The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1213

"No! I won't agree to that! Grandpa, it's too big a price to pay to sacrifice so many people and what we've built for the past hundreds of years! I won't be at peace even if I manage to leave Springfield City!" Cynthia shook her head and rejected Benedict's idea.

"But-" Benedict wanted to try and convince Cynthia but was interrupted immediately.

"That's enough, Grandpa! I've decided that I'm not leaving Springfield City, even if it means the death of me!

Cynthia said with determination.

"But you," Benedict was rendered helpless seeing how determined she was.

Brad was at a crossroads as he would have to sacrifice his daughter or his father no matter what.

Naturally, they were not the only ones struggling; the other Shears all fell into silence in despair.

In the afternoon, the Fields began preparing for the wedding and sent out invitations to all members of the elite society in Springfield City to participate in the wedding between Theodore and Cynthia.

The Fields and the Shears were always competitors and it was common knowledge for all the other families in Springfield City, so none of them ever expected the two families to marry their direct descendants.

The news of the wedding soon spread, stirring chaos all around Springfield City.

The next morning, Cynthia sat sorrowfully before her dressing table with a blank look in her eyes as she felt her heart dying.

Just then, Harvey stepped into the room and was devastated when he saw how upset Cynthia was.

"Cynthia, this is all my fault. If I knew this would happen, I should've let you go to Seacove City with Leon," Harvey said guiltily.

Cynthia was going to travel to Seacove City with Leon a few days ago but was stopped by Harvey and Benedict. If Harvey snuck Cynthia out at the time, none of these would have happened.

Cynthia's eyes brightened up slightly at the mention of Leon's name. She shook her head and said, "Harvey, no one expects this to happen. It's not your fault. Don't beat yourself up over it."

"Cynthia, should I call Leon? He is almost in the Advanced Overlord State now and he might be able to resolve this," Harvey said hesitantly.

Though he did not want his sister to be in a complicated love triangle with Leon and Iris, it would be much worse to marry Cynthia to a monster like Theodore.

“Forget it! Leon is outnumbered by the Lapwoods and if he gets involved, he’ll die,” Cynthia said bitterly.

She only agreed to the marriage to protect her family and Leon; if Leon hurried back from Seacove City and challenged the Fields, the Shears, and Leon would all suffer and that was the last thing she wanted to see.

“But,” Harvey muttered.

“That’s enough! I’m begging you, Harvey. Don’t tell Leon about this. I don’t want him to get into trouble,” Cynthia pleaded.

“But, fine!” Harvey sighed and gave up on calling Leon.

In the Fields Mansion, the outdoor plaza in front of the mansion was decorated most extravagantly for Theodore’s wedding day.

There were ribbons and balloons of all different colors, laced with red curtains, forming a beautiful roof over the plaza.

The Fields covered the entire ground with red velvet carpet and glittered it with flower petals, before decorating the sides with lights to form a path toward the plaza.

At the end of the red carpets, there was a gigantic stage that was built overnight with patterns formed with pearls and flower petals and handrails made with gold.

On the sides of the stage was an endless grass field filled with chairs that could house thousands of guests.

The beautiful venue, wonderful music, and extravagant decoration were all so breathtaking that they rivaled the engagement party between Cynthia and Leon.

Just then, countless luxury cars parked outside the plaza as all the powerful figures invited by the Fields arrived at the wedding venue.

The Fields and the Shears were both extremely influential families and their alliance would soon shift the entire power balance of Springfield City. Therefore, the Collins, the Youngs, Vincent, and anyone who mattered at all had all responded to the invitation.

The plaza was filled with people and shortly after, a convoy approached and fireworks began to go

Under the watchful eyes of everyone, the car at the very front opened and Cynthia stepped outside.

off.

Her delicate features were empathized by her light makeup and her eyes glittered under the fireworks in the most alluring manner; dressed in an expensive white wedding dress, her slim shoulders and waist were perfectly outlined and her skin glowed elegantly.

It was as though a goddess fell from the sky, but despite her beauty, the cold expression and frown on her face made her look extremely sorrowful and frail.

Next to her, Theodore was dressed in a suit and was helped out of the car, and then onto a wheelchair by the other Fields. Though he looked handsome, he looked horrendous in his wheelchair while next to a woman as beautiful as Cynthia.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1215

“She's so beautiful!”

“As expected of the second most beautiful woman in the city. It's as if an angel fell from Heaven!”

“God knows how Theodore Fields gets so lucky to marry her!”

All the young men in the audience gasped when they saw Cynthia and turned to look at Theodore enviously.

Cynthia was one of the Four Beauties and if Theodore was perfectly healthy and well, he could be considered a man worthy of Cynthia's hand in marriage; however, with his legs destroyed, everyone simply felt sorry for Cynthia.

Just then, Benedict and the Shears stepped out of the cars at the back of the convoy and like Cynthia, there was a dark expression on every one of them.

Following the arrival of Cynthia, Theodore, and the Shears, the wedding officially began.

A man in a suit and a woman in a nightgown stepped onto the steps.

The two were famous television hosts and were hired to host the wedding. Apart from the hosts, the Fields hired several famous actors and actresses to be the groomsmen and bridesmaids. Naturally, the beautiful actresses could hardly hold a candle to Cynthia's beauty and were all ignored by the others.

"Thank you for taking the time to be a part of this wedding. On behalf of the Fields and the groom, Mister Theodore, we thank you for your blessing," The hosts walked to the center of the stage and greeted all the guests, which was met with a round of applause by the audience.

"Now, let's invite our groom, Mister Theodore, and our bride, Miss Cynthia, to the stage. Please welcome them with a round of applause!"

The two hosts started clapping and the others followed.

With the help of the groomsmen, Theodore went up the stage in his wheelchair.

"Harvey, go up to the stage with Cynthia!" Brad said darkly.

Traditionally, it was supposed to be the father who accompanied the bride to the stage, before handing her over to the groom. However, Brad could not be more against the marriage and wanted no part of it, so he could only ask Harvey to stand in his place.

"Sure," Harvey muttered gloomily. He took Cynthia's hand and slowly walked toward the stage, while the bridesmaids helped with the skirt of the wedding dress.

"What a shame!"

"Another one of the Four Beauties claimed!"

The young men in the audience sighed gloomily.

Iris, who was the most beautiful woman, started dating Leon; on top of that, the second most beautiful woman was going to be married soon, and all eligible bachelors in the city were overwhelmed by disappointment.

"We hereby announce that the wedding begins! First of all."

The hosts proceeded with the wedding but were instantly interrupted.

"Hang on! I object!" A Rolls-Royce raced toward the venue and came to a sudden halt before the plaza. The car door flew open and Leon stepped out of the vehicle with Ruth and Iris.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1216

"Leon!"

Theodore and Cynthia were both shocked to see Leon and Cynthia could not help but rub her eyes in disbelief.

According to what she knew, Leon should be handling operational matters of his firm in Seacove City, yet he had appeared miraculously in front of her.

"Why is Leon here?"

"Look at him. He is probably here to stop the wedding!"

The audience were stunned as well as they knew Leon as the Fields' enemy and they were all aware of how Leon had also offended the Shears by calling off his engagement with Cynthia.

Based on Leon's relationship with the two families, there was no legitimate reason for Leon to be at the wedding.

"I object to the marriage!" Leon ignored the others and strode up to the stage with a cold expression.

"Leon, what do you think you are doing? Shouldn't you be in Seacove City? Why are you back?" Cynthia sobered and stopped Leon anxiously.

Had Leon returned to Springfield City the day before, she would be pleasantly surprised, but at the moment, not only was she not happy at all, she was terrified that Leon would destroy the wedding and get himself into a fight against the Fields and the Lapwoods.

Just then, Vincent's daughter, Snow stepped out of the crowd and shouted, "Cynthia, I was the one who called him back!"

Snow was close with Leon and Cynthia and despite Leon calling off his engagement with Cynthia, Snow knew that Cynthia was still deeply in love with Leon and she had always wanted them to get back together.

When the news that Cynthia was marrying Leon's nemesis, Theodore, came out, Snow instantly realized that there was more to the story and informed Leon about it right away. Hence, Leon rushed his way back to Springfield City.

"Have you gone mad, Cynthia? Why would you marry Theodore Fields out of the blue?" Leon questioned sharply, feeling slightly frustrated that he knew nothing about Cynthia's wedding.

Had Snow not called him and informed him about it earlier that morning, he would still be clueless at this very moment.

"No. No reason! This is between the Shears and the Fields. It's none of your business. Just leave!" Cynthia bit her lips as she suppressed the urge to throw herself into Leon's arms.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1217

"No way! I'm not leaving until you tell me what's going on!" Leon's expression darkened.

He conflicted feelings about Cynthia and with him dating Iris, he would send Cynthia his blessing from the bottom of his heart if she was marrying a man that she was truly in love with. However, Theodore was a known womanizer who did not deserve Cynthia.

Theodore belonged to a family that was the enemy of both Leon and the Shears, so Leon could not understand why the Shears would agree to this and refused to leave before learning the truth.

"I'm begging you, Leon! Just go! I don't want you to get hurt, nor can I put my family at risk," Cynthia pleaded as she tried to shove Leon off the stage.

However, Leon stood his ground and no matter how hard she tried, Leon would not budge.

He grabbed her hand and said, "Cynthia, tell me the truth. What on earth's going on?!" Based on Cynthia's reaction, even a fool could tell that something was wrong and he refused to leave her behind.

"Leon, so you've come! We were just wondering how we can pin you down and here you are, walking right up to our doorsteps! You must have a death wish!" Theodore sneered.

“As if the Fields can hurt me at all! What a joke!” Leon scoffed and turned to glance at Theodore with contempt.

With all the tools he gathered on top of his strength, Leon might not be able to destroy the Fields on his own, but neither would the Fields be capable of hurting him.

“Maybe the Fields aren’t capable of hurting you, but what about the Lapwoods?” Sean scoffed and stepped out of the crowd with his three guards.

“Who are you?” Leon froze at the overpowering aura from the four approaching him.

At this point, Cynthia realized that she could not hide the truth any longer and said bitterly, “I’ll tell you the truth, Leon. They are from the Lapwoods in Solum County! The one in front is Theodore’s brother-in-law, the second son of the Lapwoods, San Lapwoods. Behind him are two men in the Advanced Overlord State and one martial artist in the Peak Overlord State, whom he brought with him from his family!”

“What?! Two men in the Advanced Overlord State and one martial artist in the Peak Overlord State? How is that even possible?!” Leon was shaken to the core by Cynthia’s words, and he was not the only one.

All the people in the audience stood as they gaped at Sean and his guards.

“Oh my god, two martial artists in the Advanced Overlord State and one martial artist in the Peak Overlord State?!”

“As expected of the Lapwoods! How powerful!”

They all stared at Sean with fear and respect as they all knew that even the top martial artist in Springfield City was in the Intermediate Overlord State. Apart from Leon, who was close to reaching the Advanced Overlord State, there was not a single soul who managed to reach this level in the past; yet the Lapwoods sent out two martial artists in the Advanced Overlord State and one martial artist in the Peak Overlord State casually and the trio was sufficient enough to destroy any family in Springfield City.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1218

“Leon, now you know why we have agreed to this,” Cynthia said and tears scrolled down her cheeks.

“So they are forcing you into it!” Leon’s expression darkened.

It was strange from the very beginning for the Shears to marry Cynthia to a descendent of their enemy and Leon finally came to realize that the Fields forced the Shears to comply with the Lapwoods’ support.

