

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2164

Chapter 2164

"Sir, that's right! However, don't forget. Leon's no slouch either. He doesn't just have a protective treasure, he also has those poisoned needles! With his abilities, on top of Henry being at the Almighty State, the three of them might have accidentally fallen for some trap. It's not outside the realm of possibility," The Second Guardian said seriously.

"That-"

The southern Boss and everyone else fell silent at that.

The Southern Boss in particular finally recalled that they were not just dealing with Henry, who was at the Almighty State, there was also Leon, who was full of tricks!

Even though he felt like Leon was not that strong, he learned from the Hiltons that Leon's protective treasure is very possibly at the Semi Almighty State!

Furthermore, Leon had his poisoned needles as well!

With Leon's poisoned needles and his treasure, the Fifth and Sixth Guardians, who were at the Semi Almighty State, might not be able to do anything to Leon!

On top of that, the Third Guardian might not be a match for Henry!

Comparatively, the guardians might not have had a chance at all!

It was no wonder that the Third Guardian, the Fifth Guardian, and the Sixth Guardian failed to kill Leon!

Other than that, he knew that the Third Guardian's men did not know that Leon had an Almighty State expert with him.

They were completely defenseless. The Third Guardian and his men probably underestimated their opponents and fell to Leon and Henry.

That was very possible!

"Second Guardian, based on what you say, this has nothing to do with the Thompsons, right?" The Southern Boss asked.

He thought that the Third Guardian and the others getting caught was done by the Thompsons.

However, at that moment, it seemed like the Second Guardian's analysis made sense. The three of them might have felled to Leon and Henry!

It had nothing to do with the Thompsons, so he could have blamed them wrongly!

"Yes, that's right! The Fourth Guardian and I have already looked into it. When Cynthion Group's sales drive ended, everyone from the Thompsons left. The Thompsons never mobilized anyone to protect Leon in secret either. We can assure you, the Thompsons had nothing to do with it!" The Second Guardian said confidently.

Initially, he and the Fourth Guardian thought that the Thompsons were related to the Third Guardian's Group being caught!

So, they purposely looked into the Thompsons!

However, it was clear that the Thompsons had nothing to do with it at all!

Otherwise, if the Thompsons mobilized a few Almighty State experts to protect Leon in secret, there was no way something so big would have eluded their ears!

"Very good! It looks like the Third Guardian's Group failed out of Leon and Henry's doing! How dare Henry help Leon against me! I guess he's already tired of living!" The Southern Boss said furiously.

He found out that the matter had nothing to do with the Thompsons, and he was already sure that the Third Guardian's group almost definitely fell to Leon and Henry!

There were no other possibilities!

On the other hand, Leon and Henry did not only catch the Third Guardian's group, they even sent them to the Dragon Corps, costing him three capable men!

Suddenly he deeply hated Leon and Henry. He wanted nothing more than to rip the two of them apart to soothe his hatred!
