State, combined with the arrival of the Collins' help, the scales immediately tipped in their favor.

Although Harold and the Fields still appeared to be at an advantage when it came to the sheer amount of force they had, not only did Leon's side possess two martial artists at the Intermediate Overlord State- including himself-

Harold and Melvin were already injured by him and were unfit for battle! follow Alaniniz(dot)com For Latest Update Therefore, the tables turned, and it was now almost impossible for Harold and the Fields to defeat Leon anymore!

"Oh good! The Collins have arrived!" expressions of delight crossed George and Ruth's faces, and the weight was immediately lifted off their shoulders.

"Walter, this doesn't seem good.

I think we'd better retreat while we still can," Denzel said in a low voice, glancing meaningfully at Walter.

"Okay." Walter nodded. He, too, knew that there was no way they could win against Leon anymore and decided to retreat.

Meanwhile, Leon turned to Harold.

"Today's going to be your last day on earth, Harold! I'll send you right into hell so you can be reunited with Jacob, and you'll be able to keep each other company!" Leon said, sneering, and began channeling his energy as he took slow steps toward Harold.

Harold tried to ambush him many times in the past, and now the time for revenge came!

As for the Fields, he would take care of them after this!

"You! Don't you dare come near me," Harold was startled when he sensed the power Leon channeled and could not help stepping backward in fear. Then, he turned to Jackson and the rest, who were standing behind him, and ordered, "Jackson, stop him, quick!"

“Yes, sir,” Jackson had no choice but to lead the rest of the Lowes to charge toward Leon.

“Tsk, what a bunch of wimps! Whoever gets in my way will die!” Leon scoffed and sent a burst of energy surging their way, blasting the Lowes out of his path as though they were papier-mache.

At this moment, Leon was so powerful it was as though he was the god of war himself, and anyone who dared to cross his path would suffer a painful end!

“That’s incredible,” George and Ruth were utterly stunned by this. Now, they finally understood why Leon insisted on staying and was determined to take revenge on Harold!

It turned out he was not boasting, and truly possessed the ability to do so after all!

“That’s strange. Why aren’t the Fields and the Youngs helping them,” George could not help glancing in the Fields’ direction with a dubious look.

The situation at hand was very dangerous to the Lowes, and they would never be able to hold up against Leon at all if the Fields and Youngs did not help!

There was no doubt Harold would suffer a painful death!

However, unbeknownst to him, the Fields already shifted allegiances and were no longer willing to help him at all.

Chapter 1084

As for the Youngs, everyone knew that Leon was Iris’s boyfriend, and since most of the collateral descendants were loyal supporters of their direct descendant cousins, none of them dared to go against Leon at all.

Besides, not even Melvin and the other Youngs were matches for Leon in combat, so how could anyone dare to pick a fight against him?

Because of the Fields and the Youngs’ indifference, Harold and the Lowes were in immediate danger.

“Rats!” Harold’s heart lurched when he saw that everyone backed out of this, and his expression turned dark.

The truth was, he was so powerful that even if he could not match up against Leon physically, he could still find a way to escape, but unfortunately, Leon’s attack injured him so severely that he could not move, and the combination of his previous injury rendered him almost crippled.

Besides, the rest of the Collins’ were staring at him like hawks, and there was no way he could escape at all!

and “Walter, please help me!” Harold cried out for help, utterly ignoring the fact that he was the great powerful Northern King. Since he could no longer rely on the Youngs for help, his only hope was the Fields! Even though Leon attained the Intermediate Overlord State, he knew that Walter attained this a long time ago, and was surely far more powerful than Leon was!

Besides, the Fields possessed a few other powerful fighters, like Denzel and some others who were already at the Semi Overlord State!

There was nothing Leon could do to harm him when the Fields had his back!

“Um,” Walter opened his mouth. He intended to run away and had no intention of helping Harold at all!

However, the enemy of one’s enemy was one’s friend, and if the Fields could rescue Harold just this once, they would be able to rely on him to protect them against Leon in the future.

Unfortunately, Leon had the Collins on his side. If the Fields struck first, the Collins would retaliate, and if they erupted into a full blown battle, the Fields would surely suffer significant consequences!

Walter could not help hesitating at this thought, unsure of whether he should save Harold or not!