“Leon, it’s the jungle’s law and the Lapwoods are simply too powerful for us to fight back. Just leave,” Cynthia muttered sorrowfully.

“Leaving so soon? No way!” Sean sneered and waved his hand. Instantly, two of the Lapwoods guards in the Advanced Overlord State darted forward and stood in Leon’s way.

Sean risked provoking the Dragon Corps to back the Fields up mainly to rob Leon of the Power Method he owned and since Leon was right before his eyes, Sean was not about to let him go.

“Mister Lapwood, what is the meaning of this? Theodore has agreed that you won’t hurt Leon if I marry him! Are you going to go back on your words?" Cynthia's expression darkened and opened her arms to stand before Leon.

"Cynthia, so you agreed to marry him for my sake as well," Leon realized that Cynthia was merely keeping the wedding a secret from him to protect him from harm. Instantly, he was overwhelmed by emotions as he wondered how he could ever repay Cynthia's love.

"So what if we're breaking the deal? Cynthia, I only agreed to your condition yesterday to stall! Leon is the enemy of the Fields and he destroyed my legs. I only hope to tear him into shreds and letting him go has never been an option at all!" Theodore spat viciously.

"What?! You shameless bast*rd!" Cynthia was enraged that Theodore lied to her. She tore the veil off her head and threw it onto the ground. "Theodore Fields, I'm not marrying you!"

"That's not up to you! If you dare to run away from the wedding, Leon won't be the only one who dies. Even the Shears will suffer! Think twice before you act!" Theodore sneered.

With Sean backing him, he was never going to let Cynthia escape no matter what.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1219

Just then, Walter, Lilith, and the other Fields strode out from behind the audience stance.

"Theodore's right! Cynthia, you are getting married to him today and Leon's going to die!" Walter sneered and with his signal, the Fields surrounded the Shears within a blink of an eye.

It was an unspoken threat directed at Cynthia, telling her that the Fields would attack the Shears if Cynthia dared to run away.

"Why you!" Cynthia's face flushed with rage. Despite how livid she was, she had no choice but to give up to protect her family from the Lapwoods.

"Leon, just leave before they do anything to you," She lowered her voice. Knowing what Leon was capable of, he would survive as long as he ran immediately and so long as she agreed to the marriage, the Fields would not harm her or her family.

"Run? Cynthia, I came here to stop the wedding! To hell with the Fields and the Lapwoods! Anyone who stands in my way will die!" Leon roared coldly.

The crowd stirred at Leon's words.

"Are we hearing this right?"

"How dare he be so arrogant in front of the Lapwoods?"

"Has he gone insane?!"

The people around them gaped at Leon in disbelief.

Though Leon already reached the Intermediate Overlord State and had no rival in Springfield City, the Lapwoods had two martial artists in the Advanced Overlord State and one martial artist in the Peak Overlord State and any one of them would be able to defeat Leon with ease.

Not only did Leon not ignore Cynthia's advice to run, but he also started provoking the Lapwoods.

“How dare you, kid?! You are just in the Intermediate Overlord State and you dare to look down at us?! You must have a death wish!” Enraged, Sean desperately wished that he could order his guards to tear Leon apart, but since he intended to obtain the Power Method Leon possessed, he suppressed his anger.

“Enough chit–chatting! Lapwood, right? They might be afraid of you, but not me! Just come at me with all you have. Let’s see what the Lapwoods are made of!” Leon sneered.

Though he was not as powerful as Sean’s guards, he had plenty of tools that could turn the table around and he had nothing to fear.

“Leon, are you mad?!” Cynthia gasped in disbelief.

Iris and Ruth were both shocked as well.

The three of them were close with Leon and knew the extent of his power better than most.

Leon’s power level was lower than the Lapwoods guards and could not possibly win against them, so they could not understand why Leon would be foolish enough to challenge Sean.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1220

Hearing Paige’s improvisation, Patricia had one question in her mind, and that was why Paige could play so well without any preparation

Over the past years, Patricia had heard a lot of niche piano music. Therefore, she was sure that the melody that Paige had played had never appeared in the market Patricia thought, therefore, that is her improvisation!

How could she improvise without deliberation?

I shamelessly asked her whether she played the piano and won any awards...

I even showed off in front of her by mentioning my championships and my teacher, Andie....

How shameful!

Andie is nobody in front of Ms. Walker.

Vallorie was a myth in the piano world, and no one could break her record so far.

She had won countless awards of great value at home and abroad. Vallorie was an equal to Larry!

**

Therefore, Patricia thought, Ms. Walker wouldn’t take me seriously even if I had won more than 500 times.

She is at a level beyond my reach!

I made a ****of myself.

When I asked those ****questions, Paige was playing games. I thought she would be good-for-nothing for the rest of her life....

Her previous contempt and arrogance shown to Paige embarrassed her now....

Patricia could not tell how she felt now, frustrated, indignant, sad, disappointed, helpless, or...

“It is your turn.” On the stage, Malia smiled and looked at Abbigail with confidence.

“Ms. Walker has improvised. How is her melody? | believe everyone has his answer.

Don’t you think that you are more gifted than Ms. Walker? Then, impress us.”

Standing where she was, Abigail trembled all over. She knew better than anyone about her talent in piano. She would make a *** of herself if she sat by the piano.

How could I beat Ms. Walker! Abigail thought.

Malia saw through Abigail. After a sneer, Malia said, "If you can't improvise, then play a famous song you have heard."

Abigail couldn't play any famous songs...

She had once learned 'Canon', "For Elise", "Mariage D'amour, and so on. However, she could not remember the melody and couldn't play the piano without the scores

Even if there were the scores, Abigail couldn't play as well as Paige.

Whoever knew something about the piano would find out the truth soon.

"You can't play the top ten famous songs, can you?" Malia thought, how ironic! I overestimated her

"My mind goes blank suddenly..." Biting her lower lip, Abigail insisted.

Abigail's embarrassment amused Malia. "You can't improvise and don't remember the famous songs. Then, play whatever you know."

Abigail did not move. She had practiced Sorrow and it only for one month. She didn't practice anything else.

"Well, do you know anything? What about **Little Star?"

The audience burst into laughter.

"What a shock that Abigail doesn't play the piano!"

"Does she know nothing but Sonow?"

"She can't remember the score, can she?"

"For a pianist, remembering the score is the most basic thing. She can't remember a few bars of melody. How absurd!"

"She can't play****Little Star! How *****! I could play that song when I was four years old"

"How could such a girl get second place?"

"There must be something wrong!"

Linda, who sat in the first row, held a microphone and said disappointedly. "The competition this year demanded that the participants play well and could compose songs. From the first audition to the third round for the top eight candidates, you played the same melody."

Most participants played a few songs to leave a good impression on the judges. However, Abigail played Sorrow only

"I thought you did so because you were very confident in your song. Therefore, I admired you. However, the reason turns out to be that you can play nothing but Sorrow!"

Linda seemed to be very disappointed in Abigail. "You played tricks on such a serious and grand occasion. I am very disappointed in you."

"No, no, it's not like that..." Abigail almost sobbed. "I can play..."

There was an uproar among the audience

“Then play! Prove yourself!”

“Ms. Walker played so well. Are you afraid? You don’t dare to play, do you?”

“Apologize!”

“Apologize to Ms. Walker!”

“You aren’t qualified to get second place! You shouldn’t stay in this circle!”

“Abbigail, you ****this field! Please get out of this circle!”

“Get out! Get out!”

Tyrell and Lindsey watched their daughter fall from a celebrity to a notorious wretch. To make things worse, Paige was the cause.

Distressed, the Tate couple wanted to speak up for their daughter.

Right then, Paige said, “I met your old classmate just now.” Paige looked indifferent with a strong vibe. “Now, let’s invite her to the stage.”

Surprised, the crowd saw a girl appear on the stage. Standing there, the girl said, “Hello everyone. My name is Ella Bingley. I came to this ceremony at the invitation of Celia, I once studied in the same class as Abbigail.”

“Ella!” Abbigail exclaimed in shock.

Abbigail had a good time with Ella in the past. They had been good friends but had some conflicts later. They lost contact with each other after Ella transferred to another school...

Abbigail did not expect her once-good friend to expose her past in public. Abbigail wondered, did Ella do so because I showed off in front of her before the ceremony? Or is Fila hrihod hu Paina)

Whatever the reason is, I will be doomed today! Abbigail subconsciously clenched her fists, and her face turned pale.

“Abbigail was poor in the past. I had been to her house, and there was no piano at all. She was very envious of me, who could learn the piano. She would touch my piano whenever she visited me at my house.

“I am sure that she did not learn the piano before high school. She could not distinguish between the upper and lower registers.

“She must-have learned the piano after high school.”

Chapter 1221

“Kid, hand over the Power Method now and I can spare your life! Don’t worry! A man of my status would never lie!” Sean said greedily, all the while deciding that he would destroy Leon’s power once he obtained the methods and break every single bone in Leon’s body. That way, he would have fulfilled his promise of sparing only Leon’s life.

“You want my Advanced Power Method? Dream on!” Leon scoffed.

“Very well! You asked for this!” Enraged, Sean was about to command his men to attack Leon, when Cynthia took a step forward.

“Hang on! Leon, if they want the method, just hand it over to them,” Cynthia said.

She knew that Leon owned Absolute Methods and an Advanced Power Method meant nothing to Leon, so it was a small price to pay if it meant that Leon could survive. On top of that, Leon might be able to bargain and get Cynthia out of the wedding so that she would not have to marry Theodore.

She stared at Leon with anticipation.

“Yeah! Leon, Cynthia’s right. The Lapwoods are far too strong. You can’t beat them!”

“Just hand the Advanced Power Method to them and strike a deal with them somehow.”

Below the stage, Iris and Ruth shouted as they both agreed with Cynthia and thought that it was more important for Leon to stay alive.

“Looks like the Lapwoods are going to get the Advanced Power Method.”

The people around them sighed and turned to look at Sean enviously.

Since Leon’s power was far from being comparable to the Lapwoods’ guards, he would not stand a chance against them and even a fool would hand the method over to save his own life.

“Well? Are you handing the method over or not?” Sean questioned smugly as though he already had Leon wrapped around his fingers.

“Mister Lapwood, don’t you think you are too young to have dementia? I’ve told you that I’ll never hand the method over! Dream on!” Leon said in contempt.

He was not as naive as Cynthia and the others and knew that Sean would never let him go unscathed even if he handed the method over. Since a fight was inevitable, he should not bother bargaining.

“What?”

Jaws dropped all around him.

Everyone thought that he would hand the method over and was surprised that Leon refused Sean again.

Cynthia, Ruth, and Iris were all confused as to why Leon would be so reluctant to give up an Advanced Power

Method, when it was not that valuable to him, and insisting to face Sean off would be suicidal.

Chapter 1222

“Leon, have you gone mad?” Cynthia asked in frustration.

She always thought that Leon was a smart man, only to find that he was foolish enough to die over an Advanced Power Method.

“Don’t worry, Cynthia. These idiots can’t hurt me! I’ll get you and the Shears out of here safely. No one will hurt you!” Leon deadpanned.

“But-” Cynthia’s heart sank at his stubbornness.

“How arrogant! If it’s a fight you want, it’s what you’ll get!” Sean roared. Though he desperately wished to tear Leon apart, he could not kill Leon before he obtained the method, so he turned and commanded his guards in the Advanced Overlord State. “Solomon, Eric, teach him a lesson. Just be careful not to kill him!”

