

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2281

Chapter 2281

"What?!"

Leon stood up in shock when he heard that.

Even though he had already guessed the reason for Arthur and the others being there, he knew that Arthur had always been someone with a great sense of honor. Furthermore, Angus and Roanne's family was very close to him.

Yonas had been the one behaving dishonorably, and he was also the one who came for Leon!

Even if Yonas got hurt, he definitely deserved it!

With his understanding of Arthur and Angus' character, they would probably not blame him!

Yet, he never expected that things would play out this far beyond his expectations!

To protect Yonas, Arthur had forced his way into Elegante with his men. His words were harsh as well, as if Arthur was there to punish Leon for Leon's crimes!

It caught him completely off guard!

"Come! I'll go with you to see what's the matter!" Leon said as he walked right outside.

Iris and Snow were quite worried as well, so they followed along!

There was a large space in front of the company's office building.

At that moment, Chandler had stopped Arthur and the others with a few of the company's guards he was with.

Both sides were stuck in a standoff.

"Elder Thompson, why did you and your family barge into our company?" Chandler asked.

He was from the same generation as Arthur, and Arthur was famous as the head of the Thompsons. He was someone that stood at the top of the southern region and was known by practically everyone in the martial world!

Chandler would obviously be able to recognize Arthur!

"Where's Leon? Have him come out to die right now!" Arthur said coldly. His murderous intent was constantly surging out from his eyes.

Chandler was a wandering warrior who liked to keep a low profile. Even though Arthur did not know who Chandler was, he could still tell from Chandler's steady footsteps and aura that Chandler was definitely a very powerful martial artist!

So, he had the Thompsons stay back, no longer continuing forward.

"I'm here!"

At that moment, Leon's voice cut through the air. He walked over with Iris, Snow, and Mason.

"Elder Thompson, what's the meaning of this? Do all of you really think that I'm such a pushover?!" Leon met Arthur's gaze without any fear as he got closer. He had an unhappy look on his face.

Yonas had been the one to barge into Elegante, acting like a tyrant bandit. He had even slapped Iris in the face!

Nevertheless, at that very moment, Arthur was leading his own men into Elegante, and even saying that they wanted to kill Leon!

It was quite a hard pill to swallow!

There was no way Leon would be happy about that!

"Leon, it's really bad. Yonas died..." Roanne hurriedly told Leon before Arthur could say anything.

"What?!"

Leon was shocked to hear that. He was completely taken aback by that news!