“Walter, if you’re willing to help me, I’m willing to join your forces, and the Lowes will forever be at your bidding!” Harold could sense Walter’s hesitation and decided to take a gamble and offer everything he had!

He was convinced that Walter would help him if the deal was attractive enough!

“What? You’re going to be at our bidding? Are you telling the truth?” Walter could not believe his ears.

“Yes, I mean it!” Harold said solemnly. He had no choice but to make this offer, considering he needed to preserve his own life and needed to rely on other people to get rid of Leon in the future.

His only hope was to join forces with the Fields so that they could attack Leon as a team, and he would finally be able to avenge his son’s death!

“Alright, I’ll do it!” Walter was overjoyed to hear this. Harold was not only a martial artist at the Overlord State, but he possessed an impressive array of assets and land, which would greatly benefit the Fields should they combine forces with each other!

There was no way he could reject such an attractive offer!

Walter decided that no matter what price he had to pay, he would do anything it took to protect Harold!

Chapter 1085

“Hahaha-” Leon could not help bursting into laughter when he heard this.

“What are you laughing about, Leon?” both Walter and Harold turned to glare at him.

“I’m laughing at how stupid you are! Harold, I won’t hesitate to tell you that the Lowes are dead meat today, and yet you have the audacity to promise the Fields that you’ll combine forces with them in the future!” Leon replied, sneering.

“What? What on earth are you talking about? How’s this possible?” Harold gasped, unsure of what Leon talked about.

“Of course it’s possible! When I came here, I’d already notified Vincent, the Southern King, and instructed him to raid your hideout while you’re here. If things went well, I’m guessing he must’ve gotten ahold of your entire territory by now!” Leon snickered.

Ever since he found out about Iris and Ruth’s capture, he guessed that Harold must have set up an ambush at the Youngs’ and waited for him to fall into this trap!

Since Harold set up this eloquent plan, this meant that the Lowes’ hideout was likely left unguarded, and this was the perfect opportunity to raid it!

Since Harold was so determined to trick him, he would give him a taste of his own medicine; Leon deliberately called Vincent to instruct him to raid Harold's hideout so that he would not have anything to fall back onto!

An eye for an eye!

"Hahaha! Mister Wolf is right! I'm proud to say I have completed my task well!" all of a sudden, a jovial laugh echoed from behind them as Vincent arrived with his men, looking as though they rushed over as fast as they could.

The Lowes were a little different from the four major families the major families were established hundreds of years ago and thus possessed a stable foundation in this city, with plenty of descendants to take over when needed.

However, the Lowes were totally different. Harold just established his business about ten years ago and only had a handful of people working for him.

This time, he purposefully placed most of his warriors and loyal subjects at the Youngs and left only his lackeys behind at his hideout.

Therefore, it did not take long for Vincent to raid his entire hideout, and while he was at it, he even managed to conquer some of the Lowes' other spots, gaining full control of the Lowes' territory!

Then, he left some people behind to clear things up, while he led the most powerful warriors he had to help out Leon if needed.

"You!" Harold felt as though he was struck by lightning. He never thought, not even in his wildest dreams, that not only would he fail, but he was also tricked by Leon and lost his territory to Vincent as a result!

This was the result of all his blood, sweat, and tears, and he could not believe how easy it landed in his enemy's hands!

One could only imagine the shock and rage coursing through him.

"Harold, you got ahold of the Youngs using this exact dirty method and even kicked Iris and her father out of the family! Today, I'm going to give you a taste of what it feels like to lose everything you had!" Leon said coldly.

His vengeance with Harold ran deep, and not only was he determined to kill Harold, but he also wanted to make Harold suffer everything before his death. This was the only way he could take revenge on Harold in the way he saw fit!

Chapter 1086

” Harold was so outraged that his entire face turned scarlet, and he opened his mouth to say something but spat out a mouthful of blood instead.

The truth was, his initial plan was flawless, but for some reason, Leon’s power level advanced to the Intermediate Overlord State without warning, and this disrupted all of his plans!

He just got one detail wrong, but this caused him to lose to Leon entirely!

Seeing that Harold was defeated, Denzel whispered, “Walter, Harold’s dying soon. I think we’d better escape while we can.”

“Yes, let’s go now!” Walter came to a decision very swiftly. Now that Harold lost everything, there was nothing he could offer to the Fields anymore, so of course he would not be willing to go against Leon for nothing!

