

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2273

Chapter 2273

"Following orders?!!" Yonas was furious, but there was nothing he could do!

"Yonas, are you done with your nonsense now?! If you have any last words, now is the time for you to say it! Otherwise, you won't get the chance anymore!" Rodney said with a mocking smile.

"Rodney, what are you and Joel trying to do?!" Yonas held back his anger as he said. He could not understand why Joel and Rodney told him the truth just like that.

"It's simple! I heard from Fifi that you were injured by Leon. I came over to send you off," Rodney said with a sinister smile.

"Send me off? What do you mean?" Yonas looked uncertain when he heard that.

"Mister Spears means that we're going to send you to hell!" Joel added.

"What?"

Those words were like a bomb that almost blasted Yonas away!

Right after that, he quickly thought about something, and he managed to regain his calm!

"Rodney, Joel, you cant scare me like that! I am a direct descendant of the Thompsons. My family won't let the two of you off if you dare to kill me!" Yonas said.

The Thompsons were at the head of all the major families in the southern region. Their power and influence were incomparable!

Whether it was the Spears or the Hiltons, neither of them could stand up against the Thompsons!

As a direct descendant, if Rodney and Joel killed him, then his grandfather and the Thompsons would spare nothing to destroy the Spears and the Hiltons for the sake of revenge!

Those consequences were not something Joel or Rodney could bear!

He knew that the two of them were smart people. There was no way they would do something so stupid!

"Yes, you're right. The Thompsons would never forgive the person who killed you! However, the one who killed you is Leon. It isn't me or Joel! When you fought with Leon in Elegante, you were heavily injured by Leon! Leon went too far, and your injuries got worst. You ended up dying! Then, even if the Thompsons was revenge for you, they would be looking for Leon. There's no way the two of us will be blamed!" Rodney said with a sneer.

As he said that, both Rodney and Joel exchanged a look before they laughed!

Plans did change as things went!

They planned on using Yoans to split the Thompsons or ruin Leon's relationship with the Thompsons!

However, fate was on their side. The plan went even better than either of them thought!

Yonas was just too stupid, and Leon refused to give an inch. He ended up injuring Yonas quite badly!

So, the two of them changed their minds, planning on killing Yonas and framing Leon for it!

Then, Leon would have accidentally 'slipped up' and killed Yonas. The Thompsons would not forgive Leon for it, and would do everything in their power to kill Leon for the sake of revenge!

That way, they did not even need to do anything to get rid of Leon!

On the other hand, Rodney was defeated by Yonas at the club that day. He was embarrassed in public!

Rodney would naturally not stomach that!

So, he deliberately revealed the truth to Yonas and explained their plan to him!

It was so he could toy with Yonas and make sure Yonas felt fear and despair before he died. That would be revenge for what happened that night!