“Yes!” Solomon and Eric immediately pinched in front and behind Leon.

“Cynthia, stand aside or you might get hit,” Leon quietly swallowed a Dragon Pill, before pushing Cynthia gently down the stage to stand next to Ruth and Iris.

“Take this, kid!” Solomon darted forward toward Leon, while Eric fired up his true energy to guard the path behind Leon to prevent Leon from running. Should Solomon overpower Leon, Eric could attack Leon at any time when Leon attempted to escape.

“Come on!” Leon sneered when he realized what their intention was. Instead of backing away, he faced Solomon’s attack directly.

“Die!” Solomon narrowed his eyes ferociously.

He learned from the Fields ahead of time that Leon was only in the Intermediate Overlord State and thought that he was going to triumph over Leon if they were in a direct face-off.

He strengthened the power of his fist and intended to finish Leon with a single blow.

“It’s over. Leon’s so dead!”

“Yeah! Mister Lapwood already gave him a chance, but he just won’t take it!”

“Anyway, it’s too late for regrets now!”

The people in the crowd shook their heads and sighed sympathetically.

Though they all saw what Leon was capable of in the past, any one of the Lapwoods guards was powerful enough to destroy him with ease and Leon’s demise was inevitable unless there was a miracle.

Chapter 1223

“Leon, you idiot! Even if you don’t care about yourself, what about me and Iris? If you die, what are we supposed to do?” Cynthia muttered.

Cynthia and Iris paled in despair.

All the people who befriended Leon, including Ruth, the Youngs, and the Pooles, were all devastated.

“Destroy him!”

On the opposite end, the Fields all stared at the stage viciously in excitement.

Leon was the Fields’ biggest enemy and they were dying to get rid of him. Seeing how Leon was about to meet his demise, the Fields were overjoyed.

“Arrogant little brat! I shall teach you how powerful the Lapwoods are!” Sean sneered in contempt as he looked at Leon.

Inside his mind, he was already planning how he would torture Leon into handing the method over; once the Lapwoods obtained the Advanced Power Methods, their influence and strength would escalate.

“Baam!”

Under the watchful eyes of the audience, Leon’s fist collided with Solomon’s attack. As the others predicted, Solomon’s overpowering energy tore through Leon’s spiritual energy and the aftermath of the attack darted toward Leon’s chest.

Leon came prepared and took the attack in his chest.

If it was in the past, he would suffer severe injuries from such a blow, but he already put on the Mirror of Sovereign underneath his clothes.

The Mirror of Sovereign was a defensive tool that could fend off any attack from martial artists of one level higher than Leon and since Leon was in the Intermediate Overlord State, any attack from martial artists in the Peak Overlord State or lower would have no impact on him at all.

Solomon was merely in the Advanced Overlord State, and he could not penetrate the protection of the Mirror of Sovereign.

“Baam!”

Just then, Leon took advantage of the second when Solomon ran out of energy from his initial attack and launched the Double Attack; his true energy in the Initial Innate State flooded out of his body and slammed itself against Solomon’s chest.

As though he was struck by lightning, Solomon spewed blood and was instantly sent flying.

Judging from the pain that radiated throughout his body, he realized Leon broke at least three or four of his ribs.

“Leon? Leon won?!”

“How’s that possible?!”

Cynthia, Ruth, and Iris gaped.

Sean, the Fields, and everyone else were stunned. Their jaws dropped as their eyes widened in disbelief.

Knowing which level Leon was in, they all thought that he would not rival Solomon in strength, only to witness the exact opposite of what they anticipated happening before their eyes.

If they did not see it with their own eyes, they would have never believed it to be true.

Chapter 1224

“No! No way!”

“Has he reached the next level, the Advanced Overlord State?!”

“That has to be the case!”

The people below the stage stared at Leon as though they saw a ghost.

Though they had no clue as to how Leon defeated Solomon, they knew that Leon had to at least be on the same level as Solomon to be able to defeat Solomon with a single blow. Most importantly, Leon only reached the Intermediate Overlord State when he fought Harold in the Young Mansion.

Within a matter of days, he rose to the Advanced Overlord State and the others could not help but wonder if Leon was human at all.

“The Advanced Overlord State?! Seems like the method he owns doesn’t belong to the Advanced Power class, but could belong to the Ultimate Power class instead,” Sean recovered from the shock and stared at Leon. intently.

Based on what Walter informed him about Leon, Leon was far too young to be reaching his current strength and this could not have been accomplished if he was training with an Advanced Power Method, so he might have an Ultimate Power Method.

If the Absolute Methods were not lost, Sean would have suspected Leon of owning an Absolute Method as well.

“Kid, you’re not going anywhere today,” Sean sneered, before shooting Eric a knowing look.

Eric got the signal and immediately charged toward Leon behind his back before he had the time to react.

“Leon, watch out!!” Cynthia, Ruth, and Iris shouted in unison.

“How dare you sneak up behind me?! Die!”

Enraged, Leon turned around and noticed that Eric was merely inches away from him, so he launched a punch hastily to counter the attack.

“Damn, it’s too rushed!”

“Yeah, he can only wield half of his full strength if he is in such a rush. It won’t help him!”

The people down the stage, including the Youngs and the Pooles, were all nervous for Leon.

Though they could tell that Leon seemed to have reached the Advanced Overlord State, he stood no chance of surviving an attack from another martial artist at the same level when he was caught off-guard.

However, the crowd was instantly stunned by what happened next.

“Baam!”

Eric’s attack tore through Leon’s spiritual energy and the aftermath of the attack darted toward Leon’s chest.

Leon simply repeated what he did earlier and took the attack with the Mirror of Sovereign on his chest, before using the Double Attack on Eric.

Eric spewed a mouthful of blood as he was sent flying, suffering even worse injuries compared to Solomon.

Meanwhile, Leon stood his ground proudly, unscathed.

Chapter 1225

“How’s this possible?!”

Everyone was stunned and turned to stare at Leon in disbelief.

They thought that Leon would be in too much of a rush to fend off Eric’s attack. To their bewilderment, not only did Leon succeed in doing so, he managed to defeat Eric within a matter of seconds.

“Could it be that he isn’t in the Advanced Overlord State, but the Peak Overlord State?!”

The Fields, the Collins, and the Youngs came to a realization.

They were all witnesses to the fight between Leon and Harold and at the very beginning, they all thought that Leon was in the Initial Overlord State, only to discover later on that Leon surpassed the Semi-Overlord State and the Initial Overlord State, and reached the Intermediate Overlord State directly from the Peak Supreme State.

History

repeated itself once again and since Leon managed to injure Eric even when he was caught off-guard, it was extremely likely that Leon reached the Peak Overlord State, which meant that he jumped two levels at a single time yet again.

Any martial artist would need three to five years to get to the next power level, yet Leon leveled up with ease and seemed to leap forward a few levels at a time, so everyone in the wedding was shaken to the core.

“Peak Overlord State?! Am I seeing things?” Sean paled.

Though he came from Solum County and saw plenty of wonders of the world in the past, he never saw a martial artist with a such horrifying speed of growth.

“Don’t worry, Mister Sean. It’s just a trick. He hasn’t reached the Peak Overlord State!”
The old man in gray next to Sean shook his head.

“Really? If he’s not in the Peak Overlord State, how did he manage to finish Eric and Solomon with one blow?!”

“I don’t know about that either but I am certain that he’s in the Advanced Overlord State at best judging from his speed and explosive power. He’s far from reaching the Peak Overlord State!” The old man said confidently.

Since the old man was in the Peak Overlord State himself, he could tell right away that Leon did not reach the Peak Overlord State. However, Leon somehow concealed his true energy, so the old man could not tell which level Leon was truly in, but he assumed that Leon was in the Advanced Overlord State at best.

The old man theorized that Leon managed to defeat Solomon and Eric with certain tricks and the two were only defeated because they underestimated Leon.

Chapter 1226

“So he won with some kind of tricks!” Sean was relieved to learn that Leon was not in the Peak Overlord

State and sneered.

“Who’s next?” Leon straightened his back and pointed at Sean, “Sean Lapwood, what other tricks do you Lapwoods have up your sleeves?”

“Enough with your arrogance! I shall be your doom!” The old man dressed in gray stepped forward.

“Chester, I’ll leave this to you! He might be training with an Ultimate Power Method. Make sure you disable him and make him hand it over!” Sean reminded.

“Don’t worry. I won’t disappoint you, Mister Sean!” Chester nodded and stopped at a distance away from

Leon.

“You? What a joke!” Leon scoffed and scanned Chester in contempt.

“Save it, Leon. Chester reached the Peak Overlord State seven years ago and he is the very best even among people on the same level! Even if you are indeed in the Peak Overlord State, you are going to die” Sean sneered.

“Is that so? Let’s see what he is made of, then!” Leon said mockingly.

With the Mirror of Sovereign, Chester would not be able to harm him so long as Chester did not surpass the Peak Overlord State.

“Brat, you asked for this! Take this!” Enraged by Leon’s contempt, Chester darted toward Leon at the speed of lightning.

“Come on!” Leon boldly launched the Double Attack at Chester.

“Trying to trick me? Dream on!” Chester sneered.

After watching the fight between Leon, Solomon, and Eric, Chester noticed that both Solomon and Eric were defeated once their attacks met with Leon’s punch. Though he did not know precisely how Leon managed to defeat the two, his experience and instinct told him that Leon might be hiding something in his hands and he might suffer the same fate as Solomon and Eric if he met Leon’s fists.

As a result, he moved swiftly and aimed his attack at Leon’s face instead.

“What?!” Leon was shocked and immediately backed away, before meeting Chester’s attack with his punch.

Chester dodged and simply directed his attack in another direction, to which Leon responded by switching direction along with him.

Neither of them managed to touch one another at all, but since Leon was only in the Intermediate Overlord State, he was far from comparable to Chester in terms of speed and as the fight progressed, he slowly began to fall behind and was left with backing away.

Fortunately, Chester did not dare to attack him directly, so Leon did not suffer any damage so far.

Chapter 1227

“What a sly old man!” Leon’s expression darkened.

He thought that he would be able to defeat Chester with ease since he possessed the Mirror of Sovereign, only to realize that he underestimated his opponent.

Chester was on guard and refused to fall for the same trap, so Leon would eventually be defeated.

“It’s over. Leon’s going to lose!”

“Yeah! His opponent is one of the very best among martial artists in the Peak Overlord State and it’s already quite impressive that Leon managed to survive that long.”

The people below the stage shook their heads and sighed as they looked at Leon sympathetically.

Though they guessed that Leon might have reached the Peak Overlord State, since Chester was far too formidable, it was only normal for Leon to lose, so none of them thought that Leon stood a chance.

“Let’s see what you can do now!” Sean sneered and crossed his arms smugly.

“Destroy him!”

The Fields were all excited when they saw how close Chester was to defeating Leon.

On the contrary, Cynthia, Iris, Ruth, the Youngs, and the Pooles were all overwhelmed by despair.

“It’s all or nothing!” Leon gritted his teeth and darted away from Chester, before charging toward Sean.

“What?!” Terrified, the snide smirk on Sean’s face froze.

Though Chester informed him that Leon was not in the Peak Overlord State, Sean was merely in the Peak Supreme State and was hardly a match for Leon, so he would be rendered helpless if Leon targeted him instead.