Besides, with the Southern King’s arrival, Leon rose to an even more advantageous position with the addition of another martial artist at the Overlord State!

There was no better time for the Fields to escape!

Harold’s heart sank when he realized this. The Fields were his final resort, and if the Fields left him there, there was no doubt he would end up dead!

Despair and dismay crept into his heart.

“Not so fast!” Leon suddenly appeared in front of them, blocking their path entirely.

“What are you doing, Leon?” a dark expression crossed Walter’s face. It was clear he did not expect Leon to stop them from leaving.

“What do you think? Walter, you can’t just waltz in and out at your heart’s fancy. There’s no such thing as a free lunch, after all!” Leon sneered.

The Fields attempted to ambush him so many times in the past, and even until just a few moments ago, they were determined to help Harold kill him.

However, seeing that things were no longer in their favor, the Fields decided to leave just like that, and he could not allow this to happen!

“How dare you insult my name like this, you punk?” the Fields were outraged to hear how rude Leon behaved.

Walter was equally as angry; he raised his hand to stop the rest of the Fields from attacking, then asked with a solemn look, “What are you going to do now, Leon?”

“Well, that’s simple. I’ve already told you this. Whether it’s Harold or you and the rest of the Fields, I’m going to make you pay for all this! I’m a man of my word!” Leon declared with his hands behind his back.

“You? Leon, even though you’re a talented martial artist, I’ve already attained the Intermediate Overlord State just a few months ago, and certainly, I’m more powerful than you!” Walter chuckled at this. The Fields were very powerful, and were certainly not as vulnerable as Harold!

Besides him, the Fields also had another warrior who was already at the Overlord State –Denzel, and a few others who were at the Semi Overlord State!

This was certainly not an easy team of people to defeat!

However, Leon had the Collins and Vincent helping him, and thus was still at an advantage, and there was no doubt they would win in this battle!

However, if the Fields insisted on leaving, there was nothing Leon, Vincent, or the Collins could do.

“What makes you think he’s going to do this alone?”

Chapter 1087

“I, Vincent Poole, will always stand by his side!” Vincent sneered as he stepped forward.

Leon helped him plenty of times in the past, so even though he knew the Fields were very powerful enemies, that one should not cross, he still decided to stand by Leon’s side.

“Vincent, do you honestly want to make the Fields your enemy? I’m afraid you’re not powerful enough to match up against us!” Walter scoffed and took no notice of Vincent’s threats at all.

“Well, if the Southern King is not a match for you, how about the Collins? Perhaps this will change your mind!” George sneered and stepped forward as well.

“Old George, are you insisting on crossing the Fields as well?” Walter’s expression turned dark. follow Alaniniz(dot)com For Latest Update He knew that Leon already attained the Intermediate Overlord State, whereas Vincent was at the Initial Overlord State.

If Vincent were the only one helping Leon, they would be no match for the Fields at all, but things would be different with the Collins joining! Not only were they great in number, but both George and Goliath were powerful martial artists at the Overlord State and were on par with the Fields!

If Leon, Vincent, and the Collins combined forces, the Fields would suffer painful consequences, even if they managed to defeat them!

“So what? Walter, you insisted on helping Harold defeat Leon and us, and now, the tables have turned, and it’s time for us to take revenge!” George said coldly.

“What nonsense! The Fields have always targeted Leon—since when did we once attempt to hurt you? Besides, we’ve already decided to admit defeat and leave, and if you dare to help Leon attack us, you shouldn’t blame us when we retaliate in the future!” Walter said with a sinister look.

“I—” George was speechless at this. He knew Walter was right—Harold and Jacob were the ones who kidnapped Ruth, and this had nothing to do with the Fields at all.

Besides, apart from attempting to stop him from escaping, Walter never once tried to hurt him, or any of the Collins!

If George insisted on helping Leon conquer the Fields, this would be making the Fields his enemy! If the Fields were to retaliate in the future, this would bring dire consequences to the Collins.

“Mister Collins, Mister Poole, I appreciate your help, but this is between me and the Fields, and I can take care of it myself. You don’t have to trouble yourselves!” Leon smiled and politely turned down their help.

Leon knew full well that he did not belong to either the Collins or the Pooles, and although they could always protect him for their gain, it would not be appropriate for them to help him defeat Walter together.

