

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2114

Chapter 2114

"Hide your name? That won't be necessary! Don't worry, Henry. Just stay by my side and I'll handle the Scarlet Thief!" Leon said casually.

"What?! That won't do!" Henry gasped in shock.

Realizing that Leon might not have a realistic idea of how powerful the people on the criminal list were, he said hastily, "Mister Wolf, you might not know this, but the Scarlet Thief is formerly referred to as the Single Eye Scarlet Thief and Scarlet Thief is just the short form of that! He's ruthless and vindictive, so he won't spare anyone who gets in his way! If I work for you with my real name, he will hunt you down as well!"

"Is that so? Don't worry, Henry! I've no concerns about getting involved. My only concern's that the Scarlet Thief might remain in the dark instead of showing his face!" Leon sneered maliciously.

It was easier to face an attack that was directed at him when he could see it coming. Since he already took Henry, he would have to eliminate the Scarlet Thief as soon as possible.

Leon wanted Henry to work for him using his own name and to draw the Scarlet Thief out so that he could get rid of the Scarlet Thief once and for all.

If he continued to let the Scarlet Thief remain in the dark, it would be dangerous as he did not know when the Scarlet Thief might decide to make a move on Henry.

"Leon, do you plan on drawing the Scarlet Thief out and killing alongside the members of the Dragon Corps?" Iris came to realize what Leon was plotting.

Like the others, Iris did not think that Leon was powerful enough to kill the Scarlet Thief either and figured that he might want to use Henry as bait, before ambushing the Scarlet Thief alongside the Dragon Guards.

She could not think of any other possibility and did not know that she was only partially correct.

Leon did plan to lure the Scarlet Thief out, but he was powerful enough to deal with the Scarlet Thief on his own and there was no need to seek the help of the Dragon Corps.

"Mister Wolf, you can't! If you wish to work with the Dragon Corps, I suggest that you give up! I had the same idea once, but the Scarlet Thief is far too cunning and I wouldn't fall for it!" Henry shook his head without hesitation.

The eight criminals on the criminal lists were all wanted by the Dragon Corps as eliminating threats to the community was part of the Dragon Corps' duty.

When Henry was being hunted by the Scarlet Thief, he sought the help of the southern region branch of the Dragon Corps and his request was accepted right away.

Using himself as bait, the Dragon Guards waited close by to trap the Scarlet Thief, but the Scarlet Thief did not show up at all after sensing that there were others in the area.

In the end, all of Henry's hard work went to waste.

Since the resources of the Dragon Corps were limited, they could not afford to waste too much time on Henry and had to retreat in the end, while Henry went back to running for his life alongside his granddaughter.
