

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2199

Chapter 2199

"Great! The Scarlet Thief is finally dead!"

"We have avenged our families!"

Henry and Chandler burst into tearful laughter at the same time.

The Scarlet Thief had killed their families, and Leon managed to uphold justice for them, so their hearts were instantly filled with great joy.

Sherlyn, who stood behind them, was also as excited.

Her parents died at the hands of the Scarlet Thief years ago, and she could still remember the sight of them dying in agony.

Tears welled in her eyes at the thought that her parents were finally being avenged. She could not help but sob in joy.

Henry and Chandler snapped out of it shortly after and fell onto their knees before Leon.

Sherlyn followed their lead and took a few steps forward before kneeling as well.

"What are you guys doing? Get up!" Leon was caught by surprise and hurried over to help them up.

"Mister Wolf, thank you for killing the Scarlet Thief and avenging us! We don't even know how we can ever repay our debt to you. Please allow us to show our respect!" Henry bowed his head toward Leon respectfully.

Chandler and Sherlyn both followed Henry's lead and bowed toward Leon as well.

"Henry, you don't have to thank me! The Scarlet Thief had committed countless crimes in the past. Anyone would want to get rid of him! I merely fulfilled my duty as a member of the community. You don't have to be so grateful about it..." Lon smiled.

All eight criminals on the criminal list were known to be ruthless and had committed heinous crimes.

Leon was a righteous and upstanding man. He would have done his best to kill anyone that was on the criminal list when given the chance.

Indeed, after eliminating Asmodeus and Poisonwielder, the Scarlet Thief was the third criminal that Leon had taken out.

"Regardless, Mister Wolf, you've avenged us, and I will do anything to repay your kindness!" Henry said.

After what had happened, he was even more determined to follow and serve Leon for the rest of his life.

"Henry is right! Mister Wolf, there's nothing I can do that can match up to what you've done for us! From now on, if you want something, just say the word, and I'll heed your orders even at the cost of my life!" Chandler said sincerely.

'Even at the cost of your life? There's no need for that! Chandler, I want you to join Cynthion Group. Can you do that for me?" Leon asked.

"Of course! As long as you're fine with my age and the fact that I need a crutch to move around, I'm more than willing to work for you!" Chandler nodded without hesitation.

He had only rejected Leon's invitation before because he wanted to focus on his training to seek revenge on the Scarlet Thief. On top of that, he was also worried that he might trouble Leon and the Cynthion Group if he joined the company.

Not only did Leon cure Chandler's legs, but he also killed the Scarlet Thief.

Without anything holding him back, there was no longer any reason for Chandler to refuse to work for Cynthion Group.
