

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2294

Chapter 2294

"Don't worry, Elder Thompson! I have some experience in the medical field. All I need is to see Mister Yonas's wound, so there's no need for me to cut him open," Leon said with a smile.

"I see. Very well. Mister Wolf, please follow me. I'll take you to Yonas's body."

Arthur instantly relaxed upon learning that Yonas's body would not be cut open and led the three Dragon Guards out of the guest room, and into the main hall.

In the main hall, Yonas's body was currently being placed in an ice coffin.

Arthur commanded two other members of the family to open the coffin and Leon swiftly went over to lift Yonas's eyelids, before touching his chest to begin the examination.

Shortly after, he found something and his expression darkened.

"Mister Wolf, how is it? Have you found anything?" Arthur asked.

"Yeah, I did! Mister Yonas has taken a second blow to the chest by someone of tremendous power. His entire internal circulation was damaged because of his second blow and that's what caused him to die," Leon explained.

Leon never truly believed that he was the one who killed

Yonas, and now that he found out Yonas took a second damage to his fatal wound, Leon's belief that someone else killed Yonas was confirmed.

No matter who the murderer was, Fiona was involved.

"What?!" Both Arthur and August were stunned.

"Mister Wolf, can there be a mistake? Back when Finlay checked on Yonas, he said that Yonas's wound on the chest worsened and that's what caused him to die. How can there be a second damage? If that is the case, why didn't Finlay figure it out?" August snapped out of it and asked in disbelief.

Both August and Arthur firmly believed that Leon was the person who led to Yonas's death mainly because of the diagnosis Finlay made.

However, the Dragon Corps seemed to have a different insight.

If Yonas truly took a second blow to his injury and the person who did it skilfully damaged his circulation, Leon was likely, not responsible.

The result shocked the two and they felt stricken.

"I'm not mistaken! If this Finlay didn't make an accurate diagnosis, that just means that he is inexperienced!" Leon said.

"No way! Mister Wolf, forgive me, but Finlay is famously known as the best doctor in this area. He is experienced and shouldn't make such a mistake. You don't seem like a professional doctor to me. I suggest that the Dragon Corps send over a doctor to examine Yonas once again," August said gingerly as he questioned Leon's skills.

He did not know the extent of Leon's capability, so he naturally believed in Finlay's diagnosis over Leon's.

Arthur thought the same and did not feel convinced by Leon's words.