“Chester, help me!” Sean called out in fear and backed away to keep his distance from Leon.

“How dare you?!” Enraged, Chester reacted swiftly and ran after Leon.

Leon only pretended to target Sean, and his true intention was to lure Chester into attacking him. Seeing how Chester fell for his trap, Leon turned around with a terrified look on his face as though he was caught, leaving his chest exposed to Chester.

“Die!” Chester narrowed his eyes viciously.

He only assumed that Leon was hiding some sort of weapon in his hands and did not know about the Mirror of Sovereign, so he struck Leon in the chest without hesitation.

Chapter 1228

“No!”

Both Cynthia and Iris paled and screamed.

Ruth, the Youngs and the Pooles were all devastated at the sight before them.

“Leon is really going to be defeated this time!”

The others predicted this outcome and were not at all surprised; however, most of them felt sympathetic that a rare genius like Leon was about to be killed by the Lapwoods.

Naturally, others were happy about it; not only did Leon become Iris’s boyfriend, he failed Cynthia at their engagement party, which made Leon the known enemy to all eligible bachelors in the city and they were all pleased that Leon was going to meet the demise he deserved.

“Good!”

Sean and the Fields burst out laughing.

Sean, who assumed that Leon was training with an Ultimate Power Method, could obtain the method from Leon at all costs.

Since Absolute Methods were extremely rare, the best methods that existed within Solum County belonged to the Ultimate Power class and if the Lapwoods could obtain such a method, they would grow into one of the top families in Solum County.

It was the lifelong dream of all Lapwoods who ever lived.

However, before Sean and the Fields had the time to celebrate, what happened next shook them to the core.

“Baam!”

Chester’s fist

landed on Leon’s chest. To everyone’s bewilderment, Leon was not sent flying, not suffering any injury. He stood unwavering and launched his punch against Chester swiftly.

“W- What?!” Chester gasped.

He did not expect Leon to survive his attack unscathed and by the time he managed to register what was happening, Leon's attack slammed against him.

Chester was sent flying into the distance, all the while spewing a horrifying amount of blood from his mouth.

A piercing pain echoed throughout every single bone in his body and unlike Solomon and Eric, every one of his ribs were broken.

Solomon and Eric were only struck by Leon's true energy, yet Chester was hit by Leon's spiritual energy, which was far more powerful than his true energy.

If Leon did not hold back out of fear for the Dragon Corps, Chester would have been dead by now.

Chapter 1229

"N- No way!"

The entire plaza fell into silence as the people gaped at Leon in disbelief.

They all saw Leon was struck in the chest and all thought that Leon was going to die, yet not only did Leon survive, he defeated Chester with a single blow.

It was so inconceivable that none of them would have believed that it actually happened if they did not see it with their own eyes.

"Leon's fine!"

"Thank god!"

Cynthia and Iris recovered from the initial shock and broke down in joyful tears.

They finally realized that Leon challenged the Lapwoods because he had what it took to win and they all underestimated Leon.

"How's this possible?"

On the opposite end, Sean and the Fields stood still as though they were struck by lightning.

The three Lapwoods guards were their best shot at defeating Leon, yet all three of them were severely injured by Leon. The martial artists left who could fight were hardly comparable to Leon in strength and they were all devastated.

“W- Woah!”

“Could it be that Leon surpassed the Peak Overlord State?!”

The crowd turned to look at Leon in fear and chaos erupted all around the wedding venue.

If their assumption was right, Leon accomplished the possible and it was hard to believe that it was physically possible for a person to become this powerful at such an age.

“No! That’s not right! He’s in the Advanced Overlord State at best. He only managed to end off my attack because he has a defensive tool,” Chester laid sprawled on the ground as he continued to spew blood from his mouth. He struggled to get up but was unable to do so no matter how hard he tried.

“What?”

“Leon has a defensive tool?”

Shocked, the people around glanced at one another in disbelief.

“That’s right!” Chester said weakly.

He knew the depth of Leon’s power better than most after the fight earlier and he could tell that Leon only managed to survive his attack unscathed with the help of a defensive tool.

“That’s how!”

Everyone started to recall how Leon was completely unaffected by the strike to his chest.

Sean and the Fields finally realized how Leon managed to defeat all three of the Lapwoods guards, but it was too late.

Chapter 1230

“Tool?”

Iris and Ruth both came to a realization when they heard Chester.

The others might be clueless, but they both knew that Leon obtained the Mirror of Sovereign during the auction in Seacove City.

They connected the dots and concluded that the Mirror of Sovereign was a defensive tool that could fend off even the attack from martial artists in the Peak Overlord State.

“Just how lucky is Leon?”

“Not only does he have an Advanced Power Method, but now he has some kind of defensive tool as well? That lucky jerk!”

Once the others recovered from the initial shock, they all turned to look at Leon enviously.

If

Leon was not powerful, they would have all charged at him in an attempt to steal his training methods and tools.

“Damn it! If I knew that Leon was a defensive tool, I would’ve never lost to him,” Chester gritted out in frustration.

Sean and the Fields were devastated, as they all knew that with all the Lapwoods guards defeated, none of them had the power to defeat Leon.

“Sean, Walter, it’s time we settle some old scores!” Leon scoffed and strode toward Sean and the Fields; with each step he took, they felt their hearts sinking in response to it.

“Wh- What do you want? Don’t get any closer!” Terrified, Sean backed away timidly.

“You kept saying how you are going to destroy me, didn’t you? Using your words, I’m going to destroy your power and then break both your legs so that you pay for what you and the Fields have done!” Leon sneered and approached Sean.

The Fields were his enemies for the longest time; as a family from outside of Springfield City, the Lapwoods meddled with another city’s matter and even went to the lengths of forcing Cynthia to marry Theodore by threatening the Shears. With no regard for morals and laws, the Lapwoods sent three extremely powerful martial artists to fight him to rob him of his training methods.

All the crimes they committed were unforgivable and Leon was determined to put an end to his enemy once and for all.

You wouldn’t dare! I’m warning you! I’m the future heir of the Lapwoods and if you hurt me, the Lapwoods will come after you!” Sean threatened.

“That’s not what I have to worry about now. All I know right now is that you’re not going anywhere! Die!” Leon darted toward Sean without hesitation.

“Stop him!” Shocked, Walter and the other elders from the Fields leaped into action and stood before Sean.

“Sean, we’ll stall him for you. Run!” Walter blurted out, before charging at Leon with the others.

Chapter 1231

“Old man, the Fields used the Lapwoods to act so arrogantly in front of us yesterday. It’s our time for revenge!” Benedict reacted very quickly. He charged forward with the experts from the Shears, holding back

Walter and the others.

“Me too! Elder Shear, I’ll help you out!” Vincent laughed as he joined the fray, leading his family into the battle..

He knew that the Fields were Leon’s enemies. He owed Leon so much. He did not even need to think about it as he immediately stood on Leon’s side.

Looking at the battle on the stage, Elder Young could not help but frown.

Leon was going to be his son-in-law. The Youngs naturally needed to help Leon.

However, ever since the family was broken up, there were not many experts left. Even if they joined, they would not be able to help much.

“Gilbert, bring our men to seal off their retreat. Don’t let the Fields escape!” Elder Young said decisively.

Even though they were not able to help Leon against any strong opponents, they could easily help Leon clean up any messes!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

With Benedict and the others attacking, there was an incredibly chaotic battle. The Fields quickly found themselves at an absolute disadvantage!

“Sean, let’s see where you can run to! Take this!” Leon shouted out. With a strike, he attacked Shawn with immense power.

“D–Don’t come near me...”

Sean had a fearful look on his face as he quickly retreated, trying to avoid Leon’s attack.

However, he was just much weaker than Leon. Even if he avoided the attack in time, his chest was still struck by Leon’s spiritual energy!

Bang!

With a loud sound, Sean was sent flying by Leon before he slammed on the ground.

After he fell, he spat out two mouthfuls of blood. A few of his ribs had been broken, and he had clearly sustained quite heavy internal injuries.

After that, Leon rushed over and kicked Sean on the chest, stepping on Sean and making sure that Sean could not move.

“Sean, do you think I should cripple your strength first or your legs?” Leon looked down at Sean with a cold expression.

“No...”

“Brat, if you don’t show me mercy, the Lapwoods will cut you to pieces...” Sean said fearfully.

“Is that so? Let’s see what you can do to me!” Leon sniffed.

They were already mortal enemies at that point. There was no need for Leon to heed Sean's warnings!

After that, he wasted no time in attacking Sean's Energy Sea, planning on taking away Sean's power first.

"Stop right there!"

Right at that moment, there was a cold shout. An incredibly expensive luxury car with a number plate from Sky County stopped not far away from the stage.

Right after that, the door opened. An incredibly imposing-looking old man, about seventy years of age, walked out with four men.

Chapter 1232

"Grandfather, you're finally here. Hurry up and save me..."

Sean looked elated at the old man's arrival. He hurriedly shouted out for help.

That old man was his grandfather, the head of the Lapwoods of Sky County, Orvald Lapwood!

Ever since Sean found out Leon could have an Advanced Power method, or something even better, he immediately relayed the information to Orvald!

For the Lapwoods, any methods at that level were incredibly rare and valuable. It was something they could not get, even with any amount of money!

Yet, it actually appeared at an insignificant place like Springfield City. Orvald was incredibly happy. He immediately hurried over with a few of his men and had just arrived.

"Who are you?"

Leon frowned when he felt the terrifying aura coming from Orvald. He suddenly felt incredibly uneasy.

"Brat, listen well. This is Elder Lapwood, the head of the Lapwoods of Sky County!" A subordinate proudly reported who Orvald was.

"What? The head of the Lapwoods?"

"He's actually here himself?!"

Everyone was stunned at the news!

Even though they were all incredibly remarkable figures from Springfield City, the Lapwoods were a force that was present in Sky County. Orvald was far more important of a person than they were!

Whether it was them or Leon, no one expected Orvald to fly over here all the way from Sky County!

It greatly exceeded their expectations!

“Good, the heavens really are blessing our family!”

Walter and the other Fields started to laugh.

Earlier, the Fields were already in an incredibly dangerous situation since the Shears, the Southern King, and the Youngs were all working together against them.

The family looked like it was about to meet its end, but Orvald suddenly appeared!

Suddenly, all of them looked like they had found their savior. It was obvious how happy and emotional they were!

“Crap...”

“This is bad...”

In contrast to the Fields, the Shears, the Southern King, and the others' expressions all sank.

Earlier, they had seen the ability of Solomon and the others. Even three guards were at the advanced Overlord State!

With Orvald there personally with four subordinates, it was obvious that they were not to be trifled with!

“Brat, I don't care who you are. Let go of my grandson right now!”

Looking at Sean beneath Leon's foot, Orvald's expression darkened. He looked at Leon with a cold and murderous gaze!

“What if I refuse?” Leon said calmly, but he felt his mood get heavier.

Even though he did not know how strong Orvald and the others were, they gave him an incredibly dangerous feeling. He was on full alert, not daring to be careless at all.

“You’re not letting him go? Then I’ll just kill you!” Orvald scoffed as he moved, leaving a n after image behind.

Chapter 1233

“What? Old man, if you do anything rash, I’ll cripple Sean right away!”

Leon was shocked, but he reacted quickly and immediately grabbed Sean from the ground, trying to threaten Orvald.

Yet, no matter how fast he was, Orvald was several times quicker!