If George and Vincent insisted on doing so, this would be breaking the rules, and they would face the Fields' wrath in the future!

This was not the point, however. The point was, the Fields were far more powerful than Harold, and even if he combined forces with the Collins and Vincent, there was still no way he could defeat Walter once and for all.

The only reason Leon stopped Walter from leaving now, was because he wanted to teach him a lesson, not kill him he did not possess the power to do so!

Because of this, he did not want to get the Collins or Vincent involved, so as not to drag them down.

Chapter 1088

"Take care of this yourself? How are you going to do that?" Vincent was stunned to hear this and did not believe his own ears. He could not understand how Leon had the balls to face the Fields all by himself!

"Don't worry, I have my ways! It's just the Fields, I can still take care of them easily!" Leon let out an arrogant laugh as his aura surged around him. The contempt in his eyes when he glanced at the Fields was evident.

"What? You're going to defeat us all by yourself? How cocky you are, Leon Wolf!" Walter snickered at this. Denzel and the rest of the Fields were equally as outraged to hear this.

"Leon, have you gone insane?" Vincent's jaw dropped. He was not here when Leon demonstrated his incredible display of power, and thus he did not know that Leon already attained, the Intermediate Overlord State!

All he knew was that Leon was still at the Peak Supreme State, and he did not understand how Leon had the guts to go up against each and every one of the Fields! Did this man have a death wish?

"Leon, let this go! Since the Fields have already admitted defeat, and you didn't suffer any injuries out of this, I think you should let them go!" George tried to persuade him otherwise. Even though he knew that Leon already attained the Intermediate Overlord State, Walter was the same, and was probably even more powerful than Leon was, considering he attained this state much longer than Leon had!

Leon would have problems dealing with just Walter himself, so how could he possibly take on a few dozen of the Fields all at once? This was too outrageous!

George could not help feeling a little embarrassed for Leon.

“No, I can’t let this go just like that! The Fields have ambushed me multiple times, and this can’t go on! Today, I’ll make the Fields pay for what they did!” Leon said in determination.

“Well, okay then! I would like to see how you can take on so many of us at the same time, all by yourself!” Walter sneered, then with a raise of his hand, the Fields quickly surrounded Leon, blocking off all ways of escape.

“Leon, I—” Vincent was stunned to see this and wanted to step up to help him, but Leon stopped him.

“Mister Poole, Mister Collins, please stand back. I don’t want you to get any blood on your clothes!” he declared.

“What? I—” Both Vincent and George were stunned by this. They never thought Leon would continue acting so cocky at a time like this!

“Also, please help me keep an eye on Iris!” he added.

“What are we going to do, Mister Collins?” Vincent turned to stare at George with a panicked look. He wanted to help Leon defeat the Fields together, but Leon turned him down again and again, and he was unsure of what to do now.

“Never mind, if he wants to take on the Fields himself, let him! When he finally realizes the Fields’ power and that he’s no match for them at all, he’ll eventually stop,” George said rather hesitantly.

“Well, you’re right, but for Leon to take on so many of them at the same time. Will he be fine?”

Chapter 1089

Iris was worried that Leon would not be able to hold up against the Fields and would get injured during the process.

“No, he’ll be fine,” George replied. Knowing that Leon was already at the Intermediate Overlord State, although he would probably not be able to defeat the Fields all by himself, it was highly unlikely that the Fields would hurt him so badly to sustain any permanent or severe damage.

“But,” Iris was still unconvinced.

“Don’t worry, Iris, that Leon’s being too arrogant! If he insists on taking on the Fields himself, that’ll teach him a lesson,” Ruth said, trying to console her.

“Yes, Ruthie’s right. Leon’s being too cocky, and he needs some experience of failure to grow. This will be beneficial for him!” George nodded in agreement. It was natural for Leon to behave so arrogantly, having attained such great heights at such a young age! If Leon experienced his first failure with the Fields, it would allow him to mature and become more down-to-earth in the future!

George was convinced that this would be a good experience for Leon, and this was why he chose not to continue stopping Leon from doing so.

“Besides, if anything happens, I’ll be here to help,” he added.

Iris was finally relieved to hear that George would be willing to help out Leon if needed.

Meanwhile, Harold was overjoyed to see Leon being surrounded by so many of the Fields, and hope reignited within him once more!

