

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2056

Chapter 2056

"Who's that guy?"

"Aren't the girls around him just too beautiful?!"

"All of them look like generational beauties!"

Seeing Leon and the girls around him, many of the scions of the major families could not help but gasp at the beauty of the girls. All of them looked at Leon with admiration and jealousy!

During Cynthion Group's first sales drive, Leon was hid behind the scenes. Many of them never met Leon, and did not know who Leon was!

Other than that, Leon was quite young, and he looked very unfamiliar. It was obvious that he was no one significant among the younger generation of the southern region!

Yet, someone insignificant like that was surrounded by so many beauties. All of them were as beautiful as fairies, and stood at the top of the southern region when it came to their looks!

Suddenly, all of them admired the position Leon was in. They wanted nothing more than to pull Leon aside and take his place!

Leon remained firm at the killing intent coming from anyone's eyes, not caring about it at all.

Before this, he stayed behind the scenes because he was still not strong enough. He was worried that he would attract too much attention and trouble!

However, the situation was already different!

His skills were already at the level where he could challenge those at the Almighty State. He was already capable of defending himself against the major ancient martial arts families!

Furthermore, the Southern Boss and the Hiltons already guessed that he has the chairman of Cynthion Group!

Since that was the case, he no longer needed to stay behind the scenes!

So, he deliberately appeared to greet the guests this time, planning on personally hosting the sales drive. He planned on seeing if he could take the opportunity to recruit a few Semi Almighty or Almighty State experts under his umbrella!

Then, the issue with the security within Cynthion Group and Elegante would be greatly improved!

Just as Leon was deep in thought, some footsteps were heard. Raphael was with an impressive-looking old man and a few middle-aged men as they walked over.

"Mister Wolf, it's been a while!" Raphael smiled as he got closer, greeting Leon.

"Yes, Mister Westwood, we haven't met in some time!" Leon smiled and answered.

"Mister Wolf, let me introduce you. This is my grandfather. Grandpa, this is my friend, Leon Wolf," Raphael did some brief introductions, wanting to introduce that genius to his grandfather.

"Elder Westwood, hello. It's a pleasure to meet you."

Leon was quite friendly with Raphael, and Dennis Westwood was Raphael's grandfather. So, he made sure to greet Dennis politely.

"Yes," Dennis glanced at Leon and nodded an answer.

Leon was just a regular friend of Raphael's, and he did not look like anyone important!

With his status as the head of the Westwoods, there was no way he would bother with Leon!

"Grandfather, Mister Wolf is the chairman of Cynthion Group!"

Seeing that Dennis seemed to be looking down on Leon, Raphael hesitated for a moment before he threw out a massive bomb!

He was Leon's first friend in the southern region, and he was Roanne's cousin as well. He knew a lot about Leon, and knew that Cynthion Group belonged to Leon!

He did not plan on revealing the fact so easily, but Leon already stepped out from the shadows to personally attend the event. It was obvious that Leon no longer planned on continuing to remain hidden!

So he took advantage of the chance to reveal who Leon was!