Before he could even pick Sean up, Orvald already appeared in front of him incredibly quickly, striking his chest with immense power.

The clear sound of bone cracking could be heard. Leon did not even have the ability to fight back as he was sent flying several meters back by Orvald. He shot back like a cannonball before he fell below the stage.

After he fell, Leon spat out mouthfuls of blood. He felt like at least seven or eight of his ribs had been cracked, and he was obviously injured heavily.

However, he had the protection of the Mirror of Sovereign around his chest. Ever since he got the mysterious power of his ancestors, his body seemed remarkably capable of taking hits and recovering as well. Otherwise, he would probably already be dead!

“The Emperor State!”

Looking at Leon being heavily injured by Orvald in one blow, Benedict and George were completely shocked!

Both of them had clearly felt Orvald’s strength when Orvald struck Leon earlier. Orvald was already at the Emperor State!

The Emperor State was a level above the Overlord State!

The Overlord State was regarded as the realm of those who were incredibly strong, while Emperor State martial artists were basically seen as kings. There was a wide gulf between them!

Even though the peak Overlord state was only a level apart from the Emperor State, there was still the Semi Emperor State between that!

Even Semi Emperor State martial artists were still far from Emperor State martial artists, let alone peak

Overlord State martial artists!

When it came to Emperor State martial artists, those at the peak Overlord state were no different from those at any other levels!

It was obvious how strong they were!

“What?”

“Emperor State?”

Hearing that, many of the major families were incredibly shocked. There was immediately a stir in the crowd.

Earlier, they were confused as to how Leon had been injured so heavily in one blow despite Leon’s skills and Leon’s protective artifact!

They finally understood that Orvald was an incredible Emperor State martial artist!

Overlord State martial artists were like mere ants in front of those at the Emperor State. The fact that Orvald had not killed Leon in one blow was already something incredibly fortunate!

“Leon, are you alright?”

Iris and Cynthia were both incredibly pale. After that, the three of them rushed over to help Leon up with Ruth.

“I’m fine.” Leon took a deep breath as he hit the pressure points around his chest. He temporarily stabilized his injuries, but his expression was very sour.

Even though he immediately realized that Orvald was someone incredibly dangerous, he never expected that man to be at the Emperor State!

It was already at a level that was too far above his! He could not fight back!

Suddenly, his heart sank to the depths.

Orvald was surprised that he had failed to kill Leon in one blow.

However, he did not really care about it. He helped Sean up with his hand.

“Sean, what happened here? Why are you in such a state?” Orvald asked with a frown.

From what he knew, Springfield City was just a small city in Sky County. The strongest amongst them should only be at the intermediate Overlord State. There was definitely no one stronger than the advanced Overlord

State!

Sean had brought two advanced Overlord State and one peak Overlord State guard with him, so Orvald could not understand why Sean had lost!

If he had not reached the place in time, Sean would probably have been crippled by Leon!

“Grandfather, this is what happened...”

Sean explained everything. He had just mentioned that Leon had an Advanced Power method when Orvald suddenly stopped him.

“Sean, you’re saying that this Leon has an Advanced Power class method?” Orvald said anxiously.

Orvald had only heard that it was a possibility. It had been far from a sure thing!

“Yes, he admitted to it himself! I’m even suspecting that it’s not just an Advanced Power Class method. It could even be at the Ultimate Power Class!” Sean nodded.

“What? The Ultimate Power Class? Good, this is great. We’ve really stumbled upon something incredibly lucky this time!” Orvald immediately started to laugh.

He thought that it would already be a miracle for an Advanced Power Class method to appear in Springfield City, but it was actually at the Ultimate level! He was even more shocked than power!

“Grandfather, that’s not the whole story. He even has a protective treasure that can block peak Overlord State attacks. It’s very strong,” Sean added, telling Orvald about how Leon had used it to defeat Chester.

“What? He even has a treasure? We’ve really been blessed this time! Haha!”

After that, Orvald constantly laughed. He looked so excited he was starting to tremble.

He finally understood how his men had lost to Leon. So Leon actually had so many valuable things!

It was not just that!

He felt like Leon's skills were still too low to unleash the true power of the treasure. If the treasure was in his hands, it might become even more powerful!

Then, the Lapwoods would have an Ultimate Power Class method and an incredibly powerful treasure!

It was obvious how excited and happy he was!

On the other end, the battle between the Shears and the Northern King with the Fields had stopped with Orvald's appearance. They got off the stage and gathered around Leon.

"We're done for this time..."

When they found that Orvald was at the Emperor State, Benedict, Elder Young, the Southern King, and the others, all felt their hearts freeze. Their expressions were incredibly dark.

"Leon, Elder Lapwood is just too strong. You're no match for him! I think we'll help you hold him back for now. You should take Iris and run! With your skills and the treasure you have, you might have a chance at escaping," Elder Young immediately said.

"Yes, Elder Young is right! Leon, you should leave first. We'll do our best to hold him back and buy you some time." Vincent nodded.

He knew very well that all of them were already on the same boat as Leon the moment they worked together against the Fields. If the Lapwoods got Leon, things would not end well for them either!

The Fields would not let them off that easily!

Since that was the case, it was better for them to gamble on it. If Leon could escape, it would be worth any price they had to pay!"

"I..." Leon opened his mouth, but Benedict interrupted him before he could say anything “Leon, bring Cynthia and Harvey with you. I’ll leave those siblings to you,” Benedict said seriously.

Even though the Shears and Leon had a falling out, Leon had put himself in danger to save Leon. Since Benedict had always been an upright person, he put aside their grudges against Leon for the moment!

He had no other choice anyway!

Harvey was shocked, and he immediately objected, “How could we do that? Grandfather, what will you do if we escape? We can’t just leave all of you here.”

“Harvey, don’t worry. With the Dragon Corps around, the Lapwoods and the Fields won’t kill anyone so recklessly! Even if we fell into their hands, we’d just have our strength crippled. We won’t be in any mortal danger! As long as you and Cynthia escape, there’ll still be hope for the Shears in the future,” Benedict consoled.

“But...” Harvey was still hesitant.

“There’s nothing else to speak of, and the matter is settled! Leon, hurry up and take them away. It’ll be too late after this!” Benedict, Elder Young, and Vincent were anxiously urging Leon.

“No! I won’t leave!” Leon shook his head, rejecting them without any hesitation.

“What?”

“Why?”

“Are you just going to stay here and die?!”

All of them were shocked to hear that.

They were already old. There was nothing to be afraid of, even if their power was going to be taken away.

However, Leon was different. Leon was still young. His potential for martial arts meant his growth would be limitless in the future. As long as Leon could escape this time, he could get revenge for them in the future. He could even rebuild their families!

However, if Leon was not willing to leave and he was killed or crippled by the Lapwoods, then all three families were doomed!

doing! It won't be so easy for the Lapwoods and the Fields

"Elder Shear, all of you can relax. I know what I'm doing! It won't be to get me!" Leon said firmly.

He had practically exhausted everything he had, but there was still one final trump card he had that he had never used before

Even he was curious to know if it would work.

However, he would put his life on the line regardless!

He could not just watch as Benedict, Elder Young, and the others sacrificed themselves for him as he ran away himself!

That was not something he could do!

Orvald had a cold look in his eyes as Elder Young, Leon, and the others mumbled in discussions. He quickly realized what Elder Young and the others were planning.

"You're trying to escape? It won't be so easy!" Orvald scoffed as he waved. After that, the four experts he brought over immediately fanned out, sealing any path of escape.

"Despicable!"

Looking at the path behind them being cut off, Elder Young, Benedict, and the others felt a chill in their hearts!

"Leon, you idiots! We asked you to run, but you kept on being stubborn and refused to listen! Look at it now. You can't even run if you wanted to!" Elder Young berated in frustration, unable to stop himself from silently cursing at Leon's failure.

"Elder Young, don't worry. They can't do anything to me!" Leon responded calmly. However, he actually felt a little anxious inside, feeling nowhere near as confident as he looked.

"You..."

Elder Young, Benedict, and the others had sour looks on their faces when they heard that!

They had all seen Leon being heavily injured by Orvald in one blow!

Leon had not even been able to stand up to a single attack from Orvald, but he was trying to act like he was in charge!

They could not understand where Leon got his courage from!

“Brat, there’s no need to try and talk your way out of this! I’ll give you one last chance. If you give the method and treasure over, I’ll consider sparing you from dying! Otherwise, you’ll bear the consequences!”

Orvald acted like he was far above everyone there. He looked at Leon like he was looking at an ant. His face was full of disdain.

That was the reality as well. With his power at the Emperor State, anyone at the peak Overlord State or below was no different than an ant to him. Leon was not even at the peak Overlord State!

There was no way he would see Leon as a threat at all!

Hearing that, Iris and Cynthia suddenly had a glint in their eyes. They had a sliver of hope again.

To the two of them, Leon’s life was far more important than any methods or treasures!

If the other side was really willing to let Leon go, they could talk to Leon and persuade him to give Orvald what he wanted!

However, before the two of them could even say anything, Leon spoke up first.

“Old man, you want my methods and my treasure? Dream on! Also, I’ll give you one last chance. If you leave with the Lapwoods right now, I’ll think about forgetting about this! Otherwise, I’ll definitely flatten your family in the future!” Leon said coldly.

Even though he still had one trump card, he did not know if the trump card could defeat someone at the Emperor State. He was still a bit worried.

For the sake of Iris, Cynthia, and everyone else’s safety, he could forget about everything that happened if Orvald was willing to stop.

On the other hand, if they did not stop there, he would definitely destroy the Lapwoods in the future if they got through this!

Everyone was completely shocked to hear Leon's words. It was like a bomb had dropped!

Chapter 1237

"Has Leon gone crazy?"

"Even staring death in the face, he's challenging Elder Lapwood. Is he sick of living?!"

All of the major families were looking at Leon with disbelief. They felt like they were looking at an idiot.

They knew very well that Orvald was in a noble position. Since Orvald had given his word, Leon would be able to survive with his life as long as he obediently gave his method and treasures over, even if his power might be crippled.

Yet, Leon did not take the chance to do that and keep his life. He even said he would destroy the Lapwoods!

Was that not a death wish?!

"Leon, are you suicidal?"

Cynthia and Iris both looked at Leon with a dumbfounded expression. The hope they had earlier was completely extinguished!

Of course, it was not just the two of them. Even Elder Young, Benedict, and the others were quite infuriated by Leon's arrogant words!

They could understand Leon not wanting to give up his treasure and his method, but Leon had no reason to anger Orvald with those words!

Then, Leon would not just end up with his strength being crippled, but Orvald could very well kill Leon in his anger!

Leon stood to gain nothing!

Elder Young, in particular, would rather Leon be crippled than have Leon die to the Lapwoods. Would that not mean that his granddaughter would end up a widower?!

"What an arrogant brat! Since you want to die, I'll grant you your wish! Take this!"

Orvald was furious. He did not waste any time as he struck out with an imperious force, attacking Leon head-

1. on.

“Old man, you asked for this! I’ll put my life on the line!”

Leon clenched his teeth and used his final trump card. He took out one part of the Potential Energy from his pendant.

The energy had been given to him by Master Haslewood as thanks. He had gotten three in total.

In the few days he was at Dragon Corp, he could tell that Master Haslewood was an incredibly strong person, but he could not tell how strong!

Furthermore, this was only a shred of energy that was left behind. It was not like Master Haslewood was there himself. Orvald was a master at the Emperor State, and he was not going to be easy to deal with!

