

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2033

Chapter 2033

"You-"

Poisonwielder widened his eyes and glared at Leon. His body immediately collapsed on the ground as he died!

The worst thing was the fact that he was an expert poison user. His poison skills allowed him to run amok within Sky County, performing all sorts of evil acts without even the Dragon Corps being able to do anything to him!

Yet, he died of the Deadly Veratrum Poison and his poison, ending his life of evil!

It was a deserved death!

Yet, Leon was in no mood to bother with the Poisonwielder. He ingested the white powder as well!

Right after that, he quickly took out an Essential Detox Pill and quickly ingested it!

Even though the Essential Detox Pills were meant for the Reaper's Breath and not for the white powder at all, the Essential Detox Pills were still able to cure many things, they were somewhat effective on the powder!

After that, he started to hit a few of his pressure points, using Ghost Point on the pressure points around his chest. Alongside the Essential Detox Pill, it quickly forced out the poison from his body!

The next moment, he spat out a mouthful of black blood. The poison within his body was completely cleansed!

Right at that moment, he heard some frantic footsteps. Scott, Oliver, and a few others rushed in with anxious looks on their faces.

Earlier, they kept guard outside, and heard some fighting from within!

They were very worried about Leon's safety, so they no longer cared about Leon's order to have them outside as they hurriedly rushed in to look?

"Mister Wolf, are you alright?" They were a bit concerned when they saw the blood around Leon's mouth. Leon' looked to be in a bad state as well, so they hurried forward.

"I'm fine, it's just some minor injuries. I'm alright," Leon said with a smile.

"That's good!"

They breathed out sighs of relief when they heard that.

After that, they seemed to think about something as they immediately went on alert, saying with some alarm, "Mister Wolf, where's Poisonwielder? Where is he? Could he have escaped?"

"No!" Leon pointed at the corpse on the floor, "He's dead!"

"What?"

Scott, Oliver, and the others were shocked. They looked to where Leon was pointing, finally seeing Poisonwielder's dead body!

"It looks like this is Poisonwielder's hideout!"

Scott and Oliver were stunned!

They were quite skeptical, not sure about how Leon so easily found Poisonwielder's hideout and wondering if Leon was mistaken!

Yet, it was evident that Leon spoke the truth!

It caught them off guard!

"Alright, this is great!"

"Mister Wolf, I can't believe you've already killed Poisonwielder!"

"You're amazing!"

Scott, Oliver, and the others were all elated after they recovered from their shock.

They all saw Poisonwielder's skills. He was incredibly hard to deal with!

They thought that there would be a bitter battle when Leon found Poisonwielder!

So, they already prepared themselves to support Leon!

Yet, they never expected that the notorious Poisonwielder would have fallen to Leon so easily before they could even do anything!

It was just unbelievable!

Suddenly, they found themselves in complete shock, and they were all in awe of Leon!
