

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2301

Chapter 2301

"It's quite simple. Since the Southern Boss and his son, Rodney, have disregarded the principles of the community by viciously targeting Mister Yonas and cunningly framing me. Since that's the case, there's no need for me to be polite with them," Leon declared with a deep voice, a glint of sharp killing intent flashing in his eyes.

Until now, he was clueless about the identity of the killer, and no matter how skilled he was, he had no way to act. However, he now deduced that Rodney was the mastermind behind it all.

If he could not find Fiona and clear his name, he would forcefully confront Rodney.

With his current invincible strength in Intermediate Almighty State, he might not be a match for the Southern Boss, but capturing Rodney would not pose many difficulties.

Rodney was the true culprit behind Yonas's murder, and once Leon captured him and interrogated him thoroughly, he would extract the truth, thus proving Leon's innocence.

Conversely, if Rodney remained stubborn and refused to cooperate, Leon would simply kill him, causing the downfall of both the Southern Boss and the Spears.

To sum it up, the Southern Boss repeatedly sent people to assassinate him, trying to bring him to his demise, and now they escalated their malicious schemes to frame him.

At this moment, Leon finally lost his patience. Since the Southern Boss and his son stooped so low, disregarding any sense of honor, Leon would fight fire with fire and use despicable means to deal with Rodney.

"What?" After listening to Leon's explanation, Angus and Yuri were astonished.

"Mister Wolf, you mustn't act rashly! The Southern Boss and the Spears have immense power. You won't be able to contend with them!" Angus regained his senses and hurriedly spoke up.

He knew the strength and influence of the Southern Boss; Even the Thompsons would not dare to casually provoke the Southern Boss and his son without evidence to prove their involvement in the murder, let alone Leon, a young junior with no power or influence.

If Leon dared to forcefully apprehend Rodney or harm him, it would be a suicide mission and Angus refused to simply watch Leon walk down a path of self-destruction.

"Uncle Angus, the grudge between the Southern Boss, Rodney, and I run deep. They have repeatedly tried to bring me to my demise to seize control of Cynthion Group. Even if I swallow my pride, do you think they would spare me?" Leon sneered dismissively, his expression indifferent.

"Well," Angus was at a loss for words, unable to offer a response.

He knew that Leon was right.

Cynthion Group grew to hold tremendous profit and influence, and for someone as ambitious as the Southern Boss, Cynthion Group was something that he must obtain.

Even if Leon managed to survive one of the Southern Boss's schemes, the Southern Boss would never stop.

"Since he doesn't plan on letting me live, there's no point in me hiding any longer! Besides, he can't take me out that easily!" Leon sneered.

Though the Southern Boss was powerful, Leon was no longer a nobody who could be easily bullied like he was before.

His overall strength reached the Intermediate Almighty State with countless tricks up his sleeves, so the Southern Boss might not be able to do much to him even if he killed Rodney.

However, the Southern Boss and the Spears were still extremely powerful and Leon had to worry about the safety of the women in his household.

If he truly killed Rodney, he would be forced to leave the southern region and all the hard work he put in for Cynthion Group and Elegante Group would go to waste.

This was merely the worst scenario and Leon did not intend on making such an extreme move until he had absolutely no choice.