He was not confident that the energy would be able to hold Orvald back.

If the energy from Master Haslewood failed, then he would only be facing death!

“No...”

Looking at Orvald attacking in his rage, both Iris and Cynthia paled, and their hearts sank.

It was not just the two of them. Benedict, Elder Young, Vincent, and the others were the same. They had looks of hopelessness on their faces!

“It’s done for. Leon’s going to die this time...”

Everyone around them shook their heads and sighed.

They knew that Leon’s skills were not at Orvald’s level. The two of them were worlds apart!

None of them felt like Leon would be able to stand up to Orvald’s attack unless a miracle happened!

“Elder Lapwood is so strong! He’s unbeatable!”

In contrast to the hopelessness Iris, Cynthia, and the others felt, the Fields looked incredibly excited. All of them started cheering for Orvald!

Sean, in particular, looked incredibly happy. He was even starting to plan out how he would torture Leon when Leon fell into his hands. He needed to settle the score with Leon!

Yet, when everyone there thought that Leon would definitely die, something that shocked all of them happened!

Boom!

When Leon pulled out the energy, an incredibly strong wave of pressure soared into the skies. It was as if even the air around them had changed. It contained an unrivaled power that threatened to destroy everything!

“W–What is that?”

Everyone, including Orvald, was stunned when they felt that immense power.

It was just too strong. The terrifying aura immediately enveloped the whole area.

In front of that power, everyone there felt like they were just a tiny ant. They started to feel the fear of death creeping up in their hearts!

“Not good, everyone, run!”

The major families immediately reacted and started to run back.

It was not just them, even the ones behind Leon were filled with shock and horror. After that, they grabbed the girls and immediately distanced themselves from Leon.

Of course, the power was not aimed at them, but they still found it hard to stand the imposing aura coming from it. Naturally, it was far worse for Orvald, the Lapwoods, and the Fields around him.

Orvald did not hesitate at all. He immediately moved to cripple Leon, trying to stop that attack.

However, it was just too strong. He was not even able to get within three meters of Leon. After that, he immediately turned around to run.

Unfortunately, the attack was already focused right on him. No matter how he fled, he could not escape it!

“Elder, we’ll help you stop the attack!”

Seeing Orvald fall into a dangerous situation, the four experts from the Lapwoods pushed back the fear in their hearts as they hurried behind Orvald, working together to attack.

Taking the chance, Orvald summoned up all the energy in his body. After that, he launched an attack with the four other experts, condensing it into a much stronger attack to try and stop Leon's attack!

However, they were far too naive!

Boom!

With a violent clash, the Potential Energy Forces sliced through the Lapwoods' strike like butter, violently slamming on their bodies.

Boom!

The first one to be hit was Orvald. One of his arms shattered, and his body flew back a few meters. He felt all the bones in his body being taxed, and the injuries were incredibly bad. He seemed to be struggling even to breathe.

Compared to him, the four experts were in a slightly better state, but not by much. All of them spat out blood. They could not tell how many of their bones had been broken. They were all heavily injured.

It was not just that. Sean and the Fields were not able to avoid it either. The remainder of the attack struck them. Quite a few of them paled as they staggered back a few steps, falling on the ground!

However, they were much further away. Only a few of them had been affected badly because they were too weak to withstand the attack, and the others were fine.

"H-How is this possible?!"

Iris and Cynthia were stunned by the sight.

Elder Young, Benedict, and the others were too.

Everyone present was absolutely dumbfounded.

All of them looked at Leon in complete shock, and their eyes were full of fear!

They had thought that Orvald would definitely cripple Leon. Yet, Leon had not been injured at all. He had even managed to defeat Orvald, who was at the Emperor State, and four incredibly strong experts from the Lapwoods in one blow!

That was unbelievable!

They would never have believed it if they had not witnessed it for themselves!

“I–Impossible!”

“This can’t have happened…”

Walter, Sean, and the others looked like they had been struck by lightning. All of them were completely pale, and they found themselves unable to accept what had happened!

Sean, in particular, knew better than anyone else how strong the four experts were. Two of them were at the peak Overlord State, while the other two were at the Semi Emperor State. There was also Orvald at the Emperor State!

They were so strong together, but Leon won in one strike!

It was obvious how shocked and afraid he was!

“D–Did I do that?”

It was not just everyone else who was shocked at how Orvald and the others had been injured, even Leon was!

He had been worried that Master Haslewood’s gift would not be able to stand up to Orvald, but he never expected the power within to be so terrifying. He had actually heavily injured all of them in one blow!

That unbelievably scary power shook him deeply!

At that moment, he finally understood that Master Haslewood was actually much stronger than he thought.

He had underestimated the man!

“H–How strong!”

“Leon, you’re amazing!”

Cynthia and Iris immediately rushed over to Leon when they snapped out of their shock. They held Leon’s arms happily.

It was not just them, Elder Young, Benedict, and the others were the same. They were completely shaken as they looked at Leon in disbelief!

They would never have dreamed that Leon had managed to turn the tide alone when they all felt hopeless. Leon had defeated Orvald and the Lapwoods in just one blow!

It was a miracle among miracles!

Suddenly, their hearts soared. They were incredibly happy and emotional!

“Is Leon still human?!”

“That attack was just too crazy. How did he do it?”

All the major families who were watching started to look at Leon in fear.

When Leon had spoken so arrogantly to Orvald, all of them had thought that Leon would die!

Yet, they finally realized that Leon had not been acting arrogantly. He really did have the skill to back it up!

They had underestimated Leon too much!

“How did this happen?”

Sean and the Fields looked completely ashen.

Just thinking about that attack just now had all of them shudder!

The

power was so immense that it was enough to kill even Emperor State martial artists instantly!

It was not something the Lapwoods and the Fields could go up against!

The next moment, both Sean and all the Fields were filled with regret.

If they had known that Leon was so strong, they would not have made an enemy out of Leon!

Unfortunately, it was already too late for regrets!

“R–Run away...” Orvald forced out. His weak voice startled Sean and the Fields.

At that moment, the four experts from the Lapwoods barely managed to get up. After that, they hurriedly went to help Orvald.

On the other end, after the period of rest, Solomon and Eric had already stabilized their injuries. They quickly gathered next to Sean.

“Sir, this guy is too strong. They’re not someone we can deal with. We should leave Springfield City,” the guards said in a hurry.

“Yes, let’s go.”

Sean no longer dared to even think about getting Leon’s method or treasures. He pulled at his wife and prepared to flee with Orvald and the others along with his guards.

As for the Fields, even he and his grandfather were finding it hard to protect themselves. They would not be able to help the Fields at all!

“You’re trying to run? Do you think you can?!” Leon sneered. He rushed over and stood in front of Orvald and Sean. He had a majestic aura about him.

“Brat, what do you want?” Orvald had a dark look on his face.

After taking that attack, he was already heavily injured. One of his arms was even broken by the attack. He looked to be in a horrible state. He lost all the pride and arrogance he had earlier.

The other Lapwoods were the same. Even though their injuries were not as bad as Orvald’s, they were still at the end of their strength.

They were incredibly worried about Leon’s power as well. No one dared to oppose Leon anymore!

“Old man, you Lapwoods belong to Sky County. Not only are you trying to interfere with Springfield City, but you’ve also tried to kill me more than once! You’re turning around and trying to run now that things have gotten worse! Nothing goes that well in the world!” Leon said with a cold smile.

“I...”

“Mister Wolf, the blame for this matter lies with us. We’ve offended you a lot, so I’ll apologize to you. As long as you’re willing to let us off, the Lapwoods will be willing to make some compensation to you,” Orvald said.

When the situation dictated it, one would be forced to lower their head. After witnessing Leon’s immense strength, he knew that he had no way of fighting Leon. So, he was forced to lower his head and admit defeat, hoping to exchange money for their lives.

“Compensation? I don’t care about that!” Leon sniffed.

“Then what do you want?” Orvald asked apprehensively.

“It’s very simple. Didn’t you say you would cripple me and take my method and treasures? Then, I’ll do as you want. I’ll cripple your strength and make you feel the consequences of your greed!” Leon sneered.

After that, he started to walk forward toward Torvald and the others. Every step he took was like a heavy blow to Orvald and the others.

“We’re done for.” Orvald and the others paled. Their hearts sank to the depths.

Strength was the foundation of a martial artist. If their strength was taken away by Leon, then they would become a cripple and lose everything.

They could not accept paying a price like that!

“Chester, three of you flee with Sean! We’ll split up!” Orvald immediately decided as he ordered the guards.

“Yes.” The three guards acknowledged the order. They did not hesitate for a moment as they immediately grabbed Sean and Lilith and fled.

At the same time, the four other guards fled the other way with Orvald.

“Despicable!” Leon never expected them to split up to run. His expression sank.

He could not go two places at once.

As for Benedict, Vincent, and the others, they were too weak to help him pursue either side.

“Whatever, I’ll get the little one first!” Leon hesitated for a moment before he immediately ran after Sean.

Orvald’s hand was already crippled, so Orvald had already paid the price. There was no need for him to be that ruthless.

On the other hand, Sean had tried to force the Shears to marry Cynthia to Theodore. It was an incredibly despicable action. He needed to seek justice for Cynthia and the Shears!

“I can’t believe the Lapwoods from Sky County would run away like dogs. This is quite sad.”

“Leon is just an absolute monster. He’s so young, but his strength is unfathomable.”

“Whether it’s the Northern King, the Fields, or the Lapwoods, no one has ever made an enemy of him and come out of it well. We should all be careful.”

Looking at Leon scaring the Lapwoods away like that, the major forces were all lamenting the fact amongst one another. All of them started to look at Leon with fear and respect.

From that moment on, Leon had turned into the undisputed king of Springfield City. No one would ever underestimate Leon for being an orphan anymore!

“How did this happen...?”

Walter and the Fields felt their hearts freeze at the sight.

The Lapwoods were their most powerful allies. They had thought that Leon would be easily dealt with with the help of the Lapwoods!

Yet, not only had the Lapwoods failed to do anything to Leon, the strongest of the Lapwoods, Orvald, had been crippled by Leon. In the end, the Lapwoods had abandoned them.

It was obvious how hopeless they felt.

“No...”

Sean was absolutely terrified when he saw that Leon was coming in his direction.

It was not just him. The guards were terrified as well.

Even though the three of them were stronger than Leon, they were all heavily injured. They also had Sean and Lilith there as burdens.

Lilith was not even a Supreme Master. It drastically slowed them down.

In just a few moments, Leon quickly started to catch up to them.

“Lilith, don’t blame me for this.”

Looking at the worsening situation, Sean steeled his heart. Before Lilith could react, he suddenly let go of Lilith’s wrist.

The pair was husband and wife, but that meant nothing in the face of great danger.

For the sake of his life, he was forced to give up on Lilith.

“Dear, you...”

Lilith was completely stunned. She stood there and watched as Sean fled, unable to believe her eyes.

Since she was very beautiful, Sean had always treated her very well. Ever since they got married, they've always had a good relationship.

Never in her dreams would she expect Sean to leave her alone like that.

At that moment, her heart felt very cold.

Leon was not someone ruthless, and his main goal was Sean. He did not even spare Lilith a look as he rushed past her, continuing toward Sean and the others.

Without Lilith to burden them, Sean and the guards sped up a lot more. They were starting to pull away from

Leon.

