The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2062

Chapter 2062

"You-"

Arthur's expression soured when he saw that the Southern Boss and Devon were working together.

The Spears and the Hiltons were both major families in the Southern region. They were not that much worse than the Thompsons!

If it was just one of them, the Thompsons would not be afraid at all!

However, the Southern Boss and Devon were both working to pressure him. No matter how powerful the Thompsons were, there was no way the Thompsons would be able to go one against two!

"It's done for now!"

"Leon offended the Southern Boss and the Hiltons at the same time. He sure is capable!"

"That's right, there's no escaping from yourself. Even the Thompsons won't be able to protect him now!"

Seeing that everyone around them shook their heads and sighed. Some of them felt like Leon deserved it, while others felt sympathy and pity.

After all, Leon was so young, but he managed to establish Cynthion Group. He really was a rare genius!

Yet, someone like Leon was going to fall to the Southern Boss and the Hiltons!

It was quite a pity!

However, before they could even finish their thoughts, something that shocked them happened again!

"You don't have to give yourself excuses to commit crimes! Old Hiltons, Mister Wolf is a noble and morally upright person! Yet, you called him wretched and violent! You Hiltons are shameless!"

A mocking voice was suddenly heard.

Right after that, Alan and Darius Hughes both appeared. Behind them were a few experts from their families. They walked right over.

"Mister Wolf, it's been awhile!"

When they got close, Alan and Darius greeted Leon.

Darius in particular looked incredibly thankful.

Back when he got poisoned by Gordon with Deadly Veratrum Poison, Leon did everything he could to save Darius!

That was something Darius could never repay!

He would never forget it!

"Old Hughes, it's you again!"

Devon's expression sank when he saw Alan appear. His smile completely disappeared.

In the Scammell courtyard, Devon personally appeared to deal with Leon, but Alan and Angus appeared to stop him, causing his plans to completely fail!

Devon and the southern Boss were working to pressure the Thompsons, and it looked like they were gaining the advantage. They could even take the chance to get rid of Leon!_____

No one expected Alan to suddenly appear!

It was obvious how he would feel!

"Elder Hughes, what is the meaning of this? Are you going to protect Leon just like the Thompsons are?!' The Southern Boss frowned. He had an uncertain look on his face.

He was different from Devon. Devon, Joel, and the others knew about how Leon saved Darius, but he did not!

So, he was a bit confused. He did not know why Leon would protect Leon for no reason! i

"Of course, we owe Leon a lot! Whether it's your Spears or the Hiltons, anyone who wants to do anything to him will have to get past us!" Alan said coldly. His tone was very firm, leaving no room for doubt!

"You!"

The Southern Boss' heart sank when he heard that.

He knew about Leon's background!

He learned from Charlie that Leon was just distantly related to the Scammells, and he was someone insignificant from Springfield City!

Yet, it was because of that, that he never bothered with Leon at all!

Yet, that ant in his eyes did not only manage to get close to the Thompsons but even the Hughes!

It completely shattered what he thought of Leon! 2

Suddenly, even the southern Boss could not help but be shocked at Leon's capabilities. He could not understand how Leon managed to do it!
