Chapter 2227

Chapter 2227

"Angus, we can't take this lightly! Before this escalates any further, you need to get Roanne to move back in," Arthur said.

Arthur knew that Roanne was moving in with Leon, but since that was a decision made by Angus, Arthur did not intervene.

However, since this already began to affect the Thompsons' reputation, Arthur could not stand idly by.

"Um, alright!" Angus nodded and turned to look at Roanne." Roanne, go pack up and move out of Mister Wolfs place before our reputation suffer any further,"

"What?! No way!" Roanne was shocked.

She requested to move in with Leon's house because she wanted to train with Leon and the others, and also because she developed feelings for Leon and wanted to stay with him.

She only managed to move in with Leon for a day, and Angus was already asking her to move out.

"Why not? Roanne, Leon already has a girlfriend, so it's inappropriate for you to live with him. Since rumors are already spreading, your honor will be questioned if you don't move back in with us as soon as possible," Angus said hastily.

"Yeah! Roanne, for the sake of our reputation, you should move back in," Arthur said.

"I don't want to. Dad, nothing is going on between me and Leon. I don't care what other people think, besides, I'm not the only one living with him. Cynthia and Snow live there as well. So, why can't I stay there?" Roanne pouted.

"That's ridiculous! How are you the same as those women? You're the eldest unwed daughter of this family. Your every move represents us! If you continue to live with Leon, the Thompsons will become the laughingstock of the entire southern region!" Angus said sternly.

"But," Roanne did not want to give up and was about to argue when Angus interrupted her.

"That's enough! It's settled!" Angus said.

"How can this happen?" Tears welled in Roanne's eyes and she was devastated.

"Hang on!" Yuri said, "Dad, let me finish. There's more to the story."

"There's more? What is it?" Angus and Arthur turned their attention to Yuri.