"You're trying to run? It won't be that easy!" Leon sneered. He already made the decision to seek justice for the Shears and Cynthia. There was no way he would just watch as Sean fled!

At that moment, he raised his hand, and over ten needles shot out with incredible force at Sean and the others.

None of them expected Leon to have any hidden weapons. By the time they reacted, the needles had already found their target, striking the men's backs.

The guards were all at the advanced Overlord State and above. They reacted very quickly, immediately turning around to destroy the needles.

However, Sean was not that lucky. He was only a peak Supreme Master. He was too weak. He only managed to strike two of the needles. The third flew past and struck his shoulder.

Sean hissed as he stumbled, almost falling to the ground.

Taking the chance, Leon leaped into the air, jumping past the four of them and landing in front of them, cutting their path of retreat.

"Crap!"

Sean's expression darkened at the sight of Leon. He never dreamed that he would still fall into Leon's hands, even after doing so much.

"Sean, it's time to accept your fate!" Leon said coldly as he charged forward with incredible strength.

"Solomon, three of you hold him back..."

Sean paled. He turned around to flee right after saying that.

"Brat, take this!" The three of them clenched their teeth as they charged at Leon.

However, they were still scared from Leon's attack just now, so their attacks felt incredibly powerless.

Of course, the energy was Leon's greatest trump card. He only had two left. There was no way he would waste them on those three.

Furthermore, he did not need it when his opponents were heavily injured!

"Just lie down!" Leon shouted as he punched forward, using Double Attack at Solomon and Eric.

Bang! Bang!

With two intense clashes, there was no way Solomon and Eric would be able to break through Leon's defenses.

Right after that, they were sent flying by Leon just like before.

At the same time, Chester attacked.

Leon remained calm. He stepped forward and tried to use his Mirror of Sovereign to block the attack.

Chester knew that Leon had a treasure protecting him, so Chester tried to pull off a feint.

Unfortunately, he was heavily injured, so he was much slower than usual.

Taking the chance, Leon struck out with incredible force at Chester's chest.

Chester could do nothing but barely block Leon's attack.

The results were obvious. He was sent flying by Leon's second strike, just like the other two had.

After dealing with the three of them, Leon did not hesitate. He shot forward like an arrow, quickly charging in Sean's direction.

As he got closer and closer to Sean, he punched out with incredible force, aiming for Sean's back.

"I'm done for..."

Feeling the immense power behind him, Sean immediately rolled on the floor, barely avoiding Leon's attack.

However, he could avoid the first attack, but not the second one. He was immediately struck by Leon's second wave of energy.

Sean spat out a mouthful of blood as he rolled a few times on the ground.

Right after that, he had not even been able to get up before Leon appeared in front of him, stepping on his chest and stopping him from moving.

"Sean, it's over now!"

Leon had a cold glint in his eyes. He looked at Sean and prepared to cripple Sean's power.

"No..."

"Leon, I already know my mistakes. Please don't take away my strength. If you let me go this time, I'll do anything," Sean said in fear and shock.

"It's already too late to apologize! You should leave all those words for your next life!" Leon smiled in disdain. He ruthlessly slammed his fist into Sean's Energy Sea Point, crippling Sean's power.

Even though Cynthia was not his girlfriend, Cynthia was still second to Iris in his eyes!

Sean should never have helped the Fields against the Shears. He should not have forced Cynthia to marry

Theodore!

It had thoroughly angered Leon!

He had just taken away Sean's power. Sean was already lucky he was not killed!

"No! I won't agree to that! Grandpa, it's too big a price to pay to sacrifice so many people and what we've built for the past hundreds of years! I won't be at peace even if I manage to leave Springfield City!" Cynthia shook her head and rejected Benedict's idea.

"But-" Benedict wanted to try and convince Cynthia but was interrupted immediately.

"That's enough, Grandpa! I've decided that I'm not leaving Springfield City, even if it means the death of me!

Cynthia said with determination.

"But you," Benedict was rendered helpless seeing how determined she was.

Brad was at a crossroads as he would have to sacrifice his daughter or his father no matter what.

Naturally, they were not the only ones struggling; the other Shears all fell into silence in despair.

In the afternoon, the Fields began preparing for the wedding and sent out invitations to all members of the elite society in Springfield City to participate in the wedding between Theodore and Cynthia.

The Fields and the Shears were always competitors and it was common knowledge for all the other families in Springfield City, so none of them ever expected the two families to marry their direct descendants.

The news of the wedding soon spread, stirring chaos all around Springfield City.

The next morning, Cynthia sat sorrowfully before her dressing table with a blank look in her eyes as she felt her heart dying.

Just then, Harvey stepped into the room and was devastated when he saw how upset Cynthia was.

"Cynthia, this is all my fault. If I knew this would happen, I should've let you go to Seacove City with Leon," Harvey said guiltily.

Cynthia was going to travel to Seacove City with Leon a few days ago but was stopped by Harvey and Benedict. If Harvey snuck Cynthia out at the time, none of these would have happened.

Cynthia's eyes brightened up slightly at the mention of Leon's name. She shook her head and said, "Harvey, no one expects this to happen. It's not your fault. Don't beat yourself up over it."

"Cynthia, should I call Leon? He is almost in the Advanced Overlord State now and he might be able to resolve this," Harvey said hesitantly.

Though he did not want his sister to be in a complicated love triangle with Leon and Iris, it would be much worse to marry Cynthia to a monster like Theodore.

“Forget it! Leon is outnumbered by the Lapwoods and if he gets involved, he’ll die,” Cynthia said bitterly.

She only agreed to the marriage to protect her family and Leon; if Leon hurried back from Seacove City and challenged the Fields, the Shears, and Leon would all suffer and that was the last thing she wanted to see.

“But,” Harvey muttered.

“That’s enough! I’m begging you, Harvey. Don’t tell Leon about this. I don’t want him to get into trouble,” Cynthia pleaded.

“But, fine!” Harvey sighed and gave up on calling Leon.

In the Fields Mansion, the outdoor plaza in front of the mansion was decorated most extravagantly for Theodore’s wedding day.

There were ribbons and balloons of all different colors, laced with red curtains, forming a beautiful roof over the plaza.

The Fields covered the entire ground with red velvet carpet and glittered it with flower petals, before decorating the sides with lights to form a path toward the plaza.

At the end of the red carpets, there was a gigantic stage that was built overnight with patterns formed with pearls and flower petals and handrails made with gold.

On the sides of the stage was an endless grass field filled with chairs that could house thousands of guests.

The beautiful venue, wonderful music, and extravagant decoration were all so breathtaking that they rivaled the engagement party between Cynthia and Leon.

Just then, countless luxury cars parked outside the plaza as all the powerful figures invited by the Fields arrived at the wedding venue.

The Fields and the Shears were both extremely influential families and their alliance would soon shift the entire power balance of Springfield City. Therefore, the Collins, the Youngs, Vincent, and anyone who mattered at all had all responded to the invitation.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1215

“She's so beautiful!”

“As expected of the second most beautiful woman in the city. It's as if an angel fell from Heaven!”

“God knows how Theodore Fields gets so lucky to marry her!”

All the young men in the audience gasped when they saw Cynthia and turned to look at Theodore enviously.

Cynthia was one of the Four Beauties and if Theodore was perfectly healthy and well, he could be considered a man worthy of Cynthia's hand in marriage; however, with his legs destroyed, everyone simply felt sorry for Cynthia.

Just then, Benedict and the Shears stepped out of the cars at the back of the convoy and like Cynthia, there was a dark expression on every one of them.

Following the arrival of Cynthia, Theodore, and the Shears, the wedding officially began.

A man in a suit and a woman in a nightgown stepped onto the steps.

The two were famous television hosts and were hired to host the wedding. Apart from the hosts, the Fields hired several famous actors and actresses to be the groomsmen and bridesmaids. Naturally, the beautiful actresses could hardly hold a candle to Cynthia's beauty and were all ignored by the others.

"Thank you for taking the time to be a part of this wedding. On behalf of the Fields and the groom, Mister Theodore, we thank you for your blessing," The hosts walked to the center of the stage and greeted all the guests, which was met with a round of applause by the audience.

"Now, let's invite our groom, Mister Theodore, and our bride, Miss Cynthia, to the stage. Please welcome them with a round of applause!"

The two hosts started clapping and the others followed.

With the help of the groomsmen, Theodore went up the stage in his wheelchair.

"Harvey, go up to the stage with Cynthia!" Brad said darkly.

Traditionally, it was supposed to be the father who accompanied the bride to the stage, before handing her over to the groom. However, Brad could not be more against the marriage and wanted no part of it, so he could only ask Harvey to stand in his place.

"Sure," Harvey muttered gloomily. He took Cynthia's hand and slowly walked toward the stage, while the bridesmaids helped with the skirt of the wedding dress.

"What a shame!"

"Another one of the Four Beauties claimed!"

The young men in the audience sighed gloomily.

Iris, who was the most beautiful woman, started dating Leon; on top of that, the second most beautiful woman was going to be married soon, and all eligible bachelors in the city were overwhelmed by disappointment.

"We hereby announce that the wedding begins! First of all."

The hosts proceeded with the wedding but were instantly interrupted.

"Hang on! I object!" A Rolls-Royce raced toward the venue and came to a sudden halt before the plaza. The car door flew open and Leon stepped out of the vehicle with Ruth and Iris.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1216

"Leon!"

Theodore and Cynthia were both shocked to see Leon and Cynthia could not help but rub her eyes in disbelief.

According to what she knew, Leon should be handling operational matters of his firm in Seacove City, yet he had appeared miraculously in front of her.

"Why is Leon here?"

"Look at him. He is probably here to stop the wedding!"

The audience were stunned as well as they knew Leon as the Fields' enemy and they were all aware of how Leon had also offended the Shears by calling off his engagement with Cynthia.

Based on Leon's relationship with the two families, there was no legitimate reason for Leon to be at the wedding.

"I object to the marriage!" Leon ignored the others and strode up to the stage with a cold expression.

"Leon, what do you think you are doing? Shouldn't you be in Seacove City? Why are you back?" Cynthia sobered and stopped Leon anxiously.

Had Leon returned to Springfield City the day before, she would be pleasantly surprised, but at the moment, not only was she not happy at all, she was terrified that Leon would destroy the wedding and get himself into a fight against the Fields and the Lapwoods.

Just then, Vincent's daughter, Snow stepped out of the crowd and shouted, "Cynthia, I was the one who called him back!"

Snow was close with Leon and Cynthia and despite Leon calling off his engagement with Cynthia, Snow knew that Cynthia was still deeply in love with Leon and she had always wanted them to get back together.

When the news that Cynthia was marrying Leon's nemesis, Theodore, came out, Snow instantly realized that there was more to the story and informed Leon about it right away. Hence, Leon rushed his way back to Springfield City.

"Have you gone mad, Cynthia? Why would you marry Theodore Fields out of the blue?" Leon questioned sharply, feeling slightly frustrated that he knew nothing about Cynthia's wedding.

Had Snow not called him and informed him about it earlier that morning, he would still be clueless at this very moment.

"No. No reason! This is between the Shears and the Fields. It's none of your business. Just leave!" Cynthia bit her lips as she suppressed the urge to throw herself into Leon's arms.

"No way! I'm not leaving until you tell me what's going on!" Leon's expression darkened.

He conflicted feelings about Cynthia and with him dating Iris, he would send Cynthia his blessing from the bottom of his heart if she was marrying a man that she was truly in love with. However, Theodore was a known womanizer who did not deserve Cynthia.

