

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 1154-1160

Chapter 1154

As she said that, she raised her fist aggressively at Leon.

"Why are you in such a hurry? Just let me warm up first!" Leon said in annoyance.

"Brat, you're still stubborn in the face of death! If you have the skills, take this! As long as you can withstand it, I'll consider letting the three of you off!" Lentus said coldly.

He was already quite old, so his reactions were not what they used to be. On top of that, Leon was fixated on dodging, so he could not touch Leon for the moment.

He deliberately did that to provoke Leon into facing him head-on. He would be able to defeat Leon!

"Alright, I'll do as you please!" Leon said coldly.

While Lentus was frustrated and distracted, he suddenly stopped and launched his attack, using Double. Attack right at Lentus.

"Perfect! Brat, you're still too young. You fell for my provocation! You can just die now!"

Seeing as Leon fell for it, Lentus laughed happily.

Right after that, he took the chance to attack with an incredibly impressive amount of power. His attack quickly charged Leon.

"Ignorant fool!"

"He's just a peak Supreme Master, but he's trying to fight the elder head-on. He's suicidal!"

The Wrights sneered. All of them looked like Leon like he was a dead man.

They were already sure that Leon was just a peak Supreme Master. If Leon used his speed and footwork, he could have managed to last at least a few dozen exchanges against Lentus.

However, when it came to pure power, Lucas could kill Leon in one blow with his energy at the level of someone at the Overlord State!

“This is great! Brat, let’s see how you survive this time!”

Luke started to look incredibly excited at that moment. Leon broke a few of his ribs in one kick just now. He did not forget that!

He wanted nothing more than for Lentus to kill Leon in one blow for his revenge!

Yet, before Lionel and Luke could even let out triumphant smiles, they were shocked at the next sight!

With an intense clash, Lentus’ power was stronger. He broke through Leon’s spiritual energy, and the remaining energy shot right at Leon.

Leon was already prepared as he forced his body to dodge to the side, narrowly avoiding the remainder of Lentus’ attack!

At the same time, A wave of energy at the initial Innate State surfaced on his fists like a fierce tiger, shooting. right at Lentus’ chest.

“What’s this?” Lentus was shocked.

He had more power earlier, and he planned on pushing forward to seal off any path Leon had of retreating. Yet, Leon had enough power left to launch a second attack!

Then, he looked like he was just charging right into the attack. He was completely defenseless as Leon struck at his chest!

He was not even able to react when Leon’s second strike landed squarely on his chest!

Lentus spat out two mouthfuls of blood and he was sent flying.

His face was pale as a sheet of paper. It was obvious he suffered internal injuries.

How could this be?!”

Luke and the others were completely shocked at the sight.

They never expected that Lentus did not fail to defeat Leon, but was heavily injured by Leon in one blow!

At that moment, Leon showed tremendous skill, which deeply shocked all of them!

Everyone was completely quiet!

“How did this happen? Could this guy already be at the Overlord State?!”

Chapter 1155

Lentus clutched his chest with a look of shock.

When he clashed against Leon just now, he found that Leon was far from being at the Overlord State!

However, at that moment, he suddenly felt uncertain!

He was at the Semi Overlord State for over ten years, but Leon was capable of hurting him in one move. That meant that Leon was already stronger than someone at the Semi Overlord State, approaching levels of the Overlord State!

As for why Leon was continuously dodging him initially, it was very possible that Leon was just too strong and wanted to toy with him!

“What?”

“Overlord State?”

“Could that girl have been speaking the truth? She wasn’t bragging?”

Everyone was shocked when they heard that.

Ruth said that Leon was already at the intermediate Overlord State. It was just that no one believed her.

However, they finally realized that Ruth might not be bragging when they witnessed Leon’s skills. It was just that they underestimated Leon!

Leon was just in his twenties, but he was already at the Overlord state. Someone even being able to reach those heights felt like a miracle among miracles!

Suddenly, all of them felt completely shocked!

“How is it? Ignorant fools. Have you realized I wasn’t just trying to scare you?!” Ruth said with a pleased look on her face. She looked at Lentus and the others with cheeky expressions.

“That-”

Lentus and the Wrights had uncertain looks on their faces. They were completely silenced by Ruth.

“Mister Wolf, we were at fault just now. We offended you so much. Please forgive us.”

After he snapped back to reality, Lentus forced out a smile, immediately adopting a completely different attitude.

