

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 1956

Chapter 1956

"Brat, you're just too arrogant! Today is the day you die. No one can save you! Just accept your death!" Eliam said coldly.

After that, he wasted no time striking out, preparing to attack Leon and get revenge for Seth!

"Let's see who's the arrogant one!" Yuri shouted. With a wave, he ordered the old man, "Uncle, stop him!"

"Yes!" The old man acknowledged and rushed forward.

An enormous force erupted behind him, and the power of the Almighty State surged out, pressing down toward Eliam and bringing Eliam immense pressure!

"The Almighty State!"

Eliam's expression changed drastically when he felt the tremendous power coming from the old man. He hurriedly stopped his attack.

Even though he was already at the Semi Almighty State and just a sliver away from the Almighty State, they were still separated by a massive gulf!

He knew that he was no match for the old man.

So, he quickly looked at Joel and Sebastian with a pleading look!

"Sixth-Uncle Thompson, are you going to go against the Hiltons?!" Sebastian said coldly as he stepped forward.

The sixth uncle he was referring to was the old man!

It was obvious that he could tell who the old man was. Amongst the strongest of the oldest generation in the Thompsons, he was the sixth, who was second only to the five elders!

"So what if I am?!" The man said calmly.

"Leon crippled Seth this time. He was just too ruthless. It's perfectly reasonable for the Golans to come to him for justice! In the end, this has nothing to do with you! If you try to protect Leon, then we won't hold back even if you're powerful!" Sebastian warned coldly. He tried to take the moral high ground for the matter immediately, finding an excuse for the Hiltons' interference!

At that moment, even if the Hiltons were not afraid of the Thompsons present, it would be hard to deal with anything that came after!

"What? Then let's see if you can do anything to me!" The old man smiled in disdain.

"Very well! You asked for it! Are the Thompsons the only ones with Almighty State martial artists? Do you think we have none?!"

Sebastian was incredibly frustrated. After that, he turned to an old and skinny old man next to him and said, "Uncle, it's up to you now!"

"Alright!" The skinny old man nodded. After that, he walked forward and stood in front of the old man in a green shirt.

"Sixth, it's been a while!" The old man laughed, looking at the old man coldly, giving out a sense of danger!

"It's you!" The old man's expression changed.

They knew that the Thompsons and the Hiltons were tremendously strong forces in the Southern region. He and the other skinny old man were from the same generation.

They immediately recognized who each other was. The skinny old man was one of the five elders of the Hiltons!

"It's not just him here! I'm here too!"

At that moment, there was a cold laugh as an incredibly sharp-looking old man in black clothes walked out.

The aura around him felt incredibly strong and oppressive!

It was obvious he would not be easy to deal with!
