

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 1910

Chapter 1910

"Haha! Great! Even the gods are on my side!" Seth burst into laughter after learning that the defensive tool Leon possessed might have the strength equivalent to the Peak Emperor State or even higher.

Treasures, special tools, and weapons were extremely hard to come by, especially ones that possessed such enormous power.

If the defensive tool Leon possessed had the strength equivalent to the Peak Emperor State or even higher, it would be merely a step away from being classified as an Almighty Weapon, which made it extremely valuable.

Both Seth and Joel plotted to rob Leon of his treasures in the past, and learning that the item they were aiming for was far more powerful than they imagined filled Seth's heart with excitement.

"Fourth Elder, all of you need to gang up on him! Be sure to take the defensive tool he has and bring it to me!" Seth commanded.

He knew that most weapons could not be used more than three times, and judging from the fights Leon had with Noah and the Fifth Elder, he should be left with one time to use his defensive tool.

Not only was Leon outnumbered, but all the Golans before him were also in the Intermediate Emperor State or above, so there was no doubt in Seth's mind that it would be easy for them to rob Leon of his weapon.

"Yes!" The Golans strode forward and surrounded Leon.

Like Seth, they all assumed that there was a limit to which the tool could be used.

If Leon already reached the Peak Emperor State, it would be difficult for them to defeat Leon, but they all realized that there was nothing to fear since Leon only managed to defeat the Fifth Elder with a tool.

"And you lot think that you have what it takes to steal something from me? Know your places!" Leon scoffed in contempt.

"Enough with your arrogance, brat! Tools like that usually have a limit! It can save you once, but not every single time! You shall pay for coming into our house and hurting our men!" The Fourth Elder narrowed his eyes maliciously.

"Alright, enough with the chit-chat! Come at me, all of you! Don't waste my time!" Leon said proudly.

"How arrogant! You asked for this!"

"If you have a death wish, we shall grant it!"

Enraged by Leon's attitude, the Fourth Elder and the other Golans fired up their power and charged Leon.

They all witnessed the power of Leon's defensive tool and for safety measures, they intended to disable the tool so Leon would be left defenseless.