The Overlord State was the realm of the truly strong. Whether it was in Springfield City or Seacove City, they were existences that could not be offended!

With the thought that Leon could be someone at the Overlord State in mind, Lentus was completely shocked. He lost all his earlier pride!

“You’ve finally figured out how to apologize? You should have done that earlier!” Leon sneered.

The Wrights were so adamant about trying to push him down before this, but once the situation seemed bad for them, Lentus was trying to resolve it with a simple apology!

“What do you want, then?” Lentus asked.

“Lionel asked me to kneel and beg for mercy before this. I feel like his suggestion is quite good. You should just do as he suggested!” Leon said coldly.

“What? You want the whole family to kneel to apologize to you? That’s impossible!” Lentus looked appalled at the thought.

He was the head of the Wrights, so his position was an incredibly important one. If he and the Wrights knelt to apologize to Leon, their reputation in Seacove City would probably be destroyed!

There was no way he could accept that!

“Old man, I’m already showing you mercy by giving you a way out! Don’t take advantage of my kindness. I’m going to give you one last chance. If your family is willing to repent, then I can consider letting you off. Otherwise, you’ll bear the consequences,” Leon said coldly.

In the end, Luke was the cause of all of this. He did not harbor that much hatred for the Wrights, so he had no reason to destroy them!

If the Wrights were willing to learn their place, he could spare them.

However, if the Wrights insisted on being stubborn, then no one could blame him for anything!

Chapter 1156

“Brat, don’t be too arrogant! Even though you’re already at the Overlord State, the Wrights are not to be trifled with! If you insist on continuing to go against us, don’t blame us for not holding back against you!” Lentus said coldly.

They were in Seacove City, not Springfield City. Even if Leon was at the Overlord State, he could not go against the whole family alone!

Lentus would not tolerate Leon trying to push their family down!

“Is that so? If there’s anything you can do, go ahead. I want to see what the Wrights are capable of!” Leon smiled, unable to stop himself from thinking about what Ruth said earlier. Since they were not willing to admit defeat, he would beat them up until they were!

“Alright, you said it yourself! Don’t regret it!” Lentus had a cold smile on his face as he took out his phone and asked for reinforcements.

Leon did not stop him at all.

He had the Dragon Pill as a trump card anyway. He had no reason to be afraid of their threats!

He planned on allowing Lentus to mobilize everything Lentus had. Then, Leon would be able to deal with everything in one go. It would save a lot of effort!

After about half an hour, many footsteps could be heard. An impressive-looking young man led a few fierce-looking experts over.

The young man was the acting head of the Hunts, Quinton!

“This is great! Mister Hunt, you’re finally here!”

Lentus was incredibly happy to see Quinton. He hurriedly greeted the Hunts with his family.

The Hunts were one of the three greatest families of Seacove City. They were far more powerful than the average family.

The Wrights and the Hunts were tied together by marriage. They had a lot of direct descendants who married each other, and they were very closely tied together.

The Hunts were the biggest trump card for the Wrights!

After facing Leon earlier, Lentus was sure that Leon was at the Overlord State!

The Wrights were not among the top major families. They did not have any Overlord State experts, so it would be hard to deal with Leon!

So, he mobilized the Hunts!

He knew that the Hunts had experts everywhere. They did not only have experts at the initial Overlord State, but Francis Hunt also already reached the intermediate Overlord State many years ago. He did not seem that far away from the Overlord State!

The Hunts were incredibly powerful. It would not be hard for them to help the Wrights deal with Leon!

“Elder Wright, who’s causing trouble in your territory? They’ve got some guts!” Quinton asked.

His sight was blocked by Lentus and the other Wrights, so he did not see Leon right away.

“It’s this brat! Mister Hunt, he’s an outsider from Springfield City. Not only did he hurt our people, but he’s also even threatening our family! You have to seek justice for us.”

Quinton looked over to where Lentus was pointing, and he was shocked when he saw who it was, “Mister Wolf, it’s you!”

“Mister Hunt, why are you here?”

Leon was shocked to see Quinton as well.

He thought that Lentus would just mobilize all the experts the Wrights had. He was already prepared to eliminate all the Wrights who arrived!

Chapter 1157

He never expected the reinforcements that Lentus called for to not be anyone from the Wrights, but the Hunts instead!

It exceeded his expectations!

