

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2240

Chapter 2240

"He's an idiot/ Joel could not help but sneer in secret when he heard what Yonas said.

Just like Rodney, he guessed that Yonas was able to get to the intermediate Emperor State thanks to Cynthion Group's Supreme Pure Energy Pill and Cleansing Pill!

It was all thanks to Leon, and not because Yonas was capable.

In the end, whether it was in terms of talent or ability, Yonas was far behind Yuri!

It was a pipe dream for him to want to take the place of the heir over from Yuri!

Of course, he was planning on sowing discord in the Thompsons through Yonas, so the less intelligent Yonas was, the better!

It was perfect for him!

"Mister Thompson, I think you have a lot of potential. You're more suited to be the heir than Yuri! It's just that it might not be enough for you to rely on your potential and ability to go against Yuri," Joel said firmly.

"Oh? What else do I need?" Yonas asked curiously.

"You need some ability in business! Business is the foundation of ancient martial arts families. It controls the fate of a family! Only by having some skill in business will you be able to topple Yuri as the heir of the family," Joel said seriously.

"Business?" Yonas was thoughtful.

"That's right! Take Yuri for instance. To solidify his position, Angus invested in Elegante to establish some foundations for Yuri. With Elegante behind him, he seems like a much better candidate than you.

Of course, he did not know that Angus invested in Elegante as a gift to Roanne. It had nothing to do with Yuri!

However, what he did not know would not hurt him!

Joel's goal was to drive a wedge between Yonas and the first line of descendants. Even if Angus acted for Roanne, it was not important!

"What? When did my uncle invest in Elegante? How did I not know about this?!" Yonas was shocked to hear that.

The hottest company in the southern regions at that moment was Cynthion Group!

However, Elegante stood in second place!

The last time, Joel schemed against Elegante and ended up being foiled by Leon. Not only did Leon manage to get Elegante out of a rough spot, but it also attracted a lot of media attention as well. Elegante's name was quickly spread all over!

Many of the richer circles in the region heard of the company, and Yonas was no exception!

He knew that Elegante was a new company, and was also a cosmetics company founded by Leon!

However, he did not know that Angus invested in the company and that Roanne was a shareholder!

"Mister Thompson, forgive me for being straightforward, but Angus invested in the company to solidify Yuri's position as the heir of the family! You are Yuri's biggest competition. He naturally needs to be on guard against you. There's no way he would tell you something like this/ Joel said, twisting the truth.

"Despicable! My uncle and Yuri sure are sly!" Yonas' expression darkened. He believed in Joel's words!
