

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 1880

Chapter 1880

“Thud!”

With a deafening slam, Joel was propelled backward from the impact of Yuri's fist and landed on the ground. in a crumpled heap.

Thankfully, he was already at the Semi Emperor State, and since he managed to dodge Yuri's attack in time, he did not suffer many injuries at all. Despite that, however, he still felt something rise in his chest, and his mouth was tinged with a metallic taste, but he swallowed it back!

“Take this!” Yuri let out another grunt as he stepped forward, unleashing another surge of energy straight toward Joel!

“Oh no!” An expression of horror crossed Joel's face. He was already weakened from Yuri's initial attack, and as much as he wanted to dodge this second one, he knew there was no way he could pull it off.

There was nothing he could do except watch in despair as Yuri's attack surged straight toward him.

“Master, we'll help fend him off! Run while you can!” with lightning–quick reflexes, his two guards stepped forward and retaliated, sending powerful bursts of energy in Yuri's direction in hopes that Yuri would give up trying to attack Joel.

“Get out of my way!” Yuri bellowed as his aura rose above him, pausing momentarily before hurling another ball of energy toward them!

These two men were just members of Joel's security team and not master warriors at all, so there was no way they would be able to match up against Yuri, who was already at the Intermediate Emperor State!

Unsurprisingly, the two men could not fend themselves against Yuri at all, and were thrown backward by his powerful energy!

However, their efforts were in vain—they successfully managed to stall some precious seconds for Joel's escape!

Joel seized the opportunity to leap out of Yuri's way, sprinting straight toward the inside of the building to call for help!

“Trying to escape? Not so fast!” Yuri sneered. Then, he regrouped his energy into a fist and sent it hurling straight toward Joel's back!

“I'm warning you, Yuri, if you so much as touch a hair on my head, the Hiltons will come for you,” Joel shouted in terror when he sensed Yuri's attack coming straight toward him.

However, something changed at the last possible moment!

“Who dares stir up trouble on my territory?” all of a sudden, someone bellowed from behind them.

Three silhouettes darted out from the darkness, and when they caught sight of the scene that was unfolding, the middle–aged man in the lead immediately unleashed a surge of energy toward Yuri without a moment's hesitation!

“Tsk, just a Semi Almighty Warrior! How dare you show yourself here?” the old man in green that stood behind Yuri all this while suddenly exclaimed, a glimmer of malice flashing through his eyes.

Then, with a swipe of his hand, he sent a powerful burst of energy in retaliation toward the direction of their opponents!

“An Almighty Warrior!” the middle–aged man was horrified by this. He immediately darted backward, giving up on his plan to save Joel altogether, and tried to dodge the green–clothed man's attack as quickly as he could, but it was too late!

Fortunately, his two companions were quick to react and managed to unleash two surges of energy toward the green–clothed man. Together, the three of them managed to overcome his attack just in time!