

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2319

Chapter 2319

"What?!" Angus and the others were stunned.

They all hoped that Leon would escape, so that they could retreat, but to their bewilderment, Leon refused to run and claimed that he would kill the Southern Boss.

Everyone at the scene was shaken to their core.

"How insolent! Let's see if your strength matches your arrogance! Die!" Enraged by Leon's speech, the Southern Boss laughed and leaped into the air, before darting toward Leon, preparing to crush Leon with a single move.

"It's over!" Angus's and the Thompsons' hearts sank.

They all knew that the Southern Boss was in the Advanced Almighty State, and even Arthur was slightly more powerful than the Southern Boss; if even Arthur would struggle to kill the Southern Boss, Leon would be powerless.

None of them thought that Leon had what it took to defend himself from the Southern Boss's attack, let alone kill the Southern Boss.

They did not know what made Leon provoke the Southern Boss into attacking him, and they all thought that the Southern Boss would kill Leon with a single blow.

"Bring it on!" Contrary to the others' concern, Leon scoffed confidently and placed his hand into his pocket, preparing to kill the Southern Boss with the Potential Energy Force he possessed.

Just as Leon was about to wield the Potential Energy Force, a roar filled the air. "Stop!"

Arthur, along with Yuri and dozens of Thompsons, strode in.

It became clear that Yuri managed to convince Arthur into coming to help.

However, since the Southern Boss and the Spears all blocked the mansion's entrance with their cars, Yuri, Arthur and the others could only travel into the mansion on foot.

When Arthur stormed in to find the Southern Boss launching an attack on Leon, he immediately waved his arm, sending a tremendous surge of energy toward the Southern Boss.

"Damn it!" The Southern Boss paled when he sensed the attack behind his back. Instantly, he was forced to give up on killing Leon and leaped aside to evade Arthur's attack.

Leon instantly lost sight of the Southern Boss and knew that his chance of killing the Southern Boss with the Potential Energy Force would be slimmer, so he paused in his action.

"Damn it! Arthur Thompson, it's you!" The Southern Boss turned around and his expression instantly darkened when he spotted Arthur.

The Spears were already winning and the Southern Boss was certain he was extremely close to killing Leon.

To his surprise, Arthur hurried over and saved Leon at the very last moment, and it caught him off guard.

Naturally, what he did not know was that Arthur's sudden appearance saved his life, as he would have been dead by now if he faced Leon's Potential Energy Force directly.