He already lost hope when he heard that the Fields were planning to retreat, but for some reason, Leon behaved very rashly and blocked their way, insisting on taking them on himself!

Did this man have a death wish?

No matter what, Harold was satisfied by this. Knowing that Leon had just attained the Intermediate Overlord State not too long ago and was probably not too stable yet, he was no match for Walter at all!

Combined with Denzel and the rest of the Fields’ help, it would be as easy as ABC to get rid of Leon once and for all!

As long as Leon died, Harold would stand a chance of surviving this and might even be able to change his fate!

One could only imagine the delight and excitement Harold felt while thinking this!

“Well, you asked for this, Leon Wolf! Heaven may not open its gates for you, but hell will welcome you into its arms!” Walter shot Leon a murderous glare, the malice in his eyes glinting as he contemplated whether to kill Leon once and for all.

Even though the Collins and Vincent were watching him like a hawk, Walter knew that the Collins would never dare to retaliate against them over someone like Leon.

As for Vincent, he was only at the Initial Overlord State, and his powers were a far cry from Walter and the rest of the Fields, so he could easily defeat him!

“Shut your mouth, Walter! Come at me—don’t waste my time!” Leon declared, pointing at them.

“What a cocky punk! Well, I’ll gladly fulfill your death wish! Charge-“Walter was infuriated to hear this and immediately waved his hand, indicating the Fields to get into battle stance.

Then, the Fields charged from all directions, straight toward Leon.

At the same time, Walter shot Denzel a meaningful glance, intending to kill Leon before the Collins and Vincent could notice!

Chapter 1090

Denzel quickly understood Walter’s signal and secretly circled behind everyone until he stood behind Leon, in the perfect position to strike unnoticed.

Leon did not notice any of Walter and Denzel’s schemes at all. Instead, he charged forward, channeling his true energy as he met the Fields head-on.

“Thud! Thud! Thud-”

The first few people at the lead were blasted away by Leon’s powerful energy, but the Fields did not slow down their advances. Instead, the men in the second and third rows sped up their attacks and managed to block Leon’s powerful blow.

“Die, Leon Wolf!” Walter struck at this exact moment. He cocked his arm back and sent a powerful wave of energy surging Leon’s way.

Since Leon was on par with him in terms of power, it would not be easy for Walter to kill Leon once and for all. Therefore, he specifically instructed the Fields to be at the forefront, so that Leon would be distracted while he unleashed his attack, and this would likely trigger Leon to meet him head-on.

Walter was convinced that he was still more powerful than Leon, and if Leon were to meet him head-on, he would surely be able to defeat him!

When that happened, Denzel would strike from behind at the exact moment, and even if Leon managed to survive this, he would likely walk away with severe and even permanent injuries!

This was the perfect plan!

“Tsk, what a wimp!” Leon scoffed when he saw this, then spun around and unleashed his signature Double Attack, sending a surge of powerful energy speeding Walter’s way!

“Perfect!” Walter was overjoyed to see that Leon fell for his bait. Then, he added more power to his attack, channeling all the strength in his body into his hands, intending to defeat Leon and create the perfect opportunity for Denzel to strike!

“Oh no! Why did Leon choose to fight against Walter? He’s going to die!” George was shocked to see this. He knew that Walter attained the Intermediate Overlord State a few years ago, whereas Leon did so just a few days ago. Therefore, Leon was no match for Walter at all and could not possibly block his attack!

What was worse was that he caught sight of Denzel standing a few feet behind Leon, blocking his escape path. George immediately realized what Denzel was trying to do—he was going to strike him from behind whilst Leon retreated from Walter!

The color drained from George’s face at this realization.

He wanted to help Leon, but unfortunately, he was too far away, and even if he tried to help, it would be too late!

Unfortunately, Leon seemed to be the only one who was oblivious to Walter and Denzel’s plans. Not only did George pick this up, but Harold, the Fields, the Youngs, and even the Lowes already realized what was going to happen. Everyone could see that Leon was going to be in immediate danger!

“This is great news! That Leon Wolf is as good as dead!” Harold could not help cackling in delight. He could tell that if Leon failed to hold off Walter's attack, he would have to resort to retreating, and Denzel would strike at the perfect opportunity!

When that happened, Leon would walk away from this fight crippled, if alive at all!