Theodore belonged to a family that was the enemy of both Leon and the Shears, so Leon could not understand why the Shears would agree to this and refused to leave before learning the truth.

"I'm begging you, Leon! Just go! I don't want you to get hurt, nor can I put my family at risk," Cynthia pleaded as she tried to shove Leon off the stage.

However, Leon stood his ground and no matter how hard she tried, Leon would not budge.

He grabbed her hand and said, "Cynthia, tell me the truth. What on earth's going on?!" Based on Cynthia's reaction, even a fool could tell that something was wrong and he refused to leave her behind.

“Leon, so you’ve come! We were just wondering how we can pin you down and here you are, walking right up to our doorsteps! You must have a death wish!” Theodore sneered.

“As if the Fields can hurt me at all! What a joke!” Leon scoffed and turned to glance at Theodore with contempt.

With all the tools he gathered on top of his strength, Leon might not be able to destroy the Fields on his own, but neither would the Fields be capable of hurting him.

“Maybe the Fields aren’t capable of hurting you, but what about the Lapwoods?” Sean scoffed and stepped out of the crowd with his three guards.

“Who are you?” Leon froze at the overpowering aura from the four approaching him. At this point, Cynthia realized that she could not hide the truth any longer and said bitterly, “I’ll tell you the truth, Leon. They are from the Lapwoods in Solum County! The one in front is Theodore’s brother-in-law, the second son of the Lapwoods, San Lapwoods. Behind him are two men in the Advanced Overlord State and one martial artist in the Peak Overlord State, whom he brought with him from his family!”

“What?! Two men in the Advanced Overlord State and one martial artist in the Peak Overlord State? How is that even possible?!” Leon was shaken to the core by Cynthia’s words, and he was not the only one.

All the people in the audience stood as they gaped at Sean and his guards.

“Oh my god, two martial artists in the Advanced Overlord State and one martial artist in the Peak Overlord State?!”

“As expected of the Lapwoods! How powerful!”

They all stared at Sean with fear and respect as they all knew that even the top martial artist in Springfield City was in the Intermediate Overlord State. Apart from Leon, who was close to reaching the Advanced Overlord State, there was not a single soul who managed to reach this level in the past; yet the Lapwoods sent out two martial artists in the Advanced Overlord State and one martial artist in the Peak Overlord State casually and the trio was sufficient enough to destroy any family in Springfield City.

“Leon, now you know why we have agreed to this,” Cynthia said and tears scrolled down her cheeks.

“So they are forcing you into it!” Leon’s expression darkened.

It was strange from the very beginning for the Shears to marry Cynthia to a descendent of their enemy and Leon finally came to realize that the Fields forced the Shears to comply with the Lapwoods’ support.

“Leon, it’s the jungle’s law and the Lapwoods are simply too powerful for us to fight back. Just leave,” Cynthia muttered sorrowfully.

“Leaving so soon? No way!” Sean sneered and waved his hand. Instantly, two of the Lapwoods guards in the Advanced Overlord State darted forward and stood in Leon’s way.

Sean risked provoking the Dragon Corps to back the Fields up mainly to rob Leon of the Power Method he owned and since Leon was right before his eyes, Sean was not about to let him go.

“Mister Lapwood, what is the meaning of this? Theodore has agreed that you won’t hurt Leon if I marry him! Are you going to go back on your words?” Cynthia’s expression darkened and opened her arms to stand before Leon.

“Cynthia, so you agreed to marry him for my sake as well,” Leon realized that Cynthia was merely keeping the wedding a secret from him to protect him from harm. Instantly, he was overwhelmed by emotions as he wondered how he could ever repay Cynthia’s love.

“So what if we’re breaking the deal? Cynthia, I only agreed to your condition yesterday to stall! Leon is the enemy of the Fields and he destroyed my legs. I only hope to tear him into shreds and letting him go has never been an option at all!” Theodore spat viciously.

“What?! You shameless bast*rd!” Cynthia was enraged that Theodore lied to her. She tore the veil off her head and threw it onto the ground. “Theodore Fields, I’m not marrying you!”

“That’s not up to you! If you dare to run away from the wedding, Leon won’t be the only one who dies. Even the Shears will suffer! Think twice before you act!” Theodore sneered.

With Sean backing him, he was never going to let Cynthia escape no matter what.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1219

Just then, Walter, Lilith, and the other Fields strode out from behind the audience stance.

“Theodore’s right! Cynthia, you are getting married to him today and Leon’s going to die!” Walter sneered and with his signal, the Fields surrounded the Shears within a blink of an eye.

It was an unspoken threat directed at Cynthia, telling her that the Fields would attack the Shears if Cynthia dared to run away.

“Why you!” Cynthia’s face flushed with rage. Despite how livid she was, she had no choice but to give up to protect her family from the Lapwoods.

“Leon, just leave before they do anything to you,” She lowered her voice. Knowing what Leon was capable of, he would survive as long as he ran immediately and so long as she agreed to the marriage, the Fields would not harm her or her family.

“Run? Cynthia, I came here to stop the wedding! To hell with the Fields and the Lapwoods! Anyone who stands in my way will die!” Leon roared coldly.

The crowd stirred at Leon’s words.

“Are we hearing this right?”

“How dare he be so arrogant in front of the Lapwoods?”

“Has he gone insane?!”

The people around them gaped at Leon in disbelief.

Though Leon already reached the Intermediate Overlord State and had no rival in Springfield City, the Lapwoods had two martial artists in the Advanced Overlord State and one martial artist in the Peak Overlord State and any one of them would be able to defeat Leon with ease.

Not only did Leon not ignore Cynthia's advice to run, but he also started provoking the Lapwoods.

"How dare you, kid?! You are just in the Intermediate Overlord State and you dare to look down at us?! You must have a death wish!" Enraged, Sean desperately wished that he could order his guards to tear Leon apart, but since he intended to obtain the Power Method Leon possessed, he suppressed his anger.

"Enough chit-chatting! Lapwood, right? They might be afraid of you, but not me! Just come at me with all you have. Let's see what the Lapwoods are made of!" Leon sneered.

Though he was not as powerful as Sean's guards, he had plenty of tools that could turn the table around and he had nothing to fear.

"Leon, are you mad?!" Cynthia gasped in disbelief.

Iris and Ruth were both shocked as well.

The three of them were close with Leon and knew the extent of his power better than most.

Leon's power level was lower than the Lapwoods guards and could not possibly win against them, so they could not understand why Leon would be foolish enough to challenge Sean.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1220

Hearing Paige's improvisation, Patricia had one question in her mind, and that was why Paige could play so well without any preparation

Over the past years, Patricia had heard a lot of niche piano music. Therefore, she was sure that the melody that Paige had played had never appeared in the market Patricia thought, therefore, that is her improvisation!

How could she improvise without deliberation?

I shamelessly asked her whether she played the piano and won any awards...

I even showed off in front of her by mentioning my championships and my teacher, Andie....

How shameful!

Andie is nobody in front of Ms. Walker.

Vallorie was a myth in the piano world, and no one could break her record so far.

She had won countless awards of great value at home and abroad. Vallorie was an equal to Larry!

**

Therefore, Patricia thought, Ms. Walker wouldn't take me seriously even if I had won more than 500 times.

She is at a level beyond my reach!

I made a **** of myself.

When I asked those **** questions, Paige was playing games. I thought she would be good-for-nothing for the rest of her life....

Her previous contempt and arrogance shown to Paige embarrassed her now....

Patricia could not tell how she felt now, frustrated, indignant, sad, disappointed, helpless, or...

"It is your turn." On the stage, Malia smiled and looked at Abbigail with confidence.

"Ms. Walker has improvised. How is her melody? | believe everyone has his answer. Don't you think that you are more gifted than Ms. Walker? Then, impress us."

Standing where she was, Abbigail trembled all over. She knew better than anyone about her talent in piano. She would make a ***of herself if she sat by the piano.

How could I beat Ms. Walker! Abbigail thought.

Malia saw through Abbigail. After a sneer, Malia said, "If you can't improvise, then play a famous song you have heard."

Abbigail couldn't play any famous songs...

She had once learned 'Canon', "For Elise", "Mariage D'amour, and so on. However, she could not remember the melody and couldn't play the piano without the scores

Even if there were the scores, Abbigail couldn't play as well as Paige.

Whoever knew something about the piano would find out the truth soon.

"You can't play the top ten famous songs, can you?" Malia thought, how ironic! I overestimated her

"My mind goes blank suddenly..." Biting her lower lip, Abbigail insisted.

Abbigail's embarrassment amused Malia. "You can't improvise and don't remember the famous songs. Then, play whatever you know."

Abbigail did not move. She had practiced Sorrow and it only for one month. She didn't practice anything else.

"Well, do you know anything? What about **Little Star?"

The audience burst into laughter.

"What a shock that Abbigail doesn't play the piano!"

"Does she know nothing but Sonow?"

"She can't remember the score, can she?"

"For a pianist, remembering the score is the most basic thing. She can't remember a few bars of melody. How absurd!"

"She can't play****Little Star! How *****! I could play that song when I was four years old"

"How could such a girl get second place?"

"There must be something wrong!"

Linda, who sat in the first row, held a microphone and said disappointedly. "The competition this year demanded that the participants play well and could compose songs. From the first audition to the third round for the top eight candidates, you played the same melody."

Most participants played a few songs to leave a good impression on the judges. However, Abbigail played Sorrow only

"I thought you did so because you were very confident in your song. Therefore, I admired you. However, the reason turns out to be that you can play nothing but Sorrow!"

Linda seemed to be very disappointed in Abbigail. "You played tricks on such a serious and grand occasion. I am very disappointed in you.”

“No, no, it’s not like that...” Abbigail almost sobbed. “I can play...”

There was an uproar among the audience

“Then play! Prove yourself!”

“Ms. Walker played so well. Are you afraid? You don’t dare to play, do you?”

“Apologize!”

“Apologize to Ms. Walker!”

“You aren’t qualified to get second place! You shouldn’t stay in this circle!”

“Abbigail, you ****this field! Please get out of this circle!”

“Get out! Get out!”

Tyrell and Lindsey watched their daughter fall from a celebrity to a notorious wretch.

To make things worse, Paige was the cause.

Distressed, the Tate couple wanted to speak up for their daughter.

Right then, Paige said, “I met your old classmate just now.” Paige looked indifferent with a strong vibe. “Now, let’s invite her to the stage.”

Surprised, the crowd saw a girl appear on the stage. Standing there, the girl said,

“Hello everyone. My name is Ella Bingley. I came to this ceremony at the invitation of Celia, I once studied in the same class as Abbigail.”

“Ella!” Abbigail exclaimed in shock.

Abbigail had a good time with Ella in the past. They had been good friends but had some conflicts later. They lost contact with each other after Ella transferred to another school....

Abbigail did not expect her once-good friend to expose her past in public. Abbigail wondered, did Ella do so because I showed off in front of her before the ceremony?

Or is Fila hrihod hu Paina)

Whatever the reason is, I will be doomed today! Abbigail subconsciously clenched her fists, and her face turned pale.

“Abbigail was poor in the past. I had been to her house, and there was no piano at all. She was very envious of me, who could learn the piano. She would touch my piano whenever she visited me at my house.

“I am sure that she did not learn the piano before high school. She could not distinguish between the upper and lower registers.

“She must-have learned the piano after high school.”
