

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 231

Read The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 231 – Guido's face was etched with despair as fear surged through his entire body.

The color drained from both Ashwin and Michael's faces, and their hearts sank when they realized what happened.

Neither of them could understand why everything changed so abruptly. Things were going so well before, but Stanley's shifted allegiance ruined their plans!

The worse part was, what if Guido decided to betray them and expose their involvement in this to Iris?

"Tell me who ordered you to do this?" Iris was even more outraged to discover that other people besides Guido were behind this.

"It's "Guido instinctively glanced in Ashwin and Michael's direction, but when he caught sight of the murderous look in their eyes, he perked up and stopped himself from saying anything further.

"Tell me who is it, quick! If you don't want to say anything, I'll call the cops right now and let them arrest you under a fiscal offense!" Iris spat.

"It's..." Guido could not help shuddering when he heard this. He knew full well the extent of the Youngs' power, and if Iris were to hand him over to the police, his life would be ruined!

Seeing that Guido was about to snap under Iris's pressure, Michael immediately knew that there was no other way out of this.

He took a step forward in Iris's direction and got on both his knees. "It was me, Miss Young! I was the one who ordered Mister Boyd to do this!" he declared.

Since there was no going back from this, he was willing to shoulder all the blame on his own to protect Ashwin.

After all, he would rather only one of them get in trouble than both!

Besides, Ashwin was an influential character in the business world, and he was certain that Ashwin owing him a favor would come in handy in the future.

Even if Iris fired him right then and there, Ashwin would probably be able to find him a new job easily!

"It was you? How dare you, Michael!" Iris was fuming at this point.

Michael fell silent. He knew that no amount of explaining would be able to change his fate, so he decided to keep quiet.

After all, this was what he deserved.

"Keep your head on, Iris. Michael and Mister Boyd are about the same level, so I don't think he'd be able to order Mister Boyd around just like this. I'm certain that there is someone else behind all this!" Ariel said, sneering. Then, she glanced meaningfully at Ashwin, who was still cowering behind Michael.

She knew that Ashwin and Leon had their differences and that Ashwin was deliberately trying to trip Leon up all this while. Therefore, she did not need to be a genius to figure out Ashwin was probably the mastermind behind this!

However, this was just her speculation, and so she did not want to accuse anyone without concrete evidence yet.

Iris seemed to realize this too, so she quickly regained her composure and added, "Michael, tell me who ordered you to do this!"

"No one did! This was all my idea!" Michael replied as calmly as he could.

Ashwin let out a small sigh of relief when he heard this and immediately shot Michael a grateful glance.

"You" Ariel was beginning to get frustrated. She knew there was more to this, but the fact that Michael refused to spill the beans annoyed her greatly.

"Why did you do this to Leon, Michael?" Iris asked, staring coldly at Michael.

The truth was, she was having the same suspicions as Ariel, but since this whole event was beginning to spiral out of control, she decided it was more sensible to take care of this matter right then and there.

"That's because Leon is Ariel's boyfriend! Everyone in the company knows that I have a crush on her, and I only stand a chance with her if I first get rid of all my competitors!"