“Mister Wolf, it’s been a long time,” Quinton quickly greeted Leon with a smile.

“Yes, it’s been a long time,” Leon smiled awkwardly.

He planned on contacting Quinton when he came to Seacove City, but after he considered the fact that he was no longer on good terms with the Shears, he got worried that it would be awkward to visit the Hunts and Quinton. So, he decided against it in the end.

Yet, he somehow stumbled onto Quinton from his conflict with the Wrights.

It was a coincidence.

“Mister Wolf, when did you come to Seacove City? Why didn’t you tell me?” Quinton complained.

With his relationship with Leon, he was a bit unhappy that Leon did not tell him Leon was in Seacove City.

“That-”

Leon felt even more awkward, not knowing what to say.

“Mister Hunt, you know this guy?”

Lentus was shocked to see that Quinton and Leon seemed to recognize each other.

Of course, it was not just him. The other Wrights were shocked as well. They exchanged looks of uncertainty with each other.

“That’s right! Leon saved my life before. He’s one of my best friends!” Quinton said seriously.

“What?” Lentus and the Wrights were all stunned to hear that.

They hoped that Quinton and the Hunts would help them deal with Leon. Yet, Leon was Quinton’s friend. He even saved Quinton before!

There was no way Quinton would help them against Leon if that was the case.

Suddenly, they looked like cold water was poured over their heads. The sliver of hope they had immediately disappeared!

“Leon, what happened? Why did you suddenly have a conflict with the Wrights?” Quinton asked immediately after he remembered what was going on.

Leon recounted everything that happened.

After he heard everything, Quinton's expression darkened. After that, he looked at Lentus with a sharp gaze as he said coldly, "Elder Wright, why are you trying to cause Leon so much trouble for such a small matter? It's crossing the line!"

"I-"

Lentus found himself struggling to speak.

Leon was already at the Overlord State. He was not someone the Wrights could deal with in the first place.

He tried so hard to have Quinton come over, but he ended up shooting himself in the foot. Not only was Quinton not helping the Wrights, but he also helped Leon instead!

If he could not give Leon a satisfactory explanation, even Quinton would not let the Wrights go easily, let alone Leon!

It was obvious how he felt at that moment!

"Mister Hunt, it's all our fault. We'll apologize to Mister Wolf right now."

Lentus clenched his teeth. He was finally willing to submit in the face of absolute power.

After that, he knelt in front of Leon.

Thump! Thump!

As Lentus did that, the other Wrights all knelt as well. It made for quite a sight!

"Mister Wolf, it was all our fault. Our family has offended you so much. Please show some mercy us this one time."

Lentus and the others seemed much more sincere than before.

"You should never have done all of that!" Leon said coldly, but his expression softened.

However, before he could decide on whether to spare Leon or not, Quinton said something first.

Chapter 1158

“Elder Wright, this isn’t something you can solve by just apologizing. That’s so insincere!” Quinton said. unhappily.

“Mister Hunt, you mean-”

Lentus looked at Quinton.

“How about this? Wright Enterprises seems to be useful to Mister Wolf! Why don’t you give this company to Mister Wolf as compensation,” Quinton said firmly.

“Alright then. The Wrights will do as you wish.”

Lentus hesitated for a moment before he agreed helplessly.

Even though giving up Wright Enterprises for nothing hurt him, it was still a necessary price to pay to resolve this matter.

Furthermore, Wright Enterprises was just a company under the Wright Group. It was not enough to truly affect the family.

“What? How could I accept that?!” Leon was shocked to hear that.

He just wanted the Wrights to apologize and repent. That was enough.

Yet, just with a few simple words from Quinton, Lentus was about to give him valuable company.

That was too much!

“Mister Wolf, Elegante is a cosmetics company. You need raw materials for everything. If you have a company for yourself and you’re able to control your raw materials, wouldn’t it be great for the future of Elegante?” Quinton said with a smile.

“Y—you’re right,” Leon was quickly convinced by Quinton.

He came to Seacove City with two goals. One was to find a supplier for their materials, and the second was for that Snow Lotus in the auction!

If he managed to get Wright Enterprises, it would not only perfectly solve their problem with a supplier, they would even be able to control their supplies. It would be great for the future of Elegante!

It was perfect!

“However, I can’t just take Wright Enterprises for nothing. Why don’t I find a way to transfer two hundred and eighty–seven million dollars to the Wrights? Elegante will buy over the company,” Leon said after some silence.

