

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2020

Chapter 2020

"Baam!"

Scott's fiery fist shattered the wall before the Poisonwielder, sending rocks and dirt flying in the air toward Oliver and the others, who were then forced to back away.

Taking advantage of the distance, the Poisonwielder charged toward Leon at the speed of lightning.

After observing the earlier exchange, he realized that Leon was the leader of the Dragon Guards from the southern region with extremely high status, so he would be able to apply great damage to the Dragon Corps by killing Leon.

On top of that, Leon exposed the Poisonwielder's plan and countered the effect of his Reaper's Breath, effectively ruining the Poisonwielder's scheme repeatedly.

The Poisonwielder was determined to vent his anger by eliminating Leon before leaving, as his resentment toward Leon reached its peak.

"No! He wants to attack Mister Wolf! Stop him!" Scott immediately noticed the Poisonwielder's intention and was stunned.

He immediately waved off the dirt before them and hurried after the Poisonwielder alongside Oliver and the others.

Since the Poisonwielder was in the Initial Almighty State, he did not fall short in speed and explosive power compared to Scott.

On top of that, he had the element of surprise and despite the others' efforts, none of them could catch up to him while he darted toward Leon.

"Don't you dare!"

Just as the Poisonwielder was about to kill Leon, Fletcher and Randall hurried forward and stood before Leon to stop the Poisonwielder.

The two launched a powerful attack each at the Poisonwielder, which would have taken the Poisonwielder down within an instant if they were in primal states. However, they were both affected by the Reaper's Breath and only managed to suppress the effect of the poison with their power and the mild effect of the Detox paste. 1

Under the effect of the poison, they could barely wield half of their true energy, so the Poisonwielder had no fear of them.

"Get out of my way, old twats!" The Poisonwielder scoffed and extended both his arms in the air, before launching two counterattacks at the same time toward Fletcher and Randall.

"Baam!*

The power of Fletcher and Randall slammed against the Poisonwielder's attack.

The Poisonwielder remained standing, whereas Fletcher and Randall were sent flying into the distance.

A sharp pain pierced through their chests and they instantly spewed blood from their mouths because of the injuries they suffered internally.

However, their effort was not in vain, and because of their interference, Scott, Oliver, and the others were given the chance to catch up to the Poisonwielder.

"Hellish Fiery Punch!" Scott roared before launching his best skill, sending a wave of fiery punches toward the Poisonwielder.

Oliver, Abraham, and the others released their energy as well, allowing it to combine into an extremely powerful strike, before sending it toward the Poisonwielder alongside Scott's Hellish Fiery Punch to eliminate the Poisonwielder. 2
