

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 1947

Chapter 1947

"Despicable!"

Looking at Leon, Yuri, and the others leaving, Dawn was furious. However, there was nothing she could do.

"Dawn, there's no need to be angry! Leon might have fled this time, but he can't escape forever! Just notify Grandfather and have him send out our family's experts to deal with Leon! Then, we'll be able to kill Leon and Snow and avenge Darius!" Gordon hurriedly walked over and told Dawn.

"Yes, you're right! I will give Grandfather a call right now. I'll ask him to go to the Thompsons to ask for Leon personally!" Dawn realized something.

The Hughes were still one of the major families of the Southern region. Their wealth and power were not that much worse than the Thompsons!

As long as her grandfather went over personally, Yuri would not dare to protect Leon!

"There's no need to go to the Thompsons! Leon's related to the Scammells through Iris. He's probably fled to them right now! As long as grandfather shows up there, there will be no need to go to the Thompsons at all!" Gordon said in a hurry.

He knew that Iris was related to the Scammells, and Leon was Iris' boyfriend!

If there were no surprises, Leon would probably go right to the Scammells after leaving!

"Yes, alright! I'll let Grandfather know right now!" Dawn said. After that, she hurriedly took out her phone to give Alan Hughes a call. After that, she told Alan about how Leon and Snow killed Darius.

When he heard that Darius was killed, Alan was completely shocked. He was quickly overcome by anger!

Then, he immediately summoned the experts from the Hughes and hurried over to Dawn and Gordon. After that, all of them started to head toward the Scammells.

On the other end, after Leon left the villa, he went right to where his car was with Iris and Snow, as well as Darius, who was still on the brink of death.

"Leon, what do we do now? Mister Hughes still seems to be in a bad condition. Are you sure you can cure him?" Snow asked with some worry.

"I am quite confident I can cure him. However, with his current situation, we'd need a five-hundred-year Ganoderma and many more valuable materials! Let's go to see the Scammells first. They might have what I need!" Leon said after some thought.

After that, he opened the door and placed Darius inside. 1

The Scammells were a medical supplier in the southern region, and they had various valuable materials.

However, five hundred-year herbs were incredibly rare, and he specifically needed a Ganoderma. If the Scammells did not have any, then he would not know what to do!

After that, for the sake of safety, he took out his phone to give Damian a call. He wanted to ask Damian and The Scammells to help him prepare what he needed first, so they would not waste any of the valuable time he needed to save Darius!

"Hello Leon, do you need something?" Damian's voice was quickly heard from the other end.

"Uncle, I need a Ganoderma that's about five hundred years old at the moment, and some other valuable materials. Could you help me prepare them?"

Leon started to explain the situation.

"That-"

"Leon, we have everything else that you need. However, we already gave everything that is around five hundred years to you to make the pills a few days ago. We don't have any stock at the moment," Damian said truthfully.
