

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2323

Chapter 2323

"Elder Thompsons, you said that Rodney was the one who killed Yonas! Did you and Leon see that happen, or do you have some kind of evidence? Do not make any false accusation when you don't have anything to support your claim!" The Southern Boss said coldly.

"So what if we don't have any evidence? Rodney admitted to it! Why would we need evidence?" Arthur said in a sinister tone.

"Of course, you need evidence! Rodney merely fell into Leon's trap and said the wrong thing! That doesn't mean anything! Leon is the one who killed Yonas and he only set Rodney up to frame Rodney for his crime! Don't fall for it!" The Southern Boss said.

He knew that Rodney did not leave any trace behind when he killed Yonas, so he refused to take the blame without putting up a fight since the Thompsons had no proof of anything.

"Why you!" Arthur was furious as he never saw someone so shameless in his life, who would refuse to admit his own e to this extent.

"You mustn't vent your anger on innocent people! Elder Thompson, Leon is the one who killed Yonas, and there is evidence supporting that! If you are worried about Angus and don't want to avenge Yonas yourself, I can help you with that! Once I kill Leon and obtain Cynthion Group, I can hand half of the profit I gain to the Thompsons! With the Spears and the Thompsons on the same side, we will rule over the southern region together forever long! That's hardly a bad idea!" The Southern Boss attempted to convince Arthur into backing down with profit.

He knew that Cynthion Group had great potential and the Thompsons would restore their former glory if they obtained part of the share of Cynthion Group, which would only be beneficial to them.

Every man who walked the earth had to prioritize their best interest and the Southern Boss was confident that with enough temptation on the line, Arthur might be convinced to give up so that he could eliminate Leon and take Cynthion Group easily.

Anything was better than having to face a war up against the entire Thompsons, but if Arthur refused to accept his offer, the Southern Boss would not lose anything in return either

"Dream on! Southern Boss, the Thompsons are not vicious like you, who can do anything for profit! The Thompsons are far better than that, so don't bother wasting your time!" Arthur roared.

The Thompsons were a respected clan and would never sell Leon over gain no matter how tempting the Southern Boss made it sound.

On top of that, since the Southern Boss and Rodney were the culprits who killed Yonas, Arthur would never work with them.

"Very well! Elder Thompson, I've given you a chance. Since you won't take it, don't blame me for what I'm about to do! I'm going to kill every last one of you, including Leon!" The Southern Boss said viciously.

He wanted to lure Arthur into changing his mind to prevent a war and severe loss on both ends. However, since Arthur refused to fall for it, the Southern Boss decided that he could only risk everything to eliminate the Thompsons and Leon. i