Wright Enterprises was not cheap. If he took over the company by force, what would separate him from a violent thug who stole from the weak?

He could not do something so shameless!

“There’s no need. Mister Wolf, this is just a form of compensation from our family. You don’t have to spend any money,” Lentus hurriedly shook his head. His attitude was firm.

The Wrights and the Hunts were related by marriage. The Hunts always held more power. Since Quinton already spoke, there was no way he would go against Quinton.

Furthermore, he could tell that Leon’s potential and future accomplishments were limitless considering Leon was able to reach the Overlord State at such a young age!

If the Wrights could earn Leon’s favor from this, it might not be a bad thing.

“But!” Leon was still hesitant.

“It’s fine! Mister Wolf, don’t bother with the small details. This matter’s done!” Quinton said firmly.

“Alright then,” Leon did need Wright Enterprises a lot, so he did not reject Quinton and the Wrights anymore. After that, he looked over at Lionel next to Lentus. He thought about it and quickly made a decision.

“Lentus, I have a Pure Energy Pill. Let Lionel have it. It’ll improve his strength! Treat it as a small form of compensation from me.”

Leon did not want to take from others without giving anything back. He took out a white bottle and poured out a Pure Energy Pill for Lentus.

Chapter 1159

“Mister Wolf, it was all our fault. Our family has offended you so much. Please show some mercy and spare us this one time.”

Lentus and the others seemed much more sincere than before.

Leon did not want to take from others without giving anything back. He took out a white bottle and poured out a Pure Energy Pill for Lentus.

Chapter 1160

“What is a Pure Energy Pill?” Lentus was confused as he took the pill from Leon.

The others from the Wrights were confused as well.

The Hunts were the official distributors of Cynthion Group’s products in Seacove City. After Quinton got the initial stock of over eight thousand Energy Nurturing Pills, he already started to sell them in Seacove City, spreading the word of the Energy Nurturing Pills everywhere!

However, the three Pure Energy Pills he got were stolen by Harold, so the Pure Energy Pills were incredibly rare.

Seacove

City’s major families, including the Wrights, did not know about the Pure Energy Pills at all. No one heard of it before, nor did they know what the effects were!

“This guy is fake!” Lionel muttered unhappily.

He felt like Leon wanted to take Wright Enterprises for himself, but he was putting on pretenses in front of everyone, actually giving a useless pill to the Wrights.

It was obvious that Leon was just trying to look good on the surface!

“Elder Wright, the Pure Energy Pills are amazing! They can not only guarantee that someone from the peak. Innate State will be able to become a Supreme Master, but they’re also useful for those who are at the level of a Supreme Master. They can help Supreme Masters increase their power and effectiveness!” Quinton explained excitedly.

“What? How could that be?!” Lentus and the Wrights were shocked. Their faces were full of disbelief.

Lionel in particular was completely dumbfounded!

He thought that the Pure Energy Pills were just useless trash. Yet, he never would have dreamed that they were able to help someone at the peak Innate State become a Supreme Master!

That was not the most important point. The most important point was that he happened to be at the peak of Innate State. If he took that pill, he would be able to catch up to Qui nton, becoming the second person from the younger generation to become a Supreme Master!

Then, other than Quinton, all of the others who were at his level would treat him with respect!

It was obvious how excited and happy he was!

“The Pure Energy Pill is actually that amazing?!” Lentus looked like he was completely shaken.

The other Wrights were the same. They just offended Leon so much, but Leon did not continue blaming them. Leon was giving them such a valuable pill as well.

If the effects of the pill were real, then the Wrights would have gotten something of worth from Wright Enterprises!

“Grandfather, let me take the pill,” Lionel said eagerly. He stared right at the pill in Lentus’s hand, wanting nothing more than to swallow it immediately.

“Yes, alright!”

Lentus hesitated for a moment before giving the pill to Lionel.

Lionel was the heir of the Wrights. Lentus always loved and prioritized Lionel. If the pill could help Lionel become a Supreme Master, then it would be amazing!

At Lionel’s age, being able to become a Supreme Master meant that it was very likely Lionel would be able to reach the Overlord State in the future!

The Wrights would become more powerful from that!

Gulp!

Lionel immediately swallowed the pill after accepting it.

After that, the energy in his body started to rise. Sure enough, he quickly became a Supreme Master!
